1 Kings 6:12 “Concerning this house that you are building, if you will walk in my statutes, obey my ordinances, and keep all my commandments by walking in them, then I will establish my promise with you, which I made to your father David.

1 Kings 6:13 I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel.”

1 Kings 6:14 So Solomon built the house, and finished it.

1 Kings 6:15 He lined the walls of the house on the inside with boards of cedar; from the floor of the house to the rafters of the ceiling, he covered them on the inside with wood; and he covered the floor of the house with boards of cypress.

1 Kings 6:16 He built twenty cubits of the rear of the house with boards of cedar from the floor to the rafters, and he built this within as an inner sanctuary, as the most holy place.

1 Kings 6:17 The house, that is, the nave in front of the inner sanctuary, was forty cubits long.

1 Kings 6:18 The cedar within the house had carvings of gourds and open flowers; all was cedar, no stone was seen.

1 Kings 6:19 The inner sanctuary he prepared in the innermost part of the house, to set there the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

1 Kings 6:20 The interior of the inner sanctuary was twenty cubits long, twenty cubits wide, and twenty cubits high; he overlaid it with pure gold. He also overlaid the altar with cedar.

1 Kings 6:21 Solomon overlaid the inside of the house with pure gold, then he drew chains of gold across, in front of the inner sanctuary, and overlaid it with gold.

1 Kings 6:22 Next he overlaid the whole house with gold, in order that the whole house might be perfect; even the whole altar that belonged to the inner sanctuary he overlaid with gold.

1 Kings 6:23 In the inner sanctuary he made two cherubim of olivewood, each ten cubits high.

1 Kings 6:24 Five cubits was the length of one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the length of the other wing of the cherub; it was ten cubits from the tip of one wing to the tip of the other.

1 Kings 6:25 The other cherub also measured ten cubits; both cherubim had the same measure and the same form.

1 Kings 6:26 The height of one cherub was ten cubits, and so was that of the other cherub.

1 Kings 6:27 He put the cherubim in the innermost part of the house; the wings of the cherubim were spread out so that a wing of one was touching the one wall, and a wing of the other cherub was touching the other wall; their other wings toward the center of the house were touching wing to wing.

1 Kings 6:28 He also overlaid the cherubim with gold.

1 Kings 6:29 He carved the walls of the house all around about with carved engravings of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers, in the inner and outer rooms.

1 Kings 6:30 The floor of the house he overlaid with gold, in the inner and outer rooms.

1 Kings 6:31 For the entrance to the inner sanctuary he made doors of olivewood; the lintel and the doorposts were five-sided.

1 Kings 6:32 He covered the two doors of olivewood with carvings of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers; he overlaid them with gold, and spread gold on the cherubim and on the palm trees.

1 Kings 6:33 So also he made for the entrance to the nave doorposts of olivewood, four-sided each,

1 Kings 6:34 and two doors of cypress wood; the two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding.

1 Kings 6:35 He carved cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers, overlaying them with gold evenly applied upon the carved work.

1 Kings 6:36 He built the inner court with three courses of dressed stone to one course of cedar beams.

1 Kings 6:37 In the fourth year the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid, in the month of Ziv.

1 Kings 6:38 In the eleventh year, in the month of Bul, which is the eighth month, the house was finished in all its parts, and according to all its specifications. He was seven years in building it.

1 Kings 7:1 Solomon was building his own house thirteen years, and he finished his entire house.

1 Kings 7:2 He built the House of the Forest of the Lebanon one hundred cubits long, fifty cubits wide, and thirty cubits high, built on four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams on the pillars.

1 Kings 7:3 It was roofed with cedar on the forty-five rafters, fifteen in each row, which were on the pillars.

1 Kings 7:4 There were window frames in the three rows, facing each other in the three rows.

1 Kings 7:5 All the doorways and doorposts had four-sided frames, opposite, facing each other in the three rows.

1 Kings 7:6 He made the Hall of Pillars fifty cubits long and thirty cubits wide. There was a porch in front with pillars, and a canopy in front of them.

1 Kings 7:7 He made the Hall of the Throne where he was to pronounce judgment, the Hall of Justice, covered with cedar from floor to floor.

1 Kings 7:8 His own house where he would reside, in the other court back of the hall, was of the same construction. Solomon also made a house like this hall for Pharaoh’s daughter, whom he had taken in marriage.

1 Kings 7:9 All these were made of costly stones, cut according to measure, sawed with saws, back and front, from the foundation to the coping, and from outside to the great court.

1 Kings 7:10 The foundation was of costly stones, huge stones, stones of eight and ten cubits.

1 Kings 7:11 There were costly stones above, cut to measure, and cedarwood.

1 Kings 7:12 The great court had three courses of dressed stone to one layer of cedar beams all around; so had the inner court of the house of the LORD, and the vestibule of the house.

1 Kings 7:14 He was the son of a widow of the tribe of Naphtali, whose father, a man of Tyre, had been an artisan in bronze; he was full of skill, intelligence, and knowledge in working bronze. He came to King Solomon, and did all his work.

1 Kings 7:15 He cast two pillars of bronze. Eighteen cubits was the height of the one, and a cord of twelve cubits would encircle it; the second pillar was the same.

1 Kings 7:16 He also made two capitals of molten bronze, to set on the tops of the pillars; the height of the one capital was five cubits, and the height of the other capital was five cubits.

1 Kings 7:17 There were nets of checker work with wreaths of chain work for the capitals on the tops of the pillars; seven for the one capital, and seven for the other capital.

1 Kings 7:18 He made the columns with two rows around each latticework to cover the capitals that were above the pomegranates; he did the same with the other capital.

1 Kings 7:19 Now the capitals that were on the tops of the pillars in the vestibule were of lily-work, four cubits high.

1 Kings 7:20 The capitals were on the two pillars and also above the rounded projection that was beside the latticework; there were two hundred pomegranates in rows all around; and so with the other capital.

1 Kings 7:21 He set up the pillars at the vestibule of the temple; he set up the pillar on the south and called it Jachin; and he set up the pillar on the north and called it Boaz.

1 Kings 7:22 On the tops of the pillars was lily-work. Thus the work of the pillars was finished.

1 Kings 7:23 Then he made the molten sea; it was round, ten cubits from brim to brim, and five cubits high. A line of thirty cubits would encircle it completely.

1 Kings 7:24 Under its brim were panels all around it, each of ten cubits, surrounding the sea; there were two rows of panels, cast when it was cast.

1 Kings 7:25 It stood on twelve oxen, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, and three facing east; the sea was set on them. The hindquarters of each were toward the inside.

1 Kings 7:26 Its thickness was a handbreadth; its brim was made like the brim of a cup, like the flower of a lily; it held two thousand baths.

1 Kings 7:27 He also made the ten stands of bronze; each stand was four cubits long, four cubits wide, and three cubits high.

1 Kings 7:28 This was the construction of the stands: they had borders; the borders were within the frames;

1 Kings 7:29 on the borders that were set in the frames were lions, oxen, and cherubim. On the frames, both above and below the lions and oxen, there were wreaths of beveled work.

1 Kings 7:30 Each stand had four bronze wheels and axles of bronze; at the four corners were supports for a basin. The supports were cast with wreaths at the side of each.

1 Kings 7:31 Its opening was within the crown whose height was one cubit; its opening was round, as a pedestal is made; it was a cubit and a half wide. At its opening there were carvings; its borders were four-sided, not round.

1 Kings 7:32 The four wheels were underneath the borders; the axles of the wheels were in the stands; and the height of a wheel was a cubit and a half.

1 Kings 7:33 The wheels were made like a chariot wheel; their axles, their rims, their spokes, and their hubs were all cast.

1 Kings 7:34 There were four supports at the four corners of each stand; the supports were of one piece with the stands.

1 Kings 7:35 On the top of the stand there was a round band half a cubit high; on the top of the stand, its stays and its borders were of one piece with it.

1 Kings 7:36 On the surfaces of its stays and on its borders he carved cherubim, lions, and palm trees, where each had space, with wreaths all around.

1 Kings 7:37 In this way he made the ten stands; all of them were cast alike, with the same size and the same form.

1 Kings 7:38 He made ten basins of bronze; each basin held forty baths, each basin measured four cubits; there was a basin for each of the ten stands.

1 Kings 7:39 He set five of the stands on the south side of the house, and five on the north side of the house; he set the sea on the southeast corner of the house.

1 Kings 7:40 Hiram also made the pots, the shovels, and the basins. So Hiram finished all the work that he did for King Solomon on the house of the LORD:

1 Kings 7:41 the two pillars, the two bowls of the capitals that were on the tops of the pillars, the two latticeworks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the tops of the pillars;

1 Kings 7:42 the four hundred pomegranates for the two latticeworks, two rows of pomegranates for each latticework, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the pillars;

1 Kings 7:43 the ten stands, the ten basins on the stands;

1 Kings 7:44 the one sea, and the twelve oxen underneath the sea.

1 Kings 7:45 The pots, the shovels, and the basins, all these vessels that Hiram made for King Solomon for the house of the LORD were of burnished bronze.

1 Kings 7:46 In the plain of the Jordan the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarethan.

1 Kings 7:47 Solomon left all the vessels unweighed, because there were so many of them; the weight of the bronze was not determined.

1 Kings 7:48 So Solomon made all the vessels that were in the house of the LORD: the golden altar, the golden table for the bread of the Presence,

1 Kings 7:49 the lampstands of pure gold, five on the south side and five on the north, in front of the inner sanctuary; the flowers, the lamps, and the tongs, of gold;

1 Kings 7:50 the cups, snuffers, basins, dishes for incense, and firepans, of pure gold; the sockets for the doors of the innermost part of the house, the most holy place, and for the doors of the nave of the temple, of gold.

1 Kings 7:51 Thus all the work that King Solomon did on the house of the LORD was finished. Solomon brought in the things that his father David had dedicated, the silver, the gold, and the vessels, and stored them in the treasuries of the house of the LORD.

1 Kings 8:1 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the leaders of the ancestral houses of the Israelites, before King Solomon in Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion.

1 Kings 8:2 All the people of Israel assembled to King Solomon at the festival in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month.

1 Kings 8:3 And all the elders of Israel came, and the priests carried the ark.

1 Kings 8:4 So they brought up the ark of the LORD, the tent of meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the tent; the priests and the Levites brought them up.

1 Kings 8:5 King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, who had assembled before him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing so many sheep and oxen that they could not be counted or numbered.

1 Kings 8:6 Then the priests brought the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, in the inner sanctuary of the house, in the most holy place, underneath the wings of the cherubim.

1 Kings 8:7 For the cherubim spread out their wings over the place of the ark, so that the cherubim made a covering above the ark and its poles.

1 Kings 8:8 The poles were so long that the ends of the poles were seen from the holy place in front of the inner sanctuary; but they could not be seen from outside; they are there to this day.

1 Kings 8:9 There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets of stone that Moses had placed there at Horeb, where the LORD made a covenant with the Israelites, when they came out of the land of Egypt.

1 Kings 8:10 And when the priests came out of the holy place, a cloud filled the house of the LORD,

1 Kings 8:11 so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud; for the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD.

1 Kings 8:12 Then Solomon said, “The LORD has said that he would dwell in thick darkness.

1 Kings 8:13 I have built you an exalted house, a place for you to dwell in forever.”

1 Kings 8:14 Then the king turned around and blessed all the assembly of Israel, while all the assembly of Israel stood.

1 Kings 8:15 He said, “Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who with his hand has fulfilled what he promised with his mouth to my father David, saying,

1 Kings 8:16 ‘Since the day that I brought my people Israel out of Egypt, I have not chosen a city from any of the tribes of Israel in which to build a house, that my name might be there; but I chose David to be over my people Israel.’

1 Kings 8:17 My father David had it in mind to build a house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

1 Kings 8:18 But the LORD said to my father David, 'You did well to consider building a house for my name;

1 Kings 8:19 nevertheless you shall not build the house, but your son who shall be born to you shall build the house for my name.'

1 Kings 8:20 Now the LORD has upheld the promise that he made; for I have risen in the place of my father David; I sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

1 Kings 8:21 There I have provided a place for the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD that he made with our ancestors when he brought them out of the land of Egypt."

1 Kings 8:22 Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread out his hands to heaven.

1 Kings 8:23 He said, "O LORD, God of Israel, there is no God like you in heaven above or on earth beneath, keeping covenant and steadfast love for your servants who walk before you with all their heart,

1 Kings 8:24 the covenant that you kept for your servant my father David as you declared to him; you promised with your mouth and have this day fulfilled with your hand.

1 Kings 8:25 Therefore, O LORD, God of Israel, keep for your servant my father David that which you promised him, saying, 'There shall never fail you a successor before me to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your children look to their way, to walk before me as you have walked before me.'

1 Kings 8:26 Therefore, O God of Israel, let your word be confirmed, which you promised to your servant my father David.

1 Kings 8:27 "But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Even heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain you, much less this house that I have built!

1 Kings 8:28 Regard your servant's prayer and his plea, O LORD my God, heeding the cry and the prayer that your servant prays to you today;

1 Kings 8:29 that your eyes may be open night and day toward this house, the place of which you said, 'My name shall be there,' that you may heed the prayer that your servant prays toward this place.

1 Kings 8:30 Hear the plea of your servant and of your people Israel when they pray toward this place; O hear in heaven your dwelling place; heed and forgive.

1 Kings 8:31 "If someone sins against a neighbor and is given an oath to swear, and comes and swears before your altar in this house,

1 Kings 8:32 then hear in heaven, and act, and judge your servants, condemning the guilty by bringing their conduct on their own head, and vindicating the righteous by rewarding them according to their righteousness.

1 Kings 8:33 “When your people Israel, having sinned against you, are defeated before an enemy but turn again to you, confess your name, pray and plead with you in this house,

1 Kings 8:34 then hear in heaven, forgive the sin of your people Israel, and bring them again to the land that you gave to their ancestors.

1 Kings 8:35 “When heaven is shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against you, and then they pray toward this place, confess your name, and turn from their sin, because you punish them,

1 Kings 8:36 then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of your servants, your people Israel, when you teach them the good way in which they should walk; and grant rain on your land, which you have given to your people as an inheritance.

1 Kings 8:37 “If there is famine in the land, if there is plague, blight, mildew, locust, or caterpillar; if their enemy besieges them in any of their cities; whatever plague, whatever sickness there is;

1 Kings 8:38 whatever prayer, whatever plea there is from any individual or from all your people Israel, all knowing the afflictions of their own hearts so that they stretch out their hands toward this house;

1 Kings 8:39 then hear in heaven your dwelling place, forgive, act, and render to all whose hearts you know— according to all their ways, for only you know what is in every human heart—

1 Kings 8:40 so that they may fear you all the days that they live in the land that you gave to our ancestors.

1 Kings 8:41 “Likewise when a foreigner, who is not of your people Israel, comes from a distant land because of your name

1 Kings 8:42 —for they shall hear of your great name, your mighty hand, and your outstretched arm— when a foreigner comes and prays toward this house,

1 Kings 8:43 then hear in heaven your dwelling place, and do according to all that the foreigner calls to you, so that all the peoples of the earth may know your name and fear you, as do your people Israel, and so that they may know that your name has been invoked on this house that I have built.

1 Kings 8:44 “If your people go out to battle against their enemy, by whatever way you shall send them, and they pray to the LORD toward the city that you have chosen and the house that I have built for your name,

1 Kings 8:45 then hear in heaven their prayer and their plea, and maintain their cause.

1 Kings 8:46 “If they sin against you— for there is no one who does not sin— and you are angry with them and give them to an enemy, so that they are carried away captive to the land of the enemy, far off or near;

1 Kings 8:47 yet if they come to their senses in the land to which they have been taken captive, and repent, and plead with you in the land of their captors, saying, 'We have sinned, and have done wrong; we have acted wickedly';

1 Kings 8:48 if they repent with all their heart and soul in the land of their enemies, who took them captive, and pray to you toward their land, which you gave to their ancestors, the city that you have chosen, and the house that I have built for your name;

1 Kings 8:49 then hear in heaven your dwelling place their prayer and their plea, maintain their cause

1 Kings 8:50 and forgive your people who have sinned against you, and all their transgressions that they have committed against you; and grant them compassion in the sight of their captors, so that they may have compassion on them

1 Kings 8:51 (for they are your people and heritage, which you brought out of Egypt, from the midst of the iron-smelter).

1 Kings 8:52 Let your eyes be open to the plea of your servant, and to the plea of your people Israel, listening to them whenever they call to you.

1 Kings 8:53 For you have separated them from among all the peoples of the earth, to be your heritage, just as you promised through Moses, your servant, when you brought our ancestors out of Egypt, O Lord GOD."

1 Kings 8:54 Now when Solomon finished offering all this prayer and this plea to the LORD, he arose from facing the altar of the LORD, where he had knelt with hands outstretched toward heaven;

1 Kings 8:55 he stood and blessed all the assembly of Israel with a loud voice:

1 Kings 8:56 "Blessed be the LORD, who has given rest to his people Israel according to all that he promised; not one word has failed of all his good promise, which he spoke through his servant Moses.

1 Kings 8:57 The LORD our God be with us, as he was with our ancestors; may he not leave us or abandon us,

1 Kings 8:58 but incline our hearts to him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, his statutes, and his ordinances, which he commanded our ancestors.

1 Kings 8:59 Let these words of mine, with which I pleaded before the LORD, be near to the LORD our God day and night, and may he maintain the cause of his servant and the cause of his people Israel, as each day requires;

1 Kings 8:60 so that all the peoples of the earth may know that the LORD is God; there is no other.

1 Kings 8:61 Therefore devote yourselves completely to the LORD our God, walking in his statutes and keeping his commandments, as at this day.”

1 Kings 8:62 Then the king, and all Israel with him, offered sacrifice before the LORD.

1 Kings 8:63 Solomon offered as sacrifices of well-being to the LORD twenty-two thousand oxen and one hundred twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD.

1 Kings 8:64 The same day the king consecrated the middle of the court that was in front of the house of the LORD; for there he offered the burnt offerings and the grain offerings and the fat pieces of the sacrifices of well-being, because the bronze altar that was before the LORD was too small to receive the burnt offerings and the grain offerings and the fat pieces of the sacrifices of well-being.

1 Kings 8:65 So Solomon held the festival at that time, and all Israel with him— a great assembly, people from Lebo-hamath to the Wadi of Egypt— before the LORD our God, seven days.

1 Kings 8:66 On the eighth day he sent the people away; and they blessed the king, and went to their tents, joyful and in good spirits because of all the goodness that the LORD had shown to his servant David and to his people Israel.

1 Kings 9:1 When Solomon had finished building the house of the LORD and the king’s house and all that Solomon desired to build,

1 Kings 9:2 the LORD appeared to Solomon a second time, as he had appeared to him at Gibeon.

1 Kings 9:3 The LORD said to him, “I have heard your prayer and your plea, which you made before me; I have consecrated this house that you have built, and put my name there forever; my eyes and my heart will be there for all time.

1 Kings 9:4 As for you, if you will walk before me, as David your father walked, with integrity of heart and uprightness, doing according to all that I have commanded you, and keeping my statutes and my ordinances,

1 Kings 9:5 then I will establish your royal throne over Israel forever, as I promised your father David, saying, ‘There shall not fail you a successor on the throne of Israel.’

1 Kings 9:6 “If you turn aside from following me, you or your children, and do not keep my commandments and my statutes that I have set before you, but go and serve other gods and worship them,

1 Kings 9:7 then I will cut Israel off from the land that I have given them; and the house that I have consecrated for my name I will cast out of my sight; and Israel will become a proverb and a taunt among all peoples.

1 Kings 9:8 This house will become a heap of ruins; everyone passing by it will be astonished, and will hiss; and they will say, 'Why has the LORD done such a thing to this land and to this house?'

1 Kings 9:9 Then they will say, 'Because they have forsaken the LORD their God, who brought their ancestors out of the land of Egypt, and embraced other gods, worshiping them and serving them; therefore the LORD has brought this disaster upon them.'"

1 Kings 9:10 At the end of twenty years, in which Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD and the king's house,

1 Kings 9:11 King Hiram of Tyre having supplied Solomon with cedar and cypress timber and gold, as much as he desired, King Solomon gave to Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.

1 Kings 9:12 But when Hiram came from Tyre to see the cities that Solomon had given him, they did not please him.

1 Kings 9:13 Therefore he said, "What kind of cities are these that you have given me, my brother?" So they are called the land of Cabul to this day.

1 Kings 9:14 But Hiram had sent to the king one hundred twenty talents of gold.

1 Kings 9:15 This is the account of the forced labor that King Solomon conscripted to build the house of the LORD and his own house, the Millo and the wall of Jerusalem, Hazor, Megiddo, Gezer

1 Kings 9:16 (Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up and captured Gezer and burned it down, had killed the Canaanites who lived in the city, and had given it as dowry to his daughter, Solomon's wife;

1 Kings 9:17 so Solomon rebuilt Gezer), Lower Beth-horon,

1 Kings 9:18 Baalath, Tamar in the wilderness, within the land,

1 Kings 9:19 as well as all of Solomon's storage cities, the cities for his chariots, the cities for his cavalry, and whatever Solomon desired to build, in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

1 Kings 9:20 All the people who were left of the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of the people of Israel—

1 Kings 9:21 their descendants who were still left in the land, whom the Israelites were unable to destroy completely— these Solomon conscripted for slave labor, and so they are to this day.

1 Kings 9:22 But of the Israelites Solomon made no slaves; they were the soldiers, they were his officials, his commanders, his captains, and the commanders of his chariotry and cavalry.

1 Kings 9:23 These were the chief officers who were over Solomon’s work: five hundred fifty, who had charge of the people who carried on the work.

1 Kings 9:24 But Pharaoh’s daughter went up from the city of David to her own house that Solomon had built for her; then he built the Millo.

1 Kings 9:25 Three times a year Solomon used to offer up burnt offerings and sacrifices of well-being on the altar that he built for the LORD, offering incense before the LORD. So he completed the house.

1 Kings 9:26 King Solomon built a fleet of ships at Ezion-geber, which is near Eloth on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom.

1 Kings 9:27 Hiram sent his servants with the fleet, sailors who were familiar with the sea, together with the servants of Solomon.

1 Kings 9:28 They went to Ophir, and imported from there four hundred twenty talents of gold, which they delivered to King Solomon.

1 Kings 10:1 When the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon (fame due to the name of the LORD), she came to test him with hard questions.

1 Kings 10:2 She came to Jerusalem with a very great retinue, with camels bearing spices, and very much gold, and precious stones; and when she came to Solomon, she told him all that was on her mind.

1 Kings 10:3 Solomon answered all her questions; there was nothing hidden from the king that he could not explain to her.

1 Kings 10:4 When the queen of Sheba had observed all the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built,

1 Kings 10:5 the food of his table, the seating of his officials, and the attendance of his servants, their clothing, his valets, and his burnt offerings that he offered at the house of the LORD, there was no more spirit in her.

1 Kings 10:6 So she said to the king, “The report was true that I heard in my own land of your accomplishments and of your wisdom,

1 Kings 10:7 but I did not believe the reports until I came and my own eyes had seen it. Not even half had been told me; your wisdom and prosperity far surpass the report that I had heard.

1 Kings 10:8 Happy are your wives! Happy are these your servants, who continually attend you and hear your wisdom!

1 Kings 10:9 Blessed be the LORD your God, who has delighted in you and set you on the throne of Israel! Because the LORD loved Israel forever, he has made you king to execute justice and righteousness.”

1 Kings 10:10 Then she gave the king one hundred twenty talents of gold, a great quantity of spices, and precious stones; never again did spices come in such quantity as that which the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

1 Kings 10:11 Moreover, the fleet of Hiram, which carried gold from Ophir, brought from Ophir a great quantity of almug wood and precious stones.

1 Kings 10:12 From the almug wood the king made supports for the house of the LORD, and for the king's house, lyres also and harps for the singers; no such almug wood has come or been seen to this day.

1 Kings 10:13 Meanwhile King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba every desire that she expressed, as well as what he gave her out of Solomon's royal bounty. Then she returned to her own land, with her servants.

1 Kings 10:14 The weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred sixty-six talents of gold,

1 Kings 10:15 besides that which came from the traders and from the business of the merchants, and from all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the land.

1 Kings 10:16 King Solomon made two hundred large shields of beaten gold; six hundred shekels of gold went into each large shield.

1 Kings 10:17 He made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three minas of gold went into each shield; and the king put them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon.

1 Kings 10:18 The king also made a great ivory throne, and overlaid it with the finest gold.

1 Kings 10:19 The throne had six steps. The top of the throne was rounded in the back, and on each side of the seat were arm rests and two lions standing beside the arm rests,

1 Kings 10:20 while twelve lions were standing, one on each end of a step on the six steps. Nothing like it was ever made in any kingdom.

1 Kings 10:21 All King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were of pure gold; none were of silver— it was not considered as anything in the days of Solomon.

1 Kings 10:22 For the king had a fleet of ships of Tarshish at sea with the fleet of Hiram. Once every three years the fleet of ships of Tarshish used to come bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.

1 Kings 10:23 Thus King Solomon excelled all the kings of the earth in riches and in wisdom.

1 Kings 10:24 The whole earth sought the presence of Solomon to hear his wisdom, which God had put into his mind.

1 Kings 10:25 Every one of them brought a present, objects of silver and gold, garments, weaponry, spices, horses, and mules, so much year by year.

1 Kings 10:26 Solomon gathered together chariots and horses; he had fourteen hundred chariots and twelve thousand horses, which he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem.

1 Kings 10:27 The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedars as numerous as the sycamores of the Shephelah.

1 Kings 10:28 Solomon's import of horses was from Egypt and Kue, and the king's traders received them from Kue at a price.

1 Kings 10:29 A chariot could be imported from Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for one hundred fifty; so through the king's traders they were exported to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Aram.

1 Kings 11:1 King Solomon loved many foreign women along with the daughter of Pharaoh: Moabite, Ammonite, Edomite, Sidonian, and Hittite women,

1 Kings 11:2 from the nations concerning which the LORD had said to the Israelites, "You shall not enter into marriage with them, neither shall they with you; for they will surely incline your heart to follow their gods"; Solomon clung to these in love.

1 Kings 11:3 Among his wives were seven hundred princesses and three hundred concubines; and his wives turned away his heart.

1 Kings 11:4 For when Solomon was old, his wives turned away his heart after other gods; and his heart was not true to the LORD his God, as was the heart of his father David.

1 Kings 11:5 For Solomon followed Astarte the goddess of the Sidonians, and Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.

1 Kings 11:6 So Solomon did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and did not completely follow the LORD, as his father David had done.

1 Kings 11:7 Then Solomon built a high place for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, and for Molech the abomination of the Ammonites, on the mountain east of Jerusalem.

1 Kings 11:8 He did the same for all his foreign wives, who offered incense and sacrificed to their gods.

1 Kings 11:9 Then the LORD was angry with Solomon, because his heart had turned away from the LORD, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice,

1 Kings 11:10 and had commanded him concerning this matter, that he should not follow other gods; but he did not observe what the LORD commanded.

1 Kings 11:11 Therefore the LORD said to Solomon, "Since this has been your mind and you have not kept my covenant and my statutes that I have commanded you, I will surely tear the kingdom from you and give it to your servant.

1 Kings 11:12 Yet for the sake of your father David I will not do it in your lifetime; I will tear it out of the hand of your son.

1 Kings 11:13 I will not, however, tear away the entire kingdom; I will give one tribe to your son, for the sake of my servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem, which I have chosen."

1 Kings 11:14 Then the LORD raised up an adversary against Solomon, Hadad the Edomite; he was of the royal house in Edom.

1 Kings 11:15 For when David was in Edom, and Joab the commander of the army went up to bury the dead, he killed every male in Edom

1 Kings 11:16 (for Joab and all Israel remained there six months, until he had eliminated every male in Edom);

1 Kings 11:17 but Hadad fled to Egypt with some Edomites who were servants of his father. He was a young boy at that time.

1 Kings 11:18 They set out from Midian and came to Paran; they took people with them from Paran and came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave him a house, assigned him an allowance of food, and gave him land.

1 Kings 11:19 Hadad found great favor in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him his sister-in-law for a wife, the sister of Queen Tahpenes.

1 Kings 11:20 The sister of Tahpenes gave birth by him to his son Genubath, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house; Genubath was in Pharaoh's house among the children of Pharaoh.

1 Kings 11:21 When Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his ancestors and that Joab the commander of the army was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Let me depart, that I may go to my own country."

1 Kings 11:22 But Pharaoh said to him, "What do you lack with me that you now seek to go to your own country?" And he said, "No, do let me go."

1 Kings 11:23 God raised up another adversary against Solomon, Rezon son of Eliada, who had fled from his master, King Hadadezer of Zobah.

1 Kings 11:24 He gathered followers around him and became leader of a marauding band, after the slaughter by David; they went to Damascus, settled there, and made him king in Damascus.

1 Kings 11:25 He was an adversary of Israel all the days of Solomon, making trouble as Hadad did; he despised Israel and reigned over Aram.

1 Kings 11:26 Jeroboam son of Nebat, an Ephraimite of Zeredah, a servant of Solomon, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow, rebelled against the king.

1 Kings 11:27 The following was the reason he rebelled against the king. Solomon built the Millo, and closed up the gap in the wall of the city of his father David.

1 Kings 11:28 The man Jeroboam was very able, and when Solomon saw that the young man was industrious he gave him charge over all the forced labor of the house of Joseph.

1 Kings 11:29 About that time, when Jeroboam was leaving Jerusalem, the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him on the road. Ahijah had clothed himself with a new garment. The two of them were alone in the open country

1 Kings 11:30 when Ahijah laid hold of the new garment he was wearing and tore it into twelve pieces.

1 Kings 11:31 He then said to Jeroboam: Take for yourself ten pieces; for thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, “See, I am about to tear the kingdom from the hand of Solomon, and will give you ten tribes.

1 Kings 11:32 One tribe will remain his, for the sake of my servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city that I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel.

1 Kings 11:33 This is because he has forsaken me, worshiped Astarte the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of Moab, and Milcom the god of the Ammonites, and has not walked in my ways, doing what is right in my sight and keeping my statutes and my ordinances, as his father David did.

1 Kings 11:34 Nevertheless I will not take the whole kingdom away from him but will make him ruler all the days of his life, for the sake of my servant David whom I chose and who did keep my commandments and my statutes;

1 Kings 11:35 but I will take the kingdom away from his son and give it to you— that is, the ten tribes.

1 Kings 11:36 Yet to his son I will give one tribe, so that my servant David may always have a lamp before me in Jerusalem, the city where I have chosen to put my name.

1 Kings 11:37 I will take you, and you shall reign over all that your soul desires; you shall be king over Israel.

1 Kings 11:38 If you will listen to all that I command you, walk in my ways, and do what is right in my sight by keeping my statutes and my commandments, as David my servant did, I will be with you, and will build you an enduring house, as I built for David, and I will give Israel to you.

1 Kings 11:39 For this reason I will punish the descendants of David, but not forever.”

1 Kings 11:40 Solomon sought therefore to kill Jeroboam; but Jeroboam promptly fled to Egypt, to King Shishak of Egypt, and remained in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

1 Kings 11:41 Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, all that he did as well as his wisdom, are they not written in the Book of theActs of Solomon?

1 Kings 11:42 The time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years.

1 Kings 11:43 Solomon slept with his ancestors and was buried in the city of his father David; and his son Rehoboam succeeded him.

1 Kings 12:1 Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king.

1 Kings 12:2 When Jeroboam son of Nebat heard of it (for he was still in Egypt, where he had fled from King Solomon), then Jeroboam returned from Egypt.

1 Kings 12:3 And they sent and called him; and Jeroboam and all the assembly of Israel came and said to Rehoboam,

1 Kings 12:4 “Your father made our yoke heavy. Now therefore lighten the hard service of your father and his heavy yoke that he placed on us, and we will serve you.”

1 Kings 12:5 He said to them, “Go away for three days, then come again to me.” So the people went away.

1 Kings 12:6 Then King Rehoboam took counsel with the older men who had attended his father Solomon while he was still alive, saying, “How do you advise me to answer this people?”

1 Kings 12:7 They answered him, “If you will be a servant to this people today and serve them, and speak good words to them when you answer them, then they will be your servants forever.”

1 Kings 12:8 But he disregarded the advice that the older men gave him, and consulted with the young men who had grown up with him and now attended him.

1 Kings 12:9 He said to them, “What do you advise that we answer this people who have said to me, ‘Lighten the yoke that your father put on us’?”

1 Kings 12:10 The young men who had grown up with him said to him, “Thus you should say to this people who spoke to you, ‘Your father made our yoke heavy, but you must lighten it for us’; thus you should say to them, ‘My little finger is thicker than my father’s loins.

1 Kings 12:11 Now, whereas my father laid on you a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke. My father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions.’“

1 Kings 12:12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had said, “Come to me again the third day.”

1 Kings 12:13 The king answered the people harshly. He disregarded the advice that the older men had given him

1 Kings 12:14 and spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, “My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions.”

1 Kings 12:15 So the king did not listen to the people, because it was a turn of affairs brought about by the LORD that he might fulfill his word, which the LORD had spoken by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam son of Nebat.

1 Kings 12:16 When all Israel saw that the king would not listen to them, the people answered the king, “What share do we have in David? We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse. To your tents, O Israel! Look now to your own house, O David.” So Israel went away to their tents.

1 Kings 12:17 But Rehoboam reigned over the Israelites who were living in the towns of Judah.

1 Kings 12:18 When King Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was taskmaster over the forced labor, all Israel stoned him to death. King Rehoboam then hurriedly mounted his chariot to flee to Jerusalem.

1 Kings 12:19 So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

1 Kings 12:20 When all Israel heard that Jeroboam had returned, they sent and called him to the assembly and made him king over all Israel. There was no one who followed the house of David, except the tribe of Judah alone.

1 Kings 12:21 When Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin, one hundred eighty thousand chosen troops to fight against the house of Israel, to restore the kingdom to Rehoboam son of Solomon.

1 Kings 12:22 But the word of God came to Shemaiah the man of God:

1 Kings 12:23 Say to King Rehoboam of Judah, son of Solomon, and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people,

1 Kings 12:24 “Thus says the LORD, You shall not go up or fight against your kindred the people of Israel. Let everyone go home, for this thing is from me.” So they heeded the word of the LORD and went home again, according to the word of the LORD.

1 Kings 12:25 Then Jeroboam built Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and resided there; he went out from there and built Penuel.

1 Kings 12:26 Then Jeroboam said to himself, “Now the kingdom may well revert to the house of David.

1 Kings 12:27 If this people continues to go up to offer sacrifices in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, the heart of this people will turn again to their master, King Rehoboam of Judah; they will kill me and return to King Rehoboam of Judah.”

1 Kings 12:28 So the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold. He said to the people, “You have gone up to Jerusalem long enough. Here are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt.”

1 Kings 12:29 He set one in Bethel, and the other he put in Dan.

1 Kings 12:30 And this thing became a sin, for the people went to worship before the one at Bethel and before the other as far as Dan.

1 Kings 12:31 He also made houses on high places, and appointed priests from among all the people, who were not Levites.

1 Kings 12:32 Jeroboam appointed a festival on the fifteenth day of the eighth month like the festival that was in Judah, and he offered sacrifices on the altar; so he did in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves that he had made. And he placed in Bethel the priests of the high places that he had made.

1 Kings 12:33 He went up to the altar that he had made in Bethel on the fifteenth day in the eighth month, in the month that he alone had devised; he appointed a festival for the people of Israel, and he went up to the altar to offer incense.

1 Kings 13:1 While Jeroboam was standing by the altar to offer incense, a man of God came out of Judah by the word of the LORD to Bethel

1 Kings 13:2 and proclaimed against the altar by the word of the LORD, and said, “O altar, altar, thus says the LORD: ‘A son shall be born to the house of David, Josiah by name; and he shall sacrifice on you the priests of the high places who offer incense on you, and human bones shall be burned on you.’“

1 Kings 13:3 He gave a sign the same day, saying, “This is the sign that the LORD has spoken: ‘The altar shall be torn down, and the ashes that are on it shall be poured out.’“

1 Kings 13:4 When the king heard what the man of God cried out against the altar at Bethel, Jeroboam stretched out his hand from the altar, saying, “Seize him!” But the hand that he stretched out against him withered so that he could not draw it back to himself.

1 Kings 13:5 The altar also was torn down, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign that the man of God had given by the word of the LORD.

1 Kings 13:6 The king said to the man of God, “Entreat now the favor of the LORD your God, and pray for me, so that my hand may be restored to me.” So the man of God entreated the LORD; and the king’s hand was restored to him, and became as it was before.

1 Kings 13:7 Then the king said to the man of God, “Come home with me and dine, and I will give you a gift.”

1 Kings 13:8 But the man of God said to the king, “If you give me half your kingdom, I will not go in with you; nor will I eat food or drink water in this place.

1 Kings 13:9 For thus I was commanded by the word of the LORD: You shall not eat food, or drink water, or return by the way that you came.”

1 Kings 13:10 So he went another way, and did not return by the way that he had come to Bethel.

1 Kings 13:11 Now there lived an old prophet in Bethel. One of his sons came and told him all that the man of God had done that day in Bethel; the words also that he had spoken to the king, they told to their father.

1 Kings 13:12 Their father said to them, “Which way did he go?” And his sons showed him the way that the man of God who came from Judah had gone.

1 Kings 13:13 Then he said to his sons, “Saddle a donkey for me.” So they saddled a donkey for him, and he mounted it.

1 Kings 13:14 He went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak tree. He said to him, “Are you the man of God who came from Judah?” He answered, “I am.”

1 Kings 13:15 Then he said to him, “Come home with me and eat some food.”

1 Kings 13:16 But he said, “I cannot return with you, or go in with you; nor will I eat food or drink water with you in this place;

1 Kings 13:17 for it was said to me by the word of the LORD: You shall not eat food or drink water there, or return by the way that you came.”

1 Kings 13:18 Then the other said to him, “I also am a prophet as you are, and an angel spoke to me by the word of the LORD: Bring him back with you into your house so that he may eat food and drink water.” But he was deceiving him.

1 Kings 13:19 Then the man of God went back with him, and ate food and drank water in his house.

1 Kings 13:20 As they were sitting at the table, the word of the LORD came to the prophet who had brought him back;

1 Kings 13:21 and he proclaimed to the man of God who came from Judah, “Thus says the LORD: Because you have disobeyed the word of the LORD, and have not kept the commandment that the LORD your God commanded you,

1 Kings 13:22 but have come back and have eaten food and drunk water in the place of which he said to you, ‘Eat no food, and drink no water,’ your body shall not come to your ancestral tomb.”

1 Kings 13:23 After the man of God had eaten food and had drunk, they saddled for him a donkey belonging to the prophet who had brought him back.

1 Kings 13:24 Then as he went away, a lion met him on the road and killed him. His body was thrown in the road, and the donkey stood beside it; the lion also stood beside the body.

1 Kings 13:25 People passed by and saw the body thrown in the road, with the lion standing by the body. And they came and told it in the town where the old prophet lived.

1 Kings 13:26 When the prophet who had brought him back from the way heard of it, he said, “It is the man of God who disobeyed the word of the LORD; therefore the LORD has given him to the lion, which has torn him and killed him according to the word that the LORD spoke to him.”

1 Kings 13:27 Then he said to his sons, “Saddle a donkey for me.” So they saddled one,

1 Kings 13:28 and he went and found the body thrown in the road, with the donkey and the lion standing beside the body. The lion had not eaten the body or attacked the donkey.

1 Kings 13:29 The prophet took up the body of the man of God, laid it on the donkey, and brought it back to the city, to mourn and to bury him.

1 Kings 13:30 He laid the body in his own grave; and they mourned over him, saying, “Alas, my brother!”

1 Kings 13:31 After he had buried him, he said to his sons, “When I die, bury me in the grave in which the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones.

1 Kings 13:32 For the saying that he proclaimed by the word of the LORD against the altar in Bethel, and against all the houses of the high places that are in the cities of Samaria, shall surely come to pass.”

1 Kings 13:33 Even after this event Jeroboam did not turn from his evil way, but made priests for the high places again from among all the people; any who wanted to be priests he consecrated for the high places.

1 Kings 13:34 This matter became sin to the house of Jeroboam, so as to cut it off and to destroy it from the face of the earth.

1 Kings 14:1 At that time Abijah son of Jeroboam fell sick.

1 Kings 14:2 Jeroboam said to his wife, “Go, disguise yourself, so that it will not be known that you are the wife of Jeroboam, and go to Shiloh; for the prophet Ahijah is there, who said of me that I should be king over this people.

1 Kings 14:3 Take with you ten loaves, some cakes, and a jar of honey, and go to him; he will tell you what shall happen to the child."

1 Kings 14:4 Jeroboam's wife did so; she set out and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. Now Ahijah could not see, for his eyes were dim because of his age.

1 Kings 14:5 But the LORD said to Ahijah, "The wife of Jeroboam is coming to inquire of you concerning her son; for he is sick. Thus and thus you shall say to her." When she came, she pretended to be another woman.

1 Kings 14:6 But when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet, as she came in at the door, he said, "Come in, wife of Jeroboam; why do you pretend to be another? For I am charged with heavy tidings for you.

1 Kings 14:7 Go, tell Jeroboam, 'Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Because I exalted you from among the people, made you leader over my people Israel,

1 Kings 14:8 and tore the kingdom away from the house of David to give it to you; yet you have not been like my servant David, who kept my commandments and followed me with all his heart, doing only that which was right in my sight,

1 Kings 14:9 but you have done evil above all those who were before you and have gone and made for yourself other gods, and cast images, provoking me to anger, and have thrust me behind your back;

1 Kings 14:10 therefore, I will bring evil upon the house of Jeroboam. I will cut off from Jeroboam every male, both bond and free in Israel, and will consume the house of Jeroboam, just as one burns up dung until it is all gone.

1 Kings 14:11 Anyone belonging to Jeroboam who dies in the city, the dogs shall eat; and anyone who dies in the open country, the birds of the air shall eat; for the LORD has spoken.'

1 Kings 14:12 Therefore set out, go to your house. When your feet enter the city, the child shall die.

1 Kings 14:13 All Israel shall mourn for him and bury him; for he alone of Jeroboam's family shall come to the grave, because in him there is found something pleasing to the LORD, the God of Israel, in the house of Jeroboam.

1 Kings 14:14 Moreover the LORD will raise up for himself a king over Israel, who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam today, even right now!

1 Kings 14:15 "The LORD will strike Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water; he will root up Israel out of this good land that he gave to their ancestors, and scatter them beyond the Euphrates, because they have made their sacred poles, provoking the LORD to anger.

1 Kings 14:16 He will give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, which he sinned and which he caused Israel to commit.”

1 Kings 14:17 Then Jeroboam’s wife got up and went away, and she came to Tirzah. As she came to the threshold of the house, the child died.

1 Kings 14:18 All Israel buried him and mourned for him, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke by his servant the prophet Ahijah.

1 Kings 14:19 Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he warred and how he reigned, are written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel.

1 Kings 14:20 The time that Jeroboam reigned was twenty-two years; then he slept with his ancestors, and his son Nadab succeeded him.

1 Kings 14:21 Now Rehoboam son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city that the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. His mother’s name was Naamah the Ammonite.

1 Kings 14:22 Judah did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; they provoked him to jealousy with their sins that they committed, more than all that their ancestors had done.

1 Kings 14:23 For they also built for themselves high places, pillars, and sacred poles on every high hill and under every green tree;

1 Kings 14:24 there were also male temple prostitutes in the land. They committed all the abominations of the nations that the LORD drove out before the people of Israel.

1 Kings 14:25 In the fifth year of King Rehoboam, King Shishak of Egypt came up against Jerusalem;

1 Kings 14:26 he took away the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king’s house; he took everything. He also took away all the shields of gold that Solomon had made;

1 Kings 14:27 so King Rehoboam made shields of bronze instead, and committed them to the hands of the officers of the guard, who kept the door of the king’s house.

1 Kings 14:28 As often as the king went into the house of the LORD, the guard carried them and brought them back to the guardroom.

1 Kings 14:29 Now the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?

1 Kings 14:30 There was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

1 Kings 14:31 Rehoboam slept with his ancestors and was buried with his ancestors in the city of David. His mother’s name was Naamah the Ammonite. His son Abijam succeeded him.

1 Kings 15:1 Now in the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam son of Nebat, Abijam began to reign over Judah.

1 Kings 15:2 He reigned for three years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Maacah daughter of Abishalom.

1 Kings 15:3 He committed all the sins that his father did before him; his heart was not true to the LORD his God, like the heart of his father David.

1 Kings 15:4 Nevertheless for David’s sake the LORD his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, setting up his son after him, and establishing Jerusalem;

1 Kings 15:5 because David did what was right in the sight of the LORD, and did not turn aside from anything that he commanded him all the days of his life, except in the matter of Uriah the Hittite.

1 Kings 15:7 The rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah? There was war between Abijam and Jeroboam.

1 Kings 15:8 Abijam slept with his ancestors, and they buried him in the city of David. Then his son Asa succeeded him.

1 Kings 15:9 In the twentieth year of King Jeroboam of Israel, Asa began to reign over Judah;

1 Kings 15:10 he reigned forty-one years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Maacah daughter of Abishalom.

1 Kings 15:11 Asa did what was right in the sight of the LORD, as his father David had done.

1 Kings 15:12 He put away the male temple prostitutes out of the land, and removed all the idols that his ancestors had made.

1 Kings 15:13 He also removed his mother Maacah from being queen mother, because she had made an abominable image for Asherah; Asa cut down her image and burned it at the Wadi Kidron.

1 Kings 15:14 But the high places were not taken away. Nevertheless the heart of Asa was true to the LORD all his days.

1 Kings 15:15 He brought into the house of the LORD the votive gifts of his father and his own votive gifts— silver, gold, and utensils.

1 Kings 15:16 There was war between Asa and King Baasha of Israel all their days.

1 Kings 15:17 King Baasha of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, to prevent anyone from going out or coming in to King Asa of Judah.

1 Kings 15:18 Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house, and gave them into the hands of his servants. King Asa sent them to King Ben-hadad son of Tabrimmon son of Hezion of Aram, who resided in Damascus, saying,

1 Kings 15:19 "Let there be an alliance between me and you, like that between my father and your father: I am sending you a present of silver and gold; go, break your alliance with King Baasha of Israel, so that he may withdraw from me."

1 Kings 15:20 Ben-hadad listened to King Asa, and sent the commanders of his armies against the cities of Israel. He conquered Ijon, Dan, Abel-beth-maacah, and all Chinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali.

1 Kings 15:21 When Baasha heard of it, he stopped building Ramah and lived in Tirzah.

1 Kings 15:22 Then King Asa made a proclamation to all Judah, none was exempt: they carried away the stones of Ramah and its timber, with which Baasha had been building; with them King Asa built Geba of Benjamin and Mizpah.

1 Kings 15:23 Now the rest of all the acts of Asa, all his power, all that he did, and the cities that he built, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah? But in his old age he was diseased in his feet.

1 Kings 15:24 Then Asa slept with his ancestors, and was buried with his ancestors in the city of his father David; his son Jehoshaphat succeeded him.

1 Kings 15:25 Nadab son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of King Asa of Judah; he reigned over Israel two years.

1 Kings 15:26 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, walking in the way of his ancestor and in the sin that he caused Israel to commit.

1 Kings 15:27 Baasha son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him; and Baasha struck him down at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines; for Nadab and all Israel were laying siege to Gibbethon.

1 Kings 15:28 So Baasha killed Nadab in the third year of King Asa of Judah, and succeeded him.

1 Kings 15:29 As soon as he was king, he killed all the house of Jeroboam; he left to the house of Jeroboam not one that breathed, until he had destroyed it, according to the word of the LORD that he spoke by his servant Ahijah the Shilonite—

1 Kings 15:30 because of the sins of Jeroboam that he committed and that he caused Israel to commit, and because of the anger to which he provoked the LORD, the God of Israel.

1 Kings 15:31 Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?

1 Kings 15:32 There was war between Asa and King Baasha of Israel all their days.

1 Kings 15:33 In the third year of King Asa of Judah, Baasha son of Ahijah began to reign over all Israel at Tirzah; he reigned twenty-four years.

1 Kings 15:34 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, walking in the way of Jeroboam and in the sin that he caused Israel to commit.

1 Kings 16:1 The word of the LORD came to Jehu son of Hanani against Baasha, saying,

1 Kings 16:2 “Since I exalted you out of the dust and made you leader over my people Israel, and you have walked in the way of Jeroboam, and have caused my people Israel to sin, provoking me to anger with their sins,

1 Kings 16:3 therefore, I will consume Baasha and his house, and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat.

1 Kings 16:4 Anyone belonging to Baasha who dies in the city the dogs shall eat; and anyone of his who dies in the field the birds of the air shall eat.”

1 Kings 16:5 Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, what he did, and his power, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?

1 Kings 16:6 Baasha slept with his ancestors, and was buried at Tirzah; and his son Elah succeeded him.

1 Kings 16:7 Moreover the word of the LORD came by the prophet Jehu son of Hanani against Baasha and his house, both because of all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD, provoking him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam, and also because he destroyed it.

1 Kings 16:8 In the twenty-sixth year of King Asa of Judah, Elah son of Baasha began to reign over Israel in Tirzah; he reigned two years.

1 Kings 16:9 But his servant Zimri, commander of half his chariots, conspired against him. When he was at Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, who was in charge of the palace at Tirzah,

1 Kings 16:10 Zimri came in and struck him down and killed him, in the twenty-seventh year of King Asa of Judah, and succeeded him.

1 Kings 16:11 When he began to reign, as soon as he had seated himself on his throne, he killed all the house of Baasha; he did not leave him a single male of his kindred or his friends.

1 Kings 16:12 Thus Zimri destroyed all the house of Baasha, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke against Baasha by the prophet Jehu—

1 Kings 16:13 because of all the sins of Baasha and the sins of his son Elah that they committed, and that they caused Israel to commit, provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their idols.

1 Kings 16:14 Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?

1 Kings 16:15 In the twenty-seventh year of King Asa of Judah, Zimri reigned seven days in Tirzah. Now the troops were encamped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines,

1 Kings 16:16 and the troops who were encamped heard it said, “Zimri has conspired, and he has killed the king”; therefore all Israel made Omri, the commander of the army, king over Israel that day in the camp.

1 Kings 16:17 So Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah.

1 Kings 16:18 When Zimri saw that the city was taken, he went into the citadel of the king’s house; he burned down the king’s house over himself with fire, and died—

1 Kings 16:19 because of the sins that he committed, doing evil in the sight of the LORD, walking in the way of Jeroboam, and for the sin that he committed, causing Israel to sin.

1 Kings 16:20 Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and the conspiracy that he made, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?

1 Kings 16:21 Then the people of Israel were divided into two parts; half of the people followed Tibni son of Ginath, to make him king, and half followed Omri.

1 Kings 16:22 But the people who followed Omri overcame the people who followed Tibni son of Ginath; so Tibni died, and Omri became king.

1 Kings 16:23 In the thirty-first year of King Asa of Judah, Omri began to reign over Israel; he reigned for twelve years, six of them in Tirzah.

1 Kings 16:24 He bought the hill of Samaria from Shemer for two talents of silver; he fortified the hill, and called the city that he built, Samaria, after the name of Shemer, the owner of the hill.

1 Kings 16:25 Omri did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; he did more evil than all who were before him.

1 Kings 16:26 For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam son of Nebat, and in the sins that he caused Israel to commit, provoking the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger by their idols.

1 Kings 16:27 Now the rest of the acts of Omri that he did, and the power that he showed, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?

1 Kings 16:28 Omri slept with his ancestors, and was buried in Samaria; his son Ahab succeeded him.

1 Kings 16:29 In the thirty-eighth year of King Asa of Judah, Ahab son of Omri began to reign over Israel; Ahab son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years.

1 Kings 16:30 Ahab son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD more than all who were before him.

1 Kings 16:31 And as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, he took as his wife Jezebel daughter of King Ethbaal of the Sidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshiped him.

1 Kings 16:32 He erected an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he built in Samaria.

1 Kings 16:33 Ahab also made a sacred pole. Ahab did more to provoke the anger of the LORD, the God of Israel, than had all the kings of Israel who were before him.

1 Kings 16:34 In his days Hiel of Bethel built Jericho; he laid its foundation at the cost of Abiram his firstborn, and set up its gates at the cost of his youngest son Segub, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke by Joshua son of Nun.

1 Kings 17:1 Now Elijah the Tishbite, of Tishbe in Gilead, said to Ahab, “As the LORD the God of Israel lives, before whom I stand, there shall be neither dew nor rain these years, except by my word.”

1 Kings 17:2 The word of the LORD came to him, saying,

1 Kings 17:3 “Go from here and turn eastward, and hide yourself by the Wadi Cherith, which is east of the Jordan.

1 Kings 17:4 You shall drink from the wadi, and I have commanded the ravens to feed you there.”

1 Kings 17:5 So he went and did according to the word of the LORD; he went and lived by the Wadi Cherith, which is east of the Jordan.

1 Kings 17:6 The ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning, and bread and meat in the evening; and he drank from the wadi.

1 Kings 17:7 But after a while the wadi dried up, because there was no rain in the land.

1 Kings 17:8 Then the word of the LORD came to him, saying,

1 Kings 17:9 “Go now to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and live there; for I have commanded a widow there to feed you.”

1 Kings 17:10 So he set out and went to Zarephath. When he came to the gate of the town, a widow was there gathering sticks; he called to her and said, “Bring me a little water in a vessel, so that I may drink.”

1 Kings 17:11 As she was going to bring it, he called to her and said, “Bring me a morsel of bread in your hand.”

1 Kings 17:12 But she said, “As the LORD your God lives, I have nothing baked, only a handful of meal in a jar, and a little oil in a jug; I am now gathering a couple of sticks, so that I may go home and prepare it for myself and my son, that we may eat it, and die.”

1 Kings 17:13 Elijah said to her, “Do not be afraid; go and do as you have said; but first make me a little cake of it and bring it to me, and afterwards make something for yourself and your son.

1 Kings 17:14 For thus says the LORD the God of Israel: The jar of meal will not be emptied and the jug of oil will not fail until the day that the LORD sends rain on the earth.”

1 Kings 17:15 She went and did as Elijah said, so that she as well as he and her household ate for many days.

1 Kings 17:16 The jar of meal was not emptied, neither did the jug of oil fail, according to the word of the LORD that he spoke by Elijah.

1 Kings 17:17 After this the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, became ill; his illness was so severe that there was no breath left in him.

1 Kings 17:18 She then said to Elijah, “What have you against me, O man of God? You have come to me to bring my sin to remembrance, and to cause the death of my son!”

1 Kings 17:19 But he said to her, “Give me your son.” He took him from her bosom, carried him up into the upper chamber where he was lodging, and laid him on his own bed.

1 Kings 17:20 He cried out to the LORD, “O LORD my God, have you brought calamity even upon the widow with whom I am staying, by killing her son?”

1 Kings 17:21 Then he stretched himself upon the child three times, and cried out to the LORD, “O LORD my God, let this child’s life come into him again.”

1 Kings 17:22 The LORD listened to the voice of Elijah; the life of the child came into him again, and he revived.

1 Kings 17:23 Elijah took the child, brought him down from the upper chamber into the house, and gave him to his mother; then Elijah said, “See, your son is alive.”

1 Kings 17:24 So the woman said to Elijah, “Now I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in your mouth is truth.”

1 Kings 18:1 After many days the word of the LORD came to Elijah, in the third year of the drought, saying, “Go, present yourself to Ahab; I will send rain on the earth.”

1 Kings 18:2 So Elijah went to present himself to Ahab. The famine was severe in Samaria.

1 Kings 18:3 Ahab summoned Obadiah, who was in charge of the palace. (NowObadiah revered the LORD greatly;

1 Kings 18:4 when Jezebel was killing off the prophets of the LORD, Obadiah took a hundred prophets, hid them fifty to a cave, and provided them with bread and water.)

1 Kings 18:5 Then Ahab said to Obadiah, “Go through the land to all the springs of water and to all the wadis; perhaps we may find grass to keep the horses and mules alive, and not lose some of the animals.”

1 Kings 18:6 So they divided the land between them to pass through it; Ahab went in one direction by himself, and Obadiah went in another direction by himself.

1 Kings 18:7 As Obadiah was on the way, Elijah met him; Obadiah recognized him, fell on his face, and said, “Is it you, my lord Elijah?”

1 Kings 18:8 He answered him, “It is I. Go, tell your lord that Elijah is here.”

1 Kings 18:9 And he said, “How have I sinned, that you would hand your servant over to Ahab, to kill me?

1 Kings 18:10 As the LORD your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom to which my lord has not sent to seek you; and when they would say, ‘He is not here,’ he would require an oath of the kingdom or nation, that they had not found you.

1 Kings 18:12 As soon as I have gone from you, the spirit of the LORD will carry you I know not where; so, when I come and tell Ahab and he cannot find you, he will kill me, although I your servant have revered the LORD from my youth.

1 Kings 18:13 Has it not been told my lord what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of the LORD, how I hid a hundred of the LORD’s prophets fifty to a cave, and provided them with bread and water?

1 Kings 18:14 Yet now you say, ‘Go, tell your lord that Elijah is here’; he will surely kill me.”

1 Kings 18:15 Elijah said, “As the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, I will surely show myself to him today.”

1 Kings 18:16 So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him; and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

1 Kings 18:17 When Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said to him, “Is it you, you troubler of Israel?”

1 Kings 18:18 He answered, “I have not troubled Israel; but you have, and your father’s house, because you have forsaken the commandments of the LORD and followed the Baals.

1 Kings 18:19 Now therefore have all Israel assemble for me at Mount Carmel, with the four hundred fifty prophets of Baal and the four hundred prophets of Asherah, who eat at Jezebel’s table.”

1 Kings 18:20 So Ahab sent to all the Israelites, and assembled the prophets at Mount Carmel.

1 Kings 18:21 Elijah then came near to all the people, and said, “How long will you go limping with two different opinions? If the LORD is God, follow him; but if Baal, then follow him.” The people did not answer him a word.

1 Kings 18:22 Then Elijah said to the people, “I, even I only, am left a prophet of the LORD; but Baal’s prophets number four hundred fifty.

1 Kings 18:23 Let two bulls be given to us; let them choose one bull for themselves, cut it in pieces, and lay it on the wood, but put no fire to it; I will prepare the other bull and lay it on the wood, but put no fire to it.

1 Kings 18:24 Then you call on the name of your god and I will call on the name of the LORD; the god who answers by fire is indeed God.” All the people answered, “Well spoken!”

1 Kings 18:25 Then Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, “Choose for yourselves one bull and prepare it first, for you are many; then call on the name of your god, but put no fire to it.”

1 Kings 18:26 So they took the bull that was given them, prepared it, and called on the name of Baal from morning until noon, crying, “O Baal, answer us!” But there was no voice, and no answer. They limped about the altar that they had made.

1 Kings 18:27 At noon Elijah mocked them, saying, “Cry aloud! Surely he is a god; either he is meditating, or he has wandered away, or he is on a journey, or perhaps he is asleep and must be awakened.”

1 Kings 18:28 Then they cried aloud and, as was their custom, they cut themselves with swords and lances until the blood gushed out over them.

1 Kings 18:29 As midday passed, they raved on until the time of the offering of the oblation, but there was no voice, no answer, and no response.

1 Kings 18:30 Then Elijah said to all the people, “Come closer to me”; and all the people came closer to him. First he repaired the altar of the LORD that had been thrown down;

1 Kings 18:31 Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD came, saying, “Israel shall be your name”;

1 Kings 18:32 with the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD. Then he made a trench around the altar, large enough to contain two measures of seed.

1 Kings 18:33 Next he put the wood in order, cut the bull in pieces, and laid it on the wood. He said, “Fill four jars with water and pour it on the burnt offering and on the wood.”

1 Kings 18:34 Then he said, “Do it a second time”; and they did it a second time. Again he said, “Do it a third time”; and they did it a third time,

1 Kings 18:35 so that the water ran all around the altar, and filled the trench also with water.

1 Kings 18:36 At the time of the offering of the oblation, the prophet Elijah came near and said, “O LORD, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, let it be known this day that you are God in Israel, that I am your servant, and that I have done all these things at your bidding.

1 Kings 18:37 Answer me, O LORD, answer me, so that this people may know that you, O LORD, are God, and that you have turned their hearts back.”

1 Kings 18:38 Then the fire of the LORD fell and consumed the burnt offering, the wood, the stones, and the dust, and even licked up the water that was in the trench.

1 Kings 18:39 When all the people saw it, they fell on their faces and said, “The LORD indeed is God; the LORD indeed is God.”

1 Kings 18:40 Elijah said to them, “Seize the prophets of Baal; do not let one of them escape.” Then they seized them; and Elijah brought them down to the Wadi Kishon, and killed them there.

1 Kings 18:41 Elijah said to Ahab, “Go up, eat and drink; for there is a sound of rushing rain.”

1 Kings 18:42 So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; there he bowed himself down upon the earth and put his face between his knees.

1 Kings 18:43 He said to his servant, “Go up now, look toward the sea.” He went up and looked, and said, “There is nothing.” Then he said, “Go again seven times.”

1 Kings 18:44 At the seventh time he said, “Look, a little cloud no bigger than a person’s hand is rising out of the sea.” Then he said, “Go say to Ahab, ‘Harness your chariot and go down before the rain stops you.’“

1 Kings 18:45 In a little while the heavens grew black with clouds and wind; there was a heavy rain. Ahab rode off and went to Jezreel.

1 Kings 18:46 But the hand of the LORD was on Elijah; he girded up his loins and ran in front of Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

1 Kings 19:1 Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and how he had killed all the prophets with the sword.

1 Kings 19:2 Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, “So may the gods do to me, and more also, if I do not make your life like the life of one of them by this time tomorrow.”

1 Kings 19:3 Then he was afraid; he got up and fled for his life, and came to Beer-sheba, which belongs to Judah; he left his servant there.

1 Kings 19:4 But he himself went a day’s journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a solitary broom tree. He asked that he might die: “It is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life, for I am no better than my ancestors.”

1 Kings 19:5 Then he lay down under the broom tree and fell asleep. Suddenly an angel touched him and said to him, “Get up and eat.”

1 Kings 19:6 He looked, and there at his head was a cake baked on hot stones, and a jar of water. He ate and drank, and lay down again.

1 Kings 19:7 The angel of the LORD came a second time, touched him, and said, “Get up and eat, otherwise the journey will be too much for you.”

1 Kings 19:8 He got up, and ate and drank; then he went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb the mount of God.

1 Kings 19:9 At that place he came to a cave, and spent the night there. Then the word of the LORD came to him, saying, “What are you doing here, Elijah?”

1 Kings 19:10 He answered, “I have been very zealous for the LORD, the God of hosts; for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away.”

1 Kings 19:11 He said, “Go out and stand on the mountain before the LORD, for the LORD is about to pass by.” Now there was a great wind, so strong that it was splitting mountains and breaking rocks in pieces before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake;

1 Kings 19:12 and after the earthquake a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire; and after the fire a sound of sheer silence.

1 Kings 19:13 When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. Then there came a voice to him that said, “What are you doing here, Elijah?”

1 Kings 19:14 He answered, “I have been very zealous for the LORD, the God of hosts; for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away.”

1 Kings 19:15 Then the LORD said to him, “Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus; when you arrive, you shall anoint Hazael as king over Aram.

1 Kings 19:16 Also you shall anoint Jehu son of Nimshi as king over Israel; and you shall anoint Elisha son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah as prophet in your place.

1 Kings 19:17 Whoever escapes from the sword of Hazael, Jehu shall kill; and whoever escapes from the sword of Jehu, Elisha shall kill.

1 Kings 19:18 Yet I will leave seven thousand in Israel, all the knees that have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth that has not kissed him.”

1 Kings 19:19 So he set out from there, and found Elisha son of Shaphat, who was plowing. There were twelve yoke of oxen ahead of him, and he was with the twelfth. Elijah passed by him and threw his mantle over him.

1 Kings 19:20 He left the oxen, ran after Elijah, and said, “Let me kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you.” Then Elijah said to him, “Go back again; for what have I done to you?”

1 Kings 19:21 He returned from following him, took the yoke of oxen, and slaughtered them; using the equipment from the oxen, he boiled their flesh, and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he set out and followed Elijah, and became his servant.

1 Kings 20:1 King Ben-hadad of Aram gathered all his army together; thirty-two kings were with him, along with horses and chariots. He marched against Samaria, laid siege to it, and attacked it.

1 Kings 20:2 Then he sent messengers into the city to King Ahab of Israel, and said to him: “Thus says Ben-hadad:

1 Kings 20:3 Your silver and gold are mine; your fairest wives and children also are mine.”

1 Kings 20:4 The king of Israel answered, “As you say, my lord, O king, I am yours, and all that I have.”

1 Kings 20:5 The messengers came again and said: “Thus says Ben-hadad: I sent to you, saying, ‘Deliver to me your silver and gold, your wives and children’;

1 Kings 20:6 nevertheless I will send my servants to you tomorrow about this time, and they shall search your house and the houses of your servants, and lay hands on whatever pleases them, and take it away.”

1 Kings 20:7 Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, “Look now! See how this man is seeking trouble; for he sent to me for my wives, my children, my silver, and my gold; and I did not refuse him.”

1 Kings 20:8 Then all the elders and all the people said to him, “Do not listen or consent.”

1 Kings 20:9 So he said to the messengers of Ben-hadad, “Tell my lord the king: All that you first demanded of your servant I will do; but this thing I cannot do.” The messengers left and brought him word again.

1 Kings 20:10 Ben-hadad sent to him and said, “The gods do so to me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria will provide a handful for each of the people who follow me.”

1 Kings 20:11 The king of Israel answered, “Tell him: One who puts on armor should not brag like one who takes it off.”

1 Kings 20:12 When Ben-hadad heard this message— now he had been drinking with the kings in the booths— he said to his men, “Take your positions!” And they took their positions against the city.

1 Kings 20:13 Then a certain prophet came up to King Ahab of Israel and said, “Thus says the LORD, Have you seen all this great multitude? Look, I will give it into your hand today; and you shall know that I am the LORD.”

1 Kings 20:14 Ahab said, “By whom?” He said, “Thus says the LORD, By the young men who serve the district governors.” Then he said, “Who shall begin the battle?” He answered, “You.”

1 Kings 20:15 Then he mustered the young men who serve the district governors, two hundred thirty-two; after them he mustered all the people of Israel, seven thousand.

1 Kings 20:16 They went out at noon, while Ben-hadad was drinking himself drunk in the booths, he and the thirty-two kings allied with him.

1 Kings 20:17 The young men who serve the district governors went out first. Ben-hadad had sent out scouts, and they reported to him, “Men have come out from Samaria.”

1 Kings 20:18 He said, “If they have come out for peace, take them alive; if they have come out for war, take them alive.”

1 Kings 20:19 But these had already come out of the city: the young men who serve the district governors, and the army that followed them.

1 Kings 20:20 Each killed his man; the Arameans fled and Israel pursued them, but King Ben-hadad of Aram escaped on a horse with the cavalry.

1 Kings 20:21 The king of Israel went out, attacked the horses and chariots, and defeated the Arameans with a great slaughter.

1 Kings 20:22 Then the prophet approached the king of Israel and said to him, “Come, strengthen yourself, and consider well what you have to do; for in the spring the king of Aram will come up against you.”

1 Kings 20:23 The servants of the king of Aram said to him, “Their gods are gods of the hills, and so they were stronger than we; but let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they.

1 Kings 20:24 Also do this: remove the kings, each from his post, and put commanders in place of them;

1 Kings 20:25 and muster an army like the army that you have lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot; then we will fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they.” He heeded their voice, and did so.

1 Kings 20:26 In the spring Ben-hadad mustered the Arameans and went up to Aphek to fight against Israel.

1 Kings 20:27 After the Israelites had been mustered and provisioned, they went out to engage them; the people of Israel encamped opposite them like two little flocks of goats, while the Arameans filled the country.

1 Kings 20:28 A man of God approached and said to the king of Israel, “Thus says the LORD: Because the Arameans have said, ‘The LORD is a god of the hills but he is not a god of the valleys,’ therefore I will give all this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am the LORD.”

1 Kings 20:29 They encamped opposite one another seven days. Then on the seventh day the battle began; the Israelites killed one hundred thousand Aramean foot soldiers in one day.

1 Kings 20:30 The rest fled into the city of Aphek; and the wall fell on twenty-seven thousand men that were left. Ben-hadad also fled, and entered the city to hide.

1 Kings 20:31 His servants said to him, “Look, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings; let us put sackcloth around our waists and ropes on our heads, and go out to the king of Israel; perhaps he will spare your life.”

1 Kings 20:32 So they tied sackcloth around their waists, put ropes on their heads, went to the king of Israel, and said, “Your servant Ben-hadad says, ‘Please let me live.’“ And he said, “Is he still alive? He is my brother.”

1 Kings 20:33 Now the men were watching for an omen; they quickly took it up from him and said, “Yes, Ben-hadad is your brother.” Then he said, “Go and bring him.” So Ben-hadad came out to him; and he had him come up into the chariot.

1 Kings 20:34 Ben-hadad said to him, “I will restore the towns that my father took from your father; and you may establish bazaars for yourself in Damascus, as my father did in Samaria.” The king of Israel responded, “I will let you go on those terms.” So he made a treaty with him and let him go.

1 Kings 20:35 At the command of the LORD a certain member of a company of prophets said to another, “Strike me!” But the man refused to strike him.

1 Kings 20:36 Then he said to him, “Because you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, as soon as you have left me, a lion will kill you.” And when he had left him, a lion met him and killed him.

1 Kings 20:37 Then he found another man and said, “Strike me!” So the man hit him, striking and wounding him.

1 Kings 20:38 Then the prophet departed, and waited for the king along the road, disguising himself with a bandage over his eyes.

1 Kings 20:39 As the king passed by, he cried to the king and said, “Your servant went out into the thick of the battle; then a soldier turned and brought a man to me, and said, ‘Guard this man; if he is missing, your life shall be given for his life, or else you shall pay a talent of silver.’

1 Kings 20:40 While your servant was busy here and there, he was gone.” The king of Israel said to him, “So shall your judgment be; you yourself have decided it.”

1 Kings 20:41 Then he quickly took the bandage away from his eyes. The king of Israel recognized him as one of the prophets.

1 Kings 20:42 Then he said to him, “Thus says the LORD, ‘Because you have let the man go whom I had devoted to destruction, therefore your life shall be for his life, and your people for his people.’“

1 Kings 20:43 The king of Israel set out toward home, resentful and sullen, and came to Samaria.

1 Kings 21:1 Later the following events took place: Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard in Jezreel, beside the palace of King Ahab of Samaria.

1 Kings 21:2 And Ahab said to Naboth, “Give me your vineyard, so that I may have it for a vegetable garden, because it is near my house; I will give you a better vineyard for it; or, if it seems good to you, I will give you its value in money.”

1 Kings 21:3 But Naboth said to Ahab, “The LORD forbid that I should give you my ancestral inheritance.”

1 Kings 21:4 Ahab went home resentful and sullen because of what Naboth the Jezreelite had said to him; for he had said, “I will not give you my ancestral inheritance.” He lay down on his bed, turned away his face, and would not eat.

1 Kings 21:5 His wife Jezebel came to him and said, “Why are you so depressed that you will not eat?”

1 Kings 21:6 He said to her, “Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite and said to him, ‘Give me your vineyard for money; or else, if you prefer, I will give you another vineyard for it’; but he answered, ‘I will not give you my vineyard.’“

1 Kings 21:7 His wife Jezebel said to him, “Do you now govern Israel? Get up, eat some food, and be cheerful; I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.”

1 Kings 21:8 So she wrote letters in Ahab’s name and sealed them with his seal; she sent the letters to the elders and the nobles who lived with Naboth in his city.

1 Kings 21:9 She wrote in the letters, “Proclaim a fast, and seat Naboth at the head of the assembly;

1 Kings 21:10 seat two scoundrels opposite him, and have them bring a charge against him, saying, ‘You have cursed God and the king.’ Then take him out, and stone him to death.”

1 Kings 21:11 The men of his city, the elders and the nobles who lived in his city, did as Jezebel had sent word to them. Just as it was written in the letters that she had sent to them,

1 Kings 21:13 The two scoundrels came in and sat opposite him; and the scoundrels brought a charge against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, “Naboth cursed God and the king.” So they took him outside the city, and stoned him to death.

1 Kings 21:14 Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, “Naboth has been stoned; he is dead.”

1 Kings 21:15 As soon as Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned and was dead, Jezebel said to Ahab, “Go, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give you for money; for Naboth is not alive, but dead.”

1 Kings 21:16 As soon as Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, Ahab set out to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

1 Kings 21:17 Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying:

1 Kings 21:18 Go down to meet King Ahab of Israel, who rules in Samaria; he is now in the vineyard of Naboth, where he has gone to take possession.

1 Kings 21:19 You shall say to him, “Thus says the LORD: Have you killed, and also taken possession?” You shall say to him, “Thus says the LORD: In the place where dogs licked up the blood of Naboth, dogs will also lick up your blood.”

1 Kings 21:20 Ahab said to Elijah, “Have you found me, O my enemy?” He answered, “I have found you. Because you have sold yourself to do what is evil in the sight of the LORD,

1 Kings 21:21 I will bring disaster on you; I will consume you, and will cut off from Ahab every male, bond or free, in Israel;

1 Kings 21:22 and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha son of Ahijah, because you have provoked me to anger and have caused Israel to sin.

1 Kings 21:23 Also concerning Jezebel the LORD said, ‘The dogs shall eat Jezebel within the bounds of Jezreel.’

1 Kings 21:24 Anyone belonging to Ahab who dies in the city the dogs shall eat; and anyone of his who dies in the open country the birds of the air shall eat.”

1 Kings 21:25 (Indeed, there was no one like Ahab, who sold himself to do what was evil in the sight of the LORD, urged on by his wife Jezebel.

1 Kings 21:26 He acted most abominably in going after idols, as the Amorites had done, whom the LORD drove out before the Israelites.)

1 Kings 21:27 When Ahab heard those words, he tore his clothes and put sackcloth over his bare flesh; he fasted, lay in the sackcloth, and went about dejectedly.

1 Kings 21:28 Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite:

1 Kings 21:29 “Have you seen how Ahab has humbled himself before me? Because he has humbled himself before me, I will not bring the disaster in his days; but in his son’s days I will bring the disaster on his house.”

1 Kings 22:1 For three years Aram and Israel continued without war.

1 Kings 22:2 But in the third year King Jehoshaphat of Judah came down to the king of Israel.

1 Kings 22:3 The king of Israel said to his servants, “Do you know that Ramoth-gilead belongs to us, yet we are doing nothing to take it out of the hand of the king of Aram?”

1 Kings 22:4 He said to Jehoshaphat, “Will you go with me to battle at Ramoth-gilead?” Jehoshaphat replied to the king of Israel, “I am as you are; my people are your people, my horses are your horses.”

1 Kings 22:5 But Jehoshaphat also said to the king of Israel, “Inquire first for the word of the LORD.”

1 Kings 22:6 Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred of them, and said to them, “Shall I go to battle against Ramoth-gilead, or shall I refrain?” They said, “Go up; for the LORD will give it into the hand of the king.”

1 Kings 22:7 But Jehoshaphat said, “Is there no other prophet of the LORD here of whom we may inquire?”

1 Kings 22:8 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “There is still one other by whom we may inquire of the LORD, Micaiah son of Imlah; but I hate him, for he never prophesies anything favorable about me, but only disaster.” Jehoshaphat said, “Let the king not say such a thing.”

1 Kings 22:9 Then the king of Israel summoned an officer and said, “Bring quickly Micaiah son of Imlah.”

1 Kings 22:10 Now the king of Israel and King Jehoshaphat of Judah were sitting on their thrones, arrayed in their robes, at the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them.

1 Kings 22:11 Zedekiah son of Chenaanah made for himself horns of iron, and he said, “Thus says the LORD: With these you shall gore the Arameans until they are destroyed.”

1 Kings 22:12 All the prophets were prophesying the same and saying, “Go up to Ramoth-gilead and triumph; the LORD will give it into the hand of the king.”

1 Kings 22:13 The messenger who had gone to summon Micaiah said to him, “Look, the words of the prophets with one accord are favorable to the king; let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak favorably.”

1 Kings 22:14 But Micaiah said, “As the LORD lives, whatever the LORD says to me, that I will speak.”

1 Kings 22:15 When he had come to the king, the king said to him, “Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall we refrain?” He answered him, “Go up and triumph; the LORD will give it into the hand of the king.”

1 Kings 22:16 But the king said to him, “How many times must I make you swear to tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?”

1 Kings 22:17 Then Micaiah said, “I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, like sheep that have no shepherd; and the LORD said, ‘These have no master; let each one go home in peace.’“

1 Kings 22:18 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy anything favorable about me, but only disaster?”

1 Kings 22:19 Then Micaiah said, “Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, with all the host of heaven standing beside him to the right and to the left of him.

1 Kings 22:20 And the LORD said, 'Who will entice Ahab, so that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead?' Then one said one thing, and another said another,

1 Kings 22:21 until a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD, saying, 'I will entice him.'

1 Kings 22:22 'How?' the LORD asked him. He replied, 'I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' Then the LORD said, 'You are to entice him, and you shall succeed; go out and do it.'

1 Kings 22:23 So you see, the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these your prophets; the LORD has decreed disaster for you."

1 Kings 22:24 Then Zedekiah son of Chenaanah came up to Micaiah, slapped him on the cheek, and said, "Which way did the spirit of the LORD pass from me to speak to you?"

1 Kings 22:25 Micaiah replied, "You will find out on that day when you go in to hide in an inner chamber."

1 Kings 22:26 The king of Israel then ordered, "Take Micaiah, and return him to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king's son,

1 Kings 22:27 and say, 'Thus says the king: Put this fellow in prison, and feed him on reduced rations of bread and water until I come in peace.'"

1 Kings 22:28 Micaiah said, "If you return in peace, the LORD has not spoken by me." And he said, "Hear, you peoples, all of you!"

1 Kings 22:29 So the king of Israel and King Jehoshaphat of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead.

1 Kings 22:30 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and go into battle, but you wear your robes." So the king of Israel disguised himself and went into battle.

1 Kings 22:31 Now the king of Aram had commanded the thirty-two captains of his chariots, "Fight with no one small or great, but only with the king of Israel."

1 Kings 22:32 When the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, "It is surely the king of Israel." So they turned to fight against him; and Jehoshaphat cried out.

1 Kings 22:33 When the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.

1 Kings 22:34 But a certain man drew his bow and unknowingly struck the king of Israel between the scale armor and the breastplate; so he said to the driver of his chariot, "Turn around, and carry me out of the battle, for I am wounded."

1 Kings 22:35 The battle grew hot that day, and the king was propped up in his chariot facing the Arameans, until at evening he died; the blood from the wound had flowed into the bottom of the chariot.

1 Kings 22:36 Then about sunset a shout went through the army, “Every man to his city, and every man to his country!”

1 Kings 22:37 So the king died, and was brought to Samaria; they buried the king in Samaria.

1 Kings 22:38 They washed the chariot by the pool of Samaria; the dogs licked up his blood, and the prostitutes washed themselves in it, according to the word of the LORD that he had spoken.

1 Kings 22:39 Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the ivory house that he built, and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?

1 Kings 22:40 So Ahab slept with his ancestors; and his son Ahaziah succeeded him.

1 Kings 22:41 Jehoshaphat son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of King Ahab of Israel.

1 Kings 22:42 Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Azubah daughter of Shilhi.

1 Kings 22:43 He walked in all the way of his father Asa; he did not turn aside from it, doing what was right in the sight of the LORD; yet the high places were not taken away, and the people still sacrificed and offered incense on the high places.

1 Kings 22:44 Jehoshaphat also made peace with the king of Israel.

1 Kings 22:45 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his power that he showed, and how he waged war, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?

1 Kings 22:46 The remnant of the male temple prostitutes who were still in the land in the days of his father Asa, he exterminated.

1 Kings 22:47 There was no king in Edom; a deputy was king.

1 Kings 22:48 Jehoshaphat made ships of the Tarshish type to go to Ophir for gold; but they did not go, for the ships were wrecked at Ezion-geber.

1 Kings 22:49 Then Ahaziah son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, “Let my servants go with your servants in the ships,” but Jehoshaphat was not willing.

1 Kings 22:50 Jehoshaphat slept with his ancestors and was buried with his ancestors in the city of his father David; his son Jehoram succeeded him.

1 Kings 22:51 Ahaziah son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of King Jehoshaphat of Judah; he reigned two years over Israel.

1 Kings 22:52 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father and mother, and in the way of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin.

1 Kings 22:53 He served Baal and worshiped him; he provoked the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger, just as his father had done.

2 Kings

1:1 After the death of Ahab, Moab rebelled against Israel.

2 Kings 1:2 Ahaziah had fallen through the lattice in his upper chamber in Samaria, and lay injured; so he sent messengers, telling them, “Go, inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, whether I shall recover from this injury.”

2 Kings 1:3 But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, “Get up, go to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say to them, ‘Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are going to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron?’

2 Kings 1:4 Now therefore thus says the LORD, ‘You shall not leave the bed to which you have gone, but you shall surely die.’“ So Elijah went.

2 Kings 1:5 The messengers returned to the king, who said to them, “Why have you returned?”

2 Kings 1:6 They answered him, “There came a man to meet us, who said to us, ‘Go back to the king who sent you, and say to him: Thus says the LORD: Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are sending to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you shall not leave the bed to which you have gone, but shall surely die.’“

2 Kings 1:7 He said to them, “What sort of man was he who came to meet you and told you these things?”

2 Kings 1:8 They answered him, “A hairy man, with a leather belt around his waist.” He said, “It is Elijah the Tishbite.”

2 Kings 1:9 Then the king sent to him a captain of fifty with his fifty men. He went up to Elijah, who was sitting on the top of a hill, and said to him, “O man of God, the king says, ‘Come down.’“

2 Kings 1:10 But Elijah answered the captain of fifty, “If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty.” Then fire came down from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.

2 Kings 1:11 Again the king sent to him another captain of fifty with his fifty. He went up and said to him, “O man of God, this is the king’s order: Come down quickly!”

2 Kings 1:12 But Elijah answered them, “If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty.” Then the fire of God came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty.

2 Kings 1:13 Again the king sent the captain of a third fifty with his fifty. So the third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and entreated him, “O man of God, please let my life, and the life of these fifty servants of yours, be precious in your sight.

2 Kings 1:14 Look, fire came down from heaven and consumed the two former captains of fifty men with their fifties; but now let my life be precious in your sight.”

2 Kings 1:15 Then the angel of the LORD said to Elijah, “Go down with him; do not be afraid of him.” So he set out and went down with him to the king,

2 Kings 1:16 and said to him, “Thus says the LORD: Because you have sent messengers to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron,— is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of his word?— therefore you shall not leave the bed to which you have gone, but you shall surely die.”

2 Kings 1:17 So he died according to the word of the LORD that Elijah had spoken. His brother, Jehoram succeeded him as king in the second year of King Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat of Judah, because Ahaziah had no son.

2 Kings 1:18 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?

2 Kings 2:1 Now when the LORD was about to take Elijah up to heaven by a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha were on their way from Gilgal.

2 Kings 2:2 Elijah said to Elisha, “Stay here; for the LORD has sent me as far as Bethel.” But Elisha said, “As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.” So they went down to Bethel.

2 Kings 2:3 The company of prophets who were in Bethel came out to Elisha, and said to him, “Do you know that today the LORD will take your master away from you?” And he said, “Yes, I know; keep silent.”

2 Kings 2:4 Elijah said to him, “Elisha, stay here; for the LORD has sent me to Jericho.” But he said, “As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.” So they came to Jericho.

2 Kings 2:5 The company of prophets who were at Jericho drew near to Elisha, and said to him, “Do you know that today the LORD will take your master away from you?” And he answered, “Yes, I know; be silent.”

2 Kings 2:6 Then Elijah said to him, “Stay here; for the LORD has sent me to the Jordan.” But he said, “As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.” So the two of them went on.

2 Kings 2:7 Fifty men of the company of prophets also went, and stood at some distance from them, as they both were standing by the Jordan.

2 Kings 2:8 Then Elijah took his mantle and rolled it up, and struck the water; the water was parted to the one side and to the other, until the two of them crossed on dry ground.

2 Kings 2:9 When they had crossed, Elijah said to Elisha, “Tell me what I may do for you, before I am taken from you.” Elisha said, “Please let me inherit a double share of your spirit.”

2 Kings 2:10 He responded, “You have asked a hard thing; yet, if you see me as I am being taken from you, it will be granted you; if not, it will not.”

2 Kings 2:11 As they continued walking and talking, a chariot of fire and horses of fire separated the two of them, and Elijah ascended in a whirlwind into heaven.

2 Kings 2:12 Elisha kept watching and crying out, “Father, father! The chariots of Israel and its horsemen!” But when he could no longer see him, he grasped his own clothes and tore them in two pieces.

2 Kings 2:13 He picked up the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and went back and stood on the bank of the Jordan.

2 Kings 2:14 He took the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and struck the water, saying, “Where is the LORD, the God of Elijah?” When he had struck the water, the water was parted to the one side and to the other, and Elisha went over.

2 Kings 2:15 When the company of prophets who were at Jericho saw him at a distance, they declared, “The spirit of Elijah rests on Elisha.” They came to meet him and bowed to the ground before him.

2 Kings 2:16 They said to him, “See now, we have fifty strong men among your servants; please let them go and seek your master; it may be that the spirit of the LORD has caught him up and thrown him down on some mountain or into some valley.” He responded, “No, do not send them.”

2 Kings 2:17 But when they urged him until he was ashamed, he said, “Send them.” So they sent fifty men who searched for three days but did not find him.

2 Kings 2:18 When they came back to him (he had remained at Jericho), he said to them, “Did I not say to you, Do not go?”

2 Kings 2:19 Now the people of the city said to Elisha, “The location of this city is good, as my lord sees; but the water is bad, and the land is unfruitful.”

2 Kings 2:20 He said, “Bring me a new bowl, and put salt in it.” So they brought it to him.

2 Kings 2:21 Then he went to the spring of water and threw the salt into it, and said, “Thus says the LORD, I have made this water wholesome; from now on neither death nor miscarriage shall come from it.”

2 Kings 2:22 So the water has been wholesome to this day, according to the word that Elisha spoke.

2 Kings 2:23 He went up from there to Bethel; and while he was going up on the way, some small boys came out of the city and jeered at him, saying, “Go away, baldhead! Go away, baldhead!”

2 Kings 2:24 When he turned around and saw them, he cursed them in the name of the LORD. Then two she-bears came out of the woods and mauled forty-two of the boys.

2 Kings 2:25 From there he went on to Mount Carmel, and then returned to Samaria.

2 Kings 3:1 In the eighteenth year of King Jehoshaphat of Judah, Jehoram son of Ahab became king over Israel in Samaria; he reigned twelve years.

2 Kings 3:2 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, though not like his father and mother, for he removed the pillar of Baal that his father had made.

2 Kings 3:3 Nevertheless he clung to the sin of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he caused Israel to commit; he did not depart from it.

2 Kings 3:4 Now King Mesha of Moab was a sheep breeder, who used to deliver to the king of Israel one hundred thousand lambs, and the wool of one hundred thousand rams.

2 Kings 3:5 But when Ahab died, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

2 Kings 3:6 So King Jehoram marched out of Samaria at that time and mustered all Israel.

2 Kings 3:7 As he went he sent word to King Jehoshaphat of Judah, “The king of Moab has rebelled against me; will you go with me to battle against Moab?” He answered, “I will; I am with you, my people are your people, my horses are your horses.”

2 Kings 3:8 Then he asked, “By which way shall we march?” Jehoram answered, “By the way of the wilderness of Edom.”

2 Kings 3:9 So the king of Israel, the king of Judah, and the king of Edom set out; and when they had made a roundabout march of seven days, there was no water for the army or for the animals that were with them.

2 Kings 3:10 Then the king of Israel said, “Alas! The LORD has summoned us, three kings, only to be handed over to Moab.”

2 Kings 3:11 But Jehoshaphat said, “Is there no prophet of the LORD here, through whom we may inquire of the LORD?” Then one of the servants of the king of Israel answered, “Elisha son of Shaphat, who used to pour water on the hands of Elijah, is here.”

2 Kings 3:12 Jehoshaphat said, “The word of the LORD is with him.” So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.

2 Kings 3:13 Elisha said to the king of Israel, “What have I to do with you? Go to your father’s prophets or to your mother’s.” But the king of Israel said to him, “No; it is the LORD who has summoned us, three kings, only to be handed over to Moab.”

2 Kings 3:14 Elisha said, “As the LORD of hosts lives, whom I serve, were it not that I have regard for King Jehoshaphat of Judah, I would give you neither a look nor a glance.

2 Kings 3:15 But get me a musician.” And then, while the musician was playing, the power of the LORD came on him.

2 Kings 3:16 And he said, “Thus says the LORD, ‘I will make this wadi full of pools.’

2 Kings 3:17 For thus says the LORD, ‘You shall see neither wind nor rain, but the wadi shall be filled with water, so that you shall drink, you, your cattle, and your animals.’

2 Kings 3:18 This is only a trifle in the sight of the LORD, for he will also hand Moab over to you.

2 Kings 3:19 You shall conquer every fortified city and every choice city; every good tree you shall fell, all springs of water you shall stop up, and every good piece of land you shall ruin with stones.”

2 Kings 3:20 The next day, about the time of the morning offering, suddenly water began to flow from the direction of Edom, until the country was filled with water.

2 Kings 3:21 When all the Moabites heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, all who were able to put on armor, from the youngest to the oldest, were called out and were drawn up at the frontier.

2 Kings 3:22 When they rose early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, the Moabites saw the water opposite them as red as blood.

2 Kings 3:23 They said, “This is blood; the kings must have fought together, and killed one another. Now then, Moab, to the spoil!”

2 Kings 3:24 But when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and attacked the Moabites, who fled before them; as they entered Moab they continued the attack.

2 Kings 3:25 The cities they overturned, and on every good piece of land everyone threw a stone, until it was covered; every spring of water they stopped up, and every good tree they felled. Only at Kir-hareseth did the stone walls remain, until the slingers surrounded and attacked it.

2 Kings 3:26 When the king of Moab saw that the battle was going against him, he took with him seven hundred swordsmen to break through, opposite the king of Edom; but they could not.

2 Kings 3:27 Then he took his firstborn son who was to succeed him, and offered him as a burnt offering on the wall. And great wrath came upon Israel, so they withdrew from him and returned to their own land.

2 Kings 4:1 Now the wife of a member of the company of prophets cried to Elisha, “Your servant my husband is dead; and you know that your servant feared the LORD, but a creditor has come to take my two children as slaves.”

2 Kings 4:2 Elisha said to her, “What shall I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house?” She answered, “Your servant has nothing in the house, except a jar of oil.”

2 Kings 4:3 He said, “Go outside, borrow vessels from all your neighbors, empty vessels and not just a few.

2 Kings 4:4 Then go in, and shut the door behind you and your children, and start pouring into all these vessels; when each is full, set it aside.”

2 Kings 4:5 So she left him and shut the door behind her and her children; they kept bringing vessels to her, and she kept pouring.

2 Kings 4:6 When the vessels were full, she said to her son, “Bring me another vessel.” But he said to her, “There are no more.” Then the oil stopped flowing.

2 Kings 4:7 She came and told the man of God, and he said, “Go sell the oil and pay your debts, and you and your children can live on the rest.”

2 Kings 4:8 One day Elisha was passing through Shunem, where a wealthy woman lived, who urged him to have a meal. So whenever he passed that way, he would stop there for a meal.

2 Kings 4:9 She said to her husband, “Look, I am sure that this man who regularly passes our way is a holy man of God.

2 Kings 4:10 Let us make a small roof chamber with walls, and put there for him a bed, a table, a chair, and a lamp, so that he can stay there whenever he comes to us.”

2 Kings 4:11 One day when he came there, he went up to the chamber and lay down there.

2 Kings 4:12 He said to his servant Gehazi, “Call the Shunammite woman.” When he had called her, she stood before him.

2 Kings 4:13 He said to him, “Say to her, Since you have taken all this trouble for us, what may be done for you? Would you have a word spoken on your behalf to the king or to the commander of the army?” She answered, “I live among my own people.”

2 Kings 4:14 He said, “What then may be done for her?” Gehazi answered, “Well, she has no son, and her husband is old.”

2 Kings 4:15 He said, “Call her.” When he had called her, she stood at the door.

2 Kings 4:16 He said, “At this season, in due time, you shall embrace a son.” She replied, “No, my lord, O man of God; do not deceive your servant.”

2 Kings 4:17 The woman conceived and bore a son at that season, in due time, as Elisha had declared to her.

2 Kings 4:18 When the child was older, he went out one day to his father among the reapers.

2 Kings 4:19 He complained to his father, “Oh, my head, my head!” The father said to his servant, “Carry him to his mother.”

2 Kings 4:20 He carried him and brought him to his mother; the child sat on her lap until noon, and he died.

2 Kings 4:21 She went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, closed the door on him, and left.

2 Kings 4:22 Then she called to her husband, and said, “Send me one of the servants and one of the donkeys, so that I may quickly go to the man of God and come back again.”

2 Kings 4:23 He said, “Why go to him today? It is neither new moon nor sabbath.” She said, “It will be all right.”

2 Kings 4:24 Then she saddled the donkey and said to her servant, “Urge the animal on; do not hold back for me unless I tell you.”

2 Kings 4:25 So she set out, and came to the man of God at Mount Carmel. When the man of God saw her coming, he said to Gehazi his servant, “Look, there is the Shunammite woman;

2 Kings 4:26 run at once to meet her, and say to her, Are you all right? Is your husband all right? Is the child all right?” She answered, “It is all right.”

2 Kings 4:27 When she came to the man of God at the mountain, she caught hold of his feet. Gehazi approached to push her away. But the man of God said, “Let her alone, for she is in bitter distress; the LORD has hidden it from me and has not told me.”

2 Kings 4:28 Then she said, “Did I ask my lord for a son? Did I not say, Do not mislead me?”

2 Kings 4:29 He said to Gehazi, “Gird up your loins, and take my staff in your hand, and go. If you meet anyone, give no greeting, and if anyone greets you, do not answer; and lay my staff on the face of the child.”

2 Kings 4:30 Then the mother of the child said, “As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave without you.” So he rose up and followed her.

2 Kings 4:31 Gehazi went on ahead and laid the staff on the face of the child, but there was no sound or sign of life. He came back to meet him and told him, “The child has not awakened.”

2 Kings 4:32 When Elisha came into the house, he saw the child lying dead on his bed.

2 Kings 4:33 So he went in and closed the door on the two of them, and prayed to the LORD.

2 Kings 4:34 Then he got up on the bed and lay upon the child, putting his mouth upon his mouth, his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands; and while he lay bent over him, the flesh of the child became warm.

2 Kings 4:35 He got down, walked once to and fro in the room, then got up again and bent over him; the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes.

2 Kings 4:36 Elisha summoned Gehazi and said, “Call the Shunammite woman.” So he called her. When she came to him, he said, “Take your son.”

2 Kings 4:37 She came and fell at his feet, bowing to the ground; then she took her son and left.

2 Kings 4:38 When Elisha returned to Gilgal, there was a famine in the land. As the company of prophets was sitting before him, he said to his servant, “Put the large pot on, and make some stew for the company of prophets.”

2 Kings 4:39 One of them went out into the field to gather herbs; he found a wild vine and gathered from it a lapful of wild gourds, and came and cut them up into the pot of stew, not knowing what they were.

2 Kings 4:40 They served some for the men to eat. But while they were eating the stew, they cried out, “O man of God, there is death in the pot!” They could not eat it.

2 Kings 4:41 He said, “Then bring some flour.” He threw it into the pot, and said, “Serve the people and let them eat.” And there was nothing harmful in the pot.

2 Kings 4:42 A man came from Baal-shalishah, bringing food from the first fruits to the man of God: twenty loaves of barley and fresh ears of grain in his sack. Elisha said, “Give it to the people and let them eat.”

2 Kings 4:43 But his servant said, “How can I set this before a hundred people?” So he repeated, “Give it to the people and let them eat, for thus says the LORD, ‘They shall eat and have some left.’“

2 Kings 4:44 He set it before them, they ate, and had some left, according to the word of the LORD.

2 Kings 5:1 Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man and in high favor with his master, because by him the

2 Kings 5:2 Now the Arameans on one of their raids had taken a young girl captive from the land of Israel, and she served Naaman's wife.

2 Kings 5:3 She said to her mistress, "If only my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy."

2 Kings 5:4 So Naaman went in and told his lord just what the girl from the land of Israel had said.

2 Kings 5:5 And the king of Aram said, "Go then, and I will send along a letter to the king of Israel." He went, taking with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold, and ten sets of garments.

2 Kings 5:6 He brought the letter to the king of Israel, which read, "When this letter reaches you, know that I have sent to you my servant Naaman, that you may cure him of his leprosy."

2 Kings 5:7 When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, "Am I God, to give death or life, that this man sends word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? Just look and see how he is trying to pick a quarrel with me."

2 Kings 5:8 But when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent a message to the king, "Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come to me, that he may learn that there is a prophet in Israel."

2 Kings 5:9 So Naaman came with his horses and chariots, and halted at the entrance of Elisha's house.

2 Kings 5:10 Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go, wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored and you shall be clean."

2 Kings 5:11 But Naaman became angry and went away, saying, "I thought that for me he would surely come out, and stand and call on the name of the LORD his God, and would wave his hand over the spot, and cure the leprosy!

2 Kings 5:12 Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them, and be clean?" He turned and went away in a rage.

2 Kings 5:13 But his servants approached and said to him, "Father, if the prophet had commanded you to do something difficult, would you not have done it? How much more, when all he said to you was, 'Wash, and be clean'?"

2 Kings 5:14 So he went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; his flesh was restored like the flesh of a young boy, and he was clean.

2 Kings 5:15 Then he returned to the man of God, he and all his company; he came and stood before him and said, "Now I know that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel; please accept a present from your servant.”

2 Kings 5:16 But he said, “As the LORD lives, whom I serve, I will accept nothing!” He urged him to accept, but he refused.

2 Kings 5:17 Then Naaman said, “If not, please let two mule-loads of earth be given to your servant; for your servant will no longer offer burnt offering or sacrifice to any god except the LORD.

2 Kings 5:18 But may the LORD pardon your servant on one count: when my master goes into the house of Rimmon to worship there, leaning on my arm, and I bow down in the house of Rimmon, when I do bow down in the house of Rimmon, may the LORD pardon your servant on this one count.”

2 Kings 5:19 He said to him, “Go in peace.” But when Naaman had gone from him a short distance,

2 Kings 5:20 Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, thought, “My master has let that Aramean Naaman off too lightly by not accepting from him what he offered. As the LORD lives, I will run after him and get something out of him.”

2 Kings 5:21 So Gehazi went after Naaman. When Naaman saw someone running after him, he jumped down from the chariot to meet him and said, “Is everything all right?”

2 Kings 5:22 He replied, “Yes, but my master has sent me to say, ‘Two members of a company of prophets have just come to me from the hill country of Ephraim; please give them a talent of silver and two changes of clothing.’“

2 Kings 5:23 Naaman said, “Please accept two talents.” He urged him, and tied up two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of clothing, and gave them to two of his servants, who carried them in front of Gehazi.

2 Kings 5:24 When he came to the citadel, he took the bags from them, and stored them inside; he dismissed the men, and they left.

2 Kings 5:25 He went in and stood before his master; and Elisha said to him, “Where have you been, Gehazi?” He answered, “Your servant has not gone anywhere at all.”

2 Kings 5:26 But he said to him, “Did I not go with you in spirit when someone left his chariot to meet you? Is this a time to accept money and to accept clothing, olive orchards and vineyards, sheep and oxen, and male and female slaves?

2 Kings 5:27 Therefore the leprosy of Naaman shall cling to you, and to your descendants forever.” So he left his presence leprous, as white as snow.

2 Kings 6:1 Now the company of prophets said to Elisha, “As you see, the place where we live under your charge is too small for us.

2 Kings 6:2 Let us go to the Jordan, and let us collect logs there, one for each of us, and build a place there for us to live.” He answered, “Do so.”

2 Kings 6:3 Then one of them said, “Please come with your servants.” And he answered, “I will.”

2 Kings 6:4 So he went with them. When they came to the Jordan, they cut down trees.

2 Kings 6:5 But as one was felling a log, his ax head fell into the water; he cried out, “Alas, master! It was borrowed.”

2 Kings 6:6 Then the man of God said, “Where did it fall?” When he showed him the place, he cut off a stick, and threw it in there, and made the iron float.

2 Kings 6:7 He said, “Pick it up.” So he reached out his hand and took it.

2 Kings 6:8 Once when the king of Aram was at war with Israel, he took counsel with his officers. He said, “At such and such a place shall be my camp.”

2 Kings 6:9 But the man of God sent word to the king of Israel, “Take care not to pass this place, because the Arameans are going down there.”

2 Kings 6:10 The king of Israel sent word to the place of which the man of God spoke. More than once or twice he warned such a place so that it was on the alert.

2 Kings 6:11 The mind of the king of Aram was greatly perturbed because of this; he called his officers and said to them, “Now tell me who among us sides with the king of Israel?”

2 Kings 6:12 Then one of his officers said, “No one, my lord king. It is Elisha, the prophet in Israel, who tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedchamber.”

2 Kings 6:13 He said, “Go and find where he is; I will send and seize him.” He was told, “He is in Dothan.”

2 Kings 6:14 So he sent horses and chariots there and a great army; they came by night, and surrounded the city.

2 Kings 6:15 When an attendant of the man of God rose early in the morning and went out, an army with horses and chariots was all around the city. His servant said, “Alas, master! What shall we do?”

2 Kings 6:16 He replied, “Do not be afraid, for there are more with us than there are with them.”

2 Kings 6:17 Then Elisha prayed: “O LORD, please open his eyes that he may see.” So the LORD opened the eyes of the servant, and he saw; the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.

2 Kings 6:18 When the Arameans came down against him, Elisha prayed to the LORD, and said, “Strike this people, please, with blindness.” So he struck them with blindness as Elisha had asked.

2 Kings 6:19 Elisha said to them, “This is not the way, and this is not the city; follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom you seek.” And he led them to Samaria.

2 Kings 6:20 As soon as they entered Samaria, Elisha said, “O LORD, open the eyes of these men so that they may see.” The LORD opened their eyes, and they saw that they were inside Samaria.

2 Kings 6:21 When the king of Israel saw them he said to Elisha, “Father, shall I kill them? Shall I kill them?”

2 Kings 6:22 He answered, “No! Did you capture with your sword and your bow those whom you want to kill? Set food and water before them so that they may eat and drink; and let them go to their master.”

2 Kings 6:23 So he prepared for them a great feast; after they ate and drank, he sent them on their way, and they went to their master. And the Arameans no longer came raiding into the land of Israel.

2 Kings 6:24 Some time later King Ben-hadad of Aram mustered his entire army; he marched against Samaria and laid siege to it.

2 Kings 6:25 As the siege continued, famine in Samaria became so great that a donkey’s head was sold for eighty shekels of silver, and one-fourth of a kab of dove’s dung for five shekels of silver.

2 Kings 6:26 Now as the king of Israel was walking on the city wall, a woman cried out to him, “Help, my lord king!”

2 Kings 6:27 He said, “No! Let the LORD help you. How can I help you? From the threshing floor or from the wine press?”

2 Kings 6:28 But then the king asked her, “What is your complaint?” She answered, “This woman said to me, ‘Give up your son; we will eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.’

2 Kings 6:29 So we cooked my son and ate him. The next day I said to her, ‘Give up your son and we will eat him.’ But she has hidden her son.”

2 Kings 6:30 When the king heard the words of the woman he tore his clothes— now since he was walking on the city wall, the people could see that he had sackcloth on his body underneath—

2 Kings 6:31 and he said, “So may God do to me, and more, if the head of Elisha son of Shaphat stays on his shoulders today.”

2 Kings 6:32 So he dispatched a man from his presence. Now Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. Before the messenger arrived, Elisha said to the elders, “Are you aware that this murderer has sent someone to take off my head? When the messenger comes, see that you shut the door and hold it closed against him. Is not the sound of his master’s feet behind him?”

2 Kings 6:33 While he was still speaking with them, the king came down to him and said, “This trouble is from the LORD! Why should I hope in the LORD any longer?”

2 Kings 7:1 But Elisha said, “Hear the word of the LORD: thus says the LORD, Tomorrow about this time a measure of choice meal shall be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, at the gate of Samaria.”

2 Kings 7:2 Then the captain on whose hand the king leaned said to the man of God, “Even if the LORD were to make windows in the sky, could such a thing happen?” But he said, “You shall see it with your own eyes, but you shall not eat from it.”

2 Kings 7:3 Now there were four leprous men outside the city gate, who said to one another, “Why should we sit here until we die?

2 Kings 7:4 If we say, ‘Let us enter the city,’ the famine is in the city, and we shall die there; but if we sit here, we shall also die. Therefore, let us desert to the Aramean camp; if they spare our lives, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall but die.”

2 Kings 7:5 So they arose at twilight to go to the Aramean camp; but when they came to the edge of the Aramean camp, there was no one there at all.

2 Kings 7:6 For the Lord had caused the Aramean army to hear the sound of chariots, and of horses, the sound of a great army, so that they said to one another, “The king of Israel has hired the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Egypt to fight against us.”

2 Kings 7:7 So they fled away in the twilight and abandoned their tents, their horses, and their donkeys leaving the camp just as it was, and fled for their lives.

2 Kings 7:8 When these leprous men had come to the edge of the camp, they went into a tent, ate and drank, carried off silver, gold, and clothing, and went and hid them. Then they came back, entered another tent, carried off things from it, and went and hid them.

2 Kings 7:9 Then they said to one another, “What we are doing is wrong. This is a day of good news; if we are silent and wait until the morning light, we will be found guilty; therefore let us go and tell the king’s household.”

2 Kings 7:10 So they came and called to the gatekeepers of the city, and told them, “We went to the Aramean camp, but there was no one to be seen or heard there, nothing but the horses tied, the donkeys tied, and the tents as they were.”

2 Kings 7:11 Then the gatekeepers called out and proclaimed it to the king’s household.

2 Kings 7:12 The king got up in the night, and said to his servants, “I will tell you what the Arameans have prepared against us. They know that we are starving; so they have left the camp to hide themselves in the open country, thinking, ‘When they come out of the city, we shall take them alive and get into the city.’“

2 Kings 7:13 One of his servants said, “Let some men take five of the remaining horses, since those left here will suffer the fate of the whole multitude of Israel that have perished already; let us send and find out.”

2 Kings 7:14 So they took two mounted men, and the king sent them after the Aramean army, saying, “Go and find out.”

2 Kings 7:15 So they went after them as far as the Jordan; the whole way was littered with garments and equipment that the Arameans had thrown away in their haste. So the messengers returned, and told the king.

2 Kings 7:16 Then the people went out, and plundered the camp of the Arameans. So a measure of choice meal was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the word of the LORD.

2 Kings 7:17 Now the king had appointed the captain on whose hand he leaned to have charge of the gate; the people trampled him to death in the gate, just as the man of God had said when the king came down to him.

2 Kings 7:18 For when the man of God had said to the king, “Two measures of barley shall be sold for a shekel, and a measure of choice meal for a shekel, about this time tomorrow in the gate of Samaria,”

2 Kings 7:19 the captain had answered the man of God, “Even if the LORD were to make windows in the sky, could such a thing happen?” And he had answered, “You shall see it with your own eyes, but you shall not eat from it.”

2 Kings 7:20 It did indeed happen to him; the people trampled him to death in the gate.

2 Kings 8:1 Now Elisha had said to the woman whose son he had restored to life, “Get up and go with your household, and settle wherever you can; for the LORD has called for a famine, and it will come on the land for seven years.”

2 Kings 8:2 So the woman got up and did according to the word of the man of God; she went with her household and settled in the land of the Philistines seven years.

2 Kings 8:3 At the end of the seven years, when the woman returned from the land of the Philistines, she set out to appeal to the king for her house and her land.

2 Kings 8:4 Now the king was talking with Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, “Tell me all the great things that Elisha has done.”

2 Kings 8:5 While he was telling the king how Elisha had restored a dead person to life, the woman whose son he had restored to life appealed to the king for her house and her land. Gehazi said, “My lord king, here is the woman, and here is her son whom Elisha restored to life.”

2 Kings 8:6 When the king questioned the woman, she told him. So the king appointed an official for her, saying, “Restore all that was hers, together with all the revenue of the fields from the day that she left the land until now.”

2 Kings 8:7 Elisha went to Damascus while King Ben-hadad of Aram was ill. When it was told him, “The man of God has come here,”

2 Kings 8:8 the king said to Hazael, “Take a present with you and go to meet the man of God. Inquire of the LORD through him, whether I shall recover from this illness.”

2 Kings 8:9 So Hazael went to meet him, taking a present with him, all kinds of goods of Damascus, forty camel loads. When he entered and stood before him, he said, “Your son King Ben-hadad of Aram has sent me to you, saying, ‘Shall I recover from this illness?’“

2 Kings 8:10 Elisha said to him, “Go, say to him, ‘You shall certainly recover’; but the LORD has shown me that he shall certainly die.”

2 Kings 8:11 He fixed his gaze and stared at him, until he was ashamed. Then the man of God wept.

2 Kings 8:12 Hazael asked, “Why does my lord weep?” He answered, “Because I know the evil that you will do to the people of Israel; you will set their fortresses on fire, you will kill their young men with the sword, dash in pieces their little ones, and rip up their pregnant women.”

2 Kings 8:13 Hazael said, “What is your servant, who is a mere dog, that he should do this great thing?” Elisha answered, “The LORD has shown me that you are to be king over Aram.”

2 Kings 8:14 Then he left Elisha, and went to his master Ben-hadad, who said to him, “What did Elisha say to you?” And he answered, “He told me that you would certainly recover.”

2 Kings 8:15 But the next day he took the bed-cover and dipped it in water and spread it over the king’s face, until he died. And Hazael succeeded him.

2 Kings 8:16 In the fifth year of King Joram son of Ahab of Israel, Jehoram son of King Jehoshaphat of Judah began to reign.

2 Kings 8:17 He was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

2 Kings 8:18 He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab had done, for the daughter of Ahab was his wife. He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD.

2 Kings 8:19 Yet the LORD would not destroy Judah, for the sake of his servant David, since he had promised to give a lamp to him and to his descendants forever.

2 Kings 8:20 In his days Edom revolted against the rule of Judah, and set up a king of their own.

2 Kings 8:21 Then Joram crossed over to Zair with all his chariots. He set out by night and attacked the Edomites and their chariot commanders who had surrounded him; but his army fled home.

2 Kings 8:22 So Edom has been in revolt against the rule of Judah to this day. Libnah also revolted at the same time.

2 Kings 8:23 Now the rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?

2 Kings 8:24 So Joram slept with his ancestors, and was buried with them in the city of David; his son Ahaziah succeeded him.

2 Kings 8:25 In the twelfth year of King Joram son of Ahab of Israel, Ahaziah son of King Jehoram of Judah began to reign.

2 Kings 8:26 Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah, a granddaughter of King Omri of Israel.

2 Kings 8:27 He also walked in the way of the house of Ahab, doing what was evil in the sight of the LORD, as the house of Ahab had done, for he was son-in-law to the house of Ahab.

2 Kings 8:28 He went with Joram son of Ahab to wage war against King Hazael of Aram at Ramoth-gilead, where the Arameans wounded Joram.

2 Kings 8:29 King Joram returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds that the Arameans had inflicted on him at Ramah, when he fought against King Hazael of Aram. King Ahaziah son of Jehoram of Judah went down to see Joram son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was wounded.

2 Kings 9:1 Then the prophet Elisha called a member of the company of prophets and said to him, “Gird up your loins; take this flask of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth-gilead.

2 Kings 9:2 When you arrive, look there for Jehu son of Jehoshaphat, son of Nimshi; go in and get him to leave his companions, and take him into an inner chamber.

2 Kings 9:3 Then take the flask of oil, pour it on his head, and say, ‘Thus says the LORD: I anoint you king over Israel.’ Then open the door and flee; do not linger.”

2 Kings 9:4 So the young man, the young prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead.

2 Kings 9:5 He arrived while the commanders of the army were in council, and he announced, “I have a message for you, commander.” “For which one of us?” asked Jehu. “For you, commander.”

2 Kings 9:6 So Jehu got up and went inside; the young man poured the oil on his head, saying to him, “Thus says the LORD the God of Israel: I anoint you king over the people of the LORD, over Israel.

2 Kings 9:7 You shall strike down the house of your master Ahab, so that I may avenge on Jezebel the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD.

2 Kings 9:8 For the whole house of Ahab shall perish; I will cut off from Ahab every male, bond or free, in Israel.

2 Kings 9:9 I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha son of Ahijah.

2 Kings 9:10 The dogs shall eat Jezebel in the territory of Jezreel, and no one shall bury her.” Then he opened the door and fled.

2 Kings 9:11 When Jehu came back to his master’s officers, they said to him, “Is everything all right? Why did that madman come to you?” He answered them, “You know the sort and how they babble.”

2 Kings 9:12 They said, “Liar! Come on, tell us!” So he said, “This is just what he said to me: ‘Thus says the LORD, I anoint you king over Israel.’“

2 Kings 9:13 Then hurriedly they all took their cloaks and spread them for him on the bare steps; and they blew the trumpet, and proclaimed, “Jehu is king.”

2 Kings 9:14 Thus Jehu son of Jehoshaphat son of Nimshi conspired against Joram. Joram with all Israel had been on guard at Ramoth-gilead against King Hazael of Aram;

2 Kings 9:15 but King Joram had returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds that the Arameans had inflicted on him, when he fought against King Hazael of Aram. So Jehu said, “If this is your wish, then let no one slip out of the city to go and tell the news in Jezreel.”

2 Kings 9:16 Then Jehu mounted his chariot and went to Jezreel, where Joram was lying ill. King Ahaziah of Judah had come down to visit Joram.

2 Kings 9:17 In Jezreel, the sentinel standing on the tower spied the company of Jehu arriving, and said, “I see a company.” Joram said, “Take a horseman; send him to meet them, and let him say, ‘Is it peace?’“

2 Kings 9:18 So the horseman went to meet him; he said, “Thus says the king, ‘Is it peace?’“ Jehu responded, “What have you to do with peace? Fall in behind me.” The sentinel reported, saying, “The messenger reached them, but he is not coming back.”

2 Kings 9:19 Then he sent out a second horseman, who came to them and said, “Thus says the king, ‘Is it peace?’“ Jehu answered, “What have you to do with peace? Fall in behind me.”

2 Kings 9:20 Again the sentinel reported, “He reached them, but he is not coming back. It looks like the driving of Jehu son of Nimshi; for he drives like a maniac.”

2 Kings 9:21 Joram said, “Get ready.” And they got his chariot ready. Then King Joram of Israel and King Ahaziah of Judah set out, each in his chariot, and went to meet Jehu; they met him at the property of Naboth the Jezreelite.

2 Kings 9:22 When Joram saw Jehu, he said, “Is it peace, Jehu?” He answered, “What peace can there be, so long as the many whoredoms and sorceries of your mother Jezebel continue?”

2 Kings 9:23 Then Joram reined about and fled, saying to Ahaziah, “Treason, Ahaziah!”

2 Kings 9:24 Jehu drew his bow with all his strength, and shot Joram between the shoulders, so that the arrow pierced his heart; and he sank in his chariot.

2 Kings 9:25 Jehu said to his aide Bidkar, “Lift him out, and throw him on the plot of ground belonging to Naboth the Jezreelite; for remember, when you and I rode side by side behind his father Ahab how the LORD uttered this oracle against him:

2 Kings 9:26 ‘For the blood of Naboth and for the blood of his children that I saw yesterday, says the LORD, I swear I will repay you on this very plot of ground.’ Now therefore lift him out and throw him on the plot of ground, in accordance with the word of the LORD.”

2 Kings 9:27 When King Ahaziah of Judah saw this, he fled in the direction of Beth-haggan. Jehu pursued him, saying, “Shoot him also!” And they shot him in the chariot at the ascent to Gur, which is by Ibleam. Then he fled to Megiddo, and died there.

2 Kings 9:28 His officers carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his tomb with his ancestors in the city of David.

2 Kings 9:29 In the eleventh year of Joram son of Ahab, Ahaziah began to reign over Judah.

2 Kings 9:30 When Jehu came to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; she painted her eyes, and adorned her head, and looked out of the window.

2 Kings 9:31 As Jehu entered the gate, she said, “Is it peace, Zimri, murderer of your master?”

2 Kings 9:32 He looked up to the window and said, “Who is on my side? Who?” Two or three eunuchs looked out at him.

2 Kings 9:33 He said, “Throw her down.” So they threw her down; some of her blood spattered on the wall and on the horses, which trampled on her.

2 Kings 9:34 Then he went in and ate and drank; he said, “See to that cursed woman and bury her; for she is a king’s daughter.”

2 Kings 9:35 But when they went to bury her, they found no more of her than the skull and the feet and the palms of her hands.

2 Kings 9:36 When they came back and told him, he said, “This is the word of the LORD, which he spoke by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, ‘In the territory of Jezreel the dogs shall eat the flesh of Jezebel;

2 Kings 9:37 the corpse of Jezebel shall be like dung on the field in the territory of Jezreel, so that no one can say, This is Jezebel.’“

2 Kings 10:1 Now Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. So Jehu wrote letters and sent them to Samaria, to the rulers of Jezreel, to the elders, and to the guardians of the sons of Ahab, saying,

2 Kings 10:2 “Since your master’s sons are with you and you have at your disposal chariots and horses, a fortified city, and weapons,

2 Kings 10:3 select the son of your master who is the best qualified, set him on his father’s throne, and fight for your master’s house.”

2 Kings 10:4 But they were utterly terrified and said, “Look, two kings could not withstand him; how then can we stand?”

2 Kings 10:5 So the steward of the palace, and the governor of the city, along with the elders and the guardians, sent word to Jehu: “We are your servants; we will do anything you say. We will not make anyone king; do whatever you think right.”

2 Kings 10:6 Then he wrote them a second letter, saying, “If you are on my side, and if you are ready to obey me, take the heads of your master’s sons and come to me at Jezreel tomorrow at this time.” Now the king’s sons, seventy persons, were with the leaders of the city, who were charged with their upbringing.

2 Kings 10:7 When the letter reached them, they took the king’s sons and killed them, seventy persons; they put their heads in baskets and sent them to him at Jezreel.

2 Kings 10:8 When the messenger came and told him, “They have brought the heads of the king’s sons,” he said, “Lay them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until the morning.”

2 Kings 10:9 Then in the morning when he went out, he stood and said to all the people, “You are innocent. It was I who conspired against my master and killed him; but who struck down all these?

2 Kings 10:10 Know then that there shall fall to the earth nothing of the word of the LORD, which the LORD spoke concerning the house of Ahab; for the LORD has done what he said through his servant Elijah.”

2 Kings 10:12 Then he set out and went to Samaria. On the way, when he was at Beth-eked of the Shepherds,

2 Kings 10:13 Jehu met relatives of King Ahaziah of Judah and said, “Who are you?” They answered, “We are kin of Ahaziah; we have come down to visit the royal princes and the sons of the queen mother.”

2 Kings 10:14 He said, “Take them alive.” They took them alive, and slaughtered them at the pit of Beth-eked, forty-two in all; he spared none of them.

2 Kings 10:15 When he left there, he met Jehonadab son of Rechab coming to meet him; he greeted him, and said to him, “Is your heart as true to mine as mine is to yours?” Jehonadab answered, “It is.” Jehu said, “If it is, give me your hand.” So he gave him his hand. Jehu took him up with him into the chariot.

2 Kings 10:16 He said, “Come with me, and see my zeal for the LORD.” So he had him ride in his chariot.

2 Kings 10:17 When he came to Samaria, he killed all who were left to Ahab in Samaria, until he had wiped them out, according to the word of the LORD that he spoke to Elijah.

2 Kings 10:18 Then Jehu assembled all the people and said to them, “Ahab offered Baal small service; but Jehu will offer much more.

2 Kings 10:19 Now therefore summon to me all the prophets of Baal, all his worshipers, and all his priests; let none be missing, for I have a great sacrifice to offer to Baal; whoever is missing shall not live.” But Jehu was acting with cunning in order to destroy the worshipers of Baal.

2 Kings 10:20 Jehu decreed, “Sanctify a solemn assembly for Baal.” So they proclaimed it.

2 Kings 10:21 Jehu sent word throughout all Israel; all the worshipers of Baal came, so that there was no one left who did not come. They entered the temple of Baal, until the temple of Baal was filled from wall to wall.

2 Kings 10:22 He said to the keeper of the wardrobe, “Bring out the vestments for all the worshipers of Baal.” So he brought out the vestments for them.

2 Kings 10:23 Then Jehu entered the temple of Baal with Jehonadab son of Rechab; he said to the worshipers of Baal, “Search and see that there is no worshiper of the LORD here among you, but only worshipers of Baal.”

2 Kings 10:24 Then they proceeded to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had stationed eighty men outside, saying, “Whoever allows any of those to escape whom I deliver into your hands shall forfeit his life.”

2 Kings 10:25 As soon as he had finished presenting the burnt offering, Jehu said to the guards and to the officers, “Come in and kill them; let no one escape.” So they put them to the sword. The guards and the officers threw them out, and then went into the citadel of the temple of Baal.

2 Kings 10:26 They brought out the pillar that was in the temple of Baal, and burned it.

2 Kings 10:27 Then they demolished the pillar of Baal, and destroyed the temple of Baal, and made it a latrine to this day.

2 Kings 10:28 Thus Jehu wiped out Baal from Israel.

2 Kings 10:29 But Jehu did not turn aside from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he caused Israel to commit— the golden calves that were in Bethel and in Dan.

2 Kings 10:30 The LORD said to Jehu, “Because you have done well in carrying out what I consider right, and in accordance with all that was in my heart have dealt with the house of Ahab, your sons of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel.”

2 Kings 10:31 But Jehu was not careful to follow the law of the LORD the God of Israel with all his heart; he did not turn from the sins of Jeroboam, which he caused Israel to commit.

2 Kings 10:32 In those days the LORD began to trim off parts of Israel. Hazael defeated them throughout the territory of Israel:

2 Kings 10:33 from the Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the Wadi Arnon, that is, Gilead and Bashan.

2 Kings 10:34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, all that he did, and all his power, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?

2 Kings 10:35 So Jehu slept with his ancestors, and they buried him in Samaria. His son Jehoahaz succeeded him.

2 Kings 10:36 The time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.

2 Kings 11:1 Now when Athaliah, Ahaziah’s mother, saw that her son was dead, she set about to destroy all the royal family.

2 Kings 11:2 But Jehosheba, King Joram’s daughter, Ahaziah’s sister, took Joash son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king’s children who were about to be killed; she put him and his nurse in a bedroom. Thus she hid him from Athaliah, so that he was not killed;

2 Kings 11:3 he remained with her six years, hidden in the house of the LORD, while Athaliah reigned over the land.

2 Kings 11:4 But in the seventh year Jehoiada summoned the captains of the Carites and of the guards and had them come to him in the house of the LORD. He made a covenant with them and put them under oath in the house of the LORD; then he showed them the king’s son.

2 Kings 11:5 He commanded them, “This is what you are to do: one-third of you, those who go off duty on the sabbath and guard the king’s house

2 Kings 11:6 (another third being at the gate Sur and a third at the gate behind the guards), shall guard the palace;

2 Kings 11:7 and your two divisions that come on duty in force on the sabbath and guard the house of the LORD

2 Kings 11:8 shall surround the king, each with weapons in hand; and whoever approaches the ranks is to be killed. Be with the king in his comings and goings.”

2 Kings 11:9 The captains did according to all that the priest Jehoiada commanded; each brought his men who were to go off duty on the sabbath, with those who were to come on duty on the sabbath, and came to the priest Jehoiada.

2 Kings 11:10 The priest delivered to the captains the spears and shields that had been King David’s, which were in the house of the LORD;

2 Kings 11:11 the guards stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, from the south side of the house to the north side of the house, around the altar and the house, to guard the king on every side.

2 Kings 11:12 Then he brought out the king’s son, put the crown on him, and gave him the covenant; they proclaimed him king, and anointed him; they clapped their hands and shouted, “Long live the king!”

2 Kings 11:13 When Athaliah heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she went into the house of the LORD to the people;

2 Kings 11:14 when she looked, there was the king standing by the pillar, according to custom, with the captains and the trumpeters beside the king, and all the people of the land rejoicing and blowing trumpets. Athaliah tore her clothes and cried, “Treason! Treason!”

2 Kings 11:15 Then the priest Jehoiada commanded the captains who were set over the army, “Bring her out between the ranks, and kill with the sword anyone who follows her.” For the priest said, “Let her not be killed in the house of the LORD.”

2 Kings 11:16 So they laid hands on her; she went through the horses’ entrance to the king’s house, and there she was put to death.

2 Kings 11:17 Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD and the king and people, that they should be the LORD’s people; also between the king and the people.

2 Kings 11:18 Then all the people of the land went to the house of Baal, and tore it down; his altars and his images they broke in pieces, and they killed Mattan, the priest of Baal, before the altars. The priest posted guards over the house of the LORD.

2 Kings 11:19 He took the captains, the Carites, the guards, and all the people of the land; then they brought the king down from the house of the LORD, marching through the gate of the guards to the king's house. He took his seat on the throne of the kings.

2 Kings 11:20 So all the people of the land rejoiced; and the city was quiet after Athaliah had been killed with the sword at the king's house.

2 Kings 11:21 Jehoash was seven years old when he began to reign.

2 Kings 12:1 In the seventh year of Jehu, Jehoash began to reign; he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.

2 Kings 12:2 Jehoash did what was right in the sight of the LORD all his days, because the priest Jehoiada instructed him.

2 Kings 12:3 Nevertheless the high places were not taken away; the people continued to sacrifice and make offerings on the high places.

2 Kings 12:4 Jehoash said to the priests, "All the money offered as sacred donations that is brought into the house of the LORD, the money for which each person is assessed— the money from the assessment of persons— and the money from the voluntary offerings brought into the house of the LORD,

2 Kings 12:5 let the priests receive from each of the donors; and let them repair the house wherever any need of repairs is discovered."

2 Kings 12:6 But by the twenty-third year of King Jehoash the priests had made no repairs on the house.

2 Kings 12:7 Therefore King Jehoash summoned the priest Jehoiada with the other priests and said to them, "Why are you not repairing the house? Now therefore do not accept any more money from your donors but hand it over for the repair of the house."

2 Kings 12:8 So the priests agreed that they would neither accept more money from the people nor repair the house.

2 Kings 12:9 Then the priest Jehoiada took a chest, made a hole in its lid, and set it beside the altar on the right side as one entered the house of the LORD; the priests who guarded the threshold put in it all the money that was brought into the house of the LORD.

2 Kings 12:10 Whenever they saw that there was a great deal of money in the chest, the king's secretary and the high priest went up, counted the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and tied it up in bags.

2 Kings 12:11 They would give the money that was weighed out into the hands of the workers who had the oversight of the house of the LORD; then they paid it out to the carpenters and the builders who worked on the house of the LORD,

2 Kings 12:12 to the masons and the stonecutters, as well as to buy timber and quarried stone for making repairs on the house of the LORD, as well as for any outlay for repairs of the house.

2 Kings 12:13 But for the house of the LORD no basins of silver, snuffers, bowls, trumpets, or any vessels of gold, or of silver, were made from the money that was brought into the house of the LORD,

2 Kings 12:14 for that was given to the workers who were repairing the house of the LORD with it.

2 Kings 12:15 They did not ask an accounting from those into whose hand they delivered the money to pay out to the workers, for they dealt honestly.

2 Kings 12:16 The money from the guilt offerings and the money from the sin offerings was not brought into the house of the LORD; it belonged to the priests.

2 Kings 12:17 At that time King Hazael of Aram went up, fought against Gath, and took it. But when Hazael set his face to go up against Jerusalem,

2 Kings 12:18 King Jehoash of Judah took all the votive gifts that Jehoshaphat, Jehoram, and Ahaziah, his ancestors, the kings of Judah, had dedicated, as well as his own votive gifts, all the gold that was found in the treasuries of the house of the LORD and of the king’s house, and sent these to King Hazael of Aram. Then Hazael withdrew from Jerusalem.

2 Kings 12:19 Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?

2 Kings 12:20 His servants arose, devised a conspiracy, and killed Joash in the house of Millo, on the way that goes down to Silla.

2 Kings 12:21 It was Jozacar son of Shimeath and Jehozabad son of Shomer, his servants, who struck him down, so that he died. He was buried with his ancestors in the city of David; then his son Amaziah succeeded him.

2 Kings 13:1 In the twenty-third year of King Joash son of Ahaziah of Judah, Jehoahaz son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria; he reigned seventeen years.

2 Kings 13:2 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and followed the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he caused Israel to sin; he did not depart from them.

2 Kings 13:3 The anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, so that he gave them repeatedly into the hand of King Hazael of Aram, then into the hand of Ben-hadad son of Hazael.

2 Kings 13:4 But Jehoahaz entreated the LORD, and the LORD heeded him; for he saw the oppression of Israel, how the king of Aram oppressed them.

2 Kings 13:5 Therefore the LORD gave Israel a savior, so that they escaped from the hand of the Arameans; and the people of Israel lived in their homes as formerly.

2 Kings 13:6 Nevertheless they did not depart from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, which he caused Israel to sin, but walked in them; the sacred pole also remained in Samaria.

2 Kings 13:7 So Jehoahaz was left with an army of not more than fifty horsemen, ten chariots and ten thousand footmen; for the king of Aram had destroyed them and made them like the dust at threshing.

2 Kings 13:8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz and all that he did, including his might, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?

2 Kings 13:9 So Jehoahaz slept with his ancestors, and they buried him in Samaria; then his son Joash succeeded him.

2 Kings 13:10 In the thirty-seventh year of King Joash of Judah, Jehoash son of Jehoahaz began to reign over Israel in Samaria; he reigned sixteen years.

2 Kings 13:11 He also did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he caused Israel to sin, but he walked in them.

2 Kings 13:12 Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, as well as the might with which he fought against King Amaziah of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?

2 Kings 13:13 So Joash slept with his ancestors, and Jeroboam sat upon his throne; Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

2 Kings 13:14 Now when Elisha had fallen sick with the illness of which he was to die, King Joash of Israel went down to him, and wept before him, crying, “My father, my father! The chariots of Israel and its horsemen!”

2 Kings 13:15 Elisha said to him, “Take a bow and arrows”; so he took a bow and arrows.

2 Kings 13:16 Then he said to the king of Israel, “Draw the bow”; and he drew it. Elisha laid his hands on the king’s hands.

2 Kings 13:17 Then he said, “Open the window eastward”; and he opened it. Elisha said, “Shoot”; and he shot. Then he said, “The LORD’s arrow of victory, the arrow of victory over Aram! For you shall fight the Arameans in Aphek until you have made an end of them.”

2 Kings 13:18 He continued, “Take the arrows”; and he took them. He said to the king of Israel, “Strike the ground with them”; he struck three times, and stopped.

2 Kings 13:19 Then the man of God was angry with him, and said, “You should have struck five or six times; then you would have struck down Aram until you had made an end of it, but now you will strike down Aram only three times."

2 Kings 13:20 So Elisha died, and they buried him. Now bands of Moabites used to invade the land in the spring of the year.

2 Kings 13:21 As a man was being buried, a marauding band was seen and the man was thrown into the grave of Elisha; as soon as the man touched the bones of Elisha, he came to life and stood on his feet.

2 Kings 13:22 Now King Hazael of Aram oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz.

2 Kings 13:23 But the LORD was gracious to them and had compassion on them; he turned toward them, because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not destroy them; nor has he banished them from his presence until now.

2 Kings 13:24 When King Hazael of Aram died, his son Ben-hadad succeeded him.

2 Kings 13:25 Then Jehoash son of Jehoahaz took again from Ben-hadad son of Hazael the towns that he had taken from his father Jehoahaz in war. Three times Joash defeated him and recovered the towns of Israel.

2 Kings 14:1 In the second year of King Joash son of Joahaz of Israel, King Amaziah son of Joash of Judah, began to reign.

2 Kings 14:2 He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddin of Jerusalem.

2 Kings 14:3 He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, yet not like his ancestor David; in all things he did as his father Joash had done.

2 Kings 14:4 But the high places were not removed; the people still sacrificed and made offerings on the high places.

2 Kings 14:5 As soon as the royal power was firmly in his hand he killed his servants who had murdered his father the king.

2 Kings 14:6 But he did not put to death the children of the murderers; according to what is written in the book of the law of Moses, where the LORD commanded, "The parents shall not be put to death for the children, or the children be put to death for the parents; but all shall be put to death for their own sins."

2 Kings 14:7 He killed ten thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt and took Sela by storm; he called it Jokthe-el, which is its name to this day.

2 Kings 14:8 Then Amaziah sent messengers to King Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, son of Jehu, of Israel, saying, "Come, let us look one another in the face."

2 Kings 14:9 King Jehoash of Israel sent word to King Amaziah of Judah, “A thornbush on Lebanon sent to a cedar on Lebanon, saying, ‘Give your daughter to my son for a wife’; but a wild animal of Lebanon passed by and trampled down the thornbush.

2 Kings 14:10 You have indeed defeated Edom, and your heart has lifted you up. Be content with your glory, and stay at home; for why should you provoke trouble so that you fall, you and Judah with you?”

2 Kings 14:11 But Amaziah would not listen. So King Jehoash of Israel went up; he and King Amaziah of Judah faced one another in battle at Beth-shemesh, which belongs to Judah.

2 Kings 14:12 Judah was defeated by Israel; everyone fled home.

2 Kings 14:13 King Jehoash of Israel captured King Amaziah of Judah son of Jehoash, son of Ahaziah, at Beth-shemesh; he came to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate, a distance of four hundred cubits.

2 Kings 14:14 He seized all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of the LORD and in the treasuries of the king’s house, as well as hostages; then he returned to Samaria.

2 Kings 14:15 Now the rest of the acts that Jehoash did, his might, and how he fought with King Amaziah of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?

2 Kings 14:16 Jehoash slept with his ancestors, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel; then his son Jeroboam succeeded him.

2 Kings 14:17 King Amaziah son of Joash of Judah lived fifteen years after the death of King Jehoash son of Jehoahaz of Israel.

2 Kings 14:18 Now the rest of the deeds of Amaziah, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?

2 Kings 14:19 They made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish. But they sent after him to Lachish, and killed him there.

2 Kings 14:20 They brought him on horses; he was buried in Jerusalem with his ancestors in the city of David.

2 Kings 14:21 All the people of Judah took Azariah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king to succeed his father Amaziah.

2 Kings 14:22 He rebuilt Elath and restored it to Judah, after King Amaziah slept with his ancestors.

2 Kings 14:23 In the fifteenth year of King Amaziah son of Joash of Judah, King Jeroboam son of Joash of Israel began to reign in Samaria; he reigned forty-one years.

2 Kings 14:24 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he caused Israel to sin.

2 Kings 14:25 He restored the border of Israel from Lebo-hamath as far as the Sea of the Arabah, according to the word of the LORD, the God of Israel, which he spoke by his servantJonah son of Amittai, the prophet, who was from Gath-hepher.

2 Kings 14:26 For the LORD saw that the distress of Israel was very bitter; there was no one left, bond or free, and no one to help Israel.

2 Kings 14:27 But the LORD had not said that he would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven, so he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam son of Joash.

2 Kings 14:28 Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did, and his might, how he fought, and how he recovered for Israel Damascus and Hamath, which had belonged to Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?

2 Kings 14:29 Jeroboam slept with his ancestors, the kings of Israel; his son Zechariah succeeded him.

2 Kings 15:1 In the twenty-seventh year of King Jeroboam of Israel King Azariah son of Amaziah of Judah began to reign.

2 Kings 15:2 He was sixteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.

2 Kings 15:3 He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, just as his father Amaziah had done.

2 Kings 15:4 Nevertheless the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and made offerings on the high places.

2 Kings 15:5 The LORD struck the king, so that he was leprous to the day of his death, and lived in a separate house. Jotham the king’s son was in charge of the palace, governing the people of the land.

2 Kings 15:6 Now the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?

2 Kings 15:8 In the thirty-eighth year of King Azariah of Judah, Zechariah son of Jeroboam reigned over Israel in Samaria six months.

2 Kings 15:9 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his ancestors had done. He did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he caused Israel to sin.

2 Kings 15:10 Shallum son of Jabesh conspired against him, and struck him down in public and killed him, and reigned in place of him.

2 Kings 15:11 Now the rest of the deeds of Zechariah are written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel.

2 Kings 15:12 This was the promise of the LORD that he gave to Jehu, “Your sons shall sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation.” And so it happened.

2 Kings 15:13 Shallum son of Jabesh began to reign in the thirty-ninth year of King Uzziah of Judah; he reigned one month in Samaria.

2 Kings 15:14 Then Menahem son of Gadi came up from Tirzah and came to Samaria; he struck down Shallum son of Jabesh in Samaria and killed him; he reigned in place of him.

2 Kings 15:15 Now the rest of the deeds of Shallum, including the conspiracy that he made, are written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel.

2 Kings 15:16 At that time Menahem sacked Tiphsah, all who were in it and its territory from Tirzah on; because they did not open it to him, he sacked it. He ripped open all the pregnant women in it.

2 Kings 15:17 In the thirty-ninth year of King Azariah of Judah, Menahem son of Gadi began to reign over Israel; he reigned ten years in Samaria.

2 Kings 15:18 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart all his days from any of the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he caused Israel to sin.

2 Kings 15:19 King Pul of Assyria came against the land; Menahem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver, so that he might help him confirm his hold on the royal power.

2 Kings 15:20 Menahem exacted the money from Israel, that is, from all the wealthy, fifty shekels of silver from each one, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back, and did not stay there in the land.

2 Kings 15:21 Now the rest of the deeds of Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?

2 Kings 15:23 In the fiftieth year of King Azariah of Judah, Pekahiah son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria; he reigned two years.

2 Kings 15:24 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he caused Israel to sin.

2 Kings 15:25 Pekah son of Remaliah, his captain, conspired against him with fifty of the Gileadites, and attacked him in Samaria, in the citadel of the palace along with Argob and Arieh; he killed him, and reigned in place of him.

2 Kings 15:26 Now the rest of the deeds of Pekahiah, and all that he did, are written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel.

2 Kings 15:27 In the fifty-second year of King Azariah of Judah, Pekah son of Remaliah began to reign over Israel in Samaria; he reigned twenty years.

2 Kings 15:28 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he caused Israel to sin.

2 Kings 15:29 In the days of King Pekah of Israel, King Tiglath-pileser of Assyria came and captured Ijon, Abel-beth-maacah, Janoah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali; and he carried the people captive to Assyria.

2 Kings 15:30 Then Hoshea son of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah son of Remaliah, attacked him, and killed him; he reigned in place of him, in the twentieth year of Jotham son of Uzziah.

2 Kings 15:31 Now the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, are written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel.

2 Kings 15:32 In the second year of King Pekah son of Remaliah of Israel, King Jotham son of Uzziah of Judah began to reign.

2 Kings 15:33 He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Jerusha daughter of Zadok.

2 Kings 15:34 He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, just as his father Uzziah had done.

2 Kings 15:35 Nevertheless the high places were not removed; the people still sacrificed and made offerings on the high places. He built the upper gate of the house of the LORD.

2 Kings 15:36 Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?

2 Kings 15:37 In those days the LORD began to send King Rezin of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah against Judah.

2 Kings 15:38 Jotham slept with his ancestors, and was buried with his ancestors in the city of David, his ancestor; his son Ahaz succeeded him.

2 Kings 16:1 In the seventeenth year of Pekah son of Remaliah, King Ahaz son of Jotham of Judah began to reign.

2 Kings 16:2 Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign; he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. He did not do what was right in the sight of the LORD his God, as his ancestor David had done,

2 Kings 16:3 but he walked in the way of the kings of Israel. He even made his son pass through fire, according to the abominable practices of the nations whom the LORD drove out before the people of Israel.

2 Kings 16:4 He sacrificed and made offerings on the high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.

2 Kings 16:5 Then King Rezin of Aram and King Pekah son of Remaliah of Israel came up to wage war on Jerusalem; they besieged Ahaz but could not conquer him.

2 Kings 16:6 At that time the king of Edom recovered Elath for Edom, and drove the Judeans from Elath; and the Edomites came to Elath, where they live to this day.

2 Kings 16:7 Ahaz sent messengers to King Tiglath-pileser of Assyria, saying, “I am your servant and your son. Come up, and rescue me from the hand of the king of Aram and from the hand of the king of Israel, who are attacking me.”

2 Kings 16:8 Ahaz also took the silver and gold found in the house of the LORD and in the treasures of the king’s house, and sent a present to the king of Assyria.

2 Kings 16:9 The king of Assyria listened to him; the king of Assyria marched up against Damascus, and took it, carrying its people captive to Kir; then he killed Rezin.

2 Kings 16:10 When King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet King Tiglath-pileser of Assyria, he saw the altar that was at Damascus. King Ahaz sent to the priest Uriah a model of the altar, and its pattern, exact in all its details.

2 Kings 16:11 The priest Uriah built the altar; in accordance with all that King Ahaz had sent from Damascus, just so did the priest Uriah build it, before King Ahaz arrived from Damascus.

2 Kings 16:12 When the king came from Damascus, the king viewed the altar. Then the king drew near to the altar, went up on it,

2 Kings 16:13 and offered his burnt offering and his grain offering, poured his drink offering, and dashed the blood of his offerings of well-being against the altar.

2 Kings 16:14 The bronze altar that was before the LORD he removed from the front of the house, from the place between his altar and the house of the LORD, and put it on the north side of his altar.

2 Kings 16:15 King Ahaz commanded the priest Uriah, saying, “Upon the great altar offer the morning burnt offering, and the evening grain offering, and the king’s burnt offering, and his grain offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, their grain offering, and their drink offering; then dash against it all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice; but the bronze altar shall be for me to inquire by.”

2 Kings 16:16 The priest Uriah did everything that King Ahaz commanded.

2 Kings 16:17 Then King Ahaz cut off the frames of the stands, and removed the laver from them; he removed the sea from the bronze oxen that were under it, and put it on a pediment of stone.

2 Kings 16:18 The covered portal for use on the sabbath that had been built inside the palace, and the outer entrance for the king he removed from the house of the LORD. He did this because of the king of Assyria.

2 Kings 16:19 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?

2 Kings 16:20 Ahaz slept with his ancestors, and was buried with his ancestors in the city of David; his son Hezekiah succeeded him.

2 Kings 17:1 In the twelfth year of King Ahaz of Judah, Hoshea son of Elah began to reign in Samaria over Israel; he reigned nine years.

2 Kings 17:2 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, yet not like the kings of Israel who were before him.

2 Kings 17:3 King Shalmaneser of Assyria came up against him; Hoshea became his vassal, and paid him tribute.

2 Kings 17:4 But the king of Assyria found treachery in Hoshea; for he had sent messengers to King So of Egypt, and offered no tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year; therefore the king of Assyria confined him and imprisoned him.

2 Kings 17:5 Then the king of Assyria invaded all the land and came to Samaria; for three years he besieged it.

2 Kings 17:6 In the ninth year of Hoshea the king of Assyria captured Samaria; he carried the Israelites away to Assyria. He placed them in Halah, on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

2 Kings 17:7 This occurred because the people of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, who had brought them up out of the land of Egypt from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt. They had worshiped other gods

2 Kings 17:8 and walked in the customs of the nations whom the LORD drove out before the people of Israel, and in the customs that the kings of Israel had introduced.

2 Kings 17:9 The people of Israel secretly did things that were not right against the LORD their God. They built for themselves high places at all their towns, from watchtower to fortified city;

2 Kings 17:10 they set up for themselves pillars and sacred poles on every high hill and under every green tree;

2 Kings 17:11 there they made offerings on all the high places, as the nations did whom the LORD carried away before them. They did wicked things, provoking the LORD to anger;

2 Kings 17:12 they served idols, of which the LORD had said to them, “You shall not do this.”

2 Kings 17:13 Yet the LORD warned Israel and Judah by every prophet and every seer, saying, “Turn from your evil ways and keep my commandments and my statutes, in accordance with all the law that I commanded your ancestors and that I sent to you by my servants the prophets.”

2 Kings 17:14 They would not listen but were stubborn, as their ancestors had been, who did not believe in the LORD their God.

2 Kings 17:15 They despised his statutes, and his covenant that he made with their ancestors, and the warnings that he gave them. They went after false idols and became false; they followed the nations that were around them, concerning whom the LORD had commanded them that they should not do as they did.

2 Kings 17:16 They rejected all the commandments of the LORD their God and made for themselves cast images of two calves; they made a sacred pole, worshiped all the host of heaven, and served Baal.

2 Kings 17:17 They made their sons and their daughters pass through fire; they used divination and augury; and they sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking him to anger.

2 Kings 17:18 Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel and removed them out of his sight; none was left but the tribe of Judah alone.

2 Kings 17:19 Judah also did not keep the commandments of the LORD their God but walked in the customs that Israel had introduced.

2 Kings 17:20 The LORD rejected all the descendants of Israel; he punished them and gave them into the hand of plunderers, until he had banished them from his presence.

2 Kings 17:21 When he had torn Israel from the house of David, they made Jeroboam son of Nebat king. Jeroboam drove Israel from following the LORD and made them commit great sin.

2 Kings 17:22 The people of Israel continued in all the sins that Jeroboam committed; they did not depart from them

2 Kings 17:23 until the LORD removed Israel out of his sight, as he had foretold through all his servants the prophets. So Israel was exiled from their own land to Assyria until this day.

2 Kings 17:24 The king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, Cuthah, Avva, Hamath, and Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria in place of the people of Israel; they took possession of Samaria, and settled in its cities.

2 Kings 17:25 When they first settled there, they did not worship the LORD; therefore the LORD sent lions among them, which killed some of them.

2 Kings 17:26 So the king of Assyria was told, “The nations that you have carried away and placed in the cities of Samaria do not know the law of the god of the land; therefore he has sent lions among them; they are killing them, because they do not know the law of the god of the land.”

2 Kings 17:27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, “Send there one of the priests whom you carried away from there; let him go and live there, and teach them the law of the god of the land.”

2 Kings 17:28 So one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and lived in Bethel; he taught them how they should worship the LORD.

2 Kings 17:29 But every nation still made gods of its own and put them in the shrines of the high places that the people of Samaria had made, every nation in the cities in which they lived;

2 Kings 17:30 the people of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, the people of Cuth made Nergal, the people of Hamath made Ashima;

2 Kings 17:31 the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak; the Sepharvites burned their children in the fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.

2 Kings 17:32 They also worshiped the LORD and appointed from among themselves all sorts of people as priests of the high places, who sacrificed for them in the shrines of the high places.

2 Kings 17:33 So they worshiped the LORD but also served their own gods, after the manner of the nations from among whom they had been carried away.

2 Kings 17:34 To this day they continue to practice their former customs. They do not worship the LORD and they do not follow the statutes or the ordinances or the law or the commandment that the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, whom he named Israel.

2 Kings 17:35 The LORD had made a covenant with them and commanded them, “You shall not worship other gods or bow yourselves to them or serve them or sacrifice to them,

2 Kings 17:36 but you shall worship the LORD, who brought you out of the land of Egypt with great power and with an outstretched arm; you shall bow yourselves to him, and to him you shall sacrifice.

2 Kings 17:37 The statutes and the ordinances and the law and the commandment that he wrote for you, you shall always be careful to observe. You shall not worship other gods;

2 Kings 17:38 you shall not forget the covenant that I have made with you. You shall not worship other gods,

2 Kings 17:39 but you shall worship the LORD your God; he will deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies.”

2 Kings 17:40 They would not listen, however, but they continued to practice their former custom.

2 Kings 17:41 So these nations worshiped the LORD, but also served their carved images; to this day their children and their children's children continue to do as their ancestors did.

2 Kings 18:1 In the third year of King Hoshea son of Elah of Israel, Hezekiah son of King Ahaz of Judah began to reign.

2 Kings 18:2 He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abi daughter of Zechariah.

2 Kings 18:3 He did what was right in the sight of the LORD just as his ancestor David had done.

2 Kings 18:4 He removed the high places, broke down the pillars, and cut down the sacred pole. He broke in pieces the bronze serpent that Moses had made, for until those days the people of Israel had made offerings to it; it was called Nehushtan.

2 Kings 18:5 He trusted in the LORD the God of Israel; so that there was no one like him among all the kings of Judah after him, or among those who were before him.

2 Kings 18:6 For he held fast to the LORD; he did not depart from following him but kept the commandments that the LORD commanded Moses.

2 Kings 18:7 The LORD was with him; wherever he went, he prospered. He rebelled against the king of Assyria and would not serve him.

2 Kings 18:8 He attacked the Philistines as far as Gaza and its territory, from watchtower to fortified city.

2 Kings 18:9 In the fourth year of King Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of King Hoshea son of Elah of Israel, King Shalmaneser of Assyria came up against Samaria, besieged it,

2 Kings 18:10 and at the end of three years, took it. In the sixth year of Hezekiah, which was the ninth year of King Hoshea of Israel, Samaria was taken.

2 Kings 18:11 The king of Assyria carried the Israelites away to Assyria, settled them in Halah, on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes,

2 Kings 18:12 because they did not obey the voice of the LORD their God but transgressed his covenant— all that Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded; they neither listened nor obeyed.

2 Kings 18:13 In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, King Sennacherib of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them.

2 Kings 18:14 King Hezekiah of Judah sent to the king of Assyria at Lachish, saying, "I have done wrong; withdraw from me; whatever you impose on me I will bear." The king of Assyria demanded of King

Hezekiah of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold.

2 Kings 18:15 Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD and in the treasuries of the king's house.

2 Kings 18:16 At that time Hezekiah stripped the gold from the doors of the temple of the LORD, and from the doorposts that King Hezekiah of Judah had overlaid and gave it to the king of Assyria.

2 Kings 18:17 The king of Assyria sent the Tartan, the Rabsaris, and the Rabshakeh with a great army from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem. They went up and came to Jerusalem. When they arrived, they came and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is on the highway to the Fuller's Field.

2 Kings 18:18 When they called for the king, there came out to them Eliakim son of Hilkiah, who was in charge of the palace, and Shebnah the secretary, and Joah son of Asaph, the recorder.

2 Kings 18:19 The Rabshakeh said to them, "Say to Hezekiah: Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria: On what do you base this confidence of yours?

2 Kings 18:20 Do you think that mere words are strategy and power for war? On whom do you now rely, that you have rebelled against me?

2 Kings 18:21 See, you are relying now on Egypt, that broken reed of a staff, which will pierce the hand of anyone who leans on it. Such is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who rely on him.

2 Kings 18:22 But if you say to me, 'We rely on the LORD our God,' is it not he whose high places and altars Hezekiah has removed, saying to Judah and to Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem'?

2 Kings 18:23 Come now, make a wager with my master the king of Assyria: I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to set riders on them.

2 Kings 18:24 How then can you repulse a single captain among the least of my master's servants, when you rely on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

2 Kings 18:25 Moreover, is it without the LORD that I have come up against this place to destroy it? The LORD said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it."

2 Kings 18:26 Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, and Shebnah, and Joah said to the Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in the Aramaic language, for we understand it; do not speak to us in the language of Judah within the hearing of the people who are on the wall."

2 Kings 18:27 But the Rabshakeh said to them, "Has my master sent me to speak these words to your master and to you, and not to the people sitting on the wall, who are doomed with you to eat their own dung and to drink their own urine?”

2 Kings 18:28 Then the Rabshakeh stood and called out in a loud voice in the language of Judah, “Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria!

2 Kings 18:29 Thus says the king: ‘Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to deliver you out of my hand.

2 Kings 18:30 Do not let Hezekiah make you rely on the LORD by saying, The LORD will surely deliver us, and this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.’

2 Kings 18:31 Do not listen to Hezekiah; for thus says the king of Assyria: ‘Make your peace with me and come out to me; then every one of you will eat from your own vine and your own fig tree, and drink water from your own cistern,

2 Kings 18:32 until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive oil and honey, that you may live and not die. Do not listen to Hezekiah when he misleads you by saying, The LORD will deliver us.

2 Kings 18:33 Has any of the gods of the nations ever delivered its land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

2 Kings 18:34 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah? Have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?

2 Kings 18:35 Who among all the gods of the countries have delivered their countries out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?’“

2 Kings 18:36 But the people were silent and answered him not a word, for the king’s command was, “Do not answer him.”

2 Kings 18:37 Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, who was in charge of the palace, and Shebna the secretary, and Joah son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn and told him the words of the Rabshakeh.

2 Kings 19:1 When King Hezekiah heard it, he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

2 Kings 19:2 And he sent Eliakim, who was in charge of the palace, and Shebna the secretary, and the senior priests, covered with sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz.

2 Kings 19:3 They said to him, “Thus says Hezekiah, This day is a day of distress, of rebuke, and of disgrace; children have come to the birth, and there is no strength to bring them forth.

2 Kings 19:4 It may be that the LORD your God heard all the words of the Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to mock the living God, and will rebuke the words that the LORD your God has heard; therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left.”

2 Kings 19:5 When the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah,

2 Kings 19:6 Isaiah said to them, “Say to your master, ‘Thus says the LORD: Do not be afraid because of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have reviled me.

2 Kings 19:7 I myself will put a spirit in him, so that he shall hear a rumor and return to his own land; I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.’“

2 Kings 19:8 The Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah; for he had heard that the king had left Lachish.

2 Kings 19:9 When the king heard concerning King Tirhakah of Ethiopia, “See, he has set out to fight against you,” he sent messengers again to Hezekiah, saying,

2 Kings 19:10 “Thus shall you speak to King Hezekiah of Judah: Do not let your God on whom you rely deceive you by promising that Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

2 Kings 19:11 See, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, destroying them utterly. Shall you be delivered?

2 Kings 19:12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them, the nations that my predecessors destroyed, Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden who were in Telassar?

2 Kings 19:13 Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, the king of Hena, or the king of Ivvah?”

2 Kings 19:14 Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it; then Hezekiah went up to the house of the LORD and spread it before the LORD.

2 Kings 19:15 And Hezekiah prayed before the LORD, and said: “O LORD the God of Israel, who are enthroned above the cherubim, you are God, you alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; you have made heaven and earth.

2 Kings 19:16 Incline your ear, O LORD, and hear; open your eyes, O LORD, and see; hear the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to mock the living God.

2 Kings 19:17 Truly, O LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste the nations and their lands,

2 Kings 19:18 and have hurled their gods into the fire, though they were no gods but the work of human hands— wood and stone— and so they were destroyed.

2 Kings 19:19 So now, O LORD our God, save us, I pray you, from his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you, O LORD, are God alone.”

2 Kings 19:20 Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: I have heard your prayer to me about King Sennacherib of Assyria.

2 Kings 19:21 This is the word that the LORD has spoken concerning him: She despises you, she scorns you— virgin daughter Zion; she tosses her head— behind your back, daughter Jerusalem.

2 Kings 19:22 Whom have you mocked and reviled? Against whom have you raised your voice and haughtily lifted your eyes? Against the Holy One of Israel!

2 Kings 19:23 By your messengers you have mocked the Lord, and you have said, ‘With my many chariots I have gone up the heights of the mountains, to the far recesses of Lebanon; I felled its tallest cedars, its choicest cypresses; I entered its farthest retreat, its densest forest.

2 Kings 19:24 I dug wells and drank foreign waters, I dried up with the sole of my foot all the streams of Egypt.’

2 Kings 19:25 Have you not heard that I determined it long ago? I planned from days of old what now I bring to pass, that you should make fortified cities crash into heaps of ruins,

2 Kings 19:26 while their inhabitants, shorn of strength, are dismayed and confounded; they have become like plants of the field and like tender grass, like grass on the housetops, blighted before it is grown.

2 Kings 19:27 “But I know your rising and your sitting, your going out and coming in, and your raging against me.

2 Kings 19:28 Because you have raged against me and your arrogance has come to my ears, I will put my hook in your nose and my bit in your mouth; I will turn you back on the way by which you came.

2 Kings 19:29 “And this shall be the sign for you: This year you shall eat what grows of itself, and in the second year what springs from that; then in the third year sow, reap, plant vineyards, and eat their fruit.

2 Kings 19:30 The surviving remnant of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward;

2 Kings 19:31 for from Jerusalem a remnant shall go out, and from Mount Zion a band of survivors. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

2 Kings 19:32 “Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria: He shall not come into this city, shoot an arrow there, come before it with a shield, or cast up a siege ramp against it.

2 Kings 19:33 By the way that he came, by the same he shall return; he shall not come into this city, says the LORD.

2 Kings 19:34 For I will defend this city to save it, for my own sake and for the sake of my servant David.”

2 Kings 19:35 That very night the angel of the LORD set out and struck down one hundred eighty-five thousand in the camp of the Assyrians; when morning dawned, they were all dead bodies.

2 Kings 19:37 As he was worshiping in the house of his god Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer killed him with the sword, and they escaped into the land of Ararat. His son Esar-haddon succeeded him.

2 Kings 20:1 In those days Hezekiah became sick and was at the point of death. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz came to him, and said to him, “Thus says the LORD: Set your house in order, for you shall die; you shall not recover.”

2 Kings 20:2 Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD:

2 Kings 20:3 “Remember now, O LORD, I implore you, how I have walked before you in faithfulness with a whole heart, and have done what is good in your sight.” Hezekiah wept bitterly.

2 Kings 20:4 Before Isaiah had gone out of the middle court, the word of the LORD came to him:

2 Kings 20:5 “Turn back, and say to Hezekiah prince of my people, Thus says the LORD, the God of your ancestor David: I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; indeed, I will heal you; on the third day you shall go up to the house of the LORD.

2 Kings 20:6 I will add fifteen years to your life. I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria; I will defend this city for my own sake and for my servant David’s sake.”

2 Kings 20:7 Then Isaiah said, “Bring a lump of figs. Let them take it and apply it to the boil, so that he may recover.”

2 Kings 20:8 Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “What shall be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up to the house of the LORD on the third day?”

2 Kings 20:9 Isaiah said, “This is the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that he has promised: the shadow has now advanced ten intervals; shall it retreat ten intervals?”

2 Kings 20:10 Hezekiah answered, “It is normal for the shadow to lengthen ten intervals; rather let the shadow retreat ten intervals.”

2 Kings 20:11 The prophet Isaiah cried to the LORD; and he brought the shadow back the ten intervals, by which the sun had declined on the dial of Ahaz.

2 Kings 20:12 At that time King Merodach-baladan son of Baladan of Babylon sent envoys with letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick.

2 Kings 20:13 Hezekiah welcomed them; he showed them all his treasure house, the silver, the gold, the spices, the precious oil, his armory, all that was found in his storehouses; there was nothing in his house or in all his realm that Hezekiah did not show them.

2 Kings 20:14 Then the prophet Isaiah came to King Hezekiah, and said to him, “What did these men say? From where did they come to you?” Hezekiah answered, “They have come from a far country, from Babylon.”

2 Kings 20:15 He said, “What have they seen in your house?” Hezekiah answered, “They have seen all that is in my house; there is nothing in my storehouses that I did not show them.”

2 Kings 20:16 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Hear the word of the LORD:

2 Kings 20:17 Days are coming when all that is in your house, and that which your ancestors have stored up until this day, shall be carried to Babylon; nothing shall be left, says the LORD.

2 Kings 20:18 Some of your own sons who are born to you shall be taken away; they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.”

2 Kings 20:19 Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “The word of the LORD that you have spoken is good.” For he thought, “Why not, if there will be peace and security in my days?”

2 Kings 20:20 The rest of the deeds of Hezekiah, all his power, how he made the pool and the conduit and brought water into the city, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?

2 Kings 21:1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign; he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Hephzibah.

2 Kings 21:2 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, following the abominable practices of the nations that the LORD drove out before the people of Israel.

2 Kings 21:3 For he rebuilt the high places that his father Hezekiah had destroyed; he erected altars for Baal, made a sacred pole, as King Ahab of Israel had done, worshiped all the host of heaven, and served them.

2 Kings 21:4 He built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, “In Jerusalem I will put my name.”

2 Kings 21:5 He built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.

2 Kings 21:6 He made his son pass through fire; he practiced soothsaying and augury, and dealt with mediums and with wizards. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking him to anger.

2 Kings 21:7 The carved image of Asherah that he had made he set in the house of which the LORD said to David and to his son Solomon, “In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my name forever;

2 Kings 21:8 I will not cause the feet of Israel to wander any more out of the land that I gave to their ancestors, if only they will be careful to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that my servant Moses commanded them.”

2 Kings 21:9 But they did not listen; Manasseh misled them to do more evil than the nations had done that the LORD destroyed before the people of Israel.

2 Kings 21:10 The LORD said by his servants the prophets,

2 Kings 21:11 “Because King Manasseh of Judah has committed these abominations, has done things more wicked than all that the Amorites did, who were before him, and has caused Judah also to sin with his idols;

2 Kings 21:12 therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, I am bringing upon Jerusalem and Judah such evil that the ears of everyone who hears of it will tingle.

2 Kings 21:13 I will stretch over Jerusalem the measuring line for Samaria, and the plummet for the house of Ahab; I will wipe Jerusalem as one wipes a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down.

2 Kings 21:14 I will cast off the remnant of my heritage, and give them into the hand of their enemies; they shall become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies,

2 Kings 21:15 because they have done what is evil in my sight and have provoked me to anger, since the day their ancestors came out of Egypt, even to this day.”

2 Kings 21:16 Moreover Manasseh shed very much innocent blood, until he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another, besides the sin that he caused Judah to sin so that they did what was evil in the sight of the LORD.

2 Kings 21:17 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, all that he did, and the sin that he committed, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?

2 Kings 21:18 Manasseh slept with his ancestors, and was buried in the garden of his house, in the garden of Uzza. His son Amon succeeded him.

2 Kings 21:19 Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; he reigned two years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Meshullemeth daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.

2 Kings 21:20 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his father Manasseh had done.

2 Kings 21:21 He walked in all the way in which his father walked, served the idols that his father served, and worshiped them;

2 Kings 21:22 he abandoned the LORD, the God of his ancestors, and did not walk in the way of the LORD.

2 Kings 21:23 The servants of Amon conspired against him, and killed the king in his house.

2 Kings 21:24 But the people of the land killed all those who had conspired against King Amon, and the people of the land made his son Josiah king in place of him.

2 Kings 21:25 Now the rest of the acts of Amon that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?

2 Kings 21:26 He was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza; then his son Josiah succeeded him.

2 Kings 22:1 Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign; he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jedidah daughter of Adaiah of Bozkath.

2 Kings 22:2 He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in all the way of his father David; he did not turn aside to the right or to the left.

2 Kings 22:3 In the eighteenth year of King Josiah, the king sent Shaphan son of Azaliah, son of Meshullam, the secretary, to the house of the LORD, saying,

2 Kings 22:4 "Go up to the high priest Hilkiah, and have him count the entire sum of the money that has been brought into the house of the LORD, which the keepers of the threshold have collected from the people;

2 Kings 22:5 let it be given into the hand of the workers who have the oversight of the house of the LORD; let them give it to the workers who are at the house of the LORD, repairing the house,

2 Kings 22:6 that is, to the carpenters, to the builders, to the masons; and let them use it to buy timber and quarried stone to repair the house.

2 Kings 22:7 But no accounting shall be asked from them for the money that is delivered into their hand, for they deal honestly."

2 Kings 22:8 The high priest Hilkiah said to Shaphan the secretary, "I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD." When Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, he read it.

2 Kings 22:9 Then Shaphan the secretary came to the king, and reported to the king, "Your servants have emptied out the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of the workers who have oversight of the house of the LORD."

2 Kings 22:10 Shaphan the secretary informed the king, "The priest Hilkiah has given me a book." Shaphan then read it aloud to the king.

2 Kings 22:11 When the king heard the words of the book of the law, he tore his clothes.

2 Kings 22:12 Then the king commanded the priest Hilkiah, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Achbor son of Micaiah, Shaphan the secretary, and the king's servant Asaiah, saying,

2 Kings 22:13 "Go, inquire of the LORD for me, for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that has been found; for great is the wrath of the LORD that is kindled against us, because our ancestors did not obey the words of this book, to do according to all that is written concerning us."

2 Kings 22:14 So the priest Hilkiah, Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah went to the prophetess Huldah the wife of Shallum son of Tikvah, son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe; she resided in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter, where they consulted her.

2 Kings 22:15 She declared to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Tell the man who sent you to me,

2 Kings 22:16 Thus says the LORD, I will indeed bring disaster on this place and on its inhabitants— all the words of the book that the king of Judah has read.

2 Kings 22:17 Because they have abandoned me and have made offerings to other gods, so that they have provoked me to anger with all the work of their hands, therefore my wrath will be kindled against this place, and it will not be quenched.

2 Kings 22:18 But as to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, thus shall you say to him, Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Regarding the words that you have heard,

2 Kings 22:19 because your heart was penitent, and you humbled yourself before the LORD, when you heard how I spoke against this place, and against its inhabitants, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and because you have torn your clothes and wept before me, I also have heard you, says the LORD.

2 Kings 22:20 Therefore, I will gather you to your ancestors, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace; your eyes shall not see all the disaster that I will bring on this place." They took the message back to the king.

2 Kings 23:1 Then the king directed that all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem should be gathered to him.

2 Kings 23:2 The king went up to the house of the LORD, and with him went all the people of Judah, all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the priests, the prophets, and all the people, both small and great; he read in their hearing all the words of the book of the covenant that had been found in the house of the LORD.

2 Kings 23:3 The king stood by the pillar and made a covenant before the LORD, to follow the LORD, keeping his commandments, his decrees, and his statutes, with all his heart and all his soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book. All the people joined in the covenant.

2 Kings 23:4 The king commanded the high priest Hilkiah, the priests of the second order, and the guardians of the threshold, to bring out of the temple of the LORD all the vessels made for Baal, for Asherah, and for all the host of heaven; he burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron, and carried their ashes to Bethel.

2 Kings 23:5 He deposed the idolatrous priests whom the kings of Judah had ordained to make offerings in the high places at the cities of Judah and around Jerusalem; those also who made offerings to Baal, to the sun, the moon, the constellations, and all the host of the heavens.

2 Kings 23:6 He brought out the image of Asherah from the house of the LORD, outside Jerusalem, to the Wadi Kidron, burned it at the Wadi Kidron, beat it to dust and threw the dust of it upon the graves of the common people.

2 Kings 23:7 He broke down the houses of the male temple prostitutes that were in the house of the LORD, where the women did weaving for Asherah.

2 Kings 23:8 He brought all the priests out of the towns of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had made offerings, from Geba to Beer-sheba; he broke down the high places of the gates that were at the entrance of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on the left at the gate of the city.

2 Kings 23:9 The priests of the high places, however, did not come up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but ate unleavened bread among their kindred.

2 Kings 23:10 He defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of Ben-hinnom, so that no one would make a son or a daughter pass through fire as an offering to Molech.

2 Kings 23:11 He removed the horses that the kings of Judah had dedicated to the sun, at the entrance to the house of the LORD, by the chamber of the eunuch Nathan-melech, which was in the precincts; then he burned the chariots of the sun with fire.

2 Kings 23:12 The altars on the roof of the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars that Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD, he pulled down from there and broke in pieces, and threw the rubble into the Wadi Kidron.

2 Kings 23:13 The king defiled the high places that were east of Jerusalem, to the south of the Mount of Destruction, which King Solomon of Israel had built for Astarte the abomination of the Sidonians,

2 Kings 23:14 He broke the pillars in pieces, cut down the sacred poles, and covered the sites with human bones.

2 Kings 23:15 Moreover, the altar at Bethel, the high place erected by Jeroboam son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin— he pulled down that altar along with the high place. He burned the high place, crushing it to dust; he also burned the sacred pole.

2 Kings 23:16 As Josiah turned, he saw the tombs there on the mount; and he sent and took the bones out of the tombs, and burned them on the altar, and defiled it, according to the word of the LORD that the man of God proclaimed, when Jeroboam stood by the altar at the festival; he turned and looked up at the tomb of the man of God who had predicted these things.

2 Kings 23:17 Then he said, “What is that monument that I see?” The people of the city told him, “It is the tomb of the man of God who came from Judah and predicted these things that you have done against the altar at Bethel.”

2 Kings 23:18 He said, “Let him rest; let no one move his bones.” So they let his bones alone, with the bones of the prophet who came out of Samaria.

2 Kings 23:19 Moreover, Josiah removed all the shrines of the high places that were in the towns of Samaria, which kings of Israel had made, provoking the LORD to anger; he did to them just as he had done at Bethel.

2 Kings 23:20 He slaughtered on the altars all the priests of the high places who were there, and burned human bones on them. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

2 Kings 23:21 The king commanded all the people, “Keep the passover to the LORD your God as prescribed in this book of the covenant.”

2 Kings 23:22 No such passover had been kept since the days of the judges who judged Israel, or during all the days of the kings of Israel or of the kings of Judah;

2 Kings 23:23 but in the eighteenth year of King Josiah this passover was kept to the LORD in Jerusalem.

2 Kings 23:24 Moreover Josiah put away the mediums, wizards, teraphim, idols, and all the abominations that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, so that he established the words of the law that were written in the book that the priest Hilkiah had found in the house of the LORD.

2 Kings 23:25 Before him there was no king like him, who turned to the LORD with all his heart, with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses; nor did any like him arise after him.

2 Kings 23:26 Still the LORD did not turn from the fierceness of his great wrath, by which his anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the provocations with which Manasseh had provoked him.

2 Kings 23:27 The LORD said, “I will remove Judah also out of my sight, as I have removed Israel; and I will reject this city that I have chosen, Jerusalem, and the house of which I said, My name shall be there.”

2 Kings 23:28 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?

2 Kings 23:29 In his days Pharaoh Neco king of Egypt went up to the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates. King Josiah went to meet him; but when Pharaoh Neco met him at Megiddo, he killed him.

2 Kings 23:30 His servants carried him dead in a chariot from Megiddo, brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own tomb. The people of the land took Jehoahaz son of Josiah, anointed him, and made him king in place of his father.

2 Kings 23:31 Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign; he reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

2 Kings 23:32 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, just as his ancestors had done.

2 Kings 23:33 Pharaoh Neco confined him at Riblah in the land of Hamath, so that he might not reign in Jerusalem, and imposed tribute on the land of one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

2 Kings 23:34 Pharaoh Neco made Eliakim son of Josiah king in place of his father Josiah, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. But he took Jehoahaz away; he came to Egypt, and died there.

2 Kings 23:35 Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh, but he taxed the land in order to meet Pharaoh’s demand for money. He exacted the silver and the gold from the people of the land, from all according to their assessment, to give it to Pharaoh Neco.

2 Kings 23:36 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Zebidah daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah.

2 Kings 23:37 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, just as all his ancestors had done.

2 Kings 24:1 In his days King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came up; Jehoiakim became his servant for three years; then he turned and rebelled against him.

2 Kings 24:2 The LORD sent against him bands of the Chaldeans, bands of the Arameans, bands of the Moabites, and bands of the Ammonites; he sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the LORD that he spoke by his servants the prophets.

2 Kings 24:3 Surely this came upon Judah at the command of the LORD, to remove them out of his sight, for the sins of Manasseh, for all that he had committed,

2 Kings 24:4 and also for the innocent blood that he had shed; for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, and the LORD was not willing to pardon.

2 Kings 24:5 Now the rest of the deeds of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?

2 Kings 24:6 So Jehoiakim slept with his ancestors; then his son Jehoiachin succeeded him.

2 Kings 24:7 The king of Egypt did not come again out of his land, for the king of Babylon had taken over all that belonged to the king of Egypt from the Wadi of Egypt to the River Euphrates.

2 Kings 24:8 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign; he reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Nehushta daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem.

2 Kings 24:9 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, just as his father had done.

2 Kings 24:10 At that time the servants of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came up to Jerusalem, and the city was besieged.

2 Kings 24:11 King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came to the city, while his servants were besieging it;

2 Kings 24:12 King Jehoiachin of Judah gave himself up to the king of Babylon, himself, his mother, his servants, his officers, and his palace officials. The king of Babylon took him prisoner in the eighth year of his reign.

2 Kings 24:13 He carried off all the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king’s house; he cut in pieces all the vessels of gold in the temple of the LORD, which King Solomon of Israel had made, all this as the LORD had foretold.

2 Kings 24:14 He carried away all Jerusalem, all the officials, all the warriors, ten thousand captives, all the artisans and the smiths; no one remained, except the poorest people of the land.

2 Kings 24:15 He carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon; the king’s mother, the king’s wives, his officials, and the elite of the land, he took into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon.

2 Kings 24:16 The king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon all the men of valor, seven thousand, the artisans and the smiths, one thousand, all of them strong and fit for war.

2 Kings 24:17 The king of Babylon made Mattaniah, Jehoiachin's uncle, king in his place, and changed his name to Zedekiah.

2 Kings 24:18 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

2 Kings 24:19 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, just as Jehoiakim had done.

2 Kings 24:20 Indeed, Jerusalem and Judah so angered the LORD that he expelled them from his presence. Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

2 Kings 25:1 And in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came with all his army against Jerusalem, and laid siege to it; they built siegeworks against it all around.

2 Kings 25:2 So the city was besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

2 Kings 25:3 On the ninth day of the fourth month the famine became so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land.

2 Kings 25:4 Then a breach was made in the city wall; the king with all the soldiers fled by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, by the king's garden, though the Chaldeans were all around the city. They went in the direction of the Arabah.

2 Kings 25:5 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho; all his army was scattered, deserting him.

2 Kings 25:6 Then they captured the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah, who passed sentence on him.

2 Kings 25:7 They slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, then put out the eyes of Zedekiah; they bound him in fetters and took him to Babylon.

2 Kings 25:8 In the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month— which was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon— Nebuzaradan, the captain of the bodyguard, a servant of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.

2 Kings 25:9 He burned the house of the LORD, the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem; every great house he burned down.

2 Kings 25:10 All the army of the Chaldeans who were with the captain of the guard broke down the walls around Jerusalem.

2 Kings 25:11 Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried into exile the rest of the people who were left in the city and the deserters who had defected to the king of Babylon— all the rest of the population.

2 Kings 25:12 But the captain of the guard left some of the poorest people of the land to be vinedressers and tillers of the soil.

2 Kings 25:13 The bronze pillars that were in the house of the LORD, as well as the stands and the bronze sea that were in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke in pieces, and carried the bronze to Babylon.

2 Kings 25:14 They took away the pots, the shovels, the snuffers, the dishes for incense, and all the bronze vessels used in the temple service,

2 Kings 25:15 as well as the firepans and the basins. What was made of gold the captain of the guard took away for the gold, and what was made of silver, for the silver.

2 Kings 25:16 As for the two pillars, the one sea, and the stands, which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD, the bronze of all these vessels was beyond weighing.

2 Kings 25:17 The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and on it was a bronze capital; the height of the capital was three cubits; latticework and pomegranates, all of bronze, were on the capital all around. The second pillar had the same, with the latticework.

2 Kings 25:18 The captain of the guard took the chief priest Seraiah, the second priest Zephaniah, and the three guardians of the threshold;

2 Kings 25:19 from the city he took an officer who had been in command of the soldiers, and five men of the king's council who were found in the city; the secretary who was the commander of the army who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the city.

2 Kings 25:20 Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.

2 Kings 25:21 The king of Babylon struck them down and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah went into exile out of its land.

2 Kings 25:22 He appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan as governor over the people who remained in the land of Judah, whom King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon had left.

2 Kings 25:23 Now when all the captains of the forces and their men heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah as governor, they came with their men to Gedaliah at Mizpah, namely, Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan son of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah son of the Maacathite.

2 Kings 25:24 Gedaliah swore to them and their men, saying, "Do not be afraid because of the Chaldean officials; live in the land, serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you."

2 Kings 25:25 But in the seventh month, Ishmael son of Nethaniah son of Elishama, of the royal family, came with ten men; they struck down Gedaliah so that he died, along with the Judeans and Chaldeans who were with him at Mizpah.

2 Kings 25:26 Then all the people, high and low and the captains of the forces set out and went to Egypt; for they were afraid of the Chaldeans.

2 Kings 25:27 In the thirty-seventh year of the exile of King Jehoiachin of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, King Evil-merodach of Babylon, in the year that he began to reign, released King Jehoiachin of Judah from prison;

2 Kings 25:28 he spoke kindly to him, and gave him a seat above the other seats of the kings who were with him in Babylon.

2 Kings 25:29 So Jehoiachin put aside his prison clothes. Every day of his life he dined regularly in the king’s presence.

2 Kings 25:30 For his allowance, a regular allowance was given him by the king, a portion every day, as long as he lived.

1 Chronicles 10:2 The Philistines overtook Saul and his sons; and the Philistines killed Jonathan and Abinadab and Malchishua, sons of Saul.

1 Chronicles 10:3 The battle pressed hard on Saul; and the archers found him, and he was wounded by the archers.

1 Chronicles 10:4 Then Saul said to his armor-bearer, “Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, so that these uncircumcised may not come and make sport of me.” But his armor-bearer was unwilling, for he was terrified. So Saul took his own sword and fell on it.

1 Chronicles 10:5 When his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his sword and died.

1 Chronicles 10:6 Thus Saul died; he and his three sons and all his house died together.

1 Chronicles 10:7 When all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that the army had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their towns and fled; and the Philistines came and occupied them.

1 Chronicles 10:8 The next day when the Philistines came to strip the dead, they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

1 Chronicles 10:9 They stripped him and took his head and his armor, and sent messengers throughout the land of the Philistines to carry the good news to their idols and to the people.

1 Chronicles 10:13 So Saul died for his unfaithfulness; he was unfaithful to the LORD in that he did not keep the command of the LORD; moreover, he had consulted a medium, seeking guidance,

1 Chronicles 10:14 and did not seek guidance from the LORD. Therefore the LORD put him to death and turned the kingdom over to David son of Jesse.

1 Chronicles 11:1 Then all Israel gathered together to David at Hebron and said, “See, we are your bone and flesh.

1 Chronicles 11:2 For some time now, even while Saul was king, it was you who commanded the army of Israel. The LORD your God said to you: It is you who shall be shepherd of my people Israel, you who shall be ruler over my people Israel.”

1 Chronicles 11:3 So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the LORD. And they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD by Samuel.

1 Chronicles 11:4 David and all Israel marched to Jerusalem, that is Jebus, where the Jebusites were, the inhabitants of the land.

1 Chronicles 11:5 The inhabitants of Jebus said to David, “You will not come in here.” Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion, now the city of David.

1 Chronicles 11:6 David had said, “Whoever attacks the Jebusites first shall be chief and commander.” And Joab son of Zeruiah went up first, so he became chief.

1 Chronicles 11:7 David resided in the stronghold; therefore it was called the city of David.

1 Chronicles 11:8 He built the city all around, from the Millo in complete circuit; and Joab repaired the rest of the city.

1 Chronicles 11:9 And David became greater and greater, for the LORD of hosts was with him.

1 Chronicles 11:10 Now these are the chiefs of David’s warriors, who gave him strong support in his kingdom, together with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word of the LORD concerning Israel.

1 Chronicles 11:11 This is an account of David’s mighty warriors: Jashobeam, son of Hachmoni, was chief of the Three; he wielded his spear against three hundred whom he killed at one time.

1 Chronicles 11:12 And next to him among the three warriors was Eleazar son of Dodo, the Ahohite.

1 Chronicles 11:13 He was with David at Pas-dammim when the Philistines were gathered there for battle. There was a plot of ground full of barley. Now the people had fled from the Philistines,

1 Chronicles 11:14 but he and David took their stand in the middle of the plot, defended it, and killed the Philistines; and the LORD saved them by a great victory.

1 Chronicles 11:15 Three of the thirty chiefs went down to the rock to David at the cave of Adullam, while the army of Philistines was encamped in the valley of Rephaim.

1 Chronicles 11:16 David was then in the stronghold; and the garrison of the Philistines was then at Bethlehem.

1 Chronicles 11:17 David said longingly, “O that someone would give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem that is by the gate!”

1 Chronicles 11:18 Then the Three broke through the camp of the Philistines, and drew water from the well of Bethlehem that was by the gate, and they brought it to David. But David would not drink of it; he poured it out to the LORD,

1 Chronicles 11:19 and said, “My God forbid that I should do this. Can I drink the blood of these men? For at the risk of their lives they brought it.” Therefore he would not drink it. The three warriors did these things.

1 Chronicles 11:20 Now Abishai, the brother of Joab, was chief of the Thirty. With his spear he fought against three hundred and killed them, and won a name beside the Three.

1 Chronicles 11:21 He was the most renowned of the Thirty, and became their commander; but he did not attain to the Three.

1 Chronicles 11:22 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was a valiant man of Kabzeel, a doer of great deeds; he struck down two sons of Ariel of Moab. He also went down and killed a lion in a pit on a day when snow had fallen.

1 Chronicles 11:23 And he killed an Egyptian, a man of great stature, five cubits tall. The Egyptian had in his hand a spear like a weaver’s beam; but Benaiah went against him with a staff, snatched the spear out of the Egyptian’s hand, and killed him with his own spear.

1 Chronicles 11:24 Such were the things Benaiah son of Jehoiada did, and he won a name beside the three warriors.

1 Chronicles 11:25 He was renowned among the Thirty, but he did not attain to the Three. And David put him in charge of his bodyguard.

1 Chronicles 12:16 Some Benjaminites and Judahites came to the stronghold to David.

1 Chronicles 12:17 David went out to meet them and said to them, “If you have come to me in friendship, to help me, then my heart will be knit to you; but if you have come to betray me to my adversaries, though my hands have done no wrong, then may the God of our ancestors see and give judgment.”

1 Chronicles 12:18 Then the spirit came upon Amasai, chief of the Thirty, and he said, “We are yours, O David; and with you, O son of Jesse! Peace, peace to you, and peace to the one who helps you! For your God is the one who helps you.” Then David received them, and made them officers of his troops.

1 Chronicles 12:19 Some of the Manassites deserted to David when he came with the Philistines for the battle against Saul. (Yet he did not help them, for the rulers of the Philistines took counsel and sent him away, saying, “He will desert to his master Saul at the cost of our heads.”)

1 Chronicles 12:20 As he went to Ziklag these Manassites deserted to him: Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai, chiefs of the thousands in Manasseh.

1 Chronicles 12:21 They helped David against the band of raiders, for they were all warriors and commanders in the army.

1 Chronicles 12:38 All these, warriors arrayed in battle order, came to Hebron with full intent to make David king over all Israel; likewise all the rest of Israel were of a single mind to make David king.

1 Chronicles 12:39 They were there with David for three days, eating and drinking, for their kindred had provided for them.

1 Chronicles 12:40 And also their neighbors, from as far away as Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, came bringing food on donkeys, camels, mules, and oxen— abundant provisions of meal, cakes of figs, clusters of raisins, wine, oil, oxen, and sheep, for there was joy in Israel.

1 Chronicles 13:2 David said to the whole assembly of Israel, “If it seems good to you, and if it is the will of the LORD our God, let us send abroad to our kindred who remain in all the land of Israel, including the priests and Levites in the cities that have pasture lands, that they may come together to us.

1 Chronicles 13:3 Then let us bring again the ark of our God to us; for we did not turn to it in the days of Saul.”

1 Chronicles 13:4 The whole assembly agreed to do so, for the thing pleased all the people.

1 Chronicles 13:5 So David assembled all Israel from the Shihor of Egypt to Lebo-hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kiriath-jearim.

1 Chronicles 13:6 And David and all Israel went up to Baalah, that is, to Kiriath-jearim, which belongs to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, the LORD, who is enthroned on the cherubim, which is called by his name.

1 Chronicles 13:7 They carried the ark of God on a new cart, from the house of Abinadab, and Uzzah and Ahio were driving the cart.

1 Chronicles 13:8 David and all Israel were dancing before God with all their might, with song and lyres and harps and tambourines and cymbals and trumpets.

1 Chronicles 13:9 When they came to the threshing floor of Chidon, Uzzah put out his hand to hold the ark, for the oxen shook it.

1 Chronicles 13:10 The anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah; he struck him down because he put out his hand to the ark; and he died there before God.

1 Chronicles 13:11 David was angry because the LORD had burst out against Uzzah; so that place is called Perez-uzzah to this day.

1 Chronicles 13:12 David was afraid of God that day; he said, “How can I bring the ark of God into my care?”

1 Chronicles 13:13 So David did not take the ark into his care into the city of David; he took it instead to the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

1 Chronicles 13:14 The ark of God remained with the household of Obed-edom in his house three months, and the LORD blessed the household of Obed-edom and all that he had.

1 Chronicles 14:1 King Hiram of Tyre sent messengers to David, along with cedar logs, and masons and carpenters to build a house for him.

1 Chronicles 14:2 David then perceived that the LORD had established him as king over Israel, and that his kingdom was highly exalted for the sake of his people Israel.

1 Chronicles 14:3 David took more wives in Jerusalem, and David became the father of more sons and daughters.

1 Chronicles 14:4 These are the names of the children whom he had in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, and Nathan; Solomon,

1 Chronicles 14:5 Ibhar, Elishua, and Elpelet;

1 Chronicles 14:6 Nogah, Nepheg, and Japhia;

1 Chronicles 14:7 Elishama, Beeliada, and Eliphelet.

1 Chronicles 14:8 When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up in search of David; and David heard of it and went out against them.

1 Chronicles 14:9 Now the Philistines had come and made a raid in the valley of Rephaim.

1 Chronicles 14:10 David inquired of God, “Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will you give them into my hand?” The LORD said to him, “Go up, and I will give them into your hand.”

1 Chronicles 14:11 So he went up to Baal-perazim, and David defeated them there. David said, “God has burst out against my enemies by my hand, like a bursting flood.” Therefore that place is called Baal-perazim.

1 Chronicles 14:12 They abandoned their gods there, and at David’s command they were burned.

1 Chronicles 14:13 Once again the Philistines made a raid in the valley.

1 Chronicles 14:14 When David again inquired of God, God said to him, “You shall not go up after them; go around and come on them opposite the balsam trees.

1 Chronicles 14:15 When you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, then go out to battle; for God has gone out before you to strike down the army of the Philistines.”

1 Chronicles 14:16 David did as God had commanded him, and they struck down the Philistine army from Gibeon to Gezer.

1 Chronicles 14:17 The fame of David went out into all lands, and the LORD brought the fear of him on all nations.

1 Chronicles 15:1 David built houses for himself in the city of David, and he prepared a place for the ark of God and pitched a tent for it.

1 Chronicles 15:2 Then David commanded that no one but the Levites were to carry the ark of God, for the LORD had chosen them to carry the ark of the LORD and to minister to him forever.

1 Chronicles 15:3 David assembled all Israel in Jerusalem to bring up the ark of the LORD to its place, which he had prepared for it.

1 Chronicles 15:4 Then David gathered together the descendants of Aaron and the Levites:

1 Chronicles 15:6 of the sons of Merari, Asaiah the chief, with two hundred twenty of his kindred;

1 Chronicles 15:8 of the sons of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief, with two hundred of his kindred;

1 Chronicles 15:9 of the sons of Hebron, Eliel the chief, with eighty of his kindred;

1 Chronicles 15:11 David summoned the priests Zadok and Abiathar, and the Levites Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab.

1 Chronicles 15:12 He said to them, “You are the heads of families of the Levites; sanctify yourselves, you and your kindred, so that you may bring up the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel, to the place that I have prepared for it.

1 Chronicles 15:13 Because you did not carry it the first time, the LORD our God burst out against us, because we did not give it proper care.”

1 Chronicles 15:14 So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel.

1 Chronicles 15:15 And the Levites carried the ark of God on their shoulders with the poles, as Moses had commanded according to the word of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 15:16 David also commanded the chiefs of the Levites to appoint their kindred as the singers to play on musical instruments, on harps and lyres and cymbals, to raise loud sounds of joy.

1 Chronicles 15:17 So the Levites appointed Heman son of Joel; and of his kindred Asaph son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari, their kindred, Ethan son of Kushaiah;

1 Chronicles 15:18 and with them their kindred of the second order, Zechariah, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, and Mikneiah, and the gatekeepers Obed-edom and Jeiel.

1 Chronicles 15:19 The singers Heman, Asaph, and Ethan were to sound bronze cymbals;

1 Chronicles 15:20 Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah, and Benaiah were to play harps according to Alamoth;

1 Chronicles 15:21 but Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-edom, Jeiel, and Azaziah were to lead with lyres according to the Sheminith.

1 Chronicles 15:22 Chenaniah, leader of the Levites in music, was to direct the music, for he understood it.

1 Chronicles 15:23 Berechiah and Elkanah were to be gatekeepers for the ark.

1 Chronicles 15:24 Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, were to blow the trumpets before the ark of God. Obed-edom and Jehiah also were to be gatekeepers for the ark.

1 Chronicles 15:25 So David and the elders of Israel, and the commanders of the thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the house of Obed-edom with rejoicing.

1 Chronicles 15:26 And because God helped the Levites who were carrying the ark of the covenant of the LORD, they sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams.

1 Chronicles 15:27 David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, as also were all the Levites who were carrying the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the leader of the music of the singers; and David wore a linen ephod.

1 Chronicles 15:28 So all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, to the sound of the horn, trumpets, and cymbals, and made loud music on harps and lyres.

1 Chronicles 15:29 As the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, Michal daughter of Saul looked out of the window, and saw King David leaping and dancing; and she despised him in her heart.

1 Chronicles 16:1 They brought in the ark of God, and set it inside the tent that David had pitched for it; and they offered burnt offerings and offerings of well-being before God.

1 Chronicles 16:2 When David had finished offering the burnt offerings and the offerings of well-being, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD;

1 Chronicles 16:3 and he distributed to every person in Israel— man and woman alike— to each a loaf of bread, a portion of meat, and a cake of raisins.

1 Chronicles 16:4 He appointed certain of the Levites as ministers before the ark of the LORD, to invoke, to thank, and to praise the LORD, the God of Israel.

1 Chronicles 16:5 Asaph was the chief, and second to him Zechariah, Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-edom, and Jeiel, with harps and lyres; Asaph was to sound the cymbals,

1 Chronicles 16:6 and the priests Benaiah and Jahaziel were to blow trumpets regularly, before the ark of the covenant of God.

1 Chronicles 16:7 Then on that day David first appointed the singing of praises to the LORD by Asaph and his kindred.

1 Chronicles 16:8 O give thanks to the LORD, call on his name, make known his deeds among the peoples.

1 Chronicles 16:9 Sing to him, sing praises to him, tell of all his wonderful works.

1 Chronicles 16:10 Glory in his holy name; let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice.

1 Chronicles 16:11 Seek the LORD and his strength, seek his presence continually.

1 Chronicles 16:12 Remember the wonderful works he has done, his miracles, and the judgments he uttered,

1 Chronicles 16:14 He is the LORD our God; his judgments are in all the earth.

1 Chronicles 16:15 Remember his covenant forever, the word that he commanded, for a thousand generations,

1 Chronicles 16:16 the covenant that he made with Abraham, his sworn promise to Isaac,

1 Chronicles 16:17 which he confirmed to Jacob as a statute, to Israel as an everlasting covenant,

1 Chronicles 16:18 saying, “To you I will give the land of Canaan as your portion for an inheritance.”

1 Chronicles 16:19 When they were few in number, of little account, and strangers in the land,

1 Chronicles 16:20 wandering from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another people,

1 Chronicles 16:21 he allowed no one to oppress them; he rebuked kings on their account,

1 Chronicles 16:23 Sing to the LORD, all the earth. Tell of his salvation from day to day.

1 Chronicles 16:25 For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; he is to be revered above all gods.

1 Chronicles 16:26 For all the gods of the peoples are idols, but the LORD made the heavens.

1 Chronicles 16:27 Honor and majesty are before him; strength and joy are in his place.

1 Chronicles 16:28 Ascribe to the LORD, O families of the peoples, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.

1 Chronicles 16:29 Ascribe to the LORD the glory due his name; bring an offering, and come before him. Worship the LORD in holy splendor;

1 Chronicles 16:30 tremble before him, all the earth. The world is firmly established; it shall never be moved.

1 Chronicles 16:31 Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice, and let them say among the nations, “The LORD is king!”

1 Chronicles 16:32 Let the sea roar, and all that fills it; let the field exult, and everything in it.

1 Chronicles 16:33 Then shall the trees of the forest sing for joy before the LORD, for he comes to judge the earth.

1 Chronicles 16:34 O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; for his steadfast love endures forever.

1 Chronicles 16:35 Say also: “Save us, O God of our salvation, and gather and rescue us from among the nations, that we may give thanks to your holy name, and glory in your praise.

1 Chronicles 16:36 Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting.” Then all the people said “Amen!” and praised the LORD.

1 Chronicles 16:37 David left Asaph and his kinsfolk there before the ark of the covenant of the LORD to minister regularly before the ark as each day required,

1 Chronicles 16:38 and also Obed-edom and his sixty-eight kinsfolk; while Obed-edom son of Jeduthun and Hosah were to be gatekeepers.

1 Chronicles 16:39 And he left the priest Zadok and his kindred the priests before the tabernacle of the LORD in the high place that was at Gibeon,

1 Chronicles 16:40 to offer burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of burnt offering regularly, morning and evening, according to all that is written in the law of the LORD that he commanded Israel.

1 Chronicles 16:41 With them were Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest of those chosen and expressly named to render thanks to the LORD, for his steadfast love endures forever.

1 Chronicles 16:42 Heman and Jeduthun had with them trumpets and cymbals for the music, and instruments for sacred song. The sons of Jeduthun were appointed to the gate.

1 Chronicles 16:43 Then all the people departed to their homes, and David went home to bless his household.

1 Chronicles 17:1 Now when David settled in his house, David said to the prophet Nathan, “I am living in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under a tent.”

1 Chronicles 17:2 Nathan said to David, “Do all that you have in mind, for God is with you.”

1 Chronicles 17:3 But that same night the word of the LORD came to Nathan, saying:

1 Chronicles 17:4 Go and tell my servant David: Thus says the LORD: You shall not build me a house to live in.

1 Chronicles 17:5 For I have not lived in a house since the day I brought out Israel to this very day, but I have lived in a tent and a tabernacle.

1 Chronicles 17:6 Wherever I have moved about among all Israel, did I ever speak a word with any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd my people, saying, Why have you not built me a house of cedar?

1 Chronicles 17:7 Now therefore thus you shall say to my servant David: Thus says the LORD of hosts: I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, to be ruler over my people Israel;

1 Chronicles 17:8 and I have been with you wherever you went, and have cut off all your enemies before you; and I will make for you a name, like the name of the great ones of the earth.

1 Chronicles 17:9 I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, so that they may live in their own place, and be disturbed no more; and evildoers shall wear them down no more, as they did formerly,

1 Chronicles 17:10 from the time that I appointed judges over my people Israel; and I will subdue all your enemies. Moreover I declare to you that the LORD will build you a house.

1 Chronicles 17:11 When your days are fulfilled to go to be with your ancestors, I will raise up your offspring after you, one of your own sons, and I will establish his kingdom.

1 Chronicles 17:12 He shall build a house for me, and I will establish his throne forever.

1 Chronicles 17:13 I will be a father to him, and he shall be a son to me. I will not take my steadfast love from him, as I took it from him who was before you,

1 Chronicles 17:14 but I will confirm him in my house and in my kingdom forever, and his throne shall be established forever.

1 Chronicles 17:15 In accordance with all these words and all this vision, Nathan spoke to David.

1 Chronicles 17:16 Then King David went in and sat before the LORD, and said, “Who am I, O LORD God, and what is my house, that you have brought me thus far?

1 Chronicles 17:17 And even this was a small thing in your sight, O God; you have also spoken of your servant’s house for a great while to come. You regard me as someone of high rank, O LORD God!

1 Chronicles 17:18 And what more can David say to you for honoring your servant? You know your servant.

1 Chronicles 17:19 For your servant’s sake, O LORD, and according to your own heart, you have done all these great deeds, making known all these great things.

1 Chronicles 17:20 There is no one like you, O LORD, and there is no God besides you, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

1 Chronicles 17:21 Who is like your people Israel, one nation on the earth whom God went to redeem to be his people, making for yourself a name for great and terrible things, in driving out nations before your people whom you redeemed from Egypt?

1 Chronicles 17:22 And you made your people Israel to be your people forever; and you, O LORD, became their God.

1 Chronicles 17:23 "And now, O LORD, as for the word that you have spoken concerning your servant and concerning his house, let it be established forever, and do as you have promised.

1 Chronicles 17:24 Thus your name will be established and magnified forever in the saying, 'The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, is Israel's God'; and the house of your servant David will be established in your presence.

1 Chronicles 17:25 For you, my God, have revealed to your servant that you will build a house for him; therefore your servant has found it possible to pray before you.

1 Chronicles 17:26 And now, O LORD, you are God, and you have promised this good thing to your servant;

1 Chronicles 17:27 therefore may it please you to bless the house of your servant, that it may continue forever before you. For you, O LORD, have blessed and are blessed forever."

1 Chronicles 18:1 Some time afterward, David attacked the Philistines and subdued them; he took Gath and its villages from the Philistines.

1 Chronicles 18:2 He defeated Moab, and the Moabites became subject to David and brought tribute.

1 Chronicles 18:3 David also struck down King Hadadezer of Zobah, toward Hamath, as he went to set up a monument at the river Euphrates.

1 Chronicles 18:5 When the Arameans of Damascus came to help King Hadadezer of Zobah, David killed twenty-two thousand Arameans.

1 Chronicles 18:6 Then David put garrisons in Aram of Damascus; and the Arameans became subject to David, and brought tribute. The LORD gave victory to David wherever he went.

1 Chronicles 18:7 David took the gold shields that were carried by the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

1 Chronicles 18:8 From Tibhath and from Cun, cities of Hadadezer, David took a vast quantity of bronze; with it Solomon made the bronze sea and the pillars and the vessels of bronze.

1 Chronicles 18:9 When King Tou of Hamath heard that David had defeated the whole army of King Hadadezer of Zobah,

1 Chronicles 18:10 he sent his son Hadoram to King David, to greet him and to congratulate him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him. Now Hadadezer had often been at war with Tou. He sent all sorts of articles of gold, of silver, and of bronze;

1 Chronicles 18:11 these also King David dedicated to the LORD, together with the silver and gold that he had carried off from all the nations, from Edom, Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines, and Amalek.

1 Chronicles 18:12 Abishai son of Zeruiah killed eighteen thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

1 Chronicles 18:13 He put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became subject to David. And the LORD gave victory to David wherever he went.

1 Chronicles 18:14 So David reigned over all Israel; and he administered justice and equity to all his people.

1 Chronicles 18:15 Joab son of Zeruiah was over the army; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was recorder;

1 Chronicles 18:16 Zadok son of Ahitub and Ahimelech son of Abiathar were priests; Shavsha was secretary;

1 Chronicles 18:17 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were the chief officials in the service of the king.

1 Chronicles 19:1 Some time afterward, King Nahash of the Ammonites died, and his son succeeded him.

1 Chronicles 19:2 David said, "I will deal loyally with Hanun son of Nahash, for his father dealt loyally with me." So David sent messengers to console him concerning his father. When David's servants came to Hanun in the land of the Ammonites, to console him,

1 Chronicles 19:3 the officials of the Ammonites said to Hanun, "Do you think, because David has sent consolers to you, that he is honoring your father? Have not his servants come to you to search and to overthrow and to spy out the land?"

1 Chronicles 19:4 So Hanun seized David's servants, shaved them, cut off their garments in the middle at their hips, and sent them away;

1 Chronicles 19:5 and they departed. When David was told about the men, he sent messengers to them, for they felt greatly humiliated. The king said, "Remain at Jericho until your beards have grown, and then return."

1 Chronicles 19:6 When the Ammonites saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hanun and the Ammonites sent a thousand talents of silver to hire chariots and cavalry from Mesopotamia, from Aram-maacah and from Zobah.

1 Chronicles 19:7 They hired thirty-two thousand chariots and the king of Maacah with his army, who came and camped before Medeba. And the Ammonites were mustered from their cities and came to battle.

1 Chronicles 19:8 When David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the army of the warriors.

1 Chronicles 19:9 The Ammonites came out and drew up in battle array at the entrance of the city, and the kings who had come were by themselves in the open country.

1 Chronicles 19:10 When Joab saw that the line of battle was set against him both in front and in the rear, he chose some of the picked men of Israel and arrayed them against the Arameans;

1 Chronicles 19:11 the rest of his troops he put in the charge of his brother Abishai, and they were arrayed against the Ammonites.

1 Chronicles 19:12 He said, “If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the Ammonites are too strong for you, then I will help you.

1 Chronicles 19:13 Be strong, and let us be courageous for our people and for the cities of our God; and may the LORD do what seems good to him.”

1 Chronicles 19:14 So Joab and the troops who were with him advanced toward the Arameans for battle; and they fled before him.

1 Chronicles 19:15 When the Ammonites saw that the Arameans fled, they likewise fled before Abishai, Joab’s brother, and entered the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

1 Chronicles 19:16 But when the Arameans saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they sent messengers and brought out the Arameans who were beyond the Euphrates, with Shophach the commander of the army of Hadadezer at their head.

1 Chronicles 19:17 When David was informed, he gathered all Israel together, crossed the Jordan, came to them, and drew up his forces against them. When David set the battle in array against the Arameans, they fought with him.

1 Chronicles 19:18 The Arameans fled before Israel; and David killed seven thousand Aramean charioteers and forty thousand foot soldiers, and also killed Shophach the commander of their army.

1 Chronicles 19:19 When the servants of Hadadezer saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with David, and became subject to him. So the Arameans were not willing to help the Ammonites any more.

1 Chronicles 20:1 In the spring of the year, the time when kings go out to battle, Joab led out the army, ravaged the country of the Ammonites, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David remained at Jerusalem. Joab attacked Rabbah, and overthrew it.

1 Chronicles 20:2 David took the crown of Milcom from his head; he found that it weighed a talent of gold, and in it was a precious stone; and it was placed on David's head. He also brought out the booty of the city, a very great amount.

1 Chronicles 20:3 He brought out the people who were in it, and set them to work with saws and iron picks and axes. Thus David did to all the cities of the Ammonites. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

1 Chronicles 20:4 After this, war broke out with the Philistines at Gezer; then Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Sippai, who was one of the descendants of the giants; and the Philistines were subdued.

1 Chronicles 20:5 Again there was war with the Philistines; and Elhanan son of Jair killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

1 Chronicles 20:6 Again there was war at Gath, where there was a man of great size, who had six fingers on each hand, and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in number; he also was descended from the giants.

1 Chronicles 20:7 When he taunted Israel, Jonathan son of Shimea, David's brother, killed him.

1 Chronicles 20:8 These were descended from the giants in Gath; they fell by the hand of David and his servants.

1 Chronicles 21:1 Satan stood up against Israel, and incited David to count the people of Israel.

1 Chronicles 21:2 So David said to Joab and the commanders of the army, "Go, number Israel, from Beer-sheba to Dan, and bring me a report, so that I may know their number."

1 Chronicles 21:3 But Joab said, "May the LORD increase the number of his people a hundredfold! Are they not, my lord the king, all of them my lord's servants? Why then should my lord require this? Why should he bring guilt on Israel?"

1 Chronicles 21:4 But the king's word prevailed against Joab. So Joab departed and went throughout all Israel, and came back to Jerusalem.

1 Chronicles 21:5 Joab gave the total count of the people to David. In all Israel there were one million one hundred thousand men who drew the sword, and in Judah four hundred seventy thousand who drew the sword.

1 Chronicles 21:6 But he did not include Levi and Benjamin in the numbering, for the king's command was abhorrent to Joab.

1 Chronicles 21:7 But God was displeased with this thing, and he struck Israel.

1 Chronicles 21:8 David said to God, “I have sinned greatly in that I have done this thing. But now, I pray you, take away the guilt of your servant; for I have done very foolishly.”

1 Chronicles 21:9 The LORD spoke to Gad, David’s seer, saying,

1 Chronicles 21:10 “Go and say to David, ‘Thus says the LORD: Three things I offer you; choose one of them, so that I may do it to you.’“

1 Chronicles 21:11 So Gad came to David and said to him, “Thus says the LORD, ‘Take your choice:

1 Chronicles 21:12 either three years of famine; or three months of devastation by your foes, while the sword of your enemies overtakes you; or three days of the sword of the LORD, pestilence on the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the territory of Israel.’ Now decide what answer I shall return to the one who sent me.”

1 Chronicles 21:13 Then David said to Gad, “I am in great distress; let me fall into the hand of the LORD, for his mercy is very great; but let me not fall into human hands.”

1 Chronicles 21:14 So the LORD sent a pestilence on Israel; and seventy thousand persons fell in Israel.

1 Chronicles 21:15 And God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it; but when he was about to destroy it, the LORD took note and relented concerning the calamity; he said to the destroying angel, “Enough! Stay your hand.” The angel of the LORD was then standing by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

1 Chronicles 21:16 David looked up and saw the angel of the LORD standing between earth and heaven, and in his hand a drawn sword stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces.

1 Chronicles 21:17 And David said to God, “Was it not I who gave the command to count the people? It is I who have sinned and done very wickedly. But these sheep, what have they done? Let your hand, I pray, O LORD my God, be against me and against my father’s house; but do not let your people be plagued!”

1 Chronicles 21:18 Then the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to tell David that he should go up and erect an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

1 Chronicles 21:19 So David went up following Gad’s instructions, which he had spoken in the name of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 21:20 Ornan turned and saw the angel; and while his four sons who were with him hid themselves, Ornan continued to thresh wheat.

1 Chronicles 21:21 As David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David; he went out from the threshing floor, and did obeisance to David with his face to the ground.

1 Chronicles 21:22 David said to Ornan, “Give me the site of the threshing floor that I may build on it an altar to the LORD— give it to me at its full price— so that the plague may be averted from the people.”

1 Chronicles 21:23 Then Ornan said to David, “Take it; and let my lord the king do what seems good to him; see, I present the oxen for burnt offerings, and the threshing sledges for the wood, and the wheat for a grain offering. I give it all.”

1 Chronicles 21:24 But King David said to Ornan, “No; I will buy them for the full price. I will not take for the LORD what is yours, nor offer burnt offerings that cost me nothing.”

1 Chronicles 21:26 David built there an altar to the LORD and presented burnt offerings and offerings of well-being. He called upon the LORD, and he answered him with fire from heaven on the altar of burnt offering.

1 Chronicles 21:27 Then the LORD commanded the angel, and he put his sword back into its sheath.

1 Chronicles 21:28 At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he made his sacrifices there.

1 Chronicles 21:29 For the tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses had made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering were at that time in the high place at Gibeon;

1 Chronicles 21:30 but David could not go before it to inquire of God, for he was afraid of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 22:1 Then David said, “Here shall be the house of the LORD God and here the altar of burnt offering for Israel.”

1 Chronicles 22:2 David gave orders to gather together the aliens who were residing in the land of Israel, and he set stonecutters to prepare dressed stones for building the house of God.

1 Chronicles 22:3 David also provided great stores of iron for nails for the doors of the gates and for clamps, as well as bronze in quantities beyond weighing,

1 Chronicles 22:4 and cedar logs without number— for the Sidonians and Tyrians brought great quantities of cedar to David.

1 Chronicles 22:5 For David said, “My son Solomon is young and inexperienced, and the house that is to be built for the LORD must be exceedingly magnificent, famous and glorified throughout all lands; I will therefore make preparation for it.” So David provided materials in great quantity before his death.

1 Chronicles 22:6 Then he called for his son Solomon and charged him to build a house for the LORD, the God of Israel.

1 Chronicles 22:7 David said to Solomon, “My son, I had planned to build a house to the name of the LORD my God.

1 Chronicles 22:8 But the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ‘You have shed much blood and have waged great wars; you shall not build a house to my name, because you have shed so much blood in my sight on the earth.

1 Chronicles 22:9 See, a son shall be born to you; he shall be a man of peace. I will give him peace from all his enemies on every side; for his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quiet to Israel in his days.

1 Chronicles 22:10 He shall build a house for my name. He shall be a son to me, and I will be a father to him, and I will establish his royal throne in Israel forever.’

1 Chronicles 22:11 Now, my son, the LORD be with you, so that you may succeed in building the house of the LORD your God, as he has spoken concerning you.

1 Chronicles 22:12 Only, may the LORD grant you discretion and understanding, so that when he gives you charge over Israel you may keep the law of the LORD your God.

1 Chronicles 22:13 Then you will prosper if you are careful to observe the statutes and the ordinances that the LORD commanded Moses for Israel. Be strong and of good courage. Do not be afraid or dismayed.

1 Chronicles 22:14 With great pains I have provided for the house of the LORD one hundred thousand talents of gold, one million talents of silver, and bronze and iron beyond weighing, for there is so much of it; timber and stone too I have provided. To these you must add more.

1 Chronicles 22:15 You have an abundance of workers: stonecutters, masons, carpenters, and all kinds of artisans without number, skilled in working

1 Chronicles 22:16 gold, silver, bronze, and iron. Now begin the work, and the LORD be with you.”

1 Chronicles 22:17 David also commanded all the leaders of Israel to help his son Solomon, saying,

1 Chronicles 22:18 “Is not the LORD your God with you? Has he not given you peace on every side? For he has delivered the inhabitants of the land into my hand; and the land is subdued before the LORD and his people.

1 Chronicles 22:19 Now set your mind and heart to seek the LORD your God. Go and build the sanctuary of the LORD God so that the ark of the covenant of the LORD and the holy vessels of God may be brought into a house built for the name of the LORD."

1 Chronicles 23:1 When David was old and full of days, he made his son Solomon king over Israel.

1 Chronicles 23:2 David assembled all the leaders of Israel and the priests and the Levites.

1 Chronicles 23:3 The Levites, thirty years old and upward, were counted, and the total was thirty-eight thousand.

1 Chronicles 23:4 "Twenty-four thousand of these," David said, "shall have charge of the work in the house of the LORD, six thousand shall be officers and judges,

1 Chronicles 23:5 four thousand gatekeepers, and four thousand shall offer praises to the LORD with the instruments that I have made for praise."

1 Chronicles 23:6 And David organized them in divisions corresponding to the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

1 Chronicles 23:7 The sons of Gershon were Ladan and Shimei.

1 Chronicles 23:8 The sons of Ladan: Jehiel the chief, Zetham, and Joel, three.

1 Chronicles 23:9 The sons of Shimei: Shelomoth, Haziel, and Haran, three. These were the heads of families of Ladan.

1 Chronicles 23:10 And the sons of Shimei: Jahath, Zina, Jeush, and Beriah. These four were the sons of Shimei.

1 Chronicles 23:11 Jahath was the chief, and Zizah the second; but Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons, so they were enrolled as a single family.

1 Chronicles 23:12 The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four.

1 Chronicles 23:13 The sons of Amram: Aaron and Moses. Aaron was set apart to consecrate the most holy things, so that he and his sons forever should make offerings before the LORD, and minister to him and pronounce blessings in his name forever;

1 Chronicles 23:14 but as for Moses the man of God, his sons were to be reckoned among the tribe of Levi.

1 Chronicles 23:15 The sons of Moses: Gershom and Eliezer.

1 Chronicles 23:17 The sons of Eliezer: Rehabiah the chief; Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were very numerous.

1 Chronicles 23:18 The sons of Izhar: Shelomith the chief.

1 Chronicles 23:19 The sons of Hebron: Jeriah the chief, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.

1 Chronicles 23:20 The sons of Uzziel: Micah the chief and Isshiah the second.

1 Chronicles 23:21 The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli: Eleazar and Kish.

1 Chronicles 23:22 Eleazar died having no sons, but only daughters; their kindred, the sons of Kish, married them.

1 Chronicles 23:23 The sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder, and Jeremoth, three.

1 Chronicles 23:24 These were the sons of Levi by their ancestral houses, the heads of families as they were enrolled according to the number of the names of the individuals from twenty years old and upward who were to do the work for the service of the house of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 23:25 For David said, “The LORD, the God of Israel, has given rest to his people; and he resides in Jerusalem forever.

1 Chronicles 23:26 And so the Levites no longer need to carry the tabernacle or any of the things for its service”—

1 Chronicles 23:27 for according to the last words of David these were the number of the Levites from twenty years old and upward—

1 Chronicles 23:28 “but their duty shall be to assist the descendants of Aaron for the service of the house of the LORD, having the care of the courts and the chambers, the cleansing of all that is holy, and any work for the service of the house of God;

1 Chronicles 23:29 to assist also with the rows of bread, the choice flour for the grain offering, the wafers of unleavened bread, the baked offering, the offering mixed with oil, and all measures of quantity or size.

1 Chronicles 23:30 And they shall stand every morning, thanking and praising the LORD, and likewise at evening,

1 Chronicles 23:31 and whenever burnt offerings are offered to the LORD on sabbaths, new moons, and appointed festivals, according to the number required of them, regularly before the LORD.

1 Chronicles 23:32 Thus they shall keep charge of the tent of meeting and the sanctuary, and shall attend the descendants of Aaron, their kindred, for the service of the house of the LORD.”

1 Chronicles 24:1 The divisions of the descendants of Aaron were these. The sons of Aaron: Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

1 Chronicles 24:2 But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no sons; so Eleazar and Ithamar became the priests.

1 Chronicles 24:3 Along with Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, David organized them according to the appointed duties in their service.

1 Chronicles 24:4 Since more chief men were found among the sons of Eleazar than among the sons of Ithamar, they organized them under sixteen heads of ancestral houses of the sons of Eleazar, and eight of the sons of Ithamar.

1 Chronicles 24:5 They organized them by lot, all alike, for there were officers of the sanctuary and officers of God among both the sons of Eleazar and the sons of Ithamar.

1 Chronicles 24:6 The scribe Shemaiah son of Nethanel, a Levite, recorded them in the presence of the king, and the officers, and Zadok the priest, and Ahimelech son of Abiathar, and the heads of ancestral houses of the priests and of the Levites; one ancestral house being chosen for Eleazar and one chosen for Ithamar.

1 Chronicles 24:19 These had as their appointed duty in their service to enter the house of the LORD according to the procedure established for them by their ancestor Aaron, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.

1 Chronicles 24:20 And of the rest of the sons of Levi: of the sons of Amram, Shubael; of the sons of Shubael, Jehdeiah.

1 Chronicles 25:1 David and the officers of the army also set apart for the service the sons of Asaph, and of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who should prophesy with lyres, harps, and cymbals. The list of those who did the work and of their duties was:

1 Chronicles 28:2 Then King David rose to his feet and said: “Hear me, my brothers and my people. I had planned to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, for the footstool of our God; and I made preparations for building.

1 Chronicles 28:3 But God said to me, ‘You shall not build a house for my name, for you are a warrior and have shed blood.’

1 Chronicles 28:4 Yet the LORD God of Israel chose me from all my ancestral house to be king over Israel forever; for he chose Judah as leader, and in the house of Judah my father’s house, and among my father’s sons he took delight in making me king over all Israel.

1 Chronicles 28:5 And of all my sons, for the LORD has given me many, he has chosen my son Solomon to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.

1 Chronicles 28:6 He said to me, ‘It is your son Solomon who shall build my house and my courts, for I have chosen him to be a son to me, and I will be a father to him.

1 Chronicles 28:7 I will establish his kingdom forever if he continues resolute in keeping my commandments and my ordinances, as he is today.’

1 Chronicles 28:8 Now therefore in the sight of all Israel, the assembly of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God, observe and search out all the commandments of the LORD your God; that you may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children after you forever.

1 Chronicles 28:9 “And you, my son Solomon, know the God of your father, and serve him with single mind and willing heart; for the LORD searches every mind, and understands every plan and thought. If you seek him, he will be found by you; but if you forsake him, he will abandon you forever.

1 Chronicles 28:10 Take heed now, for the LORD has chosen you to build a house as the sanctuary; be strong, and act.”

1 Chronicles 28:19 “All this, in writing at the LORD’s direction, he made clear to me— the plan of all the works.”

1 Chronicles 28:20 David said further to his son Solomon, “Be strong and of good courage, and act. Do not be afraid or dismayed; for the LORD God, my God, is with you. He will not fail you or forsake you, until all the work for the service of the house of the LORD is finished.

1 Chronicles 28:21 Here are the divisions of the priests and the Levites for all the service of the house of God; and with you in all the work will be every volunteer who has skill for any kind of service; also the officers and all the people will be wholly at your command.”

1 Chronicles 29:1 King David said to the whole assembly, “My son Solomon, whom alone God has chosen, is young and inexperienced, and the work is great; for the temple will not be for mortals but for the LORD God.

1 Chronicles 29:2 So I have provided for the house of my God, so far as I was able, the gold for the things of gold, the silver for the things of silver, and the bronze for the things of bronze, the iron for the things of iron, and wood for the things of wood, besides great quantities of onyx and stones for setting, antimony, colored stones, all sorts of precious stones, and marble in abundance.

1 Chronicles 29:3 Moreover, in addition to all that I have provided for the holy house, I have a treasure of my own of gold and silver, and because of my devotion to the house of my God I give it to the house of my God:

1 Chronicles 29:4 three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, for overlaying the walls of the house,

1 Chronicles 29:5 and for all the work to be done by artisans, gold for the things of gold and silver for the things of silver. Who then will offer willingly, consecrating themselves today to the LORD?”

1 Chronicles 29:6 Then the leaders of ancestral houses made their freewill offerings, as did also the leaders of the tribes, the commanders of the thousands and of the hundreds, and the officers over the king’s work.

1 Chronicles 29:7 They gave for the service of the house of God five thousand talents and ten thousand darics of gold, ten thousand talents of silver, eighteen thousand talents of bronze, and one hundred thousand talents of iron.

1 Chronicles 29:8 Whoever had precious stones gave them to the treasury of the house of the LORD, into the care of Jehiel the Gershonite.

1 Chronicles 29:9 Then the people rejoiced because these had given willingly, for with single mind they had offered freely to the LORD; King David also rejoiced greatly.

1 Chronicles 29:10 Then David blessed the LORD in the presence of all the assembly; David said: “Blessed are you, O LORD, the God of our ancestor Israel, forever and ever.

1 Chronicles 29:11 Yours, O LORD, are the greatness, the power, the glory, the victory, and the majesty; for all that is in the heavens and on the earth is yours; yours is the kingdom, O LORD, and you are exalted as head above all.

1 Chronicles 29:12 Riches and honor come from you, and you rule over all. In your hand are power and might; and it is in your hand to make great and to give strength to all.

1 Chronicles 29:13 And now, our God, we give thanks to you and praise your glorious name.

1 Chronicles 29:14 “But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to make this freewill offering? For all things come from you, and of your own have we given you.

1 Chronicles 29:15 For we are aliens and transients before you, as were all our ancestors; our days on the earth are like a shadow, and there is no hope.

1 Chronicles 29:16 O LORD our God, all this abundance that we have provided for building you a house for your holy name comes from your hand and is all your own.

1 Chronicles 29:17 I know, my God, that you search the heart, and take pleasure in uprightness; in the uprightness of my heart I have freely offered all these things, and now I have seen your people, who are present here, offering freely and joyously to you.

1 Chronicles 29:18 O LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, our ancestors, keep forever such purposes and thoughts in the hearts of your people, and direct their hearts toward you.

1 Chronicles 29:19 Grant to my son Solomon that with single mind he may keep your commandments, your decrees, and your statutes, performing all of them, and that he may build the temple for which I have made provision.”

1 Chronicles 29:20 Then David said to the whole assembly, “Bless the LORD your God.” And all the assembly blessed the LORD, the God of their ancestors, and bowed their heads and prostrated themselves before the LORD and the king.

1 Chronicles 29:21 On the next day they offered sacrifices and burnt offerings to the LORD, a thousand bulls, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, with their libations, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel;

1 Chronicles 29:22 and they ate and drank before the LORD on that day with great joy. They made David’s son Solomon king a second time; they anointed him as the LORD’s prince, and Zadok as priest.

1 Chronicles 29:23 Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD, succeeding his father David as king; he prospered, and all Israel obeyed him.

1 Chronicles 29:24 All the leaders and the mighty warriors, and also all the sons of King David, pledged their allegiance to King Solomon.

1 Chronicles 29:25 The LORD highly exalted Solomon in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed upon him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

1 Chronicles 29:26 Thus David son of Jesse reigned over all Israel.

1 Chronicles 29:27 The period that he reigned over Israel was forty years; he reigned seven years in Hebron, and thirty-three years in Jerusalem.

1 Chronicles 29:28 He died in a good old age, full of days, riches, and honor; and his son Solomon succeeded him.

1 Chronicles 29:29 Now the acts of King David, from first to last, are written in the records of the seer Samuel, and in the records of the prophet Nathan, and in the records of the seer Gad,

1 Chronicles 29:30 with accounts of all his rule and his might and of the events that befell him and Israel and all the kingdoms of the earth.

2 Chronicles

1:1 Solomon son of David established himself in his kingdom; the LORD his God was with him and made him exceedingly great.

2 Chronicles 1:2 Solomon summoned all Israel, the commanders of the thousands and of the hundreds, the judges, and all the leaders of all Israel, the heads of families.

2 Chronicles 1:3 Then Solomon, and the whole assembly with him, went to the high place that was at Gibeon; for God’s tent of meeting, which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness, was there.

2 Chronicles 1:4 (But David had brought the ark of God up from Kiriath-jearim to the place that David had prepared for it; for he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem.)

2 Chronicles 1:5 Moreover the bronze altar that Bezalel son of Uri, son of Hur, had made, was there in front of the tabernacle of the LORD. And Solomon and the assembly inquired at it.

2 Chronicles 1:6 Solomon went up there to the bronze altar before the LORD, which was at the tent of meeting, and offered a thousand burnt offerings on it.

2 Chronicles 1:7 That night God appeared to Solomon, and said to him, “Ask what I should give you.”

2 Chronicles 1:8 Solomon said to God, “You have shown great and steadfast love to my father David, and have made me succeed him as king.

2 Chronicles 1:9 O LORD God, let your promise to my father David now be fulfilled, for you have made me king over a people as numerous as the dust of the earth.

2 Chronicles 1:10 Give me now wisdom and knowledge to go out and come in before this people, for who can rule this great people of yours?”

2 Chronicles 1:11 God answered Solomon, “Because this was in your heart, and you have not asked for possessions, wealth, honor, or the life of those who hate you, and have not even asked for long life, but have asked for wisdom and knowledge for yourself that you may rule my people over whom I have made you king,

2 Chronicles 1:12 wisdom and knowledge are granted to you. I will also give you riches, possessions, and honor, such as none of the kings had who were before you, and none after you shall have the like."

2 Chronicles 1:13 So Solomon came from the high place at Gibeon, from the tent of meeting, to Jerusalem. And he reigned over Israel.

2 Chronicles 1:14 Solomon gathered together chariots and horses; he had fourteen hundred chariots and twelve thousand horses, which he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 1:15 The king made silver and gold as common in Jerusalem as stone, and he made cedar as plentiful as the sycamore of the Shephelah.

2 Chronicles 1:16 Solomon's horses were imported from Egypt and Kue; the king's traders received them from Kue at the prevailing price.

2 Chronicles 1:17 They imported from Egypt, and then exported, a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for one hundred fifty; so through them these were exported to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Aram.

2 Chronicles 2:1 Solomon decided to build a temple for the name of the LORD, and a royal palace for himself.

2 Chronicles 2:2 Solomon conscripted seventy thousand laborers and eighty thousand stonecutters in the hill country, with three thousand six hundred to oversee them.

2 Chronicles 2:3 Solomon sent word to King Huram of Tyre: "Once you dealt with my father David and sent him cedar to build himself a house to live in.

2 Chronicles 2:4 I am now about to build a house for the name of the LORD my God and dedicate it to him for offering fragrant incense before him, and for the regular offering of the rows of bread, and for burnt offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths and the new moons and the appointed festivals of the LORD our God, as ordained forever for Israel.

2 Chronicles 2:5 The house that I am about to build will be great, for our God is greater than other gods.

2 Chronicles 2:6 But who is able to build him a house, since heaven, even highest heaven, cannot contain him? Who am I to build a house for him, except as a place to make offerings before him?

2 Chronicles 2:7 So now send me an artisan skilled to work in gold, silver, bronze, and iron, and in purple, crimson, and blue fabrics, trained also in engraving, to join the skilled workers who are with me in Judah and Jerusalem, whom my father David provided.

2 Chronicles 2:8 Send me also cedar, cypress, and algum timber from Lebanon, for I know that your servants are skilled in cutting Lebanon timber. My servants will work with your servants

2 Chronicles 2:9 to prepare timber for me in abundance, for the house I am about to build will be great and wonderful.

2 Chronicles 2:10 I will provide for your servants, those who cut the timber, twenty thousand cors of crushed wheat, twenty thousand cors of barley, twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.”

2 Chronicles 2:11 Then King Huram of Tyre answered in a letter that he sent to Solomon, “Because the LORD loves his people he has made you king over them.”

2 Chronicles 2:12 Huram also said, “Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who made heaven and earth, who has given King David a wise son, endowed with discretion and understanding, who will build a temple for the LORD, and a royal palace for himself.

2 Chronicles 2:13 “I have dispatched Huram-abi, a skilled artisan, endowed with understanding,

2 Chronicles 2:14 the son of one of the Danite women, his father a Tyrian. He is trained to work in gold, silver, bronze, iron, stone, and wood, and in purple, blue, and crimson fabrics and fine linen, and to do all sorts of engraving and execute any design that may be assigned him, with your artisans, the artisans of my lord, your father David.

2 Chronicles 2:15 Now, as for the wheat, barley, oil, and wine, of which my lord has spoken, let him send them to his servants.

2 Chronicles 2:16 We will cut whatever timber you need from Lebanon, and bring it to you as rafts by sea to Joppa; you will take it up to Jerusalem.”

2 Chronicles 2:17 Then Solomon took a census of all the aliens who were residing in the land of Israel, after the census that his father David had taken; and there were found to be one hundred fifty-three thousand six hundred.

2 Chronicles 2:18 Seventy thousand of them he assigned as laborers, eighty thousand as stonecutters in the hill country, and three thousand six hundred as overseers to make the people work.

2 Chronicles 3:1 Solomon began to build the house of the LORD in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where the LORD had appeared to his father David, at the place that David had designated, on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

2 Chronicles 3:2 He began to build on the second day of the second month of the fourth year of his reign.

2 Chronicles 3:3 These are Solomon’s measurements for building the house of God: the length, in cubits of the old standard, was sixty cubits, and the width twenty cubits.

2 Chronicles 3:4 The vestibule in front of the nave of the house was twenty cubits long, across the width of the house; and its height was one hundred twenty cubits. He overlaid it on the inside with pure gold.

2 Chronicles 3:5 The nave he lined with cypress, covered it with fine gold, and made palms and chains on it.

2 Chronicles 3:6 He adorned the house with settings of precious stones. The gold was gold from Parvaim.

2 Chronicles 3:7 So he lined the house with gold— its beams, its thresholds, its walls, and its doors; and he carved cherubim on the walls.

2 Chronicles 3:8 He made the most holy place; its length, corresponding to the width of the house, was twenty cubits, and its width was twenty cubits; he overlaid it with six hundred talents of fine gold.

2 Chronicles 3:9 The weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. He overlaid the upper chambers with gold.

2 Chronicles 3:10 In the most holy place he made two carved cherubim and overlaid them with gold.

2 Chronicles 3:11 The wings of the cherubim together extended twenty cubits: one wing of the one, five cubits long, touched the wall of the house, and its other wing, five cubits long, touched the wing of the other cherub;

2 Chronicles 3:12 and of this cherub, one wing, five cubits long, touched the wall of the house, and the other wing, also five cubits long, was joined to the wing of the first cherub.

2 Chronicles 3:13 The wings of these cherubim extended twenty cubits; the cherubim stood on their feet, facing the nave.

2 Chronicles 3:14 And Solomon made the curtain of blue and purple and crimson fabrics and fine linen, and worked cherubim into it.

2 Chronicles 3:15 In front of the house he made two pillars thirty-five cubits high, with a capital of five cubits on the top of each.

2 Chronicles 3:16 He made encircling chains and put them on the tops of the pillars; and he made one hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains.

2 Chronicles 3:17 He set up the pillars in front of the temple, one on the right, the other on the left; the one on the right he called Jachin, and the one on the left, Boaz.

2 Chronicles 4:1 He made an altar of bronze, twenty cubits long, twenty cubits wide, and ten cubits high.

2 Chronicles 4:2 Then he made the molten sea; it was round, ten cubits from rim to rim, and five cubits high. A line of thirty cubits would encircle it completely.

2 Chronicles 4:3 Under it were panels all around, each of ten cubits, surrounding the sea; there were two rows of panels, cast when it was cast.

2 Chronicles 4:4 It stood on twelve oxen, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, and three facing east; the sea was set on them. The hindquarters of each were toward the inside.

2 Chronicles 4:5 Its thickness was a handbreadth; its rim was made like the rim of a cup, like the flower of a lily; it held three thousand baths.

2 Chronicles 4:6 He also made ten basins in which to wash, and set five on the right side, and five on the left. In these they were to rinse what was used for the burnt offering. The sea was for the priests to wash in.

2 Chronicles 4:7 He made ten golden lampstands as prescribed, and set them in the temple, five on the south side and five on the north.

2 Chronicles 4:8 He also made ten tables and placed them in the temple, five on the right side and five on the left. And he made one hundred basins of gold.

2 Chronicles 4:9 He made the court of the priests, and the great court, and doors for the court; he overlaid their doors with bronze.

2 Chronicles 4:10 He set the sea at the southeast corner of the house.

2 Chronicles 4:11 And Huram made the pots, the shovels, and the basins. Thus Huram finished the work that he did for King Solomon on the house of God:

2 Chronicles 4:12 the two pillars, the bowls, and the two capitals on the top of the pillars; and the two latticeworks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars;

2 Chronicles 4:13 the four hundred pomegranates for the two latticeworks, two rows of pomegranates for each latticework, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the pillars.

2 Chronicles 4:14 He made the stands, the basins on the stands,

2 Chronicles 4:15 the one sea, and the twelve oxen underneath it.

2 Chronicles 4:16 The pots, the shovels, the forks, and all the equipment for these Huram-abi made of burnished bronze for King Solomon for the house of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 4:17 In the plain of the Jordan the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredah.

2 Chronicles 4:18 Solomon made all these things in great quantities, so that the weight of the bronze was not determined.

2 Chronicles 4:19 So Solomon made all the things that were in the house of God: the golden altar, the tables for the bread of the Presence,

2 Chronicles 4:20 the lampstands and their lamps of pure gold to burn before the inner sanctuary, as prescribed;

2 Chronicles 4:21 the flowers, the lamps, and the tongs, of purest gold;

2 Chronicles 4:22 the snuffers, basins, ladles, and firepans, of pure gold. As for the entrance to the temple: the inner doors to the most holy place and the doors of the nave of the temple were of gold.

2 Chronicles 5:1 Thus all the work that Solomon did for the house of the LORD was finished. Solomon brought in the things that his father David had dedicated, and stored the silver, the gold, and all the vessels in the treasuries of the house of God.

2 Chronicles 5:2 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the leaders of the ancestral houses of the people of Israel, in Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion.

2 Chronicles 5:3 And all the Israelites assembled before the king at the festival that is in the seventh month.

2 Chronicles 5:4 And all the elders of Israel came, and the Levites carried the ark.

2 Chronicles 5:5 So they brought up the ark, the tent of meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the tent; the priests and the Levites brought them up.

2 Chronicles 5:6 King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, who had assembled before him, were before the ark, sacrificing so many sheep and oxen that they could not be numbered or counted.

2 Chronicles 5:7 Then the priests brought the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, in the inner sanctuary of the house, in the most holy place, underneath the wings of the cherubim.

2 Chronicles 5:8 For the cherubim spread out their wings over the place of the ark, so that the cherubim made a covering above the ark and its poles.

2 Chronicles 5:9 The poles were so long that the ends of the poles were seen from the holy place in front of the inner sanctuary; but they could not be seen from outside; they are there to this day.

2 Chronicles 5:10 There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets that Moses put there at Horeb, where the LORD made a covenant with the people of Israel after they came out of Egypt.

2 Chronicles 5:11 Now when the priests came out of the holy place (for all the priests who were present had sanctified themselves, without regard to their divisions),

2 Chronicles 5:12 all the levitical singers, Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun, their sons and kindred, arrayed in fine linen, with cymbals, harps, and lyres, stood east of the altar with one hundred twenty priests who were trumpeters.

2 Chronicles 5:13 It was the duty of the trumpeters and singers to make themselves heard in unison in praise and thanksgiving to the LORD, and when the song was raised, with trumpets and cymbals and other musical instruments, in praise to the LORD, “For he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever,” the house, the house of the LORD, was filled with a cloud,

2 Chronicles 5:14 so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud; for the glory of the LORD filled the house of God.

2 Chronicles 6:1 Then Solomon said, “The LORD has said that he would reside in thick darkness.

2 Chronicles 6:2 I have built you an exalted house, a place for you to reside in forever.”

2 Chronicles 6:3 Then the king turned around and blessed all the assembly of Israel, while all the assembly of Israel stood.

2 Chronicles 6:4 And he said, “Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who with his hand has fulfilled what he promised with his mouth to my father David, saying,

2 Chronicles 6:5 ‘Since the day that I brought my people out of the land of Egypt, I have not chosen a city from any of the tribes of Israel in which to build a house, so that my name might be there, and I chose no one as ruler over my people Israel;

2 Chronicles 6:6 but I have chosen Jerusalem in order that my name may be there, and I have chosen David to be over my people Israel.’

2 Chronicles 6:7 My father David had it in mind to build a house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

2 Chronicles 6:8 But the LORD said to my father David, ‘You did well to consider building a house for my name;

2 Chronicles 6:9 nevertheless you shall not build the house, but your son who shall be born to you shall build the house for my name.’

2 Chronicles 6:10 Now the LORD has fulfilled his promise that he made; for I have succeeded my father David, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

2 Chronicles 6:11 There I have set the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD that he made with the people of Israel.”

2 Chronicles 6:12 Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of the whole assembly of Israel, and spread out his hands.

2 Chronicles 6:13 Solomon had made a bronze platform five cubits long, five cubits wide, and three cubits high, and had set it in the court; and he stood on it. Then he knelt on his knees in the presence of the whole assembly of Israel, and spread out his hands toward heaven.

2 Chronicles 6:14 He said, “O LORD, God of Israel, there is no God like you, in heaven or on earth, keeping covenant in steadfast love with your servants who walk before you with all their heart—

2 Chronicles 6:15 you who have kept for your servant, my father David, what you promised to him. Indeed, you promised with your mouth and this day have fulfilled with your hand.

2 Chronicles 6:16 Therefore, O LORD, God of Israel, keep for your servant, my father David, that which you promised him, saying, ‘There shall never fail you a successor before me to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your children keep to their way, to walk in my law as you have walked before me.’

2 Chronicles 6:17 Therefore, O LORD, God of Israel, let your word be confirmed, which you promised to your servant David.

2 Chronicles 6:18 “But will God indeed reside with mortals on earth? Even heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain you, how much less this house that I have built!

2 Chronicles 6:19 Regard your servant’s prayer and his plea, O LORD my God, heeding the cry and the prayer that your servant prays to you.

2 Chronicles 6:20 May your eyes be open day and night toward this house, the place where you promised to set your name, and may you heed the prayer that your servant prays toward this place.

2 Chronicles 6:21 And hear the plea of your servant and of your people Israel, when they pray toward this place; may you hear from heaven your dwelling place; hear and forgive.

2 Chronicles 6:22 “If someone sins against another and is required to take an oath and comes and swears before your altar in this house,

2 Chronicles 6:23 may you hear from heaven, and act, and judge your servants, repaying the guilty by bringing their conduct on their own head, and vindicating those who are in the right by rewarding them in accordance with their righteousness.

2 Chronicles 6:24 “When your people Israel, having sinned against you, are defeated before an enemy but turn again to you, confess your name, pray and plead with you in this house,

2 Chronicles 6:25 may you hear from heaven, and forgive the sin of your people Israel, and bring them again to the land that you gave to them and to their ancestors.

2 Chronicles 6:26 “When heaven is shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against you, and then they pray toward this place, confess your name, and turn from their sin, because you punish them,

2 Chronicles 6:27 may you hear in heaven, forgive the sin of your servants, your people Israel, when you teach them the good way in which they should walk; and send down rain upon your land, which you have given to your people as an inheritance.

2 Chronicles 6:28 “If there is famine in the land, if there is plague, blight, mildew, locust, or caterpillar; if their enemies besiege them in any of the settlements of the lands; whatever suffering, whatever sickness there is;

2 Chronicles 6:29 whatever prayer, whatever plea from any individual or from all your people Israel, all knowing their own suffering and their own sorrows so that they stretch out their hands toward this house;

2 Chronicles 6:30 may you hear from heaven, your dwelling place, forgive, and render to all whose heart you know, according to all their ways, for only you know the human heart.

2 Chronicles 6:31 Thus may they fear you and walk in your ways all the days that they live in the land that you gave to our ancestors.

2 Chronicles 6:32 “Likewise when foreigners, who are not of your people Israel, come from a distant land because of your great name, and your mighty hand, and your outstretched arm, when they come and pray toward this house,

2 Chronicles 6:33 may you hear from heaven your dwelling place, and do whatever the foreigners ask of you, in order that all the peoples of the earth may know your name and fear you, as do your people Israel, and that they may know that your name has been invoked on this house that I have built.

2 Chronicles 6:34 “If your people go out to battle against their enemies, by whatever way you shall send them, and they pray to you toward this city that you have chosen and the house that I have built for your name,

2 Chronicles 6:35 then hear from heaven their prayer and their plea, and maintain their cause.

2 Chronicles 6:36 “If they sin against you— for there is no one who does not sin— and you are angry with them and give them to an enemy, so that they are carried away captive to a land far or near;

2 Chronicles 6:37 then if they come to their senses in the land to which they have been taken captive, and repent, and plead with you in the land of their captivity, saying, ‘We have sinned, and have done wrong; we have acted wickedly’;

2 Chronicles 6:38 if they repent with all their heart and soul in the land of their captivity, to which they were taken captive, and pray toward their land, which you gave to their ancestors, the city that you have chosen, and the house that I have built for your name,

2 Chronicles 6:39 then hear from heaven your dwelling place their prayer and their pleas, maintain their cause and forgive your people who have sinned against you.

2 Chronicles 6:40 Now, O my God, let your eyes be open and your ears attentive to prayer from this place.

2 Chronicles 6:41 “Now rise up, O LORD God, and go to your resting place, you and the ark of your might. Let your priests, O LORD God, be clothed with salvation, and let your faithful rejoice in your goodness.

2 Chronicles 6:42 O LORD God, do not reject your anointed one. Remember your steadfast love for your servant David.”

2 Chronicles 7:1 When Solomon had ended his prayer, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the LORD filled the temple.

2 Chronicles 7:2 The priests could not enter the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD filled the LORD’s house.

2 Chronicles 7:3 When all the people of Israel saw the fire come down and the glory of the LORD on the temple, they bowed down on the pavement with their faces to the ground, and worshiped and gave thanks to the LORD, saying, “For he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever.”

2 Chronicles 7:4 Then the king and all the people offered sacrifice before the LORD.

2 Chronicles 7:5 King Solomon offered as a sacrifice twenty-two thousand oxen and one hundred twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

2 Chronicles 7:6 The priests stood at their posts; the Levites also, with the instruments for music to the LORD that King David had made for giving thanks to the LORD— for his steadfast love endures forever— whenever David offered praises by their ministry. Opposite them the priests sounded trumpets; and all Israel stood.

2 Chronicles 7:7 Solomon consecrated the middle of the court that was in front of the house of the LORD; for there he offered the burnt offerings and the fat of the offerings of well-being because the bronze altar Solomon had made could not hold the burnt offering and the grain offering and the fat parts.

2 Chronicles 7:8 At that time Solomon held the festival for seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from Lebo-hamath to the Wadi of Egypt.

2 Chronicles 7:9 On the eighth day they held a solemn assembly; for they had observed the dedication of the altar seven days and the festival seven days.

2 Chronicles 7:10 On the twenty-third day of the seventh month he sent the people away to their homes, joyful and in good spirits because of the goodness that the LORD had shown to David and to Solomon and to his people Israel.

2 Chronicles 7:11 Thus Solomon finished the house of the LORD and the king's house; all that Solomon had planned to do in the house of the LORD and in his own house he successfully accomplished.

2 Chronicles 7:12 Then the LORD appeared to Solomon in the night and said to him: "I have heard your prayer, and have chosen this place for myself as a house of sacrifice.

2 Chronicles 7:13 When I shut up the heavens so that there is no rain, or command the locust to devour the land, or send pestilence among my people,

2 Chronicles 7:14 if my people who are called by my name humble themselves, pray, seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land.

2 Chronicles 7:15 Now my eyes will be open and my ears attentive to the prayer that is made in this place.

2 Chronicles 7:16 For now I have chosen and consecrated this house so that my name may be there forever; my eyes and my heart will be there for all time.

2 Chronicles 7:17 As for you, if you walk before me, as your father David walked, doing according to all that I have commanded you and keeping my statutes and my ordinances,

2 Chronicles 7:18 then I will establish your royal throne, as I made covenant with your father David saying, 'You shall never lack a successor to rule over Israel.'

2 Chronicles 7:19 "But if you turn aside and forsake my statutes and my commandments that I have set before you, and go and serve other gods and worship them,

2 Chronicles 7:20 then I will pluck you up from the land that I have given you; and this house, which I have consecrated for my name, I will cast out of my sight, and will make it a proverb and a byword among all peoples.

2 Chronicles 7:21 And regarding this house, now exalted, everyone passing by will be astonished, and say, 'Why has the LORD done such a thing to this land and to this house?'

2 Chronicles 7:22 Then they will say, 'Because they abandoned the LORD the God of their ancestors who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and they adopted other gods, and worshiped them and served them; therefore he has brought all this calamity upon them.'"

2 Chronicles 8:1 At the end of twenty years, during which Solomon had built the house of the LORD and his own house,

2 Chronicles 8:2 Solomon rebuilt the cities that Huram had given to him, and settled the people of Israel in them.

2 Chronicles 8:3 Solomon went to Hamath-zobah, and captured it.

2 Chronicles 8:4 He built Tadmor in the wilderness and all the storage towns that he built in Hamath.

2 Chronicles 8:5 He also built Upper Beth-horon and Lower Beth-horon, fortified cities, with walls, gates, and bars,

2 Chronicles 8:6 and Baalath, as well as all Solomon’s storage towns, and all the towns for his chariots, the towns for his cavalry, and whatever Solomon desired to build, in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

2 Chronicles 8:7 All the people who were left of the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of Israel,

2 Chronicles 8:8 from their descendants who were still left in the land, whom the people of Israel had not destroyed— these Solomon conscripted for forced labor, as is still the case today.

2 Chronicles 8:9 But of the people of Israel Solomon made no slaves for his work; they were soldiers, and his officers, the commanders of his chariotry and cavalry.

2 Chronicles 8:10 These were the chief officers of King Solomon, two hundred fifty of them, who exercised authority over the people.

2 Chronicles 8:11 Solomon brought Pharaoh’s daughter from the city of David to the house that he had built for her, for he said, “My wife shall not live in the house of King David of Israel, for the places to which the ark of the LORD has come are holy.”

2 Chronicles 8:12 Then Solomon offered up burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of the LORD that he had built in front of the vestibule,

2 Chronicles 8:13 as the duty of each day required, offering according to the commandment of Moses for the sabbaths, the new moons, and the three annual festivals— the festival of unleavened bread, the festival of weeks, and the festival of booths.

2 Chronicles 8:14 According to the ordinance of his father David, he appointed the divisions of the priests for their service, and the Levites for their offices of praise and ministry alongside the priests as the duty of each day required, and the gatekeepers in their divisions for the several gates; for so David the man of God had commanded.

2 Chronicles 8:15 They did not turn away from what the king had commanded the priests and Levites regarding anything at all, or regarding the treasuries.

2 Chronicles 8:16 Thus all the work of Solomon was accomplished from the day the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid until the house of the LORD was finished completely.

2 Chronicles 8:17 Then Solomon went to Ezion-geber and Eloth on the shore of the sea, in the land of Edom.

2 Chronicles 8:18 Huram sent him, in the care of his servants, ships and servants familiar with the sea. They went to Ophir, together with the servants of Solomon, and imported from there four hundred fifty talents of gold and brought it to King Solomon.

2 Chronicles 9:1 When the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to Jerusalem to test him with hard questions, having a very great retinue and camels bearing spices and very much gold and precious stones. When she came to Solomon, she discussed with him all that was on her mind.

2 Chronicles 9:2 Solomon answered all her questions; there was nothing hidden from Solomon that he could not explain to her.

2 Chronicles 9:3 When the queen of Sheba had observed the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built,

2 Chronicles 9:4 the food of his table, the seating of his officials, and the attendance of his servants, and their clothing, his valets, and their clothing, and his burnt offerings that he offered at the house of the LORD, there was no more spirit left in her.

2 Chronicles 9:5 So she said to the king, “The report was true that I heard in my own land of your accomplishments and of your wisdom,

2 Chronicles 9:6 but I did not believe the reports until I came and my own eyes saw it. Not even half of the greatness of your wisdom had been told to me; you far surpass the report that I had heard.

2 Chronicles 9:7 Happy are your people! Happy are these your servants, who continually attend you and hear your wisdom!

2 Chronicles 9:8 Blessed be the LORD your God, who has delighted in you and set you on his throne as king for the LORD your God. Because your God loved Israel and would establish them forever, he has made you king over them, that you may execute justice and righteousness.”

2 Chronicles 9:9 Then she gave the king one hundred twenty talents of gold, a very great quantity of spices, and precious stones: there were no spices such as those that the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

2 Chronicles 9:10 Moreover the servants of Huram and the servants of Solomon who brought gold from Ophir brought algum wood and precious stones.

2 Chronicles 9:11 From the algum wood, the king made steps for the house of the LORD and for the king’s house, lyres also and harps for the singers; there never was seen the like of them before in the land of Judah.

2 Chronicles 9:12 Meanwhile King Solomon granted the queen of Sheba every desire that she expressed, well beyond what she had brought to the king. Then she returned to her own land, with her servants.

2 Chronicles 9:13 The weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred sixty-six talents of gold,

2 Chronicles 9:14 besides that which the traders and merchants brought; and all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the land brought gold and silver to Solomon.

2 Chronicles 9:15 King Solomon made two hundred large shields of beaten gold; six hundred shekels of beaten gold went into each large shield.

2 Chronicles 9:16 He made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three hundred shekels of gold went into each shield; and the king put them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon.

2 Chronicles 9:17 The king also made a great ivory throne, and overlaid it with pure gold.

2 Chronicles 9:18 The throne had six steps and a footstool of gold, which were attached to the throne, and on each side of the seat were arm rests and two lions standing beside the arm rests,

2 Chronicles 9:19 while twelve lions were standing, one on each end of a step on the six steps. The like of it was never made in any kingdom.

2 Chronicles 9:20 All King Solomon’s drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were of pure gold; silver was not considered as anything in the days of Solomon.

2 Chronicles 9:21 For the king’s ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Huram; once every three years the ships of Tarshish used to come bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.

2 Chronicles 9:22 Thus King Solomon excelled all the kings of the earth in riches and in wisdom.

2 Chronicles 9:23 All the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon to hear his wisdom, which God had put into his mind.

2 Chronicles 9:24 Every one of them brought a present, objects of silver and gold, garments, weaponry, spices, horses, and mules, so much year by year.

2 Chronicles 9:25 Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horses, which he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 9:26 He ruled over all the kings from the Euphrates to the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt.

2 Chronicles 9:27 The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stone, and cedar as plentiful as the sycamore of the Shephelah.

2 Chronicles 9:28 Horses were imported for Solomon from Egypt and from all lands.

2 Chronicles 9:29 Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, from first to last, are they not written in the history of the prophet Nathan, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of the seer Iddo concerning Jeroboam son of Nebat?

2 Chronicles 9:30 Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years.

2 Chronicles 9:31 Solomon slept with his ancestors and was buried in the city of his father David; and his son Rehoboam succeeded him.

2 Chronicles 10:1 Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king.

2 Chronicles 10:2 When Jeroboam son of Nebat heard of it (for he was in Egypt, where he had fled from King Solomon), then Jeroboam returned from Egypt.

2 Chronicles 10:3 They sent and called him; and Jeroboam and all Israel came and said to Rehoboam,

2 Chronicles 10:4 "Your father made our yoke heavy. Now therefore lighten the hard service of your father and his heavy yoke that he placed on us, and we will serve you."

2 Chronicles 10:5 He said to them, "Come to me again in three days." So the people went away.

2 Chronicles 10:6 Then King Rehoboam took counsel with the older men who had attended his father Solomon while he was still alive, saying, "How do you advise me to answer this people?"

2 Chronicles 10:7 They answered him, "If you will be kind to this people and please them, and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever."

2 Chronicles 10:8 But he rejected the advice that the older men gave him, and consulted the young men who had grown up with him and now attended him.

2 Chronicles 10:9 He said to them, "What do you advise that we answer this people who have said to me, 'Lighten the yoke that your father put on us'?"

2 Chronicles 10:10 The young men who had grown up with him said to him, "Thus should you speak to the people who said to you, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but you must lighten it for us'; tell them, 'My little finger is thicker than my father's loins.

2 Chronicles 10:11 Now, whereas my father laid on you a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke. My father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions.'"

2 Chronicles 10:12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had said, "Come to me again the third day."

2 Chronicles 10:13 The king answered them harshly. King Rehoboam rejected the advice of the older men;

2 Chronicles 10:14 he spoke to them in accordance with the advice of the young men, “My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions.”

2 Chronicles 10:15 So the king did not listen to the people, because it was a turn of affairs brought about by God so that the LORD might fulfill his word, which he had spoken by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam son of Nebat.

2 Chronicles 10:16 When all Israel saw that the king would not listen to them, the people answered the king, “What share do we have in David? We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse. Each of you to your tents, O Israel! Look now to your own house, O David.” So all Israel departed to their tents.

2 Chronicles 10:17 But Rehoboam reigned over the people of Israel who were living in the cities of Judah.

2 Chronicles 10:18 When King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was taskmaster over the forced labor, the people of Israel stoned him to death. King Rehoboam hurriedly mounted his chariot to flee to Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 10:19 So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

2 Chronicles 11:1 When Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he assembled one hundred eighty thousand chosen troops of the house of Judah and Benjamin to fight against Israel, to restore the kingdom to Rehoboam.

2 Chronicles 11:2 But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God:

2 Chronicles 11:3 Say to King Rehoboam of Judah, son of Solomon, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin,

2 Chronicles 11:4 “Thus says the LORD: You shall not go up or fight against your kindred. Let everyone return home, for this thing is from me.” So they heeded the word of the LORD and turned back from the expedition against Jeroboam.

2 Chronicles 11:5 Rehoboam resided in Jerusalem, and he built cities for defense in Judah.

2 Chronicles 11:6 He built up Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa,

2 Chronicles 11:7 Beth-zur, Soco, Adullam,

2 Chronicles 11:8 Gath, Mareshah, Ziph,

2 Chronicles 11:9 Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah,

2 Chronicles 11:10 Zorah, Aijalon, and Hebron, fortified cities that are in Judah and in Benjamin.

2 Chronicles 11:11 He made the fortresses strong, and put commanders in them, and stores of food, oil, and wine.

2 Chronicles 11:12 He also put large shields and spears in all the cities, and made them very strong. So he held Judah and Benjamin.

2 Chronicles 11:13 The priests and the Levites who were in all Israel presented themselves to him from all their territories.

2 Chronicles 11:14 The Levites had left their common lands and their holdings and had come to Judah and Jerusalem, because Jeroboam and his sons had prevented them from serving as priests of the LORD,

2 Chronicles 11:15 and had appointed his own priests for the high places, and for the goat-demons, and for the calves that he had made.

2 Chronicles 11:16 Those who had set their hearts to seek the LORD God of Israel came after them from all the tribes of Israel to Jerusalem to sacrifice to the LORD, the God of their ancestors.

2 Chronicles 11:17 They strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and for three years they made Rehoboam son of Solomon secure, for they walked for three years in the way of David and Solomon.

2 Chronicles 11:18 Rehoboam took as his wife Mahalath daughter of Jerimoth son of David, and of Abihail daughter of Eliab son of Jesse.

2 Chronicles 11:19 She bore him sons: Jeush, Shemariah, and Zaham.

2 Chronicles 11:20 After her he took Maacah daughter of Absalom, who bore him Abijah, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith.

2 Chronicles 11:21 Rehoboam loved Maacah daughter of Absalom more than all his other wives and concubines (he took eighteen wives and sixty concubines, and became the father of twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters).

2 Chronicles 11:22 Rehoboam appointed Abijah son of Maacah as chief prince among his brothers, for he intended to make him king.

2 Chronicles 11:23 He dealt wisely, and distributed some of his sons through all the districts of Judah and Benjamin, in all the fortified cities; he gave them abundant provisions, and found many wives for them.

2 Chronicles 12:1 When the rule of Rehoboam was established and he grew strong, he abandoned the law of the LORD, he and all Israel with him.

2 Chronicles 12:2 In the fifth year of King Rehoboam, because they had been unfaithful to the LORD, King Shishak of Egypt came up against Jerusalem

2 Chronicles 12:3 with twelve hundred chariots and sixty thousand cavalry. A countless army came with him from Egypt— Libyans, Sukkiim, and Ethiopians.

2 Chronicles 12:4 He took the fortified cities of Judah and came as far as Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 12:5 Then the prophet Shemaiah came to Rehoboam and to the officers of Judah, who had gathered at Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said to them, “Thus says the LORD: You abandoned me, so I have abandoned you to the hand of Shishak.”

2 Chronicles 12:6 Then the officers of Israel and the king humbled themselves and said, “The LORD is in the right.”

2 Chronicles 12:7 When the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying: “They have humbled themselves; I will not destroy them, but I will grant them some deliverance, and my wrath shall not be poured out on Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.

2 Chronicles 12:8 Nevertheless they shall be his servants, so that they may know the difference between serving me and serving the kingdoms of other lands.”

2 Chronicles 12:9 So King Shishak of Egypt came up against Jerusalem; he took away the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king’s house; he took everything. He also took away the shields of gold that Solomon had made;

2 Chronicles 12:10 but King Rehoboam made in place of them shields of bronze, and committed them to the hands of the officers of the guard, who kept the door of the king’s house.

2 Chronicles 12:11 Whenever the king went into the house of the LORD, the guard would come along bearing them, and would then bring them back to the guardroom.

2 Chronicles 12:12 Because he humbled himself the wrath of the LORD turned from him, so as not to destroy them completely; moreover, conditions were good in Judah.

2 Chronicles 12:13 So King Rehoboam established himself in Jerusalem and reigned. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign; he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city that the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel to put his name there. His mother’s name was Naamah the Ammonite.

2 Chronicles 12:14 He did evil, for he did not set his heart to seek the LORD.

2 Chronicles 12:15 Now the acts of Rehoboam, from first to last, are they not written in the records of the prophet Shemaiah and of the seer Iddo, recorded by genealogy? There were continual wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam.

2 Chronicles 12:16 Rehoboam slept with his ancestors and was buried in the city of David; and his son Abijah succeeded him.

2 Chronicles 13:1 In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, Abijah began to reign over Judah.

2 Chronicles 13:2 He reigned for three years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Micaiah daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. Now there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

2 Chronicles 13:3 Abijah engaged in battle, having an army of valiant warriors, four hundred thousand picked men; and Jeroboam drew up his line of battle against him with eight hundred thousand picked mighty warriors.

2 Chronicles 13:4 Then Abijah stood on the slope of Mount Zemaraim that is in the hill country of Ephraim, and said, “Listen to me, Jeroboam and all Israel!

2 Chronicles 13:5 Do you not know that the LORD God of Israel gave the kingship over Israel forever to David and his sons by a covenant of salt?

2 Chronicles 13:6 Yet Jeroboam son of Nebat, a servant of Solomon son of David, rose up and rebelled against his lord;

2 Chronicles 13:7 and certain worthless scoundrels gathered around him and defied Rehoboam son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and irresolute and could not withstand them.

2 Chronicles 13:8 “And now you think that you can withstand the kingdom of the LORD in the hand of the sons of David, because you are a great multitude and have with you the golden calves that Jeroboam made as gods for you.

2 Chronicles 13:9 Have you not driven out the priests of the LORD, the descendants of Aaron, and the Levites, and made priests for yourselves like the peoples of other lands? Whoever comes to be consecrated with a young bull or seven rams becomes a priest of what are no gods.

2 Chronicles 13:10 But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not abandoned him. We have priests ministering to the LORD who are descendants of Aaron, and Levites for their service.

2 Chronicles 13:11 They offer to the LORD every morning and every evening burnt offerings and fragrant incense, set out the rows of bread on the table of pure gold, and care for the golden lampstand so that its lamps may burn every evening; for we keep the charge of the LORD our God, but you have abandoned him.

2 Chronicles 13:12 See, God is with us at our head, and his priests have their battle trumpets to sound the call to battle against you. O Israelites, do not fight against the LORD, the God of your ancestors; for you cannot succeed.”

2 Chronicles 13:13 Jeroboam had sent an ambush around to come on them from behind; thus his troops were in front of Judah, and the ambush was behind them.

2 Chronicles 13:14 When Judah turned, the battle was in front of them and behind them. They cried out to the LORD, and the priests blew the trumpets.

2 Chronicles 13:15 Then the people of Judah raised the battle shout. And when the people of Judah shouted, God defeated Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

2 Chronicles 13:16 The Israelites fled before Judah, and God gave them into their hands.

2 Chronicles 13:17 Abijah and his army defeated them with great slaughter; five hundred thousand picked men of Israel fell slain.

2 Chronicles 13:18 Thus the Israelites were subdued at that time, and the people of Judah prevailed, because they relied on the LORD, the God of their ancestors.

2 Chronicles 13:19 Abijah pursued Jeroboam, and took cities from him: Bethel with its villages and Jeshanah with its villages and Ephron with its villages.

2 Chronicles 13:20 Jeroboam did not recover his power in the days of Abijah; the LORD struck him down, and he died.

2 Chronicles 13:21 But Abijah grew strong. He took fourteen wives, and became the father of twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

2 Chronicles 13:22 The rest of the acts of Abijah, his behavior and his deeds, are written in the story of the prophet Iddo.

2 Chronicles 14:1 So Abijah slept with his ancestors, and they buried him in the city of David. His son Asa succeeded him. In his days the land had rest for ten years.

2 Chronicles 14:2 Asa did what was good and right in the sight of the LORD his God.

2 Chronicles 14:3 He took away the foreign altars and the high places, broke down the pillars, hewed down the sacred poles,

2 Chronicles 14:4 and commanded Judah to seek the LORD, the God of their ancestors, and to keep the law and the commandment.

2 Chronicles 14:5 He also removed from all the cities of Judah the high places and the incense altars. And the kingdom had rest under him.

2 Chronicles 14:6 He built fortified cities in Judah while the land had rest. He had no war in those years, for the LORD gave him peace.

2 Chronicles 14:7 He said to Judah, “Let us build these cities, and surround them with walls and towers, gates and bars; the land is still ours because we have sought the LORD our God; we have sought him, and he has given us peace on every side.” So they built and prospered.

2 Chronicles 14:8 Asa had an army of three hundred thousand from Judah, armed with large shields and spears, and two hundred eighty thousand troops from Benjamin who carried shields and drew bows; all these were mighty warriors.

2 Chronicles 14:9 Zerah the Ethiopian came out against them with an army of a million men and three hundred chariots, and came as far as Mareshah.

2 Chronicles 14:10 Asa went out to meet him, and they drew up their lines of battle in the valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.

2 Chronicles 14:11 Asa cried to the LORD his God, "O LORD, there is no difference for you between helping the mighty and the weak. Help us, O LORD our God, for we rely on you, and in your name we have come against this multitude. O LORD, you are our God; let no mortal prevail against you."

2 Chronicles 14:12 So the LORD defeated the Ethiopians before Asa and before Judah, and the Ethiopians fled.

2 Chronicles 14:13 Asa and the army with him pursued them as far as Gerar, and the Ethiopians fell until no one remained alive; for they were broken before the LORD and his army. The people of Judah carried away a great quantity of booty.

2 Chronicles 14:14 They defeated all the cities around Gerar, for the fear of the LORD was on them. They plundered all the cities; for there was much plunder in them.

2 Chronicles 14:15 They also attacked the tents of those who had livestock, and carried away sheep and goats in abundance, and camels. Then they returned to Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 15:1 The spirit of God came upon Azariah son of Oded.

2 Chronicles 15:2 He went out to meet Asa and said to him, "Hear me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin: The LORD is with you, while you are with him. If you seek him, he will be found by you, but if you abandon him, he will abandon you.

2 Chronicles 15:3 For a long time Israel was without the true God, and without a teaching priest, and without law;

2 Chronicles 15:4 but when in their distress they turned to the LORD, the God of Israel, and sought him, he was found by them.

2 Chronicles 15:5 In those times it was not safe for anyone to go or come, for great disturbances afflicted all the inhabitants of the lands.

2 Chronicles 15:6 They were broken in pieces, nation against nation and city against city, for God troubled them with every sort of distress.

2 Chronicles 15:7 But you, take courage! Do not let your hands be weak, for your work shall be rewarded."

2 Chronicles 15:8 When Asa heard these words, the prophecy of Azariah son of Oded, he took courage, and put away the abominable idols from all the land of Judah and Benjamin and from the towns that he had taken in the hill country of Ephraim. He repaired the altar of the LORD that was in front of the vestibule of the house of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 15:9 He gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and those from Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon who were residing as aliens with them, for great numbers had deserted to him from Israel when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.

2 Chronicles 15:10 They were gathered at Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa.

2 Chronicles 15:11 They sacrificed to the LORD on that day, from the booty that they had brought, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep.

2 Chronicles 15:12 They entered into a covenant to seek the LORD, the God of their ancestors, with all their heart and with all their soul.

2 Chronicles 15:13 Whoever would not seek the LORD, the God of Israel, should be put to death, whether young or old, man or woman.

2 Chronicles 15:14 They took an oath to the LORD with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with horns.

2 Chronicles 15:15 All Judah rejoiced over the oath; for they had sworn with all their heart, and had sought him with their whole desire, and he was found by them, and the LORD gave them rest all around.

2 Chronicles 15:16 King Asa even removed his mother Maacah from being queen mother because she had made an abominable image for Asherah. Asa cut down her image, crushed it, and burned it at the Wadi Kidron.

2 Chronicles 15:17 But the high places were not taken out of Israel. Nevertheless the heart of Asa was true all his days.

2 Chronicles 15:18 He brought into the house of God the votive gifts of his father and his own votive gifts— silver, gold, and utensils.

2 Chronicles 15:19 And there was no more war until the thirty-fifth year of the reign of Asa.

2 Chronicles 16:1 In the thirty-sixth year of the reign of Asa, King Baasha of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, to prevent anyone from going out or coming into the territory of King Asa of Judah.

2 Chronicles 16:2 Then Asa took silver and gold from the treasures of the house of the LORD and the king’s house, and sent them to King Ben-hadad of Aram, who resided in Damascus, saying,

2 Chronicles 16:3 “Let there be an alliance between me and you, like that between my father and your father; I am sending to you silver and gold; go, break your alliance with King Baasha of Israel, so that he may withdraw from me.”

2 Chronicles 16:4 Ben-hadad listened to King Asa, and sent the commanders of his armies against the cities of Israel. They conquered Ijon, Dan, Abel-maim, and all the store-cities of Naphtali.

2 Chronicles 16:5 When Baasha heard of it, he stopped building Ramah, and let his work cease.

2 Chronicles 16:6 Then King Asa brought all Judah, and they carried away the stones of Ramah and its timber, with which Baasha had been building, and with them he built up Geba and Mizpah.

2 Chronicles 16:7 At that time the seer Hanani came to King Asa of Judah, and said to him, “Because you relied on the king of Aram, and did not rely on the LORD your God, the army of the king of Aram has escaped you.

2 Chronicles 16:8 Were not the Ethiopians and the Libyans a huge army with exceedingly many chariots and cavalry? Yet because you relied on the LORD, he gave them into your hand.

2 Chronicles 16:9 For the eyes of the LORD range throughout the entire earth, to strengthen those whose heart is true to him. You have done foolishly in this; for from now on you will have wars.”

2 Chronicles 16:10 Then Asa was angry with the seer, and put him in the stocks, in prison, for he was in a rage with him because of this. And Asa inflicted cruelties on some of the people at the same time.

2 Chronicles 16:11 The acts of Asa, from first to last, are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

2 Chronicles 16:12 In the thirty-ninth year of his reign Asa was diseased in his feet, and his disease became severe; yet even in his disease he did not seek the LORD, but sought help from physicians.

2 Chronicles 16:14 They buried him in the tomb that he had hewn out for himself in the city of David. They laid him on a bier that had been filled with various kinds of spices prepared by the perfumer’s art; and they made a very great fire in his honor.

2 Chronicles 17:1 His son Jehoshaphat succeeded him, and strengthened himself against Israel.

2 Chronicles 17:2 He placed forces in all the fortified cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim that his father Asa had taken.

2 Chronicles 17:3 The LORD was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the earlier ways of his father; he did not seek the Baals,

2 Chronicles 17:4 but sought the God of his father and walked in his commandments, and not according to the ways of Israel.

2 Chronicles 17:5 Therefore the LORD established the kingdom in his hand. All Judah brought tribute to Jehoshaphat, and he had great riches and honor.

2 Chronicles 17:6 His heart was courageous in the ways of the LORD; and furthermore he removed the high places and the sacred poles from Judah.

2 Chronicles 17:7 In the third year of his reign he sent his officials, Ben-hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel, and Micaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah.

2 Chronicles 17:8 With them were the Levites, Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah, and Tob-adonijah; and with these Levites, the priests Elishama and Jehoram.

2 Chronicles 17:9 They taught in Judah, having the book of the law of the LORD with them; they went around through all the cities of Judah and taught among the people.

2 Chronicles 17:10 The fear of the LORD fell on all the kingdoms of the lands around Judah, and they did not make war against Jehoshaphat.

2 Chronicles 17:11 Some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents, and silver for tribute; and the Arabs also brought him seven thousand seven hundred rams and seven thousand seven hundred male goats.

2 Chronicles 17:12 Jehoshaphat grew steadily greater. He built fortresses and storage cities in Judah.

2 Chronicles 17:13 He carried out great works in the cities of Judah. He had soldiers, mighty warriors, in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 17:14 This was the muster of them by ancestral houses: Of Judah, the commanders of the thousands: Adnah the commander, with three hundred thousand mighty warriors,

2 Chronicles 17:15 and next to him Jehohanan the commander, with two hundred eighty thousand,

2 Chronicles 17:16 and next to him Amasiah son of Zichri, a volunteer for the service of the LORD, with two hundred thousand mighty warriors.

2 Chronicles 17:17 Of Benjamin: Eliada, a mighty warrior, with two hundred thousand armed with bow and shield,

2 Chronicles 17:18 and next to him Jehozabad with one hundred eighty thousand armed for war.

2 Chronicles 17:19 These were in the service of the king, besides those whom the king had placed in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.

2 Chronicles 18:1 Now Jehoshaphat had great riches and honor; and he made a marriage alliance with Ahab.

2 Chronicles 18:2 After some years he went down to Ahab in Samaria. Ahab slaughtered an abundance of sheep and oxen for him and for the people who were with him, and induced him to go up against Ramoth-gilead.

2 Chronicles 18:3 King Ahab of Israel said to King Jehoshaphat of Judah, “Will you go with me to Ramoth-gilead?” He answered him, “I am with you, my people are your people. We will be with you in the war.”

2 Chronicles 18:4 But Jehoshaphat also said to the king of Israel, “Inquire first for the word of the LORD.”

2 Chronicles 18:5 Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, four hundred of them, and said to them, “Shall we go to battle against Ramoth-gilead, or shall I refrain?” They said, “Go up; for God will give it into the hand of the king.”

2 Chronicles 18:6 But Jehoshaphat said, “Is there no other prophet of the LORD here of whom we may inquire?”

2 Chronicles 18:7 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “There is still one other by whom we may inquire of the LORD, Micaiah son of Imlah; but I hate him, for he never prophesies anything favorable about me, but only disaster.” Jehoshaphat said, “Let the king not say such a thing.”

2 Chronicles 18:8 Then the king of Israel summoned an officer and said, “Bring quickly Micaiah son of Imlah.”

2 Chronicles 18:9 Now the king of Israel and King Jehoshaphat of Judah were sitting on their thrones, arrayed in their robes; and they were sitting at the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them.

2 Chronicles 18:10 Zedekiah son of Chenaanah made for himself horns of iron, and he said, “Thus says the LORD: With these you shall gore the Arameans until they are destroyed.”

2 Chronicles 18:11 All the prophets were prophesying the same and saying, “Go up to Ramoth-gilead and triumph; the LORD will give it into the hand of the king.”

2 Chronicles 18:12 The messenger who had gone to summon Micaiah said to him, “Look, the words of the prophets with one accord are favorable to the king; let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak favorably.”

2 Chronicles 18:13 But Micaiah said, “As the LORD lives, whatever my God says, that I will speak.”

2 Chronicles 18:14 When he had come to the king, the king said to him, “Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I refrain?” He answered, “Go up and triumph; they will be given into your hand.”

2 Chronicles 18:15 But the king said to him, “How many times must I make you swear to tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?”

2 Chronicles 18:16 Then Micaiah said, “I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, like sheep without a shepherd; and the LORD said, ‘These have no master; let each one go home in peace.’“

2 Chronicles 18:17 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy anything favorable about me, but only disaster?”

2 Chronicles 18:18 Then Micaiah said, “Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, with all the host of heaven standing to the right and to the left of him.

2 Chronicles 18:19 And the LORD said, ‘Who will entice King Ahab of Israel, so that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead?’ Then one said one thing, and another said another,

2 Chronicles 18:20 until a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD, saying, ‘I will entice him.’ The LORD asked him, ‘How?’

2 Chronicles 18:21 He replied, ‘I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.’ Then the LORD said, ‘You are to entice him, and you shall succeed; go out and do it.’

2 Chronicles 18:22 So you see, the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these your prophets; the LORD has decreed disaster for you.”

2 Chronicles 18:23 Then Zedekiah son of Chenaanah came up to Micaiah, slapped him on the cheek, and said, “Which way did the spirit of the LORD pass from me to speak to you?”

2 Chronicles 18:24 Micaiah replied, “You will find out on that day when you go in to hide in an inner chamber.”

2 Chronicles 18:25 The king of Israel then ordered, “Take Micaiah, and return him to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king’s son;

2 Chronicles 18:26 and say, ‘Thus says the king: Put this fellow in prison, and feed him on reduced rations of bread and water until I return in peace.’“

2 Chronicles 18:27 Micaiah said, “If you return in peace, the LORD has not spoken by me.” And he said, “Hear, you peoples, all of you!”

2 Chronicles 18:28 So the king of Israel and King Jehoshaphat of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead.

2 Chronicles 18:29 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I will disguise myself and go into battle, but you wear your robes.” So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went into battle.

2 Chronicles 18:30 Now the king of Aram had commanded the captains of his chariots, “Fight with no one small or great, but only with the king of Israel.”

2 Chronicles 18:31 When the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, “It is the king of Israel.” So they turned to fight against him; and Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him. God drew them away from him,

2 Chronicles 18:32 for when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.

2 Chronicles 18:33 But a certain man drew his bow and unknowingly struck the king of Israel between the scale armor and the breastplate; so he said to the driver of his chariot, “Turn around, and carry me out of the battle, for I am wounded.”

2 Chronicles 18:34 The battle grew hot that day, and the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot facing the Arameans until evening; then at sunset he died.

2 Chronicles 19:1 King Jehoshaphat of Judah returned in safety to his house in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 19:2 Jehu son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him and said to King Jehoshaphat, “Should you help the wicked and love those who hate the LORD? Because of this, wrath has gone out against you from the LORD.

2 Chronicles 19:3 Nevertheless, some good is found in you, for you destroyed the sacred poles out of the land, and have set your heart to seek God.”

2 Chronicles 19:4 Jehoshaphat resided at Jerusalem; then he went out again among the people, from Beer-sheba to the hill country of Ephraim, and brought them back to the LORD, the God of their ancestors.

2 Chronicles 19:5 He appointed judges in the land in all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city,

2 Chronicles 19:6 and said to the judges, “Consider what you are doing, for you judge not on behalf of human beings but on the LORD’s behalf; he is with you in giving judgment.

2 Chronicles 19:7 Now, let the fear of the LORD be upon you; take care what you do, for there is no perversion of justice with the LORD our God, or partiality, or taking of bribes.”

2 Chronicles 19:8 Moreover in Jerusalem Jehoshaphat appointed certain Levites and priests and heads of families of Israel, to give judgment for the LORD and to decide disputed cases. They had their seat at Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 19:9 He charged them: “This is how you shall act: in the fear of the LORD, in faithfulness, and with your whole heart;

2 Chronicles 19:10 whenever a case comes to you from your kindred who live in their cities, concerning bloodshed, law or commandment, statutes or ordinances, then you shall instruct them, so that they may not incur guilt before the LORD and wrath may not come on you and your kindred. Do so, and you will not incur guilt.

2 Chronicles 19:11 See, Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters of the LORD; and Zebadiah son of Ishmael, the governor of the house of Judah, in all the king's matters; and the Levites will serve you as officers. Deal courageously, and may the LORD be with the good!"

2 Chronicles 20:1 After this the Moabites and Ammonites, and with them some of the Meunites, came against Jehoshaphat for battle.

2 Chronicles 20:2 Messengers came and told Jehoshaphat, "A great multitude is coming against you from Edom, from beyond the sea; already they are at Hazazon-tamar" (that is, En-gedi).

2 Chronicles 20:3 Jehoshaphat was afraid; he set himself to seek the LORD, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.

2 Chronicles 20:4 Judah assembled to seek help from the LORD; from all the towns of Judah they came to seek the LORD.

2 Chronicles 20:5 Jehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before the new court,

2 Chronicles 20:6 and said, "O LORD, God of our ancestors, are you not God in heaven? Do you not rule over all the kingdoms of the nations? In your hand are power and might, so that no one is able to withstand you.

2 Chronicles 20:7 Did you not, O our God, drive out the inhabitants of this land before your people Israel, and give it forever to the descendants of your friend Abraham?

2 Chronicles 20:8 They have lived in it, and in it have built you a sanctuary for your name, saying,

2 Chronicles 20:9 'If disaster comes upon us, the sword, judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we will stand before this house, and before you, for your name is in this house, and cry to you in our distress, and you will hear and save.'

2 Chronicles 20:10 See now, the people of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, whom you would not let Israel invade when they came from the land of Egypt, and whom they avoided and did not destroy—

2 Chronicles 20:11 they reward us by coming to drive us out of your possession that you have given us to inherit.

2 Chronicles 20:12 O our God, will you not execute judgment upon them? For we are powerless against this great multitude that is coming against us. We do not know what to do, but our eyes are on you."

2 Chronicles 20:14 Then the spirit of the LORD came upon Jahaziel son of Zechariah, son of Benaiah, son of Jeiel, son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, in the middle of the assembly.

2 Chronicles 20:15 He said, “Listen, all Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem, and King Jehoshaphat: Thus says the LORD to you: ‘Do not fear or be dismayed at this great multitude; for the battle is not yours but God’s.

2 Chronicles 20:16 Tomorrow go down against them; they will come up by the ascent of Ziz; you will find them at the end of the valley, before the wilderness of Jeruel.

2 Chronicles 20:17 This battle is not for you to fight; take your position, stand still, and see the victory of the LORD on your behalf, O Judah and Jerusalem.’ Do not fear or be dismayed; tomorrow go out against them, and the LORD will be with you.”

2 Chronicles 20:18 Then Jehoshaphat bowed down with his face to the ground, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before the LORD, worshiping the LORD.

2 Chronicles 20:19 And the Levites, of the Kohathites and the Korahites, stood up to praise the LORD, the God of Israel, with a very loud voice.

2 Chronicles 20:20 They rose early in the morning and went out into the wilderness of Tekoa; and as they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, “Listen to me, O Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem! Believe in the LORD your God and you will be established; believe his prophets.”

2 Chronicles 20:21 When he had taken counsel with the people, he appointed those who were to sing to the LORD and praise him in holy splendor, as they went before the army, saying, “Give thanks to the LORD, for his steadfast love endures forever.”

2 Chronicles 20:22 As they began to sing and praise, the LORD set an ambush against the Ammonites, Moab, and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah, so that they were routed.

2 Chronicles 20:23 For the Ammonites and Moab attacked the inhabitants of Mount Seir, destroying them utterly; and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, they all helped to destroy one another.

2 Chronicles 20:24 When Judah came to the watchtower of the wilderness, they looked toward the multitude; they were corpses lying on the ground; no one had escaped.

2 Chronicles 20:25 When Jehoshaphat and his people came to take the booty from them, they found livestock in great numbers, goods, clothing, and precious things, which they took for themselves until they could carry no more. They spent three days taking the booty, because of its abundance.

2 Chronicles 20:26 On the fourth day they assembled in the Valley of Beracah, for there they blessed the LORD; therefore that place has been called the Valley of Beracah to this day.

2 Chronicles 20:27 Then all the people of Judah and Jerusalem, with Jehoshaphat at their head, returned to Jerusalem with joy, for the LORD had enabled them to rejoice over their enemies.

2 Chronicles 20:28 They came to Jerusalem, with harps and lyres and trumpets, to the house of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 20:29 The fear of God came on all the kingdoms of the countries when they heard that the LORD had fought against the enemies of Israel.

2 Chronicles 20:30 And the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet, for his God gave him rest all around.

2 Chronicles 20:31 So Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. He was thirty-five years old when he began to reign; he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Azubah daughter of Shilhi.

2 Chronicles 20:32 He walked in the way of his father Asa and did not turn aside from it, doing what was right in the sight of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 20:33 Yet the high places were not removed; the people had not yet set their hearts upon the God of their ancestors.

2 Chronicles 20:34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, from first to last, are written in the Annals of Jehu son of Hanani, which are recorded in the Book of the Kings of Israel.

2 Chronicles 20:35 After this King Jehoshaphat of Judah joined with King Ahaziah of Israel, who did wickedly.

2 Chronicles 20:36 He joined him in building ships to go to Tarshish; they built the ships in Ezion-geber.

2 Chronicles 20:37 Then Eliezer son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, “Because you have joined with Ahaziah, the LORD will destroy what you have made.” And the ships were wrecked and were not able to go to Tarshish.

2 Chronicles 21:1 Jehoshaphat slept with his ancestors and was buried with his ancestors in the city of David; his son Jehoram succeeded him.

2 Chronicles 21:2 He had brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azariah, Michael, and Shephatiah; all these were the sons of King Jehoshaphat of Judah.

2 Chronicles 21:3 Their father gave them many gifts, of silver, gold, and valuable possessions, together with fortified cities in Judah; but he gave the kingdom to Jehoram, because he was the firstborn.

2 Chronicles 21:4 When Jehoram had ascended the throne of his father and was established, he put all his brothers to the sword, and also some of the officials of Israel.

2 Chronicles 21:5 Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he began to reign; he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 21:6 He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab had done; for the daughter of Ahab was his wife. He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 21:7 Yet the LORD would not destroy the house of David because of the covenant that he had made with David, and since he had promised to give a lamp to him and to his descendants forever.

2 Chronicles 21:8 In his days Edom revolted against the rule of Judah and set up a king of their own.

2 Chronicles 21:9 Then Jehoram crossed over with his commanders and all his chariots. He set out by night and attacked the Edomites, who had surrounded him and his chariot commanders.

2 Chronicles 21:10 So Edom has been in revolt against the rule of Judah to this day. At that time Libnah also revolted against his rule, because he had forsaken the LORD, the God of his ancestors.

2 Chronicles 21:11 Moreover he made high places in the hill country of Judah, and led the inhabitants of Jerusalem into unfaithfulness, and made Judah go astray.

2 Chronicles 21:12 A letter came to him from the prophet Elijah, saying: “Thus says the LORD, the God of your father David: Because you have not walked in the ways of your father Jehoshaphat or in the ways of King Asa of Judah,

2 Chronicles 21:13 but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and have led Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem into unfaithfulness, as the house of Ahab led Israel into unfaithfulness, and because you also have killed your brothers, members of your father’s house, who were better than yourself,

2 Chronicles 21:14 see, the LORD will bring a great plague on your people, your children, your wives, and all your possessions,

2 Chronicles 21:15 and you yourself will have a severe sickness with a disease of your bowels, until your bowels come out, day after day, because of the disease.”

2 Chronicles 21:16 The LORD aroused against Jehoram the anger of the Philistines and of the Arabs who are near the Ethiopians.

2 Chronicles 21:17 They came up against Judah, invaded it, and carried away all the possessions they found that belonged to the king’s house, along with his sons and his wives, so that no son was left to him except Jehoahaz, his youngest son.

2 Chronicles 21:18 After all this the LORD struck him in his bowels with an incurable disease.

2 Chronicles 21:19 In course of time, at the end of two years, his bowels came out because of the disease, and he died in great agony. His people made no fire in his honor, like the fires made for his ancestors.

2 Chronicles 21:20 He was thirty-two years old when he began to reign; he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. He departed with no one's regret. They buried him in the city of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

2 Chronicles 22:1 The inhabitants of Jerusalem made his youngest son Ahaziah king as his successor; for the troops who came with the Arabs to the camp had killed all the older sons. So Ahaziah son of Jehoram reigned as king of Judah.

2 Chronicles 22:2 Ahaziah was forty-two years old when he began to reign; he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah, a granddaughter of Omri.

2 Chronicles 22:3 He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother was his counselor in doing wickedly.

2 Chronicles 22:4 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, as the house of Ahab had done; for after the death of his father they were his counselors, to his ruin.

2 Chronicles 22:5 He even followed their advice, and went with Jehoram son of King Ahab of Israel to make war against King Hazael of Aram at Ramoth-gilead. The Arameans wounded Joram,

2 Chronicles 22:6 and he returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds that he had received at Ramah, when he fought King Hazael of Aram. And Ahaziah son of King Jehoram of Judah went down to see Joram son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

2 Chronicles 22:7 But it was ordained by God that the downfall of Ahaziah should come about through his going to visit Joram. For when he came there he went out with Jehoram to meet Jehu son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to destroy the house of Ahab.

2 Chronicles 22:8 When Jehu was executing judgment on the house of Ahab, he met the officials of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's brothers, who attended Ahaziah, and he killed them.

2 Chronicles 22:9 He searched for Ahaziah, who was captured while hiding in Samaria and was brought to Jehu, and put to death. They buried him, for they said, "He is the grandson of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart." And the house of Ahaziah had no one able to rule the kingdom.

2 Chronicles 22:10 Now when Athaliah, Ahaziah's mother, saw that her son was dead, she set about to destroy all the royal family of the house of Judah.

2 Chronicles 22:11 But Jehoshabeath, the king’s daughter, took Joash son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king’s children who were about to be killed; she put him and his nurse in a bedroom. Thus Jehoshabeath, daughter of King Jehoram and wife of the priest Jehoiada— because she was a sister of Ahaziah— hid him from Athaliah, so that she did not kill him;

2 Chronicles 22:12 he remained with them six years, hidden in the house of God, while Athaliah reigned over the land.

2 Chronicles 23:1 But in the seventh year Jehoiada took courage, and entered into a compact with the commanders of the hundreds, Azariah son of Jeroham, Ishmael son of Jehohanan, Azariah son of Obed, Maaseiah son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat son of Zichri.

2 Chronicles 23:2 They went around through Judah and gathered the Levites from all the towns of Judah, and the heads of families of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 23:3 Then the whole assembly made a covenant with the king in the house of God. Jehoiada said to them, “Here is the king’s son! Let him reign, as the LORD promised concerning the sons of David.

2 Chronicles 23:4 This is what you are to do: one third of you, priests and Levites, who come on duty on the sabbath, shall be gatekeepers,

2 Chronicles 23:5 one third shall be at the king’s house, and one third at the Gate of the Foundation; and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 23:6 Do not let anyone enter the house of the LORD except the priests and ministering Levites; they may enter, for they are holy, but all the other people shall observe the instructions of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 23:7 The Levites shall surround the king, each with his weapons in his hand; and whoever enters the house shall be killed. Stay with the king in his comings and goings.”

2 Chronicles 23:8 The Levites and all Judah did according to all that the priest Jehoiada commanded; each brought his men, who were to come on duty on the sabbath, with those who were to go off duty on the sabbath; for the priest Jehoiada did not dismiss the divisions.

2 Chronicles 23:9 The priest Jehoiada delivered to the captains the spears and the large and small shields that had been King David’s, which were in the house of God;

2 Chronicles 23:10 and he set all the people as a guard for the king, everyone with weapon in hand, from the south side of the house to the north side of the house, around the altar and the house.

2 Chronicles 23:11 Then he brought out the king’s son, put the crown on him, and gave him the covenant; they proclaimed him king, and Jehoiada and his sons anointed him; and they shouted, “Long live the king!”

2 Chronicles 23:12 When Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she went into the house of the LORD to the people;

2 Chronicles 23:13 and when she looked, there was the king standing by his pillar at the entrance, and the captains and the trumpeters beside the king, and all the people of the land rejoicing and blowing trumpets, and the singers with their musical instruments leading in the celebration. Athaliah tore her clothes, and cried, “Treason! Treason!”

2 Chronicles 23:14 Then the priest Jehoiada brought out the captains who were set over the army, saying to them, “Bring her out between the ranks; anyone who follows her is to be put to the sword.” For the priest said, “Do not put her to death in the house of the LORD.”

2 Chronicles 23:15 So they laid hands on her; she went into the entrance of the Horse Gate of the king’s house, and there they put her to death.

2 Chronicles 23:16 Jehoiada made a covenant between himself and all the people and the king that they should be the LORD’s people.

2 Chronicles 23:17 Then all the people went to the house of Baal, and tore it down; his altars and his images they broke in pieces, and they killed Mattan, the priest of Baal, in front of the altars.

2 Chronicles 23:18 Jehoiada assigned the care of the house of the LORD to the levitical priests whom David had organized to be in charge of the house of the LORD, to offer burnt offerings to the LORD, as it is written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, according to the order of David.

2 Chronicles 23:19 He stationed the gatekeepers at the gates of the house of the LORD so that no one should enter who was in any way unclean.

2 Chronicles 23:20 And he took the captains, the nobles, the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and they brought the king down from the house of the LORD, marching through the upper gate to the king’s house. They set the king on the royal throne.

2 Chronicles 23:21 So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet after Athaliah had been killed with the sword.

2 Chronicles 24:1 Joash was seven years old when he began to reign; he reigned forty years in Jerusalem; his mother’s name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.

2 Chronicles 24:3 Jehoiada got two wives for him, and he became the father of sons and daughters.

2 Chronicles 24:4 Some time afterward Joash decided to restore the house of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 24:5 He assembled the priests and the Levites and said to them, “Go out to the cities of Judah and gather money from all Israel to repair the house of your God, year by year; and see that you act quickly.” But the Levites did not act quickly.

2 Chronicles 24:6 So the king summoned Jehoiada the chief, and said to him, “Why have you not required the Levites to bring in from Judah and Jerusalem the tax levied by Moses, the servant of the LORD, on the congregation of Israel for the tent of the covenant?”

2 Chronicles 24:7 For the children of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken into the house of God, and had even used all the dedicated things of the house of the LORD for the Baals.

2 Chronicles 24:8 So the king gave command, and they made a chest, and set it outside the gate of the house of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 24:9 A proclamation was made throughout Judah and Jerusalem to bring in for the LORD the tax that Moses the servant of God laid on Israel in the wilderness.

2 Chronicles 24:10 All the leaders and all the people rejoiced and brought their tax and dropped it into the chest until it was full.

2 Chronicles 24:11 Whenever the chest was brought to the king’s officers by the Levites, when they saw that there was a large amount of money in it, the king’s secretary and the officer of the chief priest would come and empty the chest and take it and return it to its place. So they did day after day, and collected money in abundance.

2 Chronicles 24:12 The king and Jehoiada gave it to those who had charge of the work of the house of the LORD, and they hired masons and carpenters to restore the house of the LORD, and also workers in iron and bronze to repair the house of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 24:13 So those who were engaged in the work labored, and the repairing went forward at their hands, and they restored the house of God to its proper condition and strengthened it.

2 Chronicles 24:14 When they had finished, they brought the rest of the money to the king and Jehoiada, and with it were made utensils for the house of the LORD, utensils for the service and for the burnt offerings, and ladles, and vessels of gold and silver. They offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD regularly all the days of Jehoiada.

2 Chronicles 24:15 But Jehoiada grew old and full of days, and died; he was one hundred thirty years old at his death.

2 Chronicles 24:16 And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, and for God and his house.

2 Chronicles 24:17 Now after the death of Jehoiada the officials of Judah came and did obeisance to the king; then the king listened to them.

2 Chronicles 24:18 They abandoned the house of the LORD, the God of their ancestors, and served the sacred poles and the idols. And wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this guilt of theirs.

2 Chronicles 24:19 Yet he sent prophets among them to bring them back to the LORD; they testified against them, but they would not listen.

2 Chronicles 24:20 Then the spirit of God took possession of Zechariah son of the priest Jehoiada; he stood above the people and said to them, “Thus says God: Why do you transgress the commandments of the LORD, so that you cannot prosper? Because you have forsaken the LORD, he has also forsaken you.”

2 Chronicles 24:21 But they conspired against him, and by command of the king they stoned him to death in the court of the house of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 24:22 King Joash did not remember the kindness that Jehoiada, Zechariah’s father, had shown him, but killed his son. As he was dying, he said, “May the LORD see and avenge!”

2 Chronicles 24:23 At the end of the year the army of Aram came up against Joash. They came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the officials of the people from among them, and sent all the booty they took to the king of Damascus.

2 Chronicles 24:24 Although the army of Aram had come with few men, the LORD delivered into their hand a very great army, because they had abandoned the LORD, the God of their ancestors. Thus they executed judgment on Joash.

2 Chronicles 24:25 When they had withdrawn, leaving him severely wounded, his servants conspired against him because of the blood of the son of the priest Jehoiada, and they killed him on his bed. So he died; and they buried him in the city of David, but they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings.

2 Chronicles 24:26 Those who conspired against him were Zabad son of Shimeath the Ammonite, and Jehozabad son of Shimrith the Moabite.

2 Chronicles 24:27 Accounts of his sons, and of the many oracles against him, and of the rebuilding of the house of God are written in the Commentary on the Book of the Kings. And his son Amaziah succeeded him.

2 Chronicles 25:1 Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 25:2 He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, yet not with a true heart.

2 Chronicles 25:3 As soon as the royal power was firmly in his hand he killed his servants who had murdered his father the king.

2 Chronicles 25:4 But he did not put their children to death, according to what is written in the law, in the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, “The parents shall not be put to death for the children, or the children be put to death for the parents; but all shall be put to death for their own sins.”

2 Chronicles 25:5 Amaziah assembled the people of Judah, and set them by ancestral houses under commanders of the thousands and of the hundreds for all Judah and Benjamin. He mustered those twenty years old and upward, and found that they were three hundred thousand picked troops fit for war, able to handle spear and shield.

2 Chronicles 25:6 He also hired one hundred thousand mighty warriors from Israel for one hundred talents of silver.

2 Chronicles 25:7 But a man of God came to him and said, “O king, do not let the army of Israel go with you, for the LORD is not with Israel— all these Ephraimites.

2 Chronicles 25:8 Rather, go by yourself and act; be strong in battle, or God will fling you down before the enemy; for God has power to help or to overthrow.”

2 Chronicles 25:9 Amaziah said to the man of God, “But what shall we do about the hundred talents that I have given to the army of Israel?” The man of God answered, “The LORD is able to give you much more than this.”

2 Chronicles 25:10 Then Amaziah discharged the army that had come to him from Ephraim, letting them go home again. But they became very angry with Judah, and returned home in fierce anger.

2 Chronicles 25:11 Amaziah took courage, and led out his people; he went to the Valley of Salt, and struck down ten thousand men of Seir.

2 Chronicles 25:12 The people of Judah captured another ten thousand alive, took them to the top of Sela, and threw them down from the top of Sela, so that all of them were dashed to pieces.

2 Chronicles 25:13 But the men of the army whom Amaziah sent back, not letting them go with him to battle, fell on the cities of Judah from Samaria to Beth-horon; they killed three thousand people in them, and took much booty.

2 Chronicles 25:14 Now after Amaziah came from the slaughter of the Edomites, he brought the gods of the people of Seir, set them up as his gods, and worshiped them, making offerings to them.

2 Chronicles 25:15 The LORD was angry with Amaziah and sent to him a prophet, who said to him, “Why have you resorted to a people’s gods who could not deliver their own people from your hand?”

2 Chronicles 25:16 But as he was speaking the king said to him, “Have we made you a royal counselor? Stop! Why should you be put to death?” So the prophet stopped, but said, “I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this and have not listened to my advice.”

2 Chronicles 25:17 Then King Amaziah of Judah took counsel and sent to King Joash son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu of Israel, saying, “Come, let us look one another in the face.”

2 Chronicles 25:18 King Joash of Israel sent word to King Amaziah of Judah, “A thornbush on Lebanon sent to a cedar on Lebanon, saying, ‘Give your daughter to my son for a wife’; but a wild animal of Lebanon passed by and trampled down the thornbush.

2 Chronicles 25:19 You say, ‘See, I have defeated Edom,’ and your heart has lifted you up in boastfulness. Now stay at home; why should you provoke trouble so that you fall, you and Judah with you?”

2 Chronicles 25:20 But Amaziah would not listen— it was God’s doing, in order to hand them over, because they had sought the gods of Edom.

2 Chronicles 25:21 So King Joash of Israel went up; he and King Amaziah of Judah faced one another in battle at Beth-shemesh, which belongs to Judah.

2 Chronicles 25:22 Judah was defeated by Israel; everyone fled home.

2 Chronicles 25:23 King Joash of Israel captured King Amaziah of Judah, son of Joash, son of Ahaziah, at Beth-shemesh; he brought him to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate, a distance of four hundred cubits.

2 Chronicles 25:24 He seized all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God, and Obed-edom with them; he seized also the treasuries of the king’s house, also hostages; then he returned to Samaria.

2 Chronicles 25:25 King Amaziah son of Joash of Judah, lived fifteen years after the death of King Joash son of Jehoahaz of Israel.

2 Chronicles 25:26 Now the rest of the deeds of Amaziah, from first to last, are they not written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel?

2 Chronicles 25:27 From the time that Amaziah turned away from the LORD they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish. But they sent after him to Lachish, and killed him there.

2 Chronicles 25:28 They brought him back on horses; he was buried with his ancestors in the city of David.

2 Chronicles 26:1 Then all the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king to succeed his father Amaziah.

2 Chronicles 26:2 He rebuilt Eloth and restored it to Judah, after the king slept with his ancestors.

2 Chronicles 26:3 Uzziah was sixteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 26:4 He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, just as his father Amaziah had done.

2 Chronicles 26:5 He set himself to seek God in the days of Zechariah, who instructed him in the fear of God; and as long as he sought the LORD, God made him prosper.

2 Chronicles 26:6 He went out and made war against the Philistines, and broke down the wall of Gath and the wall of Jabneh and the wall of Ashdod; he built cities in the territory of Ashdod and elsewhere among the Philistines.

2 Chronicles 26:7 God helped him against the Philistines, against the Arabs who lived in Gur-baal, and against the Meunites.

2 Chronicles 26:8 The Ammonites paid tribute to Uzziah, and his fame spread even to the border of Egypt, for he became very strong.

2 Chronicles 26:10 He built towers in the wilderness and hewed out many cisterns, for he had large herds, both in the Shephelah and in the plain, and he had farmers and vinedressers in the hills and in the fertile lands, for he loved the soil.

2 Chronicles 26:11 Moreover Uzziah had an army of soldiers, fit for war, in divisions according to the numbers in the muster made by the secretary Jeiel and the officer Maaseiah, under the direction of Hananiah, one of the king's commanders.

2 Chronicles 26:12 The whole number of the heads of ancestral houses of mighty warriors was two thousand six hundred.

2 Chronicles 26:13 Under their command was an army of three hundred seven thousand five hundred, who could make war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy.

2 Chronicles 26:14 Uzziah provided for all the army the shields, spears, helmets, coats of mail, bows, and stones for slinging.

2 Chronicles 26:15 In Jerusalem he set up machines, invented by skilled workers, on the towers and the corners for shooting arrows and large stones. And his fame spread far, for he was marvelously helped until he became strong.

2 Chronicles 26:16 But when he had become strong he grew proud, to his destruction. For he was false to the LORD his God, and entered the temple of the LORD to make offering on the altar of incense.

2 Chronicles 26:17 But the priest Azariah went in after him, with eighty priests of the LORD who were men of valor;

2 Chronicles 26:18 they withstood King Uzziah, and said to him, “It is not for you, Uzziah, to make offering to the LORD, but for the priests the descendants of Aaron, who are consecrated to make offering. Go out of the sanctuary; for you have done wrong, and it will bring you no honor from the LORD God.”

2 Chronicles 26:19 Then Uzziah was angry. Now he had a censer in his hand to make offering, and when he became angry with the priests a leprous disease broke out on his forehead, in the presence of the priests in the house of the LORD, by the altar of incense.

2 Chronicles 26:20 When the chief priest Azariah, and all the priests, looked at him, he was leprous in his forehead. They hurried him out, and he himself hurried to get out, because the LORD had struck him.

2 Chronicles 26:21 King Uzziah was leprous to the day of his death, and being leprous lived in a separate house, for he was excluded from the house of the LORD. His son Jotham was in charge of the palace of the king, governing the people of the land.

2 Chronicles 26:22 Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, from first to last, the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz wrote.

2 Chronicles 26:23 Uzziah slept with his ancestors; they buried him near his ancestors in the burial field that belonged to the kings, for they said, “He is leprous.” His son Jotham succeeded him.

2 Chronicles 27:1 Jotham was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Jerushah daughter of Zadok.

2 Chronicles 27:2 He did what was right in the sight of the LORD just as his father Uzziah had done— only he did not invade the temple of the LORD. But the people still followed corrupt practices.

2 Chronicles 27:3 He built the upper gate of the house of the LORD, and did extensive building on the wall of Ophel.

2 Chronicles 27:4 Moreover he built cities in the hill country of Judah, and forts and towers on the wooded hills.

2 Chronicles 27:5 He fought with the king of the Ammonites and prevailed against them. The Ammonites gave him that year one hundred talents of silver, ten thousand cors of wheat and ten thousand of barley.

The Ammonites paid him the same amount in the second and the third years.

2 Chronicles 27:6 So Jotham became strong because he ordered his ways before the LORD his God.

2 Chronicles 27:7 Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars and his ways, are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

2 Chronicles 27:8 He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 27:9 Jotham slept with his ancestors, and they buried him in the city of David; and his son Ahaz succeeded him.

2 Chronicles 28:1 Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign; he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. He did not do what was right in the sight of the LORD, as his ancestor David had done,

2 Chronicles 28:2 but he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel. He even made cast images for the Baals;

2 Chronicles 28:3 and he made offerings in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and made his sons pass through fire, according to the abominable practices of the nations whom the LORD drove out before the people of Israel.

2 Chronicles 28:4 He sacrificed and made offerings on the high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.

2 Chronicles 28:5 Therefore the LORD his God gave him into the hand of the king of Aram, who defeated him and took captive a great number of his people and brought them to Damascus. He was also given into the hand of the king of Israel, who defeated him with great slaughter.

2 Chronicles 28:6 Pekah son of Remaliah killed one hundred twenty thousand in Judah in one day, all of them valiant warriors, because they had abandoned the LORD, the God of their ancestors.

2 Chronicles 28:7 And Zichri, a mighty warrior of Ephraim, killed the king’s son Maaseiah, Azrikam the commander of the palace, and Elkanah the next in authority to the king.

2 Chronicles 28:8 The people of Israel took captive two hundred thousand of their kin, women, sons, and daughters; they also took much booty from them and brought the booty to Samaria.

2 Chronicles 28:9 But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded; he went out to meet the army that came to Samaria, and said to them, “Because the LORD, the God of your ancestors, was angry with Judah, he gave them into your hand, but you have killed them in a rage that has reached up to heaven.

2 Chronicles 28:10 Now you intend to subjugate the people of Judah and Jerusalem, male and female, as your slaves. But what have you except sins against the LORD your God?

2 Chronicles 28:11 Now hear me, and send back the captives whom you have taken from your kindred, for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you.”

2 Chronicles 28:12 Moreover, certain chiefs of the Ephraimites, Azariah son of Johanan, Berechiah son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah son of Shallum, and Amasa son of Hadlai, stood up against those who were coming from the war,

2 Chronicles 28:13 and said to them, “You shall not bring the captives in here, for you propose to bring on us guilt against the LORD in addition to our present sins and guilt. For our guilt is already great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel.”

2 Chronicles 28:14 So the warriors left the captives and the booty before the officials and all the assembly.

2 Chronicles 28:15 Then those who were mentioned by name got up and took the captives, and with the booty they clothed all that were naked among them; they clothed them, gave them sandals, provided them with food and drink, and anointed them; and carrying all the feeble among them on donkeys, they brought them to their kindred at Jericho, the city of palm trees. Then they returned to Samaria.

2 Chronicles 28:16 At that time King Ahaz sent to the king of Assyria for help.

2 Chronicles 28:17 For the Edomites had again invaded and defeated Judah, and carried away captives.

2 Chronicles 28:18 And the Philistines had made raids on the cities in the Shephelah and the Negeb of Judah, and had taken Beth-shemesh, Aijalon, Gederoth, Soco with its villages, Timnah with its villages, and Gimzo with its villages; and they settled there.

2 Chronicles 28:19 For the LORD brought Judah low because of King Ahaz of Israel, for he had behaved without restraint in Judah and had been faithless to the LORD.

2 Chronicles 28:20 So King Tilgath-pilneser of Assyria came against him, and oppressed him instead of strengthening him.

2 Chronicles 28:21 For Ahaz plundered the house of the LORD and the houses of the king and of the officials, and gave tribute to the king of Assyria; but it did not help him.

2 Chronicles 28:22 In the time of his distress he became yet more faithless to the LORD— this same King Ahaz.

2 Chronicles 28:23 For he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus, which had defeated him, and said, “Because the gods of the kings of Aram helped them, I will sacrifice to them so that they may help me." But they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel.

2 Chronicles 28:24 Ahaz gathered together the utensils of the house of God, and cut in pieces the utensils of the house of God. He shut up the doors of the house of the LORD and made himself altars in every corner of Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 28:25 In every city of Judah he made high places to make offerings to other gods, provoking to anger the LORD, the God of his ancestors.

2 Chronicles 28:26 Now the rest of his acts and all his ways, from first to last, are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

2 Chronicles 28:27 Ahaz slept with his ancestors, and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem; but they did not bring him into the tombs of the kings of Israel. His son Hezekiah succeeded him.

2 Chronicles 29:1 Hezekiah began to reign when he was twenty-five years old; he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah daughter of Zechariah.

2 Chronicles 29:2 He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, just as his ancestor David had done.

2 Chronicles 29:3 In the first year of his reign, in the first month, he opened the doors of the house of the LORD and repaired them.

2 Chronicles 29:4 He brought in the priests and the Levites and assembled them in the square on the east.

2 Chronicles 29:5 He said to them, "Listen to me, Levites! Sanctify yourselves, and sanctify the house of the LORD, the God of your ancestors, and carry out the filth from the holy place.

2 Chronicles 29:6 For our ancestors have been unfaithful and have done what was evil in the sight of the LORD our God; they have forsaken him, and have turned away their faces from the dwelling of the LORD, and turned their backs.

2 Chronicles 29:7 They also shut the doors of the vestibule and put out the lamps, and have not offered incense or made burnt offerings in the holy place to the God of Israel.

2 Chronicles 29:8 Therefore the wrath of the LORD came upon Judah and Jerusalem, and he has made them an object of horror, of astonishment, and of hissing, as you see with your own eyes.

2 Chronicles 29:9 Our fathers have fallen by the sword and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this.

2 Chronicles 29:10 Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with the LORD, the God of Israel, so that his fierce anger may turn away from us.

2 Chronicles 29:11 My sons, do not now be negligent, for the LORD has chosen you to stand in his presence to minister to him, and to be his ministers and make offerings to him."

2 Chronicles 29:12 Then the Levites arose, Mahath son of Amasai, and Joel son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites; and of the sons of Merari, Kish son of Abdi, and Azariah son of Jehallelel; and of the Gershonites, Joah son of Zimmah, and Eden son of Joah;

2 Chronicles 29:13 and of the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeuel; and of the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah;

2 Chronicles 29:14 and of the sons of Heman, Jehuel and Shimei; and of the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel.

2 Chronicles 29:15 They gathered their brothers, sanctified themselves, and went in as the king had commanded, by the words of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 29:16 The priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD to cleanse it, and they brought out all the unclean things that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD; and the Levites took them and carried them out to the Wadi Kidron.

2 Chronicles 29:17 They began to sanctify on the first day of the first month, and on the eighth day of the month they came to the vestibule of the LORD; then for eight days they sanctified the house of the LORD, and on the sixteenth day of the first month they finished.

2 Chronicles 29:18 Then they went inside to King Hezekiah and said, "We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils, and the table for the rows of bread and all its utensils.

2 Chronicles 29:19 All the utensils that King Ahaz repudiated during his reign when he was faithless, we have made ready and sanctified; see, they are in front of the altar of the LORD."

2 Chronicles 29:20 Then King Hezekiah rose early, assembled the officials of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 29:21 They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven male goats for a sin offering for the kingdom and for the sanctuary and for Judah. He commanded the priests the descendants of Aaron to offer them on the altar of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 29:22 So they slaughtered the bulls, and the priests received the blood and dashed it against the altar; they slaughtered the rams and their blood was dashed against the altar; they also slaughtered the lambs and their blood was dashed against the altar.

2 Chronicles 29:23 Then the male goats for the sin offering were brought to the king and the assembly; they laid their hands on them,

2 Chronicles 29:24 and the priests slaughtered them and made a sin offering with their blood at the altar, to make atonement for all Israel. For the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel.

2 Chronicles 29:25 He stationed the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, harps, and lyres, according to the commandment of David and of Gad the king’s seer and of the prophet Nathan, for the commandment was from the LORD through his prophets.

2 Chronicles 29:26 The Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.

2 Chronicles 29:27 Then Hezekiah commanded that the burnt offering be offered on the altar. When the burnt offering began, the song to the LORD began also, and the trumpets, accompanied by the instruments of King David of Israel.

2 Chronicles 29:28 The whole assembly worshiped, the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded; all this continued until the burnt offering was finished.

2 Chronicles 29:29 When the offering was finished, the king and all who were present with him bowed down and worshiped.

2 Chronicles 29:30 King Hezekiah and the officials commanded the Levites to sing praises to the LORD with the words of David and of the seer Asaph. They sang praises with gladness, and they bowed down and worshiped.

2 Chronicles 29:31 Then Hezekiah said, “You have now consecrated yourselves to the LORD; come near, bring sacrifices and thank offerings to the house of the LORD.” The assembly brought sacrifices and thank offerings; and all who were of a willing heart brought burnt offerings.

2 Chronicles 29:32 The number of the burnt offerings that the assembly brought was seventy bulls, one hundred rams, and two hundred lambs; all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD.

2 Chronicles 29:33 The consecrated offerings were six hundred bulls and three thousand sheep.

2 Chronicles 29:34 But the priests were too few and could not skin all the burnt offerings, so, until other priests had sanctified themselves, their kindred, the Levites, helped them until the work was finished— for the Levites were more conscientious than the priests in sanctifying themselves.

2 Chronicles 29:35 Besides the great number of burnt offerings there was the fat of the offerings of well-being, and there were the drink offerings for the burnt offerings. Thus the service of the house of the LORD was restored.

2 Chronicles 29:36 And Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced because of what God had done for the people; for the thing had come about suddenly.

2 Chronicles 30:1 Hezekiah sent word to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the passover to the LORD the God of Israel.

2 Chronicles 30:2 For the king and his officials and all the assembly in Jerusalem had taken counsel to keep the passover in the second month

2 Chronicles 30:3 (for they could not keep it at its proper time because the priests had not sanctified themselves in sufficient number, nor had the people assembled in Jerusalem).

2 Chronicles 30:4 The plan seemed right to the king and all the assembly.

2 Chronicles 30:5 So they decreed to make a proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beer-sheba to Dan, that the people should come and keep the passover to the LORD the God of Israel, at Jerusalem; for they had not kept it in great numbers as prescribed.

2 Chronicles 30:6 So couriers went throughout all Israel and Judah with letters from the king and his officials, as the king had commanded, saying, “O people of Israel, return to the LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, so that he may turn again to the remnant of you who have escaped from the hand of the kings of Assyria.

2 Chronicles 30:7 Do not be like your ancestors and your kindred, who were faithless to the LORD God of their ancestors, so that he made them a desolation, as you see.

2 Chronicles 30:8 Do not now be stiff-necked as your ancestors were, but yield yourselves to the LORD and come to his sanctuary, which he has sanctified forever, and serve the LORD your God, so that his fierce anger may turn away from you.

2 Chronicles 30:9 For as you return to the LORD, your kindred and your children will find compassion with their captors, and return to this land. For the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if you return to him.”

2 Chronicles 30:10 So the couriers went from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, and as far as Zebulun; but they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them.

2 Chronicles 30:11 Only a few from Asher, Manasseh, and Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 30:12 The hand of God was also on Judah to give them one heart to do what the king and the officials commanded by the word of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 30:13 Many people came together in Jerusalem to keep the festival of unleavened bread in the second month, a very large assembly.

2 Chronicles 30:14 They set to work and removed the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for offering incense they took away and threw into the Wadi Kidron.

2 Chronicles 30:15 They slaughtered the passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the second month. The priests and the Levites were ashamed, and they sanctified themselves and brought burnt offerings into the house of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 30:16 They took their accustomed posts according to the law of Moses the man of God; the priests dashed the blood that they received from the hands of the Levites.

2 Chronicles 30:17 For there were many in the assembly who had not sanctified themselves; therefore the Levites had to slaughter the passover lamb for everyone who was not clean, to make it holy to the LORD.

2 Chronicles 30:18 For a multitude of the people, many of them from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet they ate the passover otherwise than as prescribed. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, “The good LORD pardon all

2 Chronicles 30:19 who set their hearts to seek God, the LORD the God of their ancestors, even though not in accordance with the sanctuary’s rules of cleanness.”

2 Chronicles 30:20 The LORD heard Hezekiah, and healed the people.

2 Chronicles 30:21 The people of Israel who were present at Jerusalem kept the festival of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness; and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, accompanied by loud instruments for the LORD.

2 Chronicles 30:22 Hezekiah spoke encouragingly to all the Levites who showed good skill in the service of the LORD. So the people ate the food of the festival for seven days, sacrificing offerings of well-being and giving thanks to the LORD the God of their ancestors.

2 Chronicles 30:23 Then the whole assembly agreed together to keep the festival for another seven days; so they kept it for another seven days with gladness.

2 Chronicles 30:24 For King Hezekiah of Judah gave the assembly a thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep for offerings, and the officials gave the assembly a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep. The priests sanctified themselves in great numbers.

2 Chronicles 30:25 The whole assembly of Judah, the priests and the Levites, and the whole assembly that came out of Israel, and the resident aliens who came out of the land of Israel, and the resident aliens who lived in Judah, rejoiced.

2 Chronicles 30:26 There was great joy in Jerusalem, for since the time of Solomon son of King David of Israel there had been nothing like this in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 30:27 Then the priests and the Levites stood up and blessed the people, and their voice was heard; their prayer came to his holy dwelling in heaven.

2 Chronicles 31:1 Now when all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the cities of Judah and broke down the pillars, hewed down the sacred poles, and pulled down the high places and the altars throughout all Judah and Benjamin, and in Ephraim and Manasseh, until they had destroyed them all. Then all the people of Israel returned to their cities, all to their individual properties.

2 Chronicles 31:2 Hezekiah appointed the divisions of the priests and of the Levites, division by division, everyone according to his service, the priests and the Levites, for burnt offerings and offerings of well-being, to minister in the gates of the camp of the LORD and to give thanks and praise.

2 Chronicles 31:3 The contribution of the king from his own possessions was for the burnt offerings: the burnt offerings of morning and evening, and the burnt offerings for the sabbaths, the new moons, and the appointed festivals, as it is written in the law of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 31:4 He commanded the people who lived in Jerusalem to give the portion due to the priests and the Levites, so that they might devote themselves to the law of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 31:5 As soon as the word spread, the people of Israel gave in abundance the first fruits of grain, wine, oil, honey, and of all the produce of the field; and they brought in abundantly the tithe of everything.

2 Chronicles 31:6 The people of Israel and Judah who lived in the cities of Judah also brought in the tithe of cattle and sheep, and the tithe of the dedicated things that had been consecrated to the LORD their God, and laid them in heaps.

2 Chronicles 31:7 In the third month they began to pile up the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month.

2 Chronicles 31:8 When Hezekiah and the officials came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD and his people Israel.

2 Chronicles 31:9 Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites about the heaps.

2 Chronicles 31:10 The chief priest Azariah, who was of the house of Zadok, answered him, “Since they began to bring the contributions into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat and have plenty to

2 Chronicles 31:11 Then Hezekiah commanded them to prepare store-chambers in the house of the LORD; and they prepared them.

2 Chronicles 31:12 Faithfully they brought in the contributions, the tithes and the dedicated things. The chief officer in charge of them was Conaniah the Levite, with his brother Shimei as second;

2 Chronicles 31:13 while Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah, Mahath, and Benaiah were overseers assisting Conaniah and his brother Shimei, by the appointment of King Hezekiah and of Azariah the chief officer of the house of God.

2 Chronicles 31:14 Kore son of Imnah the Levite, keeper of the east gate, was in charge of the freewill offerings to God, to apportion the contribution reserved for the LORD and the most holy offerings.

2 Chronicles 31:15 Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah were faithfully assisting him in the cities of the priests, to distribute the portions to their kindred, old and young alike, by divisions,

2 Chronicles 31:16 except those enrolled by genealogy, males from three years old and upwards, all who entered the house of the LORD as the duty of each day required, for their service according to their offices, by their divisions.

2 Chronicles 31:17 The enrollment of the priests was according to their ancestral houses; that of the Levites from twenty years old and upwards was according to their offices, by their divisions.

2 Chronicles 31:18 The priests were enrolled with all their little children, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, the whole multitude; for they were faithful in keeping themselves holy.

2 Chronicles 31:19 And for the descendants of Aaron, the priests, who were in the fields of common land belonging to their towns, town by town, the people designated by name were to distribute portions to every male among the priests and to everyone among the Levites who was enrolled.

2 Chronicles 31:20 Hezekiah did this throughout all Judah; he did what was good and right and faithful before the LORD his God.

2 Chronicles 31:21 And every work that he undertook in the service of the house of God, and in accordance with the law and the commandments, to seek his God, he did with all his heart; and he prospered.

2 Chronicles 32:1 After these things and these acts of faithfulness, King Sennacherib of Assyria came and invaded Judah and encamped against the fortified cities, thinking to win them for himself.

2 Chronicles 32:2 When Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come and intended to fight against Jerusalem,

2 Chronicles 32:3 he planned with his officers and his warriors to stop the flow of the springs that were outside the city; and they helped him.

2 Chronicles 32:4 A great many people were gathered, and they stopped all the springs and the wadi that flowed through the land, saying, “Why should the Assyrian kings come and find water in abundance?”

2 Chronicles 32:5 Hezekiah set to work resolutely and built up the entire wall that was broken down, and raised towers on it, and outside it he built another wall; he also strengthened the Millo in the city of David, and made weapons and shields in abundance.

2 Chronicles 32:6 He appointed combat commanders over the people, and gathered them together to him in the square at the gate of the city and spoke encouragingly to them, saying,

2 Chronicles 32:7 “Be strong and of good courage. Do not be afraid or dismayed before the king of Assyria and all the horde that is with him; for there is one greater with us than with him.

2 Chronicles 32:8 With him is an arm of flesh; but with us is the LORD our God, to help us and to fight our battles.” The people were encouraged by the words of King Hezekiah of Judah.

2 Chronicles 32:9 After this, while King Sennacherib of Assyria was at Lachish with all his forces, he sent his servants to Jerusalem to King Hezekiah of Judah and to all the people of Judah that were in Jerusalem, saying,

2 Chronicles 32:10 “Thus says King Sennacherib of Assyria: On what are you relying, that you undergo the siege of Jerusalem?

2 Chronicles 32:11 Is not Hezekiah misleading you, handing you over to die by famine and by thirst, when he tells you, ‘The LORD our God will save us from the hand of the king of Assyria’?

2 Chronicles 32:12 Was it not this same Hezekiah who took away his high places and his altars and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, ‘Before one altar you shall worship, and upon it you shall make your offerings’?

2 Chronicles 32:13 Do you not know what I and my ancestors have done to all the peoples of other lands? Were the gods of the nations of those lands at all able to save their lands out of my hand?

2 Chronicles 32:14 Who among all the gods of those nations that my ancestors utterly destroyed was able to save his people from my hand, that your God should be able to save you from my hand?

2 Chronicles 32:15 Now therefore do not let Hezekiah deceive you or mislead you in this fashion, and do not believe him, for no god of any nation or kingdom has been able to save his people from my hand or from the hand of my ancestors. How much less will your God save you out of my hand!”

2 Chronicles 32:16 His servants said still more against the Lord GOD and against his servant Hezekiah.

2 Chronicles 32:17 He also wrote letters to throw contempt on the LORD the God of Israel and to speak against him, saying, “Just as the gods of the nations in other lands did not rescue their people from my hands, so the God of Hezekiah will not rescue his people from my hand.”

2 Chronicles 32:18 They shouted it with a loud voice in the language of Judah to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten and terrify them, in order that they might take the city.

2 Chronicles 32:19 They spoke of the God of Jerusalem as if he were like the gods of the peoples of the earth, which are the work of human hands.

2 Chronicles 32:20 Then King Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz prayed because of this and cried to heaven.

2 Chronicles 32:21 And the LORD sent an angel who cut off all the mighty warriors and commanders and officers in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned in disgrace to his own land. When he came into the house of his god, some of his own sons struck him down there with the sword.

2 Chronicles 32:22 So the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of King Sennacherib of Assyria and from the hand of all his enemies; he gave them rest on every side.

2 Chronicles 32:23 Many brought gifts to the LORD in Jerusalem and precious things to King Hezekiah of Judah, so that he was exalted in the sight of all nations from that time onward.

2 Chronicles 32:24 In those days Hezekiah became sick and was at the point of death. He prayed to the LORD, and he answered him and gave him a sign.

2 Chronicles 32:25 But Hezekiah did not respond according to the benefit done to him, for his heart was proud. Therefore wrath came upon him and upon Judah and Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 32:26 Then Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD did not come upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

2 Chronicles 32:27 Hezekiah had very great riches and honor; and he made for himself treasuries for silver, for gold, for precious stones, for spices, for shields, and for all kinds of costly objects;

2 Chronicles 32:28 storehouses also for the yield of grain, wine, and oil; and stalls for all kinds of cattle, and sheepfolds.

2 Chronicles 32:29 He likewise provided cities for himself, and flocks and herds in abundance; for God had given him very great possessions.

2 Chronicles 32:30 This same Hezekiah closed the upper outlet of the waters of Gihon and directed them down to the west side of the city of David. Hezekiah prospered in all his works.

2 Chronicles 32:31 So also in the matter of the envoys of the officials of Babylon, who had been sent to him to inquire about the sign that had been done in the land, God left him to himself, in order to test him and to know all that was in his heart.

2 Chronicles 32:32 Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his good deeds, are written in the vision of the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

2 Chronicles 32:33 Hezekiah slept with his ancestors, and they buried him on the ascent to the tombs of the descendants of David; and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honor at his death. His son Manasseh succeeded him.

2 Chronicles 33:1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign; he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 33:2 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to the abominable practices of the nations whom the LORD drove out before the people of Israel.

2 Chronicles 33:3 For he rebuilt the high places that his father Hezekiah had pulled down, and erected altars to the Baals, made sacred poles, worshiped all the host of heaven, and served them.

2 Chronicles 33:4 He built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, “In Jerusalem shall my name be forever.”

2 Chronicles 33:5 He built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 33:6 He made his son pass through fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom, practiced soothsaying and augury and sorcery, and dealt with mediums and with wizards. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking him to anger.

2 Chronicles 33:7 The carved image of the idol that he had made he set in the house of God, of which God said to David and to his son Solomon, “In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my name forever;

2 Chronicles 33:8 I will never again remove the feet of Israel from the land that I appointed for your ancestors, if only they will be careful to do all that I have commanded them, all the law, the statutes, and the ordinances given through Moses.”

2 Chronicles 33:9 Manasseh misled Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that they did more evil than the nations whom the LORD had destroyed before the people of Israel.

2 Chronicles 33:10 The LORD spoke to Manasseh and to his people, but they gave no heed.

2 Chronicles 33:11 Therefore the LORD brought against them the commanders of the army of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh captive in manacles, bound him with fetters, and brought him to Babylon.

2 Chronicles 33:12 While he was in distress he entreated the favor of the LORD his God and humbled himself greatly before the God of his ancestors.

2 Chronicles 33:13 He prayed to him, and God received his entreaty, heard his plea, and restored him again to Jerusalem and to his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD indeed was God.

2 Chronicles 33:14 Afterward he built an outer wall for the city of David west of Gihon, in the valley, reaching the entrance at the Fish Gate; he carried it around Ophel, and raised it to a very great height. He also put commanders of the army in all the fortified cities in Judah.

2 Chronicles 33:15 He took away the foreign gods and the idol from the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built on the mountain of the house of the LORD and in Jerusalem, and he threw them out of the city.

2 Chronicles 33:16 He also restored the altar of the LORD and offered on it sacrifices of well-being and of thanksgiving; and he commanded Judah to serve the LORD the God of Israel.

2 Chronicles 33:17 The people, however, still sacrificed at the high places, but only to the LORD their God.

2 Chronicles 33:18 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, these are in the Annals of the Kings of Israel.

2 Chronicles 33:19 His prayer, and how God received his entreaty, all his sin and his faithlessness, the sites on which he built high places and set up the sacred poles and the images, before he humbled himself, these are written in the records of the seers.

2 Chronicles 33:20 So Manasseh slept with his ancestors, and they buried him in his house. His son Amon succeeded him.

2 Chronicles 33:21 Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; he reigned two years in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 33:22 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his father Manasseh had done. Amon sacrificed to all the images that his father Manasseh had made, and served them.

2 Chronicles 33:23 He did not humble himself before the LORD, as his father Manasseh had humbled himself, but this Amon incurred more and more guilt.

2 Chronicles 33:24 His servants conspired against him and killed him in his house.

2 Chronicles 33:25 But the people of the land killed all those who had conspired against King Amon; and the people of the land made his son Josiah king to succeed him.

2 Chronicles 34:1 Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign; he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 34:2 He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of his ancestor David; he did not turn aside to the right or to the left.

2 Chronicles 34:3 For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was still a boy, he began to seek the God of his ancestor David, and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem of the high places, the sacred poles, and the carved and the cast images.

2 Chronicles 34:4 In his presence they pulled down the altars of the Baals; he demolished the incense altars that stood above them. He broke down the sacred poles and the carved and the cast images; he made dust of them and scattered it over the graves of those who had sacrificed to them.

2 Chronicles 34:5 He also burned the bones of the priests on their altars, and purged Judah and Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 34:6 In the towns of Manasseh, Ephraim, and Simeon, and as far as Naphtali, in their ruins all around,

2 Chronicles 34:7 he broke down the altars, beat the sacred poles and the images into powder, and demolished all the incense altars throughout all the land of Israel. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 34:8 In the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land and the house, he sent Shaphan son of Azaliah, Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah son of Joahaz, the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God.

2 Chronicles 34:9 They came to the high priest Hilkiah and delivered the money that had been brought into the house of God, which the Levites, the keepers of the threshold, had collected from Manasseh and Ephraim and from all the remnant of Israel and from all Judah and Benjamin and from the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 34:10 They delivered it to the workers who had the oversight of the house of the LORD, and the workers who were working in the house of the LORD gave it for repairing and restoring the house.

2 Chronicles 34:11 They gave it to the carpenters and the builders to buy quarried stone, and timber for binders, and beams for the buildings that the kings of Judah had let go to ruin.

2 Chronicles 34:12 The people did the work faithfully. Over them were appointed the Levites Jahath and Obadiah, of the sons of Merari, along with Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to have oversight. Other Levites, all skillful with instruments of music,

2 Chronicles 34:13 were over the burden bearers and directed all who did work in every kind of service; and some of the Levites were scribes, and officials, and gatekeepers.

2 Chronicles 34:14 While they were bringing out the money that had been brought into the house of the LORD, the priest Hilkiah found the book of the law of the LORD given through Moses.

2 Chronicles 34:15 Hilkiah said to the secretary Shaphan, “I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD”; and Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan.

2 Chronicles 34:16 Shaphan brought the book to the king, and further reported to the king, “All that was committed to your servants they are doing.

2 Chronicles 34:17 They have emptied out the money that was found in the house of the LORD and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers and the workers.”

2 Chronicles 34:18 The secretary Shaphan informed the king, “The priest Hilkiah has given me a book.” Shaphan then read it aloud to the king.

2 Chronicles 34:19 When the king heard the words of the law he tore his clothes.

2 Chronicles 34:20 Then the king commanded Hilkiah, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Abdon son of Micah, the secretary Shaphan, and the king’s servant Asaiah:

2 Chronicles 34:21 “Go, inquire of the LORD for me and for those who are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that has been found; for the wrath of the LORD that is poured out on us is great, because our ancestors did not keep the word of the LORD, to act in accordance with all that is written in this book.”

2 Chronicles 34:22 So Hilkiah and those whom the king had sent went to the prophet Huldah, the wife of Shallum son of Tokhath son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe (who lived in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter) and spoke to her to that effect.

2 Chronicles 34:23 She declared to them, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Tell the man who sent you to me,

2 Chronicles 34:24 Thus says the LORD: I will indeed bring disaster upon this place and upon its inhabitants, all the curses that are written in the book that was read before the king of Judah.

2 Chronicles 34:25 Because they have forsaken me and have made offerings to other gods, so that they have provoked me to anger with all the works of their hands, my wrath will be poured out on this place and will not be quenched.

2 Chronicles 34:26 But as to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, thus shall you say to him: Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Regarding the words that you have heard,

2 Chronicles 34:27 because your heart was penitent and you humbled yourself before God when you heard his words against this place and its inhabitants, and you have humbled yourself before me, and have torn your clothes and wept before me, I also have heard you, says the LORD.

2 Chronicles 34:28 I will gather you to your ancestors and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace; your eyes shall not see all the disaster that I will bring on this place and its inhabitants." They took the message back to the king.

2 Chronicles 34:29 Then the king sent word and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 34:30 The king went up to the house of the LORD, with all the people of Judah, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the priests and the Levites, all the people both great and small; he read in their hearing all the words of the book of the covenant that had been found in the house of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 34:31 The king stood in his place and made a covenant before the LORD, to follow the LORD, keeping his commandments, his decrees, and his statutes, with all his heart and all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this book.

2 Chronicles 34:32 Then he made all who were present in Jerusalem and in Benjamin pledge themselves to it. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem acted according to the covenant of God, the God of their ancestors.

2 Chronicles 34:33 Josiah took away all the abominations from all the territory that belonged to the people of Israel, and made all who were in Israel worship the LORD their God. All his days they did not turn away from following the LORD the God of their ancestors.

2 Chronicles 35:1 Josiah kept a passover to the LORD in Jerusalem; they slaughtered the passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the first month.

2 Chronicles 35:2 He appointed the priests to their offices and encouraged them in the service of the house of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 35:3 He said to the Levites who taught all Israel and who were holy to the LORD, "Put the holy ark in the house that Solomon son of David, king of Israel, built; you need no longer carry it on your shoulders. Now serve the LORD your God and his people Israel.

2 Chronicles 35:4 Make preparations by your ancestral houses by your divisions, following the written directions of King David of Israel and the written directions of his son Solomon.

2 Chronicles 35:5 Take position in the holy place according to the groupings of the ancestral houses of your kindred the people, and let there be Levites for each division of an ancestral house.

2 Chronicles 35:6 Slaughter the passover lamb, sanctify yourselves, and on behalf of your kindred make preparations, acting according to the word of the LORD by Moses."

2 Chronicles 35:7 Then Josiah contributed to the people, as passover offerings for all that were present, lambs and kids from the flock to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bulls; these were from the king's possessions.

2 Chronicles 35:8 His officials contributed willingly to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, the chief officers of the house of God, gave to the priests for the passover offerings two thousand six hundred lambs and kids and three hundred bulls.

2 Chronicles 35:9 Conaniah also, and his brothers Shemaiah and Nethanel, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, the chiefs of the Levites, gave to the Levites for the passover offerings five thousand lambs and kids and five hundred bulls.

2 Chronicles 35:10 When the service had been prepared for, the priests stood in their place, and the Levites in their divisions according to the king's command.

2 Chronicles 35:11 They slaughtered the passover lamb, and the priests dashed the blood that they received from them, while the Levites did the skinning.

2 Chronicles 35:12 They set aside the burnt offerings so that they might distribute them according to the groupings of the ancestral houses of the people, to offer to the LORD, as it is written in the book of Moses. And they did the same with the bulls.

2 Chronicles 35:13 They roasted the passover lamb with fire according to the ordinance; and they boiled the holy offerings in pots, in caldrons, and in pans, and carried them quickly to all the people.

2 Chronicles 35:14 Afterward they made preparations for themselves and for the priests, because the priests the descendants of Aaron were occupied in offering the burnt offerings and the fat parts until night; so the Levites made preparations for themselves and for the priests, the descendants of Aaron.

2 Chronicles 35:15 The singers, the descendants of Asaph, were in their place according to the command of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and the king's seer Jeduthun. The gatekeepers were at each gate; they did not need to interrupt their service, for their kindred the Levites made preparations for them.

2 Chronicles 35:16 So all the service of the LORD was prepared that day, to keep the passover and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD, according to the command of King Josiah.

2 Chronicles 35:17 The people of Israel who were present kept the passover at that time, and the festival of unleavened bread seven days.

2 Chronicles 35:18 No passover like it had been kept in Israel since the days of the prophet Samuel; none of the kings of Israel had kept such a passover as was kept by Josiah, by the priests and the Levites, by all Judah and Israel who were present, and by the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 35:19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah this passover was kept.

2 Chronicles 35:20 After all this, when Josiah had set the temple in order, King Neco of Egypt went up to fight at Carchemish on the Euphrates, and Josiah went out against him.

2 Chronicles 35:21 But Neco sent envoys to him, saying, “What have I to do with you, king of Judah? I am not coming against you today, but against the house with which I am at war; and God has commanded me to hurry. Cease opposing God, who is with me, so that he will not destroy you.”

2 Chronicles 35:22 But Josiah would not turn away from him, but disguised himself in order to fight with him. He did not listen to the words of Neco from the mouth of God, but joined battle in the plain of Megiddo.

2 Chronicles 35:23 The archers shot King Josiah; and the king said to his servants, “Take me away, for I am badly wounded.”

2 Chronicles 35:24 So his servants took him out of the chariot and carried him in his second chariot and brought him to Jerusalem. There he died, and was buried in the tombs of his ancestors. All Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

2 Chronicles 35:25 Jeremiah also uttered a lament for Josiah, and all the singing men and singing women have spoken of Josiah in their laments to this day. They made these a custom in Israel; they are recorded in the Laments.

2 Chronicles 35:26 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah and his faithful deeds in accordance with what is written in the law of the LORD,

2 Chronicles 35:27 and his acts, first and last, are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

2 Chronicles 36:1 The people of the land took Jehoahaz son of Josiah and made him king to succeed his father in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 36:2 Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign; he reigned three months in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 36:3 Then the king of Egypt deposed him in Jerusalem and laid on the land a tribute of one hundred talents of silver and one talent of gold.

2 Chronicles 36:4 The king of Egypt made his brother Eliakim king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim; but Neco took his brother Jehoahaz and carried him to Egypt.

2 Chronicles 36:5 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD his God.

2 Chronicles 36:6 Against him King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came up, and bound him with fetters to take him to Babylon.

2 Chronicles 36:7 Nebuchadnezzar also carried some of the vessels of the house of the LORD to Babylon and put them in his palace in Babylon.

2 Chronicles 36:8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and the abominations that he did, and what was found against him, are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah; and his son Jehoiachin succeeded him.

2 Chronicles 36:9 Jehoiachin was eight years old when he began to reign; he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem. He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 36:10 In the spring of the year King Nebuchadnezzar sent and brought him to Babylon, along with the precious vessels of the house of the LORD, and made his brother Zedekiah king over Judah and Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 36:11 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 36:12 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD his God. He did not humble himself before the prophet Jeremiah who spoke from the mouth of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 36:13 He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God; he stiffened his neck and hardened his heart against turning to the LORD, the God of Israel.

2 Chronicles 36:14 All the leading priests and the people also were exceedingly unfaithful, following all the abominations of the nations; and they polluted the house of the LORD that he had consecrated in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 36:15 The LORD, the God of their ancestors, sent persistently to them by his messengers, because he had compassion on his people and on his dwelling place;

2 Chronicles 36:16 but they kept mocking the messengers of God, despising his words, and scoffing at his prophets, until the wrath of the LORD against his people became so great that there was no remedy.

2 Chronicles 36:17 Therefore he brought up against them the king of the Chaldeans, who killed their youths with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion on young man or young woman, the aged or the feeble; he gave them all into his hand.

2 Chronicles 36:18 All the vessels of the house of God, large and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king and of his officials, all these he brought to Babylon.

2 Chronicles 36:19 They burned the house of God, broke down the wall of Jerusalem, burned all its palaces with fire, and destroyed all its precious vessels.

2 Chronicles 36:20 He took into exile in Babylon those who had escaped from the sword, and they became servants to him and to his sons until the establishment of the kingdom of Persia,

2 Chronicles 36:21 to fulfill the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had made up for its sabbaths. All the days that it lay desolate it kept sabbath, to fulfill seventy years.

2 Chronicles 36:22 In the first year of King Cyrus of Persia, in fulfillment of the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah, the LORD stirred up the spirit of King Cyrus of Persia so that he sent a herald throughout all his kingdom and also declared in a written edict:

2 Chronicles 36:23 “Thus says King Cyrus of Persia: The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and he has charged me to build him a house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever is among you of all his people, may the LORD his God be with him! Let him go up.”

Ezra

1:1 In the first year of King Cyrus of Persia, in order that the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished, the LORD stirred up the spirit of King Cyrus of Persia so that he sent a herald throughout all his kingdom, and also in a written edict declared:

Ezra 1:2 “Thus says King Cyrus of Persia: The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and he has charged me to build him a house at Jerusalem in Judah.

Ezra 1:3 Any of those among you who are of his people— may their God be with them!— are now permitted to go up to Jerusalem in Judah, and rebuild the house of the LORD, the God of Israel— he is the God who is in Jerusalem;

Ezra 1:4 and let all survivors, in whatever place they reside, be assisted by the people of their place with silver and gold, with goods and with animals, besides freewill offerings for the house of God in Jerusalem.”

Ezra 1:5 The heads of the families of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests and the Levites— everyone whose spirit God had stirred— got ready to go up and rebuild the house of the LORD in Jerusalem.

Ezra 1:6 All their neighbors aided them with silver vessels, with gold, with goods, with animals, and with valuable gifts, besides all that was freely offered.

Ezra 1:7 King Cyrus himself brought out the vessels of the house of the LORD that Nebuchadnezzar had carried away from Jerusalem and placed in the house of his gods.

Ezra 1:8 King Cyrus of Persia had them released into the charge of Mithredath the treasurer, who counted them out to Sheshbazzar the prince of Judah.

Ezra 1:9 And this was the inventory: gold basins, thirty; silver basins, one thousand; knives, twenty-nine;

Ezra 1:10 gold bowls, thirty; other silver bowls, four hundred ten; other vessels, one thousand;

Ezra 1:11 the total of the gold and silver vessels was five thousand four hundred. All these Sheshbazzar brought up, when the exiles were brought up from Babylonia to Jerusalem.

Ezra 2:1 Now these were the people of the province who came from those captive exiles whom King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon had carried captive to Babylonia; they returned to Jerusalem and Judah, all to their own towns.

Ezra 2:2 They came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, and Baanah. The number of the Israelite people:

Ezra 2:3 the descendants of Parosh, two thousand one hundred seventy-two.

Ezra 2:4 Of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy-two.

Ezra 2:5 Of Arah, seven hundred seventy-five.

Ezra 2:6 Of Pahath-moab, namely the descendants of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred twelve.

Ezra 2:11 Of Bebai, six hundred twenty-three.

Ezra 2:12 Of Azgad, one thousand two hundred twenty-two.

Ezra 2:13 Of Adonikam, six hundred sixty-six.

Ezra 2:14 Of Bigvai, two thousand fifty-six.

Ezra 2:15 Of Adin, four hundred fifty-four.

Ezra 2:16 Of Ater, namely of Hezekiah, ninety-eight.

Ezra 2:17 Of Bezai, three hundred twenty-three.

Ezra 2:19 Of Hashum, two hundred twenty-three.

Ezra 2:20 Of Gibbar, ninety-five.

Ezra 2:22 The people of Netophah, fifty-six.

Ezra 2:24 The descendants of Azmaveth, forty-two.

Ezra 2:26 Of Ramah and Geba, six hundred twenty-one.

Ezra 2:27 The people of Michmas, one hundred twenty-two.

Ezra 2:28 Of Bethel and Ai, two hundred twenty-three.

Ezra 2:29 The descendants of Nebo, fifty-two.

Ezra 2:30 Of Magbish, one hundred fifty-six.

Ezra 2:31 Of the other Elam, one thousand two hundred fifty-four.

Ezra 2:32 Of Harim, three hundred twenty.

Ezra 2:35 Of Senaah, three thousand six hundred thirty.

Ezra 2:36 The priests: the descendants of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, nine hundred seventy-three.

Ezra 2:37 Of Immer, one thousand fifty-two.

Ezra 2:38 Of Pashhur, one thousand two hundred forty-seven.

Ezra 2:40 The Levites: the descendants of Jeshua and Kadmiel, of the descendants of Hodaviah, seventy-four.

Ezra 2:42 The descendants of the gatekeepers: of Shallum, of Ater, of Talmon, of Akkub, of Hatita, and of Shobai, in all one hundred thirty-nine.

Ezra 2:43 The temple servants: the descendants of Ziha, Hasupha, Tabbaoth,

Ezra 2:44 Keros, Siaha, Padon,

Ezra 2:45 Lebanah, Hagabah, Akkub,

Ezra 2:46 Hagab, Shamlai, Hanan,

Ezra 2:47 Giddel, Gahar, Reaiah,

Ezra 2:48 Rezin, Nekoda, Gazzam,

Ezra 2:49 Uzza, Paseah, Besai,

Ezra 2:50 Asnah, Meunim, Nephisim,

Ezra 2:51 Bakbuk, Hakupha, Harhur,

Ezra 2:52 Bazluth, Mehida, Harsha,

Ezra 2:53 Barkos, Sisera, Temah,

Ezra 2:54 Neziah, and Hatipha.

Ezra 2:55 The descendants of Solomon’s servants: Sotai, Hassophereth, Peruda,

Ezra 2:56 Jaalah, Darkon, Giddel,

Ezra 2:58 All the temple servants and the descendants of Solomon’s servants were three hundred ninety-two.

Ezra 2:59 The following were those who came up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherub, Addan, and Immer, though they could not prove their families or their descent, whether they belonged to Israel:

Ezra 2:60 the descendants of Delaiah, Tobiah, and Nekoda, six hundred fifty-two.

Ezra 2:61 Also, of the descendants of the priests: the descendants of Habaiah, Hakkoz, and Barzillai (who had married one of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called by their name).

Ezra 2:62 These looked for their entries in the genealogical records, but they were not found there, and so they were excluded from the priesthood as unclean;

Ezra 2:63 the governor told them that they were not to partake of the most holy food, until there should be a priest to consult Urim and Thummim.

Ezra 2:64 The whole assembly together was forty-two thousand three hundred sixty,

Ezra 2:65 besides their male and female servants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty-seven; and they had two hundred male and female singers.

Ezra 2:66 They had seven hundred thirty-six horses, two hundred forty-five mules,

Ezra 2:67 four hundred thirty-five camels, and six thousand seven hundred twenty donkeys.

Ezra 2:68 As soon as they came to the house of the LORD in Jerusalem, some of the heads of families made freewill offerings for the house of God, to erect it on its site.

Ezra 2:69 According to their resources they gave to the building fund sixty-one thousand darics of gold, five thousand minas of silver, and one hundred priestly robes.

Ezra 2:70 The priests, the Levites, and some of the people lived in Jerusalem and its vicinity; and the singers, the gatekeepers, and the temple servants lived in their towns, and all Israel in their towns.

Ezra 3:1 When the seventh month came, and the Israelites were in the towns, the people gathered together in Jerusalem.

Ezra 3:2 Then Jeshua son of Jozadak, with his fellow priests, and Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel with his kin set out to build the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings on it, as prescribed in the law of Moses the man of God.

Ezra 3:3 They set up the altar on its foundation, because they were in dread of the neighboring peoples, and they offered burnt offerings upon it to the LORD, morning and evening.

Ezra 3:4 And they kept the festival of booths, as prescribed, and offered the daily burnt offerings by number according to the ordinance, as required for each day,

Ezra 3:5 and after that the regular burnt offerings, the offerings at the new moon and at all the sacred festivals of the LORD, and the offerings of everyone who made a freewill offering to the LORD.

Ezra 3:6 From the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to the LORD. But the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not yet laid.

Ezra 3:7 So they gave money to the masons and the carpenters, and food, drink, and oil to the Sidonians and the Tyrians to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea, to Joppa, according to the grant that they had from King Cyrus of Persia.

Ezra 3:8 In the second year after their arrival at the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua son of Jozadak made a beginning, together with the rest of their people, the priests and the Levites and all who had come to Jerusalem from the captivity. They appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to have the oversight of the work on the house of the LORD.

Ezra 3:9 And Jeshua with his sons and his kin, and Kadmiel and his sons, Binnui and Hodaviah along with the sons of Henadad, the Levites, their sons and kin, together took charge of the workers in the house of God.

Ezra 3:10 When the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, the priests in their vestments were stationed to praise the LORD with trumpets, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with cymbals, according to the directions of King David of Israel;

Ezra 3:11 and they sang responsively, praising and giving thanks to the LORD, “For he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever toward Israel.” And all the people responded with a great shout when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

Ezra 3:12 But many of the priests and Levites and heads of families, old people who had seen the first house on its foundations, wept with a loud voice when they saw this house, though many shouted aloud for joy,

Ezra 3:13 so that the people could not distinguish the sound of the joyful shout from the sound of the people’s weeping, for the people shouted so loudly that the sound was heard far away.

Ezra 4:1 When the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the returned exiles were building a temple to the LORD, the God of Israel,

Ezra 4:2 they approached Zerubbabel and the heads of families and said to them, “Let us build with you, for we worship your God as you do, and we have been sacrificing to him ever since the days of King Esar-haddon of Assyria who brought us here.”

Ezra 4:3 But Zerubbabel, Jeshua, and the rest of the heads of families in Israel said to them, “You shall have no part with us in building a house to our God; but we alone will build to the LORD, the God of Israel, as King Cyrus of Persia has commanded us.”

Ezra 4:4 Then the people of the land discouraged the people of Judah, and made them afraid to build,

Ezra 4:5 and they bribed officials to frustrate their plan throughout the reign of King Cyrus of Persia and until the reign of King Darius of Persia.

Ezra 4:6 In the reign of Ahasuerus, in his accession year, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

Ezra 4:7 And in the days of Artaxerxes, Bishlam and Mithredath and Tabeel and the rest of their associates wrote to King Artaxerxes of Persia; the letter was written in Aramaic and translated.

Ezra 4:8 Rehum the royal deputy and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to King Artaxerxes as follows

Ezra 4:9 (then Rehum the royal deputy, Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their associates, the judges, the envoys, the officials, the Persians, the people of Erech, the Babylonians, the people of Susa, that is, the Elamites,

Ezra 4:10 and the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Osnappar deported and settled in the cities of Samaria and in the rest of the province Beyond the River wrote— and now

Ezra 4:11 this is a copy of the letter that they sent): “To King Artaxerxes: Your servants, the people of the province Beyond the River, send greeting. And now

Ezra 4:12 may it be known to the king that the Jews who came up from you to us have gone to Jerusalem. They are rebuilding that rebellious and wicked city; they are finishing the walls and repairing the foundations.

Ezra 4:13 Now may it be known to the king that, if this city is rebuilt and the walls finished, they will not pay tribute, custom, or toll, and the royal revenue will be reduced.

Ezra 4:14 Now because we share the salt of the palace and it is not fitting for us to witness the king’s dishonor, therefore we send and inform the king,

Ezra 4:15 so that a search may be made in the annals of your ancestors. You will discover in the annals that this is a rebellious city, hurtful to kings and provinces, and that sedition was stirred up in it from long ago. On that account this city was laid waste.

Ezra 4:16 We make known to the king that, if this city is rebuilt and its walls finished, you will then have no possession in the province Beyond the River.”

Ezra 4:17 The king sent an answer: “To Rehum the royal deputy and Shimshai the scribe and the rest of their associates who live in Samaria and in the rest of the province Beyond the River, greeting. And now

Ezra 4:18 the letter that you sent to us has been read in translation before me.

Ezra 4:19 So I made a decree, and someone searched and discovered that this city has risen against kings from long ago, and that rebellion and sedition have been made in it.

Ezra 4:20 Jerusalem has had mighty kings who ruled over the whole province Beyond the River, to whom tribute, custom, and toll were paid.

Ezra 4:21 Therefore issue an order that these people be made to cease, and that this city not be rebuilt, until I make a decree.

Ezra 4:22 Moreover, take care not to be slack in this matter; why should damage grow to the hurt of the king?”

Ezra 4:23 Then when the copy of King Artaxerxes’ letter was read before Rehum and the scribe Shimshai and their associates, they hurried to the Jews in Jerusalem and by force and power made them cease.

Ezra 4:24 At that time the work on the house of God in Jerusalem stopped and was discontinued until the second year of the reign of King Darius of Persia.

Ezra 5:1 Now the prophets, Haggai and Zechariah son of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem, in the name of the God of Israel who was over them.

Ezra 5:2 Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua son of Jozadak set out to rebuild the house of God in Jerusalem; and with them were the prophets of God, helping them.

Ezra 5:3 At the same time Tattenai the governor of the province Beyond the River and Shethar-bozenai and their associates came to them and spoke to them thus, “Who gave you a decree to build this house and to finish this structure?”

Ezra 5:4 They also asked them this, “What are the names of the men who are building this building?”

Ezra 5:5 But the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, and they did not stop them until a report reached Darius and then answer was returned by letter in reply to it.

Ezra 5:6 The copy of the letter that Tattenai the governor of the province Beyond the River and Shethar-bozenai and his associates the envoys who were in the province Beyond the River sent to King Darius;

Ezra 5:7 they sent him a report, in which was written as follows: “To Darius the king, all peace!

Ezra 5:8 May it be known to the king that we went to the province of Judah, to the house of the great God. It is being built of hewn stone, and timber is laid in the walls; this work is being done diligently and prospers in their hands.

Ezra 5:9 Then we spoke to those elders and asked them, ‘Who gave you a decree to build this house and to finish this structure?’

Ezra 5:10 We also asked them their names, for your information, so that we might write down the names of the men at their head.

Ezra 5:11 This was their reply to us: ‘We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and we are rebuilding the house that was built many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and finished.

Ezra 5:12 But because our ancestors had angered the God of heaven, he gave them into the hand of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house and carried away the people to Babylonia.

Ezra 5:13 However, King Cyrus of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, made a decree that this house of God should be rebuilt.

Ezra 5:14 Moreover, the gold and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple in Jerusalem and had brought into the temple of Babylon, these King Cyrus took out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered to a man named Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor.

Ezra 5:15 He said to him, “Take these vessels; go and put them in the temple in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be rebuilt on its site.”

Ezra 5:16 Then this Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundations of the house of God in Jerusalem; and from that time until now it has been under construction, and it is not yet finished.’

Ezra 5:17 And now, if it seems good to the king, have a search made in the royal archives there in Babylon, to see whether a decree was issued by King Cyrus for the rebuilding of this house of God in Jerusalem. Let the king send us his pleasure in this matter.”

Ezra 6:1 Then King Darius made a decree, and they searched the archives where the documents were stored in Babylon.

Ezra 6:2 But it was in Ecbatana, the capital in the province of Media, that a scroll was found on which this was written: “A record.

Ezra 6:3 In the first year of his reign, King Cyrus issued a decree: Concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, let the house be rebuilt, the place where sacrifices are offered and burnt offerings are brought; its height shall be sixty cubits and its width sixty cubits,

Ezra 6:4 with three courses of hewn stones and one course of timber; let the cost be paid from the royal treasury.

Ezra 6:5 Moreover, let the gold and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, be restored and brought back to the temple in Jerusalem, each to its place; you shall put them in the house of God.”

Ezra 6:6 “Now you, Tattenai, governor of the province Beyond the River, Shethar-bozenai, and you, their associates, the envoys in the province Beyond the River, keep away;

Ezra 6:7 let the work on this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews rebuild this house of God on its site.

Ezra 6:8 Moreover I make a decree regarding what you shall do for these elders of the Jews for the rebuilding of this house of God: the cost is to be paid to these people, in full and without delay, from the royal revenue, the tribute of the province Beyond the River.

Ezra 6:9 Whatever is needed— young bulls, rams, or sheep for burnt offerings to the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, or oil, as the priests in Jerusalem require— let that be given to them day by day without fail,

Ezra 6:10 so that they may offer pleasing sacrifices to the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king and his children.

Ezra 6:11 Furthermore I decree that if anyone alters this edict, a beam shall be pulled out of the house of the perpetrator, who then shall be impaled on it. The house shall be made a dunghill.

Ezra 6:12 May the God who has established his name there overthrow any king or people that shall put forth a hand to alter this, or to destroy this house of God in Jerusalem. I, Darius, make a decree; let it be done with all diligence.”

Ezra 6:13 Then, according to the word sent by King Darius, Tattenai, the governor of the province Beyond the River, Shethar-bozenai, and their associates did with all diligence what King Darius had ordered.

Ezra 6:14 So the elders of the Jews built and prospered, through the prophesying of the prophet Haggai and Zechariah son of Iddo. They finished their building by command of the God of Israel and by decree of Cyrus, Darius, and King Artaxerxes of Persia;

Ezra 6:15 and this house was finished on the third day of the month of Adar, in the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.

Ezra 6:16 The people of Israel, the priests and the Levites, and the rest of the returned exiles, celebrated the dedication of this house of God with joy.

Ezra 6:17 They offered at the dedication of this house of God one hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs, and as a sin offering for all Israel, twelve male goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.

Ezra 6:18 Then they set the priests in their divisions and the Levites in their courses for the service of God at Jerusalem, as it is written in the book of Moses.

Ezra 6:19 On the fourteenth day of the first month the returned exiles kept the passover.

Ezra 6:20 For both the priests and the Levites had purified themselves; all of them were clean. So they killed the passover lamb for all the returned exiles, for their fellow priests, and for themselves.

Ezra 6:21 It was eaten by the people of Israel who had returned from exile, and also by all who had joined them and separated themselves from the pollutions of the nations of the land to worship the LORD, the God of Israel.

Ezra 6:22 With joy they celebrated the festival of unleavened bread seven days; for the LORD had made them joyful, and had turned the heart of the king of Assyria to them, so that he aided them in the work on the house of God, the God of Israel.

Ezra 7:1 After this, in the reign of King Artaxerxes of Persia,Ezra son of Seraiah, son of Azariah, son of Hilkiah,

Ezra 7:2 son of Shallum, son of Zadok, son of Ahitub,

Ezra 7:3 son of Amariah, son of Azariah, son of Meraioth,

Ezra 7:4 son of Zerahiah, son of Uzzi, son of Bukki,

Ezra 7:5 son of Abishua, son of Phinehas, son of Eleazar, son of the chief priest Aaron—

Ezra 7:6 this Ezra went up from Babylonia. He was a scribe skilled in the law of Moses that the LORD the God of Israel had given; and the king granted him all that he asked, for the hand of the LORD his God was upon him.

Ezra 7:7 Some of the people of Israel, and some of the priests and Levites, the singers and gatekeepers, and the temple servants also went up to Jerusalem, in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes.

Ezra 7:8 They came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king.

Ezra 7:9 On the first day of the first month the journey up from Babylon was begun, and on the first day of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, for the gracious hand of his God was upon him.

Ezra 7:10 For Ezra had set his heart to study the law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach the statutes and ordinances in Israel.

Ezra 7:11 This is a copy of the letter that King Artaxerxes gave to the priest Ezra, the scribe, a scholar of the text of the commandments of the LORD and his statutes for Israel:

Ezra 7:12 “Artaxerxes, king of kings, to the priest Ezra, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven: Peace. And now

Ezra 7:13 I decree that any of the people of Israel or their priests or Levites in my kingdom who freely offers to go to Jerusalem may go with you.

Ezra 7:14 For you are sent by the king and his seven counselors to make inquiries about Judah and Jerusalem according to the law of your God, which is in your hand,

Ezra 7:15 and also to convey the silver and gold that the king and his counselors have freely offered to the God of Israel, whose dwelling is in Jerusalem,

Ezra 7:16 with all the silver and gold that you shall find in the whole province of Babylonia, and with the freewill offerings of the people and the priests, given willingly for the house of their God in Jerusalem.

Ezra 7:17 With this money, then, you shall with all diligence buy bulls, rams, and lambs, and their grain offerings and their drink offerings, and you shall offer them on the altar of the house of your God in Jerusalem.

Ezra 7:18 Whatever seems good to you and your colleagues to do with the rest of the silver and gold, you may do, according to the will of your God.

Ezra 7:19 The vessels that have been given you for the service of the house of your God, you shall deliver before the God of Jerusalem.

Ezra 7:20 And whatever else is required for the house of your God, which you are responsible for providing, you may provide out of the king’s treasury.

Ezra 7:21 “I, King Artaxerxes, decree to all the treasurers in the province Beyond the River: Whatever the priest Ezra, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, requires of you, let it be done with all diligence,

Ezra 7:22 up to one hundred talents of silver, one hundred cors of wheat, one hundred baths of wine, one hundred baths of oil, and unlimited salt.

Ezra 7:23 Whatever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be done with zeal for the house of the God of heaven, or wrath will come upon the realm of the king and his heirs.

Ezra 7:24 We also notify you that it shall not be lawful to impose tribute, custom, or toll on any of the priests, the Levites, the singers, the doorkeepers, the temple servants, or other servants of this house of God.

Ezra 7:25 “And you, Ezra, according to the God-given wisdom you possess, appoint magistrates and judges who may judge all the people in the province Beyond the River who know the laws of your God; and you shall teach those who do not know them.

Ezra 7:26 All who will not obey the law of your God and the law of the king, let judgment be strictly executed on them, whether for death or for banishment or for confiscation of their goods or for imprisonment.”

Ezra 7:27 Blessed be the LORD, the God of our ancestors, who put such a thing as this into the heart of the king to glorify the house of the LORD in Jerusalem,

Ezra 7:28 and who extended to me steadfast love before the king and his counselors, and before all the king’s mighty officers. I took courage, for the hand of the LORD my God was upon me, and I gathered leaders from Israel to go up with me.

Ezra 8:1 These are their family heads, and this is the genealogy of those who went up with me from Babylonia, in the reign of King Artaxerxes:

Ezra 8:2 Of the descendants of Phinehas, Gershom. Of Ithamar, Daniel. Of David, Hattush,

Ezra 8:3 of the descendants of Shecaniah. Of Parosh, Zechariah, with whom were registered one hundred fifty males.

Ezra 8:4 Of the descendants of Pahath-moab, Eliehoenai son of Zerahiah, and with him two hundred males.

Ezra 8:5 Of the descendants of Zattu, Shecaniah son of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males.

Ezra 8:6 Of the descendants of Adin, Ebed son of Jonathan, and with him fifty males.

Ezra 8:7 Of the descendants of Elam, Jeshaiah son of Athaliah, and with him seventy males.

Ezra 8:8 Of the descendants of Shephatiah, Zebadiah son of Michael, and with him eighty males.

Ezra 8:9 Of the descendants of Joab, Obadiah son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred eighteen males.

Ezra 8:10 Of the descendants of Bani, Shelomith son of Josiphiah, and with him one hundred sixty males.

Ezra 8:11 Of the descendants of Bebai, Zechariah son of Bebai, and with him twenty-eight males.

Ezra 8:12 Of the descendants of Azgad, Johanan son of Hakkatan, and with him one hundred ten males.

Ezra 8:13 Of the descendants of Adonikam, those who came later, their names being Eliphelet, Jeuel, and Shemaiah, and with them sixty males.

Ezra 8:14 Of the descendants of Bigvai, Uthai and Zaccur, and with them seventy males.

Ezra 8:15 I gathered them by the river that runs to Ahava, and there we camped three days. As I reviewed the people and the priests, I found there none of the descendants of Levi.

Ezra 8:16 Then I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, who were leaders, and for Joiarib and Elnathan, who were wise,

Ezra 8:17 and sent them to Iddo, the leader at the place called Casiphia, telling them what to say to Iddo and his colleagues the temple servants at Casiphia, namely, to send us ministers for the house of our God.

Ezra 8:18 Since the gracious hand of our God was upon us, they brought us a man of discretion, of the descendants of Mahli son of Levi son of Israel, namely Sherebiah, with his sons and kin, eighteen;

Ezra 8:19 also Hashabiah and with him Jeshaiah of the descendants of Merari, with his kin and their sons, twenty;

Ezra 8:20 besides two hundred twenty of the temple servants, whom David and his officials had set apart to attend the Levites. These were all mentioned by name.

Ezra 8:21 Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river Ahava, that we might deny ourselves before our God, to seek from him a safe journey for ourselves, our children, and all our possessions.

Ezra 8:22 For I was ashamed to ask the king for a band of soldiers and cavalry to protect us against the enemy on our way, since we had told the king that the hand of our God is gracious to all who seek him, but his power and his wrath are against all who forsake him.

Ezra 8:23 So we fasted and petitioned our God for this, and he listened to our entreaty.

Ezra 8:24 Then I set apart twelve of the leading priests: Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their kin with them.

Ezra 8:25 And I weighed out to them the silver and the gold and the vessels, the offering for the house of our God that the king, his counselors, his lords, and all Israel there present had offered;

Ezra 8:26 I weighed out into their hand six hundred fifty talents of silver, and one hundred silver vessels worth... talents, and one hundred talents of gold,

Ezra 8:27 twenty gold bowls worth a thousand darics, and two vessels of fine polished bronze as precious as gold.

Ezra 8:28 And I said to them, “You are holy to the LORD, and the vessels are holy; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering to the LORD, the God of your ancestors.

Ezra 8:29 Guard them and keep them until you weigh them before the chief priests and the Levites and the heads of families in Israel at Jerusalem, within the chambers of the house of the LORD.”

Ezra 8:30 So the priests and the Levites took over the silver, the gold, and the vessels as they were weighed out, to bring them to Jerusalem, to the house of our God.

Ezra 8:31 Then we left the river Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go to Jerusalem; the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy and from ambushes along the way.

Ezra 8:32 We came to Jerusalem and remained there three days.

Ezra 8:33 On the fourth day, within the house of our God, the silver, the gold, and the vessels were weighed into the hands of the priest Meremoth son of Uriah, and with him was Eleazar son of Phinehas, and with them were the Levites, Jozabad son of Jeshua and Noadiah son of Binnui.

Ezra 8:34 The total was counted and weighed, and the weight of everything was recorded.

Ezra 8:35 At that time those who had come from captivity, the returned exiles, offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel, twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, and as a sin offering twelve male goats; all this was a burnt offering to the LORD.

Ezra 8:36 They also delivered the king’s commissions to the king’s satraps and to the governors of the province Beyond the River; and they supported the people and the house of God.

Ezra 9:1 After these things had been done, the officials approached me and said, “The people of Israel, the priests, and the Levites have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands with their abominations, from the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

Ezra 9:2 For they have taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves and for their sons. Thus the holy seed has mixed itself with the peoples of the lands, and in this faithlessness the officials and leaders have led the way."

Ezra 9:3 When I heard this, I tore my garment and my mantle, and pulled hair from my head and beard, and sat appalled.

Ezra 9:4 Then all who trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the faithlessness of the returned exiles, gathered around me while I sat appalled until the evening sacrifice.

Ezra 9:5 At the evening sacrifice I got up from my fasting, with my garments and my mantle torn, and fell on my knees, spread out my hands to the LORD my God,

Ezra 9:6 and said, "O my God, I am too ashamed and embarrassed to lift my face to you, my God, for our iniquities have risen higher than our heads, and our guilt has mounted up to the heavens.

Ezra 9:7 From the days of our ancestors to this day we have been deep in guilt, and for our iniquities we, our kings, and our priests have been handed over to the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, to plundering, and to utter shame, as is now the case.

Ezra 9:8 But now for a brief moment favor has been shown by the LORD our God, who has left us a remnant, and given us a stake in his holy place, in order that he may brighten our eyes and grant us a little sustenance in our slavery.

Ezra 9:9 For we are slaves; yet our God has not forsaken us in our slavery, but has extended to us his steadfast love before the kings of Persia, to give us new life to set up the house of our God, to repair its ruins, and to give us a wall in Judea and Jerusalem.

Ezra 9:10 "And now, our God, what shall we say after this? For we have forsaken your commandments,

Ezra 9:11 which you commanded by your servants the prophets, saying, 'The land that you are entering to possess is a land unclean with the pollutions of the peoples of the lands, with their abominations. They have filled it from end to end with their uncleanness.

Ezra 9:12 Therefore do not give your daughters to their sons, neither take their daughters for your sons, and never seek their peace or prosperity, so that you may be strong and eat the good of the land and leave it for an inheritance to your children forever.'

Ezra 9:13 After all that has come upon us for our evil deeds and for our great guilt, seeing that you, our God, have punished us less than our iniquities deserved and have given us such a remnant as this, Ezra 9:14 shall we break your commandments again and intermarry with the peoples who practice these abominations? Would you not be angry with us until you destroy us without remnant or survivor?

Ezra 9:15 O LORD, God of Israel, you are just, but we have escaped as a remnant, as is now the case. Here we are before you in our guilt, though no one can face you because of this.”

Ezra 10:1 While Ezra prayed and made confession, weeping and throwing himself down before the house of God, a very great assembly of men, women, and children gathered to him out of Israel; the people also wept bitterly.

Ezra 10:2 Shecaniah son of Jehiel, of the descendants of Elam, addressed Ezra, saying, “We have broken faith with our God and have married foreign women from the peoples of the land, but even now there is hope for Israel in spite of this.

Ezra 10:3 So now let us make a covenant with our God to send away all these wives and their children, according to the counsel of my lord and of those who tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law.

Ezra 10:4 Take action, for it is your duty, and we are with you; be strong, and do it.”

Ezra 10:5 Then Ezra stood up and made the leading priests, the Levites, and all Israel swear that they would do as had been said. So they swore.

Ezra 10:6 Then Ezra withdrew from before the house of God, and went to the chamber of Jehohanan son of Eliashib, where he spent the night. He did not eat bread or drink water, for he was mourning over the faithlessness of the exiles.

Ezra 10:7 They made a proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to all the returned exiles that they should assemble at Jerusalem,

Ezra 10:8 and that if any did not come within three days, by order of the officials and the elders all their property should be forfeited, and they themselves banned from the congregation of the exiles.

Ezra 10:9 Then all the people of Judah and Benjamin assembled at Jerusalem within the three days; it was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month. All the people sat in the open square before the house of God, trembling because of this matter and because of the heavy rain.

Ezra 10:10 Then Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, “You have trespassed and married foreign women, and so increased the guilt of Israel.

Ezra 10:11 Now make confession to the LORD the God of your ancestors, and do his will; separate yourselves from the peoples of the land and from the foreign wives.”

Ezra 10:12 Then all the assembly answered with a loud voice, “It is so; we must do as you have said.

Ezra 10:13 But the people are many, and it is a time of heavy rain; we cannot stand in the open. Nor is this a task for one day or for two, for many of us have transgressed in this matter.

Ezra 10:14 Let our officials represent the whole assembly, and let all in our towns who have taken foreign wives come at appointed times, and with them the elders and judges of every town, until the fierce wrath of our God on this account is averted from us.”

Ezra 10:15 Only Jonathan son of Asahel and Jahzeiah son of Tikvah opposed this, and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levites supported them.

Ezra 10:16 Then the returned exiles did so. Ezra the priest selected men, heads of families, according to their families, each of them designated by name. On the first day of the tenth month they sat down to examine the matter.

Ezra 10:17 By the first day of the first month they had come to the end of all the men who had married foreign women.

Ezra 10:18 There were found of the descendants of the priests who had married foreign women, of the descendants of Jeshua son of Jozadak and his brothers: Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah.

Ezra 10:19 They pledged themselves to send away their wives, and their guilt offering was a ram of the flock for their guilt.

Ezra 10:20 Of the descendants of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah.

Ezra 10:21 Of the descendants of Harim: Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel, and Uzziah.

Ezra 10:22 Of the descendants of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad, and Elasah.

Ezra 10:23 Of the Levites: Jozabad, Shimei, Kelaiah (that is, Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer.

Ezra 10:26 Of the descendants of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, Jehiel, Abdi, Jeremoth, and Elijah.

Ezra 10:29 Of the descendants of Bani: Meshullam, Malluch, Adaiah, Jashub, Sheal, and Jeremoth.

Ezra 10:30 Of the descendants of Pahath-moab: Adna, Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, Binnui, and Manasseh.

Ezra 10:32 Benjamin, Malluch, and Shemariah.

Ezra 10:35 Benaiah, Bedeiah, Cheluhi,

Ezra 10:36 Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib,

Ezra 10:37 Mattaniah, Mattenai, and Jaasu.

Ezra 10:38 Of the descendants of Binnui: Shimei,

Ezra 10:39 Shelemiah, Nathan, Adaiah,

Ezra 10:40 Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai,

Ezra 10:41 Azarel, Shelemiah, Shemariah,

Ezra 10:42 Shallum, Amariah, and Joseph.

Ezra 10:43 Of the descendants of Nebo: Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jaddai, Joel, and Benaiah.

Ezra 10:44 All these had married foreign women, and they sent them away with their children.

Nehemiah

1:1 The words ofNehemiah son of Hacaliah. In the month of Chislev, in the twentieth year, while I was in Susa the capital,

Nehemiah 1:2 one of my brothers, Hanani, came with certain men from Judah; and I asked them about the Jews that survived, those who had escaped the captivity, and about Jerusalem.

Nehemiah 1:3 They replied, “The survivors there in the province who escaped captivity are in great trouble and shame; the wall of Jerusalem is broken down, and its gates have been destroyed by fire.”

Nehemiah 1:4 When I heard these words I sat down and wept, and mourned for days, fasting and praying before the God of heaven.

Nehemiah 1:5 I said, “O LORD God of heaven, the great and awesome God who keeps covenant and steadfast love with those who love him and keep his commandments;

Nehemiah 1:6 let your ear be attentive and your eyes open to hear the prayer of your servant that I now pray before you day and night for your servants, the people of Israel, confessing the sins of the people of Israel, which we have sinned against you. Both I and my family have sinned.

Nehemiah 1:7 We have offended you deeply, failing to keep the commandments, the statutes, and the ordinances that you commanded your servant Moses.

Nehemiah 1:8 Remember the word that you commanded your servant Moses, ‘If you are unfaithful, I will scatter you among the peoples;

Nehemiah 1:9 but if you return to me and keep my commandments and do them, though your outcasts are under the farthest skies, I will gather them from there and bring them to the place at which I have chosen to establish my name.’

Nehemiah 1:10 They are your servants and your people, whom you redeemed by your great power and your strong hand.

Nehemiah 1:11 O Lord, let your ear be attentive to the prayer of your servant, and to the prayer of your servants who delight in revering your name. Give success to your servant today, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man!” At the time, I was cupbearer to the king.

Nehemiah 2:1 In the month of Nisan, in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, when wine was served him, I carried the wine and gave it to the king. Now, I had never been sad in his presence before.

Nehemiah 2:2 So the king said to me, “Why is your face sad, since you are not sick? This can only be sadness of the heart.” Then I was very much afraid.

Nehemiah 2:3 I said to the king, “May the king live forever! Why should my face not be sad, when the city, the place of my ancestors’ graves, lies waste, and its gates have been destroyed by fire?”

Nehemiah 2:4 Then the king said to me, “What do you request?” So I prayed to the God of heaven.

Nehemiah 2:5 Then I said to the king, “If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favor with you, I ask that you send me to Judah, to the city of my ancestors’ graves, so that I may rebuild it.”

Nehemiah 2:6 The king said to me (the queen also was sitting beside him), “How long will you be gone, and when will you return?” So it pleased the king to send me, and I set him a date.

Nehemiah 2:7 Then I said to the king, “If it pleases the king, let letters be given me to the governors of the province Beyond the River, that they may grant me passage until I arrive in Judah;

Nehemiah 2:8 and a letter to Asaph, the keeper of the king’s forest, directing him to give me timber to make beams for the gates of the temple fortress, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall occupy.” And the king granted me what I asked, for the gracious hand of my God was upon me.

Nehemiah 2:9 Then I came to the governors of the province Beyond the River, and gave them the king’s letters. Now the king had sent officers of the army and cavalry with me.

Nehemiah 2:10 When Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official heard this, it displeased them greatly that someone had come to seek the welfare of the people of Israel.

Nehemiah 2:11 So I came to Jerusalem and was there for three days.

Nehemiah 2:12 Then I got up during the night, I and a few men with me; I told no one what my God had put into my heart to do for Jerusalem. The only animal I took was the animal I rode.

Nehemiah 2:13 I went out by night by the Valley Gate past the Dragon’s Spring and to the Dung Gate, and I inspected the walls of Jerusalem that had been broken down and its gates that had been destroyed by fire.

Nehemiah 2:14 Then I went on to the Fountain Gate and to the King’s Pool; but there was no place for the animal I was riding to continue.

Nehemiah 2:15 So I went up by way of the valley by night and inspected the wall. Then I turned back and entered by the Valley Gate, and so returned.

Nehemiah 2:16 The officials did not know where I had gone or what I was doing; I had not yet told the Jews, the priests, the nobles, the officials, and the rest that were to do the work.

Nehemiah 2:17 Then I said to them, “You see the trouble we are in, how Jerusalem lies in ruins with its gates burned. Come, let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem, so that we may no longer suffer disgrace.”

Nehemiah 2:18 I told them that the hand of my God had been gracious upon me, and also the words that the king had spoken to me. Then they said, “Let us start building!” So they committed themselves to the common good.

Nehemiah 2:19 But when Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official, and Geshem the Arab heard of it, they mocked and ridiculed us, saying, “What is this that you are doing? Are you rebelling against the king?”

Nehemiah 2:20 Then I replied to them, “The God of heaven is the one who will give us success, and we his servants are going to start building; but you have no share or claim or historic right in Jerusalem.”

Nehemiah 3:1 Then the high priest Eliashib set to work with his fellow priests and rebuilt the Sheep Gate. They consecrated it and set up its doors; they consecrated it as far as the Tower of the Hundred and as far as the Tower of Hananel.

Nehemiah 3:2 And the men of Jericho built next to him. And next to them Zaccur son of Imri built.

Nehemiah 3:3 The sons of Hassenaah built the Fish Gate; they laid its beams and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars.

Nehemiah 3:4 Next to them Meremoth son of Uriah son of Hakkoz made repairs. Next to them Meshullam son of Berechiah son of Meshezabel made repairs. Next to them Zadok son of Baana made repairs.

Nehemiah 3:5 Next to them the Tekoites made repairs; but their nobles would not put their shoulders to the work of their Lord.

Nehemiah 3:6 Joiada son of Paseah and Meshullam son of Besodeiah repaired the Old Gate; they laid its beams and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars.

Nehemiah 3:7 Next to them repairs were made by Melatiah the Gibeonite and Jadon the Meronothite— the men of Gibeon and of Mizpah— who were under the jurisdiction of the governor of the province Beyond the River.

Nehemiah 3:8 Next to them Uzziel son of Harhaiah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs. Next to him Hananiah, one of the perfumers, made repairs; and they restored Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.

Nehemiah 3:9 Next to them Rephaiah son of Hur, ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs.

Nehemiah 3:10 Next to them Jedaiah son of Harumaph made repairs opposite his house; and next to him Hattush son of Hashabneiah made repairs.

Nehemiah 3:11 Malchijah son of Harim and Hasshub son of Pahath-moab repaired another section and the Tower of the Ovens.

Nehemiah 3:12 Next to him Shallum son of Hallohesh, ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs, he and his daughters.

Nehemiah 3:13 Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired the Valley Gate; they rebuilt it and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars, and repaired a thousand cubits of the wall, as far as the Dung Gate.

Nehemiah 3:14 Malchijah son of Rechab, ruler of the district of Beth-haccherem, repaired the Dung Gate; he rebuilt it and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars.

Nehemiah 3:15 And Shallum son of Col-hozeh, ruler of the district of Mizpah, repaired the Fountain Gate; he rebuilt it and covered it and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars; and he built the wall of the Pool of Shelah of the king’s garden, as far as the stairs that go down from the City of David.

Nehemiah 3:16 After him Nehemiah son of Azbuk, ruler of half the district of Beth-zur, repaired from a point opposite the graves of David, as far as the artificial pool and the house of the warriors.

Nehemiah 3:17 After him the Levites made repairs: Rehum son of Bani; next to him Hashabiah, ruler of half the district of Keilah, made repairs for his district.

Nehemiah 3:18 After him their kin made repairs: Binnui, son of Henadad, ruler of half the district of Keilah;

Nehemiah 3:19 next to him Ezer son of Jeshua, ruler of Mizpah, repaired another section opposite the ascent to the armory at the Angle.

Nehemiah 3:20 After him Baruch son of Zabbai repaired another section from the Angle to the door of the house of the high priest Eliashib.

Nehemiah 3:21 After him Meremoth son of Uriah son of Hakkoz repaired another section from the door of the house of Eliashib to the end of the house of Eliashib.

Nehemiah 3:22 After him the priests, the men of the surrounding area, made repairs.

Nehemiah 3:23 After them Benjamin and Hasshub made repairs opposite their house. After them Azariah son of Maaseiah son of Ananiah made repairs beside his own house.

Nehemiah 3:24 After him Binnui son of Henadad repaired another section, from the house of Azariah to the Angle and to the corner.

Nehemiah 3:25 Palal son of Uzai repaired opposite the Angle and the tower projecting from the upper house of the king at the court of the guard. After him Pedaiah son of Parosh

Nehemiah 3:26 and the temple servants living on Ophel made repairs up to a point opposite the Water Gate on the east and the projecting tower.

Nehemiah 3:29 After them Zadok son of Immer made repairs opposite his own house. After him Shemaiah son of Shecaniah, the keeper of the East Gate, made repairs.

Nehemiah 3:30 After him Hananiah son of Shelemiah and Hanun sixth son of Zalaph repaired another section. After him Meshullam son of Berechiah made repairs opposite his living quarters.

Nehemiah 3:31 After him Malchijah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs as far as the house of the temple servants and of the merchants, opposite the Muster Gate, and to the upper room of the corner.

Nehemiah 3:32 And between the upper room of the corner and the Sheep Gate the goldsmiths and the merchants made repairs.

Nehemiah 4:1 Now when Sanballat heard that we were building the wall, he was angry and greatly enraged, and he mocked the Jews.

Nehemiah 4:2 He said in the presence of his associates and of the army of Samaria, “What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they restore things? Will they sacrifice? Will they finish it in a day? Will they revive the stones out of the heaps of rubbish— and burned ones at that?”

Nehemiah 4:3 Tobiah the Ammonite was beside him, and he said, “That stone wall they are building— any fox going up on it would break it down!”

Nehemiah 4:4 Hear, O our God, for we are despised; turn their taunt back on their own heads, and give them over as plunder in a land of captivity.

Nehemiah 4:5 Do not cover their guilt, and do not let their sin be blotted out from your sight; for they have hurled insults in the face of the builders.

Nehemiah 4:6 So we rebuilt the wall, and all the wall was joined together to half its height; for the people had a mind to work.

Nehemiah 4:7 But when Sanballat and Tobiah and the Arabs and the Ammonites and the Ashdodites heard that the repairing of the walls of Jerusalem was going forward and the gaps were beginning to be closed, they were very angry,

Nehemiah 4:8 and all plotted together to come and fight against Jerusalem and to cause confusion in it.

Nehemiah 4:9 So we prayed to our God, and set a guard as a protection against them day and night.

Nehemiah 4:10 But Judah said, “The strength of the burden bearers is failing, and there is too much rubbish so that we are unable to work on the wall.”

Nehemiah 4:11 And our enemies said, “They will not know or see anything before we come upon them and kill them and stop the work.”

Nehemiah 4:12 When the Jews who lived near them came, they said to us ten times, “From all the places where they live they will come up against us.”

Nehemiah 4:13 So in the lowest parts of the space behind the wall, in open places, I stationed the people according to their families, with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

Nehemiah 4:14 After I looked these things over, I stood up and said to the nobles and the officials and the rest of the people, “Do not be afraid of them. Remember the LORD, who is great and awesome, and fight for your kin, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your homes.”

Nehemiah 4:15 When our enemies heard that their plot was known to us, and that God had frustrated it, we all returned to the wall, each to his work.

Nehemiah 4:16 From that day on, half of my servants worked on construction, and half held the spears, shields, bows, and body-armor; and the leaders posted themselves behind the whole house of Judah,

Nehemiah 4:17 who were building the wall. The burden bearers carried their loads in such a way that each labored on the work with one hand and with the other held a weapon.

Nehemiah 4:18 And each of the builders had his sword strapped at his side while he built. The man who sounded the trumpet was beside me.

Nehemiah 4:19 And I said to the nobles, the officials, and the rest of the people, “The work is great and widely spread out, and we are separated far from one another on the wall.

Nehemiah 4:20 Rally to us wherever you hear the sound of the trumpet. Our God will fight for us.”

Nehemiah 4:21 So we labored at the work, and half of them held the spears from break of dawn until the stars came out.

Nehemiah 4:22 I also said to the people at that time, “Let every man and his servant pass the night inside Jerusalem, so that they may be a guard for us by night and may labor by day.”

Nehemiah 4:23 So neither I nor my brothers nor my servants nor the men of the guard who followed me ever took off our clothes; each kept his weapon in his right hand.

Nehemiah 5:1 Now there was a great outcry of the people and of their wives against their Jewish kin.

Nehemiah 5:2 For there were those who said, “With our sons and our daughters, we are many; we must get grain, so that we may eat and stay alive.”

Nehemiah 5:3 There were also those who said, “We are having to pledge our fields, our vineyards, and our houses in order to get grain during the famine.”

Nehemiah 5:4 And there were those who said, “We are having to borrow money on our fields and vineyards to pay the king’s tax.

Nehemiah 5:5 Now our flesh is the same as that of our kindred; our children are the same as their children; and yet we are forcing our sons and daughters to be slaves, and some of our daughters have been ravished; we are powerless, and our fields and vineyards now belong to others.”

Nehemiah 5:6 I was very angry when I heard their outcry and these complaints.

Nehemiah 5:7 After thinking it over, I brought charges against the nobles and the officials; I said to them, “You are all taking interest from your own people.” And I called a great assembly to deal with them,

Nehemiah 5:8 and said to them, “As far as we were able, we have bought back our Jewish kindred who had been sold to other nations; but now you are selling your own kin, who must then be bought back by us!” They were silent, and could not find a word to say.

Nehemiah 5:9 So I said, “The thing that you are doing is not good. Should you not walk in the fear of our God, to prevent the taunts of the nations our enemies?

Nehemiah 5:10 Moreover I and my brothers and my servants are lending them money and grain. Let us stop this taking of interest.

Nehemiah 5:11 Restore to them, this very day, their fields, their vineyards, their olive orchards, and their houses, and the interest on money, grain, wine, and oil that you have been exacting from them.”

Nehemiah 5:12 Then they said, “We will restore everything and demand nothing more from them. We will do as you say.” And I called the priests, and made them take an oath to do as they had promised.

Nehemiah 5:13 I also shook out the fold of my garment and said, “So may God shake out everyone from house and from property who does not perform this promise. Thus may they be shaken out and emptied.” And all the assembly said, “Amen,” and praised the LORD. And the people did as they had promised.

Nehemiah 5:14 Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year to the thirty-second year of King Artaxerxes, twelve years, neither I nor my brothers ate the food allowance of the governor.

Nehemiah 5:15 The former governors who were before me laid heavy burdens on the people, and took food and wine from them, besides forty shekels of silver. Even their servants lorded it over the people. But I did not do so, because of the fear of God.

Nehemiah 5:16 Indeed, I devoted myself to the work on this wall, and acquired no land; and all my servants were gathered there for the work.

Nehemiah 5:17 Moreover there were at my table one hundred fifty people, Jews and officials, besides those who came to us from the nations around us.

Nehemiah 5:18 Now that which was prepared for one day was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and every ten days skins of wine in abundance; yet with all this I did not demand the food allowance of the governor, because of the heavy burden of labor on the people.

Nehemiah 5:19 Remember for my good, O my God, all that I have done for this people.

Nehemiah 6:1 Now when it was reported to Sanballat and Tobiah and to Geshem the Arab and to the rest of our enemies that I had built the wall and that there was no gap left in it (though up to that time I had not set up the doors in the gates),

Nehemiah 6:2 Sanballat and Geshem sent to me, saying, “Come and let us meet together in one of the villages in the plain of Ono.” But they intended to do me harm.

Nehemiah 6:3 So I sent messengers to them, saying, “I am doing a great work and I cannot come down. Why should the work stop while I leave it to come down to you?”

Nehemiah 6:4 They sent to me four times in this way, and I answered them in the same manner.

Nehemiah 6:5 In the same way Sanballat for the fifth time sent his servant to me with an open letter in his hand.

Nehemiah 6:6 In it was written, “It is reported among the nations— and Geshem also says it— that you and the Jews intend to rebel; that is why you are building the wall; and according to this report you wish to become their king.

Nehemiah 6:7 You have also set up prophets to proclaim in Jerusalem concerning you, ‘There is a king in Judah!’ And now it will be reported to the king according to these words. So come, therefore, and let us confer together.”

Nehemiah 6:8 Then I sent to him, saying, “No such things as you say have been done; you are inventing them out of your own mind”

Nehemiah 6:9 —for they all wanted to frighten us, thinking, “Their hands will drop from the work, and it will not be done.” But now, O God, strengthen my hands.

Nehemiah 6:10 One day when I went into the house of Shemaiah son of Delaiah son of Mehetabel, who was confined to his house, he said, “Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us close the doors of the temple, for they are coming to kill you; indeed, tonight they are coming to kill you.”

Nehemiah 6:11 But I said, “Should a man like me run away? Would a man like me go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in!”

Nehemiah 6:12 Then I perceived and saw that God had not sent him at all, but he had pronounced the prophecy against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

Nehemiah 6:13 He was hired for this purpose, to intimidate me and make me sin by acting in this way, and so they could give me a bad name, in order to taunt me.

Nehemiah 6:14 Remember Tobiah and Sanballat, O my God, according to these things that they did, and also the prophetess Noadiah and the rest of the prophets who wanted to make me afraid.

Nehemiah 6:15 So the wall was finished on the twenty-fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty-two days.

Nehemiah 6:16 And when all our enemies heard of it, all the nations around us were afraid and fell greatly in their own esteem; for they perceived that this work had been accomplished with the help of our God.

Nehemiah 6:17 Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters to Tobiah, and Tobiah's letters came to them.

Nehemiah 6:18 For many in Judah were bound by oath to him, because he was the son-in-law of Shecaniah son of Arah: and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam son of Berechiah.

Nehemiah 6:19 Also they spoke of his good deeds in my presence, and reported my words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to intimidate me.

Nehemiah 7:1 Now when the wall had been built and I had set up the doors, and the gatekeepers, the singers, and the Levites had been appointed,

Nehemiah 7:2 I gave my brother Hanani charge over Jerusalem, along with Hananiah the commander of the citadel— for he was a faithful man and feared God more than many.

Nehemiah 7:3 And I said to them, "The gates of Jerusalem are not to be opened until the sun is hot; while the gatekeepers are still standing guard, let them shut and bar the doors. Appoint guards from among the inhabitants of Jerusalem, some at their watch posts, and others before their own houses."

Nehemiah 7:4 The city was wide and large, but the people within it were few and no houses had been built.

Nehemiah 7:5 Then my God put it into my mind to assemble the nobles and the officials and the people to be enrolled by genealogy. And I found the book of the genealogy of those who were the first to come back, and I found the following written in it:

Nehemiah 7:6 These are the people of the province who came up out of the captivity of those exiles whom King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon had carried into exile; they returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his town.

Nehemiah 7:36 Of Jericho, three hundred forty-five.

Nehemiah 7:38 Of Senaah, three thousand nine hundred thirty.

Nehemiah 7:39 The priests: the descendants of Jedaiah, namely the house of Jeshua, nine hundred seventy-three.

Nehemiah 7:40 Of Immer, one thousand fifty-two.

Nehemiah 7:41 Of Pashhur, one thousand two hundred forty-seven.

Nehemiah 7:42 Of Harim, one thousand seventeen.

Nehemiah 7:43 The Levites: the descendants of Jeshua, namely of Kadmiel of the descendants of Hodevah, seventy-four.

Nehemiah 7:45 The gatekeepers: the descendants of Shallum, of Ater, of Talmon, of Akkub, of Hatita, of Shobai, one hundred thirty-eight.

Nehemiah 7:46 The temple servants: the descendants of Ziha, of Hasupha, of Tabbaoth,

Nehemiah 7:47 of Keros, of Sia, of Padon,

Nehemiah 7:48 of Lebana, of Hagaba, of Shalmai,

Nehemiah 7:49 of Hanan, of Giddel, of Gahar,

Nehemiah 7:50 of Reaiah, of Rezin, of Nekoda,

Nehemiah 7:51 of Gazzam, of Uzza, of Paseah,

Nehemiah 7:52 of Besai, of Meunim, of Nephushesim,

Nehemiah 7:54 of Bazlith, of Mehida, of Harsha,

Nehemiah 7:55 of Barkos, of Sisera, of Temah,

Nehemiah 7:56 of Neziah, of Hatipha.

Nehemiah 7:57 The descendants of Solomon’s servants: of Sotai, of Sophereth, of Perida,

Nehemiah 7:58 of Jaala, of Darkon, of Giddel,

Nehemiah 7:60 All the temple servants and the descendants of Solomon’s servants were three hundred ninety-two.

Nehemiah 7:61 The following were those who came up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer, but they could not prove their ancestral houses or their descent, whether they belonged to Israel:

Nehemiah 7:62 the descendants of Delaiah, of Tobiah, of Nekoda, six hundred forty-two.

Nehemiah 7:63 Also, of the priests: the descendants of Hobaiah, of Hakkoz, of Barzillai (who had married one of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite and was called by their name).

Nehemiah 7:64 These sought their registration among those enrolled in the genealogies, but it was not found there, so they were excluded from the priesthood as unclean;

Nehemiah 7:65 the governor told them that they were not to partake of the most holy food, until a priest with Urim and Thummim should come.

Nehemiah 7:66 The whole assembly together was forty-two thousand three hundred sixty, Nehemiah 7:67 besides their male and female slaves, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty-seven; and they had two hundred forty-five singers, male and female.

Nehemiah 7:68 They had seven hundred thirty-six horses, two hundred forty-five mules,

Nehemiah 7:69 four hundred thirty-five camels, and six thousand seven hundred twenty donkeys.

Nehemiah 7:70 Now some of the heads of ancestral houses contributed to the work. The governor gave to the treasury one thousand darics of gold, fifty basins, and five hundred thirty priestly robes.

Nehemiah 7:71 And some of the heads of ancestral houses gave into the building fund twenty thousand darics of gold and two thousand two hundred minas of silver.

Nehemiah 7:72 And what the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand darics of gold, two thousand minas of silver, and sixty-seven priestly robes.

Nehemiah 7:73 So the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, some of the people, the temple servants, and all Israel settled in their towns. When the seventh month came— the people of Israel being settled in their towns—

Nehemiah 8:1 all the people gathered together into the square before the Water Gate. They told the scribe Ezra to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had given to Israel.

Nehemiah 8:2 Accordingly, the priest Ezra brought the law before the assembly, both men and women and all who could hear with understanding. This was on the first day of the seventh month.

Nehemiah 8:3 He read from it facing the square before the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the law.

Nehemiah 8:4 The scribe Ezra stood on a wooden platform that had been made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah, and Maaseiah on his right hand; and Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hash-baddanah, Zechariah, and Meshullam on his left hand.

Nehemiah 8:5 And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was standing above all the people; and when he opened it, all the people stood up.

Nehemiah 8:6 Then Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God, and all the people answered, “Amen, Amen,” lifting up their hands. Then they bowed their heads and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

Nehemiah 8:7 Also Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, the Levites, helped the people to understand the law, while the people remained in their places.

Nehemiah 8:8 So they read from the book, from the law of God, with interpretation. They gave the sense, so that the people understood the reading.

Nehemiah 8:9 And Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, “This day is holy to the LORD your God; do not mourn or weep.” For all the people wept when they heard the words of the law.

Nehemiah 8:10 Then he said to them, “Go your way, eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions of them to those for whom nothing is prepared, for this day is holy to our LORD; and do not be grieved, for the joy of the LORD is your strength.”

Nehemiah 8:11 So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, “Be quiet, for this day is holy; do not be grieved.”

Nehemiah 8:12 And all the people went their way to eat and drink and to send portions and to make great rejoicing, because they had understood the words that were declared to them.

Nehemiah 8:13 On the second day the heads of ancestral houses of all the people, with the priests and the Levites, came together to the scribe Ezra in order to study the words of the law.

Nehemiah 8:14 And they found it written in the law, which the LORD had commanded by Moses, that the people of Israel should live in booths during the festival of the seventh month,

Nehemiah 8:15 and that they should publish and proclaim in all their towns and in Jerusalem as follows, “Go out to the hills and bring branches of olive, wild olive, myrtle, palm, and other leafy trees to make booths, as it is written.”

Nehemiah 8:16 So the people went out and brought them, and made booths for themselves, each on the roofs of their houses, and in their courts and in the courts of the house of God, and in the square at the Water Gate and in the square at the Gate of Ephraim.

Nehemiah 8:17 And all the assembly of those who had returned from the captivity made booths and lived in them; for from the days of Jeshua son of Nun to that day the people of Israel had not done so. And there was very great rejoicing.

Nehemiah 8:18 And day by day, from the first day to the last day, he read from the book of the law of God. They kept the festival seven days; and on the eighth day there was a solemn assembly, according to the ordinance.

Nehemiah 9:1 Now on the twenty-fourth day of this month the people of Israel were assembled with fasting and in sackcloth, and with earth on their heads.

Nehemiah 9:2 Then those of Israelite descent separated themselves from all foreigners, and stood and confessed their sins and the iniquities of their ancestors.

Nehemiah 9:3 They stood up in their place and read from the book of the law of the LORD their God for a fourth part of the day, and for another fourth they made confession and worshiped the LORD their God.

Nehemiah 9:4 Then Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani stood on the stairs of the Levites and cried out with a loud voice to the LORD their God.

Nehemiah 9:5 Then the Levites, Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, "Stand up and bless the LORD your God from everlasting to everlasting. Blessed be your glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise."

Nehemiah 9:6 And Ezra said: "You are the LORD, you alone; you have made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth and all that is on it, the seas and all that is in them. To all of them you give life, and the host of heaven worships you.

Nehemiah 9:7 You are the LORD, the God who chose Abram and brought him out of Ur of the Chaldeans and gave him the name Abraham;

Nehemiah 9:8 and you found his heart faithful before you, and made with him a covenant to give to his descendants the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Perizzite, the Jebusite, and the Girgashite; and you have fulfilled your promise, for you are righteous.

Nehemiah 9:9 "And you saw the distress of our ancestors in Egypt and heard their cry at the Red Sea.

Nehemiah 9:10 You performed signs and wonders against Pharaoh and all his servants and all the people of his land, for you knew that they acted insolently against our ancestors. You made a name for yourself, which remains to this day.

Nehemiah 9:11 And you divided the sea before them, so that they passed through the sea on dry land, but you threw their pursuers into the depths, like a stone into mighty waters.

Nehemiah 9:12 Moreover, you led them by day with a pillar of cloud, and by night with a pillar of fire, to give them light on the way in which they should go.

Nehemiah 9:13 You came down also upon Mount Sinai, and spoke with them from heaven, and gave them right ordinances and true laws, good statutes and commandments, Nehemiah 9:14 and you made known your holy sabbath to them and gave them commandments and statutes and a law through your servant Moses.

Nehemiah 9:15 For their hunger you gave them bread from heaven, and for their thirst you brought water for them out of the rock, and you told them to go in to possess the land that you swore to give them.

Nehemiah 9:16 “But they and our ancestors acted presumptuously and stiffened their necks and did not obey your commandments;

Nehemiah 9:17 they refused to obey, and were not mindful of the wonders that you performed among them; but they stiffened their necks and determined to return to their slavery in Egypt. But you are a God ready to forgive, gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love, and you did not forsake them.

Nehemiah 9:18 Even when they had cast an image of a calf for themselves and said, ‘This is your God who brought you up out of Egypt,’ and had committed great blasphemies,

Nehemiah 9:19 you in your great mercies did not forsake them in the wilderness; the pillar of cloud that led them in the way did not leave them by day, nor the pillar of fire by night that gave them light on the way by which they should go.

Nehemiah 9:20 You gave your good spirit to instruct them, and did not withhold your manna from their mouths, and gave them water for their thirst.

Nehemiah 9:21 Forty years you sustained them in the wilderness so that they lacked nothing; their clothes did not wear out and their feet did not swell.

Nehemiah 9:22 And you gave them kingdoms and peoples, and allotted to them every corner, so they took possession of the land of King Sihon of Heshbon and the land of King Og of Bashan.

Nehemiah 9:23 You multiplied their descendants like the stars of heaven, and brought them into the land that you had told their ancestors to enter and possess.

Nehemiah 9:24 So the descendants went in and possessed the land, and you subdued before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gave them into their hands, with their kings and the peoples of the land, to do with them as they pleased.

Nehemiah 9:25 And they captured fortress cities and a rich land, and took possession of houses filled with all sorts of goods, hewn cisterns, vineyards, olive orchards, and fruit trees in abundance; so they ate, and were filled and became fat, and delighted themselves in your great goodness.

Nehemiah 9:26 “Nevertheless they were disobedient and rebelled against you and cast your law behind their backs and killed your prophets, who had warned them in order to turn them back to you, and they committed great blasphemies.

Nehemiah 9:27 Therefore you gave them into the hands of their enemies, who made them suffer. Then in the time of their suffering they cried out to you and you heard them from heaven, and according to your great mercies you gave them saviors who saved them from the hands of their enemies.

Nehemiah 9:28 But after they had rest, they again did evil before you, and you abandoned them to the hands of their enemies, so that they had dominion over them; yet when they turned and cried to you, you heard from heaven, and many times you rescued them according to your mercies.

Nehemiah 9:29 And you warned them in order to turn them back to your law. Yet they acted presumptuously and did not obey your commandments, but sinned against your ordinances, by the observance of which a person shall live. They turned a stubborn shoulder and stiffened their neck and would not obey.

Nehemiah 9:30 Many years you were patient with them, and warned them by your spirit through your prophets; yet they would not listen. Therefore you handed them over to the peoples of the lands.

Nehemiah 9:31 Nevertheless, in your great mercies you did not make an end of them or forsake them, for you are a gracious and merciful God.

Nehemiah 9:32 “Now therefore, our God— the great and mighty and awesome God, keeping covenant and steadfast love— do not treat lightly all the hardship that has come upon us, upon our kings, our officials, our priests, our prophets, our ancestors, and all your people, since the time of the kings of Assyria until today.

Nehemiah 9:33 You have been just in all that has come upon us, for you have dealt faithfully and we have acted wickedly;

Nehemiah 9:34 our kings, our officials, our priests, and our ancestors have not kept your law or heeded the commandments and the warnings that you gave them.

Nehemiah 9:35 Even in their own kingdom, and in the great goodness you bestowed on them, and in the large and rich land that you set before them, they did not serve you and did not turn from their wicked works.

Nehemiah 9:36 Here we are, slaves to this day— slaves in the land that you gave to our ancestors to enjoy its fruit and its good gifts.

Nehemiah 9:37 Its rich yield goes to the kings whom you have set over us because of our sins; they have power also over our bodies and over our livestock at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.”

Nehemiah 9:38 Because of all this we make a firm agreement in writing, and on that sealed document are inscribed the names of our officials, our Levites, and our priests.

Nehemiah 10:1 Upon the sealed document are the names of Nehemiah the governor, son of Hacaliah, and Zedekiah;

Nehemiah 10:26 Ahiah, Hanan, Anan,

Nehemiah 10:27 Malluch, Harim, and Baanah.

Nehemiah 10:28 The rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the temple servants, and all who have separated themselves from the peoples of the lands to adhere to the law of God, their wives, their sons, their daughters, all who have knowledge and understanding, Nehemiah 10:29 join with their kin, their nobles, and enter into a curse and an oath to walk in God’s law, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the LORD our Lord and his ordinances and his statutes.

Nehemiah 10:30 We will not give our daughters to the peoples of the land or take their daughters for our sons;

Nehemiah 10:31 and if the peoples of the land bring in merchandise or any grain on the sabbath day to sell, we will not buy it from them on the sabbath or on a holy day; and we will forego the crops of the seventh year and the exaction of every debt.

Nehemiah 10:32 We also lay on ourselves the obligation to charge ourselves yearly one-third of a shekel for the service of the house of our God:

Nehemiah 10:33 for the rows of bread, the regular grain offering, the regular burnt offering, the sabbaths, the new moons, the appointed festivals, the sacred donations, and the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the house of our God.

Nehemiah 10:34 We have also cast lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people, for the wood offering, to bring it into the house of our God, by ancestral houses, at appointed times, year by year, to burn on the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the law.

Nehemiah 10:35 We obligate ourselves to bring the first fruits of our soil and the first fruits of all fruit of every tree, year by year, to the house of the LORD;

Nehemiah 10:36 also to bring to the house of our God, to the priests who minister in the house of our God, the firstborn of our sons and of our livestock, as it is written in the law, and the firstlings of our herds and of our flocks;

Nehemiah 10:37 and to bring the first of our dough, and our contributions, the fruit of every tree, the wine and the oil, to the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God; and to bring to the Levites the tithes from our soil, for it is the Levites who collect the tithes in all our rural towns.

Nehemiah 10:38 And the priest, the descendant of Aaron, shall be with the Levites when the Levites receive the tithes; and the Levites shall bring up a tithe of the tithes to the house of our God, to the chambers of the storehouse.

Nehemiah 10:39 For the people of Israel and the sons of Levi shall bring the contribution of grain, wine, and oil to the storerooms where the vessels of the sanctuary are, and where the priests that minister, and the gatekeepers and the singers are. We will not neglect the house of our God.

Nehemiah 11:1 Now the leaders of the people lived in Jerusalem; and the rest of the people cast lots to bring one out of ten to live in the holy city Jerusalem, while nine-tenths remained in the other towns.

Nehemiah 11:2 And the people blessed all those who willingly offered to live in Jerusalem.

Nehemiah 11:3 These are the leaders of the province who lived in Jerusalem; but in the towns of Judah all lived on their property in their towns: Israel, the priests, the Levites, the temple servants, and the descendants of Solomon's servants.

Nehemiah 11:4 And in Jerusalem lived some of the Judahites and of the Benjaminites. Of the Judahites: Athaiah son of Uzziah son of Zechariah son of Amariah son of Shephatiah son of Mahalalel, of the descendants of Perez;

Nehemiah 11:5 and Maaseiah son of Baruch son of Col-hozeh son of Hazaiah son of Adaiah son of Joiarib son of Zechariah son of the Shilonite.

Nehemiah 11:6 All the descendants of Perez who lived in Jerusalem were four hundred sixty-eight valiant warriors.

Nehemiah 11:7 And these are the Benjaminites: Sallu son of Meshullam son of Joed son of Pedaiah son of Kolaiah son of Maaseiah son of Ithiel son of Jeshaiah.

Nehemiah 11:8 And his brothers Gabbai, Sallai: nine hundred twenty-eight.

Nehemiah 11:9 Joel son of Zichri was their overseer; and Judah son of Hassenuah was second in charge of the city.

Nehemiah 11:10 Of the priests: Jedaiah son of Joiarib, Jachin,

Nehemiah 11:11 Seraiah son of Hilkiah son of Meshullam son of Zadok son of Meraioth son of Ahitub, officer of the house of God,

Nehemiah 11:12 and their associates who did the work of the house, eight hundred twenty-two; and Adaiah son of Jeroham son of Pelaliah son of Amzi son of Zechariah son of Pashhur son of Malchijah,

Nehemiah 11:13 and his associates, heads of ancestral houses, two hundred forty-two; and Amashsai son of Azarel son of Ahzai son of Meshillemoth son of Immer,

Nehemiah 11:14 and their associates, valiant warriors, one hundred twenty-eight; their overseer was Zabdiel son of Haggedolim.

Nehemiah 11:15 And of the Levites: Shemaiah son of Hasshub son of Azrikam son of Hashabiah son of Bunni;

Nehemiah 11:16 and Shabbethai and Jozabad, of the leaders of the Levites, who were over the outside work of the house of God;

Nehemiah 11:17 and Mattaniah son of Mica son of Zabdi son of Asaph, who was the leader to begin the thanksgiving in prayer, and Bakbukiah, the second among his associates; and Abda son of Shammua son of Galal son of Jeduthun.

Nehemiah 11:18 All the Levites in the holy city were two hundred eighty-four.

Nehemiah 11:19 The gatekeepers, Akkub, Talmon and their associates, who kept watch at the gates, were one hundred seventy-two.

Nehemiah 11:20 And the rest of Israel, and of the priests and the Levites, were in all the towns of Judah, all of them in their inheritance.

Nehemiah 11:21 But the temple servants lived on Ophel; and Ziha and Gishpa were over the temple servants.

Nehemiah 11:22 The overseer of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi son of Bani son of Hashabiah son of Mattaniah son of Mica, of the descendants of Asaph, the singers, in charge of the work of the house of God.

Nehemiah 11:23 For there was a command from the king concerning them, and a settled provision for the singers, as was required every day.

Nehemiah 11:24 And Pethahiah son of Meshezabel, of the descendants of Zerah son of Judah, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people.

Nehemiah 11:25 And as for the villages, with their fields, some of the people of Judah lived in Kiriath-arba and its villages, and in Dibon and its villages, and in Jekabzeel and its villages,

Nehemiah 11:26 and in Jeshua and in Moladah and Beth-pelet,

Nehemiah 11:27 in Hazar-shual, in Beer-sheba and its villages,

Nehemiah 11:28 in Ziklag, in Meconah and its villages,

Nehemiah 11:29 in En-rimmon, in Zorah, in Jarmuth,

Nehemiah 11:30 Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages, Lachish and its fields, and Azekah and its villages. So they camped from Beer-sheba to the valley of Hinnom.

Nehemiah 11:31 The people of Benjamin also lived from Geba onward, at Michmash, Aija, Bethel and its villages,

Nehemiah 11:32 Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah,

Nehemiah 11:33 Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim,

Nehemiah 11:34 Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat,

Nehemiah 11:35 Lod, and Ono, the valley of artisans.

Nehemiah 11:36 And certain divisions of the Levites in Judah were joined to Benjamin.

Nehemiah 12:1 These are the priests and the Levites who came up with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,

Nehemiah 12:2 Amariah, Malluch, Hattush,

Nehemiah 12:3 Shecaniah, Rehum, Meremoth, Nehemiah 12:4 Iddo, Ginnethoi, Abijah,

Nehemiah 12:5 Mijamin, Maadiah, Bilgah,

Nehemiah 12:6 Shemaiah, Joiarib, Jedaiah,

Nehemiah 12:7 Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, Jedaiah. These were the leaders of the priests and of their associates in the days of Jeshua.

Nehemiah 12:8 And the Levites: Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah, who with his associates was in charge of the songs of thanksgiving.

Nehemiah 12:9 And Bakbukiah and Unno their associates stood opposite them in the service.

Nehemiah 12:10 Jeshua was the father of Joiakim, Joiakim the father of Eliashib, Eliashib the father of Joiada, Nehemiah 12:11 Joiada the father of Jonathan, and Jonathan the father of Jaddua.

Nehemiah 12:12 In the days of Joiakim the priests, heads of ancestral houses, were: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah;

Nehemiah 12:13 of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan;

Nehemiah 12:14 of Malluchi, Jonathan; of Shebaniah, Joseph;

Nehemiah 12:15 of Harim, Adna; of Meraioth, Helkai;

Nehemiah 12:16 of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam;

Nehemiah 12:18 of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan;

Nehemiah 12:19 of Joiarib, Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi;

Nehemiah 12:20 of Sallai, Kallai; of Amok, Eber;

Nehemiah 12:22 As for the Levites, in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan, and Jaddua, there were recorded the heads of ancestral houses; also the priests until the reign of Darius the Persian.

Nehemiah 12:23 The Levites, heads of ancestral houses, were recorded in the Book of the Annals until the days of Johanan son of Eliashib.

Nehemiah 12:24 And the leaders of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua son of Kadmiel, with their associates over against them, to praise and to give thanks, according to the commandment of David the man of God, section opposite to section.

Nehemiah 12:25 Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub were gatekeepers standing guard at the storehouses of the gates.

Nehemiah 12:26 These were in the days of Joiakim son of Jeshua son of Jozadak, and in the days of the governor Nehemiah and of the priest Ezra, the scribe.

Nehemiah 12:27 Now at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought out the Levites in all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem to celebrate the dedication with rejoicing, with thanksgivings and with singing, with cymbals, harps, and lyres.

Nehemiah 12:28 The companies of the singers gathered together from the circuit around Jerusalem and from the villages of the Netophathites;

Nehemiah 12:29 also from Beth-gilgal and from the region of Geba and Azmaveth; for the singers had built for themselves villages around Jerusalem.

Nehemiah 12:30 And the priests and the Levites purified themselves; and they purified the people and the gates and the wall.

Nehemiah 12:31 Then I brought the leaders of Judah up onto the wall, and appointed two great companies that gave thanks and went in procession. One went to the right on the wall to the Dung Gate;

Nehemiah 12:32 and after them went Hoshaiah and half the officials of Judah,

Nehemiah 12:33 and Azariah, Ezra, Meshullam,

Nehemiah 12:34 Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah, and Jeremiah,

Nehemiah 12:35 and some of the young priests with trumpets: Zechariah son of Jonathan son of Shemaiah son of Mattaniah son of Micaiah son of Zaccur son of Asaph;

Nehemiah 12:36 and his kindred, Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah, and Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God; and the scribe Ezra went in front of them.

Nehemiah 12:37 At the Fountain Gate, in front of them, they went straight up by the stairs of the city of David, at the ascent of the wall, above the house of David, to the Water Gate on the east.

Nehemiah 12:38 The other company of those who gave thanks went to the left, and I followed them with half of the people on the wall, above the Tower of the Ovens, to the Broad Wall,

Nehemiah 12:39 and above the Gate of Ephraim, and by the Old Gate, and by the Fish Gate and the Tower of Hananel and the Tower of the Hundred, to the Sheep Gate; and they came to a halt at the Gate of the Guard.

Nehemiah 12:40 So both companies of those who gave thanks stood in the house of God, and I and half of the officials with me;

Nehemiah 12:41 and the priests Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets;

Nehemiah 12:42 and Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malchijah, Elam, and Ezer. And the singers sang with Jezrahiah as their leader.

Nehemiah 12:43 They offered great sacrifices that day and rejoiced, for God had made them rejoice with great joy; the women and children also rejoiced. The joy of Jerusalem was heard far away.

Nehemiah 12:44 On that day men were appointed over the chambers for the stores, the contributions, the first fruits, and the tithes, to gather into them the portions required by the law for the priests and for the Levites from the fields belonging to the towns; for Judah rejoiced over the priests and the Levites who ministered.

Nehemiah 12:45 They performed the service of their God and the service of purification, as did the singers and the gatekeepers, according to the command of David and his son Solomon.

Nehemiah 12:46 For in the days of David and Asaph long ago there was a leader of the singers, and there were songs of praise and thanksgiving to God.

Nehemiah 12:47 In the days of Zerubbabel and in the days of Nehemiah all Israel gave the daily portions for the singers and the gatekeepers. They set apart that which was for the Levites; and the Levites set apart that which was for the descendants of Aaron.

Nehemiah 13:1 On that day they read from the book of Moses in the hearing of the people; and in it was found written that no Ammonite or Moabite should ever enter the assembly of God,

Nehemiah 13:2 because they did not meet the Israelites with bread and water, but hired Balaam against them to curse them— yet our God turned the curse into a blessing.

Nehemiah 13:3 When the people heard the law, they separated from Israel all those of foreign descent.

Nehemiah 13:4 Now before this, the priest Eliashib, who was appointed over the chambers of the house of our God, and who was related to Tobiah,

Nehemiah 13:5 prepared for Tobiah a large room where they had previously put the grain offering, the frankincense, the vessels, and the tithes of grain, wine, and oil, which were given by commandment to the Levites, singers, and gatekeepers, and the contributions for the priests.

Nehemiah 13:6 While this was taking place I was not in Jerusalem, for in the thirty-second year of King Artaxerxes of Babylon I went to the king. After some time I asked leave of the king

Nehemiah 13:7 and returned to Jerusalem. I then discovered the wrong that Eliashib had done on behalf of Tobiah, preparing a room for him in the courts of the house of God.

Nehemiah 13:8 And I was very angry, and I threw all the household furniture of Tobiah out of the room.

Nehemiah 13:9 Then I gave orders and they cleansed the chambers, and I brought back the vessels of the house of God, with the grain offering and the frankincense.

Nehemiah 13:10 I also found out that the portions of the Levites had not been given to them; so that the Levites and the singers, who had conducted the service, had gone back to their fields.

Nehemiah 13:11 So I remonstrated with the officials and said, “Why is the house of God forsaken?” And I gathered them together and set them in their stations.

Nehemiah 13:12 Then all Judah brought the tithe of the grain, wine, and oil into the storehouses.

Nehemiah 13:13 And I appointed as treasurers over the storehouses the priest Shelemiah, the scribe Zadok, and Pedaiah of the Levites, and as their assistant Hanan son of Zaccur son of Mattaniah, for they were considered faithful; and their duty was to distribute to their associates.

Nehemiah 13:14 Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and do not wipe out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God and for his service.

Nehemiah 13:15 In those days I saw in Judah people treading wine presses on the sabbath, and bringing in heaps of grain and loading them on donkeys; and also wine, grapes, figs, and all kinds of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day; and I warned them at that time against selling food.

Nehemiah 13:16 Tyrians also, who lived in the city, brought in fish and all kinds of merchandise and sold them on the sabbath to the people of Judah, and in Jerusalem.

Nehemiah 13:17 Then I remonstrated with the nobles of Judah and said to them, “What is this evil thing that you are doing, profaning the sabbath day?

Nehemiah 13:18 Did not your ancestors act in this way, and did not our God bring all this disaster on us and on this city? Yet you bring more wrath on Israel by profaning the sabbath.”

Nehemiah 13:19 When it began to be dark at the gates of Jerusalem before the sabbath, I commanded that the doors should be shut and gave orders that they should not be opened until after the sabbath. And I set some of my servants over the gates, to prevent any burden from being brought in on the sabbath day.

Nehemiah 13:20 Then the merchants and sellers of all kinds of merchandise spent the night outside Jerusalem once or twice.

Nehemiah 13:21 But I warned them and said to them, “Why do you spend the night in front of the wall? If you do so again, I will lay hands on you.” From that time on they did not come on the sabbath.

Nehemiah 13:22 And I commanded the Levites that they should purify themselves and come and guard the gates, to keep the sabbath day holy. Remember this also in my favor, O my God, and spare me according to the greatness of your steadfast love.

Nehemiah 13:23 In those days also I saw Jews who had married women of Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab;

Nehemiah 13:24 and half of their children spoke the language of Ashdod, and they could not speak the language of Judah, but spoke the language of various peoples.

Nehemiah 13:25 And I contended with them and cursed them and beat some of them and pulled out their hair; and I made them take an oath in the name of God, saying, "You shall not give your daughters to their sons, or take their daughters for your sons or for yourselves.

Nehemiah 13:26 Did not King Solomon of Israel sin on account of such women? Among the many nations there was no king like him, and he was beloved by his God, and God made him king over all Israel; nevertheless, foreign women made even him to sin.

Nehemiah 13:27 Shall we then listen to you and do all this great evil and act treacherously against our God by marrying foreign women?"

Nehemiah 13:28 And one of the sons of Jehoiada, son of the high priest Eliashib, was the son-in-law of Sanballat the Horonite; I chased him away from me.

Nehemiah 13:29 Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood, the covenant of the priests and the Levites.

Nehemiah 13:30 Thus I cleansed them from everything foreign, and I established the duties of the priests and Levites, each in his work;

Nehemiah 13:31 and I provided for the wood offering, at appointed times, and for the first fruits. Remember me, O my God, for good.

Esther

1:1 This happened in the days of Ahasuerus, the same Ahasuerus who ruled over one hundred twenty-seven provinces from India to Ethiopia.

Esther 1:2 In those days when King Ahasuerus sat on his royal throne in the citadel of Susa,

Esther 1:3 in the third year of his reign, he gave a banquet for all his officials and ministers. The army of Persia and Media and the nobles and governors of the provinces were present,

Esther 1:4 while he displayed the great wealth of his kingdom and the splendor and pomp of his majesty for many days, one hundred eighty days in all.

Esther 1:5 When these days were completed, the king gave for all the people present in the citadel of Susa, both great and small, a banquet lasting for seven days, in the court of the garden of the king's palace.

Esther 1:6 There were white cotton curtains and blue hangings tied with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and marble pillars. There were couches of gold and silver on a mosaic pavement of porphyry, marble, mother-of-pearl, and colored stones.

Esther 1:7 Drinks were served in golden goblets, goblets of different kinds, and the royal wine was lavished according to the bounty of the king.

Esther 1:8 Drinking was by flagons, without restraint; for the king had given orders to all the officials of his palace to do as each one desired.

Esther 1:10 On the seventh day, when the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha and Abagtha, Zethar and Carkas, the seven eunuchs who attended him,

Esther 1:11 to bring Queen Vashti before the king, wearing the royal crown, in order to show the peoples and the officials her beauty; for she was fair to behold.

Esther 1:12 But Queen Vashti refused to come at the king's command conveyed by the eunuchs. At this the king was enraged, and his anger burned within him.

Esther 1:13 Then the king consulted the sages who knew the laws (for this was the king's procedure toward all who were versed in law and custom, Esther 1:14 and those next to him were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven officials of Persia and Media, who had access to the king, and sat first in the kingdom):

Esther 1:15 "According to the law, what is to be done to Queen Vashti because she has not performed the command of King Ahasuerus conveyed by the eunuchs?"

Esther 1:16 Then Memucan said in the presence of the king and the officials, "Not only has Queen Vashti done wrong to the king, but also to all the officials and all the peoples who are in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus.

Esther 1:17 For this deed of the queen will be made known to all women, causing them to look with contempt on their husbands, since they will say, 'King Ahasuerus commanded Queen Vashti to be brought before him, and she did not come.'

Esther 1:18 This very day the noble ladies of Persia and Media who have heard of the queen’s behavior will rebel against the king’s officials, and there will be no end of contempt and wrath!

Esther 1:19 If it pleases the king, let a royal order go out from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes so that it may not be altered, that Vashti is never again to come before King Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal position to another who is better than she.

Esther 1:20 So when the decree made by the king is proclaimed throughout all his kingdom, vast as it is, all women will give honor to their husbands, high and low alike.”

Esther 1:21 This advice pleased the king and the officials, and the king did as Memucan proposed;

Esther 1:22 he sent letters to all the royal provinces, to every province in its own script and to every people in its own language, declaring that every man should be master in his own house.

Esther 2:1 After these things, when the anger of King Ahasuerus had abated, he remembered Vashti and what she had done and what had been decreed against her.

Esther 2:2 Then the king’s servants who attended him said, “Let beautiful young virgins be sought out for the king.

Esther 2:3 And let the king appoint commissioners in all the provinces of his kingdom to gather all the beautiful young virgins to the harem in the citadel of Susa under custody of Hegai, the king’s eunuch, who is in charge of the women; let their cosmetic treatments be given them.

Esther 2:4 And let the girl who pleases the king be queen instead of Vashti.” This pleased the king, and he did so.

Esther 2:5 Now there was a Jew in the citadel of Susa whose name was Mordecai son of Jair son of Shimei son of Kish, a Benjaminite.

Esther 2:6 Kish had been carried away from Jerusalem among the captives carried away with King Jeconiah of Judah, whom King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon had carried away.

Esther 2:7 Mordecai had brought up Hadassah, that is Esther, his cousin, for she had neither father nor mother; the girl was fair and beautiful, and when her father and her mother died, Mordecai adopted her as his own daughter.

Esther 2:8 So when the king’s order and his edict were proclaimed, and when many young women were gathered in the citadel of Susa in custody of Hegai,Esther also was taken into the king’s palace and put in custody of Hegai, who had charge of the women.

Esther 2:9 The girl pleased him and won his favor, and he quickly provided her with her cosmetic treatments and her portion of food, and with seven chosen maids from the king's palace, and advanced her and her maids to the best place in the harem.

Esther 2:10 Esther did not reveal her people or kindred, for Mordecai had charged her not to tell.

Esther 2:11 Every day Mordecai would walk around in front of the court of the harem, to learn how Esther was and how she fared.

Esther 2:12 The turn came for each girl to go in to King Ahasuerus, after being twelve months under the regulations for the women, since this was the regular period of their cosmetic treatment, six months with oil of myrrh and six months with perfumes and cosmetics for women.

Esther 2:13 When the girl went in to the king she was given whatever she asked for to take with her from the harem to the king's palace.

Esther 2:14 In the evening she went in; then in the morning she came back to the second harem in custody of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch, who was in charge of the concubines; she did not go in to the king again, unless the king delighted in her and she was summoned by name.

Esther 2:15 When the turn came for Esther daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had adopted her as his own daughter, to go in to the king, she asked for nothing except what Hegai the king's eunuch, who had charge of the women, advised. Now Esther was admired by all who saw her.

Esther 2:16 When Esther was taken to King Ahasuerus in his royal palace in the tenth month, which is the month of Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign,

Esther 2:17 the king loved Esther more than all the other women; of all the virgins she won his favor and devotion, so that he set the royal crown on her head and made her queen instead of Vashti.

Esther 2:18 Then the king gave a great banquet to all his officials and ministers— "Esther's banquet." He also granted a holiday to the provinces, and gave gifts with royal liberality.

Esther 2:20 Now Esther had not revealed her kindred or her people, as Mordecai had charged her; for Esther obeyed Mordecai just as when she was brought up by him.

Esther 2:21 In those days, while Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate, Bigthan and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs, who guarded the threshold, became angry and conspired to assassinate King Ahasuerus.

Esther 2:22 But the matter came to the knowledge of Mordecai, and he told it to Queen Esther, and Esther told the king in the name of Mordecai.

Esther 2:23 When the affair was investigated and found to be so, both the men were hanged on the gallows. It was recorded in the book of the annals in the presence of the king.

Esther 3:1 After these things King Ahasuerus promoted Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him and set his seat above all the officials who were with him.

Esther 3:2 And all the king's servants who were at the king's gate bowed down and did obeisance to Haman; for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai did not bow down or do obeisance.

Esther 3:3 Then the king's servants who were at the king's gate said to Mordecai, "Why do you disobey the king's command?"

Esther 3:4 When they spoke to him day after day and he would not listen to them, they told Haman, in order to see whether Mordecai's words would avail; for he had told them that he was a Jew.

Esther 3:5 When Haman saw that Mordecai did not bow down or do obeisance to him, Haman was infuriated.

Esther 3:6 But he thought it beneath him to lay hands on Mordecai alone. So, having been told who Mordecai's people were, Haman plotted to destroy all the Jews, the people of Mordecai, throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus.

Esther 3:7 In the first month, which is the month of Nisan, in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus, they cast Pur— which means "the lot"— before Haman for the day and for the month, and the lot fell on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar.

Esther 3:8 Then Haman said to King Ahasuerus, "There is a certain people scattered and separated among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom; their laws are different from those of every other people, and they do not keep the king's laws, so that it is not appropriate for the king to tolerate them.

Esther 3:9 If it pleases the king, let a decree be issued for their destruction, and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who have charge of the king's business, so that they may put it into the king's treasuries."

Esther 3:10 So the king took his signet ring from his hand and gave it to Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of the Jews.

Esther 3:11 The king said to Haman, "The money is given to you, and the people as well, to do with them as it seems good to you."

Esther 3:12 Then the king's secretaries were summoned on the thirteenth day of the first month, and an edict, according to all that Haman commanded, was written to the king's satraps and to the governors over all the provinces and to the officials of all the peoples, to every province in its own script and every people in its own language; it was written in the name of King Ahasuerus and sealed with the king's ring.

Esther 3:13 Letters were sent by couriers to all the king's provinces, giving orders to destroy, to kill, and to annihilate all Jews, young and old, women and children, in one day, the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar, and to plunder their goods.

Esther 3:14 A copy of the document was to be issued as a decree in every province by proclamation, calling on all the peoples to be ready for that day.

Esther 3:15 The couriers went quickly by order of the king, and the decree was issued in the citadel of Susa. The king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city of Susa was thrown into confusion.

Esther 4:1 When Mordecai learned all that had been done, Mordecai tore his clothes and put on sackcloth and ashes, and went through the city, wailing with a loud and bitter cry;

Esther 4:2 he went up to the entrance of the king's gate, for no one might enter the king's gate clothed with sackcloth.

Esther 4:3 In every province, wherever the king's command and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting and weeping and lamenting, and most of them lay in sackcloth and ashes.

Esther 4:4 When Esther's maids and her eunuchs came and told her, the queen was deeply distressed; she sent garments to clothe Mordecai, so that he might take off his sackcloth; but he would not accept them.

Esther 4:5 Then Esther called for Hathach, one of the king's eunuchs, who had been appointed to attend her, and ordered him to go to Mordecai to learn what was happening and why.

Esther 4:6 Hathach went out to Mordecai in the open square of the city in front of the king's gate,

Esther 4:7 and Mordecai told him all that had happened to him, and the exact sum of money that Haman had promised to pay into the king's treasuries for the destruction of the Jews.

Esther 4:8 Mordecai also gave him a copy of the written decree issued in Susa for their destruction, that he might show it to Esther, explain it to her, and charge her to go to the king to make supplication to him and entreat him for her people.

Esther 4:9 Hathach went and told Esther what Mordecai had said.

Esther 4:10 Then Esther spoke to Hathach and gave him a message for Mordecai, saying,

Esther 4:11 "All the king's servants and the people of the king's provinces know that if any man or woman goes to the king inside the inner court without being called, there is but one law— all alike are to be put to death. Only if the king holds out the golden scepter to someone, may that person live. I myself have not been called to come in to the king for thirty days.”

Esther 4:12 When they told Mordecai what Esther had said,

Esther 4:13 Mordecai told them to reply to Esther, “Do not think that in the king’s palace you will escape any more than all the other Jews.

Esther 4:14 For if you keep silence at such a time as this, relief and deliverance will rise for the Jews from another quarter, but you and your father’s family will perish. Who knows? Perhaps you have come to royal dignity for just such a time as this.”

Esther 4:15 Then Esther said in reply to Mordecai,

Esther 4:16 “Go, gather all the Jews to be found in Susa, and hold a fast on my behalf, and neither eat nor drink for three days, night or day. I and my maids will also fast as you do. After that I will go to the king, though it is against the law; and if I perish, I perish.”

Esther 4:17 Mordecai then went away and did everything as Esther had ordered him.

Esther 5:1 On the third day Esther put on her royal robes and stood in the inner court of the king’s palace, opposite the king’s hall. The king was sitting on his royal throne inside the palace opposite the entrance to the palace.

Esther 5:2 As soon as the king saw Queen Esther standing in the court, she won his favor and he held out to her the golden scepter that was in his hand. Then Esther approached and touched the top of the scepter.

Esther 5:3 The king said to her, “What is it, Queen Esther? What is your request? It shall be given you, even to the half of my kingdom.”

Esther 5:4 Then Esther said, “If it pleases the king, let the king and Haman come today to a banquet that I have prepared for the king.”

Esther 5:5 Then the king said, “Bring Haman quickly, so that we may do as Esther desires.” So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

Esther 5:6 While they were drinking wine, the king said to Esther, “What is your petition? It shall be granted you. And what is your request? Even to the half of my kingdom, it shall be fulfilled.”

Esther 5:7 Then Esther said, “This is my petition and request:

Esther 5:8 If I have won the king’s favor, and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and fulfill my request, let the king and Haman come tomorrow to the banquet that I will prepare for them, and then I will do as the king has said.”

Esther 5:9 Haman went out that day happy and in good spirits. But when Haman saw Mordecai in the king’s gate, and observed that he neither rose nor trembled before him, he was infuriated with Mordecai;

Esther 5:10 nevertheless Haman restrained himself and went home. Then he sent and called for his friends and his wife Zeresh,

Esther 5:11 and Haman recounted to them the splendor of his riches, the number of his sons, all the promotions with which the king had honored him, and how he had advanced him above the officials and the ministers of the king.

Esther 5:12 Haman added, “Even Queen Esther let no one but myself come with the king to the banquet that she prepared. Tomorrow also I am invited by her, together with the king.

Esther 5:13 Yet all this does me no good so long as I see the Jew Mordecai sitting at the king’s gate.”

Esther 5:14 Then his wife Zeresh and all his friends said to him, “Let a gallows fifty cubits high be made, and in the morning tell the king to have Mordecai hanged on it; then go with the king to the banquet in good spirits.” This advice pleased Haman, and he had the gallows made.

Esther 6:1 On that night the king could not sleep, and he gave orders to bring the book of records, the annals, and they were read to the king.

Esther 6:2 It was found written how Mordecai had told about Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king’s eunuchs, who guarded the threshold, and who had conspired to assassinate King Ahasuerus.

Esther 6:3 Then the king said, “What honor or distinction has been bestowed on Mordecai for this?” The king’s servants who attended him said, “Nothing has been done for him.”

Esther 6:4 The king said, “Who is in the court?” Now Haman had just entered the outer court of the king’s palace to speak to the king about having Mordecai hanged on the gallows that he had prepared for him.

Esther 6:5 So the king’s servants told him, “Haman is there, standing in the court.” The king said, “Let him come in.”

Esther 6:6 So Haman came in, and the king said to him, “What shall be done for the man whom the king wishes to honor?” Haman said to himself, “Whom would the king wish to honor more than me?”

Esther 6:7 So Haman said to the king, “For the man whom the king wishes to honor,

Esther 6:8 let royal robes be brought, which the king has worn, and a horse that the king has ridden, with a royal crown on its head.

Esther 6:9 Let the robes and the horse be handed over to one of the king’s most noble officials; let him robe the man whom the king wishes to honor, and let him conduct the man on horseback through the open square of the city, proclaiming before him: ‘Thus shall it be done for the man whom the king wishes to honor.’“

Esther 6:10 Then the king said to Haman, “Quickly, take the robes and the horse, as you have said, and do so to the Jew Mordecai who sits at the king’s gate. Leave out nothing that you have mentioned.”

Esther 6:11 So Haman took the robes and the horse and robed Mordecai and led him riding through the open square of the city, proclaiming, “Thus shall it be done for the man whom the king wishes to honor.”

Esther 6:12 Then Mordecai returned to the king’s gate, but Haman hurried to his house, mourning and with his head covered.

Esther 6:13 When Haman told his wife Zeresh and all his friends everything that had happened to him, his advisers and his wife Zeresh said to him, “If Mordecai, before whom your downfall has begun, is of the Jewish people, you will not prevail against him, but will surely fall before him.”

Esther 6:14 While they were still talking with him, the king’s eunuchs arrived and hurried Haman off to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

Esther 7:1 So the king and Haman went in to feast with Queen Esther.

Esther 7:2 On the second day, as they were drinking wine, the king again said to Esther, “What is your petition, Queen Esther? It shall be granted you. And what is your request? Even to the half of my kingdom, it shall be fulfilled.”

Esther 7:3 Then Queen Esther answered, “If I have won your favor, O king, and if it pleases the king, let my life be given me— that is my petition— and the lives of my people— that is my request.

Esther 7:4 For we have been sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be killed, and to be annihilated. If we had been sold merely as slaves, men and women, I would have held my peace; but no enemy can compensate for this damage to the king.”

Esther 7:5 Then King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther, “Who is he, and where is he, who has presumed to do this?”

Esther 7:6 Esther said, “A foe and enemy, this wicked Haman!” Then Haman was terrified before the king and the queen.

Esther 7:7 The king rose from the feast in wrath and went into the palace garden, but Haman stayed to beg his life from Queen Esther, for he saw that the king had determined to destroy him.

Esther 7:8 When the king returned from the palace garden to the banquet hall, Haman had thrown himself on the couch where Esther was reclining; and the king said, “Will he even assault the queen in my presence, in my own house?” As the words left the mouth of the king, they covered Haman’s face.

Esther 7:9 Then Harbona, one of the eunuchs in attendance on the king, said, “Look, the very gallows that Haman has prepared for Mordecai, whose word saved the king, stands at Haman’s house, fifty cubits high.” And the king said, “Hang him on that.”

Esther 7:10 So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the anger of the king abated.

Esther 8:1 On that day King Ahasuerus gave to Queen Esther the house of Haman, the enemy of the Jews; and Mordecai came before the king, for Esther had told what he was to her.

Esther 8:2 Then the king took off his signet ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. So Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman.

Esther 8:3 Then Esther spoke again to the king; she fell at his feet, weeping and pleading with him to avert the evil design of Haman the Agagite and the plot that he had devised against the Jews.

Esther 8:4 The king held out the golden scepter to Esther,

Esther 8:5 and Esther rose and stood before the king. She said, “If it pleases the king, and if I have won his favor, and if the thing seems right before the king, and I have his approval, let an order be written to revoke the letters devised by Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote giving orders to destroy the Jews who are in all the provinces of the king.

Esther 8:6 For how can I bear to see the calamity that is coming on my people? Or how can I bear to see the destruction of my kindred?”

Esther 8:7 Then King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther and to the Jew Mordecai, “See, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and they have hanged him on the gallows, because he plotted to lay hands on the Jews.

Esther 8:8 You may write as you please with regard to the Jews, in the name of the king, and seal it with the king’s ring; for an edict written in the name of the king and sealed with the king’s ring cannot be revoked.”

Esther 8:9 The king’s secretaries were summoned at that time, in the third month, which is the month of Sivan, on the twenty-third day; and an edict was written, according to all that Mordecai commanded, to the Jews and to the satraps and the governors and the officials of the provinces from India to Ethiopia, one hundred twenty-seven provinces, to every province in its own script and to every people in its own language, and also to the Jews in their script and their language.

Esther 8:10 He wrote letters in the name of King Ahasuerus, sealed them with the king’s ring, and sent them by mounted couriers riding on fast steeds bred from the royal herd.

Esther 8:11 By these letters the king allowed the Jews who were in every city to assemble and defend their lives, to destroy, to kill, and to annihilate any armed force of any people or province that might attack them, with their children and women, and to plunder their goods

Esther 8:12 on a single day throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar.

Esther 8:13 A copy of the writ was to be issued as a decree in every province and published to all peoples, and the Jews were to be ready on that day to take revenge on their enemies.

Esther 8:14 So the couriers, mounted on their swift royal steeds, hurried out, urged by the king’s command. The decree was issued in the citadel of Susa.

Esther 8:15 Then Mordecai went out from the presence of the king, wearing royal robes of blue and white, with a great golden crown and a mantle of fine linen and purple, while the city of Susa shouted and rejoiced.

Esther 8:16 For the Jews there was light and gladness, joy and honor.

Esther 8:17 In every province and in every city, wherever the king’s command and his edict came, there was gladness and joy among the Jews, a festival and a holiday. Furthermore, many of the peoples of the country professed to be Jews, because the fear of the Jews had fallen upon them.

Esther 9:1 Now in the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar, on the thirteenth day, when the king’s command and edict were about to be executed, on the very day when the enemies of the Jews hoped to gain power over them, but which had been changed to a day when the Jews would gain power over their foes,

Esther 9:2 the Jews gathered in their cities throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus to lay hands on those who had sought their ruin; and no one could withstand them, because the fear of them had fallen upon all peoples.

Esther 9:3 All the officials of the provinces, the satraps and the governors, and the royal officials were supporting the Jews, because the fear of Mordecai had fallen upon them.

Esther 9:4 For Mordecai was powerful in the king’s house, and his fame spread throughout all the provinces as the man Mordecai grew more and more powerful.

Esther 9:5 So the Jews struck down all their enemies with the sword, slaughtering, and destroying them, and did as they pleased to those who hated them.

Esther 9:6 In the citadel of Susa the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred people.

Esther 9:7 They killed Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha,

Esther 9:8 Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha,

Esther 9:9 Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, Vaizatha,

Esther 9:10 the ten sons of Haman son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews; but they did not touch the plunder.

Esther 9:11 That very day the number of those killed in the citadel of Susa was reported to the king.

Esther 9:12 The king said to Queen Esther, “In the citadel of Susa the Jews have killed five hundred people and also the ten sons of Haman. What have they done in the rest of the king’s provinces? Now what is your petition? It shall be granted you. And what further is your request? It shall be fulfilled.”

Esther 9:13 Esther said, “If it pleases the king, let the Jews who are in Susa be allowed tomorrow also to do according to this day’s edict, and let the ten sons of Haman be hanged on the gallows.”

Esther 9:14 So the king commanded this to be done; a decree was issued in Susa, and the ten sons of Haman were hanged.

Esther 9:15 The Jews who were in Susa gathered also on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar and they killed three hundred persons in Susa; but they did not touch the plunder.

Esther 9:16 Now the other Jews who were in the king’s provinces also gathered to defend their lives, and gained relief from their enemies, and killed seventy-five thousand of those who hated them; but they laid no hands on the plunder.

Esther 9:17 This was on the thirteenth day of the month of Adar, and on the fourteenth day they rested and made that a day of feasting and gladness.

Esther 9:18 But the Jews who were in Susa gathered on the thirteenth day and on the fourteenth, and rested on the fifteenth day, making that a day of feasting and gladness.

Esther 9:19 Therefore the Jews of the villages, who live in the open towns, hold the fourteenth day of the month of Adar as a day for gladness and feasting, a holiday on which they send gifts of food to one another.

Esther 9:20 Mordecai recorded these things, and sent letters to all the Jews who were in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, both near and far, Esther 9:21 enjoining them that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar and also the fifteenth day of the same month, year by year,

Esther 9:22 as the days on which the Jews gained relief from their enemies, and as the month that had been turned for them from sorrow into gladness and from mourning into a holiday; that they should make them days of feasting and gladness, days for sending gifts of food to one another and presents to the poor.

Esther 9:23 So the Jews adopted as a custom what they had begun to do, as Mordecai had written to them.

Esther 9:24 Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur— that is "the lot"— to crush and destroy them;

Esther 9:25 but when Esther came before the king, he gave orders in writing that the wicked plot that he had devised against the Jews should come upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

Esther 9:26 Therefore these days are called Purim, from the word Pur. Thus because of all that was written in this letter, and of what they had faced in this matter, and of what had happened to them,

Esther 9:27 the Jews established and accepted as a custom for themselves and their descendants and all who joined them, that without fail they would continue to observe these two days every year, as it was written and at the time appointed.

Esther 9:28 These days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, in every family, province, and city; and these days of Purim should never fall into disuse among the Jews, nor should the commemoration of these days cease among their descendants.

Esther 9:29 Queen Esther daughter of Abihail, along with the Jew Mordecai, gave full written authority, confirming this second letter about Purim.

Esther 9:30 Letters were sent wishing peace and security to all the Jews, to the one hundred twenty-seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus,

Esther 9:31 and giving orders that these days of Purim should be observed at their appointed seasons, as the Jew Mordecai and Queen Esther enjoined on the Jews, just as they had laid down for themselves and for their descendants regulations concerning their fasts and their lamentations.

Esther 9:32 The command of Queen Esther fixed these practices of Purim, and it was recorded in writing.

Esther 10:1 King Ahasuerus laid tribute on the land and on the islands of the sea.

Esther 10:2 All the acts of his power and might, and the full account of the high honor of Mordecai, to which the king advanced him, are they not written in the annals of the kings of Media and Persia?

Esther 10:3 For Mordecai the Jew was next in rank to King Ahasuerus, and he was powerful among the Jews and popular with his many kindred, for he sought the good of his people and interceded for the welfare of all his descendants.

Job

1:1 There was once a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job. That man was blameless and upright, one who feared God and turned away from evil.

Job 1:2 There were born to him seven sons and three daughters.

Job 1:3 He had seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen, five hundred donkeys, and very many servants; so that this man was the greatest of all the people of the east.

Job 1:4 His sons used to go and hold feasts in one another's houses in turn; and they would send and invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them.

Job 1:5 And when the feast days had run their course,Job would send and sanctify them, and he would rise early in the morning and offer burnt offerings according to the number of them all; for Job said, "It may be that my children have sinned, and cursed God in their hearts." This is what Job always did.

Job 1:6 One day the heavenly beings came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came among them.

Job 1:7 The LORD said to Satan, "Where have you come from?" Satan answered the LORD, "From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking up and down on it."

Job 1:8 The LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job? There is no one like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man who fears God and turns away from evil."

Job 1:9 Then Satan answered the LORD, "Does Job fear God for nothing?

Job 1:10 Have you not put a fence around him and his house and all that he has, on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his possessions have increased in the land.

Job 1:11 But stretch out your hand now, and touch all that he has, and he will curse you to your face."

Job 1:12 The LORD said to Satan, "Very well, all that he has is in your power; only do not stretch out your hand against him!" So Satan went out from the presence of the LORD.

Job 1:13 One day when his sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in the eldest brother's house,

Job 1:14 a messenger came to Job and said, "The oxen were plowing and the donkeys were feeding beside them,

Job 1:15 and the Sabeans fell on them and carried them off, and killed the servants with the edge of the sword; I alone have escaped to tell you."

Job 1:16 While he was still speaking, another came and said, "The fire of God fell from heaven and burned up the sheep and the servants, and consumed them; I alone have escaped to tell you."

Job 1:17 While he was still speaking, another came and said, "The Chaldeans formed three columns, made a raid on the camels and carried them off, and killed the servants with the edge of the sword; I alone have escaped to tell you."

Job 1:18 While he was still speaking, another came and said, "Your sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house,

Job 1:19 and suddenly a great wind came across the desert, struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young people, and they are dead; I alone have escaped to tell you."

Job 1:20 Then Job arose, tore his robe, shaved his head, and fell on the ground and worshiped.

Job 1:21 He said, "Naked I came from my mother's womb, and naked shall I return there; the LORD gave, and the LORD has taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD."

Job 1:22 In all this Job did not sin or charge God with wrongdoing.

Job 2:1 One day the heavenly beings came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came among them to present himself before the LORD.

Job 2:2 The LORD said to Satan, "Where have you come from?" Satan answered the LORD, "From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking up and down on it."

Job 2:3 The LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job? There is no one like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man who fears God and turns away from evil. He still persists in his integrity, although you incited me against him, to destroy him for no reason."

Job 2:4 Then Satan answered the LORD, "Skin for skin! All that people have they will give to save their lives.

Job 2:5 But stretch out your hand now and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse you to your face."

Job 2:6 The LORD said to Satan, "Very well, he is in your power; only spare his life."

Job 2:7 So Satan went out from the presence of the LORD, and inflicted loathsome sores on Job from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head.

Job 2:8 Job took a potsherd with which to scrape himself, and sat among the ashes.

Job 2:9 Then his wife said to him, “Do you still persist in your integrity? Curse God, and die.”

Job 2:10 But he said to her, “You speak as any foolish woman would speak. Shall we receive the good at the hand of God, and not receive the bad?” In all this Job did not sin with his lips.

Job 2:11 Now when Job’s three friends heard of all these troubles that had come upon him, each of them set out from his home— Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite. They met together to go and console and comfort him.

Job 2:12 When they saw him from a distance, they did not recognize him, and they raised their voices and wept aloud; they tore their robes and threw dust in the air upon their heads.

Job 2:13 They sat with him on the ground seven days and seven nights, and no one spoke a word to him, for they saw that his suffering was very great.

Job 3:2 Job said:

Job 3:3 “Let the day perish in which I was born, and the night that said, ‘A man-child is conceived.’

Job 3:4 Let that day be darkness! May God above not seek it, or light shine on it.

Job 3:5 Let gloom and deep darkness claim it. Let clouds settle upon it; let the blackness of the day terrify it.

Job 3:6 That night— let thick darkness seize it! let it not rejoice among the days of the year; let it not come into the number of the months.

Job 3:7 Yes, let that night be barren; let no joyful cry be heard in it.

Job 3:8 Let those curse it who curse the Sea, those who are skilled to rouse up Leviathan.

Job 3:9 Let the stars of its dawn be dark; let it hope for light, but have none; may it not see the eyelids of the morning—

Job 3:10 because it did not shut the doors of my mother’s womb, and hide trouble from my eyes.

Job 3:11 “Why did I not die at birth, come forth from the womb and expire?

Job 3:12 Why were there knees to receive me, or breasts for me to suck?

Job 3:13 Now I would be lying down and quiet; I would be asleep; then I would be at rest

Job 3:14 with kings and counselors of the earth who rebuild ruins for themselves,

Job 3:15 or with princes who have gold, who fill their houses with silver.

Job 3:16 Or why was I not buried like a stillborn child, like an infant that never sees the light?

Job 3:17 There the wicked cease from troubling, and there the weary are at rest.

Job 3:18 There the prisoners are at ease together; they do not hear the voice of the taskmaster.

Job 3:19 The small and the great are there, and the slaves are free from their masters.

Job 3:20 “Why is light given to one in misery, and life to the bitter in soul,

Job 3:21 who long for death, but it does not come, and dig for it more than for hidden treasures;

Job 3:22 who rejoice exceedingly, and are glad when they find the grave?

Job 3:23 Why is light given to one who cannot see the way, whom God has fenced in?

Job 3:24 For my sighing comes like my bread, and my groanings are poured out like water.

Job 3:25 Truly the thing that I fear comes upon me, and what I dread befalls me.

Job 3:26 I am not at ease, nor am I quiet; I have no rest; but trouble comes.”

Job 4:1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered:

Job 4:2 “If one ventures a word with you, will you be offended? But who can keep from speaking?

Job 4:3 See, you have instructed many; you have strengthened the weak hands.

Job 4:4 Your words have supported those who were stumbling, and you have made firm the feeble knees.

Job 4:5 But now it has come to you, and you are impatient; it touches you, and you are dismayed.

Job 4:6 Is not your fear of God your confidence, and the integrity of your ways your hope?

Job 4:7 “Think now, who that was innocent ever perished? Or where were the upright cut off?

Job 4:8 As I have seen, those who plow iniquity and sow trouble reap the same.

Job 4:9 By the breath of God they perish, and by the blast of his anger they are consumed.

Job 4:10 The roar of the lion, the voice of the fierce lion, and the teeth of the young lions are broken.

Job 4:11 The strong lion perishes for lack of prey, and the whelps of the lioness are scattered.

Job 4:12 “Now a word came stealing to me, my ear received the whisper of it.

Job 4:13 Amid thoughts from visions of the night, when deep sleep falls on mortals,

Job 4:14 dread came upon me, and trembling, which made all my bones shake.

Job 4:15 A spirit glided past my face; the hair of my flesh bristled.

Job 4:16 It stood still, but I could not discern its appearance. A form was before my eyes; there was silence, then I heard a voice:

Job 4:17 ‘Can mortals be righteous before God? Can human beings be pure before their Maker?

Job 4:18 Even in his servants he puts no trust, and his angels he charges with error;

Job 4:19 how much more those who live in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, who are crushed like a moth.

Job 4:20 Between morning and evening they are destroyed; they perish forever without any regarding it.

Job 4:21 Their tent-cord is plucked up within them, and they die devoid of wisdom.’

Job 5:1 “Call now; is there anyone who will answer you? To which of the holy ones will you turn?

Job 5:2 Surely vexation kills the fool, and jealousy slays the simple.

Job 5:3 I have seen fools taking root, but suddenly I cursed their dwelling.

Job 5:4 Their children are far from safety, they are crushed in the gate, and there is no one to deliver them.

Job 5:5 The hungry eat their harvest, and they take it even out of the thorns; and the thirsty pant after their wealth.

Job 5:6 For misery does not come from the earth, nor does trouble sprout from the ground;

Job 5:7 but human beings are born to trouble just as sparks fly upward.

Job 5:8 “As for me, I would seek God, and to God I would commit my cause.

Job 5:9 He does great things and unsearchable, marvelous things without number.

Job 5:10 He gives rain on the earth and sends waters on the fields;

Job 5:11 he sets on high those who are lowly, and those who mourn are lifted to safety.

Job 5:12 He frustrates the devices of the crafty, so that their hands achieve no success.

Job 5:13 He takes the wise in their own craftiness; and the schemes of the wily are brought to a quick end.

Job 5:14 They meet with darkness in the daytime, and grope at noonday as in the night.

Job 5:15 But he saves the needy from the sword of their mouth, from the hand of the mighty.

Job 5:16 So the poor have hope, and injustice shuts its mouth.

Job 5:17 “How happy is the one whom God reproves; therefore do not despise the discipline of the Almighty.

Job 5:18 For he wounds, but he binds up; he strikes, but his hands heal.

Job 5:19 He will deliver you from six troubles; in seven no harm shall touch you.

Job 5:20 In famine he will redeem you from death, and in war from the power of the sword.

Job 5:21 You shall be hidden from the scourge of the tongue, and shall not fear destruction when it comes.

Job 5:22 At destruction and famine you shall laugh, and shall not fear the wild animals of the earth.

Job 5:23 For you shall be in league with the stones of the field, and the wild animals shall be at peace with you.

Job 5:24 You shall know that your tent is safe, you shall inspect your fold and miss nothing.

Job 5:25 You shall know that your descendants will be many, and your offspring like the grass of the earth.

Job 5:26 You shall come to your grave in ripe old age, as a shock of grain comes up to the threshing floor in its season.

Job 5:27 See, we have searched this out; it is true. Hear, and know it for yourself.”

Job 6:1 Then Job answered:

Job 6:2 “O that my vexation were weighed, and all my calamity laid in the balances!

Job 6:3 For then it would be heavier than the sand of the sea; therefore my words have been rash.

Job 6:4 For the arrows of the Almighty are in me; my spirit drinks their poison; the terrors of God are arrayed against me.

Job 6:5 Does the wild ass bray over its grass, or the ox low over its fodder?

Job 6:6 Can that which is tasteless be eaten without salt, or is there any flavor in the juice of mallows?

Job 6:7 My appetite refuses to touch them; they are like food that is loathsome to me.

Job 6:8 “O that I might have my request, and that God would grant my desire;

Job 6:9 that it would please God to crush me, that he would let loose his hand and cut me off!

Job 6:10 This would be my consolation; I would even exult in unrelenting pain; for I have not denied the words of the Holy One.

Job 6:11 What is my strength, that I should wait? And what is my end, that I should be patient?

Job 6:12 Is my strength the strength of stones, or is my flesh bronze?

Job 6:13 In truth I have no help in me, and any resource is driven from me.

Job 6:14 “Those who withhold kindness from a friend forsake the fear of the Almighty.

Job 6:15 My companions are treacherous like a torrent-bed, like freshets that pass away,

Job 6:17 In time of heat they disappear; when it is hot, they vanish from their place.

Job 6:18 The caravans turn aside from their course; they go up into the waste, and perish.

Job 6:20 They are disappointed because they were confident; they come there and are confounded.

Job 6:21 Such you have now become to me; you see my calamity, and are afraid.

Job 6:22 Have I said, ‘Make me a gift’? Or, ‘From your wealth offer a bribe for me’?

Job 6:23 Or, ‘Save me from an opponent’s hand’? Or, ‘Ransom me from the hand of oppressors’?

Job 6:24 “Teach me, and I will be silent; make me understand how I have gone wrong.

Job 6:25 How forceful are honest words! But your reproof, what does it reprove?

Job 6:26 Do you think that you can reprove words, as if the speech of the desperate were wind?

Job 6:27 You would even cast lots over the orphan, and bargain over your friend.

Job 6:28 “But now, be pleased to look at me; for I will not lie to your face.

Job 6:29 Turn, I pray, let no wrong be done. Turn now, my vindication is at stake.

Job 6:30 Is there any wrong on my tongue? Cannot my taste discern calamity?

Job 7:1 “Do not human beings have a hard service on earth, and are not their days like the days of a laborer?

Job 7:2 Like a slave who longs for the shadow, and like laborers who look for their wages,

Job 7:3 so I am allotted months of emptiness, and nights of misery are apportioned to me.

Job 7:4 When I lie down I say, ‘When shall I rise?’ But the night is long, and I am full of tossing until dawn.

Job 7:5 My flesh is clothed with worms and dirt; my skin hardens, then breaks out again.

Job 7:6 My days are swifter than a weaver’s shuttle, and come to their end without hope.

Job 7:7 “Remember that my life is a breath; my eye will never again see good.

Job 7:8 The eye that beholds me will see me no more; while your eyes are upon me, I shall be gone.

Job 7:9 As the cloud fades and vanishes, so those who go down to Sheol do not come up;

Job 7:10 they return no more to their houses, nor do their places know them any more.

Job 7:11 “Therefore I will not restrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

Job 7:12 Am I the Sea, or the Dragon, that you set a guard over me?

Job 7:13 When I say, ‘My bed will comfort me, my couch will ease my complaint,’ Job 7:14 then you scare me with dreams and terrify me with visions,

Job 7:15 so that I would choose strangling and death rather than this body.

Job 7:16 I loathe my life; I would not live forever. Let me alone, for my days are a breath.

Job 7:17 What are human beings, that you make so much of them, that you set your mind on them,

Job 7:18 visit them every morning, test them every moment?

Job 7:19 Will you not look away from me for a while, let me alone until I swallow my spittle?

Job 7:20 If I sin, what do I do to you, you watcher of humanity? Why have you made me your target? Why have I become a burden to you?

Job 7:21 Why do you not pardon my transgression and take away my iniquity? For now I shall lie in the earth; you will seek me, but I shall not be.”

Job 8:1 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered:

Job 8:2 “How long will you say these things, and the words of your mouth be a great wind?

Job 8:3 Does God pervert justice? Or does the Almighty pervert the right?

Job 8:4 If your children sinned against him, he delivered them into the power of their transgression.

Job 8:5 If you will seek God and make supplication to the Almighty,

Job 8:6 if you are pure and upright, surely then he will rouse himself for you and restore to you your rightful place.

Job 8:7 Though your beginning was small, your latter days will be very great.

Job 8:8 “For inquire now of bygone generations, and consider what their ancestors have found;

Job 8:9 for we are but of yesterday, and we know nothing, for our days on earth are but a shadow.

Job 8:10 Will they not teach you and tell you and utter words out of their understanding?

Job 8:11 “Can papyrus grow where there is no marsh? Can reeds flourish where there is no water?

Job 8:12 While yet in flower and not cut down, they wither before any other plant.

Job 8:13 Such are the paths of all who forget God; the hope of the godless shall perish.

Job 8:14 Their confidence is gossamer, a spider’s house their trust.

Job 8:15 If one leans against its house, it will not stand; if one lays hold of it, it will not endure.

Job 8:16 The wicked thrive before the sun, and their shoots spread over the garden.

Job 8:17 Their roots twine around the stoneheap; they live among the rocks.

Job 8:18 If they are destroyed from their place, then it will deny them, saying, 'I have never seen you.'

Job 8:19 See, these are their happy ways, and out of the earth still others will spring.

Job 8:20 "See, God will not reject a blameless person, nor take the hand of evildoers.

Job 8:21 He will yet fill your mouth with laughter, and your lips with shouts of joy.

Job 8:22 Those who hate you will be clothed with shame, and the tent of the wicked will be no more."

Job 9:1 Then Job answered:

Job 9:2 "Indeed I know that this is so; but how can a mortal be just before God?

Job 9:3 If one wished to contend with him, one could not answer him once in a thousand.

Job 9:4 He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength— who has resisted him, and succeeded?—

Job 9:5 he who removes mountains, and they do not know it, when he overturns them in his anger;

Job 9:6 who shakes the earth out of its place, and its pillars tremble;

Job 9:7 who commands the sun, and it does not rise; who seals up the stars;

Job 9:8 who alone stretched out the heavens and trampled the waves of the Sea;

Job 9:9 who made the Bear and Orion, the Pleiades and the chambers of the south;

Job 9:10 who does great things beyond understanding, and marvelous things without number.

Job 9:11 Look, he passes by me, and I do not see him; he moves on, but I do not perceive him.

Job 9:12 He snatches away; who can stop him? Who will say to him, 'What are you doing?'

Job 9:13 "God will not turn back his anger; the helpers of Rahab bowed beneath him.

Job 9:14 How then can I answer him, choosing my words with him?

Job 9:15 Though I am innocent, I cannot answer him; I must appeal for mercy to my accuser.

Job 9:16 If I summoned him and he answered me, I do not believe that he would listen to my voice.

Job 9:17 For he crushes me with a tempest, and multiplies my wounds without cause;

Job 9:18 he will not let me get my breath, but fills me with bitterness.

Job 9:19 If it is a contest of strength, he is the strong one! If it is a matter of justice, who can summon him?

Job 9:20 Though I am innocent, my own mouth would condemn me; though I am blameless, he would prove me perverse.

Job 9:21 I am blameless; I do not know myself; I loathe my life.

Job 9:22 It is all one; therefore I say, he destroys both the blameless and the wicked.

Job 9:23 When disaster brings sudden death, he mocks at the calamity of the innocent.

Job 9:24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked; he covers the eyes of its judges— if it is not he, who then is it?

Job 9:25 “My days are swifter than a runner; they flee away, they see no good.

Job 9:26 They go by like skiffs of reed, like an eagle swooping on the prey.

Job 9:27 If I say, ‘I will forget my complaint; I will put off my sad countenance and be of good cheer,’

Job 9:28 I become afraid of all my suffering, for I know you will not hold me innocent.

Job 9:29 I shall be condemned; why then do I labor in vain?

Job 9:30 If I wash myself with soap and cleanse my hands with lye,

Job 9:31 yet you will plunge me into filth, and my own clothes will abhor me.

Job 9:32 For he is not a mortal, as I am, that I might answer him, that we should come to trial together.

Job 9:33 There is no umpire between us, who might lay his hand on us both.

Job 9:34 If he would take his rod away from me, and not let dread of him terrify me,

Job 9:35 then I would speak without fear of him, for I know I am not what I am thought to be.

Job 10:1 “I loathe my life; I will give free utterance to my complaint; I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

Job 10:2 I will say to God, Do not condemn me; let me know why you contend against me.

Job 10:3 Does it seem good to you to oppress, to despise the work of your hands and favor the schemes of the wicked?

Job 10:4 Do you have eyes of flesh? Do you see as humans see?

Job 10:5 Are your days like the days of mortals, or your years like human years,

Job 10:6 that you seek out my iniquity and search for my sin,

Job 10:7 although you know that I am not guilty, and there is no one to deliver out of your hand?

Job 10:8 Your hands fashioned and made me; and now you turn and destroy me.

Job 10:9 Remember that you fashioned me like clay; and will you turn me to dust again?

Job 10:10 Did you not pour me out like milk and curdle me like cheese?

Job 10:11 You clothed me with skin and flesh, and knit me together with bones and sinews.

Job 10:12 You have granted me life and steadfast love, and your care has preserved my spirit.

Job 10:13 Yet these things you hid in your heart; I know that this was your purpose.

Job 10:14 If I sin, you watch me, and do not acquit me of my iniquity.

Job 10:15 If I am wicked, woe to me! If I am righteous, I cannot lift up my head, for I am filled with disgrace and look upon my affliction.

Job 10:16 Bold as a lion you hunt me; you repeat your exploits against me.

Job 10:17 You renew your witnesses against me, and increase your vexation toward me; you bring fresh troops against me.

Job 10:18 “Why did you bring me forth from the womb? Would that I had died before any eye had seen me,

Job 10:19 and were as though I had not been, carried from the womb to the grave.

Job 10:20 Are not the days of my life few? Let me alone, that I may find a little comfort

Job 10:21 before I go, never to return, to the land of gloom and deep darkness,

Job 10:22 the land of gloom and chaos, where light is like darkness.”

Job 11:1 Then Zophar the Naamathite answered:

Job 11:2 “Should a multitude of words go unanswered, and should one full of talk be vindicated?

Job 11:3 Should your babble put others to silence, and when you mock, shall no one shame you?

Job 11:4 For you say, ‘My conduct is pure, and I am clean in God’s sight.’

Job 11:5 But oh, that God would speak, and open his lips to you,

Job 11:6 and that he would tell you the secrets of wisdom! For wisdom is many-sided. Know then that God exacts of you less than your guilt deserves.

Job 11:7 “Can you find out the deep things of God? Can you find out the limit of the Almighty?

Job 11:8 It is higher than heaven— what can you do? Deeper than Sheol— what can you know?

Job 11:9 Its measure is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea.

Job 11:10 If he passes through, and imprisons, and assembles for judgment, who can hinder him?

Job 11:11 For he knows those who are worthless; when he sees iniquity, will he not consider it?

Job 11:12 But a stupid person will get understanding, when a wild ass is born human.

Job 11:13 “If you direct your heart rightly, you will stretch out your hands toward him.

Job 11:14 If iniquity is in your hand, put it far away, and do not let wickedness reside in your tents.

Job 11:15 Surely then you will lift up your face without blemish; you will be secure, and will not fear.

Job 11:16 You will forget your misery; you will remember it as waters that have passed away.

Job 11:17 And your life will be brighter than the noonday; its darkness will be like the morning.

Job 11:18 And you will have confidence, because there is hope; you will be protected and take your rest in safety.

Job 11:19 You will lie down, and no one will make you afraid; many will entreat your favor.

Job 11:20 But the eyes of the wicked will fail; all way of escape will be lost to them, and their hope is to breathe their last.”

Job 12:1 Then Job answered:

Job 12:2 “No doubt you are the people, and wisdom will die with you.

Job 12:3 But I have understanding as well as you; I am not inferior to you. Who does not know such things as these?

Job 12:4 I am a laughingstock to my friends; I, who called upon God and he answered me, a just and blameless man, I am a laughingstock.

Job 12:5 Those at ease have contempt for misfortune, but it is ready for those whose feet are unstable.

Job 12:6 The tents of robbers are at peace, and those who provoke God are secure, who bring their god in their hands.

Job 12:7 “But ask the animals, and they will teach you; the birds of the air, and they will tell you;

Job 12:8 ask the plants of the earth, and they will teach you; and the fish of the sea will declare to you.

Job 12:9 Who among all these does not know that the hand of the LORD has done this?

Job 12:10 In his hand is the life of every living thing and the breath of every human being.

Job 12:11 Does not the ear test words as the palate tastes food?

Job 12:12 Is wisdom with the aged, and understanding in length of days?

Job 12:13 “With God are wisdom and strength; he has counsel and understanding.

Job 12:14 If he tears down, no one can rebuild; if he shuts someone in, no one can open up.

Job 12:15 If he withholds the waters, they dry up; if he sends them out, they overwhelm the land.

Job 12:16 With him are strength and wisdom; the deceived and the deceiver are his.

Job 12:17 He leads counselors away stripped, and makes fools of judges.

Job 12:18 He looses the sash of kings, and binds a waistcloth on their loins.

Job 12:19 He leads priests away stripped, and overthrows the mighty.

Job 12:20 He deprives of speech those who are trusted, and takes away the discernment of the elders.

Job 12:21 He pours contempt on princes, and looses the belt of the strong.

Job 12:22 He uncovers the deeps out of darkness, and brings deep darkness to light.

Job 12:23 He makes nations great, then destroys them; he enlarges nations, then leads them away.

Job 12:24 He strips understanding from the leaders of the earth, and makes them wander in a pathless waste.

Job 12:25 They grope in the dark without light; he makes them stagger like a drunkard.

Job 13:1 “Look, my eye has seen all this, my ear has heard and understood it.

Job 13:2 What you know, I also know; I am not inferior to you.

Job 13:3 But I would speak to the Almighty, and I desire to argue my case with God.

Job 13:4 As for you, you whitewash with lies; all of you are worthless physicians.

Job 13:5 If you would only keep silent, that would be your wisdom!

Job 13:6 Hear now my reasoning, and listen to the pleadings of my lips.

Job 13:7 Will you speak falsely for God, and speak deceitfully for him?

Job 13:8 Will you show partiality toward him, will you plead the case for God?

Job 13:9 Will it be well with you when he searches you out? Or can you deceive him, as one person deceives another?

Job 13:10 He will surely rebuke you if in secret you show partiality.

Job 13:11 Will not his majesty terrify you, and the dread of him fall upon you?

Job 13:12 Your maxims are proverbs of ashes, your defenses are defenses of clay.

Job 13:13 “Let me have silence, and I will speak, and let come on me what may.

Job 13:14 I will take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in my hand.

Job 13:15 See, he will kill me; I have no hope; but I will defend my ways to his face.

Job 13:16 This will be my salvation, that the godless shall not come before him.

Job 13:17 Listen carefully to my words, and let my declaration be in your ears.

Job 13:18 I have indeed prepared my case; I know that I shall be vindicated.

Job 13:19 Who is there that will contend with me? For then I would be silent and die.

Job 13:20 Only grant two things to me, then I will not hide myself from your face:

Job 13:21 withdraw your hand far from me, and do not let dread of you terrify me.

Job 13:22 Then call, and I will answer; or let me speak, and you reply to me.

Job 13:23 How many are my iniquities and my sins? Make me know my transgression and my sin.

Job 13:24 Why do you hide your face, and count me as your enemy?

Job 13:25 Will you frighten a windblown leaf and pursue dry chaff?

Job 13:26 For you write bitter things against me, and make me reap the iniquities of my youth.

Job 13:27 You put my feet in the stocks, and watch all my paths; you set a bound to the soles of my feet.

Job 13:28 One wastes away like a rotten thing, like a garment that is moth-eaten.

Job 14:1 “A mortal, born of woman, few of days and full of trouble,

Job 14:2 comes up like a flower and withers, flees like a shadow and does not last.

Job 14:3 Do you fix your eyes on such a one? Do you bring me into judgment with you?

Job 14:4 Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? No one can.

Job 14:5 Since their days are determined, and the number of their months is known to you, and you have appointed the bounds that they cannot pass,

Job 14:6 look away from them, and desist, that they may enjoy, like laborers, their days.

Job 14:7 “For there is hope for a tree, if it is cut down, that it will sprout again, and that its shoots will not cease.

Job 14:8 Though its root grows old in the earth, and its stump dies in the ground,

Job 14:9 yet at the scent of water it will bud and put forth branches like a young plant.

Job 14:10 But mortals die, and are laid low; humans expire, and where are they?

Job 14:11 As waters fail from a lake, and a river wastes away and dries up,

Job 14:12 so mortals lie down and do not rise again; until the heavens are no more, they will not awake or be roused out of their sleep.

Job 14:13 Oh that you would hide me in Sheol, that you would conceal me until your wrath is past, that you would appoint me a set time, and remember me!

Job 14:14 If mortals die, will they live again? All the days of my service I would wait until my release should come.

Job 14:15 You would call, and I would answer you; you would long for the work of your hands.

Job 14:16 For then you would not number my steps, you would not keep watch over my sin;

Job 14:17 my transgression would be sealed up in a bag, and you would cover over my iniquity.

Job 14:18 “But the mountain falls and crumbles away, and the rock is removed from its place;

Job 14:19 the waters wear away the stones; the torrents wash away the soil of the earth; so you destroy the hope of mortals.

Job 14:20 You prevail forever against them, and they pass away; you change their countenance, and send them away.

Job 14:21 Their children come to honor, and they do not know it; they are brought low, and it goes unnoticed.

Job 14:22 They feel only the pain of their own bodies, and mourn only for themselves.”

Job 15:1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered:

Job 15:2 “Should the wise answer with windy knowledge, and fill themselves with the east wind?

Job 15:3 Should they argue in unprofitable talk, or in words with which they can do no good?

Job 15:4 But you are doing away with the fear of God, and hindering meditation before God.

Job 15:5 For your iniquity teaches your mouth, and you choose the tongue of the crafty.

Job 15:6 Your own mouth condemns you, and not I; your own lips testify against you.

Job 15:7 “Are you the firstborn of the human race? Were you brought forth before the hills?

Job 15:8 Have you listened in the council of God? And do you limit wisdom to yourself?

Job 15:9 What do you know that we do not know? What do you understand that is not clear to us?

Job 15:10 The gray-haired and the aged are on our side, those older than your father.

Job 15:11 Are the consolations of God too small for you, or the word that deals gently with you?

Job 15:12 Why does your heart carry you away, and why do your eyes flash, Job 15:13 so that you turn your spirit against God, and let such words go out of your mouth?

Job 15:14 What are mortals, that they can be clean? Or those born of woman, that they can be righteous?

Job 15:15 God puts no trust even in his holy ones, and the heavens are not clean in his sight;

Job 15:16 how much less one who is abominable and corrupt, one who drinks iniquity like water!

Job 15:17 “I will show you; listen to me; what I have seen I will declare—

Job 15:18 what sages have told, and their ancestors have not hidden,

Job 15:19 to whom alone the land was given, and no stranger passed among them.

Job 15:20 The wicked writhe in pain all their days, through all the years that are laid up for the ruthless.

Job 15:21 Terrifying sounds are in their ears; in prosperity the destroyer will come upon them.

Job 15:22 They despair of returning from darkness, and they are destined for the sword.

Job 15:23 They wander abroad for bread, saying, ‘Where is it?’ They know that a day of darkness is ready at hand;

Job 15:24 distress and anguish terrify them; they prevail against them, like a king prepared for battle.

Job 15:25 Because they stretched out their hands against God, and bid defiance to the Almighty,

Job 15:26 running stubbornly against him with a thick-bossed shield;

Job 15:27 because they have covered their faces with their fat, and gathered fat upon their loins,

Job 15:28 they will live in desolate cities, in houses that no one should inhabit, houses destined to become heaps of ruins;

Job 15:29 they will not be rich, and their wealth will not endure, nor will they strike root in the earth;

Job 15:30 they will not escape from darkness; the flame will dry up their shoots, and their blossom will be swept away by the wind.

Job 15:31 Let them not trust in emptiness, deceiving themselves; for emptiness will be their recompense.

Job 15:32 It will be paid in full before their time, and their branch will not be green.

Job 15:33 They will shake off their unripe grape, like the vine, and cast off their blossoms, like the olive tree.

Job 15:34 For the company of the godless is barren, and fire consumes the tents of bribery.

Job 15:35 They conceive mischief and bring forth evil and their heart prepares deceit."

Job 16:1 Then Job answered:

Job 16:2 "I have heard many such things; miserable comforters are you all.

Job 16:3 Have windy words no limit? Or what provokes you that you keep on talking?

Job 16:4 I also could talk as you do, if you were in my place; I could join words together against you, and shake my head at you.

Job 16:5 I could encourage you with my mouth, and the solace of my lips would assuage your pain.

Job 16:6 "If I speak, my pain is not assuaged, and if I forbear, how much of it leaves me?

Job 16:7 Surely now God has worn me out; he has made desolate all my company.

Job 16:8 And he has shriveled me up, which is a witness against me; my leanness has risen up against me, and it testifies to my face.

Job 16:9 He has torn me in his wrath, and hated me; he has gnashed his teeth at me; my adversary sharpens his eyes against me.

Job 16:10 They have gaped at me with their mouths; they have struck me insolently on the cheek; they mass themselves together against me.

Job 16:11 God gives me up to the ungodly, and casts me into the hands of the wicked.

Job 16:12 I was at ease, and he broke me in two; he seized me by the neck and dashed me to pieces; he set me up as his target;

Job 16:13 his archers surround me. He slashes open my kidneys, and shows no mercy; he pours out my gall on the ground.

Job 16:14 He bursts upon me again and again; he rushes at me like a warrior.

Job 16:15 I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin, and have laid my strength in the dust.

Job 16:16 My face is red with weeping, and deep darkness is on my eyelids,

Job 16:17 though there is no violence in my hands, and my prayer is pure.

Job 16:18 “O earth, do not cover my blood; let my outcry find no resting place.

Job 16:19 Even now, in fact, my witness is in heaven, and he that vouches for me is on high.

Job 16:20 My friends scorn me; my eye pours out tears to God,

Job 16:21 that he would maintain the right of a mortal with God, as one does for a neighbor.

Job 16:22 For when a few years have come, I shall go the way from which I shall not return.

Job 17:1 My spirit is broken, my days are extinct, the grave is ready for me.

Job 17:2 Surely there are mockers around me, and my eye dwells on their provocation.

Job 17:3 “Lay down a pledge for me with yourself; who is there that will give surety for me?

Job 17:4 Since you have closed their minds to understanding, therefore you will not let them triumph.

Job 17:5 Those who denounce friends for reward— the eyes of their children will fail.

Job 17:6 “He has made me a byword of the peoples, and I am one before whom people spit.

Job 17:7 My eye has grown dim from grief, and all my members are like a shadow.

Job 17:8 The upright are appalled at this, and the innocent stir themselves up against the godless.

Job 17:9 Yet the righteous hold to their way, and they that have clean hands grow stronger and stronger.

Job 17:10 But you, come back now, all of you, and I shall not find a sensible person among you.

Job 17:11 My days are past, my plans are broken off, the desires of my heart.

Job 17:12 They make night into day; ‘The light,’ they say, ‘is near to the darkness.’

Job 17:13 If I look for Sheol as my house, if I spread my couch in darkness,

Job 17:14 if I say to the Pit, ‘You are my father,’ and to the worm, ‘My mother,’ or ‘My sister,’

Job 17:15 where then is my hope? Who will see my hope?

Job 17:16 Will it go down to the bars of Sheol? Shall we descend together into the dust?”

Job 18:1 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered:

Job 18:2 “How long will you hunt for words? Consider, and then we shall speak.

Job 18:3 Why are we counted as cattle? Why are we stupid in your sight?

Job 18:4 You who tear yourself in your anger— shall the earth be forsaken because of you, or the rock be removed out of its place?

Job 18:5 “Surely the light of the wicked is put out, and the flame of their fire does not shine.

Job 18:6 The light is dark in their tent, and the lamp above them is put out.

Job 18:7 Their strong steps are shortened, and their own schemes throw them down.

Job 18:8 For they are thrust into a net by their own feet, and they walk into a pitfall.

Job 18:9 A trap seizes them by the heel; a snare lays hold of them.

Job 18:10 A rope is hid for them in the ground, a trap for them in the path.

Job 18:11 Terrors frighten them on every side, and chase them at their heels.

Job 18:12 Their strength is consumed by hunger, and calamity is ready for their stumbling.

Job 18:14 They are torn from the tent in which they trusted, and are brought to the king of terrors.

Job 18:16 Their roots dry up beneath, and their branches wither above.

Job 18:17 Their memory perishes from the earth, and they have no name in the street.

Job 18:18 They are thrust from light into darkness, and driven out of the world.

Job 18:19 They have no offspring or descendant among their people, and no survivor where they used to live.

Job 18:20 They of the west are appalled at their fate, and horror seizes those of the east.

Job 18:21 Surely such are the dwellings of the ungodly, such is the place of those who do not know God.”

Job 19:1 Then Job answered:

Job 19:2 “How long will you torment me, and break me in pieces with words?

Job 19:3 These ten times you have cast reproach upon me; are you not ashamed to wrong me?

Job 19:4 And even if it is true that I have erred, my error remains with me.

Job 19:5 If indeed you magnify yourselves against me, and make my humiliation an argument against me,

Job 19:6 know then that God has put me in the wrong, and closed his net around me.

Job 19:7 Even when I cry out, ‘Violence!’ I am not answered; I call aloud, but there is no justice.

Job 19:8 He has walled up my way so that I cannot pass, and he has set darkness upon my paths.

Job 19:9 He has stripped my glory from me, and taken the crown from my head.

Job 19:10 He breaks me down on every side, and I am gone, he has uprooted my hope like a tree.

Job 19:11 He has kindled his wrath against me, and counts me as his adversary.

Job 19:12 His troops come on together; they have thrown up siegeworks against me, and encamp around my tent.

Job 19:13 “He has put my family far from me, and my acquaintances are wholly estranged from me.

Job 19:14 My relatives and my close friends have failed me;

Job 19:15 the guests in my house have forgotten me; my serving girls count me as a stranger; I have become an alien in their eyes.

Job 19:16 I call to my servant, but he gives me no answer; I must myself plead with him.

Job 19:17 My breath is repulsive to my wife; I am loathsome to my own family.

Job 19:18 Even young children despise me; when I rise, they talk against me.

Job 19:19 All my intimate friends abhor me, and those whom I loved have turned against me.

Job 19:20 My bones cling to my skin and to my flesh, and I have escaped by the skin of my teeth.

Job 19:21 Have pity on me, have pity on me, O you my friends, for the hand of God has touched me!

Job 19:22 Why do you, like God, pursue me, never satisfied with my flesh?

Job 19:23 “O that my words were written down! O that they were inscribed in a book!

Job 19:24 O that with an iron pen and with lead they were engraved on a rock forever!

Job 19:25 For I know that my Redeemer lives, and that at the last he will stand upon the earth;

Job 19:26 and after my skin has been thus destroyed, then in my flesh I shall see God,

Job 19:27 whom I shall see on my side, and my eyes shall behold, and not another. My heart faints within me!

Job 19:28 If you say, ‘How we will persecute him!’ and, ‘The root of the matter is found in him’;

Job 19:29 be afraid of the sword, for wrath brings the punishment of the sword, so that you may know there is a judgment.”

Job 20:1 Then Zophar the Naamathite answered:

Job 20:2 “Pay attention! My thoughts urge me to answer, because of the agitation within me.

Job 20:3 I hear censure that insults me, and a spirit beyond my understanding answers me.

Job 20:4 Do you not know this from of old, ever since mortals were placed on earth,

Job 20:5 that the exulting of the wicked is short, and the joy of the godless is but for a moment?

Job 20:6 Even though they mount up high as the heavens, and their head reaches to the clouds,

Job 20:7 they will perish forever like their own dung; those who have seen them will say, ‘Where are they?’

Job 20:8 They will fly away like a dream, and not be found; they will be chased away like a vision of the night.

Job 20:9 The eye that saw them will see them no more, nor will their place behold them any longer.

Job 20:10 Their children will seek the favor of the poor, and their hands will give back their wealth.

Job 20:11 Their bodies, once full of youth, will lie down in the dust with them.

Job 20:12 “Though wickedness is sweet in their mouth, though they hide it under their tongues,

Job 20:13 though they are loath to let it go, and hold it in their mouths,

Job 20:14 yet their food is turned in their stomachs; it is the venom of asps within them.

Job 20:15 They swallow down riches and vomit them up again; God casts them out of their bellies.

Job 20:16 They will suck the poison of asps; the tongue of a viper will kill them.

Job 20:17 They will not look on the rivers, the streams flowing with honey and curds.

Job 20:18 They will give back the fruit of their toil, and will not swallow it down; from the profit of their trading they will get no enjoyment.

Job 20:19 For they have crushed and abandoned the poor, they have seized a house that they did not build.

Job 20:20 “They knew no quiet in their bellies; in their greed they let nothing escape.

Job 20:22 In full sufficiency they will be in distress; all the force of misery will come upon them.

Job 20:23 To fill their belly to the full God will send his fierce anger into them, and rain it upon them as their food.

Job 20:24 They will flee from an iron weapon; a bronze arrow will strike them through.

Job 20:25 It is drawn forth and comes out of their body, and the glittering point comes out of their gall; terrors come upon them.

Job 20:26 Utter darkness is laid up for their treasures; a fire fanned by no one will devour them; what is left in their tent will be consumed.

Job 20:27 The heavens will reveal their iniquity, and the earth will rise up against them.

Job 20:28 The possessions of their house will be carried away, dragged off in the day of God’s wrath.

Job 20:29 This is the portion of the wicked from God, the heritage decreed for them by God.”

Job 21:1 Then Job answered:

Job 21:2 “Listen carefully to my words, and let this be your consolation.

Job 21:3 Bear with me, and I will speak; then after I have spoken, mock on.

Job 21:4 As for me, is my complaint addressed to mortals? Why should I not be impatient?

Job 21:5 Look at me, and be appalled, and lay your hand upon your mouth.

Job 21:6 When I think of it I am dismayed, and shuddering seizes my flesh.

Job 21:7 Why do the wicked live on, reach old age, and grow mighty in power?

Job 21:9 Their houses are safe from fear, and no rod of God is upon them.

Job 21:10 Their bull breeds without fail; their cow calves and never miscarries.

Job 21:12 They sing to the tambourine and the lyre, and rejoice to the sound of the pipe.

Job 21:13 They spend their days in prosperity, and in peace they go down to Sheol.

Job 21:14 They say to God, 'Leave us alone! We do not desire to know your ways.

Job 21:15 What is the Almighty, that we should serve him? And what profit do we get if we pray to him?'

Job 21:16 Is not their prosperity indeed their own achievement? The plans of the wicked are repugnant to me.

Job 21:17 "How often is the lamp of the wicked put out? How often does calamity come upon them? How often does God distribute pains in his anger?

Job 21:18 How often are they like straw before the wind, and like chaff that the storm carries away?

Job 21:19 You say, 'God stores up their iniquity for their children.' Let it be paid back to them, so that they may know it.

Job 21:20 Let their own eyes see their destruction, and let them drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

Job 21:21 For what do they care for their household after them, when the number of their months is cut off?

Job 21:22 Will any teach God knowledge, seeing that he judges those that are on high?

Job 21:23 One dies in full prosperity, being wholly at ease and secure,

Job 21:24 his loins full of milk and the marrow of his bones moist.

Job 21:25 Another dies in bitterness of soul, never having tasted of good.

Job 21:26 They lie down alike in the dust, and the worms cover them.

Job 21:27 “Oh, I know your thoughts, and your schemes to wrong me.

Job 21:28 For you say, ‘Where is the house of the prince? Where is the tent in which the wicked lived?’

Job 21:29 Have you not asked those who travel the roads, and do you not accept their testimony,

Job 21:30 that the wicked are spared in the day of calamity, and are rescued in the day of wrath?

Job 21:31 Who declares their way to their face, and who repays them for what they have done?

Job 21:32 When they are carried to the grave, a watch is kept over their tomb.

Job 21:33 The clods of the valley are sweet to them; everyone will follow after, and those who went before are innumerable.

Job 21:34 How then will you comfort me with empty nothings? There is nothing left of your answers but falsehood.”

Job 22:1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered:

Job 22:2 “Can a mortal be of use to God? Can even the wisest be of service to him?

Job 22:3 Is it any pleasure to the Almighty if you are righteous, or is it gain to him if you make your ways blameless?

Job 22:4 Is it for your piety that he reproves you, and enters into judgment with you?

Job 22:5 Is not your wickedness great? There is no end to your iniquities.

Job 22:6 For you have exacted pledges from your family for no reason, and stripped the naked of their clothing.

Job 22:7 You have given no water to the weary to drink, and you have withheld bread from the hungry.

Job 22:8 The powerful possess the land, and the favored live in it.

Job 22:9 You have sent widows away empty-handed, and the arms of the orphans you have crushed.

Job 22:10 Therefore snares are around you, and sudden terror overwhelms you,

Job 22:11 or darkness so that you cannot see; a flood of water covers you.

Job 22:12 “Is not God high in the heavens? See the highest stars, how lofty they are!

Job 22:13 Therefore you say, 'What does God know? Can he judge through the deep darkness?

Job 22:14 Thick clouds enwrap him, so that he does not see, and he walks on the dome of heaven.'

Job 22:15 Will you keep to the old way that the wicked have trod?

Job 22:16 They were snatched away before their time; their foundation was washed away by a flood.

Job 22:17 They said to God, 'Leave us alone,' and 'What can the Almighty do to us?'

Job 22:18 Yet he filled their houses with good things— but the plans of the wicked are repugnant to me.

Job 22:19 The righteous see it and are glad; the innocent laugh them to scorn,

Job 22:20 saying, 'Surely our adversaries are cut off, and what they left, the fire has consumed.'

Job 22:21 "Agree with God, and be at peace; in this way good will come to you.

Job 22:22 Receive instruction from his mouth, and lay up his words in your heart.

Job 22:23 If you return to the Almighty, you will be restored, if you remove unrighteousness from your tents,

Job 22:24 if you treat gold like dust, and gold of Ophir like the stones of the torrent-bed,

Job 22:25 and if the Almighty is your gold and your precious silver,

Job 22:26 then you will delight yourself in the Almighty, and lift up your face to God.

Job 22:27 You will pray to him, and he will hear you, and you will pay your vows.

Job 22:28 You will decide on a matter, and it will be established for you, and light will shine on your ways.

Job 22:29 When others are humiliated, you say it is pride; for he saves the humble.

Job 22:30 He will deliver even those who are guilty; they will escape because of the cleanness of your hands."

Job 23:1 Then Job answered:

Job 23:2 "Today also my complaint is bitter; his hand is heavy despite my groaning.

Job 23:3 Oh, that I knew where I might find him, that I might come even to his dwelling!

Job 23:4 I would lay my case before him, and fill my mouth with arguments.

Job 23:5 I would learn what he would answer me, and understand what he would say to me.

Job 23:6 Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power? No; but he would give heed to me.

Job 23:7 There an upright person could reason with him, and I should be acquitted forever by my judge.

Job 23:8 “If I go forward, he is not there; or backward, I cannot perceive him;

Job 23:9 on the left he hides, and I cannot behold him; I turn to the right, but I cannot see him.

Job 23:10 But he knows the way that I take; when he has tested me, I shall come out like gold.

Job 23:11 My foot has held fast to his steps; I have kept his way and have not turned aside.

Job 23:12 I have not departed from the commandment of his lips; I have treasured in my bosom the words of his mouth.

Job 23:13 But he stands alone and who can dissuade him? What he desires, that he does.

Job 23:14 For he will complete what he appoints for me; and many such things are in his mind.

Job 23:15 Therefore I am terrified at his presence; when I consider, I am in dread of him.

Job 23:16 God has made my heart faint; the Almighty has terrified me;

Job 23:17 If only I could vanish in darkness, and thick darkness would cover my face!

Job 24:1 “Why are times not kept by the Almighty, and why do those who know him never see his days?

Job 24:2 The wicked remove landmarks; they seize flocks and pasture them.

Job 24:3 They drive away the donkey of the orphan; they take the widow’s ox for a pledge.

Job 24:5 Like wild asses in the desert they go out to their toil, scavenging in the wasteland food for their young.

Job 24:6 They reap in a field not their own and they glean in the vineyard of the wicked.

Job 24:7 They lie all night naked, without clothing, and have no covering in the cold.

Job 24:8 They are wet with the rain of the mountains, and cling to the rock for want of shelter.

Job 24:9 “There are those who snatch the orphan child from the breast, and take as a pledge the infant of the poor.

Job 24:10 They go about naked, without clothing; though hungry, they carry the sheaves;

Job 24:11 between their terraces they press out oil; they tread the wine presses, but suffer thirst.

Job 24:12 From the city the dying groan, and the throat of the wounded cries for help; yet God pays no attention to their prayer.

Job 24:13 “There are those who rebel against the light, who are not acquainted with its ways, and do not stay in its paths.

Job 24:14 The murderer rises at dusk to kill the poor and needy, and in the night is like a thief.

Job 24:15 The eye of the adulterer also waits for the twilight, saying, ‘No eye will see me’; and he disguises his face.

Job 24:16 In the dark they dig through houses; by day they shut themselves up; they do not know the light.

Job 24:17 For deep darkness is morning to all of them; for they are friends with the terrors of deep darkness.

Job 24:18 “Swift are they on the face of the waters; their portion in the land is cursed; no treader turns toward their vineyards.

Job 24:19 Drought and heat snatch away the snow waters; so does Sheol those who have sinned.

Job 24:20 The womb forgets them; the worm finds them sweet; they are no longer remembered; so wickedness is broken like a tree.

Job 24:21 “They harm the childless woman, and do no good to the widow.

Job 24:22 Yet God prolongs the life of the mighty by his power; they rise up when they despair of life.

Job 24:23 He gives them security, and they are supported; his eyes are upon their ways.

Job 24:24 They are exalted a little while, and then are gone; they wither and fade like the mallow; they are cut off like the heads of grain.

Job 24:25 If it is not so, who will prove me a liar, and show that there is nothing in what I say?”

Job 25:1 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered:

Job 25:2 “Dominion and fear are with God; he makes peace in his high heaven.

Job 25:3 Is there any number to his armies? Upon whom does his light not arise?

Job 25:4 How then can a mortal be righteous before God? How can one born of woman be pure?

Job 25:5 If even the moon is not bright and the stars are not pure in his sight,

Job 25:6 how much less a mortal, who is a maggot, and a human being, who is a worm!”

Job 26:1 Then Job answered:

Job 26:2 “How you have helped one who has no power! How you have assisted the arm that has no strength!

Job 26:3 How you have counseled one who has no wisdom, and given much good advice!

Job 26:4 With whose help have you uttered words, and whose spirit has come forth from you?

Job 26:5 The shades below tremble, the waters and their inhabitants.

Job 26:6 Sheol is naked before God, and Abaddon has no covering.

Job 26:7 He stretches out Zaphon over the void, and hangs the earth upon nothing.

Job 26:8 He binds up the waters in his thick clouds, and the cloud is not torn open by them.

Job 26:9 He covers the face of the full moon, and spreads over it his cloud.

Job 26:10 He has described a circle on the face of the waters, at the boundary between light and darkness.

Job 26:11 The pillars of heaven tremble, and are astounded at his rebuke.

Job 26:12 By his power he stilled the Sea; by his understanding he struck down Rahab.

Job 26:13 By his wind the heavens were made fair; his hand pierced the fleeing serpent.

Job 26:14 These are indeed but the outskirts of his ways; and how small a whisper do we hear of him! But the thunder of his power who can understand?”

Job 27:1 Job again took up his discourse and said:

Job 27:2 “As God lives, who has taken away my right, and the Almighty, who has made my soul bitter,

Job 27:3 as long as my breath is in me and the spirit of God is in my nostrils,

Job 27:4 my lips will not speak falsehood, and my tongue will not utter deceit.

Job 27:5 Far be it from me to say that you are right; until I die I will not put away my integrity from me.

Job 27:6 I hold fast my righteousness, and will not let it go; my heart does not reproach me for any of my days.

Job 27:7 “May my enemy be like the wicked, and may my opponent be like the unrighteous.

Job 27:8 For what is the hope of the godless when God cuts them off, when God takes away their lives?

Job 27:9 Will God hear their cry when trouble comes upon them?

Job 27:10 Will they take delight in the Almighty? Will they call upon God at all times?

Job 27:11 I will teach you concerning the hand of God; that which is with the Almighty I will not conceal.

Job 27:12 All of you have seen it yourselves; why then have you become altogether vain?

Job 27:13 “This is the portion of the wicked with God, and the heritage that oppressors receive from the Almighty:

Job 27:14 If their children are multiplied, it is for the sword; and their offspring have not enough to eat.

Job 27:15 Those who survive them the pestilence buries, and their widows make no lamentation.

Job 27:16 Though they heap up silver like dust, and pile up clothing like clay—

Job 27:17 they may pile it up, but the just will wear it, and the innocent will divide the silver.

Job 27:18 They build their houses like nests, like booths made by sentinels of the vineyard.

Job 27:19 They go to bed with wealth, but will do so no more; they open their eyes, and it is gone.

Job 27:20 Terrors overtake them like a flood; in the night a whirlwind carries them off.

Job 27:21 The east wind lifts them up and they are gone; it sweeps them out of their place.

Job 27:22 It hurls at them without pity; they flee from its power in headlong flight.

Job 27:23 It claps its hands at them, and hisses at them from its place.

Job 28:1 “Surely there is a mine for silver, and a place for gold to be refined.

Job 28:2 Iron is taken out of the earth, and copper is smelted from ore.

Job 28:3 Miners put an end to darkness, and search out to the farthest bound the ore in gloom and deep darkness.

Job 28:4 They open shafts in a valley away from human habitation; they are forgotten by travelers, they sway suspended, remote from people.

Job 28:5 As for the earth, out of it comes bread; but underneath it is turned up as by fire.

Job 28:6 Its stones are the place of sapphires, and its dust contains gold.

Job 28:7 “That path no bird of prey knows, and the falcon’s eye has not seen it.

Job 28:8 The proud wild animals have not trodden it; the lion has not passed over it.

Job 28:9 “They put their hand to the flinty rock, and overturn mountains by the roots.

Job 28:10 They cut out channels in the rocks, and their eyes see every precious thing.

Job 28:11 The sources of the rivers they probe; hidden things they bring to light.

Job 28:12 “But where shall wisdom be found? And where is the place of understanding?

Job 28:13 Mortals do not know the way to it, and it is not found in the land of the living.

Job 28:14 The deep says, ‘It is not in me,’ and the sea says, ‘It is not with me.’

Job 28:15 It cannot be gotten for gold, and silver cannot be weighed out as its price.

Job 28:16 It cannot be valued in the gold of Ophir, in precious onyx or sapphire.

Job 28:17 Gold and glass cannot equal it, nor can it be exchanged for jewels of fine gold.

Job 28:18 No mention shall be made of coral or of crystal; the price of wisdom is above pearls.

Job 28:19 The chrysolite of Ethiopia cannot compare with it, nor can it be valued in pure gold.

Job 28:20 “Where then does wisdom come from? And where is the place of understanding?

Job 28:21 It is hidden from the eyes of all living, and concealed from the birds of the air.

Job 28:22 Abaddon and Death say, ‘We have heard a rumor of it with our ears.’

Job 28:23 “God understands the way to it, and he knows its place.

Job 28:24 For he looks to the ends of the earth, and sees everything under the heavens.

Job 28:25 When he gave to the wind its weight, and apportioned out the waters by measure;

Job 28:26 when he made a decree for the rain, and a way for the thunderbolt;

Job 28:27 then he saw it and declared it; he established it, and searched it out.

Job 28:28 And he said to humankind, ‘Truly, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding.’“

Job 29:1 Job again took up his discourse and said:

Job 29:2 “Oh, that I were as in the months of old, as in the days when God watched over me;

Job 29:3 when his lamp shone over my head, and by his light I walked through darkness;

Job 29:4 when I was in my prime, when the friendship of God was upon my tent;

Job 29:5 when the Almighty was still with me, when my children were around me;

Job 29:6 when my steps were washed with milk, and the rock poured out for me streams of oil!

Job 29:7 When I went out to the gate of the city, when I took my seat in the square,

Job 29:8 the young men saw me and withdrew, and the aged rose up and stood;

Job 29:9 the nobles refrained from talking, and laid their hands on their mouths;

Job 29:10 the voices of princes were hushed, and their tongues stuck to the roof of their mouths.

Job 29:11 When the ear heard, it commended me, and when the eye saw, it approved;

Job 29:12 because I delivered the poor who cried, and the orphan who had no helper.

Job 29:13 The blessing of the wretched came upon me, and I caused the widow’s heart to sing for joy.

Job 29:14 I put on righteousness, and it clothed me; my justice was like a robe and a turban.

Job 29:15 I was eyes to the blind, and feet to the lame.

Job 29:16 I was a father to the needy, and I championed the cause of the stranger.

Job 29:17 I broke the fangs of the unrighteous, and made them drop their prey from their teeth.

Job 29:18 Then I thought, 'I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiply my days like the phoenix;

Job 29:19 my roots spread out to the waters, with the dew all night on my branches;

Job 29:20 my glory was fresh with me, and my bow ever new in my hand.'

Job 29:21 "They listened to me, and waited, and kept silence for my counsel.

Job 29:22 After I spoke they did not speak again, and my word dropped upon them like dew.

Job 29:23 They waited for me as for the rain; they opened their mouths as for the spring rain.

Job 29:24 I smiled on them when they had no confidence; and the light of my countenance they did not extinguish.

Job 29:25 I chose their way, and sat as chief, and I lived like a king among his troops, like one who comforts mourners.

Job 30:1 "But now they make sport of me, those who are younger than I, whose fathers I would have disdained to set with the dogs of my flock.

Job 30:2 What could I gain from the strength of their hands? All their vigor is gone.

Job 30:3 Through want and hard hunger they gnaw the dry and desolate ground,

Job 30:4 they pick mallow and the leaves of bushes, and to warm themselves the roots of broom.

Job 30:5 They are driven out from society; people shout after them as after a thief.

Job 30:6 In the gullies of wadis they must live, in holes in the ground, and in the rocks.

Job 30:7 Among the bushes they bray; under the nettles they huddle together.

Job 30:8 A senseless, disreputable brood, they have been whipped out of the land.

Job 30:9 "And now they mock me in song; I am a byword to them.

Job 30:10 They abhor me, they keep aloof from me; they do not hesitate to spit at the sight of me.

Job 30:11 Because God has loosed my bowstring and humbled me, they have cast off restraint in my presence.

Job 30:12 On my right hand the rabble rise up; they send me sprawling, and build roads for my ruin.

Job 30:13 They break up my path, they promote my calamity; no one restrains them.

Job 30:14 As through a wide breach they come; amid the crash they roll on.

Job 30:15 Terrors are turned upon me; my honor is pursued as by the wind, and my prosperity has passed away like a cloud.

Job 30:16 “And now my soul is poured out within me; days of affliction have taken hold of me.

Job 30:17 The night racks my bones, and the pain that gnaws me takes no rest.

Job 30:18 With violence he seizes my garment; he grasps me by the collar of my tunic.

Job 30:19 He has cast me into the mire, and I have become like dust and ashes.

Job 30:20 I cry to you and you do not answer me; I stand, and you merely look at me.

Job 30:21 You have turned cruel to me; with the might of your hand you persecute me.

Job 30:22 You lift me up on the wind, you make me ride on it, and you toss me about in the roar of the storm.

Job 30:23 I know that you will bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living.

Job 30:24 “Surely one does not turn against the needy, when in disaster they cry for help.

Job 30:25 Did I not weep for those whose day was hard? Was not my soul grieved for the poor?

Job 30:26 But when I looked for good, evil came; and when I waited for light, darkness came.

Job 30:27 My inward parts are in turmoil, and are never still; days of affliction come to meet me.

Job 30:28 I go about in sunless gloom; I stand up in the assembly and cry for help.

Job 30:29 I am a brother of jackals, and a companion of ostriches.

Job 30:30 My skin turns black and falls from me, and my bones burn with heat.

Job 30:31 My lyre is turned to mourning, and my pipe to the voice of those who weep.

Job 31:1 “I have made a covenant with my eyes; how then could I look upon a virgin?

Job 31:2 What would be my portion from God above, and my heritage from the Almighty on high?

Job 31:3 Does not calamity befall the unrighteous, and disaster the workers of iniquity?

Job 31:4 Does he not see my ways, and number all my steps?

Job 31:5 “If I have walked with falsehood, and my foot has hurried to deceit—

Job 31:6 let me be weighed in a just balance, and let God know my integrity!—

Job 31:7 if my step has turned aside from the way, and my heart has followed my eyes, and if any spot has clung to my hands;

Job 31:8 then let me sow, and another eat; and let what grows for me be rooted out.

Job 31:9 “If my heart has been enticed by a woman, and I have lain in wait at my neighbor’s door;

Job 31:10 then let my wife grind for another, and let other men kneel over her.

Job 31:11 For that would be a heinous crime; that would be a criminal offense;

Job 31:12 for that would be a fire consuming down to Abaddon, and it would burn to the root all my harvest.

Job 31:13 “If I have rejected the cause of my male or female slaves, when they brought a complaint against me;

Job 31:14 what then shall I do when God rises up? When he makes inquiry, what shall I answer him?

Job 31:15 Did not he who made me in the womb make them? And did not one fashion us in the womb?

Job 31:16 “If I have withheld anything that the poor desired, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail,

Job 31:17 or have eaten my morsel alone, and the orphan has not eaten from it—

Job 31:18 for from my youth I reared the orphan like a father, and from my mother’s womb I guided the widow—

Job 31:19 if I have seen anyone perish for lack of clothing, or a poor person without covering,

Job 31:20 whose loins have not blessed me, and who was not warmed with the fleece of my sheep;

Job 31:21 if I have raised my hand against the orphan, because I saw I had supporters at the gate;

Job 31:22 then let my shoulder blade fall from my shoulder, and let my arm be broken from its socket.

Job 31:23 For I was in terror of calamity from God, and I could not have faced his majesty.

Job 31:24 “If I have made gold my trust, or called fine gold my confidence;

Job 31:25 if I have rejoiced because my wealth was great, or because my hand had gotten much;

Job 31:26 if I have looked at the sun when it shone, or the moon moving in splendor,

Job 31:27 and my heart has been secretly enticed, and my mouth has kissed my hand;

Job 31:28 this also would be an iniquity to be punished by the judges, for I should have been false to God above.

Job 31:29 “If I have rejoiced at the ruin of those who hated me, or exulted when evil overtook them—

Job 31:30 I have not let my mouth sin by asking for their lives with a curse—

Job 31:31 if those of my tent ever said, ‘O that we might be sated with his flesh!’—

Job 31:32 the stranger has not lodged in the street; I have opened my doors to the traveler—

Job 31:33 if I have concealed my transgressions as others do, by hiding my iniquity in my bosom,

Job 31:34 because I stood in great fear of the multitude, and the contempt of families terrified me, so that I kept silence, and did not go out of doors—

Job 31:35 Oh, that I had one to hear me! (Here is my signature! let the Almighty answer me!) Oh, that I had the indictment written by my adversary!

Job 31:36 Surely I would carry it on my shoulder; I would bind it on me like a crown;

Job 31:37 I would give him an account of all my steps; like a prince I would approach him.

Job 31:38 “If my land has cried out against me, and its furrows have wept together;

Job 31:39 if I have eaten its yield without payment, and caused the death of its owners;

Job 31:40 let thorns grow instead of wheat, and foul weeds instead of barley.” The words of Job are ended.

Job 32:1 So these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.

Job 32:2 Then Elihu son of Barachel the Buzite, of the family of Ram, became angry. He was angry at Job because he justified himself rather than God;

Job 32:3 he was angry also at Job’s three friends because they had found no answer, though they had declared Job to be in the wrong.

Job 32:4 Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job, because they were older than he.

Job 32:5 But when Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouths of these three men, he became angry.

Job 32:6 Elihu son of Barachel the Buzite answered: “I am young in years, and you are aged; therefore I was timid and afraid to declare my opinion to you.

Job 32:7 I said, ‘Let days speak, and many years teach wisdom.’

Job 32:8 But truly it is the spirit in a mortal, the breath of the Almighty, that makes for understanding.

Job 32:9 It is not the old that are wise, nor the aged that understand what is right.

Job 32:10 Therefore I say, ‘Listen to me; let me also declare my opinion.’

Job 32:11 “See, I waited for your words, I listened for your wise sayings, while you searched out what to say.

Job 32:12 I gave you my attention, but there was in fact no one that confuted Job, no one among you that answered his words.

Job 32:13 Yet do not say, ‘We have found wisdom; God may vanquish him, not a human.’

Job 32:14 He has not directed his words against me, and I will not answer him with your speeches.

Job 32:15 “They are dismayed, they answer no more; they have not a word to say.

Job 32:16 And am I to wait, because they do not speak, because they stand there, and answer no more?

Job 32:17 I also will give my answer; I also will declare my opinion.

Job 32:18 For I am full of words; the spirit within me constrains me.

Job 32:19 My heart is indeed like wine that has no vent; like new wineskins, it is ready to burst.

Job 32:20 I must speak, so that I may find relief; I must open my lips and answer.

Job 32:21 I will not show partiality to any person or use flattery toward anyone.

Job 32:22 For I do not know how to flatter— or my Maker would soon put an end to me!

Job 33:1 “But now, hear my speech, O Job, and listen to all my words.

Job 33:2 See, I open my mouth; the tongue in my mouth speaks.

Job 33:3 My words declare the uprightness of my heart, and what my lips know they speak sincerely.

Job 33:4 The spirit of God has made me, and the breath of the Almighty gives me life.

Job 33:5 Answer me, if you can; set your words in order before me; take your stand.

Job 33:6 See, before God I am as you are; I too was formed from a piece of clay.

Job 33:7 No fear of me need terrify you; my pressure will not be heavy on you.

Job 33:8 “Surely, you have spoken in my hearing, and I have heard the sound of your words.

Job 33:9 You say, ‘I am clean, without transgression; I am pure, and there is no iniquity in me.

Job 33:10 Look, he finds occasions against me, he counts me as his enemy;

Job 33:11 he puts my feet in the stocks, and watches all my paths.’

Job 33:12 “But in this you are not right. I will answer you: God is greater than any mortal.

Job 33:13 Why do you contend against him, saying, ‘He will answer none of my words’?

Job 33:14 For God speaks in one way, and in two, though people do not perceive it.

Job 33:15 In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls on mortals, while they slumber on their beds,

Job 33:16 then he opens their ears, and terrifies them with warnings,

Job 33:17 that he may turn them aside from their deeds, and keep them from pride,

Job 33:19 They are also chastened with pain upon their beds, and with continual strife in their bones,

Job 33:20 so that their lives loathe bread, and their appetites dainty food.

Job 33:21 Their flesh is so wasted away that it cannot be seen; and their bones, once invisible, now stick out.

Job 33:22 Their souls draw near the Pit, and their lives to those who bring death.

Job 33:23 Then, if there should be for one of them an angel, a mediator, one of a thousand, one who declares a person upright,

Job 33:24 and he is gracious to that person, and says, 'Deliver him from going down into the Pit; I have found a ransom;

Job 33:26 Then he prays to God, and is accepted by him, he comes into his presence with joy, and God repays him for his righteousness.

Job 33:27 That person sings to others and says, 'I sinned, and perverted what was right, and it was not paid back to me.

Job 33:28 He has redeemed my soul from going down to the Pit, and my life shall see the light.'

Job 33:29 "God indeed does all these things, twice, three times, with mortals,

Job 33:30 to bring back their souls from the Pit, so that they may see the light of life.

Job 33:31 Pay heed, Job, listen to me; be silent, and I will speak.

Job 33:32 If you have anything to say, answer me; speak, for I desire to justify you.

Job 33:33 If not, listen to me; be silent, and I will teach you wisdom."

Job 34:1 Then Elihu continued and said:

Job 34:2 "Hear my words, you wise men, and give ear to me, you who know;

Job 34:3 for the ear tests words as the palate tastes food.

Job 34:4 Let us choose what is right; let us determine among ourselves what is good.

Job 34:5 For Job has said, 'I am innocent, and God has taken away my right;

Job 34:6 in spite of being right I am counted a liar; my wound is incurable, though I am without transgression.'

Job 34:7 Who is there like Job, who drinks up scoffing like water,

Job 34:8 who goes in company with evildoers and walks with the wicked?

Job 34:9 For he has said, 'It profits one nothing to take delight in God.'

Job 34:10 "Therefore, hear me, you who have sense, far be it from God that he should do wickedness, and from the Almighty that he should do wrong.

Job 34:11 For according to their deeds he will repay them, and according to their ways he will make it befall them.

Job 34:12 Of a truth, God will not do wickedly, and the Almighty will not pervert justice.

Job 34:13 Who gave him charge over the earth and who laid on him the whole world?

Job 34:14 If he should take back his spirit to himself, and gather to himself his breath,

Job 34:15 all flesh would perish together, and all mortals return to dust.

Job 34:16 "If you have understanding, hear this; listen to what I say.

Job 34:17 Shall one who hates justice govern? Will you condemn one who is righteous and mighty,

Job 34:18 who says to a king, 'You scoundrel!' and to princes, 'You wicked men!';

Job 34:19 who shows no partiality to nobles, nor regards the rich more than the poor, for they are all the work of his hands?

Job 34:20 In a moment they die; at midnight the people are shaken and pass away, and the mighty are taken away by no human hand.

Job 34:21 "For his eyes are upon the ways of mortals, and he sees all their steps.

Job 34:22 There is no gloom or deep darkness where evildoers may hide themselves.

Job 34:23 For he has not appointed a time for anyone to go before God in judgment.

Job 34:24 He shatters the mighty without investigation, and sets others in their place.

Job 34:25 Thus, knowing their works, he overturns them in the night, and they are crushed.

Job 34:27 because they turned aside from following him, and had no regard for any of his ways,

Job 34:28 so that they caused the cry of the poor to come to him, and he heard the cry of the afflicted—

Job 34:29 When he is quiet, who can condemn? When he hides his face, who can behold him, whether it be a nation or an individual?—

Job 34:30 so that the godless should not reign, or those who ensnare the people.

Job 34:31 "For has anyone said to God, 'I have endured punishment; I will not offend any more;

Job 34:32 teach me what I do not see; if I have done iniquity, I will do it no more'?

Job 34:33 Will he then pay back to suit you, because you reject it? For you must choose, and not I; therefore declare what you know.

Job 34:34 Those who have sense will say to me, and the wise who hear me will say,

Job 34:35 'Job speaks without knowledge, his words are without insight.'

Job 34:36 Would that Job were tried to the limit, because his answers are those of the wicked.

Job 34:37 For he adds rebellion to his sin; he claps his hands among us, and multiplies his words against God."

Job 35:1 Elihu continued and said:

Job 35:2 "Do you think this to be just? You say, 'I am in the right before God.'

Job 35:3 If you ask, 'What advantage have I? How am I better off than if I had sinned?'

Job 35:4 I will answer you and your friends with you.

Job 35:5 Look at the heavens and see; observe the clouds, which are higher than you.

Job 35:6 If you have sinned, what do you accomplish against him? And if your transgressions are multiplied, what do you do to him?

Job 35:7 If you are righteous, what do you give to him; or what does he receive from your hand?

Job 35:8 Your wickedness affects others like you, and your righteousness, other human beings.

Job 35:9 "Because of the multitude of oppressions people cry out; they call for help because of the arm of the mighty.

Job 35:10 But no one says, 'Where is God my Maker, who gives strength in the night,

Job 35:11 who teaches us more than the animals of the earth, and makes us wiser than the birds of the air?'

Job 35:12 There they cry out, but he does not answer, because of the pride of evildoers.

Job 35:13 Surely God does not hear an empty cry, nor does the Almighty regard it.

Job 35:14 How much less when you say that you do not see him, that the case is before him, and you are waiting for him!

Job 35:15 And now, because his anger does not punish, and he does not greatly heed transgression, Job 35:16 Job opens his mouth in empty talk, he multiplies words without knowledge.”

Job 36:1 Elihu continued and said:

Job 36:2 “Bear with me a little, and I will show you, for I have yet something to say on God’s behalf.

Job 36:3 I will bring my knowledge from far away, and ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

Job 36:4 For truly my words are not false; one who is perfect in knowledge is with you.

Job 36:5 “Surely God is mighty and does not despise any; he is mighty in strength of understanding.

Job 36:6 He does not keep the wicked alive, but gives the afflicted their right.

Job 36:7 He does not withdraw his eyes from the righteous, but with kings on the throne he sets them forever, and they are exalted.

Job 36:8 And if they are bound in fetters and caught in the cords of affliction,

Job 36:9 then he declares to them their work and their transgressions, that they are behaving arrogantly.

Job 36:10 He opens their ears to instruction, and commands that they return from iniquity.

Job 36:11 If they listen, and serve him, they complete their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasantness.

Job 36:12 But if they do not listen, they shall perish by the sword, and die without knowledge.

Job 36:13 “The godless in heart cherish anger; they do not cry for help when he binds them.

Job 36:15 He delivers the afflicted by their affliction, and opens their ear by adversity.

Job 36:16 He also allured you out of distress into a broad place where there was no constraint, and what was set on your table was full of fatness.

Job 36:17 “But you are obsessed with the case of the wicked; judgment and justice seize you.

Job 36:18 Beware that wrath does not entice you into scoffing, and do not let the greatness of the ransom turn you aside.

Job 36:19 Will your cry avail to keep you from distress, or will all the force of your strength?

Job 36:20 Do not long for the night, when peoples are cut off in their place.

Job 36:21 Beware! Do not turn to iniquity; because of that you have been tried by affliction.

Job 36:22 See, God is exalted in his power; who is a teacher like him?

Job 36:23 Who has prescribed for him his way, or who can say, 'You have done wrong'?

Job 36:24 "Remember to extol his work, of which mortals have sung.

Job 36:25 All people have looked on it; everyone watches it from far away.

Job 36:26 Surely God is great, and we do not know him; the number of his years is unsearchable.

Job 36:27 For he draws up the drops of water; he distills his mist in rain,

Job 36:28 which the skies pour down and drop upon mortals abundantly.

Job 36:29 Can anyone understand the spreading of the clouds, the thunderings of his pavilion?

Job 36:30 See, he scatters his lightning around him and covers the roots of the sea.

Job 36:31 For by these he governs peoples; he gives food in abundance.

Job 36:32 He covers his hands with the lightning, and commands it to strike the mark.

Job 36:33 Its crashing tells about him; he is jealous with anger against iniquity.

Job 37:1 "At this also my heart trembles, and leaps out of its place.

Job 37:2 Listen, listen to the thunder of his voice and the rumbling that comes from his mouth.

Job 37:3 Under the whole heaven he lets it loose, and his lightning to the corners of the earth.

Job 37:4 After it his voice roars; he thunders with his majestic voice and he does not restrain the lightnings when his voice is heard.

Job 37:5 God thunders wondrously with his voice; he does great things that we cannot comprehend.

Job 37:6 For to the snow he says, 'Fall on the earth'; and the shower of rain, his heavy shower of rain,

Job 37:7 serves as a sign on everyone's hand, so that all whom he has made may know it.

Job 37:8 Then the animals go into their lairs and remain in their dens.

Job 37:9 From its chamber comes the whirlwind, and cold from the scattering winds.

Job 37:10 By the breath of God ice is given, and the broad waters are frozen fast.

Job 37:11 He loads the thick cloud with moisture; the clouds scatter his lightning.

Job 37:12 They turn round and round by his guidance, to accomplish all that he commands them on the face of the habitable world.

Job 37:13 Whether for correction, or for his land, or for love, he causes it to happen.

Job 37:14 “Hear this, O Job; stop and consider the wondrous works of God.

Job 37:15 Do you know how God lays his command upon them, and causes the lightning of his cloud to shine?

Job 37:16 Do you know the balancings of the clouds, the wondrous works of the one whose knowledge is perfect,

Job 37:17 you whose garments are hot when the earth is still because of the south wind?

Job 37:18 Can you, like him, spread out the skies, hard as a molten mirror?

Job 37:19 Teach us what we shall say to him; we cannot draw up our case because of darkness.

Job 37:20 Should he be told that I want to speak? Did anyone ever wish to be swallowed up?

Job 37:21 Now, no one can look on the light when it is bright in the skies, when the wind has passed and cleared them.

Job 37:22 Out of the north comes golden splendor; around God is awesome majesty.

Job 37:23 The Almighty— we cannot find him; he is great in power and justice, and abundant righteousness he will not violate.

Job 37:24 Therefore mortals fear him; he does not regard any who are wise in their own conceit.”

Job 38:1 Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind:

Job 38:2 “Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge?

Job 38:3 Gird up your loins like a man, I will question you, and you shall declare to me.

Job 38:4 “Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell me, if you have understanding.

Job 38:5 Who determined its measurements— surely you know! Or who stretched the line upon it?

Job 38:6 On what were its bases sunk, or who laid its cornerstone

Job 38:7 when the morning stars sang together and all the heavenly beings shouted for joy?

Job 38:8 “Or who shut in the sea with doors when it burst out from the womb?—

Job 38:9 when I made the clouds its garment, and thick darkness its swaddling band,

Job 38:10 and prescribed bounds for it, and set bars and doors,

Job 38:11 and said, ‘Thus far shall you come, and no farther, and here shall your proud waves be stopped’?

Job 38:12 “Have you commanded the morning since your days began, and caused the dawn to know its place,

Job 38:13 so that it might take hold of the skirts of the earth, and the wicked be shaken out of it?

Job 38:14 It is changed like clay under the seal, and it is dyed like a garment.

Job 38:15 Light is withheld from the wicked, and their uplifted arm is broken.

Job 38:16 “Have you entered into the springs of the sea, or walked in the recesses of the deep?

Job 38:17 Have the gates of death been revealed to you, or have you seen the gates of deep darkness?

Job 38:18 Have you comprehended the expanse of the earth? Declare, if you know all this.

Job 38:19 “Where is the way to the dwelling of light, and where is the place of darkness, Job 38:20 that you may take it to its territory and that you may discern the paths to its home?

Job 38:21 Surely you know, for you were born then, and the number of your days is great!

Job 38:22 “Have you entered the storehouses of the snow, or have you seen the storehouses of the hail,

Job 38:23 which I have reserved for the time of trouble, for the day of battle and war?

Job 38:24 What is the way to the place where the light is distributed, or where the east wind is scattered upon the earth?

Job 38:25 “Who has cut a channel for the torrents of rain, and a way for the thunderbolt, Job 38:26 to bring rain on a land where no one lives, on the desert, which is empty of human life,

Job 38:27 to satisfy the waste and desolate land, and to make the ground put forth grass?

Job 38:28 “Has the rain a father, or who has begotten the drops of dew?

Job 38:29 From whose womb did the ice come forth, and who has given birth to the hoarfrost of heaven?

Job 38:30 The waters become hard like stone, and the face of the deep is frozen.

Job 38:31 “Can you bind the chains of the Pleiades, or loose the cords of Orion?

Job 38:32 Can you lead forth the Mazzaroth in their season, or can you guide the Bear with its children?

Job 38:33 Do you know the ordinances of the heavens? Can you establish their rule on the earth?

Job 38:34 “Can you lift up your voice to the clouds, so that a flood of waters may cover you?

Job 38:35 Can you send forth lightnings, so that they may go and say to you, ‘Here we are’?

Job 38:36 Who has put wisdom in the inward parts, or given understanding to the mind?

Job 38:37 Who has the wisdom to number the clouds? Or who can tilt the waterskins of the heavens,

Job 38:38 when the dust runs into a mass and the clods cling together?

Job 38:39 “Can you hunt the prey for the lion, or satisfy the appetite of the young lions,

Job 38:40 when they crouch in their dens, or lie in wait in their covert?

Job 38:41 Who provides for the raven its prey, when its young ones cry to God, and wander about for lack of food?

Job 39:1 “Do you know when the mountain goats give birth? Do you observe the calving of the deer?

Job 39:2 Can you number the months that they fulfill, and do you know the time when they give birth,

Job 39:3 when they crouch to give birth to their offspring, and are delivered of their young?

Job 39:4 Their young ones become strong, they grow up in the open; they go forth, and do not return to them.

Job 39:5 “Who has let the wild ass go free? Who has loosed the bonds of the swift ass,

Job 39:6 to which I have given the steppe for its home, the salt land for its dwelling place?

Job 39:7 It scorns the tumult of the city; it does not hear the shouts of the driver.

Job 39:8 It ranges the mountains as its pasture, and it searches after every green thing.

Job 39:9 “Is the wild ox willing to serve you? Will it spend the night at your crib?

Job 39:10 Can you tie it in the furrow with ropes, or will it harrow the valleys after you?

Job 39:11 Will you depend on it because its strength is great, and will you hand over your labor to it?

Job 39:12 Do you have faith in it that it will return, and bring your grain to your threshing floor?

Job 39:13 “The ostrich’s wings flap wildly, though its pinions lack plumage.

Job 39:14 For it leaves its eggs to the earth, and lets them be warmed on the ground,

Job 39:15 forgetting that a foot may crush them, and that a wild animal may trample them.

Job 39:16 It deals cruelly with its young, as if they were not its own; though its labor should be in vain, yet it has no fear;

Job 39:17 because God has made it forget wisdom, and given it no share in understanding.

Job 39:18 When it spreads its plumes aloft, it laughs at the horse and its rider.

Job 39:19 “Do you give the horse its might? Do you clothe its neck with mane?

Job 39:20 Do you make it leap like the locust? Its majestic snorting is terrible.

Job 39:21 It paws violently, exults mightily; it goes out to meet the weapons.

Job 39:22 It laughs at fear, and is not dismayed; it does not turn back from the sword.

Job 39:23 Upon it rattle the quiver, the flashing spear, and the javelin.

Job 39:24 With fierceness and rage it swallows the ground; it cannot stand still at the sound of the trumpet.

Job 39:25 When the trumpet sounds, it says ‘Aha!’ From a distance it smells the battle, the thunder of the captains, and the shouting.

Job 39:26 “Is it by your wisdom that the hawk soars, and spreads its wings toward the south?

Job 39:27 Is it at your command that the eagle mounts up and makes its nest on high?

Job 39:28 It lives on the rock and makes its home in the fastness of the rocky crag.

Job 39:29 From there it spies the prey; its eyes see it from far away.

Job 39:30 Its young ones suck up blood; and where the slain are, there it is.”

Job 40:1 And the LORD said to Job:

Job 40:2 “Shall a faultfinder contend with the Almighty? Anyone who argues with God must respond.”

Job 40:3 Then Job answered the LORD:

Job 40:4 “See, I am of small account; what shall I answer you? I lay my hand on my mouth.

Job 40:5 I have spoken once, and I will not answer; twice, but will proceed no further.”

Job 40:6 Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind:

Job 40:7 “Gird up your loins like a man; I will question you, and you declare to me.

Job 40:8 Will you even put me in the wrong? Will you condemn me that you may be justified?

Job 40:9 Have you an arm like God, and can you thunder with a voice like his?

Job 40:10 “Deck yourself with majesty and dignity; clothe yourself with glory and splendor.

Job 40:11 Pour out the overflowings of your anger, and look on all who are proud, and abase them.

Job 40:12 Look on all who are proud, and bring them low; tread down the wicked where they stand.

Job 40:14 Then I will also acknowledge to you that your own right hand can give you victory.

Job 40:15 “Look at Behemoth, which I made just as I made you; it eats grass like an ox.

Job 40:16 Its strength is in its loins, and its power in the muscles of its belly.

Job 40:17 It makes its tail stiff like a cedar; the sinews of its thighs are knit together.

Job 40:18 Its bones are tubes of bronze, its limbs like bars of iron.

Job 40:19 “It is the first of the great acts of God— only its Maker can approach it with the sword.

Job 40:20 For the mountains yield food for it where all the wild animals play.

Job 40:21 Under the lotus plants it lies, in the covert of the reeds and in the marsh.

Job 40:22 The lotus trees cover it for shade; the willows of the wadi surround it.

Job 40:23 Even if the river is turbulent, it is not frightened; it is confident though Jordan rushes against its mouth.

Job 40:24 Can one take it with hooks or pierce its nose with a snare?

Job 41:1 “Can you draw out Leviathan with a fishhook, or press down its tongue with a cord?

Job 41:2 Can you put a rope in its nose, or pierce its jaw with a hook?

Job 41:3 Will it make many supplications to you? Will it speak soft words to you?

Job 41:4 Will it make a covenant with you to be taken as your servant forever?

Job 41:5 Will you play with it as with a bird, or will you put it on leash for your girls?

Job 41:6 Will traders bargain over it? Will they divide it up among the merchants?

Job 41:7 Can you fill its skin with harpoons, or its head with fishing spears?

Job 41:8 Lay hands on it; think of the battle; you will not do it again!

Job 41:9 Any hope of capturing it will be disappointed; were not even the gods overwhelmed at the sight of it?

Job 41:10 No one is so fierce as to dare to stir it up. Who can stand before it?

Job 41:11 Who can confront it and be safe?— under the whole heaven, who?

Job 41:12 “I will not keep silence concerning its limbs, or its mighty strength, or its splendid frame.

Job 41:13 Who can strip off its outer garment? Who can penetrate its double coat of mail?

Job 41:14 Who can open the doors of its face? There is terror all around its teeth.

Job 41:15 Its back is made of shields in rows, shut up closely as with a seal.

Job 41:16 One is so near to another that no air can come between them.

Job 41:17 They are joined one to another; they clasp each other and cannot be separated.

Job 41:18 Its sneezes flash forth light, and its eyes are like the eyelids of the dawn.

Job 41:20 Out of its nostrils comes smoke, as from a boiling pot and burning rushes.

Job 41:21 Its breath kindles coals, and a flame comes out of its mouth.

Job 41:22 In its neck abides strength, and terror dances before it.

Job 41:23 The folds of its flesh cling together; it is firmly cast and immovable.

Job 41:24 Its heart is as hard as stone, as hard as the lower millstone.

Job 41:25 When it raises itself up the gods are afraid; at the crashing they are beside themselves.

Job 41:26 Though the sword reaches it, it does not avail, nor does the spear, the dart, or the javelin.

Job 41:27 It counts iron as straw, and bronze as rotten wood.

Job 41:28 The arrow cannot make it flee; slingstones, for it, are turned to chaff.

Job 41:30 Its underparts are like sharp potsherds; it spreads itself like a threshing sledge on the mire.

Job 41:31 It makes the deep boil like a pot; it makes the sea like a pot of ointment.

Job 41:32 It leaves a shining wake behind it; one would think the deep to be white-haired.

Job 41:33 On earth it has no equal, a creature without fear.

Job 41:34 It surveys everything that is lofty; it is king over all that are proud.”

Job 42:1 Then Job answered the LORD:

Job 42:2 “I know that you can do all things, and that no purpose of yours can be thwarted.

Job 42:3 ‘Who is this that hides counsel without knowledge?’ Therefore I have uttered what I did not understand, things too wonderful for me, which I did not know.

Job 42:4 ‘Hear, and I will speak; I will question you, and you declare to me.’

Job 42:5 I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye sees you;

Job 42:6 therefore I despise myself, and repent in dust and ashes.”

Job 42:7 After the LORD had spoken these words to Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite: “My wrath is kindled against you and against your two friends; for you have not spoken of me what is right, as my servant Job has.

Job 42:8 Now therefore take seven bulls and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you, for I will accept his prayer not to deal with you according to your folly; for you have not spoken of me what is right, as my servant Job has done.”

Job 42:9 So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went and did what the LORD had told them; and the LORD accepted Job’s prayer.

Job 42:10 And the LORD restored the fortunes of Job when he had prayed for his friends; and the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before.

Job 42:11 Then there came to him all his brothers and sisters and all who had known him before, and they ate bread with him in his house; they showed him sympathy and comforted him for all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him; and each of them gave him a piece of money and a gold ring.

Job 42:12 The LORD blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning; and he had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand donkeys.

Job 42:13 He also had seven sons and three daughters.

Job 42:14 He named the first Jemimah, the second Keziah, and the third Keren-happuch.

Job 42:15 In all the land there were no women so beautiful as Job’s daughters; and their father gave them an inheritance along with their brothers.

Job 42:17 And Job died, old and full of days.

Psalms 75:6 For not from the east or from the west and not from the wilderness comes lifting up;

Psalms 75:7 but it is God who executes judgment, putting down one and lifting up another.

Psalms 75:8 For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup with foaming wine, well mixed; he will pour a draught from it, and all the wicked of the earth shall drain it down to the dregs.

Psalms 76:4 Glorious are you, more majestic than the everlasting mountains.

Psalms 76:5 The stouthearted were stripped of their spoil; they sank into sleep; none of the troops was able to lift a hand.

Psalms 76:6 At your rebuke, O God of Jacob, both rider and horse lay stunned.

Psalms 76:7 But you indeed are awesome! Who can stand before you when once your anger is roused?

Psalms 76:9 when God rose up to establish judgment, to save all the oppressed of the earth. Selah

Psalms 76:10 Human wrath serves only to praise you, when you bind the last bit of your wrath around you.

Psalms 76:12 who cuts off the spirit of princes, who inspires fear in the kings of the earth.

Psalms 77:1 <To the leader: according to Jeduthun. Of Asaph. A Psalm.> I cry aloud to God, aloud to God, that he may hear me.

Psalms 77:4 You keep my eyelids from closing; I am so troubled that I cannot speak.

Psalms 77:5 I consider the days of old, and remember the years of long ago.

Psalms 77:6 I commune with my heart in the night; I meditate and search my spirit:

Psalms 77:7 “Will the Lord spurn forever, and never again be favorable?

Psalms 77:8 Has his steadfast love ceased forever? Are his promises at an end for all time?

Psalms 77:9 Has God forgotten to be gracious? Has he in anger shut up his compassion?” Selah

Psalms 77:19 Your way was through the sea, your path, through the mighty waters; yet your footprints were unseen.

Psalms 77:20 You led your people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Psalms 78:1 <A Maskil of Asaph.> Give ear, O my people, to my teaching; incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

Psalms 78:2 I will open my mouth in a parable; I will utter dark sayings from of old,

Psalms 78:3 things that we have heard and known, that our ancestors have told us.

Psalms 78:4 We will not hide them from their children; we will tell to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the LORD, and his might, and the wonders that he has done.

Psalms 78:5 He established a decree in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our ancestors to teach to their children;

Psalms 78:6 that the next generation might know them, the children yet unborn, and rise up and tell them to their children,

Psalms 78:7 so that they should set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments;

Psalms 78:8 and that they should not be like their ancestors, a stubborn and rebellious generation, a generation whose heart was not steadfast, whose spirit was not faithful to God.

Psalms 78:9 The Ephraimites, armed with the bow, turned back on the day of battle.

Psalms 78:10 They did not keep God’s covenant, but refused to walk according to his law.

Psalms 78:11 They forgot what he had done, and the miracles that he had shown them.

Psalms 78:12 In the sight of their ancestors he worked marvels in the land of Egypt, in the fields of Zoan.

Psalms 78:13 He divided the sea and let them pass through it, and made the waters stand like a heap.

Psalms 78:14 In the daytime he led them with a cloud, and all night long with a fiery light.

Psalms 78:15 He split rocks open in the wilderness, and gave them drink abundantly as from the deep.

Psalms 78:16 He made streams come out of the rock, and caused waters to flow down like rivers.

Psalms 78:17 Yet they sinned still more against him, rebelling against the Most High in the desert.

Psalms 78:18 They tested God in their heart by demanding the food they craved.

Psalms 78:19 They spoke against God, saying, “Can God spread a table in the wilderness?

Psalms 78:20 Even though he struck the rock so that water gushed out and torrents overflowed, can he also give bread, or provide meat for his people?”

Psalms 78:21 Therefore, when the LORD heard, he was full of rage; a fire was kindled against Jacob, his anger mounted against Israel,

Psalms 78:22 because they had no faith in God, and did not trust his saving power.

Psalms 78:23 Yet he commanded the skies above, and opened the doors of heaven;

Psalms 78:24 he rained down on them manna to eat, and gave them the grain of heaven.

Psalms 78:25 Mortals ate of the bread of angels; he sent them food in abundance.

Psalms 78:26 He caused the east wind to blow in the heavens, and by his power he led out the south wind;

Psalms 78:27 he rained flesh upon them like dust, winged birds like the sand of the seas;

Psalms 78:28 he let them fall within their camp, all around their dwellings.

Psalms 78:29 And they ate and were well filled, for he gave them what they craved.

Psalms 78:30 But before they had satisfied their craving, while the food was still in their mouths,

Psalms 78:31 the anger of God rose against them and he killed the strongest of them, and laid low the flower of Israel.

Psalms 78:32 In spite of all this they still sinned; they did not believe in his wonders.

Psalms 78:33 So he made their days vanish like a breath, and their years in terror.

Psalms 78:34 When he killed them, they sought for him; they repented and sought God earnestly.

Psalms 78:35 They remembered that God was their rock, the Most High God their redeemer.

Psalms 78:37 Their heart was not steadfast toward him; they were not true to his covenant.

Psalms 78:38 Yet he, being compassionate, forgave their iniquity, and did not destroy them; often he restrained his anger, and did not stir up all his wrath.

Psalms 78:39 He remembered that they were but flesh, a wind that passes and does not come again.

Psalms 78:40 How often they rebelled against him in the wilderness and grieved him in the desert!

Psalms 78:41 They tested God again and again, and provoked the Holy One of Israel.

Psalms 78:42 They did not keep in mind his power, or the day when he redeemed them from the foe;

Psalms 78:43 when he displayed his signs in Egypt, and his miracles in the fields of Zoan.

Psalms 78:44 He turned their rivers to blood, so that they could not drink of their streams.

Psalms 78:45 He sent among them swarms of flies, which devoured them, and frogs, which destroyed them.

Psalms 78:46 He gave their crops to the caterpillar, and the fruit of their labor to the locust.

Psalms 78:48 He gave over their cattle to the hail, and their flocks to thunderbolts.

Psalms 78:49 He let loose on them his fierce anger, wrath, indignation, and distress, a company of destroying angels.

Psalms 78:50 He made a path for his anger; he did not spare them from death, but gave their lives over to the plague.

Psalms 78:51 He struck all the firstborn in Egypt, the first issue of their strength in the tents of Ham.

Psalms 78:52 Then he led out his people like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.

Psalms 78:53 He led them in safety, so that they were not afraid; but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.

Psalms 78:54 And he brought them to his holy hill, to the mountain that his right hand had won.

Psalms 78:55 He drove out nations before them; he apportioned them for a possession and settled the tribes of Israel in their tents.

Psalms 78:56 Yet they tested the Most High God, and rebelled against him. They did not observe his decrees,

Psalms 78:57 but turned away and were faithless like their ancestors; they twisted like a treacherous bow.

Psalms 78:58 For they provoked him to anger with their high places; they moved him to jealousy with their idols.

Psalms 78:59 When God heard, he was full of wrath, and he utterly rejected Israel.

Psalms 78:60 He abandoned his dwelling at Shiloh, the tent where he dwelt among mortals,

Psalms 78:61 and delivered his power to captivity, his glory to the hand of the foe.

Psalms 78:62 He gave his people to the sword, and vented his wrath on his heritage.

Psalms 78:64 Their priests fell by the sword, and their widows made no lamentation.

Psalms 78:65 Then the Lord awoke as from sleep, like a warrior shouting because of wine.

Psalms 78:66 He put his adversaries to rout; he put them to everlasting disgrace.

Psalms 78:67 He rejected the tent of Joseph, he did not choose the tribe of Ephraim;

Psalms 78:68 but he chose the tribe of Judah, Mount Zion, which he loves.

Psalms 78:69 He built his sanctuary like the high heavens, like the earth, which he has founded forever.

Psalms 78:70 He chose his servant David, and took him from the sheepfolds;

Psalms 78:71 from tending the nursing ewes he brought him to be the shepherd of his people Jacob, of Israel, his inheritance.

Psalms 78:72 With upright heart he tended them, and guided them with skillful hand.

Psalms 79:1 <A Psalm of Asaph.> O God, the nations have come into your inheritance; they have defiled your holy temple; they have laid Jerusalem in ruins.

Psalms 79:2 They have given the bodies of your servants to the birds of the air for food, the flesh of your faithful to the wild animals of the earth.

Psalms 79:3 They have poured out their blood like water all around Jerusalem, and there was no one to bury them.

Psalms 79:4 We have become a taunt to our neighbors, mocked and derided by those around us.

Psalms 79:5 How long, O LORD? Will you be angry forever? Will your jealous wrath burn like fire?

Psalms 79:6 Pour out your anger on the nations that do not know you, and on the kingdoms that do not call on your name.

Psalms 79:7 For they have devoured Jacob and laid waste his habitation.

Psalms 79:8 Do not remember against us the iniquities of our ancestors; let your compassion come speedily to meet us, for we are brought very low.

Psalms 79:9 Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of your name; deliver us, and forgive our sins, for your name’s sake.

Psalms 79:10 Why should the nations say, “Where is their God?” Let the avenging of the outpoured blood of your servants be known among the nations before our eyes.

Psalms 79:11 Let the groans of the prisoners come before you; according to your great power preserve those doomed to die.

Psalms 79:12 Return sevenfold into the bosom of our neighbors the taunts with which they taunted you, O Lord!

Psalms 79:13 Then we your people, the flock of your pasture, will give thanks to you forever; from generation to generation we will recount your praise.

Psalms 80:1 <To the leader: on Lilies, a Covenant. Of Asaph. A Psalm.> Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, you who lead Joseph like a flock! You who are enthroned upon the cherubim, shine forth Psalms 80:2 before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh. Stir up your might, and come to save us!

Psalms 80:3 Restore us, O God; let your face shine, that we may be saved.

Psalms 80:4 O LORD God of hosts, how long will you be angry with your people’s prayers?

Psalms 80:5 You have fed them with the bread of tears, and given them tears to drink in full measure.

Psalms 80:6 You make us the scorn of our neighbors; our enemies laugh among themselves.

Psalms 80:7 Restore us, O God of hosts; let your face shine, that we may be saved.

Psalms 80:8 You brought a vine out of Egypt; you drove out the nations and planted it.

Psalms 80:9 You cleared the ground for it; it took deep root and filled the land.

Psalms 80:10 The mountains were covered with its shade, the mighty cedars with its branches;

Psalms 80:11 it sent out its branches to the sea, and its shoots to the River.

Psalms 80:12 Why then have you broken down its walls, so that all who pass along the way pluck its fruit?

Psalms 80:13 The boar from the forest ravages it, and all that move in the field feed on it.

Psalms 80:14 Turn again, O God of hosts; look down from heaven, and see; have regard for this vine,

Psalms 80:16 They have burned it with fire, they have cut it down; may they perish at the rebuke of your countenance.

Psalms 80:17 But let your hand be upon the one at your right hand, the one whom you made strong for yourself.

Psalms 80:18 Then we will never turn back from you; give us life, and we will call on your name.

Psalms 80:19 Restore us, O LORD God of hosts; let your face shine, that we may be saved.

Psalms 81:4 For it is a statute for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob.

Psalms 81:5 He made it a decree in Joseph, when he went out over the land of Egypt. I hear a voice I had not known:

Psalms 81:6 “I relieved your shoulder of the burden; your hands were freed from the basket.

Psalms 81:7 In distress you called, and I rescued you; I answered you in the secret place of thunder; I tested you at the waters of Meribah. Selah

Psalms 81:8 Hear, O my people, while I admonish you; O Israel, if you would but listen to me!

Psalms 81:9 There shall be no strange god among you; you shall not bow down to a foreign god.

Psalms 81:10 I am the LORD your God, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt. Open your mouth wide and I will fill it.

Psalms 81:11 “But my people did not listen to my voice; Israel would not submit to me.

Psalms 81:12 So I gave them over to their stubborn hearts, to follow their own counsels.

Psalms 81:13 O that my people would listen to me, that Israel would walk in my ways!

Psalms 81:14 Then I would quickly subdue their enemies, and turn my hand against their foes.

Psalms 81:15 Those who hate the LORD would cringe before him, and their doom would last forever.

Psalms 81:16 I would feed you with the finest of the wheat, and with honey from the rock I would satisfy you.”

Psalms 83:4 They say, “Come, let us wipe them out as a nation; let the name of Israel be remembered no more.”

Psalms 83:5 They conspire with one accord; against you they make a covenant—

Psalms 83:15 so pursue them with your tempest and terrify them with your hurricane.

Psalms 83:16 Fill their faces with shame, so that they may seek your name, O LORD.

Proverbs

1:1 The proverbs of Solomon son of David, king of Israel:

Proverbs 1:2 For learning about wisdom and instruction, for understanding words of insight,

Proverbs 1:3 for gaining instruction in wise dealing, righteousness, justice, and equity;

Proverbs 1:4 to teach shrewdness to the simple, knowledge and prudence to the young—

Proverbs 1:5 Let the wise also hear and gain in learning, and the discerning acquire skill,

Proverbs 1:6 to understand a proverb and a figure, the words of the wise and their riddles.

Proverbs 1:7 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction.

Proverbs 1:8 Hear, my child, your father’s instruction, and do not reject your mother’s teaching;

Proverbs 1:9 for they are a fair garland for your head, and pendants for your neck.

Proverbs 1:10 My child, if sinners entice you, do not consent.

Proverbs 1:11 If they say, “Come with us, let us lie in wait for blood; let us wantonly ambush the innocent;

Proverbs 1:12 like Sheol let us swallow them alive and whole, like those who go down to the Pit.

Proverbs 1:13 We shall find all kinds of costly things; we shall fill our houses with booty.

Proverbs 1:14 Throw in your lot among us; we will all have one purse”—

Proverbs 1:15 my child, do not walk in their way, keep your foot from their paths;

Proverbs 1:16 for their feet run to evil, and they hurry to shed blood.

Proverbs 1:17 For in vain is the net baited while the bird is looking on;

Proverbs 1:18 yet they lie in wait— to kill themselves! and set an ambush— for their own lives!

Proverbs 1:19 Such is the end of all who are greedy for gain; it takes away the life of its possessors.

Proverbs 1:22 “How long, O simple ones, will you love being simple? How long will scoffers delight in their scoffing and fools hate knowledge?

Proverbs 1:23 Give heed to my reproof; I will pour out my thoughts to you; I will make my words known to you.

Proverbs 1:24 Because I have called and you refused, have stretched out my hand and no one heeded,

Proverbs 1:25 and because you have ignored all my counsel and would have none of my reproof,

Proverbs 1:26 I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when panic strikes you,

Proverbs 1:27 when panic strikes you like a storm, and your calamity comes like a whirlwind, when distress and anguish come upon you.

Proverbs 1:28 Then they will call upon me, but I will not answer; they will seek me diligently, but will not find me.

Proverbs 1:29 Because they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of the LORD,

Proverbs 1:30 would have none of my counsel, and despised all my reproof,

Proverbs 1:31 therefore they shall eat the fruit of their way and be sated with their own devices.

Proverbs 1:32 For waywardness kills the simple, and the complacency of fools destroys them;

Proverbs 1:33 but those who listen to me will be secure and will live at ease, without dread of disaster.”

Proverbs 2:1 My child, if you accept my words and treasure up my commandments within you,

Proverbs 2:2 making your ear attentive to wisdom and inclining your heart to understanding;

Proverbs 2:3 if you indeed cry out for insight, and raise your voice for understanding;

Proverbs 2:4 if you seek it like silver, and search for it as for hidden treasures—

Proverbs 2:5 then you will understand the fear of the LORD and find the knowledge of God.

Proverbs 2:6 For the LORD gives wisdom; from his mouth come knowledge and understanding;

Proverbs 2:7 he stores up sound wisdom for the upright; he is a shield to those who walk blamelessly,

Proverbs 2:8 guarding the paths of justice and preserving the way of his faithful ones.

Proverbs 2:9 Then you will understand righteousness and justice and equity, every good path;

Proverbs 2:10 for wisdom will come into your heart, and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul;

Proverbs 2:11 prudence will watch over you; and understanding will guard you.

Proverbs 2:12 It will save you from the way of evil, from those who speak perversely,

Proverbs 2:13 who forsake the paths of uprightness to walk in the ways of darkness,

Proverbs 2:14 who rejoice in doing evil and delight in the perverseness of evil;

Proverbs 2:15 those whose paths are crooked, and who are devious in their ways.

Proverbs 2:16 You will be saved from the loose woman, from the adulteress with her smooth words,

Proverbs 2:17 who forsakes the partner of her youth and forgets her sacred covenant;

Proverbs 2:18 for her way leads down to death, and her paths to the shades;

Proverbs 2:19 those who go to her never come back, nor do they regain the paths of life.

Proverbs 2:20 Therefore walk in the way of the good, and keep to the paths of the just.

Proverbs 2:21 For the upright will abide in the land, and the innocent will remain in it;

Proverbs 2:22 but the wicked will be cut off from the land, and the treacherous will be rooted out of it.

Proverbs 3:1 My child, do not forget my teaching, but let your heart keep my commandments;

Proverbs 3:2 for length of days and years of life and abundant welfare they will give you.

Proverbs 3:3 Do not let loyalty and faithfulness forsake you; bind them around your neck, write them on the tablet of your heart.

Proverbs 3:4 So you will find favor and good repute in the sight of God and of people.

Proverbs 3:5 Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not rely on your own insight.

Proverbs 3:6 In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths.

Proverbs 3:7 Do not be wise in your own eyes; fear the LORD, and turn away from evil.

Proverbs 3:8 It will be a healing for your flesh and a refreshment for your body.

Proverbs 3:9 Honor the LORD with your substance and with the first fruits of all your produce;

Proverbs 3:10 then your barns will be filled with plenty, and your vats will be bursting with wine.

Proverbs 3:11 My child, do not despise the LORD’s discipline or be weary of his reproof,

Proverbs 3:12 for the LORD reproves the one he loves, as a father the son in whom he delights.

Proverbs 3:13 Happy are those who find wisdom, and those who get understanding, Proverbs 3:14 for her income is better than silver, and her revenue better than gold.

Proverbs 3:15 She is more precious than jewels, and nothing you desire can compare with her.

Proverbs 3:16 Long life is in her right hand; in her left hand are riches and honor.

Proverbs 3:17 Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.

Proverbs 3:18 She is a tree of life to those who lay hold of her; those who hold her fast are called happy.

Proverbs 3:19 The LORD by wisdom founded the earth; by understanding he established the heavens;

Proverbs 3:20 by his knowledge the deeps broke open, and the clouds drop down the dew.

Proverbs 3:21 My child, do not let these escape from your sight: keep sound wisdom and prudence,

Proverbs 3:22 and they will be life for your soul and adornment for your neck.

Proverbs 3:23 Then you will walk on your way securely and your foot will not stumble.

Proverbs 3:24 If you sit down, you will not be afraid; when you lie down, your sleep will be sweet.

Proverbs 3:25 Do not be afraid of sudden panic, or of the storm that strikes the wicked;

Proverbs 3:26 for the LORD will be your confidence and will keep your foot from being caught.

Proverbs 3:27 Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in your power to do it.

Proverbs 3:28 Do not say to your neighbor, “Go, and come again, tomorrow I will give it”— when you have it with you.

Proverbs 3:29 Do not plan harm against your neighbor who lives trustingly beside you.

Proverbs 3:30 Do not quarrel with anyone without cause, when no harm has been done to you.

Proverbs 3:31 Do not envy the violent and do not choose any of their ways;

Proverbs 3:32 for the perverse are an abomination to the LORD, but the upright are in his confidence.

Proverbs 3:33 The LORD’s curse is on the house of the wicked, but he blesses the abode of the righteous.

Proverbs 3:34 Toward the scorners he is scornful, but to the humble he shows favor.

Proverbs 3:35 The wise will inherit honor, but stubborn fools, disgrace.

Proverbs 4:1 Listen, children, to a father’s instruction, and be attentive, that you may gain insight;

Proverbs 4:2 for I give you good precepts: do not forsake my teaching.

Proverbs 4:3 When I was a son with my father, tender, and my mother’s favorite,

Proverbs 4:4 he taught me, and said to me, “Let your heart hold fast my words; keep my commandments, and live.

Proverbs 4:5 Get wisdom; get insight: do not forget, nor turn away from the words of my mouth.

Proverbs 4:6 Do not forsake her, and she will keep you; love her, and she will guard you.

Proverbs 4:8 Prize her highly, and she will exalt you; she will honor you if you embrace her.

Proverbs 4:9 She will place on your head a fair garland; she will bestow on you a beautiful crown.”

Ecclesiastes

1:1 The words of the Teacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

Ecclesiastes 1:2 Vanity of vanities, says the Teacher, vanity of vanities! All is vanity.

Ecclesiastes 1:3 What do people gain from all the toil at which they toil under the sun?

Ecclesiastes 1:4 A generation goes, and a generation comes, but the earth remains forever.

Ecclesiastes 1:5 The sun rises and the sun goes down, and hurries to the place where it rises.

Ecclesiastes 1:6 The wind blows to the south, and goes around to the north; round and round goes the wind, and on its circuits the wind returns.

Ecclesiastes 1:7 All streams run to the sea, but the sea is not full; to the place where the streams flow, there they continue to flow.

Ecclesiastes 1:8 All things are wearisome; more than one can express; the eye is not satisfied with seeing, or the ear filled with hearing.

Ecclesiastes 1:9 What has been is what will be, and what has been done is what will be done; there is nothing new under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 1:10 Is there a thing of which it is said, “See, this is new”? It has already been, in the ages before us.

Ecclesiastes 1:11 The people of long ago are not remembered, nor will there be any remembrance of people yet to come by those who come after them.

Ecclesiastes 1:12 I, the Teacher, when king over Israel in Jerusalem,

Ecclesiastes 1:13 applied my mind to seek and to search out by wisdom all that is done under heaven; it is an unhappy business that God has given to human beings to be busy with.

Ecclesiastes 1:14 I saw all the deeds that are done under the sun; and see, all is vanity and a chasing after wind.

Ecclesiastes 1:15 What is crooked cannot be made straight, and what is lacking cannot be counted.

Ecclesiastes 1:16 I said to myself, “I have acquired great wisdom, surpassing all who were over Jerusalem before me; and my mind has had great experience of wisdom and knowledge.”

Ecclesiastes 1:17 And I applied my mind to know wisdom and to know madness and folly. I perceived that this also is but a chasing after wind.

Ecclesiastes 1:18 For in much wisdom is much vexation, and those who increase knowledge increase sorrow.

Ecclesiastes 2:1 I said to myself, “Come now, I will make a test of pleasure; enjoy yourself.” But again, this also was vanity.

Ecclesiastes 2:2 I said of laughter, “It is mad,” and of pleasure, “What use is it?”

Ecclesiastes 2:3 I searched with my mind how to cheer my body with wine— my mind still guiding me with wisdom— and how to lay hold on folly, until I might see what was good for mortals to do under heaven during the few days of their life.

Ecclesiastes 2:4 I made great works; I built houses and planted vineyards for myself;

Ecclesiastes 2:5 I made myself gardens and parks, and planted in them all kinds of fruit trees.

Ecclesiastes 2:6 I made myself pools from which to water the forest of growing trees.

Ecclesiastes 2:7 I bought male and female slaves, and had slaves who were born in my house; I also had great possessions of herds and flocks, more than any who had been before me in Jerusalem.

Ecclesiastes 2:8 I also gathered for myself silver and gold and the treasure of kings and of the provinces; I got singers, both men and women, and delights of the flesh, and many concubines.

Ecclesiastes 2:9 So I became great and surpassed all who were before me in Jerusalem; also my wisdom remained with me.

Ecclesiastes 2:10 Whatever my eyes desired I did not keep from them; I kept my heart from no pleasure, for my heart found pleasure in all my toil, and this was my reward for all my toil.

Ecclesiastes 2:11 Then I considered all that my hands had done and the toil I had spent in doing it, and again, all was vanity and a chasing after wind, and there was nothing to be gained under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 2:12 So I turned to consider wisdom and madness and folly; for what can the one do who comes after the king? Only what has already been done.

Ecclesiastes 2:13 Then I saw that wisdom excels folly as light excels darkness.

Ecclesiastes 2:14 The wise have eyes in their head, but fools walk in darkness. Yet I perceived that the same fate befalls all of them.

Ecclesiastes 2:15 Then I said to myself, “What happens to the fool will happen to me also; why then have I been so very wise?” And I said to myself that this also is vanity.

Ecclesiastes 2:16 For there is no enduring remembrance of the wise or of fools, seeing that in the days to come all will have been long forgotten. How can the wise die just like fools?

Ecclesiastes 2:17 So I hated life, because what is done under the sun was grievous to me; for all is vanity and a chasing after wind.

Ecclesiastes 2:18 I hated all my toil in which I had toiled under the sun, seeing that I must leave it to those who come after me

Ecclesiastes 2:19 —and who knows whether they will be wise or foolish? Yet they will be master of all for which I toiled and used my wisdom under the sun. This also is vanity.

Ecclesiastes 2:20 So I turned and gave my heart up to despair concerning all the toil of my labors under the sun,

Ecclesiastes 2:21 because sometimes one who has toiled with wisdom and knowledge and skill must leave all to be enjoyed by another who did not toil for it. This also is vanity and a great evil.

Ecclesiastes 2:22 What do mortals get from all the toil and strain with which they toil under the sun?

Ecclesiastes 2:23 For all their days are full of pain, and their work is a vexation; even at night their minds do not rest. This also is vanity.

Ecclesiastes 2:24 There is nothing better for mortals than to eat and drink, and find enjoyment in their toil. This also, I saw, is from the hand of God;

Ecclesiastes 2:25 for apart from him who can eat or who can have enjoyment?

Ecclesiastes 2:26 For to the one who pleases him God gives wisdom and knowledge and joy; but to the sinner he gives the work of gathering and heaping, only to give to one who pleases God. This also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

Ecclesiastes 3:1 For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven:

Ecclesiastes 3:2 a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;

Ecclesiastes 3:3 a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

Ecclesiastes 3:4 a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

Ecclesiastes 3:5 a time to throw away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

Ecclesiastes 3:6 a time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to throw away;

Ecclesiastes 3:7 a time to tear, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

Ecclesiastes 3:8 a time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.

Ecclesiastes 3:9 What gain have the workers from their toil?

Ecclesiastes 3:10 I have seen the business that God has given to everyone to be busy with.

Ecclesiastes 3:11 He has made everything suitable for its time; moreover he has put a sense of past and future into their minds, yet they cannot find out what God has done from the beginning to the end.

Ecclesiastes 3:12 I know that there is nothing better for them than to be happy and enjoy themselves as long as they live;

Ecclesiastes 3:13 moreover, it is God's gift that all should eat and drink and take pleasure in all their toil.

Ecclesiastes 3:14 I know that whatever God does endures forever; nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it; God has done this, so that all should stand in awe before him.

Ecclesiastes 3:15 That which is, already has been; that which is to be, already is; and God seeks out what has gone by.

Ecclesiastes 3:16 Moreover I saw under the sun that in the place of justice, wickedness was there, and in the place of righteousness, wickedness was there as well.

Ecclesiastes 3:17 I said in my heart, God will judge the righteous and the wicked, for he has appointed a time for every matter, and for every work.

Ecclesiastes 3:18 I said in my heart with regard to human beings that God is testing them to show that they are but animals.

Ecclesiastes 3:19 For the fate of humans and the fate of animals is the same; as one dies, so dies the other. They all have the same breath, and humans have no advantage over the animals; for all is vanity.

Ecclesiastes 3:20 All go to one place; all are from the dust, and all turn to dust again.

Ecclesiastes 3:21 Who knows whether the human spirit goes upward and the spirit of animals goes downward to the earth?

Ecclesiastes 3:22 So I saw that there is nothing better than that all should enjoy their work, for that is their lot; who can bring them to see what will be after them?

Ecclesiastes 4:1 Again I saw all the oppressions that are practiced under the sun. Look, the tears of the oppressed— with no one to comfort them! On the side of their oppressors there was power— with no one to comfort them.

Ecclesiastes 4:2 And I thought the dead, who have already died, more fortunate than the living, who are still alive;

Ecclesiastes 4:3 but better than both is the one who has not yet been, and has not seen the evil deeds that are done under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 4:4 Then I saw that all toil and all skill in work come from one person’s envy of another. This also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

Ecclesiastes 4:5 Fools fold their hands and consume their own flesh.

Ecclesiastes 4:6 Better is a handful with quiet than two handfuls with toil, and a chasing after wind.

Ecclesiastes 4:7 Again, I saw vanity under the sun:

Ecclesiastes 4:8 the case of solitary individuals, without sons or brothers; yet there is no end to all their toil, and their eyes are never satisfied with riches. “For whom am I toiling,” they ask, “and depriving myself of pleasure?” This also is vanity and an unhappy business.

Ecclesiastes 4:9 Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their toil.

Ecclesiastes 4:10 For if they fall, one will lift up the other; but woe to one who is alone and falls and does not have another to help.

Ecclesiastes 4:11 Again, if two lie together, they keep warm; but how can one keep warm alone?

Ecclesiastes 4:12 And though one might prevail against another, two will withstand one. A threefold cord is not quickly broken.

Ecclesiastes 4:13 Better is a poor but wise youth than an old but foolish king, who will no longer take advice.

Ecclesiastes 4:14 One can indeed come out of prison to reign, even though born poor in the kingdom.

Ecclesiastes 4:15 I saw all the living who, moving about under the sun, follow that youth who replaced the king;

Ecclesiastes 4:16 there was no end to all those people whom he led. Yet those who come later will not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

Ecclesiastes 5:1 Guard your steps when you go to the house of God; to draw near to listen is better than the sacrifice offered by fools; for they do not know how to keep from doing evil.

Ecclesiastes 5:2 Never be rash with your mouth, nor let your heart be quick to utter a word before God, for God is in heaven, and you upon earth; therefore let your words be few.

Ecclesiastes 5:3 For dreams come with many cares, and a fool’s voice with many words.

Ecclesiastes 5:4 When you make a vow to God, do not delay fulfilling it; for he has no pleasure in fools. Fulfill what you vow.

Ecclesiastes 5:5 It is better that you should not vow than that you should vow and not fulfill it.

Ecclesiastes 5:6 Do not let your mouth lead you into sin, and do not say before the messenger that it was a mistake; why should God be angry at your words, and destroy the work of your hands?

Ecclesiastes 5:7 With many dreams come vanities and a multitude of words; but fear God.

Ecclesiastes 5:8 If you see in a province the oppression of the poor and the violation of justice and right, do not be amazed at the matter; for the high official is watched by a higher, and there are yet higher ones over them.

Ecclesiastes 5:9 But all things considered, this is an advantage for a land: a king for a plowed field.

Ecclesiastes 5:10 The lover of money will not be satisfied with money; nor the lover of wealth, with gain. This also is vanity.

Ecclesiastes 5:11 When goods increase, those who eat them increase; and what gain has their owner but to see them with his eyes?

Ecclesiastes 5:12 Sweet is the sleep of laborers, whether they eat little or much; but the surfeit of the rich will not let them sleep.

Ecclesiastes 5:13 There is a grievous ill that I have seen under the sun: riches were kept by their owners to their hurt,

Ecclesiastes 5:14 and those riches were lost in a bad venture; though they are parents of children, they have nothing in their hands.

Ecclesiastes 5:15 As they came from their mother's womb, so they shall go again, naked as they came; they shall take nothing for their toil, which they may carry away with their hands.

Ecclesiastes 5:16 This also is a grievous ill: just as they came, so shall they go; and what gain do they have from toiling for the wind?

Ecclesiastes 5:17 Besides, all their days they eat in darkness, in much vexation and sickness and resentment.

Ecclesiastes 5:18 This is what I have seen to be good: it is fitting to eat and drink and find enjoyment in all the toil with which one toils under the sun the few days of the life God gives us; for this is our lot.

Ecclesiastes 5:19 Likewise all to whom God gives wealth and possessions and whom he enables to enjoy them, and to accept their lot and find enjoyment in their toil— this is the gift of God.

Ecclesiastes 5:20 For they will scarcely brood over the days of their lives, because God keeps them occupied with the joy of their hearts.

Ecclesiastes 6:1 There is an evil that I have seen under the sun, and it lies heavy upon humankind:

Ecclesiastes 6:2 those to whom God gives wealth, possessions, and honor, so that they lack nothing of all that they desire, yet God does not enable them to enjoy these things, but a stranger enjoys them. This is vanity; it is a grievous ill.

Ecclesiastes 6:3 A man may beget a hundred children, and live many years; but however many are the days of his years, if he does not enjoy life's good things, or has no burial, I say that a stillborn child is better off than he.

Ecclesiastes 6:4 For it comes into vanity and goes into darkness, and in darkness its name is covered;

Ecclesiastes 6:5 moreover it has not seen the sun or known anything; yet it finds rest rather than he.

Ecclesiastes 6:6 Even though he should live a thousand years twice over, yet enjoy no good— do not all go to one place?

Ecclesiastes 6:7 All human toil is for the mouth, yet the appetite is not satisfied.

Ecclesiastes 6:8 For what advantage have the wise over fools? And what do the poor have who know how to conduct themselves before the living?

Ecclesiastes 6:9 Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of desire; this also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

Ecclesiastes 6:10 Whatever has come to be has already been named, and it is known what human beings are, and that they are not able to dispute with those who are stronger.

Ecclesiastes 6:11 The more words, the more vanity, so how is one the better?

Ecclesiastes 6:12 For who knows what is good for mortals while they live the few days of their vain life, which they pass like a shadow? For who can tell them what will be after them under the sun?

Ecclesiastes 7:1 A good name is better than precious ointment, and the day of death, than the day of birth.

Ecclesiastes 7:2 It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting; for this is the end of everyone, and the living will lay it to heart.

Ecclesiastes 7:3 Sorrow is better than laughter, for by sadness of countenance the heart is made glad.

Ecclesiastes 7:4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

Ecclesiastes 7:5 It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise than to hear the song of fools.

Ecclesiastes 7:6 For like the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of fools; this also is vanity.

Ecclesiastes 7:7 Surely oppression makes the wise foolish, and a bribe corrupts the heart.

Ecclesiastes 7:8 Better is the end of a thing than its beginning; the patient in spirit are better than the proud in spirit.

Ecclesiastes 7:9 Do not be quick to anger, for anger lodges in the bosom of fools.

Ecclesiastes 7:10 Do not say, “Why were the former days better than these?” For it is not from wisdom that you ask this.

Ecclesiastes 7:11 Wisdom is as good as an inheritance, an advantage to those who see the sun.

Ecclesiastes 7:12 For the protection of wisdom is like the protection of money, and the advantage of knowledge is that wisdom gives life to the one who possesses it.

Ecclesiastes 7:13 Consider the work of God; who can make straight what he has made crooked?

Ecclesiastes 7:14 In the day of prosperity be joyful, and in the day of adversity consider; God has made the one as well as the other, so that mortals may not find out anything that will come after them.

Ecclesiastes 7:15 In my vain life I have seen everything; there are righteous people who perish in their righteousness, and there are wicked people who prolong their life in their evildoing.

Ecclesiastes 7:16 Do not be too righteous, and do not act too wise; why should you destroy yourself?

Ecclesiastes 7:17 Do not be too wicked, and do not be a fool; why should you die before your time?

Ecclesiastes 7:18 It is good that you should take hold of the one, without letting go of the other; for the one who fears God shall succeed with both.

Ecclesiastes 7:19 Wisdom gives strength to the wise more than ten rulers that are in a city.

Ecclesiastes 7:20 Surely there is no one on earth so righteous as to do good without ever sinning.

Ecclesiastes 7:21 Do not give heed to everything that people say, or you may hear your servant cursing you;

Ecclesiastes 7:22 your heart knows that many times you have yourself cursed others.

Ecclesiastes 7:23 All this I have tested by wisdom; I said, “I will be wise,” but it was far from me.

Ecclesiastes 7:24 That which is, is far off, and deep, very deep; who can find it out?

Ecclesiastes 7:25 I turned my mind to know and to search out and to seek wisdom and the sum of things, and to know that wickedness is folly and that foolishness is madness.

Ecclesiastes 7:26 I found more bitter than death the woman who is a trap, whose heart is snares and nets, whose hands are fetters; one who pleases God escapes her, but the sinner is taken by her.

Ecclesiastes 7:27 See, this is what I found, says the Teacher, adding one thing to another to find the sum, Ecclesiastes 7:28 which my mind has sought repeatedly, but I have not found. One man among a thousand I found, but a woman among all these I have not found.

Ecclesiastes 7:29 See, this alone I found, that God made human beings straightforward, but they have devised many schemes.

Ecclesiastes 8:1 Who is like the wise man? And who knows the interpretation of a thing? Wisdom makes one's face shine, and the hardness of one's countenance is changed.

Ecclesiastes 8:2 Keep the king's command because of your sacred oath.

Ecclesiastes 8:3 Do not be terrified; go from his presence, do not delay when the matter is unpleasant, for he does whatever he pleases.

Ecclesiastes 8:4 For the word of the king is powerful, and who can say to him, "What are you doing?"

Ecclesiastes 8:5 Whoever obeys a command will meet no harm, and the wise mind will know the time and way.

Ecclesiastes 8:6 For every matter has its time and way, although the troubles of mortals lie heavy upon them.

Ecclesiastes 8:7 Indeed, they do not know what is to be, for who can tell them how it will be?

Ecclesiastes 8:8 No one has power over the wind to restrain the wind, or power over the day of death; there is no discharge from the battle, nor does wickedness deliver those who practice it.

Ecclesiastes 8:9 All this I observed, applying my mind to all that is done under the sun, while one person exercises authority over another to the other's hurt.

Ecclesiastes 8:10 Then I saw the wicked buried; they used to go in and out of the holy place, and were praised in the city where they had done such things. This also is vanity.

Ecclesiastes 8:11 Because sentence against an evil deed is not executed speedily, the human heart is fully set to do evil.

Ecclesiastes 8:12 Though sinners do evil a hundred times and prolong their lives, yet I know that it will be well with those who fear God, because they stand in fear before him, Ecclesiastes 8:13 but it will not be well with the wicked, neither will they prolong their days like a shadow, because they do not stand in fear before God.

Ecclesiastes 8:14 There is a vanity that takes place on earth, that there are righteous people who are treated according to the conduct of the wicked, and there are wicked people who are treated according to the conduct of the righteous. I said that this also is vanity.

Ecclesiastes 8:15 So I commend enjoyment, for there is nothing better for people under the sun than to eat, and drink, and enjoy themselves, for this will go with them in their toil through the days of life that God gives them under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 8:16 When I applied my mind to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done on earth, how one's eyes see sleep neither day nor night,

Ecclesiastes 8:17 then I saw all the work of God, that no one can find out what is happening under the sun. However much they may toil in seeking, they will not find it out; even though those who are wise claim to know, they cannot find it out.

Ecclesiastes 9:1 All this I laid to heart, examining it all, how the righteous and the wise and their deeds are in the hand of God; whether it is love or hate one does not know. Everything that confronts them

Ecclesiastes 9:2 is vanity, since the same fate comes to all, to the righteous and the wicked, to the good and the evil, to the clean and the unclean, to those who sacrifice and those who do not sacrifice. As are the good, so are the sinners; those who swear are like those who shun an oath.

Ecclesiastes 9:3 This is an evil in all that happens under the sun, that the same fate comes to everyone. Moreover, the hearts of all are full of evil; madness is in their hearts while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

Ecclesiastes 9:4 But whoever is joined with all the living has hope, for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

Ecclesiastes 9:5 The living know that they will die, but the dead know nothing; they have no more reward, and even the memory of them is lost.

Ecclesiastes 9:6 Their love and their hate and their envy have already perished; never again will they have any share in all that happens under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 9:7 Go, eat your bread with enjoyment, and drink your wine with a merry heart; for God has long ago approved what you do.

Ecclesiastes 9:8 Let your garments always be white; do not let oil be lacking on your head.

Ecclesiastes 9:9 Enjoy life with the wife whom you love, all the days of your vain life that are given you under the sun, because that is your portion in life and in your toil at which you toil under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 9:10 Whatever your hand finds to do, do with your might; for there is no work or thought or knowledge or wisdom in Sheol, to which you are going.

Ecclesiastes 9:11 Again I saw that under the sun the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, nor bread to the wise, nor riches to the intelligent, nor favor to the skillful; but time and chance happen to them all.

Ecclesiastes 9:12 For no one can anticipate the time of disaster. Like fish taken in a cruel net, and like birds caught in a snare, so mortals are snared at a time of calamity, when it suddenly falls upon them.

Ecclesiastes 9:13 I have also seen this example of wisdom under the sun, and it seemed great to me.

Ecclesiastes 9:14 There was a little city with few people in it. A great king came against it and besieged it, building great siegeworks against it.

Ecclesiastes 9:15 Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city. Yet no one remembered that poor man.

Ecclesiastes 9:16 So I said, “Wisdom is better than might; yet the poor man’s wisdom is despised, and his words are not heeded.”

Ecclesiastes 9:17 The quiet words of the wise are more to be heeded than the shouting of a ruler among fools.

Ecclesiastes 9:18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war, but one bungler destroys much good.

Ecclesiastes 10:1 Dead flies make the perfumer’s ointment give off a foul odor; so a little folly outweighs wisdom and honor.

Ecclesiastes 10:3 Even when fools walk on the road, they lack sense, and show to everyone that they are fools.

Ecclesiastes 10:4 If the anger of the ruler rises against you, do not leave your post, for calmness will undo great offenses.

Ecclesiastes 10:5 There is an evil that I have seen under the sun, as great an error as if it proceeded from the ruler:

Ecclesiastes 10:6 folly is set in many high places, and the rich sit in a low place.

Ecclesiastes 10:7 I have seen slaves on horseback, and princes walking on foot like slaves.

Ecclesiastes 10:8 Whoever digs a pit will fall into it; and whoever breaks through a wall will be bitten by a snake.

Ecclesiastes 10:9 Whoever quarries stones will be hurt by them; and whoever splits logs will be endangered by them.

Ecclesiastes 10:10 If the iron is blunt, and one does not whet the edge, then more strength must be exerted; but wisdom helps one to succeed.

Ecclesiastes 10:11 If the snake bites before it is charmed, there is no advantage in a charmer.

Ecclesiastes 10:12 Words spoken by the wise bring them favor, but the lips of fools consume them.

Ecclesiastes 10:13 The words of their mouths begin in foolishness, and their talk ends in wicked madness;

Ecclesiastes 10:14 yet fools talk on and on. No one knows what is to happen, and who can tell anyone what the future holds?

Ecclesiastes 10:15 The toil of fools wears them out, for they do not even know the way to town.

Ecclesiastes 10:16 Alas for you, O land, when your king is a servant, and your princes feast in the morning!

Ecclesiastes 10:17 Happy are you, O land, when your king is a nobleman, and your princes feast at the proper time— for strength, and not for drunkenness!

Ecclesiastes 10:18 Through sloth the roof sinks in, and through indolence the house leaks.

Ecclesiastes 10:19 Feasts are made for laughter; wine gladdens life, and money meets every need.

Ecclesiastes 10:20 Do not curse the king, even in your thoughts, or curse the rich, even in your bedroom; for a bird of the air may carry your voice, or some winged creature tell the matter.

Ecclesiastes 11:1 Send out your bread upon the waters, for after many days you will get it back.

Ecclesiastes 11:2 Divide your means seven ways, or even eight, for you do not know what disaster may happen on earth.

Ecclesiastes 11:3 When clouds are full, they empty rain on the earth; whether a tree falls to the south or to the north, in the place where the tree falls, there it will lie.

Ecclesiastes 11:4 Whoever observes the wind will not sow; and whoever regards the clouds will not reap.

Ecclesiastes 11:5 Just as you do not know how the breath comes to the bones in the mother’s womb, so you do not know the work of God, who makes everything.

Ecclesiastes 11:6 In the morning sow your seed, and at evening do not let your hands be idle; for you do not know which will prosper, this or that, or whether both alike will be good.

Ecclesiastes 11:7 Light is sweet, and it is pleasant for the eyes to see the sun.

Ecclesiastes 11:8 Even those who live many years should rejoice in them all; yet let them remember that the days of darkness will be many. All that comes is vanity.

Ecclesiastes 11:9 Rejoice, young man, while you are young, and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth. Follow the inclination of your heart and the desire of your eyes, but know that for all these things God will bring you into judgment.

Ecclesiastes 11:10 Banish anxiety from your mind, and put away pain from your body; for youth and the dawn of life are vanity.

Ecclesiastes 12:1 Remember your creator in the days of your youth, before the days of trouble come, and the years draw near when you will say, “I have no pleasure in them”;

Ecclesiastes 12:2 before the sun and the light and the moon and the stars are darkened and the clouds return with the rain;

Ecclesiastes 12:3 in the day when the guards of the house tremble, and the strong men are bent, and the women who grind cease working because they are few, and those who look through the windows see dimly;

Ecclesiastes 12:4 when the doors on the street are shut, and the sound of the grinding is low, and one rises up at the sound of a bird, and all the daughters of song are brought low;

Ecclesiastes 12:5 when one is afraid of heights, and terrors are in the road; the almond tree blossoms, the grasshopper drags itself along and desire fails; because all must go to their eternal home, and the mourners will go about the streets;

Ecclesiastes 12:6 before the silver cord is snapped, and the golden bowl is broken, and the pitcher is broken at the fountain, and the wheel broken at the cistern,

Ecclesiastes 12:7 and the dust returns to the earth as it was, and the breath returns to God who gave it.

Ecclesiastes 12:8 Vanity of vanities, says the Teacher; all is vanity.

Ecclesiastes 12:9 Besides being wise, the Teacher also taught the people knowledge, weighing and studying and arranging many proverbs.

Ecclesiastes 12:10 The Teacher sought to find pleasing words, and he wrote words of truth plainly.

Ecclesiastes 12:11 The sayings of the wise are like goads, and like nails firmly fixed are the collected sayings that are given by one shepherd.

Ecclesiastes 12:12 Of anything beyond these, my child, beware. Of making many books there is no end, and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

Ecclesiastes 12:13 The end of the matter; all has been heard. Fear God, and keep his commandments; for that is the whole duty of everyone.

Ecclesiastes 12:14 For God will bring every deed into judgment, including every secret thing, whether good or evil.

Song of Solomon

1:1 The Song of Songs, which is Solomon's.

Song of Solomon 1:2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth! For your love is better than wine,

Song of Solomon 1:3 your anointing oils are fragrant, your name is perfume poured out; therefore the maidens love you.

Song of Solomon 1:4 Draw me after you, let us make haste. The king has brought me into his chambers. We will exult and rejoice in you; we will extol your love more than wine; rightly do they love you.

Song of Solomon 1:5 I am black and beautiful, O daughters of Jerusalem, like the tents of Kedar, like the curtains of Solomon.

Song of Solomon 1:6 Do not gaze at me because I am dark, because the sun has gazed on me. My mother's sons were angry with me; they made me keeper of the vineyards, but my own vineyard I have not kept!

Song of Solomon 1:7 Tell me, you whom my soul loves, where you pasture your flock, where you make it lie down at noon; for why should I be like one who is veiled beside the flocks of your companions?

Song of Solomon 1:8 If you do not know, O fairest among women, follow the tracks of the flock, and pasture your kids beside the shepherds' tents.

Song of Solomon 1:9 I compare you, my love, to a mare among Pharaoh's chariots.

Song of Solomon 1:10 Your cheeks are comely with ornaments, your neck with strings of jewels.

Song of Solomon 1:11 We will make you ornaments of gold, studded with silver.

Song of Solomon 1:13 My beloved is to me a bag of myrrh that lies between my breasts.

Song of Solomon 1:14 My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blossoms in the vineyards of En-gedi.

Song of Solomon 1:15 Ah, you are beautiful, my love; ah, you are beautiful; your eyes are doves.

Song of Solomon 1:16 Ah, you are beautiful, my beloved, truly lovely. Our couch is green;

Song of Solomon 1:17 the beams of our house are cedar, our rafters are pine.

Song of Solomon 2:1 I am a rose of Sharon, a lily of the valleys.

Song of Solomon 2:2 As a lily among brambles, so is my love among maidens.

Song of Solomon 2:3 As an apple tree among the trees of the wood, so is my beloved among young men. With great delight I sat in his shadow, and his fruit was sweet to my taste.

Song of Solomon 2:4 He brought me to the banqueting house, and his intention toward me was love.

Song of Solomon 2:5 Sustain me with raisins, refresh me with apples; for I am faint with love.

Song of Solomon 2:6 O that his left hand were under my head, and that his right hand embraced me!

Song of Solomon 2:7 I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, by the gazelles or the wild does: do not stir up or awaken love until it is ready!

Song of Solomon 2:8 The voice of my beloved! Look, he comes, leaping upon the mountains, bounding over the hills.

Song of Solomon 2:9 My beloved is like a gazelle or a young stag. Look, there he stands behind our wall, gazing in at the windows, looking through the lattice.

Song of Solomon 2:10 My beloved speaks and says to me: “Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away;

Song of Solomon 2:11 for now the winter is past, the rain is over and gone.

Song of Solomon 2:12 The flowers appear on the earth; the time of singing has come, and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land.

Song of Solomon 2:13 The fig tree puts forth its figs, and the vines are in blossom; they give forth fragrance. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.

Song of Solomon 2:14 O my dove, in the clefts of the rock, in the covert of the cliff, let me see your face, let me hear your voice; for your voice is sweet, and your face is lovely.

Song of Solomon 2:15 Catch us the foxes, the little foxes, that ruin the vineyards— for our vineyards are in blossom.”

Song of Solomon 2:16 My beloved is mine and I am his; he pastures his flock among the lilies.

Song of Solomon 2:17 Until the day breathes and the shadows flee, turn, my beloved, be like a gazelle or a young stag on the cleft mountains.

Song of Solomon 3:1 Upon my bed at night I sought him whom my soul loves; I sought him, but found him not; I called him, but he gave no answer.

Song of Solomon 3:2 “I will rise now and go about the city, in the streets and in the squares; I will seek him whom my soul loves.” I sought him, but found him not.

Song of Solomon 3:3 The sentinels found me, as they went about in the city. “Have you seen him whom my soul loves?”

Song of Solomon 3:4 Scarcely had I passed them, when I found him whom my soul loves. I held him, and would not let him go until I brought him into my mother’s house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me.

Song of Solomon 3:5 I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, by the gazelles or the wild does: do not stir up or awaken love until it is ready!

Song of Solomon 3:6 What is that coming up from the wilderness, like a column of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all the fragrant powders of the merchant?

Song of Solomon 3:7 Look, it is the litter of Solomon! Around it are sixty mighty men of the mighty men of Israel,

Song of Solomon 3:8 all equipped with swords and expert in war, each with his sword at his thigh because of alarms by night.

Song of Solomon 3:10 He made its posts of silver, its back of gold, its seat of purple; its interior was inlaid with love. Daughters of Jerusalem,

Song of Solomon 3:11 come out. Look, O daughters of Zion, at King Solomon, at the crown with which his mother crowned him on the day of his wedding, on the day of the gladness of his heart.

Song of Solomon 4:1 How beautiful you are, my love, how very beautiful! Your eyes are doves behind your veil. Your hair is like a flock of goats, moving down the slopes of Gilead.

Song of Solomon 4:2 Your teeth are like a flock of shorn ewes that have come up from the washing, all of which bear twins, and not one among them is bereaved.

Song of Solomon 4:3 Your lips are like a crimson thread, and your mouth is lovely. Your cheeks are like halves of a pomegranate behind your veil.

Song of Solomon 4:4 Your neck is like the tower of David, built in courses; on it hang a thousand bucklers, all of them shields of warriors.

Song of Solomon 4:5 Your two breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle, that feed among the lilies.

Song of Solomon 4:6 Until the day breathes and the shadows flee, I will hasten to the mountain of myrrh and the hill of frankincense.

Song of Solomon 4:7 You are altogether beautiful, my love; there is no flaw in you.

Song of Solomon 4:8 Come with me from Lebanon, my bride; come with me from Lebanon. Depart from the peak of Amana, from the peak of Senir and Hermon, from the dens of lions, from the mountains of leopards.

Song of Solomon 4:9 You have ravished my heart, my sister, my bride, you have ravished my heart with a glance of your eyes, with one jewel of your necklace.

Song of Solomon 4:10 How sweet is your love, my sister, my bride! how much better is your love than wine, and the fragrance of your oils than any spice!

Song of Solomon 4:11 Your lips distill nectar, my bride; honey and milk are under your tongue; the scent of your garments is like the scent of Lebanon.

Song of Solomon 4:12 A garden locked is my sister, my bride, a garden locked, a fountain sealed.

Song of Solomon 4:13 Your channel is an orchard of pomegranates with all choicest fruits, henna with nard,

Song of Solomon 4:14 nard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense, myrrh and aloes, with all chief spices—

Song of Solomon 4:16 Awake, O north wind, and come, O south wind! Blow upon my garden that its fragrance may be wafted abroad. Let my beloved come to his garden, and eat its choicest fruits.

Song of Solomon 5:1 I come to my garden, my sister, my bride; I gather my myrrh with my spice, I eat my honeycomb with my honey, I drink my wine with my milk. Eat, friends, drink, and be drunk with love.

Song of Solomon 5:2 I slept, but my heart was awake. Listen! my beloved is knocking. “Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my perfect one; for my head is wet with dew, my locks with the drops of the night.”

Song of Solomon 5:3 I had put off my garment; how could I put it on again? I had bathed my feet; how could I soil them?

Song of Solomon 5:4 My beloved thrust his hand into the opening, and my inmost being yearned for him.

Song of Solomon 5:5 I arose to open to my beloved, and my hands dripped with myrrh, my fingers with liquid myrrh, upon the handles of the bolt.

Song of Solomon 5:6 I opened to my beloved, but my beloved had turned and was gone. My soul failed me when he spoke. I sought him, but did not find him; I called him, but he gave no answer.

Song of Solomon 5:7 Making their rounds in the city the sentinels found me; they beat me, they wounded me, they took away my mantle, those sentinels of the walls.

Song of Solomon 5:8 I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if you find my beloved, tell him this: I am faint with love.

Song of Solomon 5:9 What is your beloved more than another beloved, O fairest among women? What is your beloved more than another beloved, that you thus adjure us?

Song of Solomon 5:10 My beloved is all radiant and ruddy, distinguished among ten thousand.

Song of Solomon 5:12 His eyes are like doves beside springs of water, bathed in milk, fitly set.

Song of Solomon 5:14 His arms are rounded gold, set with jewels. His body is ivory work, encrusted with sapphires.

Song of Solomon 5:16 His speech is most sweet, and he is altogether desirable. This is my beloved and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.

Song of Solomon 6:1 Where has your beloved gone, O fairest among women? Which way has your beloved turned, that we may seek him with you?

Song of Solomon 6:2 My beloved has gone down to his garden, to the beds of spices, to pasture his flock in the gardens, and to gather lilies.

Song of Solomon 6:3 I am my beloved’s and my beloved is mine; he pastures his flock among the lilies.

Song of Solomon 6:4 You are beautiful as Tirzah, my love, comely as Jerusalem, terrible as an army with banners.

Song of Solomon 6:5 Turn away your eyes from me, for they overwhelm me! Your hair is like a flock of goats, moving down the slopes of Gilead.

Song of Solomon 6:6 Your teeth are like a flock of ewes, that have come up from the washing; all of them bear twins, and not one among them is bereaved.

Song of Solomon 6:8 There are sixty queens and eighty concubines, and maidens without number.

Song of Solomon 6:9 My dove, my perfect one, is the only one, the darling of her mother, flawless to her that bore her. The maidens saw her and called her happy; the queens and concubines also, and they praised her.

Song of Solomon 6:10 “Who is this that looks forth like the dawn, fair as the moon, bright as the sun, terrible as an army with banners?”

Song of Solomon 6:11 I went down to the nut orchard, to look at the blossoms of the valley, to see whether the vines had budded, whether the pomegranates were in bloom.

Song of Solomon 6:12 Before I was aware, my fancy set me in a chariot beside my prince.

Song of Solomon 6:13 Return, return, O Shulammite! Return, return, that we may look upon you. Why should you look upon the Shulammite, as upon a dance before two armies?

Song of Solomon 7:1 How graceful are your feet in sandals, O queenly maiden! Your rounded thighs are like jewels, the work of a master hand.

Song of Solomon 7:2 Your navel is a rounded bowl that never lacks mixed wine. Your belly is a heap of wheat, encircled with lilies.

Song of Solomon 7:3 Your two breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle.

Song of Solomon 7:4 Your neck is like an ivory tower. Your eyes are pools in Heshbon, by the gate of Bath-rabbim. Your nose is like a tower of Lebanon, overlooking Damascus.

Song of Solomon 7:5 Your head crowns you like Carmel, and your flowing locks are like purple; a king is held captive in the tresses.

Song of Solomon 7:7 You are stately as a palm tree, and your breasts are like its clusters.

Song of Solomon 7:8 I say I will climb the palm tree and lay hold of its branches. Oh, may your breasts be like clusters of the vine, and the scent of your breath like apples,

Song of Solomon 7:9 and your kisses like the best wine that goes down smoothly, gliding over lips and teeth.

Song of Solomon 7:10 I am my beloved’s, and his desire is for me.

Song of Solomon 7:11 Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the fields, and lodge in the villages;

Song of Solomon 7:12 let us go out early to the vineyards, and see whether the vines have budded, whether the grape blossoms have opened and the pomegranates are in bloom. There I will give you my love.

Song of Solomon 7:13 The mandrakes give forth fragrance, and over our doors are all choice fruits, new as well as old, which I have laid up for you, O my beloved.

Song of Solomon 8:1 O that you were like a brother to me, who nursed at my mother’s breast! If I met you outside, I would kiss you, and no one would despise me.

Song of Solomon 8:2 I would lead you and bring you into the house of my mother, and into the chamber of the one who bore me. I would give you spiced wine to drink, the juice of my pomegranates.

Song of Solomon 8:3 O that his left hand were under my head, and that his right hand embraced me!

Song of Solomon 8:4 I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, do not stir up or awaken love until it is ready!

Song of Solomon 8:5 Who is that coming up from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved? Under the apple tree I awakened you. There your mother was in labor with you; there she who bore you was in labor.

Song of Solomon 8:6 Set me as a seal upon your heart, as a seal upon your arm; for love is strong as death, passion fierce as the grave. Its flashes are flashes of fire, a raging flame.

Song of Solomon 8:7 Many waters cannot quench love, neither can floods drown it. If one offered for love all the wealth of his house, it would be utterly scorned.

Song of Solomon 8:8 We have a little sister, and she has no breasts. What shall we do for our sister, on the day when she is spoken for?

Song of Solomon 8:9 If she is a wall, we will build upon her a battlement of silver; but if she is a door, we will enclose her with boards of cedar.

Song of Solomon 8:10 I was a wall, and my breasts were like towers; then I was in his eyes as one who brings peace.

Song of Solomon 8:11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon; he entrusted the vineyard to keepers; each one was to bring for its fruit a thousand pieces of silver.

Song of Solomon 8:12 My vineyard, my very own, is for myself; you, O Solomon, may have the thousand, and the keepers of the fruit two hundred!

Song of Solomon 8:13 O you who dwell in the gardens, my companions are listening for your voice; let me hear it.

Song of Solomon 8:14 Make haste, my beloved, and be like a gazelle or a young stag upon the mountains of spices!

Isaiah

1:1 The vision ofIsaiah son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

Isaiah 1:2 Hear, O heavens, and listen, O earth; for the LORD has spoken: I reared children and brought them up, but they have rebelled against me.

Isaiah 1:3 The ox knows its owner, and the donkey its master's crib; but Israel does not know, my people do not understand.

Isaiah 1:4 Ah, sinful nation, people laden with iniquity, offspring who do evil, children who deal corruptly, who have forsaken the LORD, who have despised the Holy One of Israel, who are utterly estranged!

Isaiah 1:5 Why do you seek further beatings? Why do you continue to rebel? The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

Isaiah 1:6 From the sole of the foot even to the head, there is no soundness in it, but bruises and sores and bleeding wounds; they have not been drained, or bound up, or softened with oil.

Isaiah 1:7 Your country lies desolate, your cities are burned with fire; in your very presence aliens devour your land; it is desolate, as overthrown by foreigners.

Isaiah 1:9 If the LORD of hosts had not left us a few survivors, we would have been like Sodom, and become like Gomorrah.

Isaiah 1:10 Hear the word of the LORD, you rulers of Sodom! Listen to the teaching of our God, you people of Gomorrah!

Isaiah 1:11 What to me is the multitude of your sacrifices? says the LORD; I have had enough of burnt offerings of rams and the fat of fed beasts; I do not delight in the blood of bulls, or of lambs, or of goats.

Isaiah 1:12 When you come to appear before me, who asked this from your hand? Trample my courts no more;

Isaiah 1:13 bringing offerings is futile; incense is an abomination to me. New moon and sabbath and calling of convocation— I cannot endure solemn assemblies with iniquity.

Isaiah 1:14 Your new moons and your appointed festivals my soul hates; they have become a burden to me, I am weary of bearing them.

Isaiah 1:15 When you stretch out your hands, I will hide my eyes from you; even though you make many prayers, I will not listen; your hands are full of blood.

Isaiah 1:16 Wash yourselves; make yourselves clean; remove the evil of your doings from before my eyes; cease to do evil,

Isaiah 1:17 learn to do good; seek justice, rescue the oppressed, defend the orphan, plead for the widow.

Isaiah 1:18 Come now, let us argue it out, says the LORD: though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be like snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall become like wool.

Isaiah 1:19 If you are willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the land;

Isaiah 1:20 but if you refuse and rebel, you shall be devoured by the sword; for the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

Isaiah 1:21 How the faithful city has become a whore! She that was full of justice, righteousness lodged in her— but now murderers!

Isaiah 1:22 Your silver has become dross, your wine is mixed with water.

Isaiah 1:23 Your princes are rebels and companions of thieves. Everyone loves a bribe and runs after gifts. They do not defend the orphan, and the widow’s cause does not come before them.

Isaiah 1:24 Therefore says the Sovereign, the LORD of hosts, the Mighty One of Israel: Ah, I will pour out my wrath on my enemies, and avenge myself on my foes!

Isaiah 1:25 I will turn my hand against you; I will smelt away your dross as with lye and remove all your alloy.

Isaiah 1:26 And I will restore your judges as at the first, and your counselors as at the beginning. Afterward you shall be called the city of righteousness, the faithful city.

Isaiah 1:27 Zion shall be redeemed by justice, and those in her who repent, by righteousness.

Isaiah 1:28 But rebels and sinners shall be destroyed together, and those who forsake the LORD shall be consumed.

Isaiah 1:29 For you shall be ashamed of the oaks in which you delighted; and you shall blush for the gardens that you have chosen.

Isaiah 1:30 For you shall be like an oak whose leaf withers, and like a garden without water.

Isaiah 1:31 The strong shall become like tinder, and their work like a spark; they and their work shall burn together, with no one to quench them.

Isaiah 2:1 The word that Isaiah son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

Isaiah 2:2 In days to come the mountain of the LORD’s house shall be established as the highest of the mountains, and shall be raised above the hills; all the nations shall stream to it.

Isaiah 2:3 Many peoples shall come and say, “Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; that he may teach us his ways and that we may walk in his paths.” For out of Zion shall go forth instruction, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

Isaiah 2:4 He shall judge between the nations, and shall arbitrate for many peoples; they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

Isaiah 2:5 O house of Jacob, come, let us walk in the light of the LORD!

Isaiah 2:6 For you have forsaken the ways of your people, O house of Jacob. Indeed they are full of diviners from the east and of soothsayers like the Philistines, and they clasp hands with foreigners.

Isaiah 2:7 Their land is filled with silver and gold, and there is no end to their treasures; their land is filled with horses, and there is no end to their chariots.

Isaiah 2:8 Their land is filled with idols; they bow down to the work of their hands, to what their own fingers have made.

Isaiah 2:9 And so people are humbled, and everyone is brought low— do not forgive them!

Isaiah 2:10 Enter into the rock, and hide in the dust from the terror of the LORD, and from the glory of his majesty.

Isaiah 2:11 The haughty eyes of people shall be brought low, and the pride of everyone shall be humbled; and the LORD alone will be exalted in that day.

Isaiah 2:12 For the LORD of hosts has a day against all that is proud and lofty, against all that is lifted up and high;

Isaiah 2:13 against all the cedars of Lebanon, lofty and lifted up; and against all the oaks of Bashan;

Isaiah 2:14 against all the high mountains, and against all the lofty hills;

Isaiah 2:16 against all the ships of Tarshish, and against all the beautiful craft.

Isaiah 2:17 The haughtiness of people shall be humbled, and the pride of everyone shall be brought low; and the LORD alone will be exalted on that day.

Isaiah 2:18 The idols shall utterly pass away.

Isaiah 2:19 Enter the caves of the rocks and the holes of the ground, from the terror of the LORD, and from the glory of his majesty, when he rises to terrify the earth.

Isaiah 2:20 On that day people will throw away to the moles and to the bats their idols of silver and their idols of gold, which they made for themselves to worship,

Isaiah 2:21 to enter the caverns of the rocks and the clefts in the crags, from the terror of the LORD, and from the glory of his majesty, when he rises to terrify the earth.

Isaiah 2:22 Turn away from mortals, who have only breath in their nostrils, for of what account are they?

Isaiah 3:1 For now the Sovereign, the LORD of hosts, is taking away from Jerusalem and from Judah support and staff— all support of bread, and all support of water—

Isaiah 3:2 warrior and soldier, judge and prophet, diviner and elder,

Isaiah 3:3 captain of fifty and dignitary, counselor and skillful magician and expert enchanter.

Isaiah 3:4 And I will make boys their princes, and babes shall rule over them.

Isaiah 3:5 The people will be oppressed, everyone by another and everyone by a neighbor; the youth will be insolent to the elder, and the base to the honorable.

Isaiah 3:6 Someone will even seize a relative, a member of the clan, saying, “You have a cloak; you shall be our leader, and this heap of ruins shall be under your rule.”

Isaiah 3:7 But the other will cry out on that day, saying, “I will not be a healer; in my house there is neither bread nor cloak; you shall not make me leader of the people.”

Isaiah 3:8 For Jerusalem has stumbled and Judah has fallen, because their speech and their deeds are against the LORD, defying his glorious presence.

Isaiah 3:9 The look on their faces bears witness against them; they proclaim their sin like Sodom, they do not hide it. Woe to them! For they have brought evil on themselves.

Isaiah 3:10 Tell the innocent how fortunate they are, for they shall eat the fruit of their labors.

Isaiah 3:11 Woe to the guilty! How unfortunate they are, for what their hands have done shall be done to them.

Isaiah 3:12 My people— children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, your leaders mislead you, and confuse the course of your paths.

Isaiah 3:13 The LORD rises to argue his case; he stands to judge the peoples.

Isaiah 3:14 The LORD enters into judgment with the elders and princes of his people: It is you who have devoured the vineyard; the spoil of the poor is in your houses.

Isaiah 3:15 What do you mean by crushing my people, by grinding the face of the poor? says the Lord GOD of hosts.

Isaiah 3:16 The LORD said: Because the daughters of Zion are haughty and walk with outstretched necks, glancing wantonly with their eyes, mincing along as they go, tinkling with their feet;

Isaiah 3:17 the Lord will afflict with scabs the heads of the daughters of Zion, and the LORD will lay bare their secret parts.

Isaiah 3:18 In that day the Lord will take away the finery of the anklets, the headbands, and the crescents;

Isaiah 3:19 the pendants, the bracelets, and the scarfs;

Isaiah 3:20 the headdresses, the armlets, the sashes, the perfume boxes, and the amulets;

Isaiah 3:21 the signet rings and nose rings;

Isaiah 3:22 the festal robes, the mantles, the cloaks, and the handbags;

Isaiah 3:23 the garments of gauze, the linen garments, the turbans, and the veils.

Isaiah 3:24 Instead of perfume there will be a stench; and instead of a sash, a rope; and instead of well-set hair, baldness; and instead of a rich robe, a binding of sackcloth; instead of beauty, shame.

Isaiah 3:25 Your men shall fall by the sword and your warriors in battle.

Isaiah 3:26 And her gates shall lament and mourn; ravaged, she shall sit upon the ground.

Isaiah 4:1 Seven women shall take hold of one man in that day, saying, “We will eat our own bread and wear our own clothes; just let us be called by your name; take away our disgrace.”

Isaiah 4:2 On that day the branch of the LORD shall be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land shall be the pride and glory of the survivors of Israel.

Isaiah 4:3 Whoever is left in Zion and remains in Jerusalem will be called holy, everyone who has been recorded for life in Jerusalem,

Isaiah 4:4 once the Lord has washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion and cleansed the bloodstains of Jerusalem from its midst by a spirit of judgment and by a spirit of burning.

Isaiah 4:5 Then the LORD will create over the whole site of Mount Zion and over its places of assembly a cloud by day and smoke and the shining of a flaming fire by night. Indeed over all the glory there will be a canopy.

Isaiah 4:6 It will serve as a pavilion, a shade by day from the heat, and a refuge and a shelter from the storm and rain.

Isaiah 5:1 Let me sing for my beloved my love-song concerning his vineyard: My beloved had a vineyard on a very fertile hill.

Isaiah 5:2 He dug it and cleared it of stones, and planted it with choice vines; he built a watchtower in the midst of it, and hewed out a wine vat in it; he expected it to yield grapes, but it yielded wild grapes.

Isaiah 5:3 And now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and people of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard.

Isaiah 5:4 What more was there to do for my vineyard that I have not done in it? When I expected it to yield grapes, why did it yield wild grapes?

Isaiah 5:5 And now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard. I will remove its hedge, and it shall be devoured; I will break down its wall, and it shall be trampled down.

Isaiah 5:6 I will make it a waste; it shall not be pruned or hoed, and it shall be overgrown with briers and thorns; I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

Isaiah 5:7 For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the people of Judah are his pleasant planting; he expected justice, but saw bloodshed; righteousness, but heard a cry!

Isaiah 5:8 Ah, you who join house to house, who add field to field, until there is room for no one but you, and you are left to live alone in the midst of the land!

Isaiah 5:9 The LORD of hosts has sworn in my hearing: Surely many houses shall be desolate, large and beautiful houses, without inhabitant.

Isaiah 5:10 For ten acres of vineyard shall yield but one bath, and a homer of seed shall yield a mere ephah.

Isaiah 5:11 Ah, you who rise early in the morning in pursuit of strong drink, who linger in the evening to be inflamed by wine,

Isaiah 5:12 whose feasts consist of lyre and harp, tambourine and flute and wine, but who do not regard the deeds of the LORD, or see the work of his hands!

Isaiah 5:13 Therefore my people go into exile without knowledge; their nobles are dying of hunger, and their multitude is parched with thirst.

Isaiah 5:14 Therefore Sheol has enlarged its appetite and opened its mouth beyond measure; the nobility of Jerusalem and her multitude go down, her throng and all who exult in her.

Isaiah 5:15 People are bowed down, everyone is brought low, and the eyes of the haughty are humbled.

Isaiah 5:16 But the LORD of hosts is exalted by justice, and the Holy God shows himself holy by righteousness.

Isaiah 5:17 Then the lambs shall graze as in their pasture, fatlings and kids shall feed among the ruins.

Isaiah 5:18 Ah, you who drag iniquity along with cords of falsehood, who drag sin along as with cart ropes,

Isaiah 5:19 who say, “Let him make haste, let him speed his work that we may see it; let the plan of the Holy One of Israel hasten to fulfillment, that we may know it!”

Isaiah 5:20 Ah, you who call evil good and good evil, who put darkness for light and light for darkness, who put bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter!

Isaiah 5:21 Ah, you who are wise in your own eyes, and shrewd in your own sight!

Isaiah 5:22 Ah, you who are heroes in drinking wine and valiant at mixing drink,

Isaiah 5:23 who acquit the guilty for a bribe, and deprive the innocent of their rights!

Isaiah 5:24 Therefore, as the tongue of fire devours the stubble, and as dry grass sinks down in the flame, so their root will become rotten, and their blossom go up like dust; for they have rejected the instruction of the LORD of hosts, and have despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 5:25 Therefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against his people, and he stretched out his hand against them and struck them; the mountains quaked, and their corpses were like refuse in the streets. For all this his anger has not turned away, and his hand is stretched out still.

Isaiah 5:26 He will raise a signal for a nation far away, and whistle for a people at the ends of the earth; Here they come, swiftly, speedily!

Isaiah 5:27 None of them is weary, none stumbles, none slumbers or sleeps, not a loincloth is loose, not a sandal-thong broken;

Isaiah 5:28 their arrows are sharp, all their bows bent, their horses’ hoofs seem like flint, and their wheels like the whirlwind.

Isaiah 5:29 Their roaring is like a lion, like young lions they roar; they growl and seize their prey, they carry it off, and no one can rescue.

Isaiah 5:30 They will roar over it on that day, like the roaring of the sea. And if one look to the land— only darkness and distress; and the light grows dark with clouds.

Isaiah 6:1 In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple.

Isaiah 6:2 Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew.

Isaiah 6:3 And one called to another and said: “Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory.”

Isaiah 6:4 The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke.

Isaiah 6:5 And I said: “Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!”

Isaiah 6:6 Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs.

Isaiah 6:7 The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: “Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out.”

Isaiah 6:8 Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?” And I said, “Here am I; send me!”

Isaiah 6:9 And he said, “Go and say to this people: ‘Keep listening, but do not comprehend; keep looking, but do not understand.’

Isaiah 6:10 Make the mind of this people dull, and stop their ears, and shut their eyes, so that they may not look with their eyes, and listen with their ears, and comprehend with their minds, and turn and be healed.”

Isaiah 6:11 Then I said, “How long, O Lord?” And he said: “Until cities lie waste without inhabitant, and houses without people, and the land is utterly desolate;

Isaiah 6:12 until the LORD sends everyone far away, and vast is the emptiness in the midst of the land.

Isaiah 6:13 Even if a tenth part remain in it, it will be burned again, like a terebinth or an oak whose stump remains standing when it is felled.” The holy seed is its stump.

Isaiah 7:1 In the days of Ahaz son of Jotham son of Uzziah, king of Judah, King Rezin of Aram and King Pekah son of Remaliah of Israel went up to attack Jerusalem, but could not mount an attack against it.

Isaiah 7:2 When the house of David heard that Aram had allied itself with Ephraim, the heart of Ahaz and the heart of his people shook as the trees of the forest shake before the wind.

Isaiah 7:3 Then the LORD said to Isaiah, Go out to meet Ahaz, you and your son Shear-jashub, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool on the highway to the Fuller’s Field, Isaiah 7:4 and say to him, Take heed, be quiet, do not fear, and do not let your heart be faint because of these two smoldering stumps of firebrands, because of the fierce anger of Rezin and Aram and the son of Remaliah.

Isaiah 7:5 Because Aram— with Ephraim and the son of Remaliah— has plotted evil against you, saying,

Isaiah 7:6 Let us go up against Judah and cut off Jerusalem and conquer it for ourselves and make the son of Tabeel king in it;

Isaiah 7:7 therefore thus says the Lord GOD: It shall not stand, and it shall not come to pass.

Isaiah 7:8 For the head of Aram is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin. (Within sixty-five years Ephraim will be shattered, no longer a people.)

Isaiah 7:9 The head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is the son of Remaliah. If you do not stand firm in faith, you shall not stand at all.

Isaiah 7:10 Again the LORD spoke to Ahaz, saying,

Isaiah 7:11 Ask a sign of the LORD your God; let it be deep as Sheol or high as heaven.

Isaiah 7:12 But Ahaz said, I will not ask, and I will not put the LORD to the test.

Isaiah 7:13 Then Isaiah said: “Hear then, O house of David! Is it too little for you to weary mortals, that you weary my God also?

Isaiah 7:14 Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Look, the young woman is with child and shall bear a son, and shall name him Immanuel.

Isaiah 7:15 He shall eat curds and honey by the time he knows how to refuse the evil and choose the good.

Isaiah 7:16 For before the child knows how to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land before whose two kings you are in dread will be deserted.

Isaiah 7:17 The LORD will bring on you and on your people and on your ancestral house such days as have not come since the day that Ephraim departed from Judah— the king of Assyria.”

Isaiah 7:18 On that day the LORD will whistle for the fly that is at the sources of the streams of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.

Isaiah 7:19 And they will all come and settle in the steep ravines, and in the clefts of the rocks, and on all the thornbushes, and on all the pastures.

Isaiah 7:20 On that day the Lord will shave with a razor hired beyond the River— with the king of Assyria— the head and the hair of the feet, and it will take off the beard as well.

Isaiah 7:21 On that day one will keep alive a young cow and two sheep,

Isaiah 7:22 and will eat curds because of the abundance of milk that they give; for everyone that is left in the land shall eat curds and honey.

Isaiah 7:23 On that day every place where there used to be a thousand vines, worth a thousand shekels of silver, will become briers and thorns.

Isaiah 7:24 With bow and arrows one will go there, for all the land will be briers and thorns;

Isaiah 7:25 and as for all the hills that used to be hoed with a hoe, you will not go there for fear of briers and thorns; but they will become a place where cattle are let loose and where sheep tread.

Isaiah 8:1 Then the LORD said to me, Take a large tablet and write on it in common characters, “Belonging to Maher-shalal-hash-baz,” Isaiah 8:2 and have it attested for me by reliable witnesses, the priest Uriah and Zechariah son of Jeberechiah.

Isaiah 8:3 And I went to the prophetess, and she conceived and bore a son. Then the LORD said to me, Name him Maher-shalal-hash-baz;

Isaiah 8:4 for before the child knows how to call “My father” or “My mother,” the wealth of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria will be carried away by the king of Assyria.

Isaiah 8:5 The LORD spoke to me again:

Isaiah 8:6 Because this people has refused the waters of Shiloah that flow gently, and melt in fear before Rezin and the son of Remaliah;

Isaiah 8:7 therefore, the Lord is bringing up against it the mighty flood waters of the River, the king of Assyria and all his glory; it will rise above all its channels and overflow all its banks;

Isaiah 8:8 it will sweep on into Judah as a flood, and, pouring over, it will reach up to the neck; and its outspread wings will fill the breadth of your land, O Immanuel.

Isaiah 8:9 Band together, you peoples, and be dismayed; listen, all you far countries; gird yourselves and be dismayed; gird yourselves and be dismayed!

Isaiah 8:10 Take counsel together, but it shall be brought to naught; speak a word, but it will not stand, for God is with us.

Isaiah 8:11 For the LORD spoke thus to me while his hand was strong upon me, and warned me not to walk in the way of this people, saying:

Isaiah 8:12 Do not call conspiracy all that this people calls conspiracy, and do not fear what it fears, or be in dread.

Isaiah 8:13 But the LORD of hosts, him you shall regard as holy; let him be your fear, and let him be your dread.

Isaiah 8:14 He will become a sanctuary, a stone one strikes against; for both houses of Israel he will become a rock one stumbles over— a trap and a snare for the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

Isaiah 8:15 And many among them shall stumble; they shall fall and be broken; they shall be snared and taken.

Isaiah 8:16 Bind up the testimony, seal the teaching among my disciples.

Isaiah 8:17 I will wait for the LORD, who is hiding his face from the house of Jacob, and I will hope in him.

Isaiah 8:18 See, I and the children whom the LORD has given me are signs and portents in Israel from the LORD of hosts, who dwells on Mount Zion.

Isaiah 8:19 Now if people say to you, “Consult the ghosts and the familiar spirits that chirp and mutter; should not a people consult their gods, the dead on behalf of the living, Isaiah 8:20 for teaching and for instruction?” Surely, those who speak like this will have no dawn!

Isaiah 8:21 They will pass through the land, greatly distressed and hungry; when they are hungry, they will be enraged and will curse their king and their gods. They will turn their faces upward,

Isaiah 8:22 or they will look to the earth, but will see only distress and darkness, the gloom of anguish; and they will be thrust into thick darkness.

Isaiah 9:1 But there will be no gloom for those who were in anguish. In the former time he brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the latter time he will make glorious the way of the sea, the land beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations.

Isaiah 9:2 The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness— on them light has shined.

Isaiah 9:3 You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder.

Isaiah 9:4 For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian.

Isaiah 9:5 For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire.

Isaiah 9:6 For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Isaiah 9:7 His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom. He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

Isaiah 9:8 The Lord sent a word against Jacob, and it fell on Israel;

Isaiah 9:9 and all the people knew it— Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria— but in pride and arrogance of heart they said:

Isaiah 9:10 “The bricks have fallen, but we will build with dressed stones; the sycamores have been cut down, but we will put cedars in their place.”

Isaiah 9:11 So the LORD raised adversaries against them, and stirred up their enemies,

Isaiah 9:12 the Arameans on the east and the Philistines on the west, and they devoured Israel with open mouth. For all this his anger has not turned away; his hand is stretched out still.

Isaiah 9:13 The people did not turn to him who struck them, or seek the LORD of hosts.

Isaiah 9:14 So the LORD cut off from Israel head and tail, palm branch and reed in one day—

Isaiah 9:15 elders and dignitaries are the head, and prophets who teach lies are the tail;

Isaiah 9:16 for those who led this people led them astray, and those who were led by them were left in confusion.

Isaiah 9:17 That is why the Lord did not have pity on their young people, or compassion on their orphans and widows; for everyone was godless and an evildoer, and every mouth spoke folly. For all this his anger has not turned away, his hand is stretched out still.

Isaiah 9:18 For wickedness burned like a fire, consuming briers and thorns; it kindled the thickets of the forest, and they swirled upward in a column of smoke.

Isaiah 9:19 Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts the land was burned, and the people became like fuel for the fire; no one spared another.

Isaiah 9:20 They gorged on the right, but still were hungry, and they devoured on the left, but were not satisfied; they devoured the flesh of their own kindred;

Isaiah 9:21 Manasseh devoured Ephraim, and Ephraim Manasseh, and together they were against Judah. For all this his anger has not turned away; his hand is stretched out still.

Isaiah 10:1 Ah, you who make iniquitous decrees, who write oppressive statutes,

Isaiah 10:2 to turn aside the needy from justice and to rob the poor of my people of their right, that widows may be your spoil, and that you may make the orphans your prey!

Isaiah 10:3 What will you do on the day of punishment, in the calamity that will come from far away? To whom will you flee for help, and where will you leave your wealth,

Isaiah 10:4 so as not to crouch among the prisoners or fall among the slain? For all this his anger has not turned away; his hand is stretched out still.

Isaiah 10:5 Ah, Assyria, the rod of my anger— the club in their hands is my fury!

Isaiah 10:6 Against a godless nation I send him, and against the people of my wrath I command him, to take spoil and seize plunder, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

Isaiah 10:7 But this is not what he intends, nor does he have this in mind; but it is in his heart to destroy, and to cut off nations not a few.

Isaiah 10:8 For he says: “Are not my commanders all kings?

Isaiah 10:9 Is not Calno like Carchemish? Is not Hamath like Arpad? Is not Samaria like Damascus?

Isaiah 10:10 As my hand has reached to the kingdoms of the idols whose images were greater than those of Jerusalem and Samaria,

Isaiah 10:11 shall I not do to Jerusalem and her idols what I have done to Samaria and her images?”

Isaiah 10:12 When the Lord has finished all his work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, he will punish the arrogant boasting of the king of Assyria and his haughty pride.

Isaiah 10:13 For he says: “By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom, for I have understanding; I have removed the boundaries of peoples, and have plundered their treasures; like a bull I have brought down those who sat on thrones.

Isaiah 10:14 My hand has found, like a nest, the wealth of the peoples; and as one gathers eggs that have been forsaken, so I have gathered all the earth; and there was none that moved a wing, or opened its mouth, or chirped.”

Isaiah 10:15 Shall the ax vaunt itself over the one who wields it, or the saw magnify itself against the one who handles it? As if a rod should raise the one who lifts it up, or as if a staff should lift the one who is not wood!

Isaiah 10:16 Therefore the Sovereign, the LORD of hosts, will send wasting sickness among his stout warriors, and under his glory a burning will be kindled, like the burning of fire.

Isaiah 10:17 The light of Israel will become a fire, and his Holy One a flame; and it will burn and devour his thorns and briers in one day.

Isaiah 10:18 The glory of his forest and his fruitful land the LORD will destroy, both soul and body, and it will be as when an invalid wastes away.

Isaiah 10:19 The remnant of the trees of his forest will be so few that a child can write them down.

Isaiah 10:20 On that day the remnant of Israel and the survivors of the house of Jacob will no more lean on the one who struck them, but will lean on the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.

Isaiah 10:21 A remnant will return, the remnant of Jacob, to the mighty God.

Isaiah 10:22 For though your people Israel were like the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them will return. Destruction is decreed, overflowing with righteousness.

Isaiah 10:23 For the Lord GOD of hosts will make a full end, as decreed, in all the earth.

Isaiah 10:24 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD of hosts: O my people, who live in Zion, do not be afraid of the Assyrians when they beat you with a rod and lift up their staff against you as the Egyptians did.

Isaiah 10:25 For in a very little while my indignation will come to an end, and my anger will be directed to their destruction.

Isaiah 10:26 The LORD of hosts will wield a whip against them, as when he struck Midian at the rock of Oreb; his staff will be over the sea, and he will lift it as he did in Egypt.

Isaiah 10:27 On that day his burden will be removed from your shoulder, and his yoke will be destroyed from your neck. He has gone up from Rimmon,

Isaiah 10:28 he has come to Aiath; he has passed through Migron, at Michmash he stores his baggage;

Isaiah 10:29 they have crossed over the pass, at Geba they lodge for the night; Ramah trembles, Gibeah of Saul has fled.

Isaiah 10:31 Madmenah is in flight, the inhabitants of Gebim flee for safety.

Isaiah 10:32 This very day he will halt at Nob, he will shake his fist at the mount of daughter Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.

Isaiah 10:33 Look, the Sovereign, the LORD of hosts, will lop the boughs with terrifying power; the tallest trees will be cut down, and the lofty will be brought low.

Isaiah 10:34 He will hack down the thickets of the forest with an ax, and Lebanon with its majestic trees will fall.

Isaiah 11:1 A shoot shall come out from the stump of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots.

Isaiah 11:2 The spirit of the LORD shall rest on him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the LORD.

Isaiah 11:3 His delight shall be in the fear of the LORD. He shall not judge by what his eyes see, or decide by what his ears hear;

Isaiah 11:4 but with righteousness he shall judge the poor, and decide with equity for the meek of the earth; he shall strike the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips he shall kill the wicked.

Isaiah 11:5 Righteousness shall be the belt around his waist, and faithfulness the belt around his loins.

Isaiah 11:6 The wolf shall live with the lamb, the leopard shall lie down with the kid, the calf and the lion and the fatling together, and a little child shall lead them.

Isaiah 11:7 The cow and the bear shall graze, their young shall lie down together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

Isaiah 11:8 The nursing child shall play over the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put its hand on the adder’s den.

Isaiah 11:9 They will not hurt or destroy on all my holy mountain; for the earth will be full of the knowledge of the LORD as the waters cover the sea.

Isaiah 11:10 On that day the root of Jesse shall stand as a signal to the peoples; the nations shall inquire of him, and his dwelling shall be glorious.

Isaiah 11:11 On that day the Lord will extend his hand yet a second time to recover the remnant that is left of his people, from Assyria, from Egypt, from Pathros, from Ethiopia, from Elam, from Shinar, from Hamath, and from the coastlands of the sea.

Isaiah 11:12 He will raise a signal for the nations, and will assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth.

Isaiah 11:13 The jealousy of Ephraim shall depart, the hostility of Judah shall be cut off; Ephraim shall not be jealous of Judah, and Judah shall not be hostile towards Ephraim.

Isaiah 11:14 But they shall swoop down on the backs of the Philistines in the west, together they shall plunder the people of the east. They shall put forth their hand against Edom and Moab, and the Ammonites shall obey them.

Isaiah 11:15 And the LORD will utterly destroy the tongue of the sea of Egypt; and will wave his hand over the River with his scorching wind; and will split it into seven channels, and make a way to cross on foot;

Isaiah 11:16 so there shall be a highway from Assyria for the remnant that is left of his people, as there was for Israel when they came up from the land of Egypt.

Isaiah 12:1 You will say in that day: I will give thanks to you, O LORD, for though you were angry with me, your anger turned away, and you comforted me.

Isaiah 12:2 Surely God is my salvation; I will trust, and will not be afraid, for the LORD GOD is my strength and my might; he has become my salvation.

Isaiah 12:3 With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation.

Isaiah 12:4 And you will say in that day: Give thanks to the LORD, call on his name; make known his deeds among the nations; proclaim that his name is exalted.

Isaiah 12:5 Sing praises to the LORD, for he has done gloriously; let this be known in all the earth.

Isaiah 12:6 Shout aloud and sing for joy, O royal Zion, for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 13:1 The oracle concerning Babylon that Isaiah son of Amoz saw.

Isaiah 13:2 On a bare hill raise a signal, cry aloud to them; wave the hand for them to enter the gates of the nobles.

Isaiah 13:3 I myself have commanded my consecrated ones, have summoned my warriors, my proudly exulting ones, to execute my anger.

Isaiah 13:4 Listen, a tumult on the mountains as of a great multitude! Listen, an uproar of kingdoms, of nations gathering together! The LORD of hosts is mustering an army for battle.

Isaiah 13:5 They come from a distant land, from the end of the heavens, the LORD and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole earth.

Isaiah 13:6 Wail, for the day of the LORD is near; it will come like destruction from the Almighty!

Isaiah 13:7 Therefore all hands will be feeble, and every human heart will melt, Isaiah 13:8 and they will be dismayed. Pangs and agony will seize them; they will be in anguish like a woman in labor. They will look aghast at one another; their faces will be aflame.

Isaiah 13:9 See, the day of the LORD comes, cruel, with wrath and fierce anger, to make the earth a desolation, and to destroy its sinners from it.

Isaiah 13:10 For the stars of the heavens and their constellations will not give their light; the sun will be dark at its rising, and the moon will not shed its light.

Isaiah 13:11 I will punish the world for its evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; I will put an end to the pride of the arrogant, and lay low the insolence of tyrants.

Isaiah 13:12 I will make mortals more rare than fine gold, and humans than the gold of Ophir.

Isaiah 13:13 Therefore I will make the heavens tremble, and the earth will be shaken out of its place, at the wrath of the LORD of hosts in the day of his fierce anger.

Isaiah 13:14 Like a hunted gazelle, or like sheep with no one to gather them, all will turn to their own people, and all will flee to their own lands.

Isaiah 13:15 Whoever is found will be thrust through, and whoever is caught will fall by the sword.

Isaiah 13:16 Their infants will be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses will be plundered, and their wives ravished.

Isaiah 13:17 See, I am stirring up the Medes against them, who have no regard for silver and do not delight in gold.

Isaiah 13:18 Their bows will slaughter the young men; they will have no mercy on the fruit of the womb; their eyes will not pity children.

Isaiah 13:19 And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the splendor and pride of the Chaldeans, will be like Sodom and Gomorrah when God overthrew them.

Isaiah 13:20 It will never be inhabited or lived in for all generations; Arabs will not pitch their tents there, shepherds will not make their flocks lie down there.

Isaiah 13:21 But wild animals will lie down there, and its houses will be full of howling creatures; there ostriches will live, and there goat-demons will dance.

Isaiah 13:22 Hyenas will cry in its towers, and jackals in the pleasant palaces; its time is close at hand, and its days will not be prolonged.

Isaiah 14:1 But the LORD will have compassion on Jacob and will again choose Israel, and will set them in their own land; and aliens will join them and attach themselves to the house of Jacob.

Isaiah 14:2 And the nations will take them and bring them to their place, and the house of Israel will possess the nations as male and female slaves in the LORD's land; they will take captive those who were their captors, and rule over those who oppressed them.

Isaiah 14:3 When the LORD has given you rest from your pain and turmoil and the hard service with which you were made to serve,

Isaiah 14:4 you will take up this taunt against the king of Babylon: How the oppressor has ceased! How his insolence has ceased!

Isaiah 14:5 The LORD has broken the staff of the wicked, the scepter of rulers,

Isaiah 14:6 that struck down the peoples in wrath with unceasing blows, that ruled the nations in anger with unrelenting persecution.

Isaiah 14:7 The whole earth is at rest and quiet; they break forth into singing.

Isaiah 14:8 The cypresses exult over you, the cedars of Lebanon, saying, "Since you were laid low, no one comes to cut us down."

Isaiah 14:9 Sheol beneath is stirred up to meet you when you come; it rouses the shades to greet you, all who were leaders of the earth; it raises from their thrones all who were kings of the nations.

Isaiah 14:10 All of them will speak and say to you: "You too have become as weak as we! You have become like us!"

Isaiah 14:11 Your pomp is brought down to Sheol, and the sound of your harps; maggots are the bed beneath you, and worms are your covering.

Isaiah 14:12 How you are fallen from heaven, O Day Star, son of Dawn! How you are cut down to the ground, you who laid the nations low!

Isaiah 14:13 You said in your heart, "I will ascend to heaven; I will raise my throne above the stars of God; I will sit on the mount of assembly on the heights of Zaphon;

Isaiah 14:14 I will ascend to the tops of the clouds, I will make myself like the Most High."

Isaiah 14:15 But you are brought down to Sheol, to the depths of the Pit.

Isaiah 14:16 Those who see you will stare at you, and ponder over you: "Is this the man who made the earth tremble, who shook kingdoms,

Isaiah 14:17 who made the world like a desert and overthrew its cities, who would not let his prisoners go home?"

Isaiah 14:18 All the kings of the nations lie in glory, each in his own tomb;

Isaiah 14:19 but you are cast out, away from your grave, like loathsome carrion, clothed with the dead, those pierced by the sword, who go down to the stones of the Pit, like a corpse trampled underfoot.

Isaiah 14:20 You will not be joined with them in burial, because you have destroyed your land, you have killed your people. May the descendants of evildoers nevermore be named!

Isaiah 14:21 Prepare slaughter for his sons because of the guilt of their father. Let them never rise to possess the earth or cover the face of the world with cities.

Isaiah 14:22 I will rise up against them, says the LORD of hosts, and will cut off from Babylon name and remnant, offspring and posterity, says the LORD.

Isaiah 14:23 And I will make it a possession of the hedgehog, and pools of water, and I will sweep it with the broom of destruction, says the LORD of hosts.

Isaiah 14:24 The LORD of hosts has sworn: As I have designed, so shall it be; and as I have planned, so shall it come to pass:

Isaiah 14:25 I will break the Assyrian in my land, and on my mountains trample him under foot; his yoke shall be removed from them, and his burden from their shoulders.

Isaiah 14:26 This is the plan that is planned concerning the whole earth; and this is the hand that is stretched out over all the nations.

Isaiah 14:27 For the LORD of hosts has planned, and who will annul it? His hand is stretched out, and who will turn it back?

Isaiah 14:28 In the year that King Ahaz died this oracle came:

Isaiah 14:29 Do not rejoice, all you Philistines, that the rod that struck you is broken, for from the root of the snake will come forth an adder, and its fruit will be a flying fiery serpent.

Isaiah 14:30 The firstborn of the poor will graze, and the needy lie down in safety; but I will make your root die of famine, and your remnant I will kill.

Isaiah 14:31 Wail, O gate; cry, O city; melt in fear, O Philistia, all of you! For smoke comes out of the north, and there is no straggler in its ranks.

Isaiah 14:32 What will one answer the messengers of the nation? “The LORD has founded Zion, and the needy among his people will find refuge in her.”

Isaiah 15:1 An oracle concerning Moab. Because Ar is laid waste in a night, Moab is undone; because Kir is laid waste in a night, Moab is undone.

Isaiah 15:2 Dibon has gone up to the temple, to the high places to weep; over Nebo and over Medeba Moab wails. On every head is baldness, every beard is shorn;

Isaiah 15:3 in the streets they bind on sackcloth; on the housetops and in the squares everyone wails and melts in tears.

Isaiah 15:4 Heshbon and Elealeh cry out, their voices are heard as far as Jahaz; therefore the loins of Moab quiver; his soul trembles.

Isaiah 15:5 My heart cries out for Moab; his fugitives flee to Zoar, to Eglath-shelishiyah. For at the ascent of Luhith they go up weeping; on the road to Horonaim they raise a cry of destruction;

Isaiah 15:6 the waters of Nimrim are a desolation; the grass is withered, the new growth fails, the verdure is no more.

Isaiah 15:7 Therefore the abundance they have gained and what they have laid up they carry away over the Wadi of the Willows.

Isaiah 15:8 For a cry has gone around the land of Moab; the wailing reaches to Eglaim, the wailing reaches to Beer-elim.

Isaiah 15:9 For the waters of Dibon are full of blood; yet I will bring upon Dibon even more— a lion for those of Moab who escape, for the remnant of the land.

Isaiah 16:1 Send lambs to the ruler of the land, from Sela, by way of the desert, to the mount of daughter Zion.

Isaiah 16:2 Like fluttering birds, like scattered nestlings, so are the daughters of Moab at the fords of the Arnon.

Isaiah 16:3 “Give counsel, grant justice; make your shade like night at the height of noon; hide the outcasts, do not betray the fugitive;

Isaiah 16:4 let the outcasts of Moab settle among you; be a refuge to them from the destroyer.” When the oppressor is no more, and destruction has ceased, and marauders have vanished from the land,

Isaiah 16:5 then a throne shall be established in steadfast love in the tent of David, and on it shall sit in faithfulness a ruler who seeks justice and is swift to do what is right.

Isaiah 16:6 We have heard of the pride of Moab— how proud he is!— of his arrogance, his pride, and his insolence; his boasts are false.

Isaiah 16:7 Therefore let Moab wail, let everyone wail for Moab. Mourn, utterly stricken, for the raisin cakes of Kir-hareseth.

Isaiah 16:8 For the fields of Heshbon languish, and the vines of Sibmah, whose clusters once made drunk the lords of the nations, reached to Jazer and strayed to the desert; their shoots once spread abroad and crossed over the sea.

Isaiah 16:9 Therefore I weep with the weeping of Jazer for the vines of Sibmah; I drench you with my tears, O Heshbon and Elealeh; for the shout over your fruit harvest and your grain harvest has ceased.

Isaiah 16:10 Joy and gladness are taken away from the fruitful field; and in the vineyards no songs are sung, no shouts are raised; no treader treads out wine in the presses; the vintage-shout is hushed.

Isaiah 16:11 Therefore my heart throbs like a harp for Moab, and my very soul for Kir-heres.

Isaiah 16:12 When Moab presents himself, when he wearies himself upon the high place, when he comes to his sanctuary to pray, he will not prevail.

Isaiah 16:13 This was the word that the LORD spoke concerning Moab in the past.

Isaiah 16:14 But now the LORD says, In three years, like the years of a hired worker, the glory of Moab will be brought into contempt, in spite of all its great multitude; and those who survive will be very few and feeble.

Isaiah 17:1 An oracle concerning Damascus. See, Damascus will cease to be a city, and will become a heap of ruins.

Isaiah 17:2 Her towns will be deserted forever; they will be places for flocks, which will lie down, and no one will make them afraid.

Isaiah 17:3 The fortress will disappear from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus; and the remnant of Aram will be like the glory of the children of Israel, says the LORD of hosts.

Isaiah 17:4 On that day the glory of Jacob will be brought low, and the fat of his flesh will grow lean.

Isaiah 17:5 And it shall be as when reapers gather standing grain and their arms harvest the ears, and as when one gleans the ears of grain in the Valley of Rephaim.

Isaiah 17:6 Gleanings will be left in it, as when an olive tree is beaten— two or three berries in the top of the highest bough, four or five on the branches of a fruit tree, says the LORD God of Israel.

Isaiah 17:7 On that day people will regard their Maker, and their eyes will look to the Holy One of Israel;

Isaiah 17:8 they will not have regard for the altars, the work of their hands, and they will not look to what their own fingers have made, either the sacred poles or the altars of incense.

Isaiah 17:9 On that day their strong cities will be like the deserted places of the Hivites and the Amorites, which they deserted because of the children of Israel, and there will be desolation.

Isaiah 17:10 For you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and have not remembered the Rock of your refuge; therefore, though you plant pleasant plants and set out slips of an alien god, Isaiah 17:11 though you make them grow on the day that you plant them, and make them blossom in the morning that you sow; yet the harvest will flee away in a day of grief and incurable pain.

Isaiah 17:12 Ah, the thunder of many peoples, they thunder like the thundering of the sea! Ah, the roar of nations, they roar like the roaring of mighty waters!

Isaiah 17:13 The nations roar like the roaring of many waters, but he will rebuke them, and they will flee far away, chased like chaff on the mountains before the wind and whirling dust before the storm.

Isaiah 17:14 At evening time, lo, terror! Before morning, they are no more. This is the fate of those who despoil us, and the lot of those who plunder us.

Isaiah 18:1 Ah, land of whirring wings beyond the rivers of Ethiopia,

Isaiah 18:2 sending ambassadors by the Nile in vessels of papyrus on the waters! Go, you swift messengers, to a nation tall and smooth, to a people feared near and far, a nation mighty and conquering, whose land the rivers divide.

Isaiah 18:3 All you inhabitants of the world, you who live on the earth, when a signal is raised on the mountains, look! When a trumpet is blown, listen!

Isaiah 18:4 For thus the LORD said to me: I will quietly look from my dwelling like clear heat in sunshine, like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.

Isaiah 18:5 For before the harvest, when the blossom is over and the flower becomes a ripening grape, he will cut off the shoots with pruning hooks, and the spreading branches he will hew away.

Isaiah 18:6 They shall all be left to the birds of prey of the mountains and to the animals of the earth. And the birds of prey will summer on them, and all the animals of the earth will winter on them.

Isaiah 18:7 At that time gifts will be brought to the LORD of hosts from a people tall and smooth, from a people feared near and far, a nation mighty and conquering, whose land the rivers divide, to Mount Zion, the place of the name of the LORD of hosts.

Isaiah 19:1 An oracle concerning Egypt. See, the LORD is riding on a swift cloud and comes to Egypt; the idols of Egypt will tremble at his presence, and the heart of the Egyptians will melt within them.

Isaiah 19:2 I will stir up Egyptians against Egyptians, and they will fight, one against the other, neighbor against neighbor, city against city, kingdom against kingdom;

Isaiah 19:3 the spirit of the Egyptians within them will be emptied out, and I will confound their plans; they will consult the idols and the spirits of the dead and the ghosts and the familiar spirits;

Isaiah 19:4 I will deliver the Egyptians into the hand of a hard master; a fierce king will rule over them, says the Sovereign, the LORD of hosts.

Isaiah 19:5 The waters of the Nile will be dried up, and the river will be parched and dry;

Isaiah 19:6 its canals will become foul, and the branches of Egypt’s Nile will diminish and dry up, reeds and rushes will rot away.

Isaiah 19:7 There will be bare places by the Nile, on the brink of the Nile; and all that is sown by the Nile will dry up, be driven away, and be no more.

Isaiah 19:8 Those who fish will mourn; all who cast hooks in the Nile will lament, and those who spread nets on the water will languish.

Isaiah 19:9 The workers in flax will be in despair, and the carders and those at the loom will grow pale.

Isaiah 19:10 Its weavers will be dismayed, and all who work for wages will be grieved.

Isaiah 19:11 The princes of Zoan are utterly foolish; the wise counselors of Pharaoh give stupid counsel. How can you say to Pharaoh, “I am one of the sages, a descendant of ancient kings”?

Isaiah 19:12 Where now are your sages? Let them tell you and make known what the LORD of hosts has planned against Egypt.

Isaiah 19:13 The princes of Zoan have become fools, and the princes of Memphis are deluded; those who are the cornerstones of its tribes have led Egypt astray.

Isaiah 19:14 The LORD has poured into them a spirit of confusion; and they have made Egypt stagger in all its doings as a drunkard staggers around in vomit.

Isaiah 19:15 Neither head nor tail, palm branch or reed, will be able to do anything for Egypt.

Isaiah 19:16 On that day the Egyptians will be like women, and tremble with fear before the hand that the LORD of hosts raises against them.

Isaiah 19:17 And the land of Judah will become a terror to the Egyptians; everyone to whom it is mentioned will fear because of the plan that the LORD of hosts is planning against them.

Isaiah 19:18 On that day there will be five cities in the land of Egypt that speak the language of Canaan and swear allegiance to the LORD of hosts. One of these will be called the City of the Sun.

Isaiah 19:19 On that day there will be an altar to the LORD in the center of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to the LORD at its border.

Isaiah 19:20 It will be a sign and a witness to the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt; when they cry to the LORD because of oppressors, he will send them a savior, and will defend and deliver them.

Isaiah 19:21 The LORD will make himself known to the Egyptians; and the Egyptians will know the LORD on that day, and will worship with sacrifice and burnt offering, and they will make vows to the LORD and perform them.

Isaiah 19:22 The LORD will strike Egypt, striking and healing; they will return to the LORD, and he will listen to their supplications and heal them.

Isaiah 19:23 On that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian will come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria, and the Egyptians will worship with the Assyrians.

Isaiah 19:24 On that day Israel will be the third with Egypt and Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth,

Isaiah 19:25 whom the LORD of hosts has blessed, saying, "Blessed be Egypt my people, and Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel my heritage."

Isaiah 20:1 In the year that the commander-in-chief, who was sent by King Sargon of Assyria, came to Ashdod and fought against it and took it—

Isaiah 20:2 at that time the LORD had spoken to Isaiah son of Amoz, saying, "Go, and loose the sackcloth from your loins and take your sandals off your feet," and he had done so, walking naked and barefoot.

Isaiah 20:3 Then the LORD said, "Just as my servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot for three years as a sign and a portent against Egypt and Ethiopia,

Isaiah 20:4 so shall the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians as captives and the Ethiopians as exiles, both the young and the old, naked and barefoot, with buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.

Isaiah 20:5 And they shall be dismayed and confounded because of Ethiopia their hope and of Egypt their boast.

Isaiah 20:6 In that day the inhabitants of this coastland will say, 'See, this is what has happened to those in whom we hoped and to whom we fled for help and deliverance from the king of Assyria! And we, how shall we escape?'"

Isaiah 21:1 The oracle concerning the wilderness of the sea. As whirlwinds in the Negeb sweep on, it comes from the desert, from a terrible land.

Isaiah 21:2 A stern vision is told to me; the betrayer betrays, and the destroyer destroys. Go up, O Elam, lay siege, O Media; all the sighing she has caused I bring to an end.

Isaiah 21:3 Therefore my loins are filled with anguish; pangs have seized me, like the pangs of a woman in labor; I am bowed down so that I cannot hear, I am dismayed so that I cannot see.

Isaiah 21:4 My mind reels, horror has appalled me; the twilight I longed for has been turned for me into trembling.

Isaiah 21:5 They prepare the table, they spread the rugs, they eat, they drink. Rise up, commanders, oil the shield!

Isaiah 21:6 For thus the Lord said to me: “Go, post a lookout, let him announce what he sees.

Isaiah 21:7 When he sees riders, horsemen in pairs, riders on donkeys, riders on camels, let him listen diligently, very diligently.”

Isaiah 21:8 Then the watcher called out: “Upon a watchtower I stand, O Lord, continually by day, and at my post I am stationed throughout the night.

Isaiah 21:9 Look, there they come, riders, horsemen in pairs!” Then he responded, “Fallen, fallen is Babylon; and all the images of her gods lie shattered on the ground.”

Isaiah 21:10 O my threshed and winnowed one, what I have heard from the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, I announce to you.

Isaiah 21:11 The oracle concerning Dumah. One is calling to me from Seir, “Sentinel, what of the night? Sentinel, what of the night?”

Isaiah 21:12 The sentinel says: “Morning comes, and also the night. If you will inquire, inquire; come back again.”

Isaiah 21:13 The oracle concerning the desert plain. In the scrub of the desert plain you will lodge, O caravans of Dedanites.

Isaiah 21:14 Bring water to the thirsty, meet the fugitive with bread, O inhabitants of the land of Tema.

Isaiah 21:15 For they have fled from the swords, from the drawn sword, from the bent bow, and from the stress of battle.

Isaiah 21:16 For thus the Lord said to me: Within a year, according to the years of a hired worker, all the glory of Kedar will come to an end;

Isaiah 21:17 and the remaining bows of Kedar’s warriors will be few; for the LORD, the God of Israel, has spoken.

Isaiah 22:1 The oracle concerning the valley of vision. What do you mean that you have gone up, all of you, to the housetops,

Isaiah 22:2 you that are full of shoutings, tumultuous city, exultant town? Your slain are not slain by the sword, nor are they dead in battle.

Isaiah 22:3 Your rulers have all fled together; they were captured without the use of a bow. All of you who were found were captured, though they had fled far away.

Isaiah 22:4 Therefore I said: Look away from me, let me weep bitter tears; do not try to comfort me for the destruction of my beloved people.

Isaiah 22:5 For the Lord GOD of hosts has a day of tumult and trampling and confusion in the valley of vision, a battering down of walls and a cry for help to the mountains.

Isaiah 22:6 Elam bore the quiver with chariots and cavalry, and Kir uncovered the shield.

Isaiah 22:8 He has taken away the covering of Judah. On that day you looked to the weapons of the House of the Forest,

Isaiah 22:9 and you saw that there were many breaches in the city of David, and you collected the waters of the lower pool.

Isaiah 22:10 You counted the houses of Jerusalem, and you broke down the houses to fortify the wall.

Isaiah 22:11 You made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool. But you did not look to him who did it, or have regard for him who planned it long ago.

Isaiah 22:12 In that day the Lord GOD of hosts called to weeping and mourning, to baldness and putting on sackcloth;

Isaiah 22:13 but instead there was joy and festivity, killing oxen and slaughtering sheep, eating meat and drinking wine. “Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die.”

Isaiah 22:14 The LORD of hosts has revealed himself in my ears: Surely this iniquity will not be forgiven you until you die, says the Lord GOD of hosts.

Isaiah 22:15 Thus says the Lord GOD of hosts: Come, go to this steward, to Shebna, who is master of the household, and say to him:

Isaiah 22:16 What right do you have here? Who are your relatives here, that you have cut out a tomb here for yourself, cutting a tomb on the height, and carving a habitation for yourself in the rock?

Isaiah 22:17 The LORD is about to hurl you away violently, my fellow. He will seize firm hold on you,

Isaiah 22:18 whirl you round and round, and throw you like a ball into a wide land; there you shall die, and there your splendid chariots shall lie, O you disgrace to your master’s house!

Isaiah 22:19 I will thrust you from your office, and you will be pulled down from your post.

Isaiah 22:20 On that day I will call my servant Eliakim son of Hilkiah,

Isaiah 22:21 and will clothe him with your robe and bind your sash on him. I will commit your authority to his hand, and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah.

Isaiah 22:22 I will place on his shoulder the key of the house of David; he shall open, and no one shall shut; he shall shut, and no one shall open.

Isaiah 22:23 I will fasten him like a peg in a secure place, and he will become a throne of honor to his ancestral house.

Isaiah 22:24 And they will hang on him the whole weight of his ancestral house, the offspring and issue, every small vessel, from the cups to all the flagons.

Isaiah 22:25 On that day, says the LORD of hosts, the peg that was fastened in a secure place will give way; it will be cut down and fall, and the load that was on it will perish, for the LORD has spoken.

Isaiah 23:1 The oracle concerning Tyre. Wail, O ships of Tarshish, for your fortress is destroyed. When they came in from Cyprus they learned of it.

Isaiah 23:2 Be still, O inhabitants of the coast, O merchants of Sidon, your messengers crossed over the sea

Isaiah 23:3 and were on the mighty waters; your revenue was the grain of Shihor, the harvest of the Nile; you were the merchant of the nations.

Isaiah 23:4 Be ashamed, O Sidon, for the sea has spoken, the fortress of the sea, saying: “I have neither labored nor given birth, I have neither reared young men nor brought up young women.”

Isaiah 23:5 When the report comes to Egypt, they will be in anguish over the report about Tyre.

Isaiah 23:7 Is this your exultant city whose origin is from days of old, whose feet carried her to settle far away?

Isaiah 23:8 Who has planned this against Tyre, the bestower of crowns, whose merchants were princes, whose traders were the honored of the earth?

Isaiah 23:9 The LORD of hosts has planned it— to defile the pride of all glory, to shame all the honored of the earth.

Isaiah 23:10 Cross over to your own land, O ships of Tarshish; this is a harbor no more.

Isaiah 23:11 He has stretched out his hand over the sea, he has shaken the kingdoms; the LORD has given command concerning Canaan to destroy its fortresses.

Isaiah 23:12 He said: You will exult no longer, O oppressed virgin daughter Sidon; rise, cross over to Cyprus— even there you will have no rest.

Isaiah 23:13 Look at the land of the Chaldeans! This is the people; it was not Assyria. They destined Tyre for wild animals. They erected their siege towers, they tore down her palaces, they made her a ruin.

Isaiah 23:14 Wail, O ships of Tarshish, for your fortress is destroyed.

Isaiah 23:15 From that day Tyre will be forgotten for seventy years, the lifetime of one king. At the end of seventy years, it will happen to Tyre as in the song about the prostitute:

Isaiah 23:16 Take a harp, go about the city, you forgotten prostitute! Make sweet melody, sing many songs, that you may be remembered.

Isaiah 23:17 At the end of seventy years, the LORD will visit Tyre, and she will return to her trade, and will prostitute herself with all the kingdoms of the world on the face of the earth.

Isaiah 23:18 Her merchandise and her wages will be dedicated to the LORD; her profits will not be stored or hoarded, but her merchandise will supply abundant food and fine clothing for those who live in the presence of the LORD.

Isaiah 24:1 Now the LORD is about to lay waste the earth and make it desolate, and he will twist its surface and scatter its inhabitants.

Isaiah 24:2 And it shall be, as with the people, so with the priest; as with the slave, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the creditor, so with the debtor.

Isaiah 24:3 The earth shall be utterly laid waste and utterly despoiled; for the LORD has spoken this word.

Isaiah 24:4 The earth dries up and withers, the world languishes and withers; the heavens languish together with the earth.

Isaiah 24:5 The earth lies polluted under its inhabitants; for they have transgressed laws, violated the statutes, broken the everlasting covenant.

Isaiah 24:6 Therefore a curse devours the earth, and its inhabitants suffer for their guilt; therefore the inhabitants of the earth dwindled, and few people are left.

Isaiah 24:7 The wine dries up, the vine languishes, all the merry-hearted sigh.

Isaiah 24:8 The mirth of the timbrels is stilled, the noise of the jubilant has ceased, the mirth of the lyre is stilled.

Isaiah 24:10 The city of chaos is broken down, every house is shut up so that no one can enter.

Isaiah 24:11 There is an outcry in the streets for lack of wine; all joy has reached its eventide; the gladness of the earth is banished.

Isaiah 24:12 Desolation is left in the city, the gates are battered into ruins.

Isaiah 24:13 For thus it shall be on the earth and among the nations, as when an olive tree is beaten, as at the gleaning when the grape harvest is ended.

Isaiah 24:14 They lift up their voices, they sing for joy; they shout from the west over the majesty of the LORD.

Isaiah 24:15 Therefore in the east give glory to the LORD; in the coastlands of the sea glorify the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

Isaiah 24:16 From the ends of the earth we hear songs of praise, of glory to the Righteous One. But I say, I pine away, I pine away. Woe is me! For the treacherous deal treacherously, the treacherous deal very treacherously.

Isaiah 24:17 Terror, and the pit, and the snare are upon you, O inhabitant of the earth!

Isaiah 24:18 Whoever flees at the sound of the terror shall fall into the pit; and whoever climbs out of the pit shall be caught in the snare. For the windows of heaven are opened, and the foundations of the earth tremble.

Isaiah 24:19 The earth is utterly broken, the earth is torn asunder, the earth is violently shaken.

Isaiah 24:20 The earth staggers like a drunkard, it sways like a hut; its transgression lies heavy upon it, and it falls, and will not rise again.

Isaiah 24:21 On that day the LORD will punish the host of heaven in heaven, and on earth the kings of the earth.

Isaiah 24:22 They will be gathered together like prisoners in a pit; they will be shut up in a prison, and after many days they will be punished.

Isaiah 24:23 Then the moon will be abashed, and the sun ashamed; for the LORD of hosts will reign on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and before his elders he will manifest his glory.

Isaiah 25:1 O LORD, you are my God; I will exalt you, I will praise your name; for you have done wonderful things, plans formed of old, faithful and sure.

Isaiah 25:2 For you have made the city a heap, the fortified city a ruin; the palace of aliens is a city no more, it will never be rebuilt.

Isaiah 25:3 Therefore strong peoples will glorify you; cities of ruthless nations will fear you.

Isaiah 25:4 For you have been a refuge to the poor, a refuge to the needy in their distress, a shelter from the rainstorm and a shade from the heat. When the blast of the ruthless was like a winter rainstorm, Isaiah 25:5 the noise of aliens like heat in a dry place, you subdued the heat with the shade of clouds; the song of the ruthless was stilled.

Isaiah 25:6 On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear.

Isaiah 25:7 And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations;

Isaiah 25:8 he will swallow up death forever. Then the Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the LORD has spoken.

Isaiah 25:9 It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the LORD for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

Isaiah 25:10 For the hand of the LORD will rest on this mountain. The Moabites shall be trodden down in their place as straw is trodden down in a dung-pit.

Isaiah 25:11 Though they spread out their hands in the midst of it, as swimmers spread out their hands to swim, their pride will be laid low despite the struggle of their hands.

Isaiah 25:12 The high fortifications of his walls will be brought down, laid low, cast to the ground, even to the dust.

Isaiah 26:1 On that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah: We have a strong city; he sets up victory like walls and bulwarks.

Isaiah 26:2 Open the gates, so that the righteous nation that keeps faith may enter in.

Isaiah 26:3 Those of steadfast mind you keep in peace— in peace because they trust in you.

Isaiah 26:4 Trust in the LORD forever, for in the LORD GOD you have an everlasting rock.

Isaiah 26:5 For he has brought low the inhabitants of the height; the lofty city he lays low. He lays it low to the ground, casts it to the dust.

Isaiah 26:6 The foot tramples it, the feet of the poor, the steps of the needy.

Isaiah 26:7 The way of the righteous is level; O Just One, you make smooth the path of the righteous.

Isaiah 26:8 In the path of your judgments, O LORD, we wait for you; your name and your renown are the soul’s desire.

Isaiah 26:9 My soul yearns for you in the night, my spirit within me earnestly seeks you. For when your judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness.

Isaiah 26:10 If favor is shown to the wicked, they do not learn righteousness; in the land of uprightness they deal perversely and do not see the majesty of the LORD.

Isaiah 26:11 O LORD, your hand is lifted up, but they do not see it. Let them see your zeal for your people, and be ashamed. Let the fire for your adversaries consume them.

Isaiah 26:12 O LORD, you will ordain peace for us, for indeed, all that we have done, you have done for us.

Isaiah 26:13 O LORD our God, other lords besides you have ruled over us, but we acknowledge your name alone.

Isaiah 26:14 The dead do not live; shades do not rise— because you have punished and destroyed them, and wiped out all memory of them.

Isaiah 26:15 But you have increased the nation, O LORD, you have increased the nation; you are glorified; you have enlarged all the borders of the land.

Isaiah 26:16 O LORD, in distress they sought you, they poured out a prayer when your chastening was on them.

Isaiah 26:17 Like a woman with child, who writhes and cries out in her pangs when she is near her time, so were we because of you, O LORD;

Isaiah 26:18 we were with child, we writhed, but we gave birth only to wind. We have won no victories on earth, and no one is born to inhabit the world.

Isaiah 26:19 Your dead shall live, their corpses shall rise. O dwellers in the dust, awake and sing for joy! For your dew is a radiant dew, and the earth will give birth to those long dead.

Isaiah 26:20 Come, my people, enter your chambers, and shut your doors behind you; hide yourselves for a little while until the wrath is past.

Isaiah 26:21 For the LORD comes out from his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity; the earth will disclose the blood shed on it, and will no longer cover its slain.

Isaiah 27:1 On that day the LORD with his cruel and great and strong sword will punish Leviathan the fleeing serpent, Leviathan the twisting serpent, and he will kill the dragon that is in the sea.

Isaiah 27:2 On that day: A pleasant vineyard, sing about it!

Isaiah 27:3 I, the LORD, am its keeper; every moment I water it. I guard it night and day so that no one can harm it;

Isaiah 27:4 I have no wrath. If it gives me thorns and briers, I will march to battle against it. I will burn it up.

Isaiah 27:5 Or else let it cling to me for protection, let it make peace with me, let it make peace with me.

Isaiah 27:6 In days to come Jacob shall take root, Israel shall blossom and put forth shoots, and fill the whole world with fruit.

Isaiah 27:7 Has he struck them down as he struck down those who struck them? Or have they been killed as their killers were killed?

Isaiah 27:8 By expulsion, by exile you struggled against them; with his fierce blast he removed them in the day of the east wind.

Isaiah 27:9 Therefore by this the guilt of Jacob will be expiated, and this will be the full fruit of the removal of his sin: when he makes all the stones of the altars like chalkstones crushed to pieces, no sacred poles or incense altars will remain standing.

Isaiah 27:10 For the fortified city is solitary, a habitation deserted and forsaken, like the wilderness; the calves graze there, there they lie down, and strip its branches.

Isaiah 27:11 When its boughs are dry, they are broken; women come and make a fire of them. For this is a people without understanding; therefore he that made them will not have compassion on them, he that formed them will show them no favor.

Isaiah 27:12 On that day the LORD will thresh from the channel of the Euphrates to the Wadi of Egypt, and you will be gathered one by one, O people of Israel.

Isaiah 27:13 And on that day a great trumpet will be blown, and those who were lost in the land of Assyria and those who were driven out to the land of Egypt will come and worship the LORD on the holy mountain at Jerusalem.

Isaiah 28:1 Ah, the proud garland of the drunkards of Ephraim, and the fading flower of its glorious beauty, which is on the head of those bloated with rich food, of those overcome with wine!

Isaiah 28:2 See, the Lord has one who is mighty and strong; like a storm of hail, a destroying tempest, like a storm of mighty, overflowing waters; with his hand he will hurl them down to the earth.

Isaiah 28:3 Trampled under foot will be the proud garland of the drunkards of Ephraim.

Isaiah 28:4 And the fading flower of its glorious beauty, which is on the head of those bloated with rich food, will be like a first-ripe fig before the summer; whoever sees it, eats it up as soon as it comes to hand.

Isaiah 28:5 In that day the LORD of hosts will be a garland of glory, and a diadem of beauty, to the remnant of his people;

Isaiah 28:6 and a spirit of justice to the one who sits in judgment, and strength to those who turn back the battle at the gate.

Isaiah 28:7 These also reel with wine and stagger with strong drink; the priest and the prophet reel with strong drink, they are confused with wine, they stagger with strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in giving judgment.

Isaiah 28:8 All tables are covered with filthy vomit; no place is clean.

Isaiah 28:9 “Whom will he teach knowledge, and to whom will he explain the message? Those who are weaned from milk, those taken from the breast?

Isaiah 28:11 Truly, with stammering lip and with alien tongue he will speak to this people,

Isaiah 28:12 to whom he has said, “This is rest; give rest to the weary; and this is repose”; yet they would not hear.

Isaiah 28:13 Therefore the word of the LORD will be to them, “Precept upon precept, precept upon precept, line upon line, line upon line, here a little, there a little;” in order that they may go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.

Isaiah 28:14 Therefore hear the word of the LORD, you scoffers who rule this people in Jerusalem.

Isaiah 28:15 Because you have said, “We have made a covenant with death, and with Sheol we have an agreement; when the overwhelming scourge passes through it will not come to us; for we have made lies our refuge, and in falsehood we have taken shelter”;

Isaiah 28:16 therefore thus says the Lord GOD, See, I am laying in Zion a foundation stone, a tested stone, a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation: “One who trusts will not panic.”

Isaiah 28:17 And I will make justice the line, and righteousness the plummet; hail will sweep away the refuge of lies, and waters will overwhelm the shelter.

Isaiah 28:18 Then your covenant with death will be annulled, and your agreement with Sheol will not stand; when the overwhelming scourge passes through you will be beaten down by it.

Isaiah 28:19 As often as it passes through, it will take you; for morning by morning it will pass through, by day and by night; and it will be sheer terror to understand the message.

Isaiah 28:20 For the bed is too short to stretch oneself on it, and the covering too narrow to wrap oneself in it.

Isaiah 28:21 For the LORD will rise up as on Mount Perazim, he will rage as in the valley of Gibeon; to do his deed— strange is his deed! and to work his work— alien is his work!

Isaiah 28:22 Now therefore do not scoff, or your bonds will be made stronger; for I have heard a decree of destruction from the Lord GOD of hosts upon the whole land.

Isaiah 28:23 Listen, and hear my voice; Pay attention, and hear my speech.

Isaiah 28:24 Do those who plow for sowing plow continually? Do they continually open and harrow their ground?

Isaiah 28:25 When they have leveled its surface, do they not scatter dill, sow cummin, and plant wheat in rows and barley in its proper place, and spelt as the border?

Isaiah 28:26 For they are well instructed; their God teaches them.

Isaiah 28:27 Dill is not threshed with a threshing sledge, nor is a cart wheel rolled over cummin; but dill is beaten out with a stick, and cummin with a rod.

Isaiah 28:28 Grain is crushed for bread, but one does not thresh it forever; one drives the cart wheel and horses over it, but does not pulverize it.

Isaiah 28:29 This also comes from the LORD of hosts; he is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in wisdom.

Isaiah 29:1 Ah, Ariel, Ariel, the city where David encamped! Add year to year; let the festivals run their round.

Isaiah 29:2 Yet I will distress Ariel, and there shall be moaning and lamentation, and Jerusalem shall be to me like an Ariel.

Isaiah 29:3 And like David I will encamp against you; I will besiege you with towers and raise siegeworks against you.

Isaiah 29:4 Then deep from the earth you shall speak, from low in the dust your words shall come; your voice shall come from the ground like the voice of a ghost, and your speech shall whisper out of the dust.

Isaiah 29:5 But the multitude of your foes shall be like small dust, and the multitude of tyrants like flying chaff. And in an instant, suddenly,

Isaiah 29:6 you will be visited by the LORD of hosts with thunder and earthquake and great noise, with whirlwind and tempest, and the flame of a devouring fire.

Isaiah 29:7 And the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, all that fight against her and her stronghold, and who distress her, shall be like a dream, a vision of the night.

Isaiah 29:8 Just as when a hungry person dreams of eating and wakes up still hungry, or a thirsty person dreams of drinking and wakes up faint, still thirsty, so shall the multitude of all the nations be that fight against Mount Zion.

Isaiah 29:9 Stupefy yourselves and be in a stupor, blind yourselves and be blind! Be drunk, but not from wine; stagger, but not from strong drink!

Isaiah 29:10 For the LORD has poured out upon you a spirit of deep sleep; he has closed your eyes, you prophets, and covered your heads, you seers.

Isaiah 29:11 The vision of all this has become for you like the words of a sealed document. If it is given to those who can read, with the command, “Read this,” they say, “We cannot, for it is sealed.”

Isaiah 29:12 And if it is given to those who cannot read, saying, “Read this,” they say, “We cannot read.”

Isaiah 29:13 The Lord said: Because these people draw near with their mouths and honor me with their lips, while their hearts are far from me, and their worship of me is a human commandment learned by rote;

Isaiah 29:14 so I will again do amazing things with this people, shocking and amazing. The wisdom of their wise shall perish, and the discernment of the discerning shall be hidden.

Isaiah 29:15 Ha! You who hide a plan too deep for the LORD, whose deeds are in the dark, and who say, “Who sees us? Who knows us?”

Isaiah 29:16 You turn things upside down! Shall the potter be regarded as the clay? Shall the thing made say of its maker, “He did not make me”; or the thing formed say of the one who formed it, “He has no understanding”?

Isaiah 29:17 Shall not Lebanon in a very little while become a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be regarded as a forest?

Isaiah 29:18 On that day the deaf shall hear the words of a scroll, and out of their gloom and darkness the eyes of the blind shall see.

Isaiah 29:19 The meek shall obtain fresh joy in the LORD, and the neediest people shall exult in the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 29:20 For the tyrant shall be no more, and the scoffer shall cease to be; all those alert to do evil shall be cut off—

Isaiah 29:21 those who cause a person to lose a lawsuit, who set a trap for the arbiter in the gate, and without grounds deny justice to the one in the right.

Isaiah 29:22 Therefore thus says the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob: No longer shall Jacob be ashamed, no longer shall his face grow pale.

Isaiah 29:23 For when he sees his children, the work of my hands, in his midst, they will sanctify my name; they will sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and will stand in awe of the God of Israel.

Isaiah 29:24 And those who err in spirit will come to understanding, and those who grumble will accept instruction.

Isaiah 30:1 Oh, rebellious children, says the LORD, who carry out a plan, but not mine; who make an alliance, but against my will, adding sin to sin;

Isaiah 30:2 who set out to go down to Egypt without asking for my counsel, to take refuge in the protection of Pharaoh, and to seek shelter in the shadow of Egypt;

Isaiah 30:3 Therefore the protection of Pharaoh shall become your shame, and the shelter in the shadow of Egypt your humiliation.

Isaiah 30:4 For though his officials are at Zoan and his envoys reach Hanes,

Isaiah 30:5 everyone comes to shame through a people that cannot profit them, that brings neither help nor profit, but shame and disgrace.

Isaiah 30:6 An oracle concerning the animals of the Negeb. Through a land of trouble and distress, of lioness and roaring lion, of viper and flying serpent, they carry their riches on the backs of donkeys, and their treasures on the humps of camels, to a people that cannot profit them.

Isaiah 30:7 For Egypt’s help is worthless and empty, therefore I have called her, “Rahab who sits still.”

Isaiah 30:8 Go now, write it before them on a tablet, and inscribe it in a book, so that it may be for the time to come as a witness forever.

Isaiah 30:9 For they are a rebellious people, faithless children, children who will not hear the instruction of the LORD;

Isaiah 30:10 who say to the seers, “Do not see”; and to the prophets, “Do not prophesy to us what is right; speak to us smooth things, prophesy illusions, Isaiah 30:11 leave the way, turn aside from the path, let us hear no more about the Holy One of Israel.”

Isaiah 30:12 Therefore thus says the Holy One of Israel: Because you reject this word, and put your trust in oppression and deceit, and rely on them;

Isaiah 30:13 therefore this iniquity shall become for you like a break in a high wall, bulging out, and about to collapse, whose crash comes suddenly, in an instant;

Isaiah 30:14 its breaking is like that of a potter’s vessel that is smashed so ruthlessly that among its fragments not a sherd is found for taking fire from the hearth, or dipping water out of the cistern.

Isaiah 30:15 For thus said the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel: In returning and rest you shall be saved; in quietness and in trust shall be your strength. But you refused

Isaiah 30:16 and said, “No! We will flee upon horses”— therefore you shall flee! and, “We will ride upon swift steeds”— therefore your pursuers shall be swift!

Isaiah 30:17 A thousand shall flee at the threat of one, at the threat of five you shall flee, until you are left like a flagstaff on the top of a mountain, like a signal on a hill.

Isaiah 30:18 Therefore the LORD waits to be gracious to you; therefore he will rise up to show mercy to you. For the LORD is a God of justice; blessed are all those who wait for him.

Isaiah 30:19 Truly, O people in Zion, inhabitants of Jerusalem, you shall weep no more. He will surely be gracious to you at the sound of your cry; when he hears it, he will answer you.

Isaiah 30:20 Though the Lord may give you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet your Teacher will not hide himself any more, but your eyes shall see your Teacher.

Isaiah 30:21 And when you turn to the right or when you turn to the left, your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, “This is the way; walk in it.”

Isaiah 30:22 Then you will defile your silver-covered idols and your gold-plated images. You will scatter them like filthy rags; you will say to them, “Away with you!”

Isaiah 30:23 He will give rain for the seed with which you sow the ground, and grain, the produce of the ground, which will be rich and plenteous. On that day your cattle will graze in broad pastures;

Isaiah 30:24 and the oxen and donkeys that till the ground will eat silage, which has been winnowed with shovel and fork.

Isaiah 30:25 On every lofty mountain and every high hill there will be brooks running with water— on a day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall.

Isaiah 30:26 Moreover the light of the moon will be like the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be sevenfold, like the light of seven days, on the day when the LORD binds up the injuries of his people, and heals the wounds inflicted by his blow.

Isaiah 30:27 See, the name of the LORD comes from far away, burning with his anger, and in thick rising smoke; his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue is like a devouring fire;

Isaiah 30:28 his breath is like an overflowing stream that reaches up to the neck— to sift the nations with the sieve of destruction, and to place on the jaws of the peoples a bridle that leads them astray.

Isaiah 30:29 You shall have a song as in the night when a holy festival is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one sets out to the sound of the flute to go to the mountain of the LORD, to the Rock of Israel.

Isaiah 30:30 And the LORD will cause his majestic voice to be heard and the descending blow of his arm to be seen, in furious anger and a flame of devouring fire, with a cloudburst and tempest and hailstones.

Isaiah 30:31 The Assyrian will be terror-stricken at the voice of the LORD, when he strikes with his rod.

Isaiah 30:32 And every stroke of the staff of punishment that the LORD lays upon him will be to the sound of timbrels and lyres; battling with brandished arm he will fight with him.

Isaiah 30:33 For his burning place has long been prepared; truly it is made ready for the king, its pyre made deep and wide, with fire and wood in abundance; the breath of the LORD, like a stream of sulfur, kindles it.

Isaiah 31:1 Alas for those who go down to Egypt for help and who rely on horses, who trust in chariots because they are many and in horsemen because they are very strong, but do not look to the Holy One of Israel or consult the LORD!

Isaiah 31:2 Yet he too is wise and brings disaster; he does not call back his words, but will rise against the house of the evildoers, and against the helpers of those who work iniquity.

Isaiah 31:3 The Egyptians are human, and not God; their horses are flesh, and not spirit. When the LORD stretches out his hand, the helper will stumble, and the one helped will fall, and they will all perish together.

Isaiah 31:4 For thus the LORD said to me, As a lion or a young lion growls over its prey, and— when a band of shepherds is called out against it— is not terrified by their shouting or daunted at their noise, so the LORD of hosts will come down to fight upon Mount Zion and upon its hill.

Isaiah 31:5 Like birds hovering overhead, so the LORD of hosts will protect Jerusalem; he will protect and deliver it, he will spare and rescue it.

Isaiah 31:6 Turn back to him whom you have deeply betrayed, O people of Israel.

Isaiah 31:7 For on that day all of you shall throw away your idols of silver and idols of gold, which your hands have sinfully made for you.

Isaiah 31:8 “Then the Assyrian shall fall by a sword, not of mortals; and a sword, not of humans, shall devour him; he shall flee from the sword, and his young men shall be put to forced labor.

Isaiah 31:9 His rock shall pass away in terror, and his officers desert the standard in panic,” says the LORD, whose fire is in Zion, and whose furnace is in Jerusalem.

Isaiah 32:1 See, a king will reign in righteousness, and princes will rule with justice.

Isaiah 32:2 Each will be like a hiding place from the wind, a covert from the tempest, like streams of water in a dry place, like the shade of a great rock in a weary land.

Isaiah 32:3 Then the eyes of those who have sight will not be closed, and the ears of those who have hearing will listen.

Isaiah 32:4 The minds of the rash will have good judgment, and the tongues of stammerers will speak readily and distinctly.

Isaiah 32:5 A fool will no longer be called noble, nor a villain said to be honorable.

Isaiah 32:6 For fools speak folly, and their minds plot iniquity: to practice ungodliness, to utter error concerning the LORD, to leave the craving of the hungry unsatisfied, and to deprive the thirsty of drink.

Isaiah 32:7 The villainies of villains are evil; they devise wicked devices to ruin the poor with lying words, even when the plea of the needy is right.

Isaiah 32:8 But those who are noble plan noble things, and by noble things they stand.

Isaiah 32:9 Rise up, you women who are at ease, hear my voice; you complacent daughters, listen to my speech.

Isaiah 32:10 In little more than a year you will shudder, you complacent ones; for the vintage will fail, the fruit harvest will not come.

Isaiah 32:11 Tremble, you women who are at ease, shudder, you complacent ones; strip, and make yourselves bare, and put sackcloth on your loins.

Isaiah 32:12 Beat your breasts for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine,

Isaiah 32:13 for the soil of my people growing up in thorns and briers; yes, for all the joyous houses in the jubilant city.

Isaiah 32:14 For the palace will be forsaken, the populous city deserted; the hill and the watchtower will become dens forever, the joy of wild asses, a pasture for flocks;

Isaiah 32:15 until a spirit from on high is poured out on us, and the wilderness becomes a fruitful field, and the fruitful field is deemed a forest.

Isaiah 32:16 Then justice will dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness abide in the fruitful field.

Isaiah 32:17 The effect of righteousness will be peace, and the result of righteousness, quietness and trust forever.

Isaiah 32:18 My people will abide in a peaceful habitation, in secure dwellings, and in quiet resting places.

Isaiah 32:19 The forest will disappear completely, and the city will be utterly laid low.

Isaiah 32:20 Happy will you be who sow beside every stream, who let the ox and the donkey range freely.

Isaiah 33:1 Ah, you destroyer, who yourself have not been destroyed; you treacherous one, with whom no one has dealt treacherously! When you have ceased to destroy, you will be destroyed; and when you have stopped dealing treacherously, you will be dealt with treacherously.

Isaiah 33:2 O LORD, be gracious to us; we wait for you. Be our arm every morning, our salvation in the time of trouble.

Isaiah 33:3 At the sound of tumult, peoples fled; before your majesty, nations scattered.

Isaiah 33:4 Spoil was gathered as the caterpillar gathers; as locusts leap, they leaped upon it.

Isaiah 33:5 The LORD is exalted, he dwells on high; he filled Zion with justice and righteousness;

Isaiah 33:6 he will be the stability of your times, abundance of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge; the fear of the LORD is Zion’s treasure.

Isaiah 33:8 The highways are deserted, travelers have quit the road. The treaty is broken, its oaths are despised, its obligation is disregarded.

Isaiah 33:9 The land mourns and languishes; Lebanon is confounded and withers away; Sharon is like a desert; and Bashan and Carmel shake off their leaves.

Isaiah 33:10 “Now I will arise,” says the LORD, “now I will lift myself up; now I will be exalted.

Isaiah 33:11 You conceive chaff, you bring forth stubble; your breath is a fire that will consume you.

Isaiah 33:12 And the peoples will be as if burned to lime, like thorns cut down, that are burned in the fire.”

Isaiah 33:13 Hear, you who are far away, what I have done; and you who are near, acknowledge my might.

Isaiah 33:14 The sinners in Zion are afraid; trembling has seized the godless: “Who among us can live with the devouring fire? Who among us can live with everlasting flames?”

Isaiah 33:15 Those who walk righteously and speak uprightly, who despise the gain of oppression, who wave away a bribe instead of accepting it, who stop their ears from hearing of bloodshed and shut their eyes from looking on evil,

Isaiah 33:16 they will live on the heights; their refuge will be the fortresses of rocks; their food will be supplied, their water assured.

Isaiah 33:17 Your eyes will see the king in his beauty; they will behold a land that stretches far away.

Isaiah 33:18 Your mind will muse on the terror: “Where is the one who counted? Where is the one who weighed the tribute? Where is the one who counted the towers?”

Isaiah 33:19 No longer will you see the insolent people, the people of an obscure speech that you cannot comprehend, stammering in a language that you cannot understand.

Isaiah 33:20 Look on Zion, the city of our appointed festivals! Your eyes will see Jerusalem, a quiet habitation, an immovable tent, whose stakes will never be pulled up, and none of whose ropes will be broken.

Isaiah 33:21 But there the LORD in majesty will be for us a place of broad rivers and streams, where no galley with oars can go, nor stately ship can pass.

Isaiah 33:22 For the LORD is our judge, the LORD is our ruler, the LORD is our king; he will save us.

Isaiah 33:23 Your rigging hangs loose; it cannot hold the mast firm in its place, or keep the sail spread out. Then prey and spoil in abundance will be divided; even the lame will fall to plundering.

Isaiah 33:24 And no inhabitant will say, “I am sick”; the people who live there will be forgiven their iniquity.

Isaiah 34:1 Draw near, O nations, to hear; O peoples, give heed! Let the earth hear, and all that fills it; the world, and all that comes from it.

Isaiah 34:2 For the LORD is enraged against all the nations, and furious against all their hoards; he has doomed them, has given them over for slaughter.

Isaiah 34:4 All the host of heaven shall rot away, and the skies roll up like a scroll. All their host shall wither like a leaf withering on a vine, or fruit withering on a fig tree.

Isaiah 34:5 When my sword has drunk its fill in the heavens, lo, it will descend upon Edom, upon the people I have doomed to judgment.

Isaiah 34:6 The LORD has a sword; it is sated with blood, it is gorged with fat, with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams. For the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah, a great slaughter in the land of Edom.

Isaiah 34:7 Wild oxen shall fall with them, and young steers with the mighty bulls. Their land shall be soaked with blood, and their soil made rich with fat.

Isaiah 34:8 For the LORD has a day of vengeance, a year of vindication by Zion’s cause.

Isaiah 34:9 And the streams of Edom shall be turned into pitch, and her soil into sulfur; her land shall become burning pitch.

Isaiah 34:10 Night and day it shall not be quenched; its smoke shall go up forever. From generation to generation it shall lie waste; no one shall pass through it forever and ever.

Isaiah 34:11 But the hawk and the hedgehog shall possess it; the owl and the raven shall live in it. He shall stretch the line of confusion over it, and the plummet of chaos over its nobles.

Isaiah 34:12 They shall name it No Kingdom There, and all its princes shall be nothing.

Isaiah 34:13 Thorns shall grow over its strongholds, nettles and thistles in its fortresses. It shall be the haunt of jackals, an abode for ostriches.

Isaiah 34:14 Wildcats shall meet with hyenas, goat-demons shall call to each other; there too Lilith shall repose, and find a place to rest.

Isaiah 34:15 There shall the owl nest and lay and hatch and brood in its shadow; there too the buzzards shall gather, each one with its mate.

Isaiah 34:16 Seek and read from the book of the LORD: Not one of these shall be missing; none shall be without its mate. For the mouth of the LORD has commanded, and his spirit has gathered them.

Isaiah 34:17 He has cast the lot for them, his hand has portioned it out to them with the line; they shall possess it forever, from generation to generation they shall live in it.

Isaiah 35:1 The wilderness and the dry land shall be glad, the desert shall rejoice and blossom; like the crocus

Isaiah 35:2 it shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice with joy and singing. The glory of Lebanon shall be given to it, the majesty of Carmel and Sharon. They shall see the glory of the LORD, the majesty of our God.

Isaiah 35:3 Strengthen the weak hands, and make firm the feeble knees.

Isaiah 35:4 Say to those who are of a fearful heart, “Be strong, do not fear! Here is your God. He will come with vengeance, with terrible recompense. He will come and save you.”

Isaiah 35:5 Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped;

Isaiah 35:6 then the lame shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the speechless sing for joy. For waters shall break forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert;

Isaiah 35:7 the burning sand shall become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water; the haunt of jackals shall become a swamp, the grass shall become reeds and rushes.

Isaiah 35:8 A highway shall be there, and it shall be called the Holy Way; the unclean shall not travel on it, but it shall be for God’s people; no traveler, not even fools, shall go astray.

Isaiah 35:9 No lion shall be there, nor shall any ravenous beast come up on it; they shall not be found there, but the redeemed shall walk there.

Isaiah 35:10 And the ransomed of the LORD shall return, and come to Zion with singing; everlasting joy shall be upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Isaiah 36:1 In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, King Sennacherib of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them.

Isaiah 36:2 The king of Assyria sent the Rabshakeh from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem, with a great army. He stood by the conduit of the upper pool on the highway to the Fuller's Field.

Isaiah 36:3 And there came out to him Eliakim son of Hilkiah, who was in charge of the palace, and Shebna the secretary, and Joah son of Asaph, the recorder.

Isaiah 36:4 The Rabshakeh said to them, "Say to Hezekiah: Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria: On what do you base this confidence of yours?

Isaiah 36:5 Do you think that mere words are strategy and power for war? On whom do you now rely, that you have rebelled against me?

Isaiah 36:6 See, you are relying on Egypt, that broken reed of a staff, which will pierce the hand of anyone who leans on it. Such is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who rely on him.

Isaiah 36:7 But if you say to me, 'We rely on the LORD our God,' is it not he whose high places and altars Hezekiah has removed, saying to Judah and to Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar'?

Isaiah 36:8 Come now, make a wager with my master the king of Assyria: I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to set riders on them.

Isaiah 36:9 How then can you repulse a single captain among the least of my master's servants, when you rely on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

Isaiah 36:10 Moreover, is it without the LORD that I have come up against this land to destroy it? The LORD said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it."

Isaiah 36:11 Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said to the Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it; do not speak to us in the language of Judah within the hearing of the people who are on the wall."

Isaiah 36:12 But the Rabshakeh said, "Has my master sent me to speak these words to your master and to you, and not to the people sitting on the wall, who are doomed with you to eat their own dung and drink their own urine?"

Isaiah 36:13 Then the Rabshakeh stood and called out in a loud voice in the language of Judah, "Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria!

Isaiah 36:14 Thus says the king: ‘Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to deliver you.

Isaiah 36:15 Do not let Hezekiah make you rely on the LORD by saying, The LORD will surely deliver us; this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.’

Isaiah 36:16 Do not listen to Hezekiah; for thus says the king of Assyria: ‘Make your peace with me and come out to me; then everyone of you will eat from your own vine and your own fig tree and drink water from your own cistern,

Isaiah 36:17 until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

Isaiah 36:18 Do not let Hezekiah mislead you by saying, The LORD will save us. Has any of the gods of the nations saved their land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

Isaiah 36:19 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?

Isaiah 36:20 Who among all the gods of these countries have saved their countries out of my hand, that the LORD should save Jerusalem out of my hand?’“

Isaiah 36:21 But they were silent and answered him not a word, for the king’s command was, “Do not answer him.”

Isaiah 36:22 Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, who was in charge of the palace, and Shebna the secretary, and Joah son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of the Rabshakeh.

Isaiah 37:1 When King Hezekiah heard it, he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

Isaiah 37:2 And he sent Eliakim, who was in charge of the palace, and Shebna the secretary, and the senior priests, covered with sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz.

Isaiah 37:3 They said to him, “Thus says Hezekiah, This day is a day of distress, of rebuke, and of disgrace; children have come to the birth, and there is no strength to bring them forth.

Isaiah 37:4 It may be that the LORD your God heard the words of the Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to mock the living God, and will rebuke the words that the LORD your God has heard; therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left.”

Isaiah 37:5 When the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah,

Isaiah 37:6 Isaiah said to them, “Say to your master, ‘Thus says the LORD: Do not be afraid because of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have reviled me.

Isaiah 37:7 I myself will put a spirit in him, so that he shall hear a rumor, and return to his own land; I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.'“

Isaiah 37:8 The Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah; for he had heard that the king had left Lachish.

Isaiah 37:9 Now the king heard concerning King Tirhakah of Ethiopia, “He has set out to fight against you.” When he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,

Isaiah 37:10 “Thus shall you speak to King Hezekiah of Judah: Do not let your God on whom you rely deceive you by promising that Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

Isaiah 37:11 See, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, destroying them utterly. Shall you be delivered?

Isaiah 37:12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them, the nations that my predecessors destroyed, Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden who were in Telassar?

Isaiah 37:13 Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, the king of Hena, or the king of Ivvah?”

Isaiah 37:14 Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it; then Hezekiah went up to the house of the LORD and spread it before the LORD.

Isaiah 37:15 And Hezekiah prayed to the LORD, saying:

Isaiah 37:16 “O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, who are enthroned above the cherubim, you are God, you alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; you have made heaven and earth.

Isaiah 37:17 Incline your ear, O LORD, and hear; open your eyes, O LORD, and see; hear all the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to mock the living God.

Isaiah 37:18 Truly, O LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations and their lands,

Isaiah 37:19 and have hurled their gods into the fire, though they were no gods, but the work of human hands— wood and stone— and so they were destroyed.

Isaiah 37:20 So now, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you alone are the LORD.”

Isaiah 37:21 Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying: “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Because you have prayed to me concerning King Sennacherib of Assyria, Isaiah 37:22 this is the word that the LORD has spoken concerning him: She despises you, she scorns you— virgin daughter Zion; she tosses her head— behind your back, daughter Jerusalem.

Isaiah 37:23 Whom have you mocked and reviled? Against whom have you raised your voice and haughtily lifted your eyes? Against the Holy One of Israel!

Isaiah 37:24 By your servants you have mocked the Lord, and you have said, 'With my many chariots I have gone up the heights of the mountains, to the far recesses of Lebanon; I felled its tallest cedars, its choicest cypresses; I came to its remotest height, its densest forest.

Isaiah 37:25 I dug wells and drank waters, I dried up with the sole of my foot all the streams of Egypt.'

Isaiah 37:26 Have you not heard that I determined it long ago? I planned from days of old what now I bring to pass, that you should make fortified cities crash into heaps of ruins,

Isaiah 37:27 while their inhabitants, shorn of strength, are dismayed and confounded; they have become like plants of the field and like tender grass, like grass on the housetops, blighted before it is grown.

Isaiah 37:28 I know your rising up and your sitting down, your going out and coming in, and your raging against me.

Isaiah 37:29 Because you have raged against me and your arrogance has come to my ears, I will put my hook in your nose and my bit in your mouth; I will turn you back on the way by which you came.

Isaiah 37:30 "And this shall be the sign for you: This year eat what grows of itself, and in the second year what springs from that; then in the third year sow, reap, plant vineyards, and eat their fruit.

Isaiah 37:31 The surviving remnant of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward;

Isaiah 37:32 for from Jerusalem a remnant shall go out, and from Mount Zion a band of survivors. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

Isaiah 37:33 "Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria: He shall not come into this city, shoot an arrow there, come before it with a shield, or cast up a siege ramp against it.

Isaiah 37:34 By the way that he came, by the same he shall return; he shall not come into this city, says the LORD.

Isaiah 37:35 For I will defend this city to save it, for my own sake and for the sake of my servant David."

Isaiah 37:36 Then the angel of the LORD set out and struck down one hundred eighty-five thousand in the camp of the Assyrians; when morning dawned, they were all dead bodies.

Isaiah 37:37 Then King Sennacherib of Assyria left, went home, and lived at Nineveh.

Isaiah 37:38 As he was worshiping in the house of his god Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer killed him with the sword, and they escaped into the land of Ararat. His son Esar-haddon succeeded him.

Isaiah 38:1 In those days Hezekiah became sick and was at the point of death. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz came to him, and said to him, “Thus says the LORD: Set your house in order, for you shall die; you shall not recover.”

Isaiah 38:2 Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall, and prayed to the LORD:

Isaiah 38:3 “Remember now, O LORD, I implore you, how I have walked before you in faithfulness with a whole heart, and have done what is good in your sight.” And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

Isaiah 38:4 Then the word of the LORD came to Isaiah:

Isaiah 38:5 “Go and say to Hezekiah, Thus says the LORD, the God of your ancestor David: I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; I will add fifteen years to your life.

Isaiah 38:6 I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria, and defend this city.

Isaiah 38:7 “This is the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he has promised:

Isaiah 38:8 See, I will make the shadow cast by the declining sun on the dial of Ahaz turn back ten steps.” So the sun turned back on the dial the ten steps by which it had declined.

Isaiah 38:9 A writing of King Hezekiah of Judah, after he had been sick and had recovered from his sickness:

Isaiah 38:10 I said: In the noontide of my days I must depart; I am consigned to the gates of Sheol for the rest of my years.

Isaiah 38:11 I said, I shall not see the LORD in the land of the living; I shall look upon mortals no more among the inhabitants of the world.

Isaiah 38:12 My dwelling is plucked up and removed from me like a shepherd’s tent; like a weaver I have rolled up my life; he cuts me off from the loom; from day to night you bring me to an end;

Isaiah 38:13 I cry for help until morning; like a lion he breaks all my bones; from day to night you bring me to an end.

Isaiah 38:14 Like a swallow or a crane I clamor, I moan like a dove. My eyes are weary with looking upward. O Lord, I am oppressed; be my security!

Isaiah 38:15 But what can I say? For he has spoken to me, and he himself has done it. All my sleep has fled because of the bitterness of my soul.

Isaiah 38:16 O Lord, by these things people live, and in all these is the life of my spirit. Oh, restore me to health and make me live!

Isaiah 38:17 Surely it was for my welfare that I had great bitterness; but you have held back my life from the pit of destruction, for you have cast all my sins behind your back.

Isaiah 38:18 For Sheol cannot thank you, death cannot praise you; those who go down to the Pit cannot hope for your faithfulness.

Isaiah 38:19 The living, the living, they thank you, as I do this day; fathers make known to children your faithfulness.

Isaiah 38:20 The LORD will save me, and we will sing to stringed instruments all the days of our lives, at the house of the LORD.

Isaiah 38:21 Now Isaiah had said, “Let them take a lump of figs, and apply it to the boil, so that he may recover.”

Isaiah 38:22 Hezekiah also had said, “What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD?”

Isaiah 39:1 At that time King Merodach-baladan son of Baladan of Babylon sent envoys with letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he heard that he had been sick and had recovered.

Isaiah 39:2 Hezekiah welcomed them; he showed them his treasure house, the silver, the gold, the spices, the precious oil, his whole armory, all that was found in his storehouses. There was nothing in his house or in all his realm that Hezekiah did not show them.

Isaiah 39:3 Then the prophet Isaiah came to King Hezekiah and said to him, “What did these men say? From where did they come to you?” Hezekiah answered, “They have come to me from a far country, from Babylon.”

Isaiah 39:4 He said, “What have they seen in your house?” Hezekiah answered, “They have seen all that is in my house; there is nothing in my storehouses that I did not show them.”

Isaiah 39:5 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Hear the word of the LORD of hosts:

Isaiah 39:6 Days are coming when all that is in your house, and that which your ancestors have stored up until this day, shall be carried to Babylon; nothing shall be left, says the LORD.

Isaiah 39:7 Some of your own sons who are born to you shall be taken away; they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.”

Isaiah 39:8 Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “The word of the LORD that you have spoken is good.” For he thought, “There will be peace and security in my days.”

Isaiah 40:1 Comfort, O comfort my people, says your God.

Isaiah 40:2 Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and cry to her that she has served her term, that her penalty is paid, that she has received from the LORD’s hand double for all her sins.

Isaiah 40:3 A voice cries out: “In the wilderness prepare the way of the LORD, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

Isaiah 40:4 Every valley shall be lifted up, and every mountain and hill be made low; the uneven ground shall become level, and the rough places a plain.

Isaiah 40:5 Then the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all people shall see it together, for the mouth of the LORD has spoken.”

Isaiah 40:6 A voice says, “Cry out!” And I said, “What shall I cry?” All people are grass, their constancy is like the flower of the field.

Isaiah 40:7 The grass withers, the flower fades, when the breath of the LORD blows upon it; surely the people are grass.

Isaiah 40:8 The grass withers, the flower fades; but the word of our God will stand forever.

Isaiah 40:9 Get you up to a high mountain, O Zion, herald of good tidings; lift up your voice with strength, O Jerusalem, herald of good tidings, lift it up, do not fear; say to the cities of Judah, “Here is your God!”

Isaiah 40:10 See, the Lord GOD comes with might, and his arm rules for him; his reward is with him, and his recompense before him.

Isaiah 40:11 He will feed his flock like a shepherd; he will gather the lambs in his arms, and carry them in his bosom, and gently lead the mother sheep.

Isaiah 40:12 Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand and marked off the heavens with a span, enclosed the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales and the hills in a balance?

Isaiah 40:13 Who has directed the spirit of the LORD, or as his counselor has instructed him?

Isaiah 40:14 Whom did he consult for his enlightenment, and who taught him the path of justice? Who taught him knowledge, and showed him the way of understanding?

Isaiah 40:15 Even the nations are like a drop from a bucket, and are accounted as dust on the scales; see, he takes up the isles like fine dust.

Isaiah 40:16 Lebanon would not provide fuel enough, nor are its animals enough for a burnt offering.

Isaiah 40:17 All the nations are as nothing before him; they are accounted by him as less than nothing and emptiness.

Isaiah 40:18 To whom then will you liken God, or what likeness compare with him?

Isaiah 40:19 An idol?— A workman casts it, and a goldsmith overlays it with gold, and casts for it silver chains.

Isaiah 40:20 As a gift one chooses mulberry wood— wood that will not rot— then seeks out a skilled artisan to set up an image that will not topple.

Isaiah 40:21 Have you not known? Have you not heard? Has it not been told you from the beginning? Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth?

Isaiah 40:22 It is he who sits above the circle of the earth, and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers; who stretches out the heavens like a curtain, and spreads them like a tent to live in;

Isaiah 40:23 who brings princes to naught, and makes the rulers of the earth as nothing.

Isaiah 40:24 Scarcely are they planted, scarcely sown, scarcely has their stem taken root in the earth, when he blows upon them, and they wither, and the tempest carries them off like stubble.

Isaiah 40:25 To whom then will you compare me, or who is my equal? says the Holy One.

Isaiah 40:26 Lift up your eyes on high and see: Who created these? He who brings out their host and numbers them, calling them all by name; because he is great in strength, mighty in power, not one is missing.

Isaiah 40:27 Why do you say, O Jacob, and speak, O Israel, “My way is hidden from the LORD, and my right is disregarded by my God”?

Isaiah 40:28 Have you not known? Have you not heard? The LORD is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He does not faint or grow weary; his understanding is unsearchable.

Isaiah 40:29 He gives power to the faint, and strengthens the powerless.

Isaiah 40:30 Even youths will faint and be weary, and the young will fall exhausted;

Isaiah 40:31 but those who wait for the LORD shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.

Isaiah 41:1 Listen to me in silence, O coastlands; let the peoples renew their strength; let them approach, then let them speak; let us together draw near for judgment.

Isaiah 41:2 Who has roused a victor from the east, summoned him to his service? He delivers up nations to him, and tramples kings under foot; he makes them like dust with his sword, like driven stubble with his bow.

Isaiah 41:4 Who has performed and done this, calling the generations from the beginning? I, the LORD, am first, and will be with the last.

Isaiah 41:5 The coastlands have seen and are afraid, the ends of the earth tremble; they have drawn near and come.

Isaiah 41:6 Each one helps the other, saying to one another, “Take courage!”

Isaiah 41:7 The artisan encourages the goldsmith, and the one who smooths with the hammer encourages the one who strikes the anvil, saying of the soldering, “It is good”; and they fasten it with nails so that it cannot be moved.

Isaiah 41:8 But you, Israel, my servant, Jacob, whom I have chosen, the offspring of Abraham, my friend;

Isaiah 41:9 you whom I took from the ends of the earth, and called from its farthest corners, saying to you, “You are my servant, I have chosen you and not cast you off”;

Isaiah 41:10 do not fear, for I am with you, do not be afraid, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my victorious right hand.

Isaiah 41:11 Yes, all who are incensed against you shall be ashamed and disgraced; those who strive against you shall be as nothing and shall perish.

Isaiah 41:12 You shall seek those who contend with you, but you shall not find them; those who war against you shall be as nothing at all.

Isaiah 41:13 For I, the LORD your God, hold your right hand; it is I who say to you, “Do not fear, I will help you.”

Isaiah 41:14 Do not fear, you worm Jacob, you insect Israel! I will help you, says the LORD; your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 41:15 Now, I will make of you a threshing sledge, sharp, new, and having teeth; you shall thresh the mountains and crush them, and you shall make the hills like chaff.

Isaiah 41:16 You shall winnow them and the wind shall carry them away, and the tempest shall scatter them. Then you shall rejoice in the LORD; in the Holy One of Israel you shall glory.

Isaiah 41:17 When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue is parched with thirst, I the LORD will answer them, I the God of Israel will not forsake them.

Isaiah 41:18 I will open rivers on the bare heights, and fountains in the midst of the valleys; I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water.

Isaiah 41:19 I will put in the wilderness the cedar, the acacia, the myrtle, and the olive; I will set in the desert the cypress, the plane and the pine together,

Isaiah 41:20 so that all may see and know, all may consider and understand, that the hand of the LORD has done this, the Holy One of Israel has created it.

Isaiah 41:21 Set forth your case, says the LORD; bring your proofs, says the King of Jacob.

Isaiah 41:22 Let them bring them, and tell us what is to happen. Tell us the former things, what they are, so that we may consider them, and that we may know their outcome; or declare to us the things to come.

Isaiah 41:23 Tell us what is to come hereafter, that we may know that you are gods; do good, or do harm, that we may be afraid and terrified.

Isaiah 41:24 You, indeed, are nothing and your work is nothing at all; whoever chooses you is an abomination.

Isaiah 41:25 I stirred up one from the north, and he has come, from the rising of the sun he was summoned by name. He shall trample on rulers as on mortar, as the potter treads clay.

Isaiah 41:26 Who declared it from the beginning, so that we might know, and beforehand, so that we might say, “He is right”? There was no one who declared it, none who proclaimed, none who heard your words.

Isaiah 41:27 I first have declared it to Zion, and I give to Jerusalem a herald of good tidings.

Isaiah 41:28 But when I look there is no one; among these there is no counselor who, when I ask, gives an answer.

Isaiah 42:1 Here is my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen, in whom my soul delights; I have put my spirit upon him; he will bring forth justice to the nations.

Isaiah 42:2 He will not cry or lift up his voice, or make it heard in the street;

Isaiah 42:3 a bruised reed he will not break, and a dimly burning wick he will not quench; he will faithfully bring forth justice.

Isaiah 42:4 He will not grow faint or be crushed until he has established justice in the earth; and the coastlands wait for his teaching.

Isaiah 42:5 Thus says God, the LORD, who created the heavens and stretched them out, who spread out the earth and what comes from it, who gives breath to the people upon it and spirit to those who walk in it:

Isaiah 42:6 I am the LORD, I have called you in righteousness, I have taken you by the hand and kept you; I have given you as a covenant to the people, a light to the nations,

Isaiah 42:7 to open the eyes that are blind, to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon, from the prison those who sit in darkness.

Isaiah 42:8 I am the LORD, that is my name; my glory I give to no other, nor my praise to idols.

Isaiah 42:9 See, the former things have come to pass, and new things I now declare; before they spring forth, I tell you of them.

Isaiah 42:10 Sing to the LORD a new song, his praise from the end of the earth! Let the sea roar and all that fills it, the coastlands and their inhabitants.

Isaiah 42:11 Let the desert and its towns lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar inhabits; let the inhabitants of Sela sing for joy, let them shout from the tops of the mountains.

Isaiah 42:12 Let them give glory to the LORD, and declare his praise in the coastlands.

Isaiah 42:13 The LORD goes forth like a soldier, like a warrior he stirs up his fury; he cries out, he shouts aloud, he shows himself mighty against his foes.

Isaiah 42:14 For a long time I have held my peace, I have kept still and restrained myself; now I will cry out like a woman in labor, I will gasp and pant.

Isaiah 42:15 I will lay waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbage; I will turn the rivers into islands, and dry up the pools.

Isaiah 42:16 I will lead the blind by a road they do not know, by paths they have not known I will guide them. I will turn the darkness before them into light, the rough places into level ground. These are the things I will do, and I will not forsake them.

Isaiah 42:17 They shall be turned back and utterly put to shame—those who trust in carved images, who say to cast images, “You are our gods.”

Isaiah 42:18 Listen, you that are deaf; and you that are blind, look up and see!

Isaiah 42:19 Who is blind but my servant, or deaf like my messenger whom I send? Who is blind like my dedicated one, or blind like the servant of the LORD?

Isaiah 42:20 He sees many things, but does not observe them; his ears are open, but he does not hear.

Isaiah 42:21 The LORD was pleased, for the sake of his righteousness, to magnify his teaching and make it glorious.

Isaiah 42:22 But this is a people robbed and plundered, all of them are trapped in holes and hidden in prisons; they have become a prey with no one to rescue, a spoil with no one to say, “Restore!”

Isaiah 42:23 Who among you will give heed to this, who will attend and listen for the time to come?

Isaiah 42:24 Who gave up Jacob to the spoiler, and Israel to the robbers? Was it not the LORD, against whom we have sinned, in whose ways they would not walk, and whose law they would not obey?

Isaiah 42:25 So he poured upon him the heat of his anger and the fury of war; it set him on fire all around, but he did not understand; it burned him, but he did not take it to heart.

Isaiah 43:1 But now thus says the LORD, he who created you, O Jacob, he who formed you, O Israel: Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine.

Isaiah 43:2 When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you; when you walk through fire you shall not be burned, and the flame shall not consume you.

Isaiah 43:3 For I am the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior. I give Egypt as your ransom, Ethiopia and Seba in exchange for you.

Isaiah 43:4 Because you are precious in my sight, and honored, and I love you, I give people in return for you, nations in exchange for your life.

Isaiah 43:5 Do not fear, for I am with you; I will bring your offspring from the east, and from the west I will gather you;

Isaiah 43:6 I will say to the north, “Give them up,” and to the south, “Do not withhold; bring my sons from far away and my daughters from the end of the earth—

Isaiah 43:7 everyone who is called by my name, whom I created for my glory, whom I formed and made.”

Isaiah 43:8 Bring forth the people who are blind, yet have eyes, who are deaf, yet have ears!

Isaiah 43:9 Let all the nations gather together, and let the peoples assemble. Who among them declared this, and foretold to us the former things? Let them bring their witnesses to justify them, and let them hear and say, “It is true.”

Isaiah 43:10 You are my witnesses, says the LORD, and my servant whom I have chosen, so that you may know and believe me and understand that I am he. Before me no god was formed, nor shall there be any after me.

Isaiah 43:11 I, I am the LORD, and besides me there is no savior.

Isaiah 43:12 I declared and saved and proclaimed, when there was no strange god among you; and you are my witnesses, says the LORD.

Isaiah 43:13 I am God, and also henceforth I am He; there is no one who can deliver from my hand; I work and who can hinder it?

Isaiah 43:14 Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: For your sake I will send to Babylon and break down all the bars, and the shouting of the Chaldeans will be turned to lamentation.

Isaiah 43:15 I am the LORD, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your King.

Isaiah 43:16 Thus says the LORD, who makes a way in the sea, a path in the mighty waters,

Isaiah 43:17 who brings out chariot and horse, army and warrior; they lie down, they cannot rise, they are extinguished, quenched like a wick:

Isaiah 43:18 Do not remember the former things, or consider the things of old.

Isaiah 43:19 I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.

Isaiah 43:20 The wild animals will honor me, the jackals and the ostriches; for I give water in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, to give drink to my chosen people,

Isaiah 43:21 the people whom I formed for myself so that they might declare my praise.

Isaiah 43:22 Yet you did not call upon me, O Jacob; but you have been weary of me, O Israel!

Isaiah 43:23 You have not brought me your sheep for burnt offerings, or honored me with your sacrifices. I have not burdened you with offerings, or wearied you with frankincense.

Isaiah 43:24 You have not bought me sweet cane with money, or satisfied me with the fat of your sacrifices. But you have burdened me with your sins; you have wearied me with your iniquities.

Isaiah 43:25 I, I am He who blots out your transgressions for my own sake, and I will not remember your sins.

Isaiah 43:26 Accuse me, let us go to trial; set forth your case, so that you may be proved right.

Isaiah 43:27 Your first ancestor sinned, and your interpreters transgressed against me.

Isaiah 43:28 Therefore I profaned the princes of the sanctuary, I delivered Jacob to utter destruction, and Israel to reviling.

Isaiah 44:1 But now hear, O Jacob my servant, Israel whom I have chosen!

Isaiah 44:2 Thus says the LORD who made you, who formed you in the womb and will help you: Do not fear, O Jacob my servant, Jeshurun whom I have chosen.

Isaiah 44:3 For I will pour water on the thirsty land, and streams on the dry ground; I will pour my spirit upon your descendants, and my blessing on your offspring.

Isaiah 44:5 This one will say, “I am the LORD’s,” another will be called by the name of Jacob, yet another will write on the hand, “The LORD’s,” and adopt the name of Israel.

Isaiah 44:6 Thus says the LORD, the King of Israel, and his Redeemer, the LORD of hosts: I am the first and I am the last; besides me there is no god.

Isaiah 44:7 Who is like me? Let them proclaim it, let them declare and set it forth before me. Who has announced from of old the things to come? Let them tell us what is yet to be.

Isaiah 44:8 Do not fear, or be afraid; have I not told you from of old and declared it? You are my witnesses! Is there any god besides me? There is no other rock; I know not one.

Isaiah 44:9 All who make idols are nothing, and the things they delight in do not profit; their witnesses neither see nor know. And so they will be put to shame.

Isaiah 44:10 Who would fashion a god or cast an image that can do no good?

Isaiah 44:11 Look, all its devotees shall be put to shame; the artisans too are merely human. Let them all assemble, let them stand up; they shall be terrified, they shall all be put to shame.

Isaiah 44:12 The ironsmith fashions it and works it over the coals, shaping it with hammers, and forging it with his strong arm; he becomes hungry and his strength fails, he drinks no water and is faint.

Isaiah 44:13 The carpenter stretches a line, marks it out with a stylus, fashions it with planes, and marks it with a compass; he makes it in human form, with human beauty, to be set up in a shrine.

Isaiah 44:14 He cuts down cedars or chooses a holm tree or an oak and lets it grow strong among the trees of the forest. He plants a cedar and the rain nourishes it.

Isaiah 44:15 Then it can be used as fuel. Part of it he takes and warms himself; he kindles a fire and bakes bread. Then he makes a god and worships it, makes it a carved image and bows down before it.

Isaiah 44:16 Half of it he burns in the fire; over this half he roasts meat, eats it and is satisfied. He also warms himself and says, “Ah, I am warm, I can feel the fire!”

Isaiah 44:17 The rest of it he makes into a god, his idol, bows down to it and worships it; he prays to it and says, “Save me, for you are my god!”

Isaiah 44:18 They do not know, nor do they comprehend; for their eyes are shut, so that they cannot see, and their minds as well, so that they cannot understand.

Isaiah 44:19 No one considers, nor is there knowledge or discernment to say, “Half of it I burned in the fire; I also baked bread on its coals, I roasted meat and have eaten. Now shall I make the rest of it an abomination? Shall I fall down before a block of wood?”

Isaiah 44:20 He feeds on ashes; a deluded mind has led him astray, and he cannot save himself or say, “Is not this thing in my right hand a fraud?”

Isaiah 44:21 Remember these things, O Jacob, and Israel, for you are my servant; I formed you, you are my servant; O Israel, you will not be forgotten by me.

Isaiah 44:22 I have swept away your transgressions like a cloud, and your sins like mist; return to me, for I have redeemed you.

Isaiah 44:23 Sing, O heavens, for the LORD has done it; shout, O depths of the earth; break forth into singing, O mountains, O forest, and every tree in it! For the LORD has redeemed Jacob, and will be glorified in Israel.

Isaiah 44:24 Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, who formed you in the womb: I am the LORD, who made all things, who alone stretched out the heavens, who by myself spread out the earth;

Isaiah 44:25 who frustrates the omens of liars, and makes fools of diviners; who turns back the wise, and makes their knowledge foolish;

Isaiah 44:26 who confirms the word of his servant, and fulfills the prediction of his messengers; who says of Jerusalem, “It shall be inhabited,” and of the cities of Judah, “They shall be rebuilt, and I will raise up their ruins”;

Isaiah 44:27 who says to the deep, “Be dry— I will dry up your rivers”;

Isaiah 44:28 who says of Cyrus, “He is my shepherd, and he shall carry out all my purpose”; and who says of Jerusalem, “It shall be rebuilt,” and of the temple, “Your foundation shall be laid.”

Isaiah 45:1 Thus says the LORD to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have grasped to subdue nations before him and strip kings of their robes, to open doors before him— and the gates shall not be closed:

Isaiah 45:2 I will go before you and level the mountains, I will break in pieces the doors of bronze and cut through the bars of iron, Isaiah 45:3 I will give you the treasures of darkness and riches hidden in secret places, so that you may know that it is I, the LORD, the God of Israel, who call you by your name.

Isaiah 45:4 For the sake of my servant Jacob, and Israel my chosen, I call you by your name, I surname you, though you do not know me.

Isaiah 45:5 I am the LORD, and there is no other; besides me there is no god. I arm you, though you do not know me,

Isaiah 45:6 so that they may know, from the rising of the sun and from the west, that there is no one besides me; I am the LORD, and there is no other.

Isaiah 45:7 I form light and create darkness, I make weal and create woe; I the LORD do all these things.

Isaiah 45:8 Shower, O heavens, from above, and let the skies rain down righteousness; let the earth open, that salvation may spring up, and let it cause righteousness to sprout up also; I the LORD have created it.

Isaiah 45:9 Woe to you who strive with your Maker, earthen vessels with the potter! Does the clay say to the one who fashions it, “What are you making”? or “Your work has no handles”?

Isaiah 45:10 Woe to anyone who says to a father, “What are you begetting?” or to a woman, “With what are you in labor?”

Isaiah 45:11 Thus says the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, and its Maker: Will you question me about my children, or command me concerning the work of my hands?

Isaiah 45:12 I made the earth, and created humankind upon it; it was my hands that stretched out the heavens, and I commanded all their host.

Isaiah 45:13 I have aroused Cyrus in righteousness, and I will make all his paths straight; he shall build my city and set my exiles free, not for price or reward, says the LORD of hosts.

Isaiah 45:14 Thus says the LORD: The wealth of Egypt and the merchandise of Ethiopia, and the Sabeans, tall of stature, shall come over to you and be yours, they shall follow you; they shall come over in chains and bow down to you. They will make supplication to you, saying, “God is with you alone, and there is no other; there is no god besides him.”

Isaiah 45:15 Truly, you are a God who hides himself, O God of Israel, the Savior.

Isaiah 45:16 All of them are put to shame and confounded, the makers of idols go in confusion together.

Isaiah 45:17 But Israel is saved by the LORD with everlasting salvation; you shall not be put to shame or confounded to all eternity.

Isaiah 45:18 For thus says the LORD, who created the heavens (he is God!), who formed the earth and made it (he established it; he did not create it a chaos, he formed it to be inhabited!): I am the LORD, and there is no other.

Isaiah 45:19 I did not speak in secret, in a land of darkness; I did not say to the offspring of Jacob, “Seek me in chaos.” I the LORD speak the truth, I declare what is right.

Isaiah 45:20 Assemble yourselves and come together, draw near, you survivors of the nations! They have no knowledge— those who carry about their wooden idols, and keep on praying to a god that cannot save.

Isaiah 45:21 Declare and present your case; let them take counsel together! Who told this long ago? Who declared it of old? Was it not I, the LORD? There is no other god besides me, a righteous God and a Savior; there is no one besides me.

Isaiah 45:22 Turn to me and be saved, all the ends of the earth! For I am God, and there is no other.

Isaiah 45:23 By myself I have sworn, from my mouth has gone forth in righteousness a word that shall not return: “To me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear.”

Isaiah 45:24 Only in the LORD, it shall be said of me, are righteousness and strength; all who were incensed against him shall come to him and be ashamed.

Isaiah 45:25 In the LORD all the offspring of Israel shall triumph and glory.

Isaiah 46:1 Bel bows down, Nebo stoops, their idols are on beasts and cattle; these things you carry are loaded as burdens on weary animals.

Isaiah 46:2 They stoop, they bow down together; they cannot save the burden, but themselves go into captivity.

Isaiah 46:3 Listen to me, O house of Jacob, all the remnant of the house of Israel, who have been borne by me from your birth, carried from the womb;

Isaiah 46:4 even to your old age I am he, even when you turn gray I will carry you. I have made, and I will bear; I will carry and will save.

Isaiah 46:5 To whom will you liken me and make me equal, and compare me, as though we were alike?

Isaiah 46:6 Those who lavish gold from the purse, and weigh out silver in the scales— they hire a goldsmith, who makes it into a god; then they fall down and worship!

Isaiah 46:7 They lift it to their shoulders, they carry it, they set it in its place, and it stands there; it cannot move from its place. If one cries out to it, it does not answer or save anyone from trouble.

Isaiah 46:8 Remember this and consider, recall it to mind, you transgressors,

Isaiah 46:9 remember the former things of old; for I am God, and there is no other; I am God, and there is no one like me,

Isaiah 46:10 declaring the end from the beginning and from ancient times things not yet done, saying, “My purpose shall stand, and I will fulfill my intention,”

Isaiah 46:11 calling a bird of prey from the east, the man for my purpose from a far country. I have spoken, and I will bring it to pass; I have planned, and I will do it.

Isaiah 46:12 Listen to me, you stubborn of heart, you who are far from deliverance:

Isaiah 46:13 I bring near my deliverance, it is not far off, and my salvation will not tarry; I will put salvation in Zion, for Israel my glory.

Isaiah 47:1 Come down and sit in the dust, virgin daughter Babylon! Sit on the ground without a throne, daughter Chaldea! For you shall no more be called tender and delicate.

Isaiah 47:2 Take the millstones and grind meal, remove your veil, strip off your robe, uncover your legs, pass through the rivers.

Isaiah 47:3 Your nakedness shall be uncovered, and your shame shall be seen. I will take vengeance, and I will spare no one.

Isaiah 47:4 Our Redeemer— the LORD of hosts is his name— is the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 47:5 Sit in silence, and go into darkness, daughter Chaldea! For you shall no more be called the mistress of kingdoms.

Isaiah 47:6 I was angry with my people, I profaned my heritage; I gave them into your hand, you showed them no mercy; on the aged you made your yoke exceedingly heavy.

Isaiah 47:7 You said, “I shall be mistress forever,” so that you did not lay these things to heart or remember their end.

Isaiah 47:8 Now therefore hear this, you lover of pleasures, who sit securely, who say in your heart, “I am, and there is no one besides me; I shall not sit as a widow or know the loss of children”—

Isaiah 47:9 both these things shall come upon you in a moment, in one day: the loss of children and widowhood shall come upon you in full measure, in spite of your many sorceries and the great power of your enchantments.

Isaiah 47:10 You felt secure in your wickedness; you said, “No one sees me.” Your wisdom and your knowledge led you astray, and you said in your heart, “I am, and there is no one besides me.”

Isaiah 47:11 But evil shall come upon you, which you cannot charm away; disaster shall fall upon you, which you will not be able to ward off; and ruin shall come on you suddenly, of which you know nothing.

Isaiah 47:12 Stand fast in your enchantments and your many sorceries, with which you have labored from your youth; perhaps you may be able to succeed, perhaps you may inspire terror.

Isaiah 47:13 You are wearied with your many consultations; let those who study the heavens stand up and save you, those who gaze at the stars, and at each new moon predict what shall befall you.

Isaiah 47:14 See, they are like stubble, the fire consumes them; they cannot deliver themselves from the power of the flame. No coal for warming oneself is this, no fire to sit before!

Isaiah 47:15 Such to you are those with whom you have labored, who have trafficked with you from your youth; they all wander about in their own paths; there is no one to save you.

Isaiah 48:1 Hear this, O house of Jacob, who are called by the name of Israel, and who came forth from the loins of Judah; who swear by the name of the LORD, and invoke the God of Israel, but not in truth or right.

Isaiah 48:2 For they call themselves after the holy city, and lean on the God of Israel; the LORD of hosts is his name.

Isaiah 48:3 The former things I declared long ago, they went out from my mouth and I made them known; then suddenly I did them and they came to pass.

Isaiah 48:4 Because I know that you are obstinate, and your neck is an iron sinew and your forehead brass,

Isaiah 48:5 I declared them to you from long ago, before they came to pass I announced them to you, so that you would not say, “My idol did them, my carved image and my cast image commanded them.”

Isaiah 48:6 You have heard; now see all this; and will you not declare it? From this time forward I make you hear new things, hidden things that you have not known.

Isaiah 48:7 They are created now, not long ago; before today you have never heard of them, so that you could not say, “I already knew them.”

Isaiah 48:8 You have never heard, you have never known, from of old your ear has not been opened. For I knew that you would deal very treacherously, and that from birth you were called a rebel.

Isaiah 48:9 For my name’s sake I defer my anger, for the sake of my praise I restrain it for you, so that I may not cut you off.

Isaiah 48:10 See, I have refined you, but not like silver; I have tested you in the furnace of adversity.

Isaiah 48:11 For my own sake, for my own sake, I do it, for why should my name be profaned? My glory I will not give to another.

Isaiah 48:12 Listen to me, O Jacob, and Israel, whom I called: I am He; I am the first, and I am the last.

Isaiah 48:13 My hand laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand spread out the heavens; when I summon them, they stand at attention.

Isaiah 48:14 Assemble, all of you, and hear! Who among them has declared these things? The LORD loves him; he shall perform his purpose on Babylon, and his arm shall be against the Chaldeans.

Isaiah 48:15 I, even I, have spoken and called him, I have brought him, and he will prosper in his way.

Isaiah 48:16 Draw near to me, hear this! From the beginning I have not spoken in secret, from the time it came to be I have been there. And now the Lord GOD has sent me and his spirit.

Isaiah 48:17 Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: I am the LORD your God, who teaches you for your own good, who leads you in the way you should go.

Isaiah 48:18 O that you had paid attention to my commandments! Then your prosperity would have been like a river, and your success like the waves of the sea;

Isaiah 48:19 your offspring would have been like the sand, and your descendants like its grains; their name would never be cut off or destroyed from before me.

Isaiah 48:20 Go out from Babylon, flee from Chaldea, declare this with a shout of joy, proclaim it, send it forth to the end of the earth; say, “The LORD has redeemed his servant Jacob!”

Isaiah 48:21 They did not thirst when he led them through the deserts; he made water flow for them from the rock; he split open the rock and the water gushed out.

Isaiah 48:22 “There is no peace,” says the LORD, “for the wicked.”

Isaiah 49:1 Listen to me, O coastlands, pay attention, you peoples from far away! The LORD called me before I was born, while I was in my mother’s womb he named me.

Isaiah 49:2 He made my mouth like a sharp sword, in the shadow of his hand he hid me; he made me a polished arrow, in his quiver he hid me away.

Isaiah 49:3 And he said to me, “You are my servant, Israel, in whom I will be glorified.”

Isaiah 49:4 But I said, “I have labored in vain, I have spent my strength for nothing and vanity; yet surely my cause is with the LORD, and my reward with my God.”

Isaiah 49:5 And now the LORD says, who formed me in the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob back to him, and that Israel might be gathered to him, for I am honored in the sight of the LORD, and my God has become my strength—

Isaiah 49:6 he says, “It is too light a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to restore the survivors of Israel; I will give you as a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth.”

Isaiah 49:7 Thus says the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel and his Holy One, to one deeply despised, abhorred by the nations, the slave of rulers, “Kings shall see and stand up, princes, and they shall prostrate themselves, because of the LORD, who is faithful, the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you.”

Isaiah 49:8 Thus says the LORD: In a time of favor I have answered you, on a day of salvation I have helped you; I have kept you and given you as a covenant to the people, to establish the land, to apportion the desolate heritages;

Isaiah 49:9 saying to the prisoners, “Come out,” to those who are in darkness, “Show yourselves.” They shall feed along the ways, on all the bare heights shall be their pasture;

Isaiah 49:10 they shall not hunger or thirst, neither scorching wind nor sun shall strike them down, for he who has pity on them will lead them, and by springs of water will guide them.

Isaiah 49:11 And I will turn all my mountains into a road, and my highways shall be raised up.

Isaiah 49:12 Lo, these shall come from far away, and lo, these from the north and from the west, and these from the land of Syene.

Isaiah 49:13 Sing for joy, O heavens, and exult, O earth; break forth, O mountains, into singing! For the LORD has comforted his people, and will have compassion on his suffering ones.

Isaiah 49:14 But Zion said, “The LORD has forsaken me, my Lord has forgotten me.”

Isaiah 49:15 Can a woman forget her nursing child, or show no compassion for the child of her womb? Even these may forget, yet I will not forget you.

Isaiah 49:16 See, I have inscribed you on the palms of my hands; your walls are continually before me.

Isaiah 49:17 Your builders outdo your destroyers, and those who laid you waste go away from you.

Isaiah 49:18 Lift up your eyes all around and see; they all gather, they come to you. As I live, says the LORD, you shall put all of them on like an ornament, and like a bride you shall bind them on.

Isaiah 49:19 Surely your waste and your desolate places and your devastated land— surely now you will be too crowded for your inhabitants, and those who swallowed you up will be far away.

Isaiah 49:20 The children born in the time of your bereavement will yet say in your hearing: “The place is too crowded for me; make room for me to settle.”

Isaiah 49:21 Then you will say in your heart, “Who has borne me these? I was bereaved and barren, exiled and put away— so who has reared these? I was left all alone— where then have these come from?”

Isaiah 49:22 Thus says the Lord GOD: I will soon lift up my hand to the nations, and raise my signal to the peoples; and they shall bring your sons in their bosom, and your daughters shall be carried on their shoulders.

Isaiah 49:23 Kings shall be your foster fathers, and their queens your nursing mothers. With their faces to the ground they shall bow down to you, and lick the dust of your feet. Then you will know that I am the LORD; those who wait for me shall not be put to shame.

Isaiah 49:24 Can the prey be taken from the mighty, or the captives of a tyrant be rescued?

Isaiah 49:25 But thus says the LORD: Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken, and the prey of the tyrant be rescued; for I will contend with those who contend with you, and I will save your children.

Isaiah 49:26 I will make your oppressors eat their own flesh, and they shall be drunk with their own blood as with wine. Then all flesh shall know that I am the LORD your Savior, and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

Isaiah 50:1 Thus says the LORD: Where is your mother’s bill of divorce with which I put her away? Or which of my creditors is it to whom I have sold you? No, because of your sins you were sold, and for your transgressions your mother was put away.

Isaiah 50:2 Why was no one there when I came? Why did no one answer when I called? Is my hand shortened, that it cannot redeem? Or have I no power to deliver? By my rebuke I dry up the sea, I make the rivers a desert; their fish stink for lack of water, and die of thirst.

Isaiah 50:3 I clothe the heavens with blackness, and make sackcloth their covering.

Isaiah 50:4 The Lord GOD has given me the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word. Morning by morning he wakens— wakens my ear to listen as those who are taught.

Isaiah 50:5 The Lord GOD has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, I did not turn backward.

Isaiah 50:6 I gave my back to those who struck me, and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard; I did not hide my face from insult and spitting.

Isaiah 50:7 The Lord GOD helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced; therefore I have set my face like flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame;

Isaiah 50:8 he who vindicates me is near. Who will contend with me? Let us stand up together. Who are my adversaries? Let them confront me.

Isaiah 50:9 It is the Lord GOD who helps me; who will declare me guilty? All of them will wear out like a garment; the moth will eat them up.

Isaiah 50:10 Who among you fears the LORD and obeys the voice of his servant, who walks in darkness and has no light, yet trusts in the name of the LORD and relies upon his God?

Isaiah 50:11 But all of you are kindlers of fire, lighters of firebrands. Walk in the flame of your fire, and among the brands that you have kindled! This is what you shall have from my hand: you shall lie down in torment.

Isaiah 51:1 Listen to me, you that pursue righteousness, you that seek the LORD. Look to the rock from which you were hewn, and to the quarry from which you were dug.

Isaiah 51:2 Look to Abraham your father and to Sarah who bore you; for he was but one when I called him, but I blessed him and made him many.

Isaiah 51:3 For the LORD will comfort Zion; he will comfort all her waste places, and will make her wilderness like Eden, her desert like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness will be found in her, thanksgiving and the voice of song.

Isaiah 51:4 Listen to me, my people, and give heed to me, my nation; for a teaching will go out from me, and my justice for a light to the peoples.

Isaiah 51:5 I will bring near my deliverance swiftly, my salvation has gone out and my arms will rule the peoples; the coastlands wait for me, and for my arm they hope.

Isaiah 51:6 Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look at the earth beneath; for the heavens will vanish like smoke, the earth will wear out like a garment, and those who live on it will die like gnats; but my salvation will be forever, and my deliverance will never be ended.

Isaiah 51:7 Listen to me, you who know righteousness, you people who have my teaching in your hearts; do not fear the reproach of others, and do not be dismayed when they revile you.

Isaiah 51:8 For the moth will eat them up like a garment, and the worm will eat them like wool; but my deliverance will be forever, and my salvation to all generations.

Isaiah 51:9 Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of the LORD! Awake, as in days of old, the generations of long ago! Was it not you who cut Rahab in pieces, who pierced the dragon?

Isaiah 51:10 Was it not you who dried up the sea, the waters of the great deep; who made the depths of the sea a way for the redeemed to cross over?

Isaiah 51:11 So the ransomed of the LORD shall return, and come to Zion with singing; everlasting joy shall be upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Isaiah 51:12 I, I am he who comforts you; why then are you afraid of a mere mortal who must die, a human being who fades like grass?

Isaiah 51:13 You have forgotten the LORD, your Maker, who stretched out the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth. You fear continually all day long because of the fury of the oppressor, who is bent on destruction. But where is the fury of the oppressor?

Isaiah 51:14 The oppressed shall speedily be released; they shall not die and go down to the Pit, nor shall they lack bread.

Isaiah 51:15 For I am the LORD your God, who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar— the LORD of hosts is his name.

Isaiah 51:16 I have put my words in your mouth, and hidden you in the shadow of my hand, stretching out the heavens and laying the foundations of the earth, and saying to Zion, “You are my people.”

Isaiah 51:17 Rouse yourself, rouse yourself! Stand up, O Jerusalem, you who have drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his wrath, who have drunk to the dregs the bowl of staggering.

Isaiah 51:18 There is no one to guide her among all the children she has borne; there is no one to take her by the hand among all the children she has brought up.

Isaiah 51:19 These two things have befallen you— who will grieve with you?— devastation and destruction, famine and sword— who will comfort you?

Isaiah 51:20 Your children have fainted, they lie at the head of every street like an antelope in a net; they are full of the wrath of the LORD, the rebuke of your God.

Isaiah 51:21 Therefore hear this, you who are wounded, who are drunk, but not with wine:

Isaiah 51:22 Thus says your Sovereign, the LORD, your God who pleads the cause of his people: See, I have taken from your hand the cup of staggering; you shall drink no more from the bowl of my wrath.

Isaiah 51:23 And I will put it into the hand of your tormentors, who have said to you, “Bow down, that we may walk on you”; and you have made your back like the ground and like the street for them to walk on.

Isaiah 52:1 Awake, awake, put on your strength, O Zion! Put on your beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city; for the uncircumcised and the unclean shall enter you no more.

Isaiah 52:2 Shake yourself from the dust, rise up, O captive Jerusalem; loose the bonds from your neck, O captive daughter Zion!

Isaiah 52:3 For thus says the LORD: You were sold for nothing, and you shall be redeemed without money.

Isaiah 52:4 For thus says the Lord GOD: Long ago, my people went down into Egypt to reside there as aliens; the Assyrian, too, has oppressed them without cause.

Isaiah 52:5 Now therefore what am I doing here, says the LORD, seeing that my people are taken away without cause? Their rulers howl, says the LORD, and continually, all day long, my name is despised.

Isaiah 52:6 Therefore my people shall know my name; therefore in that day they shall know that it is I who speak; here am I.

Isaiah 52:7 How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of the messenger who announces peace, who brings good news, who announces salvation, who says to Zion, “Your God reigns.”

Isaiah 52:8 Listen! Your sentinels lift up their voices, together they sing for joy; for in plain sight they see the return of the LORD to Zion.

Isaiah 52:9 Break forth together into singing, you ruins of Jerusalem; for the LORD has comforted his people, he has redeemed Jerusalem.

Isaiah 52:10 The LORD has bared his holy arm before the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

Isaiah 52:11 Depart, depart, go out from there! Touch no unclean thing; go out from the midst of it, purify yourselves, you who carry the vessels of the LORD.

Isaiah 52:12 For you shall not go out in haste, and you shall not go in flight; for the LORD will go before you, and the God of Israel will be your rear guard.

Isaiah 52:13 See, my servant shall prosper; he shall be exalted and lifted up, and shall be very high.

Isaiah 52:14 Just as there were many who were astonished at him—so marred was his appearance, beyond human semblance, and his form beyond that of mortals—

Isaiah 52:15 so he shall startle many nations; kings shall shut their mouths because of him; for that which had not been told them they shall see, and that which they had not heard they shall contemplate.

Isaiah 53:1 Who has believed what we have heard? And to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?

Isaiah 53:2 For he grew up before him like a young plant, and like a root out of dry ground; he had no form or majesty that we should look at him, nothing in his appearance that we should desire him.

Isaiah 53:3 He was despised and rejected by others; a man of suffering and acquainted with infirmity; and as one from whom others hide their faces he was despised, and we held him of no account.

Isaiah 53:4 Surely he has borne our infirmities and carried our diseases; yet we accounted him stricken, struck down by God, and afflicted.

Isaiah 53:5 But he was wounded for our transgressions, crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the punishment that made us whole, and by his bruises we are healed.

Isaiah 53:6 All we like sheep have gone astray; we have all turned to our own way, and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

Isaiah 53:7 He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth.

Isaiah 53:8 By a perversion of justice he was taken away. Who could have imagined his future? For he was cut off from the land of the living, stricken for the transgression of my people.

Isaiah 53:9 They made his grave with the wicked and his tomb with the rich, although he had done no violence, and there was no deceit in his mouth.

Isaiah 53:10 Yet it was the will of the LORD to crush him with pain. When you make his life an offering for sin, he shall see his offspring, and shall prolong his days; through him the will of the LORD shall prosper.

Isaiah 53:11 Out of his anguish he shall see light; he shall find satisfaction through his knowledge. The righteous one, my servant, shall make many righteous, and he shall bear their iniquities.

Isaiah 53:12 Therefore I will allot him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he poured out himself to death, and was numbered with the transgressors; yet he bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

Isaiah 54:1 Sing, O barren one who did not bear; burst into song and shout, you who have not been in labor! For the children of the desolate woman will be more than the children of her that is married, says the LORD.

Isaiah 54:2 Enlarge the site of your tent, and let the curtains of your habitations be stretched out; do not hold back; lengthen your cords and strengthen your stakes.

Isaiah 54:3 For you will spread out to the right and to the left, and your descendants will possess the nations and will settle the desolate towns.

Isaiah 54:4 Do not fear, for you will not be ashamed; do not be discouraged, for you will not suffer disgrace; for you will forget the shame of your youth, and the disgrace of your widowhood you will remember no more.

Isaiah 54:5 For your Maker is your husband, the LORD of hosts is his name; the Holy One of Israel is your Redeemer, the God of the whole earth he is called.

Isaiah 54:6 For the LORD has called you like a wife forsaken and grieved in spirit, like the wife of a man’s youth when she is cast off, says your God.

Isaiah 54:7 For a brief moment I abandoned you, but with great compassion I will gather you.

Isaiah 54:8 In overflowing wrath for a moment I hid my face from you, but with everlasting love I will have compassion on you, says the LORD, your Redeemer.

Isaiah 54:9 This is like the days of Noah to me: Just as I swore that the waters of Noah would never again go over the earth, so I have sworn that I will not be angry with you and will not rebuke you.

Isaiah 54:10 For the mountains may depart and the hills be removed, but my steadfast love shall not depart from you, and my covenant of peace shall not be removed, says the LORD, who has compassion on you.

Isaiah 54:11 O afflicted one, storm-tossed, and not comforted, I am about to set your stones in antimony, and lay your foundations with sapphires.

Isaiah 54:12 I will make your pinnacles of rubies, your gates of jewels, and all your wall of precious stones.

Isaiah 54:13 All your children shall be taught by the LORD, and great shall be the prosperity of your children.

Isaiah 54:14 In righteousness you shall be established; you shall be far from oppression, for you shall not fear; and from terror, for it shall not come near you.

Isaiah 54:15 If anyone stirs up strife, it is not from me; whoever stirs up strife with you shall fall because of you.

Isaiah 54:16 See it is I who have created the smith who blows the fire of coals, and produces a weapon fit for its purpose; I have also created the ravager to destroy.

Isaiah 54:17 No weapon that is fashioned against you shall prosper, and you shall confute every tongue that rises against you in judgment. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD and their vindication from me, says the LORD.

Isaiah 55:1 Ho, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and you that have no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

Isaiah 55:2 Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy? Listen carefully to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food.

Isaiah 55:3 Incline your ear, and come to me; listen, so that you may live. I will make with you an everlasting covenant, my steadfast, sure love for David.

Isaiah 55:4 See, I made him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander for the peoples.

Isaiah 55:5 See, you shall call nations that you do not know, and nations that do not know you shall run to you, because of the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, for he has glorified you.

Isaiah 55:6 Seek the LORD while he may be found, call upon him while he is near;

Isaiah 55:7 let the wicked forsake their way, and the unrighteous their thoughts; let them return to the LORD, that he may have mercy on them, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

Isaiah 55:8 For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the LORD.

Isaiah 55:9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.

Isaiah 55:10 For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and do not return there until they have watered the earth, making it bring forth and sprout, giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater,

Isaiah 55:11 so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and succeed in the thing for which I sent it.

Isaiah 55:12 For you shall go out in joy, and be led back in peace; the mountains and the hills before you shall burst into song, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

Isaiah 55:13 Instead of the thorn shall come up the cypress; instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle; and it shall be to the LORD for a memorial, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

Isaiah 56:1 Thus says the LORD: Maintain justice, and do what is right, for soon my salvation will come, and my deliverance be revealed.

Isaiah 56:2 Happy is the mortal who does this, the one who holds it fast, who keeps the sabbath, not profaning it, and refrains from doing any evil.

Isaiah 56:3 Do not let the foreigner joined to the LORD say, “The LORD will surely separate me from his people”; and do not let the eunuch say, “I am just a dry tree.”

Isaiah 56:4 For thus says the LORD: To the eunuchs who keep my sabbaths, who choose the things that please me and hold fast my covenant,

Isaiah 56:5 I will give, in my house and within my walls, a monument and a name better than sons and daughters; I will give them an everlasting name that shall not be cut off.

Isaiah 56:6 And the foreigners who join themselves to the LORD, to minister to him, to love the name of the LORD, and to be his servants, all who keep the sabbath, and do not profane it, and hold fast my covenant—

Isaiah 56:7 these I will bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer; their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be accepted on my altar; for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples.

Isaiah 56:8 Thus says the Lord GOD, who gathers the outcasts of Israel, I will gather others to them besides those already gathered.

Isaiah 56:9 All you wild animals, all you wild animals in the forest, come to devour!

Isaiah 56:10 Israel’s sentinels are blind, they are all without knowledge; they are all silent dogs that cannot bark; dreaming, lying down, loving to slumber.

Isaiah 56:11 The dogs have a mighty appetite; they never have enough. The shepherds also have no understanding; they have all turned to their own way, to their own gain, one and all.

Isaiah 56:12 “Come,” they say, “let us get wine; let us fill ourselves with strong drink. And tomorrow will be like today, great beyond measure.”

Isaiah 57:1 The righteous perish, and no one takes it to heart; the devout are taken away, while no one understands. For the righteous are taken away from calamity,

Isaiah 57:2 and they enter into peace; those who walk uprightly will rest on their couches.

Isaiah 57:3 But as for you, come here, you children of a sorceress, you offspring of an adulterer and a whore.

Isaiah 57:4 Whom are you mocking? Against whom do you open your mouth wide and stick out your tongue? Are you not children of transgression, the offspring of deceit—

Isaiah 57:5 you that burn with lust among the oaks, under every green tree; you that slaughter your children in the valleys, under the clefts of the rocks?

Isaiah 57:6 Among the smooth stones of the valley is your portion; they, they, are your lot; to them you have poured out a drink offering, you have brought a grain offering. Shall I be appeased for these things?

Isaiah 57:7 Upon a high and lofty mountain you have set your bed, and there you went up to offer sacrifice.

Isaiah 57:8 Behind the door and the doorpost you have set up your symbol; for, in deserting me, you have uncovered your bed, you have gone up to it, you have made it wide; and you have made a bargain for yourself with them, you have loved their bed, you have gazed on their nakedness.

Isaiah 57:9 You journeyed to Molech with oil, and multiplied your perfumes; you sent your envoys far away, and sent down even to Sheol.

Isaiah 57:10 You grew weary from your many wanderings, but you did not say, “It is useless.” You found your desire rekindled, and so you did not weaken.

Isaiah 57:11 Whom did you dread and fear so that you lied, and did not remember me or give me a thought? Have I not kept silent and closed my eyes, and so you do not fear me?

Isaiah 57:12 I will concede your righteousness and your works, but they will not help you.

Isaiah 57:13 When you cry out, let your collection of idols deliver you! The wind will carry them off, a breath will take them away. But whoever takes refuge in me shall possess the land and inherit my holy mountain.

Isaiah 57:14 It shall be said, “Build up, build up, prepare the way, remove every obstruction from my people’s way.”

Isaiah 57:15 For thus says the high and lofty one who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy: I dwell in the high and holy place, and also with those who are contrite and humble in spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite.

Isaiah 57:16 For I will not continually accuse, nor will I always be angry; for then the spirits would grow faint before me, even the souls that I have made.

Isaiah 57:17 Because of their wicked covetousness I was angry; I struck them, I hid and was angry; but they kept turning back to their own ways.

Isaiah 57:18 I have seen their ways, but I will heal them; I will lead them and repay them with comfort, creating for their mourners the fruit of the lips.

Isaiah 57:19 Peace, peace, to the far and the near, says the LORD; and I will heal them.

Isaiah 57:20 But the wicked are like the tossing sea that cannot keep still; its waters toss up mire and mud.

Isaiah 57:21 There is no peace, says my God, for the wicked.

Isaiah 58:1 Shout out, do not hold back! Lift up your voice like a trumpet! Announce to my people their rebellion, to the house of Jacob their sins.

Isaiah 58:2 Yet day after day they seek me and delight to know my ways, as if they were a nation that practiced righteousness and did not forsake the ordinance of their God; they ask of me righteous judgments, they delight to draw near to God.

Isaiah 58:3 “Why do we fast, but you do not see? Why humble ourselves, but you do not notice?” Look, you serve your own interest on your fast day, and oppress all your workers.

Isaiah 58:4 Look, you fast only to quarrel and to fight and to strike with a wicked fist. Such fasting as you do today will not make your voice heard on high.

Isaiah 58:5 Is such the fast that I choose, a day to humble oneself? Is it to bow down the head like a bulrush, and to lie in sackcloth and ashes? Will you call this a fast, a day acceptable to the LORD?

Isaiah 58:6 Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of injustice, to undo the thongs of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke?

Isaiah 58:7 Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover them, and not to hide yourself from your own kin?

Isaiah 58:8 Then your light shall break forth like the dawn, and your healing shall spring up quickly; your vindicator shall go before you, the glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard.

Isaiah 58:9 Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer; you shall cry for help, and he will say, Here I am. If you remove the yoke from among you, the pointing of the finger, the speaking of evil,

Isaiah 58:10 if you offer your food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness and your gloom be like the noonday.

Isaiah 58:11 The LORD will guide you continually, and satisfy your needs in parched places, and make your bones strong; and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters never fail.

Isaiah 58:12 Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; you shall be called the repairer of the breach, the restorer of streets to live in.

Isaiah 58:13 If you refrain from trampling the sabbath, from pursuing your own interests on my holy day; if you call the sabbath a delight and the holy day of the LORD honorable; if you honor it, not going your own ways, serving your own interests, or pursuing your own affairs;

Isaiah 58:14 then you shall take delight in the LORD, and I will make you ride upon the heights of the earth; I will feed you with the heritage of your ancestor Jacob, for the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

Isaiah 59:1 See, the LORD’s hand is not too short to save, nor his ear too dull to hear.

Isaiah 59:2 Rather, your iniquities have been barriers between you and your God, and your sins have hidden his face from you so that he does not hear.

Isaiah 59:3 For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue mutters wickedness.

Isaiah 59:4 No one brings suit justly, no one goes to law honestly; they rely on empty pleas, they speak lies, conceiving mischief and begetting iniquity.

Isaiah 59:5 They hatch adders’ eggs, and weave the spider’s web; whoever eats their eggs dies, and the crushed egg hatches out a viper.

Isaiah 59:6 Their webs cannot serve as clothing; they cannot cover themselves with what they make. Their works are works of iniquity, and deeds of violence are in their hands.

Isaiah 59:7 Their feet run to evil, and they rush to shed innocent blood; their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity, desolation and destruction are in their highways.

Isaiah 59:8 The way of peace they do not know, and there is no justice in their paths. Their roads they have made crooked; no one who walks in them knows peace.

Isaiah 59:9 Therefore justice is far from us, and righteousness does not reach us; we wait for light, and lo! there is darkness; and for brightness, but we walk in gloom.

Isaiah 59:10 We grope like the blind along a wall, groping like those who have no eyes; we stumble at noon as in the twilight, among the vigorous as though we were dead.

Isaiah 59:11 We all growl like bears; like doves we moan mournfully. We wait for justice, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far from us.

Isaiah 59:12 For our transgressions before you are many, and our sins testify against us. Our transgressions indeed are with us, and we know our iniquities:

Isaiah 59:13 transgressing, and denying the LORD, and turning away from following our God, talking oppression and revolt, conceiving lying words and uttering them from the heart.

Isaiah 59:14 Justice is turned back, and righteousness stands at a distance; for truth stumbles in the public square, and uprightness cannot enter.

Isaiah 59:15 Truth is lacking, and whoever turns from evil is despoiled. The LORD saw it, and it displeased him that there was no justice.

Isaiah 59:16 He saw that there was no one, and was appalled that there was no one to intervene; so his own arm brought him victory, and his righteousness upheld him.

Isaiah 59:17 He put on righteousness like a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation on his head; he put on garments of vengeance for clothing, and wrapped himself in fury as in a mantle.

Isaiah 59:18 According to their deeds, so will he repay; wrath to his adversaries, requital to his enemies; to the coastlands he will render requital.

Isaiah 59:19 So those in the west shall fear the name of the LORD, and those in the east, his glory; for he will come like a pent-up stream that the wind of the LORD drives on.

Isaiah 59:20 And he will come to Zion as Redeemer, to those in Jacob who turn from transgression, says the LORD.

Isaiah 59:21 And as for me, this is my covenant with them, says the LORD: my spirit that is upon you, and my words that I have put in your mouth, shall not depart out of your mouth, or out of the mouths of your children, or out of the mouths of your children's children, says the LORD, from now on and forever.

Isaiah 60:1 Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you.

Isaiah 60:2 For darkness shall cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples; but the LORD will arise upon you, and his glory will appear over you.

Isaiah 60:3 Nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawn.

Isaiah 60:4 Lift up your eyes and look around; they all gather together, they come to you; your sons shall come from far away, and your daughters shall be carried on their nurses' arms.

Isaiah 60:5 Then you shall see and be radiant; your heart shall thrill and rejoice, because the abundance of the sea shall be brought to you, the wealth of the nations shall come to you.

Isaiah 60:6 A multitude of camels shall cover you, the young camels of Midian and Ephah; all those from Sheba shall come. They shall bring gold and frankincense, and shall proclaim the praise of the LORD.

Isaiah 60:7 All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered to you, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister to you; they shall be acceptable on my altar, and I will glorify my glorious house.

Isaiah 60:8 Who are these that fly like a cloud, and like doves to their windows?

Isaiah 60:9 For the coastlands shall wait for me, the ships of Tarshish first, to bring your children from far away, their silver and gold with them, for the name of the LORD your God, and for the Holy One of Israel, because he has glorified you.

Isaiah 60:10 Foreigners shall build up your walls, and their kings shall minister to you; for in my wrath I struck you down, but in my favor I have had mercy on you.

Isaiah 60:11 Your gates shall always be open; day and night they shall not be shut, so that nations shall bring you their wealth, with their kings led in procession.

Isaiah 60:12 For the nation and kingdom that will not serve you shall perish; those nations shall be utterly laid waste.

Isaiah 60:13 The glory of Lebanon shall come to you, the cypress, the plane, and the pine, to beautify the place of my sanctuary; and I will glorify where my feet rest.

Isaiah 60:14 The descendants of those who oppressed you shall come bending low to you, and all who despised you shall bow down at your feet; they shall call you the City of the LORD, the Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 60:15 Whereas you have been forsaken and hated, with no one passing through, I will make you majestic forever, a joy from age to age.

Isaiah 60:16 You shall suck the milk of nations, you shall suck the breasts of kings; and you shall know that I, the LORD, am your Savior and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

Isaiah 60:17 Instead of bronze I will bring gold, instead of iron I will bring silver; instead of wood, bronze, instead of stones, iron. I will appoint Peace as your overseer and Righteousness as your taskmaster.

Isaiah 60:18 Violence shall no more be heard in your land, devastation or destruction within your borders; you shall call your walls Salvation, and your gates Praise.

Isaiah 60:19 The sun shall no longer be your light by day, nor for brightness shall the moon give light to you by night; but the LORD will be your everlasting light, and your God will be your glory.

Isaiah 60:20 Your sun shall no more go down, or your moon withdraw itself; for the LORD will be your everlasting light, and your days of mourning shall be ended.

Isaiah 60:21 Your people shall all be righteous; they shall possess the land forever. They are the shoot that I planted, the work of my hands, so that I might be glorified.

Isaiah 60:22 The least of them shall become a clan, and the smallest one a mighty nation; I am the LORD; in its time I will accomplish it quickly.

Isaiah 61:1 The spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me, because the LORD has anointed me; he has sent me to bring good news to the oppressed, to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and release to the prisoners;

Isaiah 61:2 to proclaim the year of the LORD’s favor, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn;

Isaiah 61:3 to provide for those who mourn in Zion— to give them a garland instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, the mantle of praise instead of a faint spirit. They will be called oaks of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, to display his glory.

Isaiah 61:4 They shall build up the ancient ruins, they shall raise up the former devastations; they shall repair the ruined cities, the devastations of many generations.

Isaiah 61:5 Strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, foreigners shall till your land and dress your vines;

Isaiah 61:6 but you shall be called priests of the LORD, you shall be named ministers of our God; you shall enjoy the wealth of the nations, and in their riches you shall glory.

Isaiah 61:7 Because their shame was double, and dishonor was proclaimed as their lot, therefore they shall possess a double portion; everlasting joy shall be theirs.

Isaiah 61:8 For I the LORD love justice, I hate robbery and wrongdoing; I will faithfully give them their recompense, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

Isaiah 61:9 Their descendants shall be known among the nations, and their offspring among the peoples; all who see them shall acknowledge that they are a people whom the LORD has blessed.

Isaiah 61:10 I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my whole being shall exult in my God; for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation, he has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself with a garland, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

Isaiah 61:11 For as the earth brings forth its shoots, and as a garden causes what is sown in it to spring up, so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring up before all the nations.

Isaiah 62:1 For Zion’s sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem’s sake I will not rest, until her vindication shines out like the dawn, and her salvation like a burning torch.

Isaiah 62:2 The nations shall see your vindication, and all the kings your glory; and you shall be called by a new name that the mouth of the LORD will give.

Isaiah 62:3 You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God.

Isaiah 62:4 You shall no more be termed Forsaken, and your land shall no more be termed Desolate; but you shall be called My Delight Is in Her, and your land Married; for the LORD delights in you, and your land shall be married.

Isaiah 62:5 For as a young man marries a young woman, so shall your builder marry you, and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so shall your God rejoice over you.

Isaiah 62:6 Upon your walls, O Jerusalem, I have posted sentinels; all day and all night they shall never be silent. You who remind the LORD, take no rest, Isaiah 62:7 and give him no rest until he establishes Jerusalem and makes it renowned throughout the earth.

Isaiah 62:8 The LORD has sworn by his right hand and by his mighty arm: I will not again give your grain to be food for your enemies, and foreigners shall not drink the wine for which you have labored;

Isaiah 62:9 but those who garner it shall eat it and praise the LORD, and those who gather it shall drink it in my holy courts.

Isaiah 62:10 Go through, go through the gates, prepare the way for the people; build up, build up the highway, clear it of stones, lift up an ensign over the peoples.

Isaiah 62:11 The LORD has proclaimed to the end of the earth: Say to daughter Zion, “See, your salvation comes; his reward is with him, and his recompense before him.”

Isaiah 62:12 They shall be called, “The Holy People, The Redeemed of the LORD”; and you shall be called, “Sought Out, A City Not Forsaken.”

Isaiah 63:1 “Who is this that comes from Edom, from Bozrah in garments stained crimson? Who is this so splendidly robed, marching in his great might?” “It is I, announcing vindication, mighty to save.”

Isaiah 63:2 “Why are your robes red, and your garments like theirs who tread the wine press?”

Isaiah 63:3 “I have trodden the wine press alone, and from the peoples no one was with me; I trod them in my anger and trampled them in my wrath; their juice spattered on my garments, and stained all my robes.

Isaiah 63:4 For the day of vengeance was in my heart, and the year for my redeeming work had come.

Isaiah 63:5 I looked, but there was no helper; I stared, but there was no one to sustain me; so my own arm brought me victory, and my wrath sustained me.

Isaiah 63:6 I trampled down peoples in my anger, I crushed them in my wrath, and I poured out their lifeblood on the earth.”

Isaiah 63:7 I will recount the gracious deeds of the LORD, the praiseworthy acts of the LORD, because of all that the LORD has done for us, and the great favor to the house of Israel that he has shown them according to his mercy, according to the abundance of his steadfast love.

Isaiah 63:8 For he said, “Surely they are my people, children who will not deal falsely”; and he became their savior

Isaiah 63:9 in all their distress. It was no messenger or angel but his presence that saved them; in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; he lifted them up and carried them all the days of old.

Isaiah 63:10 But they rebelled and grieved his holy spirit; therefore he became their enemy; he himself fought against them.

Isaiah 63:11 Then they remembered the days of old, of Moses his servant. Where is the one who brought them up out of the sea with the shepherds of his flock? Where is the one who put within them his holy spirit,

Isaiah 63:12 who caused his glorious arm to march at the right hand of Moses, who divided the waters before them to make for himself an everlasting name,

Isaiah 63:13 who led them through the depths? Like a horse in the desert, they did not stumble.

Isaiah 63:14 Like cattle that go down into the valley, the spirit of the LORD gave them rest. Thus you led your people, to make for yourself a glorious name.

Isaiah 63:15 Look down from heaven and see, from your holy and glorious habitation. Where are your zeal and your might? The yearning of your heart and your compassion? They are withheld from me.

Isaiah 63:16 For you are our father, though Abraham does not know us and Israel does not acknowledge us; you, O LORD, are our father; our Redeemer from of old is your name.

Isaiah 63:17 Why, O LORD, do you make us stray from your ways and harden our heart, so that we do not fear you? Turn back for the sake of your servants, for the sake of the tribes that are your heritage.

Isaiah 63:18 Your holy people took possession for a little while; but now our adversaries have trampled down your sanctuary.

Isaiah 63:19 We have long been like those whom you do not rule, like those not called by your name.

Isaiah 64:1 O that you would tear open the heavens and come down, so that the mountains would quake at your presence—

Isaiah 64:2 as when fire kindles brushwood and the fire causes water to boil— to make your name known to your adversaries, so that the nations might tremble at your presence!

Isaiah 64:3 When you did awesome deeds that we did not expect, you came down, the mountains quaked at your presence.

Isaiah 64:4 From ages past no one has heard, no ear has perceived, no eye has seen any God besides you, who works for those who wait for him.

Isaiah 64:5 You meet those who gladly do right, those who remember you in your ways. But you were angry, and we sinned; because you hid yourself we transgressed.

Isaiah 64:6 We have all become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous deeds are like a filthy cloth. We all fade like a leaf, and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away.

Isaiah 64:7 There is no one who calls on your name, or attempts to take hold of you; for you have hidden your face from us, and have delivered us into the hand of our iniquity.

Isaiah 64:8 Yet, O LORD, you are our Father; we are the clay, and you are our potter; we are all the work of your hand.

Isaiah 64:9 Do not be exceedingly angry, O LORD, and do not remember iniquity forever. Now consider, we are all your people.

Isaiah 64:10 Your holy cities have become a wilderness, Zion has become a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation.

Isaiah 64:11 Our holy and beautiful house, where our ancestors praised you, has been burned by fire, and all our pleasant places have become ruins.

Isaiah 64:12 After all this, will you restrain yourself, O LORD? Will you keep silent, and punish us so severely?

Isaiah 65:1 I was ready to be sought out by those who did not ask, to be found by those who did not seek me. I said, “Here I am, here I am,” to a nation that did not call on my name.

Isaiah 65:2 I held out my hands all day long to a rebellious people, who walk in a way that is not good, following their own devices;

Isaiah 65:3 a people who provoke me to my face continually, sacrificing in gardens and offering incense on bricks;

Isaiah 65:4 who sit inside tombs, and spend the night in secret places; who eat swine’s flesh, with broth of abominable things in their vessels;

Isaiah 65:5 who say, “Keep to yourself, do not come near me, for I am too holy for you.” These are a smoke in my nostrils, a fire that burns all day long.

Isaiah 65:6 See, it is written before me: I will not keep silent, but I will repay; I will indeed repay into their laps

Isaiah 65:7 their iniquities and their ancestors’ iniquities together, says the LORD; because they offered incense on the mountains and reviled me on the hills, I will measure into their laps full payment for their actions.

Isaiah 65:8 Thus says the LORD: As the wine is found in the cluster, and they say, “Do not destroy it, for there is a blessing in it,” so I will do for my servants’ sake, and not destroy them all.

Isaiah 65:9 I will bring forth descendants from Jacob, and from Judah inheritors of my mountains; my chosen shall inherit it, and my servants shall settle there.

Isaiah 65:10 Sharon shall become a pasture for flocks, and the Valley of Achor a place for herds to lie down, for my people who have sought me.

Isaiah 65:11 But you who forsake the LORD, who forget my holy mountain, who set a table for Fortune and fill cups of mixed wine for Destiny;

Isaiah 65:12 I will destine you to the sword, and all of you shall bow down to the slaughter; because, when I called, you did not answer, when I spoke, you did not listen, but you did what was evil in my sight, and chose what I did not delight in.

Isaiah 65:13 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: My servants shall eat, but you shall be hungry; my servants shall drink, but you shall be thirsty; my servants shall rejoice, but you shall be put to shame;

Isaiah 65:14 my servants shall sing for gladness of heart, but you shall cry out for pain of heart, and shall wail for anguish of spirit.

Isaiah 65:15 You shall leave your name to my chosen to use as a curse, and the Lord GOD will put you to death; but to his servants he will give a different name.

Isaiah 65:16 Then whoever invokes a blessing in the land shall bless by the God of faithfulness, and whoever takes an oath in the land shall swear by the God of faithfulness; because the former troubles are forgotten and are hidden from my sight.

Isaiah 65:17 For I am about to create new heavens and a new earth; the former things shall not be remembered or come to mind.

Isaiah 65:18 But be glad and rejoice forever in what I am creating; for I am about to create Jerusalem as a joy, and its people as a delight.

Isaiah 65:19 I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and delight in my people; no more shall the sound of weeping be heard in it, or the cry of distress.

Isaiah 65:20 No more shall there be in it an infant that lives but a few days, or an old person who does not live out a lifetime; for one who dies at a hundred years will be considered a youth, and one who falls short of a hundred will be considered accursed.

Isaiah 65:21 They shall build houses and inhabit them; they shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

Isaiah 65:22 They shall not build and another inhabit; they shall not plant and another eat; for like the days of a tree shall the days of my people be, and my chosen shall long enjoy the work of their hands.

Isaiah 65:23 They shall not labor in vain, or bear children for calamity; for they shall be offspring blessed by the LORD— and their descendants as well.

Isaiah 65:24 Before they call I will answer, while they are yet speaking I will hear.

Isaiah 65:25 The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, the lion shall eat straw like the ox; but the serpent— its food shall be dust! They shall not hurt or destroy on all my holy mountain, says the LORD.

Isaiah 66:1 Thus says the LORD: Heaven is my throne and the earth is my footstool; what is the house that you would build for me, and what is my resting place?

Isaiah 66:2 All these things my hand has made, and so all these things are mine, says the LORD. But this is the one to whom I will look, to the humble and contrite in spirit, who trembles at my word.

Isaiah 66:3 Whoever slaughters an ox is like one who kills a human being; whoever sacrifices a lamb, like one who breaks a dog's neck; whoever presents a grain offering, like one who offers swine's blood; whoever makes a memorial offering of frankincense, like one who blesses an idol. These have chosen their own ways, and in their abominations they take delight;

Isaiah 66:4 I also will choose to mock them, and bring upon them what they fear; because, when I called, no one answered, when I spoke, they did not listen; but they did what was evil in my sight, and chose what did not please me.

Isaiah 66:5 Hear the word of the LORD, you who tremble at his word: Your own people who hate you and reject you for my name's sake have said, "Let the LORD be glorified, so that we may see your joy"; but it is they who shall be put to shame.

Isaiah 66:6 Listen, an uproar from the city! A voice from the temple! The voice of the LORD, dealing retribution to his enemies!

Isaiah 66:7 Before she was in labor she gave birth; before her pain came upon her she delivered a son.

Isaiah 66:8 Who has heard of such a thing? Who has seen such things? Shall a land be born in one day? Shall a nation be delivered in one moment? Yet as soon as Zion was in labor she delivered her children.

Isaiah 66:9 Shall I open the womb and not deliver? says the LORD; shall I, the one who delivers, shut the womb? says your God.

Isaiah 66:10 Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad for her, all you who love her; rejoice with her in joy, all you who mourn over her—

Isaiah 66:11 that you may nurse and be satisfied from her consoling breast; that you may drink deeply with delight from her glorious bosom.

Isaiah 66:12 For thus says the LORD: I will extend prosperity to her like a river, and the wealth of the nations like an overflowing stream; and you shall nurse and be carried on her arm, and dandled on her knees.

Isaiah 66:13 As a mother comforts her child, so I will comfort you; you shall be comforted in Jerusalem.

Isaiah 66:14 You shall see, and your heart shall rejoice; your bodies shall flourish like the grass; and it shall be known that the hand of the LORD is with his servants, and his indignation is against his enemies.

Isaiah 66:15 For the LORD will come in fire, and his chariots like the whirlwind, to pay back his anger in fury, and his rebuke in flames of fire.

Isaiah 66:16 For by fire will the LORD execute judgment, and by his sword, on all flesh; and those slain by the LORD shall be many.

Isaiah 66:17 Those who sanctify and purify themselves to go into the gardens, following the one in the center, eating the flesh of pigs, vermin, and rodents, shall come to an end together, says the LORD.

Isaiah 66:18 For I know their works and their thoughts, and I am coming to gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come and shall see my glory,

Isaiah 66:19 and I will set a sign among them. From them I will send survivors to the nations, to Tarshish, Put, and Lud— which draw the bow— to Tubal and Javan, to the coastlands far away that have not heard of my fame or seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the nations.

Isaiah 66:20 They shall bring all your kindred from all the nations as an offering to the LORD, on horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and on mules, and on dromedaries, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, says the LORD, just as the Israelites bring a grain offering in a clean vessel to the house of the LORD.

Isaiah 66:21 And I will also take some of them as priests and as Levites, says the LORD.

Isaiah 66:22 For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, says the LORD; so shall your descendants and your name remain.

Isaiah 66:23 From new moon to new moon, and from sabbath to sabbath, all flesh shall come to worship before me, says the LORD.

Isaiah 66:24 And they shall go out and look at the dead bodies of the people who have rebelled against me; for their worm shall not die, their fire shall not be quenched, and they shall be an abhorrence to all flesh.

Jeremiah

1:1 The words ofJeremiah son of Hilkiah, of the priests who were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin,

Jeremiah 1:2 to whom the word of the LORD came in the days of King Josiah son of Amon of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign.

Jeremiah 1:3 It came also in the days of King Jehoiakim son of Josiah of Judah, and until the end of the eleventh year of King Zedekiah son of Josiah of Judah, until the captivity of Jerusalem in the fifth month.

Jeremiah 1:4 Now the word of the LORD came to me saying,

Jeremiah 1:5 “Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you; I appointed you a prophet to the nations.”

Jeremiah 1:6 Then I said, “Ah, Lord GOD! Truly I do not know how to speak, for I am only a boy.”

Jeremiah 1:7 But the LORD said to me, “Do not say, ‘I am only a boy’; for you shall go to all to whom I send you, and you shall speak whatever I command you.

Jeremiah 1:8 Do not be afraid of them, for I am with you to deliver you, says the LORD.”

Jeremiah 1:9 Then the LORD put out his hand and touched my mouth; and the LORD said to me, “Now I have put my words in your mouth.

Jeremiah 1:10 See, today I appoint you over nations and over kingdoms, to pluck up and to pull down, to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant.”

Jeremiah 1:11 The word of the LORD came to me, saying, “Jeremiah, what do you see?” And I said, “I see a branch of an almond tree.”

Jeremiah 1:12 Then the LORD said to me, “You have seen well, for I am watching over my word to perform it.”

Jeremiah 1:13 The word of the LORD came to me a second time, saying, “What do you see?” And I said, “I see a boiling pot, tilted away from the north.”

Jeremiah 1:14 Then the LORD said to me: Out of the north disaster shall break out on all the inhabitants of the land.

Jeremiah 1:15 For now I am calling all the tribes of the kingdoms of the north, says the LORD; and they shall come and all of them shall set their thrones at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, against all its surrounding walls and against all the cities of Judah.

Jeremiah 1:16 And I will utter my judgments against them, for all their wickedness in forsaking me; they have made offerings to other gods, and worshiped the works of their own hands.

Jeremiah 1:17 But you, gird up your loins; stand up and tell them everything that I command you. Do not break down before them, or I will break you before them.

Jeremiah 1:18 And I for my part have made you today a fortified city, an iron pillar, and a bronze wall, against the whole land— against the kings of Judah, its princes, its priests, and the people of the land.

Jeremiah 1:19 They will fight against you; but they shall not prevail against you, for I am with you, says the LORD, to deliver you.

Jeremiah 2:1 The word of the LORD came to me, saying:

Jeremiah 2:2 Go and proclaim in the hearing of Jerusalem, Thus says the LORD: I remember the devotion of your youth, your love as a bride, how you followed me in the wilderness, in a land not sown.

Jeremiah 2:3 Israel was holy to the LORD, the first fruits of his harvest. All who ate of it were held guilty; disaster came upon them, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 2:4 Hear the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel.

Jeremiah 2:5 Thus says the LORD: What wrong did your ancestors find in me that they went far from me, and went after worthless things, and became worthless themselves?

Jeremiah 2:6 They did not say, “Where is the LORD who brought us up from the land of Egypt, who led us in the wilderness, in a land of deserts and pits, in a land of drought and deep darkness, in a land that no one passes through, where no one lives?”

Jeremiah 2:7 I brought you into a plentiful land to eat its fruits and its good things. But when you entered you defiled my land, and made my heritage an abomination.

Jeremiah 2:8 The priests did not say, “Where is the LORD?” Those who handle the law did not know me; the rulers transgressed against me; the prophets prophesied by Baal, and went after things that do not profit.

Jeremiah 2:9 Therefore once more I accuse you, says the LORD, and I accuse your children’s children.

Jeremiah 2:10 Cross to the coasts of Cyprus and look, send to Kedar and examine with care; see if there has ever been such a thing.

Jeremiah 2:11 Has a nation changed its gods, even though they are no gods? But my people have changed their glory for something that does not profit.

Jeremiah 2:12 Be appalled, O heavens, at this, be shocked, be utterly desolate, says the LORD,

Jeremiah 2:13 for my people have committed two evils: they have forsaken me, the fountain of living water, and dug out cisterns for themselves, cracked cisterns that can hold no water.

Jeremiah 2:14 Is Israel a slave? Is he a homeborn servant? Why then has he become plunder?

Jeremiah 2:15 The lions have roared against him, they have roared loudly. They have made his land a waste; his cities are in ruins, without inhabitant.

Jeremiah 2:16 Moreover, the people of Memphis and Tahpanhes have broken the crown of your head.

Jeremiah 2:17 Have you not brought this upon yourself by forsaking the LORD your God, while he led you in the way?

Jeremiah 2:18 What then do you gain by going to Egypt, to drink the waters of the Nile? Or what do you gain by going to Assyria, to drink the waters of the Euphrates?

Jeremiah 2:19 Your wickedness will punish you, and your apostasies will convict you. Know and see that it is evil and bitter for you to forsake the LORD your God; the fear of me is not in you, says the Lord GOD of hosts.

Jeremiah 2:20 For long ago you broke your yoke and burst your bonds, and you said, “I will not serve!” On every high hill and under every green tree you sprawled and played the whore.

Jeremiah 2:21 Yet I planted you as a choice vine, from the purest stock. How then did you turn degenerate and become a wild vine?

Jeremiah 2:22 Though you wash yourself with lye and use much soap, the stain of your guilt is still before me, says the Lord GOD.

Jeremiah 2:23 How can you say, “I am not defiled, I have not gone after the Baals”? Look at your way in the valley; know what you have done— a restive young camel interlacing her tracks,

Jeremiah 2:24 a wild ass at home in the wilderness, in her heat sniffing the wind! Who can restrain her lust? None who seek her need weary themselves; in her month they will find her.

Jeremiah 2:25 Keep your feet from going unshod and your throat from thirst. But you said, “It is hopeless, for I have loved strangers, and after them I will go.”

Jeremiah 2:26 As a thief is shamed when caught, so the house of Israel shall be shamed— they, their kings, their officials, their priests, and their prophets,

Jeremiah 2:27 who say to a tree, “You are my father,” and to a stone, “You gave me birth.” For they have turned their backs to me, and not their faces. But in the time of their trouble they say, “Come and save us!”

Jeremiah 2:28 But where are your gods that you made for yourself? Let them come, if they can save you, in your time of trouble; for you have as many gods as you have towns, O Judah.

Jeremiah 2:29 Why do you complain against me? You have all rebelled against me, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 2:30 In vain I have struck down your children; they accepted no correction. Your own sword devoured your prophets like a ravening lion.

Jeremiah 2:31 And you, O generation, behold the word of the LORD! Have I been a wilderness to Israel, or a land of thick darkness? Why then do my people say, “We are free, we will come to you no more”?

Jeremiah 2:32 Can a girl forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? Yet my people have forgotten me, days without number.

Jeremiah 2:33 How well you direct your course to seek lovers! So that even to wicked women you have taught your ways.

Jeremiah 2:34 Also on your skirts is found the lifeblood of the innocent poor, though you did not catch them breaking in. Yet in spite of all these things

Jeremiah 2:35 you say, “I am innocent; surely his anger has turned from me.” Now I am bringing you to judgment for saying, “I have not sinned.”

Jeremiah 2:36 How lightly you gad about, changing your ways! You shall be put to shame by Egypt as you were put to shame by Assyria.

Jeremiah 2:37 From there also you will come away with your hands on your head; for the LORD has rejected those in whom you trust, and you will not prosper through them.

Jeremiah 3:1 If a man divorces his wife and she goes from him and becomes another man’s wife, will he return to her? Would not such a land be greatly polluted? You have played the whore with many lovers; and would you return to me? says the LORD.

Jeremiah 3:2 Look up to the bare heights, and see! Where have you not been lain with? By the waysides you have sat waiting for lovers, like a nomad in the wilderness. You have polluted the land with your whoring and wickedness.

Jeremiah 3:3 Therefore the showers have been withheld, and the spring rain has not come; yet you have the forehead of a whore, you refuse to be ashamed.

Jeremiah 3:4 Have you not just now called to me, “My Father, you are the friend of my youth—

Jeremiah 3:5 will he be angry forever, will he be indignant to the end?” This is how you have spoken, but you have done all the evil that you could.

Jeremiah 3:6 The LORD said to me in the days of King Josiah: Have you seen what she did, that faithless one, Israel, how she went up on every high hill and under every green tree, and played the whore there?

Jeremiah 3:7 And I thought, “After she has done all this she will return to me”; but she did not return, and her false sister Judah saw it.

Jeremiah 3:8 She saw that for all the adulteries of that faithless one, Israel, I had sent her away with a decree of divorce; yet her false sister Judah did not fear, but she too went and played the whore.

Jeremiah 3:9 Because she took her whoredom so lightly, she polluted the land, committing adultery with stone and tree.

Jeremiah 3:10 Yet for all this her false sister Judah did not return to me with her whole heart, but only in pretense, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 3:11 Then the LORD said to me: Faithless Israel has shown herself less guilty than false Judah.

Jeremiah 3:12 Go, and proclaim these words toward the north, and say: Return, faithless Israel, says the LORD. I will not look on you in anger, for I am merciful, says the LORD; I will not be angry forever.

Jeremiah 3:13 Only acknowledge your guilt, that you have rebelled against the LORD your God, and scattered your favors among strangers under every green tree, and have not obeyed my voice, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 3:14 Return, O faithless children, says the LORD, for I am your master; I will take you, one from a city and two from a family, and I will bring you to Zion.

Jeremiah 3:15 I will give you shepherds after my own heart, who will feed you with knowledge and understanding.

Jeremiah 3:16 And when you have multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, says the LORD, they shall no longer say, “The ark of the covenant of the LORD.” It shall not come to mind, or be remembered, or missed; nor shall another one be made.

Jeremiah 3:17 At that time Jerusalem shall be called the throne of the LORD, and all nations shall gather to it, to the presence of the LORD in Jerusalem, and they shall no longer stubbornly follow their own evil will.

Jeremiah 3:18 In those days the house of Judah shall join the house of Israel, and together they shall come from the land of the north to the land that I gave your ancestors for a heritage.

Jeremiah 3:19 I thought how I would set you among my children, and give you a pleasant land, the most beautiful heritage of all the nations. And I thought you would call me, My Father, and would not turn from following me.

Jeremiah 3:20 Instead, as a faithless wife leaves her husband, so you have been faithless to me, O house of Israel, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 3:21 A voice on the bare heights is heard, the plaintive weeping of Israel's children, because they have perverted their way, they have forgotten the LORD their God:

Jeremiah 3:22 Return, O faithless children, I will heal your faithlessness. "Here we come to you; for you are the LORD our God.

Jeremiah 3:23 Truly the hills are a delusion, the orgies on the mountains. Truly in the LORD our God is the salvation of Israel.

Jeremiah 3:24 "But from our youth the shameful thing has devoured all for which our ancestors had labored, their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters.

Jeremiah 3:25 Let us lie down in our shame, and let our dishonor cover us; for we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our ancestors, from our youth even to this day; and we have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God."

Jeremiah 4:1 If you return, O Israel, says the LORD, if you return to me, if you remove your abominations from my presence, and do not waver,

Jeremiah 4:2 and if you swear, "As the LORD lives!" in truth, in justice, and in uprightness, then nations shall be blessed by him, and by him they shall boast.

Jeremiah 4:3 For thus says the LORD to the people of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem: Break up your fallow ground, and do not sow among thorns.

Jeremiah 4:4 Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, remove the foreskin of your hearts, O people of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem, or else my wrath will go forth like fire, and burn with no one to quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

Jeremiah 4:5 Declare in Judah, and proclaim in Jerusalem, and say: Blow the trumpet through the land; shout aloud and say, "Gather together, and let us go into the fortified cities!"

Jeremiah 4:6 Raise a standard toward Zion, flee for safety, do not delay, for I am bringing evil from the north, and a great destruction.

Jeremiah 4:7 A lion has gone up from its thicket, a destroyer of nations has set out; he has gone out from his place to make your land a waste; your cities will be ruins without inhabitant.

Jeremiah 4:8 Because of this put on sackcloth, lament and wail: "The fierce anger of the LORD has not turned away from us."

Jeremiah 4:9 On that day, says the LORD, courage shall fail the king and the officials; the priests shall be appalled and the prophets astounded.

Jeremiah 4:10 Then I said, “Ah, Lord GOD, how utterly you have deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, ‘It shall be well with you,’ even while the sword is at the throat!”

Jeremiah 4:11 At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem: A hot wind comes from me out of the bare heights in the desert toward my poor people, not to winnow or cleanse—

Jeremiah 4:12 a wind too strong for that. Now it is I who speak in judgment against them.

Jeremiah 4:13 Look! He comes up like clouds, his chariots like the whirlwind; his horses are swifter than eagles— woe to us, for we are ruined!

Jeremiah 4:14 O Jerusalem, wash your heart clean of wickedness so that you may be saved. How long shall your evil schemes lodge within you?

Jeremiah 4:16 Tell the nations, “Here they are!” Proclaim against Jerusalem, “Besiegers come from a distant land; they shout against the cities of Judah.

Jeremiah 4:17 They have closed in around her like watchers of a field, because she has rebelled against me, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 4:18 Your ways and your doings have brought this upon you. This is your doom; how bitter it is! It has reached your very heart.”

Jeremiah 4:19 My anguish, my anguish! I writhe in pain! Oh, the walls of my heart! My heart is beating wildly; I cannot keep silent; for I hear the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.

Jeremiah 4:20 Disaster overtakes disaster, the whole land is laid waste. Suddenly my tents are destroyed, my curtains in a moment.

Jeremiah 4:21 How long must I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?

Jeremiah 4:22 “For my people are foolish, they do not know me; they are stupid children, they have no understanding. They are skilled in doing evil, but do not know how to do good.”

Jeremiah 4:23 I looked on the earth, and lo, it was waste and void; and to the heavens, and they had no light.

Jeremiah 4:24 I looked on the mountains, and lo, they were quaking, and all the hills moved to and fro.

Jeremiah 4:25 I looked, and lo, there was no one at all, and all the birds of the air had fled.

Jeremiah 4:26 I looked, and lo, the fruitful land was a desert, and all its cities were laid in ruins before the LORD, before his fierce anger.

Jeremiah 4:27 For thus says the LORD: The whole land shall be a desolation; yet I will not make a full end.

Jeremiah 4:28 Because of this the earth shall mourn, and the heavens above grow black; for I have spoken, I have purposed; I have not relented nor will I turn back.

Jeremiah 4:29 At the noise of horseman and archer every town takes to flight; they enter thickets; they climb among rocks; all the towns are forsaken, and no one lives in them.

Jeremiah 4:30 And you, O desolate one, what do you mean that you dress in crimson, that you deck yourself with ornaments of gold, that you enlarge your eyes with paint? In vain you beautify yourself. Your lovers despise you; they seek your life.

Jeremiah 4:31 For I heard a cry as of a woman in labor, anguish as of one bringing forth her first child, the cry of daughter Zion gasping for breath, stretching out her hands, "Woe is me! I am fainting before killers!"

Jeremiah 5:1 Run to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, look around and take note! Search its squares and see if you can find one person who acts justly and seeks truth— so that I may pardon Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 5:2 Although they say, "As the LORD lives," yet they swear falsely.

Jeremiah 5:3 O LORD, do your eyes not look for truth? You have struck them, but they felt no anguish; you have consumed them, but they refused to take correction. They have made their faces harder than rock; they have refused to turn back.

Jeremiah 5:4 Then I said, "These are only the poor, they have no sense; for they do not know the way of the LORD, the law of their God.

Jeremiah 5:5 Let me go to the rich and speak to them; surely they know the way of the LORD, the law of their God." But they all alike had broken the yoke, they had burst the bonds.

Jeremiah 5:6 Therefore a lion from the forest shall kill them, a wolf from the desert shall destroy them. A leopard is watching against their cities; everyone who goes out of them shall be torn in pieces— because their transgressions are many, their apostasies are great.

Jeremiah 5:7 How can I pardon you? Your children have forsaken me, and have sworn by those who are no gods. When I fed them to the full, they committed adultery and trooped to the houses of prostitutes.

Jeremiah 5:8 They were well-fed lusty stallions, each neighing for his neighbor's wife.

Jeremiah 5:9 Shall I not punish them for these things? says the LORD; and shall I not bring retribution on a nation such as this?

Jeremiah 5:10 Go up through her vine-rows and destroy, but do not make a full end; strip away her branches, for they are not the LORD’s.

Jeremiah 5:11 For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have been utterly faithless to me, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 5:12 They have spoken falsely of the LORD, and have said, “He will do nothing. No evil will come upon us, and we shall not see sword or famine.”

Jeremiah 5:13 The prophets are nothing but wind, for the word is not in them. Thus shall it be done to them!

Jeremiah 5:14 Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of hosts: Because they have spoken this word, I am now making my words in your mouth a fire, and this people wood, and the fire shall devour them.

Jeremiah 5:15 I am going to bring upon you a nation from far away, O house of Israel, says the LORD. It is an enduring nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language you do not know, nor can you understand what they say.

Jeremiah 5:16 Their quiver is like an open tomb; all of them are mighty warriors.

Jeremiah 5:17 They shall eat up your harvest and your food; they shall eat up your sons and your daughters; they shall eat up your flocks and your herds; they shall eat up your vines and your fig trees; they shall destroy with the sword your fortified cities in which you trust.

Jeremiah 5:18 But even in those days, says the LORD, I will not make a full end of you.

Jeremiah 5:19 And when your people say, “Why has the LORD our God done all these things to us?” you shall say to them, “As you have forsaken me and served foreign gods in your land, so you shall serve strangers in a land that is not yours.”

Jeremiah 5:20 Declare this in the house of Jacob, proclaim it in Judah:

Jeremiah 5:21 Hear this, O foolish and senseless people, who have eyes, but do not see, who have ears, but do not hear.

Jeremiah 5:22 Do you not fear me? says the LORD; Do you not tremble before me? I placed the sand as a boundary for the sea, a perpetual barrier that it cannot pass; though the waves toss, they cannot prevail, though they roar, they cannot pass over it.

Jeremiah 5:23 But this people has a stubborn and rebellious heart; they have turned aside and gone away.

Jeremiah 5:24 They do not say in their hearts, “Let us fear the LORD our God, who gives the rain in its season, the autumn rain and the spring rain, and keeps for us the weeks appointed for the harvest.”

Jeremiah 5:25 Your iniquities have turned these away, and your sins have deprived you of good.

Jeremiah 5:26 For scoundrels are found among my people; they take over the goods of others. Like fowlers they set a trap; they catch human beings.

Jeremiah 5:27 Like a cage full of birds, their houses are full of treachery; therefore they have become great and rich,

Jeremiah 5:28 they have grown fat and sleek. They know no limits in deeds of wickedness; they do not judge with justice the cause of the orphan, to make it prosper, and they do not defend the rights of the needy.

Jeremiah 5:29 Shall I not punish them for these things? says the LORD, and shall I not bring retribution on a nation such as this?

Jeremiah 5:30 An appalling and horrible thing has happened in the land:

Jeremiah 5:31 the prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests rule as the prophets direct; my people love to have it so, but what will you do when the end comes?

Jeremiah 6:1 Flee for safety, O children of Benjamin, from the midst of Jerusalem! Blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and raise a signal on Beth-haccherem; for evil looms out of the north, and great destruction.

Jeremiah 6:2 I have likened daughter Zion to the loveliest pasture.

Jeremiah 6:3 Shepherds with their flocks shall come against her. They shall pitch their tents around her; they shall pasture, all in their places.

Jeremiah 6:4 “Prepare war against her; up, and let us attack at noon!” “Woe to us, for the day declines, the shadows of evening lengthen!”

Jeremiah 6:5 “Up, and let us attack by night, and destroy her palaces!”

Jeremiah 6:6 For thus says the LORD of hosts: Cut down her trees; cast up a siege ramp against Jerusalem. This is the city that must be punished; there is nothing but oppression within her.

Jeremiah 6:7 As a well keeps its water fresh, so she keeps fresh her wickedness; violence and destruction are heard within her; sickness and wounds are ever before me.

Jeremiah 6:8 Take warning, O Jerusalem, or I shall turn from you in disgust, and make you a desolation, an uninhabited land.

Jeremiah 6:9 Thus says the LORD of hosts: Glean thoroughly as a vine the remnant of Israel; like a grape-gatherer, pass your hand again over its branches.

Jeremiah 6:10 To whom shall I speak and give warning, that they may hear? See, their ears are closed, they cannot listen. The word of the LORD is to them an object of scorn; they take no pleasure in it.

Jeremiah 6:11 But I am full of the wrath of the LORD; I am weary of holding it in. Pour it out on the children in the street, and on the gatherings of young men as well; both husband and wife shall be taken, the old folk and the very aged.

Jeremiah 6:12 Their houses shall be turned over to others, their fields and wives together; for I will stretch out my hand against the inhabitants of the land, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 6:13 For from the least to the greatest of them, everyone is greedy for unjust gain; and from prophet to priest, everyone deals falsely.

Jeremiah 6:14 They have treated the wound of my people carelessly, saying, “Peace, peace,” when there is no peace.

Jeremiah 6:15 They acted shamefully, they committed abomination; yet they were not ashamed, they did not know how to blush. Therefore they shall fall among those who fall; at the time that I punish them, they shall be overthrown, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 6:16 Thus says the LORD: Stand at the crossroads, and look, and ask for the ancient paths, where the good way lies; and walk in it, and find rest for your souls. But they said, “We will not walk in it.”

Jeremiah 6:17 Also I raised up sentinels for you: “Give heed to the sound of the trumpet!” But they said, “We will not give heed.”

Jeremiah 6:18 Therefore hear, O nations, and know, O congregation, what will happen to them.

Jeremiah 6:19 Hear, O earth; I am going to bring disaster on this people, the fruit of their schemes, because they have not given heed to my words; and as for my teaching, they have rejected it.

Jeremiah 6:20 Of what use to me is frankincense that comes from Sheba, or sweet cane from a distant land? Your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor are your sacrifices pleasing to me.

Jeremiah 6:21 Therefore thus says the LORD: See, I am laying before this people stumbling blocks against which they shall stumble; parents and children together, neighbor and friend shall perish.

Jeremiah 6:22 Thus says the LORD: See, a people is coming from the land of the north, a great nation is stirring from the farthest parts of the earth.

Jeremiah 6:23 They grasp the bow and the javelin, they are cruel and have no mercy, their sound is like the roaring sea; they ride on horses, equipped like a warrior for battle, against you, O daughter Zion!

Jeremiah 6:24 “We have heard news of them, our hands fall helpless; anguish has taken hold of us, pain as of a woman in labor.

Jeremiah 6:25 Do not go out into the field, or walk on the road; for the enemy has a sword, terror is on every side.”

Jeremiah 6:26 O my poor people, put on sackcloth, and roll in ashes; make mourning as for an only child, most bitter lamentation: for suddenly the destroyer will come upon us.

Jeremiah 6:27 I have made you a tester and a refiner among my people so that you may know and test their ways.

Jeremiah 6:28 They are all stubbornly rebellious, going about with slanders; they are bronze and iron, all of them act corruptly.

Jeremiah 6:29 The bellows blow fiercely, the lead is consumed by the fire; in vain the refining goes on, for the wicked are not removed.

Jeremiah 6:30 They are called “rejected silver,” for the LORD has rejected them.

Jeremiah 7:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

Jeremiah 7:2 Stand in the gate of the LORD’s house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, all you people of Judah, you that enter these gates to worship the LORD.

Jeremiah 7:3 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Amend your ways and your doings, and let me dwell with you in this place.

Jeremiah 7:4 Do not trust in these deceptive words: “This is the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD.”

Jeremiah 7:5 For if you truly amend your ways and your doings, if you truly act justly one with another,

Jeremiah 7:6 if you do not oppress the alien, the orphan, and the widow, or shed innocent blood in this place, and if you do not go after other gods to your own hurt,

Jeremiah 7:7 then I will dwell with you in this place, in the land that I gave of old to your ancestors forever and ever.

Jeremiah 7:8 Here you are, trusting in deceptive words to no avail.

Jeremiah 7:9 Will you steal, murder, commit adultery, swear falsely, make offerings to Baal, and go after other gods that you have not known,

Jeremiah 7:10 and then come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, “We are safe!”— only to go on doing all these abominations?

Jeremiah 7:11 Has this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your sight? You know, I too am watching, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 7:12 Go now to my place that was in Shiloh, where I made my name dwell at first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel.

Jeremiah 7:13 And now, because you have done all these things, says the LORD, and when I spoke to you persistently, you did not listen, and when I called you, you did not answer,

Jeremiah 7:14 therefore I will do to the house that is called by my name, in which you trust, and to the place that I gave to you and to your ancestors, just what I did to Shiloh.

Jeremiah 7:15 And I will cast you out of my sight, just as I cast out all your kinsfolk, all the offspring of Ephraim.

Jeremiah 7:16 As for you, do not pray for this people, do not raise a cry or prayer on their behalf, and do not intercede with me, for I will not hear you.

Jeremiah 7:17 Do you not see what they are doing in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

Jeremiah 7:18 The children gather wood, the fathers kindle fire, and the women knead dough, to make cakes for the queen of heaven; and they pour out drink offerings to other gods, to provoke me to anger.

Jeremiah 7:19 Is it I whom they provoke? says the LORD. Is it not themselves, to their own hurt?

Jeremiah 7:20 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: My anger and my wrath shall be poured out on this place, on human beings and animals, on the trees of the field and the fruit of the ground; it will burn and not be quenched.

Jeremiah 7:21 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices, and eat the flesh.

Jeremiah 7:22 For in the day that I brought your ancestors out of the land of Egypt, I did not speak to them or command them concerning burnt offerings and sacrifices.

Jeremiah 7:23 But this command I gave them, “Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and you shall be my people; and walk only in the way that I command you, so that it may be well with you.”

Jeremiah 7:24 Yet they did not obey or incline their ear, but, in the stubbornness of their evil will, they walked in their own counsels, and looked backward rather than forward.

Jeremiah 7:25 From the day that your ancestors came out of the land of Egypt until this day, I have persistently sent all my servants the prophets to them, day after day;

Jeremiah 7:26 yet they did not listen to me, or pay attention, but they stiffened their necks. They did worse than their ancestors did.

Jeremiah 7:27 So you shall speak all these words to them, but they will not listen to you. You shall call to them, but they will not answer you.

Jeremiah 7:28 You shall say to them: This is the nation that did not obey the voice of the LORD their God, and did not accept discipline; truth has perished; it is cut off from their lips.

Jeremiah 7:29 Cut off your hair and throw it away; raise a lamentation on the bare heights, for the LORD has rejected and forsaken the generation that provoked his wrath.

Jeremiah 7:30 For the people of Judah have done evil in my sight, says the LORD; they have set their abominations in the house that is called by my name, defiling it.

Jeremiah 7:31 And they go on building the high place of Topheth, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire— which I did not command, nor did it come into my mind.

Jeremiah 7:32 Therefore, the days are surely coming, says the LORD, when it will no more be called Topheth, or the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of Slaughter: for they will bury in Topheth until there is no more room.

Jeremiah 7:33 The corpses of this people will be food for the birds of the air, and for the animals of the earth; and no one will frighten them away.

Jeremiah 7:34 And I will bring to an end the sound of mirth and gladness, the voice of the bride and bridegroom in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; for the land shall become a waste.

Jeremiah 8:1 At that time, says the LORD, the bones of the kings of Judah, the bones of its officials, the bones of the priests, the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be brought out of their tombs;

Jeremiah 8:2 and they shall be spread before the sun and the moon and all the host of heaven, which they have loved and served, which they have followed, and which they have inquired of and worshiped; and they shall not be gathered or buried; they shall be like dung on the surface of the ground.

Jeremiah 8:3 Death shall be preferred to life by all the remnant that remains of this evil family in all the places where I have driven them, says the LORD of hosts.

Jeremiah 8:4 You shall say to them, Thus says the LORD: When people fall, do they not get up again? If they go astray, do they not turn back?

Jeremiah 8:5 Why then has this people turned away in perpetual backsliding? They have held fast to deceit, they have refused to return.

Jeremiah 8:6 I have given heed and listened, but they do not speak honestly; no one repents of wickedness, saying, “What have I done!” All of them turn to their own course, like a horse plunging headlong into battle.

Jeremiah 8:7 Even the stork in the heavens knows its times; and the turtledove, swallow, and crane observe the time of their coming; but my people do not know the ordinance of the LORD.

Jeremiah 8:8 How can you say, “We are wise, and the law of the LORD is with us,” when, in fact, the false pen of the scribes has made it into a lie?

Jeremiah 8:9 The wise shall be put to shame, they shall be dismayed and taken; since they have rejected the word of the LORD, what wisdom is in them?

Jeremiah 8:10 Therefore I will give their wives to others and their fields to conquerors, because from the least to the greatest everyone is greedy for unjust gain; from prophet to priest everyone deals falsely.

Jeremiah 8:11 They have treated the wound of my people carelessly, saying, “Peace, peace,” when there is no peace.

Jeremiah 8:12 They acted shamefully, they committed abomination; yet they were not at all ashamed, they did not know how to blush. Therefore they shall fall among those who fall; at the time when I punish them, they shall be overthrown, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 8:13 When I wanted to gather them, says the LORD, there are no grapes on the vine, nor figs on the fig tree; even the leaves are withered, and what I gave them has passed away from them.

Jeremiah 8:14 Why do we sit still? Gather together, let us go into the fortified cities and perish there; for the LORD our God has doomed us to perish, and has given us poisoned water to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD.

Jeremiah 8:15 We look for peace, but find no good, for a time of healing, but there is terror instead.

Jeremiah 8:16 The snorting of their horses is heard from Dan; at the sound of the neighing of their stallions the whole land quakes. They come and devour the land and all that fills it, the city and those who live in it.

Jeremiah 8:17 See, I am letting snakes loose among you, adders that cannot be charmed, and they shall bite you, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 8:18 My joy is gone, grief is upon me, my heart is sick.

Jeremiah 8:19 Hark, the cry of my poor people from far and wide in the land: “Is the LORD not in Zion? Is her King not in her?” (“Why have they provoked me to anger with their images, with their foreign idols?”)

Jeremiah 8:20 “The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved.”

Jeremiah 8:21 For the hurt of my poor people I am hurt, I mourn, and dismay has taken hold of me.

Jeremiah 8:22 Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there? Why then has the health of my poor people not been restored?

Jeremiah 9:1 O that my head were a spring of water, and my eyes a fountain of tears, so that I might weep day and night for the slain of my poor people!

Jeremiah 9:2 O that I had in the desert a traveler's lodging place, that I might leave my people and go away from them! For they are all adulterers, a band of traitors.

Jeremiah 9:3 They bend their tongues like bows; they have grown strong in the land for falsehood, and not for truth; for they proceed from evil to evil, and they do not know me, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 9:4 Beware of your neighbors, and put no trust in any of your kin; for all your kin are supplanters, and every neighbor goes around like a slanderer.

Jeremiah 9:5 They all deceive their neighbors, and no one speaks the truth; they have taught their tongues to speak lies; they commit iniquity and are too weary to repent.

Jeremiah 9:6 Oppression upon oppression, deceit upon deceit! They refuse to know me, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 9:7 Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: I will now refine and test them, for what else can I do with my sinful people?

Jeremiah 9:8 Their tongue is a deadly arrow; it speaks deceit through the mouth. They all speak friendly words to their neighbors, but inwardly are planning to lay an ambush.

Jeremiah 9:9 Shall I not punish them for these things? says the LORD; and shall I not bring retribution on a nation such as this?

Jeremiah 9:10 Take up weeping and wailing for the mountains, and a lamentation for the pastures of the wilderness, because they are laid waste so that no one passes through, and the lowing of cattle is not heard; both the birds of the air and the animals have fled and are gone.

Jeremiah 9:11 I will make Jerusalem a heap of ruins, a lair of jackals; and I will make the towns of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant.

Jeremiah 9:12 Who is wise enough to understand this? To whom has the mouth of the LORD spoken, so that they may declare it? Why is the land ruined and laid waste like a wilderness, so that no one passes through?

Jeremiah 9:13 And the LORD says: Because they have forsaken my law that I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, or walked in accordance with it, Jeremiah 9:14 but have stubbornly followed their own hearts and have gone after the Baals, as their ancestors taught them.

Jeremiah 9:15 Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: I am feeding this people with wormwood, and giving them poisonous water to drink.

Jeremiah 9:16 I will scatter them among nations that neither they nor their ancestors have known; and I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them.

Jeremiah 9:17 Thus says the LORD of hosts: Consider, and call for the mourning women to come; send for the skilled women to come;

Jeremiah 9:18 let them quickly raise a dirge over us, so that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids flow with water.

Jeremiah 9:19 For a sound of wailing is heard from Zion: “How we are ruined! We are utterly shamed, because we have left the land, because they have cast down our dwellings.”

Jeremiah 9:20 Hear, O women, the word of the LORD, and let your ears receive the word of his mouth; teach to your daughters a dirge, and each to her neighbor a lament.

Jeremiah 9:21 “Death has come up into our windows, it has entered our palaces, to cut off the children from the streets and the young men from the squares.”

Jeremiah 9:22 Speak! Thus says the LORD: “Human corpses shall fall like dung upon the open field, like sheaves behind the reaper, and no one shall gather them.”

Jeremiah 9:23 Thus says the LORD: Do not let the wise boast in their wisdom, do not let the mighty boast in their might, do not let the wealthy boast in their wealth;

Jeremiah 9:24 but let those who boast boast in this, that they understand and know me, that I am the LORD; I act with steadfast love, justice, and righteousness in the earth, for in these things I delight, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 9:25 The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will attend to all those who are circumcised only in the foreskin:

Jeremiah 9:26 Egypt, Judah, Edom, the Ammonites, Moab, and all those with shaven temples who live in the desert. For all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel is uncircumcised in heart.

Jeremiah 10:1 Hear the word that the LORD speaks to you, O house of Israel.

Jeremiah 10:2 Thus says the LORD: Do not learn the way of the nations, or be dismayed at the signs of the heavens; for the nations are dismayed at them.

Jeremiah 10:3 For the customs of the peoples are false: a tree from the forest is cut down, and worked with an ax by the hands of an artisan;

Jeremiah 10:4 people deck it with silver and gold; they fasten it with hammer and nails so that it cannot move.

Jeremiah 10:5 Their idols are like scarecrows in a cucumber field, and they cannot speak; they have to be carried, for they cannot walk. Do not be afraid of them, for they cannot do evil, nor is it in them to do good.

Jeremiah 10:6 There is none like you, O LORD; you are great, and your name is great in might.

Jeremiah 10:7 Who would not fear you, O King of the nations? For that is your due; among all the wise ones of the nations and in all their kingdoms there is no one like you.

Jeremiah 10:8 They are both stupid and foolish; the instruction given by idols is no better than wood!

Jeremiah 10:9 Beaten silver is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz. They are the work of the artisan and of the hands of the goldsmith; their clothing is blue and purple; they are all the product of skilled workers.

Jeremiah 10:10 But the LORD is the true God; he is the living God and the everlasting King. At his wrath the earth quakes, and the nations cannot endure his indignation.

Jeremiah 10:11 Thus shall you say to them: The gods who did not make the heavens and the earth shall perish from the earth and from under the heavens.

Jeremiah 10:12 It is he who made the earth by his power, who established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding stretched out the heavens.

Jeremiah 10:13 When he utters his voice, there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and he makes the mist rise from the ends of the earth. He makes lightnings for the rain, and he brings out the wind from his storehouses.

Jeremiah 10:14 Everyone is stupid and without knowledge; goldsmiths are all put to shame by their idols; for their images are false, and there is no breath in them.

Jeremiah 10:15 They are worthless, a work of delusion; at the time of their punishment they shall perish.

Jeremiah 10:16 Not like these is the LORD, the portion of Jacob, for he is the one who formed all things, and Israel is the tribe of his inheritance; the LORD of hosts is his name.

Jeremiah 10:17 Gather up your bundle from the ground, O you who live under siege!

Jeremiah 10:18 For thus says the LORD: I am going to sling out the inhabitants of the land at this time, and I will bring distress on them, so that they shall feel it.

Jeremiah 10:19 Woe is me because of my hurt! My wound is severe. But I said, “Truly this is my punishment, and I must bear it.”

Jeremiah 10:20 My tent is destroyed, and all my cords are broken; my children have gone from me, and they are no more; there is no one to spread my tent again, and to set up my curtains.

Jeremiah 10:21 For the shepherds are stupid, and do not inquire of the LORD; therefore they have not prospered, and all their flock is scattered.

Jeremiah 10:22 Hear, a noise! Listen, it is coming— a great commotion from the land of the north to make the cities of Judah a desolation, a lair of jackals.

Jeremiah 10:23 I know, O LORD, that the way of human beings is not in their control, that mortals as they walk cannot direct their steps.

Jeremiah 10:24 Correct me, O LORD, but in just measure; not in your anger, or you will bring me to nothing.

Jeremiah 10:25 Pour out your wrath on the nations that do not know you, and on the peoples that do not call on your name; for they have devoured Jacob; they have devoured him and consumed him, and have laid waste his habitation.

Jeremiah 11:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

Jeremiah 11:2 Hear the words of this covenant, and speak to the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 11:3 You shall say to them, Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Cursed be anyone who does not heed the words of this covenant,

Jeremiah 11:4 which I commanded your ancestors when I brought them out of the land of Egypt, from the iron-smelter, saying, Listen to my voice, and do all that I command you. So shall you be my people, and I will be your God,

Jeremiah 11:5 that I may perform the oath that I swore to your ancestors, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as at this day. Then I answered, “So be it, LORD.”

Jeremiah 11:6 And the LORD said to me: Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: Hear the words of this covenant and do them.

Jeremiah 11:7 For I solemnly warned your ancestors when I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, warning them persistently, even to this day, saying, Obey my voice.

Jeremiah 11:8 Yet they did not obey or incline their ear, but everyone walked in the stubbornness of an evil will. So I brought upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do, but they did not.

Jeremiah 11:9 And the LORD said to me: Conspiracy exists among the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 11:10 They have turned back to the iniquities of their ancestors of old, who refused to heed my words; they have gone after other gods to serve them; the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken the covenant that I made with their ancestors.

Jeremiah 11:11 Therefore, thus says the LORD, assuredly I am going to bring disaster upon them that they cannot escape; though they cry out to me, I will not listen to them.

Jeremiah 11:12 Then the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem will go and cry out to the gods to whom they make offerings, but they will never save them in the time of their trouble.

Jeremiah 11:13 For your gods have become as many as your towns, O Judah; and as many as the streets of Jerusalem are the altars you have set up to shame, altars to make offerings to Baal.

Jeremiah 11:14 As for you, do not pray for this people, or lift up a cry or prayer on their behalf, for I will not listen when they call to me in the time of their trouble.

Jeremiah 11:15 What right has my beloved in my house, when she has done vile deeds? Can vows and sacrificial flesh avert your doom? Can you then exult?

Jeremiah 11:16 The LORD once called you, “A green olive tree, fair with goodly fruit”; but with the roar of a great tempest he will set fire to it, and its branches will be consumed.

Jeremiah 11:17 The LORD of hosts, who planted you, has pronounced evil against you, because of the evil that the house of Israel and the house of Judah have done, provoking me to anger by making offerings to Baal.

Jeremiah 11:18 It was the LORD who made it known to me, and I knew; then you showed me their evil deeds.

Jeremiah 11:19 But I was like a gentle lamb led to the slaughter. And I did not know it was against me that they devised schemes, saying, “Let us destroy the tree with its fruit, let us cut him off from the land of the living, so that his name will no longer be remembered!”

Jeremiah 11:20 But you, O LORD of hosts, who judge righteously, who try the heart and the mind, let me see your retribution upon them, for to you I have committed my cause.

Jeremiah 11:21 Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the people of Anathoth, who seek your life, and say, “You shall not prophesy in the name of the LORD, or you will die by our hand”—

Jeremiah 11:22 therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: I am going to punish them; the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine;

Jeremiah 11:23 and not even a remnant shall be left of them. For I will bring disaster upon the people of Anathoth, the year of their punishment.

Jeremiah 12:1 You will be in the right, O LORD, when I lay charges against you; but let me put my case to you. Why does the way of the guilty prosper? Why do all who are treacherous thrive?

Jeremiah 12:2 You plant them, and they take root; they grow and bring forth fruit; you are near in their mouths yet far from their hearts.

Jeremiah 12:3 But you, O LORD, know me; You see me and test me— my heart is with you. Pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and set them apart for the day of slaughter.

Jeremiah 12:4 How long will the land mourn, and the grass of every field wither? For the wickedness of those who live in it the animals and the birds are swept away, and because people said, “He is blind to our ways.”

Jeremiah 12:5 If you have raced with foot-runners and they have wearied you, how will you compete with horses? And if in a safe land you fall down, how will you fare in the thickets of the Jordan?

Jeremiah 12:6 For even your kinsfolk and your own family, even they have dealt treacherously with you; they are in full cry after you; do not believe them, though they speak friendly words to you.

Jeremiah 12:7 I have forsaken my house, I have abandoned my heritage; I have given the beloved of my heart into the hands of her enemies.

Jeremiah 12:8 My heritage has become to me like a lion in the forest; she has lifted up her voice against me— therefore I hate her.

Jeremiah 12:9 Is the hyena greedy for my heritage at my command? Are the birds of prey all around her? Go, assemble all the wild animals; bring them to devour her.

Jeremiah 12:10 Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard, they have trampled down my portion, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

Jeremiah 12:11 They have made it a desolation; desolate, it mourns to me. The whole land is made desolate, but no one lays it to heart.

Jeremiah 12:12 Upon all the bare heights in the desert spoilers have come; for the sword of the LORD devours from one end of the land to the other; no one shall be safe.

Jeremiah 12:13 They have sown wheat and have reaped thorns, they have tired themselves out but profit nothing. They shall be ashamed of their harvests because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

Jeremiah 12:14 Thus says the LORD concerning all my evil neighbors who touch the heritage that I have given my people Israel to inherit: I am about to pluck them up from their land, and I will pluck up the house of Judah from among them.

Jeremiah 12:15 And after I have plucked them up, I will again have compassion on them, and I will bring them again to their heritage and to their land, everyone of them.

Jeremiah 12:16 And then, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, “As the LORD lives,” as they taught my people to swear by Baal, then they shall be built up in the midst of my people.

Jeremiah 12:17 But if any nation will not listen, then I will completely uproot it and destroy it, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 13:1 Thus said the LORD to me, “Go and buy yourself a linen loincloth, and put it on your loins, but do not dip it in water.”

Jeremiah 13:2 So I bought a loincloth according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins.

Jeremiah 13:3 And the word of the LORD came to me a second time, saying,

Jeremiah 13:4 “Take the loincloth that you bought and are wearing, and go now to the Euphrates, and hide it there in a cleft of the rock.”

Jeremiah 13:5 So I went, and hid it by the Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.

Jeremiah 13:6 And after many days the LORD said to me, “Go now to the Euphrates, and take from there the loincloth that I commanded you to hide there.”

Jeremiah 13:7 Then I went to the Euphrates, and dug, and I took the loincloth from the place where I had hidden it. But now the loincloth was ruined; it was good for nothing.

Jeremiah 13:8 Then the word of the LORD came to me:

Jeremiah 13:9 Thus says the LORD: Just so I will ruin the pride of Judah and the great pride of Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 13:10 This evil people, who refuse to hear my words, who stubbornly follow their own will and have gone after other gods to serve them and worship them, shall be like this loincloth, which is good for nothing.

Jeremiah 13:11 For as the loincloth clings to one’s loins, so I made the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah cling to me, says the LORD, in order that they might be for me a people, a name, a praise, and a glory. But they would not listen.

Jeremiah 13:12 You shall speak to them this word: Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Every wine-jar should be filled with wine. And they will say to you, “Do you think we do not know that every wine-jar should be filled with wine?”

Jeremiah 13:13 Then you shall say to them: Thus says the LORD: I am about to fill all the inhabitants of this land— the kings who sit on David’s throne, the priests, the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem— with drunkenness.

Jeremiah 13:14 And I will dash them one against another, parents and children together, says the LORD. I will not pity or spare or have compassion when I destroy them.

Jeremiah 13:15 Hear and give ear; do not be haughty, for the LORD has spoken.

Jeremiah 13:16 Give glory to the LORD your God before he brings darkness, and before your feet stumble on the mountains at twilight; while you look for light, he turns it into gloom and makes it deep darkness.

Jeremiah 13:17 But if you will not listen, my soul will weep in secret for your pride; my eyes will weep bitterly and run down with tears, because the LORD’s flock has been taken captive.

Jeremiah 13:18 Say to the king and the queen mother; “Take a lowly seat, for your beautiful crown has come down from your head.”

Jeremiah 13:19 The towns of the Negeb are shut up with no one to open them; all Judah is taken into exile, wholly taken into exile.

Jeremiah 13:20 Lift up your eyes and see those who come from the north. Where is the flock that was given you, your beautiful flock?

Jeremiah 13:21 What will you say when they set as head over you those whom you have trained to be your allies? Will not pangs take hold of you, like those of a woman in labor?

Jeremiah 13:22 And if you say in your heart, “Why have these things come upon me?” it is for the greatness of your iniquity that your skirts are lifted up, and you are violated.

Jeremiah 13:23 Can Ethiopians change their skin or leopards their spots? Then also you can do good who are accustomed to do evil.

Jeremiah 13:24 I will scatter you like chaff driven by the wind from the desert.

Jeremiah 13:25 This is your lot, the portion I have measured out to you, says the LORD, because you have forgotten me and trusted in lies.

Jeremiah 13:26 I myself will lift up your skirts over your face, and your shame will be seen.

Jeremiah 13:27 I have seen your abominations, your adulteries and neighings, your shameless prostitutions on the hills of the countryside. Woe to you, O Jerusalem! How long will it be before you are made clean?

Jeremiah 14:1 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the drought:

Jeremiah 14:2 Judah mourns and her gates languish; they lie in gloom on the ground, and the cry of Jerusalem goes up.

Jeremiah 14:3 Her nobles send their servants for water; they come to the cisterns, they find no water, they return with their vessels empty. They are ashamed and dismayed and cover their heads,

Jeremiah 14:4 because the ground is cracked. Because there has been no rain on the land the farmers are dismayed; they cover their heads.

Jeremiah 14:5 Even the doe in the field forsakes her newborn fawn because there is no grass.

Jeremiah 14:6 The wild asses stand on the bare heights, they pant for air like jackals; their eyes fail because there is no herbage.

Jeremiah 14:7 Although our iniquities testify against us, act, O LORD, for your name’s sake; our apostasies indeed are many, and we have sinned against you.

Jeremiah 14:8 O hope of Israel, its savior in time of trouble, why should you be like a stranger in the land, like a traveler turning aside for the night?

Jeremiah 14:9 Why should you be like someone confused, like a mighty warrior who cannot give help? Yet you, O LORD, are in the midst of us, and we are called by your name; do not forsake us!

Jeremiah 14:10 Thus says the LORD concerning this people: Truly they have loved to wander, they have not restrained their feet; therefore the LORD does not accept them, now he will remember their iniquity and punish their sins.

Jeremiah 14:11 The LORD said to me: Do not pray for the welfare of this people.

Jeremiah 14:12 Although they fast, I do not hear their cry, and although they offer burnt offering and grain offering, I do not accept them; but by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence I consume them.

Jeremiah 14:13 Then I said: “Ah, Lord GOD! Here are the prophets saying to them, ‘You shall not see the sword, nor shall you have famine, but I will give you true peace in this place.’“

Jeremiah 14:14 And the LORD said to me: The prophets are prophesying lies in my name; I did not send them, nor did I command them or speak to them. They are prophesying to you a lying vision, worthless divination, and the deceit of their own minds.

Jeremiah 14:15 Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the prophets who prophesy in my name though I did not send them, and who say, “Sword and famine shall not come on this land”: By sword and famine those prophets shall be consumed.

Jeremiah 14:16 And the people to whom they prophesy shall be thrown out into the streets of Jerusalem, victims of famine and sword. There shall be no one to bury them— themselves, their wives, their sons, and their daughters. For I will pour out their wickedness upon them.

Jeremiah 14:17 You shall say to them this word: Let my eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease, for the virgin daughter— my people— is struck down with a crushing blow, with a very grievous wound.

Jeremiah 14:18 If I go out into the field, look— those killed by the sword! And if I enter the city, look— those sick with famine! For both prophet and priest ply their trade throughout the land, and have no knowledge.

Jeremiah 14:19 Have you completely rejected Judah? Does your heart loathe Zion? Why have you struck us down so that there is no healing for us? We look for peace, but find no good; for a time of healing, but there is terror instead.

Jeremiah 14:20 We acknowledge our wickedness, O LORD, the iniquity of our ancestors, for we have sinned against you.

Jeremiah 14:21 Do not spurn us, for your name’s sake; do not dishonor your glorious throne; remember and do not break your covenant with us.

Jeremiah 14:22 Can any idols of the nations bring rain? Or can the heavens give showers? Is it not you, O LORD our God? We set our hope on you, for it is you who do all this.

Jeremiah 15:1 Then the LORD said to me: Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my heart would not turn toward this people. Send them out of my sight, and let them go!

Jeremiah 15:2 And when they say to you, “Where shall we go?” you shall say to them: Thus says the LORD: Those destined for pestilence, to pestilence, and those destined for the sword, to the sword; those destined for famine, to famine, and those destined for captivity, to captivity.

Jeremiah 15:3 And I will appoint over them four kinds of destroyers, says the LORD: the sword to kill, the dogs to drag away, and the birds of the air and the wild animals of the earth to devour and destroy.

Jeremiah 15:4 I will make them a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth because of what King Manasseh son of Hezekiah of Judah did in Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 15:5 Who will have pity on you, O Jerusalem, or who will bemoan you? Who will turn aside to ask about your welfare?

Jeremiah 15:6 You have rejected me, says the LORD, you are going backward; so I have stretched out my hand against you and destroyed you— I am weary of relenting.

Jeremiah 15:7 I have winnowed them with a winnowing fork in the gates of the land; I have bereaved them, I have destroyed my people; they did not turn from their ways.

Jeremiah 15:8 Their widows became more numerous than the sand of the seas; I have brought against the mothers of youths a destroyer at noonday; I have made anguish and terror fall upon her suddenly.

Jeremiah 15:9 She who bore seven has languished; she has swooned away; her sun went down while it was yet day; she has been shamed and disgraced. And the rest of them I will give to the sword before their enemies, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 15:10 Woe is me, my mother, that you ever bore me, a man of strife and contention to the whole land! I have not lent, nor have I borrowed, yet all of them curse me.

Jeremiah 15:11 The LORD said: Surely I have intervened in your life for good, surely I have imposed enemies on you in a time of trouble and in a time of distress.

Jeremiah 15:12 Can iron and bronze break iron from the north?

Jeremiah 15:13 Your wealth and your treasures I will give as plunder, without price, for all your sins, throughout all your territory.

Jeremiah 15:14 I will make you serve your enemies in a land that you do not know, for in my anger a fire is kindled that shall burn forever.

Jeremiah 15:15 O LORD, you know; remember me and visit me, and bring down retribution for me on my persecutors. In your forbearance do not take me away; know that on your account I suffer insult.

Jeremiah 15:16 Your words were found, and I ate them, and your words became to me a joy and the delight of my heart; for I am called by your name, O LORD, God of hosts.

Jeremiah 15:17 I did not sit in the company of merrymakers, nor did I rejoice; under the weight of your hand I sat alone, for you had filled me with indignation.

Jeremiah 15:18 Why is my pain unceasing, my wound incurable, refusing to be healed? Truly, you are to me like a deceitful brook, like waters that fail.

Jeremiah 15:19 Therefore thus says the LORD: If you turn back, I will take you back, and you shall stand before me. If you utter what is precious, and not what is worthless, you shall serve as my mouth. It is they who will turn to you, not you who will turn to them.

Jeremiah 15:20 And I will make you to this people a fortified wall of bronze; they will fight against you, but they shall not prevail over you, for I am with you to save you and deliver you, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 15:21 I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked, and redeem you from the grasp of the ruthless.

Jeremiah 16:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Jeremiah 16:2 You shall not take a wife, nor shall you have sons or daughters in this place.

Jeremiah 16:3 For thus says the LORD concerning the sons and daughters who are born in this place, and concerning the mothers who bear them and the fathers who beget them in this land:

Jeremiah 16:4 They shall die of deadly diseases. They shall not be lamented, nor shall they be buried; they shall become like dung on the surface of the ground. They shall perish by the sword and by famine, and their dead bodies shall become food for the birds of the air and for the wild animals of the earth.

Jeremiah 16:5 For thus says the LORD: Do not enter the house of mourning, or go to lament, or bemoan them; for I have taken away my peace from this people, says the LORD, my steadfast love and mercy.

Jeremiah 16:6 Both great and small shall die in this land; they shall not be buried, and no one shall lament for them; there shall be no gashing, no shaving of the head for them.

Jeremiah 16:7 No one shall break bread for the mourner, to offer comfort for the dead; nor shall anyone give them the cup of consolation to drink for their fathers or their mothers.

Jeremiah 16:8 You shall not go into the house of feasting to sit with them, to eat and drink.

Jeremiah 16:9 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: I am going to banish from this place, in your days and before your eyes, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride.

Jeremiah 16:10 And when you tell this people all these words, and they say to you, “Why has the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? What is our iniquity? What is the sin that we have committed against the LORD our God?”

Jeremiah 16:11 then you shall say to them: It is because your ancestors have forsaken me, says the LORD, and have gone after other gods and have served and worshiped them, and have forsaken me and have not kept my law;

Jeremiah 16:12 and because you have behaved worse than your ancestors, for here you are, every one of you, following your stubborn evil will, refusing to listen to me.

Jeremiah 16:13 Therefore I will hurl you out of this land into a land that neither you nor your ancestors have known, and there you shall serve other gods day and night, for I will show you no favor.

Jeremiah 16:14 Therefore, the days are surely coming, says the LORD, when it shall no longer be said, “As the LORD lives who brought the people of Israel up out of the land of Egypt,”

Jeremiah 16:15 but “As the LORD lives who brought the people of Israel up out of the land of the north and out of all the lands where he had driven them.” For I will bring them back to their own land that I gave to their ancestors.

Jeremiah 16:16 I am now sending for many fishermen, says the LORD, and they shall catch them; and afterward I will send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain and every hill, and out of the clefts of the rocks.

Jeremiah 16:17 For my eyes are on all their ways; they are not hidden from my presence, nor is their iniquity concealed from my sight.

Jeremiah 16:18 And I will doubly repay their iniquity and their sin, because they have polluted my land with the carcasses of their detestable idols, and have filled my inheritance with their abominations.

Jeremiah 16:19 O LORD, my strength and my stronghold, my refuge in the day of trouble, to you shall the nations come from the ends of the earth and say: Our ancestors have inherited nothing but lies, worthless things in which there is no profit.

Jeremiah 16:20 Can mortals make for themselves gods? Such are no gods!

Jeremiah 16:21 “Therefore I am surely going to teach them, this time I am going to teach them my power and my might, and they shall know that my name is the LORD.”

Jeremiah 17:1 The sin of Judah is written with an iron pen; with a diamond point it is engraved on the tablet of their hearts, and on the horns of their altars,

Jeremiah 17:2 while their children remember their altars and their sacred poles, beside every green tree, and on the high hills,

Jeremiah 17:3 on the mountains in the open country. Your wealth and all your treasures I will give for spoil as the price of your sin throughout all your territory.

Jeremiah 17:4 By your own act you shall lose the heritage that I gave you, and I will make you serve your enemies in a land that you do not know, for in my anger a fire is kindled that shall burn forever.

Jeremiah 17:5 Thus says the LORD: Cursed are those who trust in mere mortals and make mere flesh their strength, whose hearts turn away from the LORD.

Jeremiah 17:6 They shall be like a shrub in the desert, and shall not see when relief comes. They shall live in the parched places of the wilderness, in an uninhabited salt land.

Jeremiah 17:7 Blessed are those who trust in the LORD, whose trust is the LORD.

Jeremiah 17:8 They shall be like a tree planted by water, sending out its roots by the stream. It shall not fear when heat comes, and its leaves shall stay green; in the year of drought it is not anxious, and it does not cease to bear fruit.

Jeremiah 17:9 The heart is devious above all else; it is perverse—who can understand it?

Jeremiah 17:10 I the LORD test the mind and search the heart, to give to all according to their ways, according to the fruit of their doings.

Jeremiah 17:11 Like the partridge hatching what it did not lay, so are all who amass wealth unjustly; in mid-life it will leave them, and at their end they will prove to be fools.

Jeremiah 17:12 O glorious throne, exalted from the beginning, shrine of our sanctuary!

Jeremiah 17:13 O hope of Israel! O LORD! All who forsake you shall be put to shame; those who turn away from you shall be recorded in the underworld, for they have forsaken the fountain of living water, the LORD.

Jeremiah 17:14 Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved; for you are my praise.

Jeremiah 17:15 See how they say to me, “Where is the word of the LORD? Let it come!”

Jeremiah 17:16 But I have not run away from being a shepherd in your service, nor have I desired the fatal day. You know what came from my lips; it was before your face.

Jeremiah 17:17 Do not become a terror to me; you are my refuge in the day of disaster;

Jeremiah 17:18 Let my persecutors be shamed, but do not let me be shamed; let them be dismayed, but do not let me be dismayed; bring on them the day of disaster; destroy them with double destruction!

Jeremiah 17:19 Thus said the LORD to me: Go and stand in the People’s Gate, by which the kings of Judah enter and by which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem,

Jeremiah 17:20 and say to them: Hear the word of the LORD, you kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, who enter by these gates.

Jeremiah 17:21 Thus says the LORD: For the sake of your lives, take care that you do not bear a burden on the sabbath day or bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 17:22 And do not carry a burden out of your houses on the sabbath or do any work, but keep the sabbath day holy, as I commanded your ancestors.

Jeremiah 17:23 Yet they did not listen or incline their ear; they stiffened their necks and would not hear or receive instruction.

Jeremiah 17:24 But if you listen to me, says the LORD, and bring in no burden by the gates of this city on the sabbath day, but keep the sabbath day holy and do no work on it,

Jeremiah 17:25 then there shall enter by the gates of this city kings who sit on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they and their officials, the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and this city shall be inhabited forever.

Jeremiah 17:26 And people shall come from the towns of Judah and the places around Jerusalem, from the land of Benjamin, from the Shephelah, from the hill country, and from the Negeb, bringing burnt offerings and sacrifices, grain offerings and frankincense, and bringing thank offerings to the house of the LORD.

Jeremiah 17:27 But if you do not listen to me, to keep the sabbath day holy, and to carry in no burden through the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath day, then I will kindle a fire in its gates; it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem and shall not be quenched.

Jeremiah 18:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

Jeremiah 18:2 “Come, go down to the potter’s house, and there I will let you hear my words.”

Jeremiah 18:3 So I went down to the potter’s house, and there he was working at his wheel.

Jeremiah 18:4 The vessel he was making of clay was spoiled in the potter’s hand, and he reworked it into another vessel, as seemed good to him.

Jeremiah 18:5 Then the word of the LORD came to me:

Jeremiah 18:6 Can I not do with you, O house of Israel, just as this potter has done? says the LORD. Just like the clay in the potter’s hand, so are you in my hand, O house of Israel.

Jeremiah 18:7 At one moment I may declare concerning a nation or a kingdom, that I will pluck up and break down and destroy it,

Jeremiah 18:8 but if that nation, concerning which I have spoken, turns from its evil, I will change my mind about the disaster that I intended to bring on it.

Jeremiah 18:9 And at another moment I may declare concerning a nation or a kingdom that I will build and plant it, Jeremiah 18:10 but if it does evil in my sight, not listening to my voice, then I will change my mind about the good that I had intended to do to it.

Jeremiah 18:11 Now, therefore, say to the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: Thus says the LORD: Look, I am a potter shaping evil against you and devising a plan against you. Turn now, all of you from your evil way, and amend your ways and your doings.

Jeremiah 18:12 But they say, “It is no use! We will follow our own plans, and each of us will act according to the stubbornness of our evil will.”

Jeremiah 18:13 Therefore thus says the LORD: Ask among the nations: Who has heard the like of this? The virgin Israel has done a most horrible thing.

Jeremiah 18:14 Does the snow of Lebanon leave the crags of Sirion? Do the mountain waters run dry, the cold flowing streams?

Jeremiah 18:15 But my people have forgotten me, they burn offerings to a delusion; they have stumbled in their ways, in the ancient roads, and have gone into bypaths, not the highway,

Jeremiah 18:16 making their land a horror, a thing to be hissed at forever. All who pass by it are horrified and shake their heads.

Jeremiah 18:17 Like the wind from the east, I will scatter them before the enemy. I will show them my back, not my face, in the day of their calamity.

Jeremiah 18:18 Then they said, “Come, let us make plots against Jeremiah— for instruction shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, let us bring charges against him, and let us not heed any of his words.”

Jeremiah 18:19 Give heed to me, O LORD, and listen to what my adversaries say!

Jeremiah 18:20 Is evil a recompense for good? Yet they have dug a pit for my life. Remember how I stood before you to speak good for them, to turn away your wrath from them.

Jeremiah 18:21 Therefore give their children over to famine; hurl them out to the power of the sword, let their wives become childless and widowed. May their men meet death by pestilence, their youths be slain by the sword in battle.

Jeremiah 18:22 May a cry be heard from their houses, when you bring the marauder suddenly upon them! For they have dug a pit to catch me, and laid snares for my feet.

Jeremiah 18:23 Yet you, O LORD, know all their plotting to kill me. Do not forgive their iniquity, do not blot out their sin from your sight. Let them be tripped up before you; deal with them while you are angry.

Jeremiah 19:1 Thus said the LORD: Go and buy a potter’s earthenware jug. Take with you some of the elders of the people and some of the senior priests,

Jeremiah 19:2 and go out to the valley of the son of Hinnom at the entry of the Potsherd Gate, and proclaim there the words that I tell you.

Jeremiah 19:3 You shall say: Hear the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem. Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: I am going to bring such disaster upon this place that the ears of everyone who hears of it will tingle.

Jeremiah 19:4 Because the people have forsaken me, and have profaned this place by making offerings in it to other gods whom neither they nor their ancestors nor the kings of Judah have known; and because they have filled this place with the blood of the innocent,

Jeremiah 19:5 and gone on building the high places of Baal to burn their children in the fire as burnt offerings to Baal, which I did not command or decree, nor did it enter my mind.

Jeremiah 19:6 Therefore the days are surely coming, says the LORD, when this place shall no more be called Topheth, or the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of Slaughter.

Jeremiah 19:7 And in this place I will make void the plans of Judah and Jerusalem, and will make them fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hand of those who seek their life. I will give their dead bodies for food to the birds of the air and to the wild animals of the earth.

Jeremiah 19:8 And I will make this city a horror, a thing to be hissed at; everyone who passes by it will be horrified and will hiss because of all its disasters.

Jeremiah 19:9 And I will make them eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and all shall eat the flesh of their neighbors in the siege, and in the distress with which their enemies and those who seek their life afflict them.

Jeremiah 19:10 Then you shall break the jug in the sight of those who go with you,

Jeremiah 19:11 and shall say to them: Thus says the LORD of hosts: So will I break this people and this city, as one breaks a potter’s vessel, so that it can never be mended. In Topheth they shall bury until there is no more room to bury.

Jeremiah 19:12 Thus will I do to this place, says the LORD, and to its inhabitants, making this city like Topheth.

Jeremiah 19:13 And the houses of Jerusalem and the houses of the kings of Judah shall be defiled like the place of Topheth— all the houses upon whose roofs offerings have been made to the whole host of heaven, and libations have been poured out to other gods.

Jeremiah 19:14 When Jeremiah came from Topheth, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy, he stood in the court of the LORD's house and said to all the people:

Jeremiah 19:15 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: I am now bringing upon this city and upon all its towns all the disaster that I have pronounced against it, because they have stiffened their necks, refusing to hear my words.

Jeremiah 20:1 Now the priest Pashhur son of Immer, who was chief officer in the house of the LORD, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things.

Jeremiah 20:2 Then Pashhur struck the prophet Jeremiah, and put him in the stocks that were in the upper Benjamin Gate of the house of the LORD.

Jeremiah 20:3 The next morning when Pashhur released Jeremiah from the stocks, Jeremiah said to him, The LORD has named you not Pashhur but "Terror-all-around."

Jeremiah 20:4 For thus says the LORD: I am making you a terror to yourself and to all your friends; and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies while you look on. And I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon; he shall carry them captive to Babylon, and shall kill them with the sword.

Jeremiah 20:5 I will give all the wealth of this city, all its gains, all its prized belongings, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah into the hand of their enemies, who shall plunder them, and seize them, and carry them to Babylon.

Jeremiah 20:6 And you, Pashhur, and all who live in your house, shall go into captivity, and to Babylon you shall go; there you shall die, and there you shall be buried, you and all your friends, to whom you have prophesied falsely.

Jeremiah 20:7 O LORD, you have enticed me, and I was enticed; you have overpowered me, and you have prevailed. I have become a laughingstock all day long; everyone mocks me.

Jeremiah 20:8 For whenever I speak, I must cry out, I must shout, "Violence and destruction!" For the word of the LORD has become for me a reproach and derision all day long.

Jeremiah 20:9 If I say, "I will not mention him, or speak any more in his name," then within me there is something like a burning fire shut up in my bones; I am weary with holding it in, and I cannot.

Jeremiah 20:10 For I hear many whispering: "Terror is all around! Denounce him! Let us denounce him!" All my close friends are watching for me to stumble. "Perhaps he can be enticed, and we can prevail against him, and take our revenge on him."

Jeremiah 20:11 But the LORD is with me like a dread warrior; therefore my persecutors will stumble, and they will not prevail. They will be greatly shamed, for they will not succeed. Their eternal dishonor will never be forgotten.

Jeremiah 20:12 O LORD of hosts, you test the righteous, you see the heart and the mind; let me see your retribution upon them, for to you I have committed my cause.

Jeremiah 20:13 Sing to the LORD; praise the LORD! For he has delivered the life of the needy from the hands of evildoers.

Jeremiah 20:14 Cursed be the day on which I was born! The day when my mother bore me, let it not be blessed!

Jeremiah 20:15 Cursed be the man who brought the news to my father, saying, “A child is born to you, a son,” making him very glad.

Jeremiah 20:16 Let that man be like the cities that the LORD overthrew without pity; let him hear a cry in the morning and an alarm at noon,

Jeremiah 20:17 because he did not kill me in the womb; so my mother would have been my grave, and her womb forever great.

Jeremiah 20:18 Why did I come forth from the womb to see toil and sorrow, and spend my days in shame?

Jeremiah 21:1 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, when King Zedekiah sent to him Pashhur son of Malchiah and the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah, saying,

Jeremiah 21:2 “Please inquire of the LORD on our behalf, for King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon is making war against us; perhaps the LORD will perform a wonderful deed for us, as he has often done, and will make him withdraw from us.”

Jeremiah 21:3 Then Jeremiah said to them:

Jeremiah 21:4 Thus you shall say to Zedekiah: Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: I am going to turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands and with which you are fighting against the king of Babylon and against the Chaldeans who are besieging you outside the walls; and I will bring them together into the center of this city.

Jeremiah 21:5 I myself will fight against you with outstretched hand and mighty arm, in anger, in fury, and in great wrath.

Jeremiah 21:6 And I will strike down the inhabitants of this city, both human beings and animals; they shall die of a great pestilence.

Jeremiah 21:7 Afterward, says the LORD, I will give King Zedekiah of Judah, and his servants, and the people in this city— those who survive the pestilence, sword, and famine— into the hands of King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon, into the hands of their enemies, into the hands of those who seek their lives. He shall strike them down with the edge of the sword; he shall not pity them, or spare them, or have compassion.

Jeremiah 21:8 And to this people you shall say: Thus says the LORD: See, I am setting before you the way of life and the way of death.

Jeremiah 21:9 Those who stay in this city shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence; but those who go out and surrender to the Chaldeans who are besieging you shall live and shall have their lives as a prize of war.

Jeremiah 21:10 For I have set my face against this city for evil and not for good, says the LORD: it shall be given into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.

Jeremiah 21:11 To the house of the king of Judah say: Hear the word of the LORD,

Jeremiah 21:12 O house of David! Thus says the LORD: Execute justice in the morning, and deliver from the hand of the oppressor anyone who has been robbed, or else my wrath will go forth like fire, and burn, with no one to quench it, because of your evil doings.

Jeremiah 21:13 See, I am against you, O inhabitant of the valley, O rock of the plain, says the LORD; you who say, “Who can come down against us, or who can enter our places of refuge?”

Jeremiah 21:14 I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, says the LORD; I will kindle a fire in its forest, and it shall devour all that is around it.

Jeremiah 22:1 Thus says the LORD: Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word,

Jeremiah 22:2 and say: Hear the word of the LORD, O King of Judah sitting on the throne of David— you, and your servants, and your people who enter these gates.

Jeremiah 22:3 Thus says the LORD: Act with justice and righteousness, and deliver from the hand of the oppressor anyone who has been robbed. And do no wrong or violence to the alien, the orphan, and the widow, or shed innocent blood in this place.

Jeremiah 22:4 For if you will indeed obey this word, then through the gates of this house shall enter kings who sit on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their servants, and their people.

Jeremiah 22:5 But if you will not heed these words, I swear by myself, says the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation.

Jeremiah 22:6 For thus says the LORD concerning the house of the king of Judah: You are like Gilead to me, like the summit of Lebanon; but I swear that I will make you a desert, an uninhabited city.

Jeremiah 22:7 I will prepare destroyers against you, all with their weapons; they shall cut down your choicest cedars and cast them into the fire.

Jeremiah 22:8 And many nations will pass by this city, and all of them will say one to another, “Why has the LORD dealt in this way with that great city?”

Jeremiah 22:9 And they will answer, “Because they abandoned the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshiped other gods and served them.”

Jeremiah 22:10 Do not weep for him who is dead, nor bemoan him; weep rather for him who goes away, for he shall return no more to see his native land.

Jeremiah 22:11 For thus says the LORD concerning Shallum son of King Josiah of Judah, who succeeded his father Josiah, and who went away from this place: He shall return here no more,

Jeremiah 22:12 but in the place where they have carried him captive he shall die, and he shall never see this land again.

Jeremiah 22:13 Woe to him who builds his house by unrighteousness, and his upper rooms by injustice; who makes his neighbors work for nothing, and does not give them their wages;

Jeremiah 22:14 who says, “I will build myself a spacious house with large upper rooms,” and who cuts out windows for it, paneling it with cedar, and painting it with vermilion.

Jeremiah 22:15 Are you a king because you compete in cedar? Did not your father eat and drink and do justice and righteousness? Then it was well with him.

Jeremiah 22:16 He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well. Is not this to know me? says the LORD.

Jeremiah 22:17 But your eyes and heart are only on your dishonest gain, for shedding innocent blood, and for practicing oppression and violence.

Jeremiah 22:18 Therefore thus says the LORD concerning King Jehoiakim son of Josiah of Judah: They shall not lament for him, saying, “Alas, my brother!” or “Alas, sister!” They shall not lament for him, saying, “Alas, lord!” or “Alas, his majesty!”

Jeremiah 22:19 With the burial of a donkey he shall be buried—dragged off and thrown out beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 22:20 Go up to Lebanon, and cry out, and lift up your voice in Bashan; cry out from Abarim, for all your lovers are crushed.

Jeremiah 22:21 I spoke to you in your prosperity, but you said, “I will not listen.” This has been your way from your youth, for you have not obeyed my voice.

Jeremiah 22:22 The wind shall shepherd all your shepherds, and your lovers shall go into captivity; then you will be ashamed and dismayed because of all your wickedness.

Jeremiah 22:23 O inhabitant of Lebanon, nested among the cedars, how you will groan when pangs come upon you, pain as of a woman in labor!

Jeremiah 22:24 As I live, says the LORD, even if King Coniah son of Jehoiakim of Judah were the signet ring on my right hand, even from there I would tear you off

Jeremiah 22:25 and give you into the hands of those who seek your life, into the hands of those of whom you are afraid, even into the hands of King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon and into the hands of the Chaldeans.

Jeremiah 22:26 I will hurl you and the mother who bore you into another country, where you were not born, and there you shall die.

Jeremiah 22:27 But they shall not return to the land to which they long to return.

Jeremiah 22:28 Is this man Coniah a despised broken pot, a vessel no one wants? Why are he and his offspring hurled out and cast away in a land that they do not know?

Jeremiah 22:29 O land, land, land, hear the word of the LORD!

Jeremiah 22:30 Thus says the LORD: Record this man as childless, a man who shall not succeed in his days; for none of his offspring shall succeed in sitting on the throne of David, and ruling again in Judah.

Jeremiah 23:1 Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says the LORD.

Jeremiah 23:2 Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds who shepherd my people: It is you who have scattered my flock, and have driven them away, and you have not attended to them. So I will attend to you for your evil doings, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 23:3 Then I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the lands where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply.

Jeremiah 23:4 I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them, and they shall not fear any longer, or be dismayed, nor shall any be missing, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 23:5 The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land.

Jeremiah 23:6 In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety. And this is the name by which he will be called: “The LORD is our righteousness.”

Jeremiah 23:7 Therefore, the days are surely coming, says the LORD, when it shall no longer be said, “As the LORD lives who brought the people of Israel up out of the land of Egypt,”

Jeremiah 23:8 but “As the LORD lives who brought out and led the offspring of the house of Israel out of the land of the north and out of all the lands where he had driven them.” Then they shall live in their own land.

Jeremiah 23:9 Concerning the prophets: My heart is crushed within me, all my bones shake; I have become like a drunkard, like one overcome by wine, because of the LORD and because of his holy words.

Jeremiah 23:10 For the land is full of adulterers; because of the curse the land mourns, and the pastures of the wilderness are dried up. Their course has been evil, and their might is not right.

Jeremiah 23:11 Both prophet and priest are ungodly; even in my house I have found their wickedness, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 23:12 Therefore their way shall be to them like slippery paths in the darkness, into which they shall be driven and fall; for I will bring disaster upon them in the year of their punishment, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 23:13 In the prophets of Samaria I saw a disgusting thing: they prophesied by Baal and led my people Israel astray.

Jeremiah 23:14 But in the prophets of Jerusalem I have seen a more shocking thing: they commit adultery and walk in lies; they strengthen the hands of evildoers, so that no one turns from wickedness; all of them have become like Sodom to me, and its inhabitants like Gomorrah.

Jeremiah 23:15 Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets: “I am going to make them eat wormwood, and give them poisoned water to drink; for from the prophets of Jerusalem ungodliness has spread throughout the land.”

Jeremiah 23:16 Thus says the LORD of hosts: Do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you; they are deluding you. They speak visions of their own minds, not from the mouth of the LORD.

Jeremiah 23:17 They keep saying to those who despise the word of the LORD, “It shall be well with you”; and to all who stubbornly follow their own stubborn hearts, they say, “No calamity shall come upon you.”

Jeremiah 23:18 For who has stood in the council of the LORD so as to see and to hear his word? Who has given heed to his word so as to proclaim it?

Jeremiah 23:19 Look, the storm of the LORD! Wrath has gone forth, a whirling tempest; it will burst upon the head of the wicked.

Jeremiah 23:20 The anger of the LORD will not turn back until he has executed and accomplished the intents of his mind. In the latter days you will understand it clearly.

Jeremiah 23:21 I did not send the prophets, yet they ran; I did not speak to them, yet they prophesied.

Jeremiah 23:22 But if they had stood in my council, then they would have proclaimed my words to my people, and they would have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.

Jeremiah 23:23 Am I a God near by, says the LORD, and not a God far off?

Jeremiah 23:24 Who can hide in secret places so that I cannot see them? says the LORD. Do I not fill heaven and earth? says the LORD.

Jeremiah 23:25 I have heard what the prophets have said who prophesy lies in my name, saying, “I have dreamed, I have dreamed!”

Jeremiah 23:26 How long? Will the hearts of the prophets ever turn back— those who prophesy lies, and who prophesy the deceit of their own heart?

Jeremiah 23:27 They plan to make my people forget my name by their dreams that they tell one another, just as their ancestors forgot my name for Baal.

Jeremiah 23:28 Let the prophet who has a dream tell the dream, but let the one who has my word speak my word faithfully. What has straw in common with wheat? says the LORD.

Jeremiah 23:29 Is not my word like fire, says the LORD, and like a hammer that breaks a rock in pieces?

Jeremiah 23:30 See, therefore, I am against the prophets, says the LORD, who steal my words from one another.

Jeremiah 23:31 See, I am against the prophets, says the LORD, who use their own tongues and say, “Says the LORD.”

Jeremiah 23:32 See, I am against those who prophesy lying dreams, says the LORD, and who tell them, and who lead my people astray by their lies and their recklessness, when I did not send them or appoint them; so they do not profit this people at all, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 23:33 When this people, or a prophet, or a priest asks you, “What is the burden of the LORD?” you shall say to them, “You are the burden, and I will cast you off, says the LORD.”

Jeremiah 23:34 And as for the prophet, priest, or the people who say, “The burden of the LORD,” I will punish them and their households.

Jeremiah 23:35 Thus shall you say to one another, among yourselves, “What has the LORD answered?” or “What has the LORD spoken?”

Jeremiah 23:36 But “the burden of the LORD” you shall mention no more, for the burden is everyone’s own word, and so you pervert the words of the living God, the LORD of hosts, our God.

Jeremiah 23:37 Thus you shall ask the prophet, “What has the LORD answered you?” or “What has the LORD spoken?”

Jeremiah 23:38 But if you say, “the burden of the LORD,” thus says the LORD: Because you have said these words, “the burden of the LORD,” when I sent to you, saying, You shall not say, “the burden of the LORD,”

Jeremiah 23:39 therefore, I will surely lift you up and cast you away from my presence, you and the city that I gave to you and your ancestors.

Jeremiah 23:40 And I will bring upon you everlasting disgrace and perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.

Jeremiah 24:1 The LORD showed me two baskets of figs placed before the temple of the LORD. This was after King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon had taken into exile from Jerusalem King Jeconiah son of Jehoiakim of Judah, together with the officials of Judah, the artisans, and the smiths, and had brought them to Babylon.

Jeremiah 24:2 One basket had very good figs, like first-ripe figs, but the other basket had very bad figs, so bad that they could not be eaten.

Jeremiah 24:3 And the LORD said to me, “What do you see, Jeremiah?” I said, “Figs, the good figs very good, and the bad figs very bad, so bad that they cannot be eaten.”

Jeremiah 24:4 Then the word of the LORD came to me:

Jeremiah 24:5 Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Like these good figs, so I will regard as good the exiles from Judah, whom I have sent away from this place to the land of the Chaldeans.

Jeremiah 24:6 I will set my eyes upon them for good, and I will bring them back to this land. I will build them up, and not tear them down; I will plant them, and not pluck them up.

Jeremiah 24:7 I will give them a heart to know that I am the LORD; and they shall be my people and I will be their God, for they shall return to me with their whole heart.

Jeremiah 24:8 But thus says the LORD: Like the bad figs that are so bad they cannot be eaten, so will I treat King Zedekiah of Judah, his officials, the remnant of Jerusalem who remain in this land, and those who live in the land of Egypt.

Jeremiah 24:9 I will make them a horror, an evil thing, to all the kingdoms of the earth— a disgrace, a byword, a taunt, and a curse in all the places where I shall drive them.

Jeremiah 24:10 And I will send sword, famine, and pestilence upon them, until they are utterly destroyed from the land that I gave to them and their ancestors.

Jeremiah 25:1 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth year of King Jehoiakim son of Josiah of Judah (that was the first year of King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon),

Jeremiah 25:2 which the prophet Jeremiah spoke to all the people of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem:

Jeremiah 25:3 For twenty-three years, from the thirteenth year of King Josiah son of Amon of Judah, to this day, the word of the LORD has come to me, and I have spoken persistently to you, but you have not listened.

Jeremiah 25:4 And though the LORD persistently sent you all his servants the prophets, you have neither listened nor inclined your ears to hear

Jeremiah 25:5 when they said, “Turn now, everyone of you, from your evil way and wicked doings, and you will remain upon the land that the LORD has given to you and your ancestors from of old and forever;

Jeremiah 25:6 do not go after other gods to serve and worship them, and do not provoke me to anger with the work of your hands. Then I will do you no harm.”

Jeremiah 25:7 Yet you did not listen to me, says the LORD, and so you have provoked me to anger with the work of your hands to your own harm.

Jeremiah 25:8 Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: Because you have not obeyed my words,

Jeremiah 25:9 I am going to send for all the tribes of the north, says the LORD, even for King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon, my servant, and I will bring them against this land and its inhabitants, and against all these nations around; I will utterly destroy them, and make them an object of horror and of hissing, and an everlasting disgrace.

Jeremiah 25:10 And I will banish from them the sound of mirth and the sound of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones and the light of the lamp.

Jeremiah 25:11 This whole land shall become a ruin and a waste, and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years.

Jeremiah 25:12 Then after seventy years are completed, I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation, the land of the Chaldeans, for their iniquity, says the LORD, making the land an everlasting waste.

Jeremiah 25:13 I will bring upon that land all the words that I have uttered against it, everything written in this book, which Jeremiah prophesied against all the nations.

Jeremiah 25:14 For many nations and great kings shall make slaves of them also; and I will repay them according to their deeds and the work of their hands.

Jeremiah 25:15 For thus the LORD, the God of Israel, said to me: Take from my hand this cup of the wine of wrath, and make all the nations to whom I send you drink it.

Jeremiah 25:16 They shall drink and stagger and go out of their minds because of the sword that I am sending among them.

Jeremiah 25:17 So I took the cup from the LORD's hand, and made all the nations to whom the LORD sent me drink it:

Jeremiah 25:18 Jerusalem and the towns of Judah, its kings and officials, to make them a desolation and a waste, an object of hissing and of cursing, as they are today;

Jeremiah 25:19 Pharaoh king of Egypt, his servants, his officials, and all his people;

Jeremiah 25:20 all the mixed people; all the kings of the land of Uz; all the kings of the land of the Philistines— Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod;

Jeremiah 25:21 Edom, Moab, and the Ammonites;

Jeremiah 25:22 all the kings of Tyre, all the kings of Sidon, and the kings of the coastland across the sea;

Jeremiah 25:23 Dedan, Tema, Buz, and all who have shaven temples;

Jeremiah 25:24 all the kings of Arabia and all the kings of the mixed peoples that live in the desert;

Jeremiah 25:25 all the kings of Zimri, all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of Media;

Jeremiah 25:26 all the kings of the north, far and near, one after another, and all the kingdoms of the world that are on the face of the earth. And after them the king of Sheshach shall drink.

Jeremiah 25:27 Then you shall say to them, Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Drink, get drunk and vomit, fall and rise no more, because of the sword that I am sending among you.

Jeremiah 25:28 And if they refuse to accept the cup from your hand to drink, then you shall say to them: Thus says the LORD of hosts: You must drink!

Jeremiah 25:29 See, I am beginning to bring disaster on the city that is called by my name, and how can you possibly avoid punishment? You shall not go unpunished, for I am summoning a sword against all the inhabitants of the earth, says the LORD of hosts.

Jeremiah 25:30 You, therefore, shall prophesy against them all these words, and say to them: The LORD will roar from on high, and from his holy habitation utter his voice; he will roar mightily against his fold, and shout, like those who tread grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth.

Jeremiah 25:31 The clamor will resound to the ends of the earth, for the LORD has an indictment against the nations; he is entering into judgment with all flesh, and the guilty he will put to the sword, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 25:32 Thus says the LORD of hosts: See, disaster is spreading from nation to nation, and a great tempest is stirring from the farthest parts of the earth!

Jeremiah 25:33 Those slain by the LORD on that day shall extend from one end of the earth to the other. They shall not be lamented, or gathered, or buried; they shall become dung on the surface of the ground.

Jeremiah 25:34 Wail, you shepherds, and cry out; roll in ashes, you lords of the flock, for the days of your slaughter have come— and your dispersions, and you shall fall like a choice vessel.

Jeremiah 25:35 Flight shall fail the shepherds, and there shall be no escape for the lords of the flock.

Jeremiah 25:36 Hark! the cry of the shepherds, and the wail of the lords of the flock! For the LORD is despoiling their pasture,

Jeremiah 25:37 and the peaceful folds are devastated, because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

Jeremiah 25:38 Like a lion he has left his covert; for their land has become a waste because of the cruel sword, and because of his fierce anger.

Jeremiah 26:1 At the beginning of the reign of King Jehoiakim son of Josiah of Judah, this word came from the LORD:

Jeremiah 26:2 Thus says the LORD: Stand in the court of the LORD's house, and speak to all the cities of Judah that come to worship in the house of the LORD; speak to them all the words that I command you; do not hold back a word.

Jeremiah 26:3 It may be that they will listen, all of them, and will turn from their evil way, that I may change my mind about the disaster that I intend to bring on them because of their evil doings.

Jeremiah 26:4 You shall say to them: Thus says the LORD: If you will not listen to me, to walk in my law that I have set before you,

Jeremiah 26:5 and to heed the words of my servants the prophets whom I send to you urgently— though you have not heeded—

Jeremiah 26:6 then I will make this house like Shiloh, and I will make this city a curse for all the nations of the earth.

Jeremiah 26:7 The priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

Jeremiah 26:8 And when Jeremiah had finished speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak to all the people, then the priests and the prophets and all the people laid hold of him, saying, “You shall die!

Jeremiah 26:9 Why have you prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, ‘This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate, without inhabitant’?” And all the people gathered around Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

Jeremiah 26:10 When the officials of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king’s house to the house of the LORD and took their seat in the entry of the New Gate of the house of the LORD.

Jeremiah 26:11 Then the priests and the prophets said to the officials and to all the people, “This man deserves the sentence of death because he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your own ears.”

Jeremiah 26:12 Then Jeremiah spoke to all the officials and all the people, saying, “It is the LORD who sent me to prophesy against this house and this city all the words you have heard.

Jeremiah 26:13 Now therefore amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God, and the LORD will change his mind about the disaster that he has pronounced against you.

Jeremiah 26:14 But as for me, here I am in your hands. Do with me as seems good and right to you.

Jeremiah 26:15 Only know for certain that if you put me to death, you will be bringing innocent blood upon yourselves and upon this city and its inhabitants, for in truth the LORD sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears.”

Jeremiah 26:16 Then the officials and all the people said to the priests and the prophets, “This man does not deserve the sentence of death, for he has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God.”

Jeremiah 26:17 And some of the elders of the land arose and said to all the assembled people,

Jeremiah 26:18 “Micah of Moresheth, who prophesied during the days of King Hezekiah of Judah, said to all the people of Judah: ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, Zion shall be plowed as a field; Jerusalem shall become a heap of ruins, and the mountain of the house a wooded height.’

Jeremiah 26:19 Did King Hezekiah of Judah and all Judah actually put him to death? Did he not fear the LORD and entreat the favor of the LORD, and did not the LORD change his mind about the disaster that he had pronounced against them? But we are about to bring great disaster on ourselves!”

Jeremiah 26:20 There was another man prophesying in the name of the LORD, Uriah son of Shemaiah from Kiriath-jearim. He prophesied against this city and against this land in words exactly like those of Jeremiah.

Jeremiah 26:21 And when King Jehoiakim, with all his warriors and all the officials, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death; but when Uriah heard of it, he was afraid and fled and escaped to Egypt.

Jeremiah 26:22 Then King Jehoiakim sent Elnathan son of Achbor and men with him to Egypt,

Jeremiah 26:23 and they took Uriah from Egypt and brought him to King Jehoiakim, who struck him down with the sword and threw his dead body into the burial place of the common people.

Jeremiah 26:24 But the hand of Ahikam son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah so that he was not given over into the hands of the people to be put to death.

Jeremiah 27:1 In the beginning of the reign of King Zedekiah son of Josiah of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD.

Jeremiah 27:2 Thus the LORD said to me: Make yourself a yoke of straps and bars, and put them on your neck.

Jeremiah 27:3 Send word to the king of Edom, the king of Moab, the king of the Ammonites, the king of Tyre, and the king of Sidon by the hand of the envoys who have come to Jerusalem to King Zedekiah of Judah.

Jeremiah 27:4 Give them this charge for their masters: Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: This is what you shall say to your masters:

Jeremiah 27:5 It is I who by my great power and my outstretched arm have made the earth, with the people and animals that are on the earth, and I give it to whomever I please.

Jeremiah 27:6 Now I have given all these lands into the hand of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, my servant, and I have given him even the wild animals of the field to serve him.

Jeremiah 27:7 All the nations shall serve him and his son and his grandson, until the time of his own land comes; then many nations and great kings shall make him their slave.

Jeremiah 27:8 But if any nation or kingdom will not serve this king, Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, and put its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, then I will punish that nation with the sword, with famine, and with pestilence, says the LORD, until I have completed its destruction by his hand.

Jeremiah 27:9 You, therefore, must not listen to your prophets, your diviners, your dreamers, your soothsayers, or your sorcerers, who are saying to you, 'You shall not serve the king of Babylon.'

Jeremiah 27:10 For they are prophesying a lie to you, with the result that you will be removed far from your land; I will drive you out, and you will perish.

Jeremiah 27:11 But any nation that will bring its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him, I will leave on its own land, says the LORD, to till it and live there.

Jeremiah 27:12 I spoke to King Zedekiah of Judah in the same way: Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live.

Jeremiah 27:13 Why should you and your people die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence, as the LORD has spoken concerning any nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?

Jeremiah 27:14 Do not listen to the words of the prophets who are telling you not to serve the king of Babylon, for they are prophesying a lie to you.

Jeremiah 27:15 I have not sent them, says the LORD, but they are prophesying falsely in my name, with the result that I will drive you out and you will perish, you and the prophets who are prophesying to you.

Jeremiah 27:16 Then I spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying, Thus says the LORD: Do not listen to the words of your prophets who are prophesying to you, saying, “The vessels of the LORD’s house will soon be brought back from Babylon,” for they are prophesying a lie to you.

Jeremiah 27:17 Do not listen to them; serve the king of Babylon and live. Why should this city become a desolation?

Jeremiah 27:18 If indeed they are prophets, and if the word of the LORD is with them, then let them intercede with the LORD of hosts, that the vessels left in the house of the LORD, in the house of the king of Judah, and in Jerusalem may not go to Babylon.

Jeremiah 27:19 For thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the pillars, the sea, the stands, and the rest of the vessels that are left in this city,

Jeremiah 27:20 which King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon did not take away when he took into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon King Jeconiah son of Jehoiakim of Judah, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem—

Jeremiah 27:21 thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels left in the house of the LORD, in the house of the king of Judah, and in Jerusalem:

Jeremiah 27:22 They shall be carried to Babylon, and there they shall stay, until the day when I give attention to them, says the LORD. Then I will bring them up and restore them to this place.

Jeremiah 28:1 In that same year, at the beginning of the reign of King Zedekiah of Judah, in the fifth month of the fourth year, the prophet Hananiah son of Azzur, from Gibeon, spoke to me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and all the people, saying, Jeremiah 28:2 “Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon.

Jeremiah 28:3 Within two years I will bring back to this place all the vessels of the LORD’s house, which King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon took away from this place and carried to Babylon.

Jeremiah 28:4 I will also bring back to this place King Jeconiah son of Jehoiakim of Judah, and all the exiles from Judah who went to Babylon, says the LORD, for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.”

Jeremiah 28:5 Then the prophet Jeremiah spoke to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the LORD;

Jeremiah 28:6 and the prophet Jeremiah said, “Amen! May the LORD do so; may the LORD fulfill the words that you have prophesied, and bring back to this place from Babylon the vessels of the house of the LORD, and all the exiles.

Jeremiah 28:7 But listen now to this word that I speak in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people.

Jeremiah 28:8 The prophets who preceded you and me from ancient times prophesied war, famine, and pestilence against many countries and great kingdoms.

Jeremiah 28:9 As for the prophet who prophesies peace, when the word of that prophet comes true, then it will be known that the LORD has truly sent the prophet.”

Jeremiah 28:10 Then the prophet Hananiah took the yoke from the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, and broke it.

Jeremiah 28:11 And Hananiah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, “Thus says the LORD: This is how I will break the yoke of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon from the neck of all the nations within two years.” At this, the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

Jeremiah 28:12 Sometime after the prophet Hananiah had broken the yoke from the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Jeremiah 28:13 Go, tell Hananiah, Thus says the LORD: You have broken wooden bars only to forge iron bars in place of them!

Jeremiah 28:14 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: I have put an iron yoke on the neck of all these nations so that they may serve King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, and they shall indeed serve him; I have even given him the wild animals.

Jeremiah 28:15 And the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah, “Listen, Hananiah, the LORD has not sent you, and you made this people trust in a lie.

Jeremiah 28:16 Therefore thus says the LORD: I am going to send you off the face of the earth. Within this year you will be dead, because you have spoken rebellion against the LORD."

Jeremiah 28:17 In that same year, in the seventh month, the prophet Hananiah died.

Jeremiah 29:1 These are the words of the letter that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the remaining elders among the exiles, and to the priests, the prophets, and all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon.

Jeremiah 29:2 This was after King Jeconiah, and the queen mother, the court officials, the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the artisans, and the smiths had departed from Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 29:3 The letter was sent by the hand of Elasah son of Shaphan and Gemariah son of Hilkiah, whom King Zedekiah of Judah sent to Babylon to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. It said:

Jeremiah 29:4 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the exiles whom I have sent into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon:

Jeremiah 29:5 Build houses and live in them; plant gardens and eat what they produce.

Jeremiah 29:6 Take wives and have sons and daughters; take wives for your sons, and give your daughters in marriage, that they may bear sons and daughters; multiply there, and do not decrease.

Jeremiah 29:7 But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the LORD on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare.

Jeremiah 29:8 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Do not let the prophets and the diviners who are among you deceive you, and do not listen to the dreams that they dream,

Jeremiah 29:9 for it is a lie that they are prophesying to you in my name; I did not send them, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 29:10 For thus says the LORD: Only when Babylon's seventy years are completed will I visit you, and I will fulfill to you my promise and bring you back to this place.

Jeremiah 29:11 For surely I know the plans I have for you, says the LORD, plans for your welfare and not for harm, to give you a future with hope.

Jeremiah 29:12 Then when you call upon me and come and pray to me, I will hear you.

Jeremiah 29:13 When you search for me, you will find me; if you seek me with all your heart,

Jeremiah 29:14 I will let you find me, says the LORD, and I will restore your fortunes and gather you from all the nations and all the places where I have driven you, says the LORD, and I will bring you back to the place from which I sent you into exile.

Jeremiah 29:15 Because you have said, “The LORD has raised up prophets for us in Babylon,”—

Jeremiah 29:16 Thus says the LORD concerning the king who sits on the throne of David, and concerning all the people who live in this city, your kinsfolk who did not go out with you into exile:

Jeremiah 29:17 Thus says the LORD of hosts, I am going to let loose on them sword, famine, and pestilence, and I will make them like rotten figs that are so bad they cannot be eaten.

Jeremiah 29:18 I will pursue them with the sword, with famine, and with pestilence, and will make them a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be an object of cursing, and horror, and hissing, and a derision among all the nations where I have driven them,

Jeremiah 29:19 because they did not heed my words, says the LORD, when I persistently sent to you my servants the prophets, but they would not listen, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 29:20 But now, all you exiles whom I sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon, hear the word of the LORD:

Jeremiah 29:21 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning Ahab son of Kolaiah and Zedekiah son of Maaseiah, who are prophesying a lie to you in my name: I am going to deliver them into the hand of King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon, and he shall kill them before your eyes.

Jeremiah 29:22 And on account of them this curse shall be used by all the exiles from Judah in Babylon: “The LORD make you like Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire,”

Jeremiah 29:23 because they have perpetrated outrage in Israel and have committed adultery with their neighbors’ wives, and have spoken in my name lying words that I did not command them; I am the one who knows and bears witness, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 29:24 To Shemaiah of Nehelam you shall say:

Jeremiah 29:25 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: In your own name you sent a letter to all the people who are in Jerusalem, and to the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah, and to all the priests, saying,

Jeremiah 29:26 The LORD himself has made you priest instead of the priest Jehoiada, so that there may be officers in the house of the LORD to control any madman who plays the prophet, to put him in the stocks and the collar.

Jeremiah 29:27 So now why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth who plays the prophet for you?

Jeremiah 29:28 For he has actually sent to us in Babylon, saying, “It will be a long time; build houses and live in them, and plant gardens and eat what they produce.”

Jeremiah 29:29 The priest Zephaniah read this letter in the hearing of the prophet Jeremiah.

Jeremiah 29:30 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Jeremiah 29:31 Send to all the exiles, saying, Thus says the LORD concerning Shemaiah of Nehelam: Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, though I did not send him, and has led you to trust in a lie,

Jeremiah 29:32 therefore thus says the LORD: I am going to punish Shemaiah of Nehelam and his descendants; he shall not have anyone living among this people to see the good that I am going to do to my people, says the LORD, for he has spoken rebellion against the LORD.

Jeremiah 30:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

Jeremiah 30:2 Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Write in a book all the words that I have spoken to you.

Jeremiah 30:3 For the days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will restore the fortunes of my people, Israel and Judah, says the LORD, and I will bring them back to the land that I gave to their ancestors and they shall take possession of it.

Jeremiah 30:4 These are the words that the LORD spoke concerning Israel and Judah:

Jeremiah 30:5 Thus says the LORD: We have heard a cry of panic, of terror, and no peace.

Jeremiah 30:6 Ask now, and see, can a man bear a child? Why then do I see every man with his hands on his loins like a woman in labor? Why has every face turned pale?

Jeremiah 30:7 Alas! that day is so great there is none like it; it is a time of distress for Jacob; yet he shall be rescued from it.

Jeremiah 30:8 On that day, says the LORD of hosts, I will break the yoke from off his neck, and I will burst his bonds, and strangers shall no more make a servant of him.

Jeremiah 30:9 But they shall serve the LORD their God and David their king, whom I will raise up for them.

Jeremiah 30:10 But as for you, have no fear, my servant Jacob, says the LORD, and do not be dismayed, O Israel; for I am going to save you from far away, and your offspring from the land of their captivity. Jacob shall return and have quiet and ease, and no one shall make him afraid.

Jeremiah 30:11 For I am with you, says the LORD, to save you; I will make an end of all the nations among which I scattered you, but of you I will not make an end. I will chastise you in just measure, and I will by no means leave you unpunished.

Jeremiah 30:12 For thus says the LORD: Your hurt is incurable, your wound is grievous.

Jeremiah 30:13 There is no one to uphold your cause, no medicine for your wound, no healing for you.

Jeremiah 30:14 All your lovers have forgotten you; they care nothing for you; for I have dealt you the blow of an enemy, the punishment of a merciless foe, because your guilt is great, because your sins are so numerous.

Jeremiah 30:15 Why do you cry out over your hurt? Your pain is incurable. Because your guilt is great, because your sins are so numerous, I have done these things to you.

Jeremiah 30:16 Therefore all who devour you shall be devoured, and all your foes, everyone of them, shall go into captivity; those who plunder you shall be plundered, and all who prey on you I will make a prey.

Jeremiah 30:17 For I will restore health to you, and your wounds I will heal, says the LORD, because they have called you an outcast: “It is Zion; no one cares for her!”

Jeremiah 30:18 Thus says the LORD: I am going to restore the fortunes of the tents of Jacob, and have compassion on his dwellings; the city shall be rebuilt upon its mound, and the citadel set on its rightful site.

Jeremiah 30:19 Out of them shall come thanksgiving, and the sound of merrymakers. I will make them many, and they shall not be few; I will make them honored, and they shall not be disdained.

Jeremiah 30:20 Their children shall be as of old, their congregation shall be established before me; and I will punish all who oppress them.

Jeremiah 30:21 Their prince shall be one of their own, their ruler shall come from their midst; I will bring him near, and he shall approach me, for who would otherwise dare to approach me? says the LORD.

Jeremiah 30:22 And you shall be my people, and I will be your God.

Jeremiah 30:23 Look, the storm of the LORD! Wrath has gone forth, a whirling tempest; it will burst upon the head of the wicked.

Jeremiah 30:24 The fierce anger of the LORD will not turn back until he has executed and accomplished the intents of his mind. In the latter days you will understand this.

Jeremiah 31:1 At that time, says the LORD, I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people.

Jeremiah 31:2 Thus says the LORD: The people who survived the sword found grace in the wilderness; when Israel sought for rest,

Jeremiah 31:3 the LORD appeared to him from far away. I have loved you with an everlasting love; therefore I have continued my faithfulness to you.

Jeremiah 31:4 Again I will build you, and you shall be built, O virgin Israel! Again you shall take your tambourines, and go forth in the dance of the merrymakers.

Jeremiah 31:5 Again you shall plant vineyards on the mountains of Samaria; the planters shall plant, and shall enjoy the fruit.

Jeremiah 31:6 For there shall be a day when sentinels will call in the hill country of Ephraim: “Come, let us go up to Zion, to the LORD our God.”

Jeremiah 31:7 For thus says the LORD: Sing aloud with gladness for Jacob, and raise shouts for the chief of the nations; proclaim, give praise, and say, “Save, O LORD, your people, the remnant of Israel.”

Jeremiah 31:8 See, I am going to bring them from the land of the north, and gather them from the farthest parts of the earth, among them the blind and the lame, those with child and those in labor, together; a great company, they shall return here.

Jeremiah 31:9 With weeping they shall come, and with consolations I will lead them back, I will let them walk by brooks of water, in a straight path in which they shall not stumble; for I have become a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn.

Jeremiah 31:10 Hear the word of the LORD, O nations, and declare it in the coastlands far away; say, “He who scattered Israel will gather him, and will keep him as a shepherd a flock.”

Jeremiah 31:11 For the LORD has ransomed Jacob, and has redeemed him from hands too strong for him.

Jeremiah 31:12 They shall come and sing aloud on the height of Zion, and they shall be radiant over the goodness of the LORD, over the grain, the wine, and the oil, and over the young of the flock and the herd; their life shall become like a watered garden, and they shall never languish again.

Jeremiah 31:13 Then shall the young women rejoice in the dance, and the young men and the old shall be merry. I will turn their mourning into joy, I will comfort them, and give them gladness for sorrow.

Jeremiah 31:14 I will give the priests their fill of fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my bounty, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 31:15 Thus says the LORD: A voice is heard in Ramah, lamentation and bitter weeping. Rachel is weeping for her children; she refuses to be comforted for her children, because they are no more.

Jeremiah 31:16 Thus says the LORD: Keep your voice from weeping, and your eyes from tears; for there is a reward for your work, says the LORD: they shall come back from the land of the enemy;

Jeremiah 31:17 there is hope for your future, says the LORD: your children shall come back to their own country.

Jeremiah 31:18 Indeed I heard Ephraim pleading: “You disciplined me, and I took the discipline; I was like a calf untrained. Bring me back, let me come back, for you are the LORD my God.

Jeremiah 31:19 For after I had turned away I repented; and after I was discovered, I struck my thigh; I was ashamed, and I was dismayed because I bore the disgrace of my youth.”

Jeremiah 31:20 Is Ephraim my dear son? Is he the child I delight in? As often as I speak against him, I still remember him. Therefore I am deeply moved for him; I will surely have mercy on him, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 31:21 Set up road markers for yourself, make yourself guideposts; consider well the highway, the road by which you went. Return, O virgin Israel, return to these your cities.

Jeremiah 31:22 How long will you waver, O faithless daughter? For the LORD has created a new thing on the earth: a woman encompasses a man.

Jeremiah 31:23 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Once more they shall use these words in the land of Judah and in its towns when I restore their fortunes: “The LORD bless you, O abode of righteousness, O holy hill!”

Jeremiah 31:24 And Judah and all its towns shall live there together, and the farmers and those who wander with their flocks.

Jeremiah 31:25 I will satisfy the weary, and all who are faint I will replenish.

Jeremiah 31:26 Thereupon I awoke and looked, and my sleep was pleasant to me.

Jeremiah 31:27 The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of humans and the seed of animals.

Jeremiah 31:28 And just as I have watched over them to pluck up and break down, to overthrow, destroy, and bring evil, so I will watch over them to build and to plant, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 31:29 In those days they shall no longer say: “The parents have eaten sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are set on edge.”

Jeremiah 31:30 But all shall die for their own sins; the teeth of everyone who eats sour grapes shall be set on edge.

Jeremiah 31:31 The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah.

Jeremiah 31:32 It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt— a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 31:33 But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

Jeremiah 31:34 No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, “Know the LORD,” for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the LORD; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

Jeremiah 31:35 Thus says the LORD, who gives the sun for light by day and the fixed order of the moon and the stars for light by night, who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar— the LORD of hosts is his name:

Jeremiah 31:36 If this fixed order were ever to cease from my presence, says the LORD, then also the offspring of Israel would cease to be a nation before me forever.

Jeremiah 31:37 Thus says the LORD: If the heavens above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth below can be explored, then I will reject all the offspring of Israel because of all they have done, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 31:38 The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when the city shall be rebuilt for the LORD from the tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate.

Jeremiah 31:39 And the measuring line shall go out farther, straight to the hill Gareb, and shall then turn to Goah.

Jeremiah 31:40 The whole valley of the dead bodies and the ashes, and all the fields as far as the Wadi Kidron, to the corner of the Horse Gate toward the east, shall be sacred to the LORD. It shall never again be uprooted or overthrown.

Jeremiah 32:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of King Zedekiah of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar.

Jeremiah 32:2 At that time the army of the king of Babylon was besieging Jerusalem, and the prophet Jeremiah was confined in the court of the guard that was in the palace of the king of Judah,

Jeremiah 32:3 where King Zedekiah of Judah had confined him. Zedekiah had said, “Why do you prophesy and say: Thus says the LORD: I am going to give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it;

Jeremiah 32:4 King Zedekiah of Judah shall not escape out of the hands of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be given into the hands of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him face to face and see him eye to eye;

Jeremiah 32:5 and he shall take Zedekiah to Babylon, and there he shall remain until I attend to him, says the LORD; though you fight against the Chaldeans, you shall not succeed?”

Jeremiah 32:6 Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came to me:

Jeremiah 32:7 Hanamel son of your uncle Shallum is going to come to you and say, “Buy my field that is at Anathoth, for the right of redemption by purchase is yours.”

Jeremiah 32:8 Then my cousin Hanamel came to me in the court of the guard, in accordance with the word of the LORD, and said to me, “Buy my field that is at Anathoth in the land of Benjamin, for the right of possession and redemption is yours; buy it for yourself.” Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

Jeremiah 32:9 And I bought the field at Anathoth from my cousin Hanamel, and weighed out the money to him, seventeen shekels of silver.

Jeremiah 32:10 I signed the deed, sealed it, got witnesses, and weighed the money on scales.

Jeremiah 32:11 Then I took the sealed deed of purchase, containing the terms and conditions, and the open copy;

Jeremiah 32:12 and I gave the deed of purchase to Baruch son of Neriah son of Mahseiah, in the presence of my cousin Hanamel, in the presence of the witnesses who signed the deed of purchase, and in the presence of all the Judeans who were sitting in the court of the guard.

Jeremiah 32:13 In their presence I charged Baruch, saying,

Jeremiah 32:14 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Take these deeds, both this sealed deed of purchase and this open deed, and put them in an earthenware jar, in order that they may last for a long time.

Jeremiah 32:15 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Houses and fields and vineyards shall again be bought in this land.

Jeremiah 32:16 After I had given the deed of purchase to Baruch son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD, saying:

Jeremiah 32:17 Ah Lord GOD! It is you who made the heavens and the earth by your great power and by your outstretched arm! Nothing is too hard for you.

Jeremiah 32:18 You show steadfast love to the thousandth generation, but repay the guilt of parents into the laps of their children after them, O great and mighty God whose name is the LORD of hosts,

Jeremiah 32:19 great in counsel and mighty in deed; whose eyes are open to all the ways of mortals, rewarding all according to their ways and according to the fruit of their doings.

Jeremiah 32:20 You showed signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, and to this day in Israel and among all humankind, and have made yourself a name that continues to this very day.

Jeremiah 32:21 You brought your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs and wonders, with a strong hand and outstretched arm, and with great terror;

Jeremiah 32:22 and you gave them this land, which you swore to their ancestors to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey;

Jeremiah 32:23 and they entered and took possession of it. But they did not obey your voice or follow your law; of all you commanded them to do, they did nothing. Therefore you have made all these disasters come upon them.

Jeremiah 32:24 See, the siege ramps have been cast up against the city to take it, and the city, faced with sword, famine, and pestilence, has been given into the hands of the Chaldeans who are fighting against it. What you spoke has happened, as you yourself can see.

Jeremiah 32:25 Yet you, O Lord GOD, have said to me, "Buy the field for money and get witnesses"— though the city has been given into the hands of the Chaldeans.

Jeremiah 32:26 The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Jeremiah 32:27 See, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh; is anything too hard for me?

Jeremiah 32:28 Therefore, thus says the LORD: I am going to give this city into the hands of the Chaldeans and into the hand of King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon, and he shall take it.

Jeremiah 32:29 The Chaldeans who are fighting against this city shall come, set it on fire, and burn it, with the houses on whose roofs offerings have been made to Baal and libations have been poured out to other gods, to provoke me to anger.

Jeremiah 32:30 For the people of Israel and the people of Judah have done nothing but evil in my sight from their youth; the people of Israel have done nothing but provoke me to anger by the work of their hands, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 32:31 This city has aroused my anger and wrath, from the day it was built until this day, so that I will remove it from my sight

Jeremiah 32:32 because of all the evil of the people of Israel and the people of Judah that they did to provoke me to anger— they, their kings and their officials, their priests and their prophets, the citizens of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 32:33 They have turned their backs to me, not their faces; though I have taught them persistently, they would not listen and accept correction.

Jeremiah 32:34 They set up their abominations in the house that bears my name, and defiled it.

Jeremiah 32:35 They built the high places of Baal in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to offer up their sons and daughters to Molech, though I did not command them, nor did it enter my mind that they should do this abomination, causing Judah to sin.

Jeremiah 32:36 Now therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city of which you say, "It is being given into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence":

Jeremiah 32:37 See, I am going to gather them from all the lands to which I drove them in my anger and my wrath and in great indignation; I will bring them back to this place, and I will settle them in safety.

Jeremiah 32:38 They shall be my people, and I will be their God.

Jeremiah 32:39 I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear me for all time, for their own good and the good of their children after them.

Jeremiah 32:40 I will make an everlasting covenant with them, never to draw back from doing good to them; and I will put the fear of me in their hearts, so that they may not turn from me.

Jeremiah 32:41 I will rejoice in doing good to them, and I will plant them in this land in faithfulness, with all my heart and all my soul.

Jeremiah 32:42 For thus says the LORD: Just as I have brought all this great disaster upon this people, so I will bring upon them all the good fortune that I now promise them.

Jeremiah 32:43 Fields shall be bought in this land of which you are saying, It is a desolation, without human beings or animals; it has been given into the hands of the Chaldeans.

Jeremiah 32:44 Fields shall be bought for money, and deeds shall be signed and sealed and witnessed, in the land of Benjamin, in the places around Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, of the hill country, of the Shephelah, and of the Negeb; for I will restore their fortunes, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 33:1 The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah a second time, while he was still confined in the court of the guard:

Jeremiah 33:2 Thus says the LORD who made the earth, the LORD who formed it to establish it— the LORD is his name:

Jeremiah 33:3 Call to me and I will answer you, and will tell you great and hidden things that you have not known.

Jeremiah 33:4 For thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city and the houses of the kings of Judah that were torn down to make a defense against the siege ramps and before the sword:

Jeremiah 33:5 The Chaldeans are coming in to fight and to fill them with the dead bodies of those whom I shall strike down in my anger and my wrath, for I have hidden my face from this city because of all their wickedness.

Jeremiah 33:6 I am going to bring it recovery and healing; I will heal them and reveal to them abundance of prosperity and security.

Jeremiah 33:7 I will restore the fortunes of Judah and the fortunes of Israel, and rebuild them as they were at first.

Jeremiah 33:8 I will cleanse them from all the guilt of their sin against me, and I will forgive all the guilt of their sin and rebellion against me.

Jeremiah 33:9 And this city shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and a glory before all the nations of the earth who shall hear of all the good that I do for them; they shall fear and tremble because of all the good and all the prosperity I provide for it.

Jeremiah 33:10 Thus says the LORD: In this place of which you say, “It is a waste without human beings or animals,” in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem that are desolate, without inhabitants, human or animal, there shall once more be heard

Jeremiah 33:11 the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voices of those who sing, as they bring thank offerings to the house of the LORD: “Give thanks to the LORD of hosts, for the LORD is good, for his steadfast love endures forever!” For I will restore the fortunes of the land as at first, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 33:12 Thus says the LORD of hosts: In this place that is waste, without human beings or animals, and in all its towns there shall again be pasture for shepherds resting their flocks.

Jeremiah 33:13 In the towns of the hill country, of the Shephelah, and of the Negeb, in the land of Benjamin, the places around Jerusalem, and in the towns of Judah, flocks shall again pass under the hands of the one who counts them, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 33:14 The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will fulfill the promise I made to the house of Israel and the house of Judah.

Jeremiah 33:15 In those days and at that time I will cause a righteous Branch to spring up for David; and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the land.

Jeremiah 33:16 In those days Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will live in safety. And this is the name by which it will be called: “The LORD is our righteousness.”

Jeremiah 33:17 For thus says the LORD: David shall never lack a man to sit on the throne of the house of Israel, Jeremiah 33:18 and the levitical priests shall never lack a man in my presence to offer burnt offerings, to make grain offerings, and to make sacrifices for all time.

Jeremiah 33:19 The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Jeremiah 33:20 Thus says the LORD: If any of you could break my covenant with the day and my covenant with the night, so that day and night would not come at their appointed time,

Jeremiah 33:21 only then could my covenant with my servant David be broken, so that he would not have a son to reign on his throne, and my covenant with my ministers the Levites.

Jeremiah 33:22 Just as the host of heaven cannot be numbered and the sands of the sea cannot be measured, so I will increase the offspring of my servant David, and the Levites who minister to me.

Jeremiah 33:23 The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Jeremiah 33:24 Have you not observed how these people say, “The two families that the LORD chose have been rejected by him,” and how they hold my people in such contempt that they no longer regard them as a nation?

Jeremiah 33:25 Thus says the LORD: Only if I had not established my covenant with day and night and the ordinances of heaven and earth,

Jeremiah 33:26 would I reject the offspring of Jacob and of my servant David and not choose any of his descendants as rulers over the offspring of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. For I will restore their fortunes, and will have mercy upon them.

Jeremiah 34:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, when King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon and all his army and all the kingdoms of the earth and all the peoples under his dominion were fighting against Jerusalem and all its cities:

Jeremiah 34:2 “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Go and speak to King Zedekiah of Judah and say to him: Thus says the LORD: I am going to give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.

Jeremiah 34:3 And you yourself shall not escape from his hand, but shall surely be captured and handed over to him; you shall see the king of Babylon eye to eye and speak with him face to face; and you shall go to Babylon.

Jeremiah 34:4 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O King Zedekiah of Judah! Thus says the LORD concerning you: You shall not die by the sword;

Jeremiah 34:5 you shall die in peace. And as spices were burned for your ancestors, the earlier kings who preceded you, so they shall burn spices for you and lament for you, saying, “Alas, lord!” For I have spoken the word, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 34:6 Then the prophet Jeremiah spoke all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah, in Jerusalem,

Jeremiah 34:7 when the army of the king of Babylon was fighting against Jerusalem and against all the cities of Judah that were left, Lachish and Azekah; for these were the only fortified cities of Judah that remained.

Jeremiah 34:8 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after King Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people in Jerusalem to make a proclamation of liberty to them,

Jeremiah 34:9 that all should set free their Hebrew slaves, male and female, so that no one should hold another Judean in slavery.

Jeremiah 34:10 And they obeyed, all the officials and all the people who had entered into the covenant that all would set free their slaves, male or female, so that they would not be enslaved again; they obeyed and set them free.

Jeremiah 34:11 But afterward they turned around and took back the male and female slaves they had set free, and brought them again into subjection as slaves.

Jeremiah 34:12 The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

Jeremiah 34:13 Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: I myself made a covenant with your ancestors when I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, saying,

Jeremiah 34:14 “Every seventh year each of you must set free any Hebrews who have been sold to you and have served you six years; you must set them free from your service.” But your ancestors did not listen to me or incline their ears to me.

Jeremiah 34:15 You yourselves recently repented and did what was right in my sight by proclaiming liberty to one another, and you made a covenant before me in the house that is called by my name;

Jeremiah 34:16 but then you turned around and profaned my name when each of you took back your male and female slaves, whom you had set free according to their desire, and you brought them again into subjection to be your slaves.

Jeremiah 34:17 Therefore, thus says the LORD: You have not obeyed me by granting a release to your neighbors and friends; I am going to grant a release to you, says the LORD— a release to the sword, to pestilence, and to famine. I will make you a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth.

Jeremiah 34:18 And those who transgressed my covenant and did not keep the terms of the covenant that they made before me, I will make like the calf when they cut it in two and passed between its parts:

Jeremiah 34:19 the officials of Judah, the officials of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, the priests, and all the people of the land who passed between the parts of the calf

Jeremiah 34:20 shall be handed over to their enemies and to those who seek their lives. Their corpses shall become food for the birds of the air and the wild animals of the earth.

Jeremiah 34:21 And as for King Zedekiah of Judah and his officials, I will hand them over to their enemies and to those who seek their lives, to the army of the king of Babylon, which has withdrawn from you.

Jeremiah 34:22 I am going to command, says the LORD, and will bring them back to this city; and they will fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire. The towns of Judah I will make a desolation without inhabitant.

Jeremiah 35:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of King Jehoiakim son of Josiah of Judah:

Jeremiah 35:2 Go to the house of the Rechabites, and speak with them, and bring them to the house of the LORD, into one of the chambers; then offer them wine to drink.

Jeremiah 35:3 So I took Jaazaniah son of Jeremiah son of Habazziniah, and his brothers, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites.

Jeremiah 35:4 I brought them to the house of the LORD into the chamber of the sons of Hanan son of Igdaliah, the man of God, which was near the chamber of the officials, above the chamber of Maaseiah son of Shallum, keeper of the threshold.

Jeremiah 35:5 Then I set before the Rechabites pitchers full of wine, and cups; and I said to them, “Have some wine.”

Jeremiah 35:6 But they answered, “We will drink no wine, for our ancestor Jonadab son of Rechab commanded us, ‘You shall never drink wine, neither you nor your children;

Jeremiah 35:7 nor shall you ever build a house, or sow seed; nor shall you plant a vineyard, or even own one; but you shall live in tents all your days, that you may live many days in the land where you reside.’

Jeremiah 35:8 We have obeyed the charge of our ancestor Jonadab son of Rechab in all that he commanded us, to drink no wine all our days, ourselves, our wives, our sons, or our daughters,

Jeremiah 35:9 and not to build houses to live in. We have no vineyard or field or seed;

Jeremiah 35:10 but we have lived in tents, and have obeyed and done all that our ancestor Jonadab commanded us.

Jeremiah 35:11 But when King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon came up against the land, we said, ‘Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans and the army of the Arameans.' That is why we are living in Jerusalem."

Jeremiah 35:12 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Jeremiah 35:13 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Go and say to the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Can you not learn a lesson and obey my words? says the LORD.

Jeremiah 35:14 The command has been carried out that Jonadab son of Rechab gave to his descendants to drink no wine; and they drink none to this day, for they have obeyed their ancestor's command. But I myself have spoken to you persistently, and you have not obeyed me.

Jeremiah 35:15 I have sent to you all my servants the prophets, sending them persistently, saying, 'Turn now everyone of you from your evil way, and amend your doings, and do not go after other gods to serve them, and then you shall live in the land that I gave to you and your ancestors.' But you did not incline your ear or obey me.

Jeremiah 35:16 The descendants of Jonadab son of Rechab have carried out the command that their ancestor gave them, but this people has not obeyed me.

Jeremiah 35:17 Therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: I am going to bring on Judah and on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem every disaster that I have pronounced against them; because I have spoken to them and they have not listened, I have called to them and they have not answered.

Jeremiah 35:18 But to the house of the Rechabites Jeremiah said: Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Because you have obeyed the command of your ancestor Jonadab, and kept all his precepts, and done all that he commanded you,

Jeremiah 35:19 therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Jonadab son of Rechab shall not lack a descendant to stand before me for all time.

Jeremiah 36:1 In the fourth year of King Jehoiakim son of Josiah of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

Jeremiah 36:2 Take a scroll and write on it all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel and Judah and all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of Josiah until today.

Jeremiah 36:3 It may be that when the house of Judah hears of all the disasters that I intend to do to them, all of them may turn from their evil ways, so that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.

Jeremiah 36:4 Then Jeremiah called Baruch son of Neriah, and Baruch wrote on a scroll at Jeremiah's dictation all the words of the LORD that he had spoken to him.

Jeremiah 36:5 And Jeremiah ordered Baruch, saying, "I am prevented from entering the house of the LORD;

Jeremiah 36:6 so you go yourself, and on a fast day in the hearing of the people in the LORD's house you shall read the words of the LORD from the scroll that you have written at my dictation. You shall read them also in the hearing of all the people of Judah who come up from their towns.

Jeremiah 36:7 It may be that their plea will come before the LORD, and that all of them will turn from their evil ways, for great is the anger and wrath that the LORD has pronounced against this people."

Jeremiah 36:8 And Baruch son of Neriah did all that the prophet Jeremiah ordered him about reading from the scroll the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.

Jeremiah 36:9 In the fifth year of King Jehoiakim son of Josiah of Judah, in the ninth month, all the people in Jerusalem and all the people who came from the towns of Judah to Jerusalem proclaimed a fast before the LORD.

Jeremiah 36:10 Then, in the hearing of all the people, Baruch read the words of Jeremiah from the scroll, in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah son of Shaphan the secretary, which was in the upper court, at the entry of the New Gate of the LORD's house.

Jeremiah 36:11 When Micaiah son of Gemariah son of Shaphan heard all the words of the LORD from the scroll,

Jeremiah 36:12 he went down to the king's house, into the secretary's chamber; and all the officials were sitting there: Elishama the secretary, Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan son of Achbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, Zedekiah son of Hananiah, and all the officials.

Jeremiah 36:13 And Micaiah told them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the scroll in the hearing of the people.

Jeremiah 36:14 Then all the officials sent Jehudi son of Nethaniah son of Shelemiah son of Cushi to say to Baruch, "Bring the scroll that you read in the hearing of the people, and come." So Baruch son of Neriah took the scroll in his hand and came to them.

Jeremiah 36:15 And they said to him, "Sit down and read it to us." So Baruch read it to them.

Jeremiah 36:16 When they heard all the words, they turned to one another in alarm, and said to Baruch, "We certainly must report all these words to the king."

Jeremiah 36:17 Then they questioned Baruch, "Tell us now, how did you write all these words? Was it at his dictation?"

Jeremiah 36:18 Baruch answered them, "He dictated all these words to me, and I wrote them with ink on the scroll."

Jeremiah 36:19 Then the officials said to Baruch, "Go and hide, you and Jeremiah, and let no one know where you are."

Jeremiah 36:20 Leaving the scroll in the chamber of Elishama the secretary, they went to the court of the king; and they reported all the words to the king.

Jeremiah 36:21 Then the king sent Jehudi to get the scroll, and he took it from the chamber of Elishama the secretary; and Jehudi read it to the king and all the officials who stood beside the king.

Jeremiah 36:22 Now the king was sitting in his winter apartment (it was the ninth month), and there was a fire burning in the brazier before him.

Jeremiah 36:23 As Jehudi read three or four columns, the king would cut them off with a penknife and throw them into the fire in the brazier, until the entire scroll was consumed in the fire that was in the brazier.

Jeremiah 36:24 Yet neither the king, nor any of his servants who heard all these words, was alarmed, nor did they tear their garments.

Jeremiah 36:25 Even when Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah urged the king not to burn the scroll, he would not listen to them.

Jeremiah 36:26 And the king commanded Jerahmeel the king's son and Seraiah son of Azriel and Shelemiah son of Abdeel to arrest the secretary Baruch and the prophet Jeremiah. But the LORD hid them.

Jeremiah 36:27 Now, after the king had burned the scroll with the words that Baruch wrote at Jeremiah's dictation, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Jeremiah 36:28 Take another scroll and write on it all the former words that were in the first scroll, which King Jehoiakim of Judah has burned.

Jeremiah 36:29 And concerning King Jehoiakim of Judah you shall say: Thus says the LORD, You have dared to burn this scroll, saying, Why have you written in it that the king of Babylon will certainly come and destroy this land, and will cut off from it human beings and animals?

Jeremiah 36:30 Therefore thus says the LORD concerning King Jehoiakim of Judah: He shall have no one to sit upon the throne of David, and his dead body shall be cast out to the heat by day and the frost by night.

Jeremiah 36:31 And I will punish him and his offspring and his servants for their iniquity; I will bring on them, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and on the people of Judah, all the disasters with which I have threatened them— but they would not listen.

Jeremiah 36:32 Then Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to the secretary Baruch son of Neriah, who wrote on it at Jeremiah's dictation all the words of the scroll that King Jehoiakim of Judah had burned in the fire; and many similar words were added to them.

Jeremiah 37:1 Zedekiah son of Josiah, whom King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon made king in the land of Judah, succeeded Coniah son of Jehoiakim.

Jeremiah 37:2 But neither he nor his servants nor the people of the land listened to the words of the LORD that he spoke through the prophet Jeremiah.

Jeremiah 37:3 King Zedekiah sent Jehucal son of Shelemiah and the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah to the prophet Jeremiah saying, "Please pray for us to the LORD our God."

Jeremiah 37:4 Now Jeremiah was still going in and out among the people, for he had not yet been put in prison.

Jeremiah 37:5 Meanwhile, the army of Pharaoh had come out of Egypt; and when the Chaldeans who were besieging Jerusalem heard news of them, they withdrew from Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 37:6 Then the word of the LORD came to the prophet Jeremiah:

Jeremiah 37:7 Thus says the LORD, God of Israel: This is what the two of you shall say to the king of Judah, who sent you to me to inquire of me, Pharaoh's army, which set out to help you, is going to return to its own land, to Egypt.

Jeremiah 37:8 And the Chaldeans shall return and fight against this city; they shall take it and burn it with fire.

Jeremiah 37:9 Thus says the LORD: Do not deceive yourselves, saying, "The Chaldeans will surely go away from us," for they will not go away.

Jeremiah 37:10 Even if you defeated the whole army of Chaldeans who are fighting against you, and there remained of them only wounded men in their tents, they would rise up and burn this city with fire.

Jeremiah 37:11 Now when the Chaldean army had withdrawn from Jerusalem at the approach of Pharaoh's army,

Jeremiah 37:12 Jeremiah set out from Jerusalem to go to the land of Benjamin to receive his share of property among the people there.

Jeremiah 37:13 When he reached the Benjamin Gate, a sentinel there named Irijah son of Shelemiah son of Hananiah arrested the prophet Jeremiah saying, "You are deserting to the Chaldeans."

Jeremiah 37:14 And Jeremiah said, "That is a lie; I am not deserting to the Chaldeans." But Irijah would not listen to him, and arrested Jeremiah and brought him to the officials.

Jeremiah 37:15 The officials were enraged at Jeremiah, and they beat him and imprisoned him in the house of the secretary Jonathan, for it had been made a prison.

Jeremiah 37:16 Thus Jeremiah was put in the cistern house, in the cells, and remained there many days.

Jeremiah 37:17 Then King Zedekiah sent for him, and received him. The king questioned him secretly in his house, and said, “Is there any word from the LORD?” Jeremiah said, “There is!” Then he said, “You shall be handed over to the king of Babylon.”

Jeremiah 37:18 Jeremiah also said to King Zedekiah, “What wrong have I done to you or your servants or this people, that you have put me in prison?

Jeremiah 37:19 Where are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, ‘The king of Babylon will not come against you and against this land’?

Jeremiah 37:20 Now please hear me, my lord king: be good enough to listen to my plea, and do not send me back to the house of the secretary Jonathan to die there.”

Jeremiah 37:21 So King Zedekiah gave orders, and they committed Jeremiah to the court of the guard; and a loaf of bread was given him daily from the bakers’ street, until all the bread of the city was gone. So Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

Jeremiah 38:1 Now Shephatiah son of Mattan, Gedaliah son of Pashhur, Jucal son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur son of Malchiah heard the words that Jeremiah was saying to all the people,

Jeremiah 38:2 Thus says the LORD, Those who stay in this city shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence; but those who go out to the Chaldeans shall live; they shall have their lives as a prize of war, and live.

Jeremiah 38:3 Thus says the LORD, This city shall surely be handed over to the army of the king of Babylon and be taken.

Jeremiah 38:4 Then the officials said to the king, “This man ought to be put to death, because he is discouraging the soldiers who are left in this city, and all the people, by speaking such words to them. For this man is not seeking the welfare of this people, but their harm.”

Jeremiah 38:5 King Zedekiah said, “Here he is; he is in your hands; for the king is powerless against you.”

Jeremiah 38:6 So they took Jeremiah and threw him into the cistern of Malchiah, the king’s son, which was in the court of the guard, letting Jeremiah down by ropes. Now there was no water in the cistern, but only mud, and Jeremiah sank in the mud.

Jeremiah 38:7 Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, a eunuch in the king’s house, heard that they had put Jeremiah into the cistern. The king happened to be sitting at the Benjamin Gate,

Jeremiah 38:8 So Ebed-melech left the king’s house and spoke to the king, Jeremiah 38:9 “My lord king, these men have acted wickedly in all they did to the prophet Jeremiah by throwing him into the cistern to die there of hunger, for there is no bread left in the city.”

Jeremiah 38:10 Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, “Take three men with you from here, and pull the prophet Jeremiah up from the cistern before he dies.”

Jeremiah 38:11 So Ebed-melech took the men with him and went to the house of the king, to a wardrobe of the storehouse, and took from there old rags and worn-out clothes, which he let down to Jeremiah in the cistern by ropes.

Jeremiah 38:12 Then Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, “Just put the rags and clothes between your armpits and the ropes.” Jeremiah did so.

Jeremiah 38:13 Then they drew Jeremiah up by the ropes and pulled him out of the cistern. And Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

Jeremiah 38:14 King Zedekiah sent for the prophet Jeremiah and received him at the third entrance of the temple of the LORD. The king said to Jeremiah, “I have something to ask you; do not hide anything from me.”

Jeremiah 38:15 Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, “If I tell you, you will put me to death, will you not? And if I give you advice, you will not listen to me.”

Jeremiah 38:16 So King Zedekiah swore an oath in secret to Jeremiah, “As the LORD lives, who gave us our lives, I will not put you to death or hand you over to these men who seek your life.”

Jeremiah 38:17 Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, “Thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel, If you will only surrender to the officials of the king of Babylon, then your life shall be spared, and this city shall not be burned with fire, and you and your house shall live.

Jeremiah 38:18 But if you do not surrender to the officials of the king of Babylon, then this city shall be handed over to the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and you yourself shall not escape from their hand.”

Jeremiah 38:19 King Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “I am afraid of the Judeans who have deserted to the Chaldeans, for I might be handed over to them and they would abuse me.”

Jeremiah 38:20 Jeremiah said, “That will not happen. Just obey the voice of the LORD in what I say to you, and it shall go well with you, and your life shall be spared.

Jeremiah 38:21 But if you are determined not to surrender, this is what the LORD has shown me—

Jeremiah 38:22 a vision of all the women remaining in the house of the king of Judah being led out to the officials of the king of Babylon and saying, ‘Your trusted friends have seduced you and have overcome you; Now that your feet are stuck in the mud, they desert you.’

Jeremiah 38:23 All your wives and your children shall be led out to the Chaldeans, and you yourself shall not escape from their hand, but shall be seized by the king of Babylon; and this city shall be burned with fire.”

Jeremiah 38:24 Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “Do not let anyone else know of this conversation, or you will die.

Jeremiah 38:25 If the officials should hear that I have spoken with you, and they should come and say to you, ‘Just tell us what you said to the king; do not conceal it from us, or we will put you to death. What did the king say to you?’

Jeremiah 38:26 then you shall say to them, ‘I was presenting my plea to the king not to send me back to the house of Jonathan to die there.’“

Jeremiah 38:27 All the officials did come to Jeremiah and questioned him; and he answered them in the very words the king had commanded. So they stopped questioning him, for the conversation had not been overheard.

Jeremiah 38:28 And Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard until the day that Jerusalem was taken.

Jeremiah 39:1 In the ninth year of King Zedekiah of Judah, in the tenth month, King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem and besieged it;

Jeremiah 39:2 in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, a breach was made in the city.

Jeremiah 39:3 When Jerusalem was taken, all the officials of the king of Babylon came and sat in the middle gate: Nergal-sharezer, Samgar-nebo, Sarsechim the Rabsaris, Nergal-sharezer the Rabmag, with all the rest of the officials of the king of Babylon.

Jeremiah 39:4 When King Zedekiah of Judah and all the soldiers saw them, they fled, going out of the city at night by way of the king’s garden through the gate between the two walls; and they went toward the Arabah.

Jeremiah 39:5 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and when they had taken him, they brought him up to King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon, at Riblah, in the land of Hamath; and he passed sentence on him.

Jeremiah 39:6 The king of Babylon slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah at Riblah before his eyes; also the king of Babylon slaughtered all the nobles of Judah.

Jeremiah 39:7 He put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him in fetters to take him to Babylon.

Jeremiah 39:8 The Chaldeans burned the king's house and the houses of the people, and broke down the walls of Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 39:9 Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard exiled to Babylon the rest of the people who were left in the city, those who had deserted to him, and the people who remained.

Jeremiah 39:10 Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left in the land of Judah some of the poor people who owned nothing, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

Jeremiah 39:11 King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon gave command concerning Jeremiah through Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, saying,

Jeremiah 39:12 "Take him, look after him well and do him no harm, but deal with him as he may ask you."

Jeremiah 39:13 So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, Nebushazban the Rabsaris, Nergal-sharezer the Rabmag, and all the chief officers of the king of Babylon sent

Jeremiah 39:14 and took Jeremiah from the court of the guard. They entrusted him to Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan to be brought home. So he stayed with his own people.

Jeremiah 39:15 The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah while he was confined in the court of the guard:

Jeremiah 39:16 Go and say to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian: Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: I am going to fulfill my words against this city for evil and not for good, and they shall be accomplished in your presence on that day.

Jeremiah 39:17 But I will save you on that day, says the LORD, and you shall not be handed over to those whom you dread.

Jeremiah 39:18 For I will surely save you, and you shall not fall by the sword; but you shall have your life as a prize of war, because you have trusted in me, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 40:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD after Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he took him bound in fetters along with all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah who were being exiled to Babylon.

Jeremiah 40:2 The captain of the guard took Jeremiah and said to him, "The LORD your God threatened this place with this disaster;

Jeremiah 40:3 and now the LORD has brought it about, and has done as he said, because all of you sinned against the LORD and did not obey his voice. Therefore this thing has come upon you.

Jeremiah 40:4 Now look, I have just released you today from the fetters on your hands. If you wish to come with me to Babylon, come, and I will take good care of you; but if you do not wish to come with me to Babylon, you need not come. See, the whole land is before you; go wherever you think it good and right to go.

Jeremiah 40:5 If you remain, then return to Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon appointed governor of the towns of Judah, and stay with him among the people; or go wherever you think it right to go." So the captain of the guard gave him an allowance of food and a present, and let him go.

Jeremiah 40:6 Then Jeremiah went to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah, and stayed with him among the people who were left in the land.

Jeremiah 40:7 When all the leaders of the forces in the open country and their troops heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed to him men, women, and children, those of the poorest of the land who had not been taken into exile to Babylon,

Jeremiah 40:8 they went to Gedaliah at Mizpah— Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan son of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, Jezaniah son of the Maacathite, they and their troops.

Jeremiah 40:9 Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan swore to them and their troops, saying, "Do not be afraid to serve the Chaldeans. Stay in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall go well with you.

Jeremiah 40:10 As for me, I am staying at Mizpah to represent you before the Chaldeans who come to us; but as for you, gather wine and summer fruits and oil, and store them in your vessels, and live in the towns that you have taken over."

Jeremiah 40:11 Likewise, when all the Judeans who were in Moab and among the Ammonites and in Edom and in other lands heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant in Judah and had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan as governor over them,

Jeremiah 40:12 then all the Judeans returned from all the places to which they had been scattered and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah; and they gathered wine and summer fruits in great abundance.

Jeremiah 40:13 Now Johanan son of Kareah and all the leaders of the forces in the open country came to Gedaliah at Mizpah

Jeremiah 40:14 and said to him, "Are you at all aware that Baalis king of the Ammonites has sent Ishmael son of Nethaniah to take your life?" But Gedaliah son of Ahikam would not believe them.

Jeremiah 40:15 Then Johanan son of Kareah spoke secretly to Gedaliah at Mizpah, “Please let me go and kill Ishmael son of Nethaniah, and no one else will know. Why should he take your life, so that all the Judeans who are gathered around you would be scattered, and the remnant of Judah would perish?”

Jeremiah 40:16 But Gedaliah son of Ahikam said to Johanan son of Kareah, “Do not do such a thing, for you are telling a lie about Ishmael.”

Jeremiah 41:1 In the seventh month, Ishmael son of Nethaniah son of Elishama, of the royal family, one of the chief officers of the king, came with ten men to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, at Mizpah. As they ate bread together there at Mizpah,

Jeremiah 41:2 Ishmael son of Nethaniah and the ten men with him got up and struck down Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan with the sword and killed him, because the king of Babylon had appointed him governor in the land.

Jeremiah 41:3 Ishmael also killed all the Judeans who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah, and the Chaldean soldiers who happened to be there.

Jeremiah 41:4 On the day after the murder of Gedaliah, before anyone knew of it,

Jeremiah 41:5 eighty men arrived from Shechem and Shiloh and Samaria, with their beards shaved and their clothes torn, and their bodies gashed, bringing grain offerings and incense to present at the temple of the LORD.

Jeremiah 41:6 And Ishmael son of Nethaniah came out from Mizpah to meet them, weeping as he came. As he met them, he said to them, “Come to Gedaliah son of Ahikam.”

Jeremiah 41:7 When they reached the middle of the city, Ishmael son of Nethaniah and the men with him slaughtered them, and threw them into a cistern.

Jeremiah 41:8 But there were ten men among them who said to Ishmael, “Do not kill us, for we have stores of wheat, barley, oil, and honey hidden in the fields.” So he refrained, and did not kill them along with their companions.

Jeremiah 41:9 Now the cistern into which Ishmael had thrown all the bodies of the men whom he had struck down was the large cistern that King Asa had made for defense against King Baasha of Israel; Ishmael son of Nethaniah filled that cistern with those whom he had killed.

Jeremiah 41:10 Then Ishmael took captive all the rest of the people who were in Mizpah, the king’s daughters and all the people who were left at Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, had committed to Gedaliah son of Ahikam. Ishmael son of Nethaniah took them captive and set out to cross over to the Ammonites.

Jeremiah 41:11 But when Johanan son of Kareah and all the leaders of the forces with him heard of all the crimes that Ishmael son of Nethaniah had done,

Jeremiah 41:12 they took all their men and went to fight against Ishmael son of Nethaniah. They came upon him at the great pool that is in Gibeon.

Jeremiah 41:13 And when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan son of Kareah and all the leaders of the forces with him, they were glad.

Jeremiah 41:14 So all the people whom Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned around and came back, and went to Johanan son of Kareah.

Jeremiah 41:15 But Ishmael son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the Ammonites.

Jeremiah 41:16 Then Johanan son of Kareah and all the leaders of the forces with him took all the rest of the people whom Ishmael son of Nethaniah had carried away captive from Mizpah after he had slain Gedaliah son of Ahikam— soldiers, women, children, and eunuchs, whom Johanan brought back from Gibeon.

Jeremiah 41:17 And they set out, and stopped at Geruth Chimham near Bethlehem, intending to go to Egypt

Jeremiah 41:18 because of the Chaldeans; for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land.

Jeremiah 42:1 Then all the commanders of the forces, and Johanan son of Kareah and Azariah son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least to the greatest, approached

Jeremiah 42:2 the prophet Jeremiah and said, “Be good enough to listen to our plea, and pray to the LORD your God for us— for all this remnant. For there are only a few of us left out of many, as your eyes can see.

Jeremiah 42:3 Let the LORD your God show us where we should go and what we should do.”

Jeremiah 42:4 The prophet Jeremiah said to them, “Very well: I am going to pray to the LORD your God as you request, and whatever the LORD answers you I will tell you; I will keep nothing back from you.”

Jeremiah 42:5 They in their turn said to Jeremiah, “May the LORD be a true and faithful witness against us if we do not act according to everything that the LORD your God sends us through you.

Jeremiah 42:6 Whether it is good or bad, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God to whom we are sending you, in order that it may go well with us when we obey the voice of the LORD our God."

Jeremiah 42:7 At the end of ten days the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah.

Jeremiah 42:8 Then he summoned Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces who were with him, and all the people from the least to the greatest,

Jeremiah 42:9 and said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your plea before him:

Jeremiah 42:10 If you will only remain in this land, then I will build you up and not pull you down; I will plant you, and not pluck you up; for I am sorry for the disaster that I have brought upon you.

Jeremiah 42:11 Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, as you have been; do not be afraid of him, says the LORD, for I am with you, to save you and to rescue you from his hand.

Jeremiah 42:12 I will grant you mercy, and he will have mercy on you and restore you to your native soil.

Jeremiah 42:13 But if you continue to say, 'We will not stay in this land,' thus disobeying the voice of the LORD your God

Jeremiah 42:14 and saying, 'No, we will go to the land of Egypt, where we shall not see war, or hear the sound of the trumpet, or be hungry for bread, and there we will stay,'

Jeremiah 42:15 then hear the word of the LORD, O remnant of Judah. Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: If you are determined to enter Egypt and go to settle there,

Jeremiah 42:16 then the sword that you fear shall overtake you there, in the land of Egypt; and the famine that you dread shall follow close after you into Egypt; and there you shall die.

Jeremiah 42:17 All the people who have determined to go to Egypt to settle there shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence; they shall have no remnant or survivor from the disaster that I am bringing upon them.

Jeremiah 42:18 "For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Just as my anger and my wrath were poured out on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so my wrath will be poured out on you when you go to Egypt. You shall become an object of execration and horror, of cursing and ridicule. You shall see this place no more.

Jeremiah 42:19 The LORD has said to you, O remnant of Judah, Do not go to Egypt. Be well aware that I have warned you today

Jeremiah 42:20 that you have made a fatal mistake. For you yourselves sent me to the LORD your God, saying, 'Pray for us to the LORD our God, and whatever the LORD our God says, tell us and we will do it.’

Jeremiah 42:21 So I have told you today, but you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God in anything that he sent me to tell you.

Jeremiah 42:22 Be well aware, then, that you shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence in the place where you desire to go and settle.”

Jeremiah 43:1 When Jeremiah finished speaking to all the people all these words of the LORD their God, with which the LORD their God had sent him to them,

Jeremiah 43:2 Azariah son of Hoshaiah and Johanan son of Kareah and all the other insolent men said to Jeremiah, “You are telling a lie. The LORD our God did not send you to say, ‘Do not go to Egypt to settle there’;

Jeremiah 43:3 but Baruch son of Neriah is inciting you against us, to hand us over to the Chaldeans, in order that they may kill us or take us into exile in Babylon.”

Jeremiah 43:4 So Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces and all the people did not obey the voice of the LORD, to stay in the land of Judah.

Jeremiah 43:5 But Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces took all the remnant of Judah who had returned to settle in the land of Judah from all the nations to which they had been driven—

Jeremiah 43:6 the men, the women, the children, the princesses, and everyone whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan; also the prophet Jeremiah and Baruch son of Neriah.

Jeremiah 43:7 And they came into the land of Egypt, for they did not obey the voice of the LORD. And they arrived at Tahpanhes.

Jeremiah 43:8 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes:

Jeremiah 43:9 Take some large stones in your hands, and bury them in the clay pavement that is at the entrance to Pharaoh’s palace in Tahpanhes. Let the Judeans see you do it,

Jeremiah 43:10 and say to them, Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: I am going to send and take my servant King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon, and he will set his throne above these stones that I have buried, and he will spread his royal canopy over them.

Jeremiah 43:11 He shall come and ravage the land of Egypt, giving those who are destined for pestilence, to pestilence, and those who are destined for captivity, to captivity, and those who are destined for the sword, to the sword.

Jeremiah 43:12 He shall kindle a fire in the temples of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them and carry them away captive; and he shall pick clean the land of Egypt, as a shepherd picks his cloak clean of vermin; and he shall depart from there safely.

Jeremiah 43:13 He shall break the obelisks of Heliopolis, which is in the land of Egypt; and the temples of the gods of Egypt he shall burn with fire.

Jeremiah 44:1 The word that came to Jeremiah for all the Judeans living in the land of Egypt, at Migdol, at Tahpanhes, at Memphis, and in the land of Pathros,

Jeremiah 44:2 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: You yourselves have seen all the disaster that I have brought on Jerusalem and on all the towns of Judah. Look at them; today they are a desolation, without an inhabitant in them,

Jeremiah 44:3 because of the wickedness that they committed, provoking me to anger, in that they went to make offerings and serve other gods that they had not known, neither they, nor you, nor your ancestors.

Jeremiah 44:4 Yet I persistently sent to you all my servants the prophets, saying, “I beg you not to do this abominable thing that I hate!”

Jeremiah 44:5 But they did not listen or incline their ear, to turn from their wickedness and make no offerings to other gods.

Jeremiah 44:6 So my wrath and my anger were poured out and kindled in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they became a waste and a desolation, as they still are today.

Jeremiah 44:7 And now thus says the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel: Why are you doing such great harm to yourselves, to cut off man and woman, child and infant, from the midst of Judah, leaving yourselves without a remnant?

Jeremiah 44:8 Why do you provoke me to anger with the works of your hands, making offerings to other gods in the land of Egypt where you have come to settle? Will you be cut off and become an object of cursing and ridicule among all the nations of the earth?

Jeremiah 44:9 Have you forgotten the crimes of your ancestors, of the kings of Judah, of their wives, your own crimes and those of your wives, which they committed in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

Jeremiah 44:10 They have shown no contrition or fear to this day, nor have they walked in my law and my statutes that I set before you and before your ancestors.

Jeremiah 44:11 Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: I am determined to bring disaster on you, to bring all Judah to an end.

Jeremiah 44:12 I will take the remnant of Judah who are determined to come to the land of Egypt to settle, and they shall perish, everyone; in the land of Egypt they shall fall; by the sword and by famine they shall perish; from the least to the greatest, they shall die by the sword and by famine; and they shall become an object of execration and horror, of cursing and ridicule.

Jeremiah 44:13 I will punish those who live in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, with the sword, with famine, and with pestilence,

Jeremiah 44:14 so that none of the remnant of Judah who have come to settle in the land of Egypt shall escape or survive or return to the land of Judah. Although they long to go back to live there, they shall not go back, except some fugitives.

Jeremiah 44:15 Then all the men who were aware that their wives had been making offerings to other gods, and all the women who stood by, a great assembly, all the people who lived in Pathros in the land of Egypt, answered Jeremiah:

Jeremiah 44:16 "As for the word that you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD, we are not going to listen to you.

Jeremiah 44:17 Instead, we will do everything that we have vowed, make offerings to the queen of heaven and pour out libations to her, just as we and our ancestors, our kings and our officials, used to do in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. We used to have plenty of food, and prospered, and saw no misfortune.

Jeremiah 44:18 But from the time we stopped making offerings to the queen of heaven and pouring out libations to her, we have lacked everything and have perished by the sword and by famine."

Jeremiah 44:19 And the women said, "Indeed we will go on making offerings to the queen of heaven and pouring out libations to her; do you think that we made cakes for her, marked with her image, and poured out libations to her without our husbands' being involved?"

Jeremiah 44:20 Then Jeremiah said to all the people, men and women, all the people who were giving him this answer:

Jeremiah 44:21 "As for the offerings that you made in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, you and your ancestors, your kings and your officials, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them? Did it not come into his mind?

Jeremiah 44:22 The LORD could no longer bear the sight of your evil doings, the abominations that you committed; therefore your land became a desolation and a waste and a curse, without inhabitant, as it is to this day.

Jeremiah 44:23 It is because you burned offerings, and because you sinned against the LORD and did not obey the voice of the LORD or walk in his law and in his statutes and in his decrees, that this disaster has befallen you, as is still evident today.”

Jeremiah 44:24 Jeremiah said to all the people and all the women, “Hear the word of the LORD, all you Judeans who are in the land of Egypt,

Jeremiah 44:25 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: You and your wives have accomplished in deeds what you declared in words, saying, ‘We are determined to perform the vows that we have made, to make offerings to the queen of heaven and to pour out libations to her.’ By all means, keep your vows and make your libations!

Jeremiah 44:26 Therefore hear the word of the LORD, all you Judeans who live in the land of Egypt: Lo, I swear by my great name, says the LORD, that my name shall no longer be pronounced on the lips of any of the people of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, ‘As the Lord GOD lives.’

Jeremiah 44:27 I am going to watch over them for harm and not for good; all the people of Judah who are in the land of Egypt shall perish by the sword and by famine, until not one is left.

Jeremiah 44:28 And those who escape the sword shall return from the land of Egypt to the land of Judah, few in number; and all the remnant of Judah, who have come to the land of Egypt to settle, shall know whose words will stand, mine or theirs!

Jeremiah 44:29 This shall be the sign to you, says the LORD, that I am going to punish you in this place, in order that you may know that my words against you will surely be carried out:

Jeremiah 44:30 Thus says the LORD, I am going to give Pharaoh Hophra, king of Egypt, into the hands of his enemies, those who seek his life, just as I gave King Zedekiah of Judah into the hand of King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon, his enemy who sought his life.”

Jeremiah 45:1 The word that the prophet Jeremiah spoke to Baruch son of Neriah, when he wrote these words in a scroll at the dictation of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of King Jehoiakim son of Josiah of Judah:

Jeremiah 45:2 Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to you, O Baruch:

Jeremiah 45:3 You said, “Woe is me! The LORD has added sorrow to my pain; I am weary with my groaning, and I find no rest.”

Jeremiah 45:4 Thus you shall say to him, “Thus says the LORD: I am going to break down what I have built, and pluck up what I have planted— that is, the whole land.

Jeremiah 45:5 And you, do you seek great things for yourself? Do not seek them; for I am going to bring disaster upon all flesh, says the LORD; but I will give you your life as a prize of war in every place to which you may go.”

Jeremiah 46:1 The word of the LORD that came to the prophet Jeremiah concerning the nations.

Jeremiah 46:2 Concerning Egypt, about the army of Pharaoh Neco, king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates at Carchemish and which King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon defeated in the fourth year of King Jehoiakim son of Josiah of Judah:

Jeremiah 46:3 Prepare buckler and shield, and advance for battle!

Jeremiah 46:4 Harness the horses; mount the steeds! Take your stations with your helmets, whet your lances, put on your coats of mail!

Jeremiah 46:5 Why do I see them terrified? They have fallen back; their warriors are beaten down, and have fled in haste. They do not look back— terror is all around! says the LORD.

Jeremiah 46:6 The swift cannot flee away, nor can the warrior escape; in the north by the river Euphrates they have stumbled and fallen.

Jeremiah 46:7 Who is this, rising like the Nile, like rivers whose waters surge?

Jeremiah 46:8 Egypt rises like the Nile, like rivers whose waters surge. It said, Let me rise, let me cover the earth, let me destroy cities and their inhabitants.

Jeremiah 46:9 Advance, O horses, and dash madly, O chariots! Let the warriors go forth: Ethiopia and Put who carry the shield, the Ludim, who draw the bow.

Jeremiah 46:10 That day is the day of the Lord GOD of hosts, a day of retribution, to gain vindication from his foes. The sword shall devour and be sated, and drink its fill of their blood. For the Lord GOD of hosts holds a sacrifice in the land of the north by the river Euphrates.

Jeremiah 46:11 Go up to Gilead, and take balm, O virgin daughter Egypt! In vain you have used many medicines; there is no healing for you.

Jeremiah 46:12 The nations have heard of your shame, and the earth is full of your cry; for warrior has stumbled against warrior; both have fallen together.

Jeremiah 46:13 The word that the LORD spoke to the prophet Jeremiah about the coming of King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon to attack the land of Egypt:

Jeremiah 46:14 Declare in Egypt, and proclaim in Migdol; proclaim in Memphis and Tahpanhes; Say, “Take your stations and be ready, for the sword shall devour those around you.”

Jeremiah 46:15 Why has Apis fled? Why did your bull not stand?— because the LORD thrust him down.

Jeremiah 46:16 Your multitude stumbled and fell, and one said to another, “Come, let us go back to our own people and to the land of our birth, because of the destroying sword.”

Jeremiah 46:17 Give Pharaoh, king of Egypt, the name “Braggart who missed his chance.”

Jeremiah 46:18 As I live, says the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts, one is coming like Tabor among the mountains, and like Carmel by the sea.

Jeremiah 46:19 Pack your bags for exile, sheltered daughter Egypt! For Memphis shall become a waste, a ruin, without inhabitant.

Jeremiah 46:20 A beautiful heifer is Egypt— a gadfly from the north lights upon her.

Jeremiah 46:21 Even her mercenaries in her midst are like fatted calves; they too have turned and fled together, they did not stand; for the day of their calamity has come upon them, the time of their punishment.

Jeremiah 46:22 She makes a sound like a snake gliding away; for her enemies march in force, and come against her with axes, like those who fell trees.

Jeremiah 46:23 They shall cut down her forest, says the LORD, though it is impenetrable, because they are more numerous than locusts; they are without number.

Jeremiah 46:24 Daughter Egypt shall be put to shame; she shall be handed over to a people from the north.

Jeremiah 46:25 The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, said: See, I am bringing punishment upon Amon of Thebes, and Pharaoh, and Egypt and her gods and her kings, upon Pharaoh and those who trust in him.

Jeremiah 46:26 I will hand them over to those who seek their life, to King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon and his officers. Afterward Egypt shall be inhabited as in the days of old, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 46:27 But as for you, have no fear, my servant Jacob, and do not be dismayed, O Israel; for I am going to save you from far away, and your offspring from the land of their captivity. Jacob shall return and have quiet and ease, and no one shall make him afraid.

Jeremiah 46:28 As for you, have no fear, my servant Jacob, says the LORD, for I am with you. I will make an end of all the nations among which I have banished you, but I will not make an end of you! I will chastise you in just measure, and I will by no means leave you unpunished.

Jeremiah 47:1 The word of the LORD that came to the prophet Jeremiah concerning the Philistines, before Pharaoh attacked Gaza:

Jeremiah 47:2 Thus says the LORD: See, waters are rising out of the north and shall become an overflowing torrent; they shall overflow the land and all that fills it, the city and those who live in it. People shall cry out, and all the inhabitants of the land shall wail.

Jeremiah 47:3 At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his stallions, at the clatter of his chariots, at the rumbling of their wheels, parents do not turn back for children, so feeble are their hands,

Jeremiah 47:4 because of the day that is coming to destroy all the Philistines, to cut off from Tyre and Sidon every helper that remains. For the LORD is destroying the Philistines, the remnant of the coastland of Caphtor.

Jeremiah 47:5 Baldness has come upon Gaza, Ashkelon is silenced. O remnant of their power! How long will you gash yourselves?

Jeremiah 47:6 Ah, sword of the LORD! How long until you are quiet? Put yourself into your scabbard, rest and be still!

Jeremiah 47:7 How can it be quiet, when the LORD has given it an order? Against Ashkelon and against the seashore— there he has appointed it.

Jeremiah 48:1 Concerning Moab. Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Alas for Nebo, it is laid waste! Kiriathaim is put to shame, it is taken; the fortress is put to shame and broken down;

Jeremiah 48:2 the renown of Moab is no more. In Heshbon they planned evil against her: “Come, let us cut her off from being a nation!” You also, O Madmen, shall be brought to silence; the sword shall pursue you.

Jeremiah 48:3 Hark! a cry from Horonaim, “Desolation and great destruction!”

Jeremiah 48:4 “Moab is destroyed!” her little ones cry out.

Jeremiah 48:5 For at the ascent of Luhith they go up weeping bitterly; for at the descent of Horonaim they have heard the distressing cry of anguish.

Jeremiah 48:6 Flee! Save yourselves! Be like a wild ass in the desert!

Jeremiah 48:7 Surely, because you trusted in your strongholds and your treasures, you also shall be taken; Chemosh shall go out into exile, with his priests and his attendants.

Jeremiah 48:8 The destroyer shall come upon every town, and no town shall escape; the valley shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed, as the LORD has spoken.

Jeremiah 48:9 Set aside salt for Moab, for she will surely fall; her towns shall become a desolation, with no inhabitant in them.

Jeremiah 48:10 Accursed is the one who is slack in doing the work of the LORD; and accursed is the one who keeps back the sword from bloodshed.

Jeremiah 48:11 Moab has been at ease from his youth, settled like wine on its dregs; he has not been emptied from vessel to vessel, nor has he gone into exile; therefore his flavor has remained and his aroma is unspoiled.

Jeremiah 48:12 Therefore, the time is surely coming, says the LORD, when I shall send to him decanters to decant him, and empty his vessels, and break his jars in pieces.

Jeremiah 48:13 Then Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel, their confidence.

Jeremiah 48:14 How can you say, “We are heroes and mighty warriors”?

Jeremiah 48:15 The destroyer of Moab and his towns has come up, and the choicest of his young men have gone down to slaughter, says the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

Jeremiah 48:16 The calamity of Moab is near at hand and his doom approaches swiftly.

Jeremiah 48:17 Mourn over him, all you his neighbors, and all who know his name; say, “How the mighty scepter is broken, the glorious staff!”

Jeremiah 48:18 Come down from glory, and sit on the parched ground, enthroned daughter Dibon! For the destroyer of Moab has come up against you; he has destroyed your strongholds.

Jeremiah 48:19 Stand by the road and watch, you inhabitant of Aroer! Ask the man fleeing and the woman escaping; say, “What has happened?”

Jeremiah 48:20 Moab is put to shame, for it is broken down; wail and cry! Tell it by the Arnon, that Moab is laid waste.

Jeremiah 48:21 Judgment has come upon the tableland, upon Holon, and Jahzah, and Mephaath,

Jeremiah 48:22 and Dibon, and Nebo, and Beth-diblathaim,

Jeremiah 48:23 and Kiriathaim, and Beth-gamul, and Beth-meon,

Jeremiah 48:24 and Kerioth, and Bozrah, and all the towns of the land of Moab, far and near.

Jeremiah 48:25 The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 48:26 Make him drunk, because he magnified himself against the LORD; let Moab wallow in his vomit; he too shall become a laughingstock.

Jeremiah 48:27 Israel was a laughingstock for you, though he was not caught among thieves; but whenever you spoke of him you shook your head!

Jeremiah 48:28 Leave the towns, and live on the rock, O inhabitants of Moab! Be like the dove that nests on the sides of the mouth of a gorge.

Jeremiah 48:29 We have heard of the pride of Moab— he is very proud— of his loftiness, his pride, and his arrogance, and the haughtiness of his heart.

Jeremiah 48:30 I myself know his insolence, says the LORD; his boasts are false, his deeds are false.

Jeremiah 48:31 Therefore I wail for Moab; I cry out for all Moab; for the people of Kir-heres I mourn.

Jeremiah 48:32 More than for Jazer I weep for you, O vine of Sibmah! Your branches crossed over the sea, reached as far as Jazer; upon your summer fruits and your vintage the destroyer has fallen.

Jeremiah 48:33 Gladness and joy have been taken away from the fruitful land of Moab; I have stopped the wine from the wine presses; no one treads them with shouts of joy; the shouting is not the shout of joy.

Jeremiah 48:34 Heshbon and Elealeh cry out; as far as Jahaz they utter their voice, from Zoar to Horonaim and Eglath-shelishiyah. For even the waters of Nimrim have become desolate.

Jeremiah 48:35 And I will bring to an end in Moab, says the LORD, those who offer sacrifice at a high place and make offerings to their gods.

Jeremiah 48:36 Therefore my heart moans for Moab like a flute, and my heart moans like a flute for the people of Kir-heres; for the riches they gained have perished.

Jeremiah 48:37 For every head is shaved and every beard cut off; on all the hands there are gashes, and on the loins sackcloth.

Jeremiah 48:38 On all the housetops of Moab and in the squares there is nothing but lamentation; for I have broken Moab like a vessel that no one wants, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 48:39 How it is broken! How they wail! How Moab has turned his back in shame! So Moab has become a derision and a horror to all his neighbors.

Jeremiah 48:40 For thus says the LORD: Look, he shall swoop down like an eagle, and spread his wings against Moab;

Jeremiah 48:41 the towns shall be taken and the strongholds seized. The hearts of the warriors of Moab, on that day, shall be like the heart of a woman in labor.

Jeremiah 48:42 Moab shall be destroyed as a people, because he magnified himself against the LORD.

Jeremiah 48:43 Terror, pit, and trap are before you, O inhabitants of Moab! says the LORD.

Jeremiah 48:44 Everyone who flees from the terror shall fall into the pit, and everyone who climbs out of the pit shall be caught in the trap.

For I will bring these things upon Moab in the year of their punishment, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 48:45 In the shadow of Heshbon fugitives stop exhausted; for a fire has gone out from Heshbon, a flame from the house of Sihon; it has destroyed the forehead of Moab, the scalp of the people of tumult.

Jeremiah 48:46 Woe to you, O Moab! The people of Chemosh have perished, for your sons have been taken captive, and your daughters into captivity.

Jeremiah 48:47 Yet I will restore the fortunes of Moab in the latter days, says the LORD. Thus far is the judgment on Moab.

Jeremiah 49:1 Concerning the Ammonites. Thus says the LORD: Has Israel no sons? Has he no heir? Why then has Milcom dispossessed Gad, and his people settled in its towns?

Jeremiah 49:2 Therefore, the time is surely coming, says the LORD, when I will sound the battle alarm against Rabbah of the Ammonites; it shall become a desolate mound, and its villages shall be burned with fire; then Israel shall dispossess those who dispossessed him, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 49:3 Wail, O Heshbon, for Ai is laid waste! Cry out, O daughters of Rabbah! Put on sackcloth, lament, and slash yourselves with whips! For Milcom shall go into exile, with his priests and his attendants.

Jeremiah 49:4 Why do you boast in your strength? Your strength is ebbing, O faithless daughter. You trusted in your treasures, saying, “Who will attack me?”

Jeremiah 49:5 I am going to bring terror upon you, says the Lord GOD of hosts, from all your neighbors, and you will be scattered, each headlong, with no one to gather the fugitives.

Jeremiah 49:6 But afterward I will restore the fortunes of the Ammonites, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 49:7 Concerning Edom. Thus says the LORD of hosts: Is there no longer wisdom in Teman? Has counsel perished from the prudent? Has their wisdom vanished?

Jeremiah 49:8 Flee, turn back, get down low, inhabitants of Dedan! For I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him, the time when I punish him.

Jeremiah 49:9 If grape-gatherers came to you, would they not leave gleanings? If thieves came by night, even they would pillage only what they wanted.

Jeremiah 49:10 But as for me, I have stripped Esau bare, I have uncovered his hiding places, and he is not able to conceal himself. His offspring are destroyed, his kinsfolk and his neighbors; and he is no more.

Jeremiah 49:11 Leave your orphans, I will keep them alive; and let your widows trust in me.

Jeremiah 49:12 For thus says the LORD: If those who do not deserve to drink the cup still have to drink it, shall you be the one to go unpunished? You shall not go unpunished; you must drink it.

Jeremiah 49:13 For by myself I have sworn, says the LORD, that Bozrah shall become an object of horror and ridicule, a waste, and an object of cursing; and all her towns shall be perpetual wastes.

Jeremiah 49:14 I have heard tidings from the LORD, and a messenger has been sent among the nations: “Gather yourselves together and come against her, and rise up for battle!”

Jeremiah 49:15 For I will make you least among the nations, despised by humankind.

Jeremiah 49:16 The terror you inspire and the pride of your heart have deceived you, you who live in the clefts of the rock, who hold the height of the hill. Although you make your nest as high as the eagle’s, from there I will bring you down, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 49:17 Edom shall become an object of horror; everyone who passes by it will be horrified and will hiss because of all its disasters.

Jeremiah 49:18 As when Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbors were overthrown, says the LORD, no one shall live there, nor shall anyone settle in it.

Jeremiah 49:19 Like a lion coming up from the thickets of the Jordan against a perennial pasture, I will suddenly chase Edom away from it; and I will appoint over it whomever I choose. For who is like me? Who can summon me? Who is the shepherd who can stand before me?

Jeremiah 49:20 Therefore hear the plan that the LORD has made against Edom and the purposes that he has formed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely the little ones of the flock shall be dragged away; surely their fold shall be appalled at their fate.

Jeremiah 49:22 Look, he shall mount up and swoop down like an eagle, and spread his wings against Bozrah, and the heart of the warriors of Edom in that day shall be like the heart of a woman in labor.

Jeremiah 49:23 Concerning Damascus. Hamath and Arpad are confounded, for they have heard bad news; they melt in fear, they are troubled like the sea that cannot be quiet.

Jeremiah 49:24 Damascus has become feeble, she turned to flee, and panic seized her; anguish and sorrows have taken hold of her, as of a woman in labor.

Jeremiah 49:25 How the famous city is forsaken, the joyful town!

Jeremiah 49:26 Therefore her young men shall fall in her squares, and all her soldiers shall be destroyed in that day, says the LORD of hosts.

Jeremiah 49:27 And I will kindle a fire at the wall of Damascus, and it shall devour the strongholds of Ben-hadad.

Jeremiah 49:28 Concerning Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor that King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon defeated. Thus says the LORD: Rise up, advance against Kedar! Destroy the people of the east!

Jeremiah 49:29 Take their tents and their flocks, their curtains and all their goods; carry off their camels for yourselves, and a cry shall go up: “Terror is all around!”

Jeremiah 49:30 Flee, wander far away, hide in deep places, O inhabitants of Hazor! says the LORD. For King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon has made a plan against you and formed a purpose against you.

Jeremiah 49:31 Rise up, advance against a nation at ease, that lives secure, says the LORD, that has no gates or bars, that lives alone.

Jeremiah 49:32 Their camels shall become booty, their herds of cattle a spoil. I will scatter to every wind those who have shaven temples, and I will bring calamity against them from every side, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 49:33 Hazor shall become a lair of jackals, an everlasting waste; no one shall live there, nor shall anyone settle in it.

Jeremiah 49:34 The word of the LORD that came to the prophet Jeremiah concerning Elam, at the beginning of the reign of King Zedekiah of Judah.

Jeremiah 49:35 Thus says the LORD of hosts: I am going to break the bow of Elam, the mainstay of their might;

Jeremiah 49:36 and I will bring upon Elam the four winds from the four quarters of heaven; and I will scatter them to all these winds, and there shall be no nation to which the exiles from Elam shall not come.

Jeremiah 49:37 I will terrify Elam before their enemies, and before those who seek their life; I will bring disaster upon them, my fierce anger, says the LORD. I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them;

Jeremiah 49:38 and I will set my throne in Elam, and destroy their king and officials, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 49:39 But in the latter days I will restore the fortunes of Elam, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 50:1 The word that the LORD spoke concerning Babylon, concerning the land of the Chaldeans, by the prophet Jeremiah:

Jeremiah 50:2 Declare among the nations and proclaim, set up a banner and proclaim, do not conceal it, say: Babylon is taken, Bel is put to shame, Merodach is dismayed. Her images are put to shame, her idols are dismayed.

Jeremiah 50:3 For out of the north a nation has come up against her; it shall make her land a desolation, and no one shall live in it; both human beings and animals shall flee away.

Jeremiah 50:4 In those days and in that time, says the LORD, the people of Israel shall come, they and the people of Judah together; they shall come weeping as they seek the LORD their God.

Jeremiah 50:5 They shall ask the way to Zion, with faces turned toward it, and they shall come and join themselves to the LORD by an everlasting covenant that will never be forgotten.

Jeremiah 50:6 My people have been lost sheep; their shepherds have led them astray, turning them away on the mountains; from mountain to hill they have gone, they have forgotten their fold.

Jeremiah 50:7 All who found them have devoured them, and their enemies have said, “We are not guilty, because they have sinned against the LORD, the true pasture, the LORD, the hope of their ancestors.”

Jeremiah 50:8 Flee from Babylon, and go out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be like male goats leading the flock.

Jeremiah 50:9 For I am going to stir up and bring against Babylon a company of great nations from the land of the north; and they shall array themselves against her; from there she shall be taken. Their arrows are like the arrows of a skilled warrior who does not return empty-handed.

Jeremiah 50:10 Chaldea shall be plundered; all who plunder her shall be sated, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 50:11 Though you rejoice, though you exult, O plunderers of my heritage, though you frisk about like a heifer on the grass, and neigh like stallions,

Jeremiah 50:12 your mother shall be utterly shamed, and she who bore you shall be disgraced. Lo, she shall be the last of the nations, a wilderness, dry land, and a desert.

Jeremiah 50:13 Because of the wrath of the LORD she shall not be inhabited, but shall be an utter desolation; everyone who passes by Babylon shall be appalled and hiss because of all her wounds.

Jeremiah 50:14 Take up your positions around Babylon, all you that bend the bow; shoot at her, spare no arrows, for she has sinned against the LORD.

Jeremiah 50:15 Raise a shout against her from all sides, “She has surrendered; her bulwarks have fallen, her walls are thrown down.” For this is the vengeance of the LORD: take vengeance on her, do to her as she has done.

Jeremiah 50:16 Cut off from Babylon the sower, and the wielder of the sickle in time of harvest; because of the destroying sword all of them shall return to their own people, and all of them shall flee to their own land.

Jeremiah 50:17 Israel is a hunted sheep driven away by lions. First the king of Assyria devoured it, and now at the end King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon has gnawed its bones.

Jeremiah 50:18 Therefore, thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: I am going to punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I punished the king of Assyria.

Jeremiah 50:19 I will restore Israel to its pasture, and it shall feed on Carmel and in Bashan, and on the hills of Ephraim and in Gilead its hunger shall be satisfied.

Jeremiah 50:20 In those days and at that time, says the LORD, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and none shall be found; for I will pardon the remnant that I have spared.

Jeremiah 50:21 Go up to the land of Merathaim; go up against her, and attack the inhabitants of Pekod and utterly destroy the last of them, says the LORD; do all that I have commanded you.

Jeremiah 50:22 The noise of battle is in the land, and great destruction!

Jeremiah 50:23 How the hammer of the whole earth is cut down and broken! How Babylon has become a horror among the nations!

Jeremiah 50:24 You set a snare for yourself and you were caught, O Babylon, but you did not know it; you were discovered and seized, because you challenged the LORD.

Jeremiah 50:25 The LORD has opened his armory, and brought out the weapons of his wrath, for the Lord GOD of hosts has a task to do in the land of the Chaldeans.

Jeremiah 50:26 Come against her from every quarter; open her granaries; pile her up like heaps of grain, and destroy her utterly; let nothing be left of her.

Jeremiah 50:27 Kill all her bulls, let them go down to the slaughter. Alas for them, their day has come, the time of their punishment!

Jeremiah 50:28 Listen! Fugitives and refugees from the land of Babylon are coming to declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, vengeance for his temple.

Jeremiah 50:29 Summon archers against Babylon, all who bend the bow. Encamp all around her; let no one escape. Repay her according to her deeds; just as she has done, do to her— for she has arrogantly defied the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.

Jeremiah 50:30 Therefore her young men shall fall in her squares, and all her soldiers shall be destroyed on that day, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 50:31 I am against you, O arrogant one, says the Lord GOD of hosts; for your day has come, the time when I will punish you.

Jeremiah 50:32 The arrogant one shall stumble and fall, with no one to raise him up, and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it will devour everything around him.

Jeremiah 50:33 Thus says the LORD of hosts: The people of Israel are oppressed, and so too are the people of Judah; all their captors have held them fast and refuse to let them go.

Jeremiah 50:34 Their Redeemer is strong; the LORD of hosts is his name. He will surely plead their cause, that he may give rest to the earth, but unrest to the inhabitants of Babylon.

Jeremiah 50:35 A sword against the Chaldeans, says the LORD, and against the inhabitants of Babylon, and against her officials and her sages!

Jeremiah 50:36 A sword against the diviners, so that they may become fools! A sword against her warriors, so that they may be destroyed!

Jeremiah 50:37 A sword against her horses and against her chariots, and against all the foreign troops in her midst, so that they may become women! A sword against all her treasures, that they may be plundered!

Jeremiah 50:38 A drought against her waters, that they may be dried up! For it is a land of images, and they go mad over idols.

Jeremiah 50:39 Therefore wild animals shall live with hyenas in Babylon, and ostriches shall inhabit her; she shall never again be peopled, or inhabited for all generations.

Jeremiah 50:40 As when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbors, says the LORD, so no one shall live there, nor shall anyone settle in her.

Jeremiah 50:41 Look, a people is coming from the north; a mighty nation and many kings are stirring from the farthest parts of the earth.

Jeremiah 50:42 They wield bow and spear, they are cruel and have no mercy. The sound of them is like the roaring sea; they ride upon horses, set in array as a warrior for battle, against you, O daughter Babylon!

Jeremiah 50:43 The king of Babylon heard news of them, and his hands fell helpless; anguish seized him, pain like that of a woman in labor.

Jeremiah 50:44 Like a lion coming up from the thickets of the Jordan against a perennial pasture, I will suddenly chase them away from her; and I will appoint over her whomever I choose. For who is like me? Who can summon me? Who is the shepherd who can stand before me?

Jeremiah 50:45 Therefore hear the plan that the LORD has made against Babylon, and the purposes that he has formed against the land of the Chaldeans: Surely the little ones of the flock shall be dragged away; surely their fold shall be appalled at their fate.

Jeremiah 50:46 At the sound of the capture of Babylon the earth shall tremble, and her cry shall be heard among the nations.

Jeremiah 51:1 Thus says the LORD: I am going to stir up a destructive wind against Babylon and against the inhabitants of Leb-qamai;

Jeremiah 51:2 and I will send winnowers to Babylon, and they shall winnow her. They shall empty her land when they come against her from every side on the day of trouble.

Jeremiah 51:3 Let not the archer bend his bow, and let him not array himself in his coat of mail. Do not spare her young men; utterly destroy her entire army.

Jeremiah 51:4 They shall fall down slain in the land of the Chaldeans, and wounded in her streets.

Jeremiah 51:5 Israel and Judah have not been forsaken by their God, the LORD of hosts, though their land is full of guilt before the Holy One of Israel.

Jeremiah 51:6 Flee from the midst of Babylon, save your lives, each of you! Do not perish because of her guilt, for this is the time of the LORD’s vengeance; he is repaying her what is due.

Jeremiah 51:7 Babylon was a golden cup in the LORD’s hand, making all the earth drunken; the nations drank of her wine, and so the nations went mad.

Jeremiah 51:8 Suddenly Babylon has fallen and is shattered; wail for her! Bring balm for her wound; perhaps she may be healed.

Jeremiah 51:9 We tried to heal Babylon, but she could not be healed. Forsake her, and let each of us go to our own country; for her judgment has reached up to heaven and has been lifted up even to the skies.

Jeremiah 51:10 The LORD has brought forth our vindication; come, let us declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God.

Jeremiah 51:11 Sharpen the arrows! Fill the quivers! The LORD has stirred up the spirit of the kings of the Medes, because his purpose concerning Babylon is to destroy it, for that is the vengeance of the LORD, vengeance for his temple.

Jeremiah 51:12 Raise a standard against the walls of Babylon; make the watch strong; post sentinels; prepare the ambushes; for the LORD has both planned and done what he spoke concerning the inhabitants of Babylon.

Jeremiah 51:13 You who live by mighty waters, rich in treasures, your end has come, the thread of your life is cut.

Jeremiah 51:14 The LORD of hosts has sworn by himself: Surely I will fill you with troops like a swarm of locusts, and they shall raise a shout of victory over you.

Jeremiah 51:15 It is he who made the earth by his power, who established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding stretched out the heavens.

Jeremiah 51:16 When he utters his voice there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and he makes the mist rise from the ends of the earth. He makes lightnings for the rain, and he brings out the wind from his storehouses.

Jeremiah 51:17 Everyone is stupid and without knowledge; goldsmiths are all put to shame by their idols; for their images are false, and there is no breath in them.

Jeremiah 51:18 They are worthless, a work of delusion; at the time of their punishment they shall perish.

Jeremiah 51:19 Not like these is the LORD, the portion of Jacob, for he is the one who formed all things, and Israel is the tribe of his inheritance; the LORD of hosts is his name.

Jeremiah 51:20 You are my war club, my weapon of battle: with you I smash nations; with you I destroy kingdoms;

Jeremiah 51:21 with you I smash the horse and its rider; with you I smash the chariot and the charioteer;

Jeremiah 51:22 with you I smash man and woman; with you I smash the old man and the boy; with you I smash the young man and the girl;

Jeremiah 51:23 with you I smash shepherds and their flocks; with you I smash farmers and their teams; with you I smash governors and deputies.

Jeremiah 51:24 I will repay Babylon and all the inhabitants of Chaldea before your very eyes for all the wrong that they have done in Zion, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 51:25 I am against you, O destroying mountain, says the LORD, that destroys the whole earth; I will stretch out my hand against you, and roll you down from the crags, and make you a burned-out mountain.

Jeremiah 51:26 No stone shall be taken from you for a corner and no stone for a foundation, but you shall be a perpetual waste, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 51:27 Raise a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations; prepare the nations for war against her, summon against her the kingdoms, Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz; appoint a marshal against her, bring up horses like bristling locusts.

Jeremiah 51:28 Prepare the nations for war against her, the kings of the Medes, with their governors and deputies, and every land under their dominion.

Jeremiah 51:29 The land trembles and writhes, for the LORD's purposes against Babylon stand, to make the land of Babylon a desolation, without inhabitant.

Jeremiah 51:30 The warriors of Babylon have given up fighting, they remain in their strongholds; their strength has failed, they have become women; her buildings are set on fire, her bars are broken.

Jeremiah 51:31 One runner runs to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to tell the king of Babylon that his city is taken from end to end:

Jeremiah 51:32 the fords have been seized, the marshes have been burned with fire, and the soldiers are in panic.

Jeremiah 51:33 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Daughter Babylon is like a threshing floor at the time when it is trodden; yet a little while and the time of her harvest will come.

Jeremiah 51:34 "King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon has devoured me, he has crushed me; he has made me an empty vessel, he has swallowed me like a monster; he has filled his belly with my delicacies, he has spewed me out.

Jeremiah 51:35 May my torn flesh be avenged on Babylon," the inhabitants of Zion shall say. "May my blood be avenged on the inhabitants of Chaldea," Jerusalem shall say.

Jeremiah 51:36 Therefore thus says the LORD: I am going to defend your cause and take vengeance for you. I will dry up her sea and make her fountain dry;

Jeremiah 51:37 and Babylon shall become a heap of ruins, a den of jackals, an object of horror and of hissing, without inhabitant.

Jeremiah 51:39 When they are inflamed, I will set out their drink and make them drunk, until they become merry and then sleep a perpetual sleep and never wake, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 51:40 I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams and goats.

Jeremiah 51:41 How Sheshach is taken, the pride of the whole earth seized! How Babylon has become an object of horror among the nations!

Jeremiah 51:42 The sea has risen over Babylon; she has been covered by its tumultuous waves.

Jeremiah 51:43 Her cities have become an object of horror, a land of drought and a desert, a land in which no one lives, and through which no mortal passes.

Jeremiah 51:44 I will punish Bel in Babylon, and make him disgorge what he has swallowed. The nations shall no longer stream to him; the wall of Babylon has fallen.

Jeremiah 51:45 Come out of her, my people! Save your lives, each of you, from the fierce anger of the LORD!

Jeremiah 51:46 Do not be fainthearted or fearful at the rumors heard in the land— one year one rumor comes, the next year another, rumors of violence in the land and of ruler against ruler.

Jeremiah 51:47 Assuredly, the days are coming when I will punish the images of Babylon; her whole land shall be put to shame, and all her slain shall fall in her midst.

Jeremiah 51:48 Then the heavens and the earth, and all that is in them, shall shout for joy over Babylon; for the destroyers shall come against them out of the north, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 51:49 Babylon must fall for the slain of Israel, as the slain of all the earth have fallen because of Babylon.

Jeremiah 51:50 You survivors of the sword, go, do not linger! Remember the LORD in a distant land, and let Jerusalem come into your mind:

Jeremiah 51:51 We are put to shame, for we have heard insults; dishonor has covered our face, for aliens have come into the holy places of the LORD’s house.

Jeremiah 51:52 Therefore the time is surely coming, says the LORD, when I will punish her idols, and through all her land the wounded shall groan.

Jeremiah 51:53 Though Babylon should mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify her strong height, from me destroyers would come upon her, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 51:54 Listen!— a cry from Babylon! A great crashing from the land of the Chaldeans!

Jeremiah 51:55 For the LORD is laying Babylon waste, and stilling her loud clamor. Their waves roar like mighty waters, the sound of their clamor resounds;

Jeremiah 51:56 for a destroyer has come against her, against Babylon; her warriors are taken, their bows are broken; for the LORD is a God of recompense, he will repay in full.

Jeremiah 51:57 I will make her officials and her sages drunk, also her governors, her deputies, and her warriors; they shall sleep a perpetual sleep and never wake, says the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

Jeremiah 51:58 Thus says the LORD of hosts: The broad wall of Babylon shall be leveled to the ground, and her high gates shall be burned with fire. The peoples exhaust themselves for nothing, and the nations weary themselves only for fire.

Jeremiah 51:59 The word that the prophet Jeremiah commanded Seraiah son of Neriah son of Mahseiah, when he went with King Zedekiah of Judah to Babylon, in the fourth year of his reign. Seraiah was the quartermaster.

Jeremiah 51:60 Jeremiah wrote in a scroll all the disasters that would come on Babylon, all these words that are written concerning Babylon.

Jeremiah 51:61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah: “When you come to Babylon, see that you read all these words,

Jeremiah 51:62 and say, ‘O LORD, you yourself threatened to destroy this place so that neither human beings nor animals shall live in it, and it shall be desolate forever.’

Jeremiah 51:63 When you finish reading this scroll, tie a stone to it, and throw it into the middle of the Euphrates,

Jeremiah 51:64 and say, ‘Thus shall Babylon sink, to rise no more, because of the disasters that I am bringing on her.’“ Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

Jeremiah 52:1 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

Jeremiah 52:2 He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, just as Jehoiakim had done.

Jeremiah 52:3 Indeed, Jerusalem and Judah so angered the LORD that he expelled them from his presence. Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

Jeremiah 52:4 And in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon came with all his army against Jerusalem, and they laid siege to it; they built siegeworks against it all around.

Jeremiah 52:5 So the city was besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

Jeremiah 52:6 On the ninth day of the fourth month the famine became so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land.

Jeremiah 52:7 Then a breach was made in the city wall; and all the soldiers fled and went out from the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, by the king’s garden, though the Chaldeans were all around the city. They went in the direction of the Arabah.

Jeremiah 52:8 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered, deserting him.

Jeremiah 52:9 Then they captured the king, and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, and he passed sentence on him.

Jeremiah 52:10 The king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and also killed all the officers of Judah at Riblah.

Jeremiah 52:11 He put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him in fetters, and the king of Babylon took him to Babylon, and put him in prison until the day of his death.

Jeremiah 52:12 In the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month— which was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon— Nebuzaradan the captain of the bodyguard who served the king of Babylon, entered Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 52:13 He burned the house of the LORD, the king’s house, and all the houses of Jerusalem; every great house he burned down.

Jeremiah 52:14 All the army of the Chaldeans, who were with the captain of the guard, broke down all the walls around Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 52:15 Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried into exile some of the poorest of the people and the rest of the people who were left in the city and the deserters who had defected to the king of Babylon, together with the rest of the artisans.

Jeremiah 52:16 But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left some of the poorest people of the land to be vinedressers and tillers of the soil.

Jeremiah 52:17 The pillars of bronze that were in the house of the LORD, and the stands and the bronze sea that were in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke in pieces, and carried all the bronze to Babylon.

Jeremiah 52:18 They took away the pots, the shovels, the snuffers, the basins, the ladles, and all the vessels of bronze used in the temple service.

Jeremiah 52:19 The captain of the guard took away the small bowls also, the firepans, the basins, the pots, the lampstands, the ladles, and the bowls for libation, both those of gold and those of silver.

Jeremiah 52:20 As for the two pillars, the one sea, the twelve bronze bulls that were under the sea, and the stands, which King Solomon had made for the house of the LORD, the bronze of all these vessels was beyond weighing.

Jeremiah 52:21 As for the pillars, the height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, its circumference was twelve cubits; it was hollow and its thickness was four fingers.

Jeremiah 52:22 Upon it was a capital of bronze; the height of the one capital was five cubits; latticework and pomegranates, all of bronze, encircled the top of the capital. And the second pillar had the same, with pomegranates.

Jeremiah 52:23 There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; all the pomegranates encircling the latticework numbered one hundred.

Jeremiah 52:24 The captain of the guard took the chief priest Seraiah, the second priest Zephaniah, and the three guardians of the threshold;

Jeremiah 52:25 and from the city he took an officer who had been in command of the soldiers, and seven men of the king's council who were found in the city; the secretary of the commander of the army who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land who were found inside the city.

Jeremiah 52:26 Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.

Jeremiah 52:27 And the king of Babylon struck them down, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah went into exile out of its land.

Jeremiah 52:28 This is the number of the people whom Nebuchadrezzar took into exile: in the seventh year, three thousand twenty-three Judeans;

Jeremiah 52:29 in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar he took into exile from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty-two persons;

Jeremiah 52:30 in the twenty-third year of Nebuchadrezzar, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took into exile of the Judeans seven hundred forty-five persons; all the persons were four thousand six hundred.

Jeremiah 52:31 In the thirty-seventh year of the exile of King Jehoiachin of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-fifth day of the month, King Evil-merodach of Babylon, in the year he began to reign, showed favor to King Jehoiachin of Judah and brought him out of prison;

Jeremiah 52:32 he spoke kindly to him, and gave him a seat above the seats of the other kings who were with him in Babylon.

Jeremiah 52:33 So Jehoiachin put aside his prison clothes, and every day of his life he dined regularly at the king's table.

Jeremiah 52:34 For his allowance, a regular daily allowance was given him by the king of Babylon, as long as he lived, up to the day of his death.

Lamentations

1:1 How lonely sits the city that once was full of people! How like a widow she has become, she that was great among the nations! She that was a princess among the provinces has become a vassal.

Lamentations 1:2 She weeps bitterly in the night, with tears on her cheeks; among all her lovers she has no one to comfort her; all her friends have dealt treacherously with her, they have become her enemies.

Lamentations 1:3 Judah has gone into exile with suffering and hard servitude; she lives now among the nations, and finds no resting place; her pursuers have all overtaken her in the midst of her distress.

Lamentations 1:4 The roads to Zion mourn, for no one comes to the festivals; all her gates are desolate, her priests groan; her young girls grieve, and her lot is bitter.

Lamentations 1:5 Her foes have become the masters, her enemies prosper, because the LORD has made her suffer for the multitude of her transgressions; her children have gone away, captives before the foe.

Lamentations 1:6 From daughter Zion has departed all her majesty. Her princes have become like stags that find no pasture; they fled without strength before the pursuer.

Lamentations 1:7 Jerusalem remembers, in the days of her affliction and wandering, all the precious things that were hers in days of old. When her people fell into the hand of the foe, and there was no one to help her, the foe looked on mocking over her downfall.

Lamentations 1:8 Jerusalem sinned grievously, so she has become a mockery; all who honored her despise her, for they have seen her nakedness; she herself groans, and turns her face away.

Lamentations 1:9 Her uncleanness was in her skirts; she took no thought of her future; her downfall was appalling, with none to comfort her. “O LORD, look at my affliction, for the enemy has triumphed!”

Lamentations 1:10 Enemies have stretched out their hands over all her precious things; she has even seen the nations invade her sanctuary, those whom you forbade to enter your congregation.

Lamentations 1:11 All her people groan as they search for bread; they trade their treasures for food to revive their strength. Look, O LORD, and see how worthless I have become.

Lamentations 1:12 Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by? Look and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow, which was brought upon me, which the LORD inflicted on the day of his fierce anger.

Lamentations 1:13 From on high he sent fire; it went deep into my bones; he spread a net for my feet; he turned me back; he has left me stunned, faint all day long.

Lamentations 1:14 My transgressions were bound into a yoke; by his hand they were fastened together; they weigh on my neck, sapping my strength; the Lord handed me over to those whom I cannot withstand.

Lamentations 1:15 The LORD has rejected all my warriors in the midst of me; he proclaimed a time against me to crush my young men; the Lord has trodden as in a wine press the virgin daughter Judah.

Lamentations 1:16 For these things I weep; my eyes flow with tears; for a comforter is far from me, one to revive my courage; my children are desolate, for the enemy has prevailed.

Lamentations 1:17 Zion stretches out her hands, but there is no one to comfort her; the LORD has commanded against Jacob that his neighbors should become his foes; Jerusalem has become a filthy thing among them.

Lamentations 1:18 The LORD is in the right, for I have rebelled against his word; but hear, all you peoples, and behold my suffering; my young women and young men have gone into captivity.

Lamentations 1:19 I called to my lovers but they deceived me; my priests and elders perished in the city while seeking food to revive their strength.

Lamentations 1:20 See, O LORD, how distressed I am; my stomach churns, my heart is wrung within me, because I have been very rebellious. In the street the sword bereaves; in the house it is like death.

Lamentations 1:21 They heard how I was groaning, with no one to comfort me. All my enemies heard of my trouble; they are glad that you have done it. Bring on the day you have announced, and let them be as I am.

Lamentations 1:22 Let all their evil doing come before you; and deal with them as you have dealt with me because of all my transgressions; for my groans are many and my heart is faint.

Lamentations 2:1 How the Lord in his anger has humiliated daughter Zion! He has thrown down from heaven to earth the splendor of Israel; he has not remembered his footstool in the day of his anger.

Lamentations 2:2 The Lord has destroyed without mercy all the dwellings of Jacob; in his wrath he has broken down the strongholds of daughter Judah; he has brought down to the ground in dishonor the kingdom and its rulers.

Lamentations 2:3 He has cut down in fierce anger all the might of Israel; he has withdrawn his right hand from them in the face of the enemy; he has burned like a flaming fire in Jacob, consuming all around.

Lamentations 2:4 He has bent his bow like an enemy, with his right hand set like a foe; he has killed all in whom we took pride in the tent of daughter Zion; he has poured out his fury like fire.

Lamentations 2:5 The Lord has become like an enemy; he has destroyed Israel; He has destroyed all its palaces, laid in ruins its strongholds, and multiplied in daughter Judah mourning and lamentation.

Lamentations 2:6 He has broken down his booth like a garden, he has destroyed his tabernacle; the LORD has abolished in Zion festival and sabbath, and in his fierce indignation has spurned king and priest.

Lamentations 2:7 The Lord has scorned his altar, disowned his sanctuary; he has delivered into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; a clamor was raised in the house of the LORD as on a day of festival.

Lamentations 2:8 The LORD determined to lay in ruins the wall of daughter Zion; he stretched the line; he did not withhold his hand from destroying; he caused rampart and wall to lament; they languish together.

Lamentations 2:9 Her gates have sunk into the ground; he has ruined and broken her bars; her king and princes are among the nations; guidance is no more, and her prophets obtain no vision from the LORD.

Lamentations 2:10 The elders of daughter Zion sit on the ground in silence; they have thrown dust on their heads and put on sackcloth; the young girls of Jerusalem have bowed their heads to the ground.

Lamentations 2:11 My eyes are spent with weeping; my stomach churns; my bile is poured out on the ground because of the destruction of my people, because infants and babes faint in the streets of the city.

Lamentations 2:12 They cry to their mothers, “Where is bread and wine?” as they faint like the wounded in the streets of the city, as their life is poured out on their mothers’ bosom.

Lamentations 2:13 What can I say for you, to what compare you, O daughter Jerusalem? To what can I liken you, that I may comfort you, O virgin daughter Zion? For vast as the sea is your ruin; who can heal you?

Lamentations 2:14 Your prophets have seen for you false and deceptive visions; they have not exposed your iniquity to restore your fortunes, but have seen oracles for you that are false and misleading.

Lamentations 2:15 All who pass along the way clap their hands at you; they hiss and wag their heads at daughter Jerusalem; “Is this the city that was called the perfection of beauty, the joy of all the earth?”

Lamentations 2:16 All your enemies open their mouths against you; they hiss, they gnash their teeth, they cry: “We have devoured her! Ah, this is the day we longed for; at last we have seen it!”

Lamentations 2:17 The LORD has done what he purposed, he has carried out his threat; as he ordained long ago, he has demolished without pity; he has made the enemy rejoice over you, and exalted the might of your foes.

Lamentations 2:18 Cry aloud to the Lord! O wall of daughter Zion! Let tears stream down like a torrent day and night! Give yourself no rest, your eyes no respite!

Lamentations 2:19 Arise, cry out in the night, at the beginning of the watches! Pour out your heart like water before the presence of the Lord! Lift your hands to him for the lives of your children, who faint for hunger at the head of every street.

Lamentations 2:20 Look, O LORD, and consider! To whom have you done this? Should women eat their offspring, the children they have borne? Should priest and prophet be killed in the sanctuary of the Lord?

Lamentations 2:21 The young and the old are lying on the ground in the streets; my young women and my young men have fallen by the sword; in the day of your anger you have killed them, slaughtering without mercy.

Lamentations 2:22 You invited my enemies from all around as if for a day of festival; and on the day of the anger of the LORD no one escaped or survived; those whom I bore and reared my enemy has destroyed.

Lamentations 3:1 I am one who has seen affliction under the rod of God's wrath;

Lamentations 3:2 he has driven and brought me into darkness without any light;

Lamentations 3:3 against me alone he turns his hand, again and again, all day long.

Lamentations 3:4 He has made my flesh and my skin waste away, and broken my bones;

Lamentations 3:5 he has besieged and enveloped me with bitterness and tribulation;

Lamentations 3:6 he has made me sit in darkness like the dead of long ago.

Lamentations 3:7 He has walled me about so that I cannot escape; he has put heavy chains on me;

Lamentations 3:8 though I call and cry for help, he shuts out my prayer;

Lamentations 3:9 he has blocked my ways with hewn stones, he has made my paths crooked.

Lamentations 3:10 He is a bear lying in wait for me, a lion in hiding;

Lamentations 3:11 he led me off my way and tore me to pieces; he has made me desolate;

Lamentations 3:12 he bent his bow and set me as a mark for his arrow.

Lamentations 3:13 He shot into my vitals the arrows of his quiver;

Lamentations 3:14 I have become the laughingstock of all my people, the object of their taunt-songs all day long.

Lamentations 3:15 He has filled me with bitterness, he has sated me with wormwood.

Lamentations 3:16 He has made my teeth grind on gravel, and made me cower in ashes;

Lamentations 3:17 my soul is bereft of peace; I have forgotten what happiness is;

Lamentations 3:18 so I say, “Gone is my glory, and all that I had hoped for from the LORD.”

Lamentations 3:19 The thought of my affliction and my homelessness is wormwood and gall!

Lamentations 3:20 My soul continually thinks of it and is bowed down within me.

Lamentations 3:21 But this I call to mind, and therefore I have hope:

Lamentations 3:22 The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases, his mercies never come to an end;

Lamentations 3:23 they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.

Lamentations 3:24 “The LORD is my portion,” says my soul, “therefore I will hope in him.”

Lamentations 3:25 The LORD is good to those who wait for him, to the soul that seeks him.

Lamentations 3:26 It is good that one should wait quietly for the salvation of the LORD.

Lamentations 3:27 It is good for one to bear the yoke in youth,

Lamentations 3:28 to sit alone in silence when the Lord has imposed it,

Lamentations 3:29 to put one’s mouth to the dust (there may yet be hope),

Lamentations 3:30 to give one’s cheek to the smiter, and be filled with insults.

Lamentations 3:31 For the Lord will not reject forever.

Lamentations 3:32 Although he causes grief, he will have compassion according to the abundance of his steadfast love;

Lamentations 3:33 for he does not willingly afflict or grieve anyone.

Lamentations 3:34 When all the prisoners of the land are crushed under foot,

Lamentations 3:35 when human rights are perverted in the presence of the Most High, Lamentations 3:36 when one’s case is subverted— does the Lord not see it?

Lamentations 3:37 Who can command and have it done, if the Lord has not ordained it?

Lamentations 3:38 Is it not from the mouth of the Most High that good and bad come?

Lamentations 3:39 Why should any who draw breath complain about the punishment of their sins?

Lamentations 3:40 Let us test and examine our ways, and return to the LORD.

Lamentations 3:41 Let us lift up our hearts as well as our hands to God in heaven.

Lamentations 3:42 We have transgressed and rebelled, and you have not forgiven.

Lamentations 3:43 You have wrapped yourself with anger and pursued us, killing without pity;

Lamentations 3:44 you have wrapped yourself with a cloud so that no prayer can pass through.

Lamentations 3:45 You have made us filth and rubbish among the peoples.

Lamentations 3:46 All our enemies have opened their mouths against us;

Lamentations 3:47 panic and pitfall have come upon us, devastation and destruction.

Lamentations 3:48 My eyes flow with rivers of tears because of the destruction of my people.

Lamentations 3:49 My eyes will flow without ceasing, without respite, Lamentations 3:50 until the LORD from heaven looks down and sees.

Lamentations 3:51 My eyes cause me grief at the fate of all the young women in my city.

Lamentations 3:52 Those who were my enemies without cause have hunted me like a bird;

Lamentations 3:53 they flung me alive into a pit and hurled stones on me;

Lamentations 3:54 water closed over my head; I said, “I am lost.”

Lamentations 3:55 I called on your name, O LORD, from the depths of the pit;

Lamentations 3:56 you heard my plea, “Do not close your ear to my cry for help, but give me relief!”

Lamentations 3:57 You came near when I called on you; you said, “Do not fear!”

Lamentations 3:58 You have taken up my cause, O Lord, you have redeemed my life.

Lamentations 3:59 You have seen the wrong done to me, O LORD; judge my cause.

Lamentations 3:60 You have seen all their malice, all their plots against me.

Lamentations 3:61 You have heard their taunts, O LORD, all their plots against me.

Lamentations 3:62 The whispers and murmurs of my assailants are against me all day long.

Lamentations 3:63 Whether they sit or rise— see, I am the object of their taunt-songs.

Lamentations 3:64 Pay them back for their deeds, O LORD, according to the work of their hands!

Lamentations 3:65 Give them anguish of heart; your curse be on them!

Lamentations 3:66 Pursue them in anger and destroy them from under the LORD’s heavens.

Lamentations 4:1 How the gold has grown dim, how the pure gold is changed! The sacred stones lie scattered at the head of every street.

Lamentations 4:2 The precious children of Zion, worth their weight in fine gold— how they are reckoned as earthen pots, the work of a potter’s hands!

Lamentations 4:3 Even the jackals offer the breast and nurse their young, but my people has become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness.

Lamentations 4:4 The tongue of the infant sticks to the roof of its mouth for thirst; the children beg for food, but no one gives them anything.

Lamentations 4:5 Those who feasted on delicacies perish in the streets; those who were brought up in purple cling to ash heaps.

Lamentations 4:6 For the chastisement of my people has been greater than the punishment of Sodom, which was overthrown in a moment, though no hand was laid on it.

Lamentations 4:7 Her princes were purer than snow, whiter than milk; their bodies were more ruddy than coral, their hair like sapphire.

Lamentations 4:8 Now their visage is blacker than soot; they are not recognized in the streets. Their skin has shriveled on their bones; it has become as dry as wood.

Lamentations 4:9 Happier were those pierced by the sword than those pierced by hunger, whose life drains away, deprived of the produce of the field.

Lamentations 4:10 The hands of compassionate women have boiled their own children; they became their food in the destruction of my people.

Lamentations 4:11 The LORD gave full vent to his wrath; he poured out his hot anger, and kindled a fire in Zion that consumed its foundations.

Lamentations 4:12 The kings of the earth did not believe, nor did any of the inhabitants of the world, that foe or enemy could enter the gates of Jerusalem.

Lamentations 4:13 It was for the sins of her prophets and the iniquities of her priests, who shed the blood of the righteous in the midst of her.

Lamentations 4:14 Blindly they wandered through the streets, so defiled with blood that no one was able to touch their garments.

Lamentations 4:15 “Away! Unclean!” people shouted at them; “Away! Away! Do not touch!” So they became fugitives and wanderers; it was said among the nations, “They shall stay here no longer.”

Lamentations 4:16 The LORD himself has scattered them, he will regard them no more; no honor was shown to the priests, no favor to the elders.

Lamentations 4:17 Our eyes failed, ever watching vainly for help; we were watching eagerly for a nation that could not save.

Lamentations 4:18 They dogged our steps so that we could not walk in our streets; our end drew near; our days were numbered; for our end had come.

Lamentations 4:19 Our pursuers were swifter than the eagles in the heavens; they chased us on the mountains, they lay in wait for us in the wilderness.

Lamentations 4:20 The LORD’s anointed, the breath of our life, was taken in their pits— the one of whom we said, “Under his shadow we shall live among the nations.”

Lamentations 4:21 Rejoice and be glad, O daughter Edom, you that live in the land of Uz; but to you also the cup shall pass; you shall become drunk and strip yourself bare.

Lamentations 4:22 The punishment of your iniquity, O daughter Zion, is accomplished, he will keep you in exile no longer; but your iniquity, O daughter Edom, he will punish, he will uncover your sins.

Lamentations 5:1 Remember, O LORD, what has befallen us; look, and see our disgrace!

Lamentations 5:2 Our inheritance has been turned over to strangers, our homes to aliens.

Lamentations 5:3 We have become orphans, fatherless; our mothers are like widows.

Lamentations 5:4 We must pay for the water we drink; the wood we get must be bought.

Lamentations 5:5 With a yoke on our necks we are hard driven; we are weary, we are given no rest.

Lamentations 5:6 We have made a pact with Egypt and Assyria, to get enough bread.

Lamentations 5:7 Our ancestors sinned; they are no more, and we bear their iniquities.

Lamentations 5:8 Slaves rule over us; there is no one to deliver us from their hand.

Lamentations 5:9 We get our bread at the peril of our lives, because of the sword in the wilderness.

Lamentations 5:10 Our skin is black as an oven from the scorching heat of famine.

Lamentations 5:11 Women are raped in Zion, virgins in the towns of Judah.

Lamentations 5:12 Princes are hung up by their hands; no respect is shown to the elders.

Lamentations 5:13 Young men are compelled to grind, and boys stagger under loads of wood.

Lamentations 5:14 The old men have left the city gate, the young men their music.

Lamentations 5:15 The joy of our hearts has ceased; our dancing has been turned to mourning.

Lamentations 5:16 The crown has fallen from our head; woe to us, for we have sinned!

Lamentations 5:17 Because of this our hearts are sick, because of these things our eyes have grown dim:

Lamentations 5:18 because of Mount Zion, which lies desolate; jackals prowl over it.

Lamentations 5:19 But you, O LORD, reign forever; your throne endures to all generations.

Lamentations 5:20 Why have you forgotten us completely? Why have you forsaken us these many days?

Lamentations 5:21 Restore us to yourself, O LORD, that we may be restored; renew our days as of old—

Lamentations 5:22 unless you have utterly rejected us, and are angry with us beyond measure.

Ezekiel

1:1 In the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, on the fifth day of the month, as I was among the exiles by the river Chebar, the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God.

Ezekiel 1:2 On the fifth day of the month (it was the fifth year of the exile of King Jehoiachin),

Ezekiel 1:3 the word of the LORD came to the priestEzekiel son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and the hand of the LORD was on him there.

Ezekiel 1:4 As I looked, a stormy wind came out of the north: a great cloud with brightness around it and fire flashing forth continually, and in the middle of the fire, something like gleaming amber.

Ezekiel 1:5 In the middle of it was something like four living creatures. This was their appearance: they were of human form.

Ezekiel 1:6 Each had four faces, and each of them had four wings.

Ezekiel 1:7 Their legs were straight, and the soles of their feet were like the sole of a calf's foot; and they sparkled like burnished bronze.

Ezekiel 1:8 Under their wings on their four sides they had human hands. And the four had their faces and their wings thus:

Ezekiel 1:9 their wings touched one another; each of them moved straight ahead, without turning as they moved.

Ezekiel 1:10 As for the appearance of their faces: the four had the face of a human being, the face of a lion on the right side, the face of an ox on the left side, and the face of an eagle;

Ezekiel 1:11 such were their faces. Their wings were spread out above; each creature had two wings, each of which touched the wing of another, while two covered their bodies.

Ezekiel 1:12 Each moved straight ahead; wherever the spirit would go, they went, without turning as they went.

Ezekiel 1:13 In the middle of the living creatures there was something that looked like burning coals of fire, like torches moving to and fro among the living creatures; the fire was bright, and lightning issued from the fire.

Ezekiel 1:14 The living creatures darted to and fro, like a flash of lightning.

Ezekiel 1:15 As I looked at the living creatures, I saw a wheel on the earth beside the living creatures, one for each of the four of them.

Ezekiel 1:16 As for the appearance of the wheels and their construction: their appearance was like the gleaming of beryl; and the four had the same form, their construction being something like a wheel within a wheel.

Ezekiel 1:17 When they moved, they moved in any of the four directions without veering as they moved.

Ezekiel 1:18 Their rims were tall and awesome, for the rims of all four were full of eyes all around.

Ezekiel 1:19 When the living creatures moved, the wheels moved beside them; and when the living creatures rose from the earth, the wheels rose.

Ezekiel 1:20 Wherever the spirit would go, they went, and the wheels rose along with them; for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

Ezekiel 1:21 When they moved, the others moved; when they stopped, the others stopped; and when they rose from the earth, the wheels rose along with them; for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

Ezekiel 1:22 Over the heads of the living creatures there was something like a dome, shining like crystal, spread out above their heads.

Ezekiel 1:23 Under the dome their wings were stretched out straight, one toward another; and each of the creatures had two wings covering its body.

Ezekiel 1:24 When they moved, I heard the sound of their wings like the sound of mighty waters, like the thunder of the Almighty, a sound of tumult like the sound of an army; when they stopped, they let down their wings.

Ezekiel 1:25 And there came a voice from above the dome over their heads; when they stopped, they let down their wings.

Ezekiel 1:26 And above the dome over their heads there was something like a throne, in appearance like sapphire; and seated above the likeness of a throne was something that seemed like a human form.

Ezekiel 1:27 Upward from what appeared like the loins I saw something like gleaming amber, something that looked like fire enclosed all around; and downward from what looked like the loins I saw something that looked like fire, and there was a splendor all around.

Ezekiel 1:28 Like the bow in a cloud on a rainy day, such was the appearance of the splendor all around. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. When I saw it, I fell on my face, and I heard the voice of someone speaking.

Ezekiel 2:1 He said to me: O mortal, stand up on your feet, and I will speak with you.

Ezekiel 2:2 And when he spoke to me, a spirit entered into me and set me on my feet; and I heard him speaking to me.

Ezekiel 2:3 He said to me, Mortal, I am sending you to the people of Israel, to a nation of rebels who have rebelled against me; they and their ancestors have transgressed against me to this very day.

Ezekiel 2:4 The descendants are impudent and stubborn. I am sending you to them, and you shall say to them, “Thus says the Lord GOD.”

Ezekiel 2:5 Whether they hear or refuse to hear (for they are a rebellious house), they shall know that there has been a prophet among them.

Ezekiel 2:6 And you, O mortal, do not be afraid of them, and do not be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns surround you and you live among scorpions; do not be afraid of their words, and do not be dismayed at their looks, for they are a rebellious house.

Ezekiel 2:7 You shall speak my words to them, whether they hear or refuse to hear; for they are a rebellious house.

Ezekiel 2:8 But you, mortal, hear what I say to you; do not be rebellious like that rebellious house; open your mouth and eat what I give you.

Ezekiel 2:9 I looked, and a hand was stretched out to me, and a written scroll was in it.

Ezekiel 2:10 He spread it before me; it had writing on the front and on the back, and written on it were words of lamentation and mourning and woe.

Ezekiel 3:1 He said to me, O mortal, eat what is offered to you; eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel.

Ezekiel 3:2 So I opened my mouth, and he gave me the scroll to eat.

Ezekiel 3:3 He said to me, Mortal, eat this scroll that I give you and fill your stomach with it. Then I ate it; and in my mouth it was as sweet as honey.

Ezekiel 3:4 He said to me: Mortal, go to the house of Israel and speak my very words to them.

Ezekiel 3:5 For you are not sent to a people of obscure speech and difficult language, but to the house of Israel—

Ezekiel 3:6 not to many peoples of obscure speech and difficult language, whose words you cannot understand. Surely, if I sent you to them, they would listen to you.

Ezekiel 3:7 But the house of Israel will not listen to you, for they are not willing to listen to me; because all the house of Israel have a hard forehead and a stubborn heart.

Ezekiel 3:8 See, I have made your face hard against their faces, and your forehead hard against their foreheads.

Ezekiel 3:9 Like the hardest stone, harder than flint, I have made your forehead; do not fear them or be dismayed at their looks, for they are a rebellious house.

Ezekiel 3:10 He said to me: Mortal, all my words that I shall speak to you receive in your heart and hear with your ears;

Ezekiel 3:11 then go to the exiles, to your people, and speak to them. Say to them, "Thus says the Lord GOD"; whether they hear or refuse to hear.

Ezekiel 3:12 Then the spirit lifted me up, and as the glory of the LORD rose from its place, I heard behind me the sound of loud rumbling;

Ezekiel 3:13 it was the sound of the wings of the living creatures brushing against one another, and the sound of the wheels beside them, that sounded like a loud rumbling.

Ezekiel 3:14 The spirit lifted me up and bore me away; I went in bitterness in the heat of my spirit, the hand of the LORD being strong upon me.

Ezekiel 3:15 I came to the exiles at Tel-abib, who lived by the river Chebar. And I sat there among them, stunned, for seven days.

Ezekiel 3:16 At the end of seven days, the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 3:17 Mortal, I have made you a sentinel for the house of Israel; whenever you hear a word from my mouth, you shall give them warning from me.

Ezekiel 3:18 If I say to the wicked, "You shall surely die," and you give them no warning, or speak to warn the wicked from their wicked way, in order to save their life, those wicked persons shall die for their iniquity; but their blood I will require at your hand.

Ezekiel 3:19 But if you warn the wicked, and they do not turn from their wickedness, or from their wicked way, they shall die for their iniquity; but you will have saved your life.

Ezekiel 3:20 Again, if the righteous turn from their righteousness and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumbling block before them, they shall die; because you have not warned them, they shall die for their sin, and their righteous deeds that they have done shall not be remembered; but their blood I will require at your hand.

Ezekiel 3:21 If, however, you warn the righteous not to sin, and they do not sin, they shall surely live, because they took warning; and you will have saved your life.

Ezekiel 3:22 Then the hand of the LORD was upon me there; and he said to me, Rise up, go out into the valley, and there I will speak with you.

Ezekiel 3:23 So I rose up and went out into the valley; and the glory of the LORD stood there, like the glory that I had seen by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face.

Ezekiel 3:24 The spirit entered into me, and set me on my feet; and he spoke with me and said to me: Go, shut yourself inside your house.

Ezekiel 3:25 As for you, mortal, cords shall be placed on you, and you shall be bound with them, so that you cannot go out among the people;

Ezekiel 3:26 and I will make your tongue cling to the roof of your mouth, so that you shall be speechless and unable to reprove them; for they are a rebellious house.

Ezekiel 3:27 But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall say to them, "Thus says the Lord GOD"; let those who will hear, hear; and let those who refuse to hear, refuse; for they are a rebellious house.

Ezekiel 4:1 And you, O mortal, take a brick and set it before you. On it portray a city, Jerusalem;

Ezekiel 4:2 and put siegeworks against it, and build a siege wall against it, and cast up a ramp against it; set camps also against it, and plant battering rams against it all around.

Ezekiel 4:3 Then take an iron plate and place it as an iron wall between you and the city; set your face toward it, and let it be in a state of siege, and press the siege against it. This is a sign for the house of Israel.

Ezekiel 4:4 Then lie on your left side, and place the punishment of the house of Israel upon it; you shall bear their punishment for the number of the days that you lie there.

Ezekiel 4:5 For I assign to you a number of days, three hundred ninety days, equal to the number of the years of their punishment; and so you shall bear the punishment of the house of Israel.

Ezekiel 4:6 When you have completed these, you shall lie down a second time, but on your right side, and bear the punishment of the house of Judah; forty days I assign you, one day for each year.

Ezekiel 4:7 You shall set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and with your arm bared you shall prophesy against it.

Ezekiel 4:8 See, I am putting cords on you so that you cannot turn from one side to the other until you have completed the days of your siege.

Ezekiel 4:9 And you, take wheat and barley, beans and lentils, millet and spelt; put them into one vessel, and make bread for yourself. During the number of days that you lie on your side, three hundred ninety days, you shall eat it.

Ezekiel 4:10 The food that you eat shall be twenty shekels a day by weight; at fixed times you shall eat it.

Ezekiel 4:11 And you shall drink water by measure, one-sixth of a hin; at fixed times you shall drink.

Ezekiel 4:12 You shall eat it as a barley-cake, baking it in their sight on human dung.

Ezekiel 4:13 The LORD said, “Thus shall the people of Israel eat their bread, unclean, among the nations to which I will drive them.”

Ezekiel 4:14 Then I said, “Ah Lord GOD! I have never defiled myself; from my youth up until now I have never eaten what died of itself or was torn by animals, nor has carrion flesh come into my mouth.”

Ezekiel 4:15 Then he said to me, “See, I will let you have cow’s dung instead of human dung, on which you may prepare your bread.”

Ezekiel 4:16 Then he said to me, Mortal, I am going to break the staff of bread in Jerusalem; they shall eat bread by weight and with fearfulness; and they shall drink water by measure and in dismay.

Ezekiel 4:17 Lacking bread and water, they will look at one another in dismay, and waste away under their punishment.

Ezekiel 5:1 And you, O mortal, take a sharp sword; use it as a barber’s razor and run it over your head and your beard; then take balances for weighing, and divide the hair.

Ezekiel 5:2 One third of the hair you shall burn in the fire inside the city, when the days of the siege are completed; one third you shall take and strike with the sword all around the city; and one third you shall scatter to the wind, and I will unsheathe the sword after them.

Ezekiel 5:3 Then you shall take from these a small number, and bind them in the skirts of your robe.

Ezekiel 5:4 From these, again, you shall take some, throw them into the fire and burn them up; from there a fire will come out against all the house of Israel.

Ezekiel 5:5 Thus says the Lord GOD: This is Jerusalem; I have set her in the center of the nations, with countries all around her.

Ezekiel 5:6 But she has rebelled against my ordinances and my statutes, becoming more wicked than the nations and the countries all around her, rejecting my ordinances and not following my statutes.

Ezekiel 5:7 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you are more turbulent than the nations that are all around you, and have not followed my statutes or kept my ordinances, but have acted according to the ordinances of the nations that are all around you;

Ezekiel 5:8 therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I, I myself, am coming against you; I will execute judgments among you in the sight of the nations.

Ezekiel 5:9 And because of all your abominations, I will do to you what I have never yet done, and the like of which I will never do again.

Ezekiel 5:10 Surely, parents shall eat their children in your midst, and children shall eat their parents; I will execute judgments on you, and any of you who survive I will scatter to every wind.

Ezekiel 5:11 Therefore, as I live, says the Lord GOD, surely, because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your detestable things and with all your abominations— therefore I will cut you down; my eye will not spare, and I will have no pity.

Ezekiel 5:12 One third of you shall die of pestilence or be consumed by famine among you; one third shall fall by the sword around you; and one third I will scatter to every wind and will unsheathe the sword after them.

Ezekiel 5:13 My anger shall spend itself, and I will vent my fury on them and satisfy myself; and they shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken in my jealousy, when I spend my fury on them.

Ezekiel 5:14 Moreover I will make you a desolation and an object of mocking among the nations around you, in the sight of all that pass by.

Ezekiel 5:15 You shall be a mockery and a taunt, a warning and a horror, to the nations around you, when I execute judgments on you in anger and fury, and with furious punishments— I, the LORD, have spoken—

Ezekiel 5:16 when I loose against you my deadly arrows of famine, arrows for destruction, which I will let loose to destroy you, and when I bring more and more famine upon you, and break your staff of bread.

Ezekiel 5:17 I will send famine and wild animals against you, and they will rob you of your children; pestilence and bloodshed shall pass through you; and I will bring the sword upon you. I, the LORD, have spoken.

Ezekiel 6:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 6:2 O mortal, set your face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them,

Ezekiel 6:3 and say, You mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD! Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains and the hills, to the ravines and the valleys: I, I myself will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your high places.

Ezekiel 6:4 Your altars shall become desolate, and your incense stands shall be broken; and I will throw down your slain in front of your idols.

Ezekiel 6:5 I will lay the corpses of the people of Israel in front of their idols; and I will scatter your bones around your altars.

Ezekiel 6:6 Wherever you live, your towns shall be waste and your high places ruined, so that your altars will be waste and ruined, your idols broken and destroyed, your incense stands cut down, and your works wiped out.

Ezekiel 6:7 The slain shall fall in your midst; then you shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 6:8 But I will spare some. Some of you shall escape the sword among the nations and be scattered through the countries.

Ezekiel 6:9 Those of you who escape shall remember me among the nations where they are carried captive, how I was crushed by their wanton heart that turned away from me, and their wanton eyes that turned after their idols. Then they will be loathsome in their own sight for the evils that they have committed, for all their abominations.

Ezekiel 6:10 And they shall know that I am the LORD; I did not threaten in vain to bring this disaster upon them.

Ezekiel 6:11 Thus says the Lord GOD: Clap your hands and stamp your foot, and say, Alas for all the vile abominations of the house of Israel! For they shall fall by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence.

Ezekiel 6:12 Those far off shall die of pestilence; those nearby shall fall by the sword; and any who are left and are spared shall die of famine. Thus I will spend my fury upon them.

Ezekiel 6:13 And you shall know that I am the LORD, when their slain lie among their idols around their altars, on every high hill, on all the mountain tops, under every green tree, and under every leafy oak, wherever they offered pleasing odor to all their idols.

Ezekiel 6:14 I will stretch out my hand against them, and make the land desolate and waste, throughout all their settlements, from the wilderness to Riblah. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 7:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 7:2 You, O mortal, thus says the Lord GOD to the land of Israel: An end! The end has come upon the four corners of the land.

Ezekiel 7:3 Now the end is upon you, I will let loose my anger upon you; I will judge you according to your ways, I will punish you for all your abominations.

Ezekiel 7:4 My eye will not spare you, I will have no pity. I will punish you for your ways, while your abominations are among you. Then you shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 7:5 Thus says the Lord GOD: Disaster after disaster! See, it comes.

Ezekiel 7:6 An end has come, the end has come. It has awakened against you; see, it comes!

Ezekiel 7:7 Your doom has come to you, O inhabitant of the land. The time has come, the day is near— of tumult, not of reveling on the mountains.

Ezekiel 7:8 Soon now I will pour out my wrath upon you; I will spend my anger against you. I will judge you according to your ways, and punish you for all your abominations.

Ezekiel 7:9 My eye will not spare; I will have no pity. I will punish you according to your ways, while your abominations are among you. Then you shall know that it is I the LORD who strike.

Ezekiel 7:10 See, the day! See, it comes! Your doom has gone out. The rod has blossomed, pride has budded.

Ezekiel 7:11 Violence has grown into a rod of wickedness. None of them shall remain, not their abundance, not their wealth; no pre-eminence among them.

Ezekiel 7:12 The time has come, the day draws near; let not the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn, for wrath is upon all their multitude.

Ezekiel 7:13 For the sellers shall not return to what has been sold as long as they remain alive. For the vision concerns all their multitude; it shall not be revoked. Because of their iniquity, they cannot maintain their lives.

Ezekiel 7:14 They have blown the horn and made everything ready; but no one goes to battle, for my wrath is upon all their multitude.

Ezekiel 7:15 The sword is outside, pestilence and famine are inside; those in the field die by the sword; those in the city— famine and pestilence devour them.

Ezekiel 7:16 If any survivors escape, they shall be found on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them moaning over their iniquity.

Ezekiel 7:17 All hands shall grow feeble, all knees turn to water.

Ezekiel 7:18 They shall put on sackcloth, horror shall cover them. Shame shall be on all faces, baldness on all their heads.

Ezekiel 7:19 They shall fling their silver into the streets, their gold shall be treated as unclean. Their silver and gold cannot save them on the day of the wrath of the LORD. They shall not satisfy their hunger or fill their stomachs with it. For it was the stumbling block of their iniquity.

Ezekiel 7:20 From their beautiful ornament, in which they took pride, they made their abominable images, their detestable things; therefore I will make of it an unclean thing to them.

Ezekiel 7:21 I will hand it over to strangers as booty, to the wicked of the earth as plunder; they shall profane it.

Ezekiel 7:22 I will avert my face from them, so that they may profane my treasured place; the violent shall enter it, they shall profane it.

Ezekiel 7:23 Make a chain! For the land is full of bloody crimes; the city is full of violence.

Ezekiel 7:24 I will bring the worst of the nations to take possession of their houses. I will put an end to the arrogance of the strong, and their holy places shall be profaned.

Ezekiel 7:25 When anguish comes, they will seek peace, but there shall be none.

Ezekiel 7:26 Disaster comes upon disaster, rumor follows rumor; they shall keep seeking a vision from the prophet; instruction shall perish from the priest, and counsel from the elders.

Ezekiel 7:27 The king shall mourn, the prince shall be wrapped in despair, and the hands of the people of the land shall tremble. According to their way I will deal with them; according to their own judgments I will judge them. And they shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 8:1 In the sixth year, in the sixth month, on the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house, with the elders of Judah sitting before me, the hand of the Lord GOD fell upon me there.

Ezekiel 8:2 I looked, and there was a figure that looked like a human being; below what appeared to be its loins it was fire, and above the loins it was like the appearance of brightness, like gleaming amber.

Ezekiel 8:3 It stretched out the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my head; and the spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven, and brought me in visions of God to Jerusalem, to the entrance of the gateway of the inner court that faces north, to the seat of the image of jealousy, which provokes to jealousy.

Ezekiel 8:4 And the glory of the God of Israel was there, like the vision that I had seen in the valley.

Ezekiel 8:5 Then God said to me, “O mortal, lift up your eyes now in the direction of the north.” So I lifted up my eyes toward the north, and there, north of the altar gate, in the entrance, was this image of jealousy.

Ezekiel 8:6 He said to me, “Mortal, do you see what they are doing, the great abominations that the house of Israel are committing here, to drive me far from my sanctuary? Yet you will see still greater abominations.”

Ezekiel 8:7 And he brought me to the entrance of the court; I looked, and there was a hole in the wall.

Ezekiel 8:8 Then he said to me, “Mortal, dig through the wall”; and when I dug through the wall, there was an entrance.

Ezekiel 8:9 He said to me, “Go in, and see the vile abominations that they are committing here.”

Ezekiel 8:10 So I went in and looked; there, portrayed on the wall all around, were all kinds of creeping things, and loathsome animals, and all the idols of the house of Israel.

Ezekiel 8:11 Before them stood seventy of the elders of the house of Israel, with Jaazaniah son of Shaphan standing among them. Each had his censer in his hand, and the fragrant cloud of incense was ascending.

Ezekiel 8:12 Then he said to me, “Mortal, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel are doing in the dark, each in his room of images? For they say, ‘The LORD does not see us, the LORD has forsaken the land.’“

Ezekiel 8:13 He said also to me, “You will see still greater abominations that they are committing.”

Ezekiel 8:14 Then he brought me to the entrance of the north gate of the house of the LORD; women were sitting there weeping for Tammuz.

Ezekiel 8:15 Then he said to me, “Have you seen this, O mortal? You will see still greater abominations than these.”

Ezekiel 8:16 And he brought me into the inner court of the house of the LORD; there, at the entrance of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men, with their backs to the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east, prostrating themselves to the sun toward the east.

Ezekiel 8:17 Then he said to me, “Have you seen this, O mortal? Is it not bad enough that the house of Judah commits the abominations done here? Must they fill the land with violence, and provoke my anger still further? See, they are putting the branch to their nose!

Ezekiel 8:18 Therefore I will act in wrath; my eye will not spare, nor will I have pity; and though they cry in my hearing with a loud voice, I will not listen to them.”

Ezekiel 9:1 Then he cried in my hearing with a loud voice, saying, “Draw near, you executioners of the city, each with his destroying weapon in his hand.”

Ezekiel 9:2 And six men came from the direction of the upper gate, which faces north, each with his weapon for slaughter in his hand; among them was a man clothed in linen, with a writing case at his side. They went in and stood beside the bronze altar.

Ezekiel 9:3 Now the glory of the God of Israel had gone up from the cherub on which it rested to the threshold of the house. The LORD called to the man clothed in linen, who had the writing case at his side;

Ezekiel 9:4 and said to him, “Go through the city, through Jerusalem, and put a mark on the foreheads of those who sigh and groan over all the abominations that are committed in it.”

Ezekiel 9:5 To the others he said in my hearing, “Pass through the city after him, and kill; your eye shall not spare, and you shall show no pity.

Ezekiel 9:6 Cut down old men, young men and young women, little children and women, but touch no one who has the mark. And begin at my sanctuary." So they began with the elders who were in front of the house.

Ezekiel 9:7 Then he said to them, "Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain. Go!" So they went out and killed in the city.

Ezekiel 9:8 While they were killing, and I was left alone, I fell prostrate on my face and cried out, "Ah Lord GOD! will you destroy all who remain of Israel as you pour out your wrath upon Jerusalem?"

Ezekiel 9:9 He said to me, "The guilt of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great; the land is full of bloodshed and the city full of perversity; for they say, 'The LORD has forsaken the land, and the LORD does not see.'

Ezekiel 9:10 As for me, my eye will not spare, nor will I have pity, but I will bring down their deeds upon their heads."

Ezekiel 9:11 Then the man clothed in linen, with the writing case at his side, brought back word, saying, "I have done as you commanded me."

Ezekiel 10:1 Then I looked, and above the dome that was over the heads of the cherubim there appeared above them something like a sapphire, in form resembling a throne.

Ezekiel 10:2 He said to the man clothed in linen, "Go within the wheelwork underneath the cherubim; fill your hands with burning coals from among the cherubim, and scatter them over the city." He went in as I looked on.

Ezekiel 10:3 Now the cherubim were standing on the south side of the house when the man went in; and a cloud filled the inner court.

Ezekiel 10:4 Then the glory of the LORD rose up from the cherub to the threshold of the house; the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the glory of the LORD.

Ezekiel 10:5 The sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard as far as the outer court, like the voice of God Almighty when he speaks.

Ezekiel 10:6 When he commanded the man clothed in linen, "Take fire from within the wheelwork, from among the cherubim," he went in and stood beside a wheel.

Ezekiel 10:7 And a cherub stretched out his hand from among the cherubim to the fire that was among the cherubim, took some of it and put it into the hands of the man clothed in linen, who took it and went out.

Ezekiel 10:8 The cherubim appeared to have the form of a human hand under their wings.

Ezekiel 10:9 I looked, and there were four wheels beside the cherubim, one beside each cherub; and the appearance of the wheels was like gleaming beryl.

Ezekiel 10:10 And as for their appearance, the four looked alike, something like a wheel within a wheel.

Ezekiel 10:11 When they moved, they moved in any of the four directions without veering as they moved; but in whatever direction the front wheel faced, the others followed without veering as they moved.

Ezekiel 10:12 Their entire body, their rims, their spokes, their wings, and the wheels— the wheels of the four of them— were full of eyes all around.

Ezekiel 10:13 As for the wheels, they were called in my hearing "the wheelwork."

Ezekiel 10:14 Each one had four faces: the first face was that of the cherub, the second face was that of a human being, the third that of a lion, and the fourth that of an eagle.

Ezekiel 10:15 The cherubim rose up. These were the living creatures that I saw by the river Chebar.

Ezekiel 10:16 When the cherubim moved, the wheels moved beside them; and when the cherubim lifted up their wings to rise up from the earth, the wheels at their side did not veer.

Ezekiel 10:17 When they stopped, the others stopped, and when they rose up, the others rose up with them; for the spirit of the living creatures was in them.

Ezekiel 10:18 Then the glory of the LORD went out from the threshold of the house and stopped above the cherubim.

Ezekiel 10:19 The cherubim lifted up their wings and rose up from the earth in my sight as they went out with the wheels beside them. They stopped at the entrance of the east gate of the house of the LORD; and the glory of the God of Israel was above them.

Ezekiel 10:20 These were the living creatures that I saw underneath the God of Israel by the river Chebar; and I knew that they were cherubim.

Ezekiel 10:21 Each had four faces, each four wings, and underneath their wings something like human hands.

Ezekiel 10:22 As for what their faces were like, they were the same faces whose appearance I had seen by the river Chebar. Each one moved straight ahead.

Ezekiel 11:1 The spirit lifted me up and brought me to the east gate of the house of the LORD, which faces east. There, at the entrance of the gateway, were twenty-five men; among them I saw Jaazaniah son of Azzur, and Pelatiah son of Benaiah, officials of the people.

Ezekiel 11:2 He said to me, "Mortal, these are the men who devise iniquity and who give wicked counsel in this city;

Ezekiel 11:3 they say, 'The time is not near to build houses; this city is the pot, and we are the meat.'

Ezekiel 11:4 Therefore prophesy against them; prophesy, O mortal."

Ezekiel 11:5 Then the spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and he said to me, "Say, Thus says the LORD: This is what you think, O house of Israel; I know the things that come into your mind.

Ezekiel 11:6 You have killed many in this city, and have filled its streets with the slain.

Ezekiel 11:7 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: The slain whom you have placed within it are the meat, and this city is the pot; but you shall be taken out of it.

Ezekiel 11:8 You have feared the sword; and I will bring the sword upon you, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 11:9 I will take you out of it and give you over to the hands of foreigners, and execute judgments upon you.

Ezekiel 11:10 You shall fall by the sword; I will judge you at the border of Israel. And you shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 11:11 This city shall not be your pot, and you shall not be the meat inside it; I will judge you at the border of Israel.

Ezekiel 11:12 Then you shall know that I am the LORD, whose statutes you have not followed, and whose ordinances you have not kept, but you have acted according to the ordinances of the nations that are around you."

Ezekiel 11:13 Now, while I was prophesying, Pelatiah son of Benaiah died. Then I fell down on my face, cried with a loud voice, and said, "Ah Lord GOD! will you make a full end of the remnant of Israel?"

Ezekiel 11:14 Then the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 11:15 Mortal, your kinsfolk, your own kin, your fellow exiles, the whole house of Israel, all of them, are those of whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, "They have gone far from the LORD; to us this land is given for a possession."

Ezekiel 11:16 Therefore say: Thus says the Lord GOD: Though I removed them far away among the nations, and though I scattered them among the countries, yet I have been a sanctuary to them for a little while in the countries where they have gone.

Ezekiel 11:17 Therefore say: Thus says the Lord GOD: I will gather you from the peoples, and assemble you out of the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.

Ezekiel 11:18 When they come there, they will remove from it all its detestable things and all its abominations.

Ezekiel 11:19 I will give them one heart, and put a new spirit within them; I will remove the heart of stone from their flesh and give them a heart of flesh,

Ezekiel 11:20 so that they may follow my statutes and keep my ordinances and obey them. Then they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

Ezekiel 11:21 But as for those whose heart goes after their detestable things and their abominations, I will bring their deeds upon their own heads, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 11:22 Then the cherubim lifted up their wings, with the wheels beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was above them.

Ezekiel 11:23 And the glory of the LORD ascended from the middle of the city, and stopped on the mountain east of the city.

Ezekiel 11:24 The spirit lifted me up and brought me in a vision by the spirit of God into Chaldea, to the exiles. Then the vision that I had seen left me.

Ezekiel 11:25 And I told the exiles all the things that the LORD had shown me.

Ezekiel 12:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 12:2 Mortal, you are living in the midst of a rebellious house, who have eyes to see but do not see, who have ears to hear but do not hear;

Ezekiel 12:3 for they are a rebellious house. Therefore, mortal, prepare for yourself an exile’s baggage, and go into exile by day in their sight; you shall go like an exile from your place to another place in their sight. Perhaps they will understand, though they are a rebellious house.

Ezekiel 12:4 You shall bring out your baggage by day in their sight, as baggage for exile; and you shall go out yourself at evening in their sight, as those do who go into exile.

Ezekiel 12:5 Dig through the wall in their sight, and carry the baggage through it.

Ezekiel 12:6 In their sight you shall lift the baggage on your shoulder, and carry it out in the dark; you shall cover your face, so that you may not see the land; for I have made you a sign for the house of Israel.

Ezekiel 12:7 I did just as I was commanded. I brought out my baggage by day, as baggage for exile, and in the evening I dug through the wall with my own hands; I brought it out in the dark, carrying it on my shoulder in their sight.

Ezekiel 12:8 In the morning the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 12:9 Mortal, has not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said to you, “What are you doing?”

Ezekiel 12:10 Say to them, “Thus says the Lord GOD: This oracle concerns the prince in Jerusalem and all the house of Israel in it.”

Ezekiel 12:11 Say, “I am a sign for you: as I have done, so shall it be done to them; they shall go into exile, into captivity.”

Ezekiel 12:12 And the prince who is among them shall lift his baggage on his shoulder in the dark, and shall go out; he shall dig through the wall and carry it through; he shall cover his face, so that he may not see the land with his eyes.

Ezekiel 12:13 I will spread my net over him, and he shall be caught in my snare; and I will bring him to Babylon, the land of the Chaldeans, yet he shall not see it; and he shall die there.

Ezekiel 12:14 I will scatter to every wind all who are around him, his helpers and all his troops; and I will unsheathe the sword behind them.

Ezekiel 12:15 And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I disperse them among the nations and scatter them through the countries.

Ezekiel 12:16 But I will let a few of them escape from the sword, from famine and pestilence, so that they may tell of all their abominations among the nations where they go; then they shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 12:17 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 12:18 Mortal, eat your bread with quaking, and drink your water with trembling and with fearfulness;

Ezekiel 12:19 and say to the people of the land, Thus says the Lord GOD concerning the inhabitants of Jerusalem in the land of Israel: They shall eat their bread with fearfulness, and drink their water in dismay, because their land shall be stripped of all it contains, on account of the violence of all those who live in it.

Ezekiel 12:20 The inhabited cities shall be laid waste, and the land shall become a desolation; and you shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 12:21 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 12:22 Mortal, what is this proverb of yours about the land of Israel, which says, “The days are prolonged, and every vision comes to nothing”?

Ezekiel 12:23 Tell them therefore, “Thus says the Lord GOD: I will put an end to this proverb, and they shall use it no more as a proverb in Israel.” But say to them, The days are near, and the fulfillment of every vision.

Ezekiel 12:24 For there shall no longer be any false vision or flattering divination within the house of Israel.

Ezekiel 12:25 But I the LORD will speak the word that I speak, and it will be fulfilled. It will no longer be delayed; but in your days, O rebellious house, I will speak the word and fulfill it, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 12:26 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 12:27 Mortal, the house of Israel is saying, “The vision that he sees is for many years ahead; he prophesies for distant times.”

Ezekiel 12:28 Therefore say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: None of my words will be delayed any longer, but the word that I speak will be fulfilled, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 13:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 13:2 Mortal, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who are prophesying; say to those who prophesy out of their own imagination: “Hear the word of the LORD!”

Ezekiel 13:3 Thus says the Lord GOD, Alas for the senseless prophets who follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing!

Ezekiel 13:4 Your prophets have been like jackals among ruins, O Israel.

Ezekiel 13:5 You have not gone up into the breaches, or repaired a wall for the house of Israel, so that it might stand in battle on the day of the LORD.

Ezekiel 13:6 They have envisioned falsehood and lying divination; they say, “Says the LORD,” when the LORD has not sent them, and yet they wait for the fulfillment of their word!

Ezekiel 13:7 Have you not seen a false vision or uttered a lying divination, when you have said, “Says the LORD,” even though I did not speak?

Ezekiel 13:8 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have uttered falsehood and envisioned lies, I am against you, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 13:9 My hand will be against the prophets who see false visions and utter lying divinations; they shall not be in the council of my people, nor be enrolled in the register of the house of Israel, nor shall they enter the land of Israel; and you shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 13:10 Because, in truth, because they have misled my people, saying, “Peace,” when there is no peace; and because, when the people build a wall, these prophets smear whitewash on it.

Ezekiel 13:11 Say to those who smear whitewash on it that it shall fall. There will be a deluge of rain, great hailstones will fall, and a stormy wind will break out.

Ezekiel 13:12 When the wall falls, will it not be said to you, “Where is the whitewash you smeared on it?”

Ezekiel 13:13 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: In my wrath I will make a stormy wind break out, and in my anger there shall be a deluge of rain, and hailstones in wrath to destroy it.

Ezekiel 13:14 I will break down the wall that you have smeared with whitewash, and bring it to the ground, so that its foundation will be laid bare; when it falls, you shall perish within it; and you shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 13:15 Thus I will spend my wrath upon the wall, and upon those who have smeared it with whitewash; and I will say to you, The wall is no more, nor those who smeared it—

Ezekiel 13:16 the prophets of Israel who prophesied concerning Jerusalem and saw visions of peace for it, when there was no peace, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 13:17 As for you, mortal, set your face against the daughters of your people, who prophesy out of their own imagination; prophesy against them

Ezekiel 13:18 and say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Woe to the women who sew bands on all wrists, and make veils for the heads of persons of every height, in the hunt for human lives! Will you hunt down lives among my people, and maintain your own lives?

Ezekiel 13:19 You have profaned me among my people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, putting to death persons who should not die and keeping alive persons who should not live, by your lies to my people, who listen to lies.

Ezekiel 13:20 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I am against your bands with which you hunt lives; I will tear them from your arms, and let the lives go free, the lives that you hunt down like birds.

Ezekiel 13:21 I will tear off your veils, and save my people from your hands; they shall no longer be prey in your hands; and you shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 13:22 Because you have disheartened the righteous falsely, although I have not disheartened them, and you have encouraged the wicked not to turn from their wicked way and save their lives;

Ezekiel 13:23 therefore you shall no longer see false visions or practice divination; I will save my people from your hand. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 14:1 Certain elders of Israel came to me and sat down before me.

Ezekiel 14:2 And the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 14:3 Mortal, these men have taken their idols into their hearts, and placed their iniquity as a stumbling block before them; shall I let myself be consulted by them?

Ezekiel 14:4 Therefore speak to them, and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Any of those of the house of Israel who take their idols into their hearts and place their iniquity as a stumbling block before them, and yet come to the prophet— I the LORD will answer those who come with the multitude of their idols,

Ezekiel 14:5 in order that I may take hold of the hearts of the house of Israel, all of whom are estranged from me through their idols.

Ezekiel 14:6 Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: Repent and turn away from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations.

Ezekiel 14:7 For any of those of the house of Israel, or of the aliens who reside in Israel, who separate themselves from me, taking their idols into their hearts and placing their iniquity as a stumbling block before them, and yet come to a prophet to inquire of me by him, I the LORD will answer them myself.

Ezekiel 14:8 I will set my face against them; I will make them a sign and a byword and cut them off from the midst of my people; and you shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 14:9 If a prophet is deceived and speaks a word, I, the LORD, have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand against him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel.

Ezekiel 14:10 And they shall bear their punishment— the punishment of the inquirer and the punishment of the prophet shall be the same—

Ezekiel 14:11 so that the house of Israel may no longer go astray from me, nor defile themselves any more with all their transgressions. Then they shall be my people, and I will be their God, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 14:12 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 14:13 Mortal, when a land sins against me by acting faithlessly, and I stretch out my hand against it, and break its staff of bread and send famine upon it, and cut off from it human beings and animals,

Ezekiel 14:14 even if Noah, Daniel, and Job, these three, were in it, they would save only their own lives by their righteousness, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 14:15 If I send wild animals through the land to ravage it, so that it is made desolate, and no one may pass through because of the animals;

Ezekiel 14:16 even if these three men were in it, as I live, says the Lord GOD, they would save neither sons nor daughters; they alone would be saved, but the land would be desolate.

Ezekiel 14:17 Or if I bring a sword upon that land and say, ‘Let a sword pass through the land,’ and I cut off human beings and animals from it;

Ezekiel 14:18 though these three men were in it, as I live, says the Lord GOD, they would save neither sons nor daughters, but they alone would be saved.

Ezekiel 14:19 Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out my wrath upon it with blood, to cut off humans and animals from it;

Ezekiel 14:20 even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, as I live, says the Lord GOD, they would save neither son nor daughter; they would save only their own lives by their righteousness.

Ezekiel 14:21 For thus says the Lord GOD: How much more when I send upon Jerusalem my four deadly acts of judgment, sword, famine, wild animals, and pestilence, to cut off humans and animals from it!

Ezekiel 14:22 Yet, survivors shall be left in it, sons and daughters who will be brought out; they will come out to you. When you see their ways and their deeds, you will be consoled for the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, for all that I have brought upon it.

Ezekiel 14:23 They shall console you, when you see their ways and their deeds; and you shall know that it was not without cause that I did all that I have done in it, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 15:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 15:2 O mortal, how does the wood of the vine surpass all other wood— the vine branch that is among the trees of the forest?

Ezekiel 15:3 Is wood taken from it to make anything? Does one take a peg from it on which to hang any object?

Ezekiel 15:4 It is put in the fire for fuel; when the fire has consumed both ends of it and the middle of it is charred, is it useful for anything?

Ezekiel 15:5 When it was whole it was used for nothing; how much less— when the fire has consumed it, and it is charred— can it ever be used for anything!

Ezekiel 15:6 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Like the wood of the vine among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so I will give up the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

Ezekiel 15:7 I will set my face against them; although they escape from the fire, the fire shall still consume them; and you shall know that I am the LORD, when I set my face against them.

Ezekiel 15:8 And I will make the land desolate, because they have acted faithlessly, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 16:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 16:2 Mortal, make known to Jerusalem her abominations, Ezekiel 16:3 and say, Thus says the Lord GOD to Jerusalem: Your origin and your birth were in the land of the Canaanites; your father was an Amorite, and your mother a Hittite.

Ezekiel 16:4 As for your birth, on the day you were born your navel cord was not cut, nor were you washed with water to cleanse you, nor rubbed with salt, nor wrapped in cloths.

Ezekiel 16:5 No eye pitied you, to do any of these things for you out of compassion for you; but you were thrown out in the open field, for you were abhorred on the day you were born.

Ezekiel 16:6 I passed by you, and saw you flailing about in your blood. As you lay in your blood, I said to you, “Live!

Ezekiel 16:7 and grow up like a plant of the field.” You grew up and became tall and arrived at full womanhood; your breasts were formed, and your hair had grown; yet you were naked and bare.

Ezekiel 16:8 I passed by you again and looked on you; you were at the age for love. I spread the edge of my cloak over you, and covered your nakedness: I pledged myself to you and entered into a covenant with you, says the Lord GOD, and you became mine.

Ezekiel 16:9 Then I bathed you with water and washed off the blood from you, and anointed you with oil.

Ezekiel 16:10 I clothed you with embroidered cloth and with sandals of fine leather; I bound you in fine linen and covered you with rich fabric.

Ezekiel 16:11 I adorned you with ornaments: I put bracelets on your arms, a chain on your neck,

Ezekiel 16:12 a ring on your nose, earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown upon your head.

Ezekiel 16:13 You were adorned with gold and silver, while your clothing was of fine linen, rich fabric, and embroidered cloth. You had choice flour and honey and oil for food. You grew exceedingly beautiful, fit to be a queen.

Ezekiel 16:14 Your fame spread among the nations on account of your beauty, for it was perfect because of my splendor that I had bestowed on you, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 16:15 But you trusted in your beauty, and played the whore because of your fame, and lavished your whorings on any passer-by.

Ezekiel 16:16 You took some of your garments, and made for yourself colorful shrines, and on them played the whore; nothing like this has ever been or ever shall be.

Ezekiel 16:17 You also took your beautiful jewels of my gold and my silver that I had given you, and made for yourself male images, and with them played the whore;

Ezekiel 16:18 and you took your embroidered garments to cover them, and set my oil and my incense before them.

Ezekiel 16:19 Also my bread that I gave you— I fed you with choice flour and oil and honey— you set it before them as a pleasing odor; and so it was, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 16:20 You took your sons and your daughters, whom you had borne to me, and these you sacrificed to them to be devoured. As if your whorings were not enough!

Ezekiel 16:21 You slaughtered my children and delivered them up as an offering to them.

Ezekiel 16:22 And in all your abominations and your whorings you did not remember the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, flailing about in your blood.

Ezekiel 16:23 After all your wickedness (woe, woe to you! says the Lord GOD),

Ezekiel 16:24 you built yourself a platform and made yourself a lofty place in every square;

Ezekiel 16:25 at the head of every street you built your lofty place and prostituted your beauty, offering yourself to every passer-by, and multiplying your whoring.

Ezekiel 16:26 You played the whore with the Egyptians, your lustful neighbors, multiplying your whoring, to provoke me to anger.

Ezekiel 16:27 Therefore I stretched out my hand against you, reduced your rations, and gave you up to the will of your enemies, the daughters of the Philistines, who were ashamed of your lewd behavior.

Ezekiel 16:28 You played the whore with the Assyrians, because you were insatiable; you played the whore with them, and still you were not satisfied.

Ezekiel 16:29 You multiplied your whoring with Chaldea, the land of merchants; and even with this you were not satisfied.

Ezekiel 16:30 How sick is your heart, says the Lord GOD, that you did all these things, the deeds of a brazen whore;

Ezekiel 16:31 building your platform at the head of every street, and making your lofty place in every square! Yet you were not like a whore, because you scorned payment.

Ezekiel 16:32 Adulterous wife, who receives strangers instead of her husband!

Ezekiel 16:33 Gifts are given to all whores; but you gave your gifts to all your lovers, bribing them to come to you from all around for your whorings.

Ezekiel 16:34 So you were different from other women in your whorings: no one solicited you to play the whore; and you gave payment, while no payment was given to you; you were different.

Ezekiel 16:35 Therefore, O whore, hear the word of the LORD:

Ezekiel 16:36 Thus says the Lord GOD, Because your lust was poured out and your nakedness uncovered in your whoring with your lovers, and because of all your abominable idols, and because of the blood of your children that you gave to them,

Ezekiel 16:37 therefore, I will gather all your lovers, with whom you took pleasure, all those you loved and all those you hated; I will gather them against you from all around, and will uncover your nakedness to them, so that they may see all your nakedness.

Ezekiel 16:38 I will judge you as women who commit adultery and shed blood are judged, and bring blood upon you in wrath and jealousy.

Ezekiel 16:39 I will deliver you into their hands, and they shall throw down your platform and break down your lofty places; they shall strip you of your clothes and take your beautiful objects and leave you naked and bare.

Ezekiel 16:40 They shall bring up a mob against you, and they shall stone you and cut you to pieces with their swords.

Ezekiel 16:41 They shall burn your houses and execute judgments on you in the sight of many women; I will stop you from playing the whore, and you shall also make no more payments.

Ezekiel 16:42 So I will satisfy my fury on you, and my jealousy shall turn away from you; I will be calm, and will be angry no longer.

Ezekiel 16:43 Because you have not remembered the days of your youth, but have enraged me with all these things; therefore, I have returned your deeds upon your head, says the Lord GOD. Have you not committed lewdness beyond all your abominations?

Ezekiel 16:44 See, everyone who uses proverbs will use this proverb about you, “Like mother, like daughter.”

Ezekiel 16:45 You are the daughter of your mother, who loathed her husband and her children; and you are the sister of your sisters, who loathed their husbands and their children. Your mother was a Hittite and your father an Amorite.

Ezekiel 16:46 Your elder sister is Samaria, who lived with her daughters to the north of you; and your younger sister, who lived to the south of you, is Sodom with her daughters.

Ezekiel 16:47 You not only followed their ways, and acted according to their abominations; within a very little time you were more corrupt than they in all your ways.

Ezekiel 16:48 As I live, says the Lord GOD, your sister Sodom and her daughters have not done as you and your daughters have done.

Ezekiel 16:49 This was the guilt of your sister Sodom: she and her daughters had pride, excess of food, and prosperous ease, but did not aid the poor and needy.

Ezekiel 16:50 They were haughty, and did abominable things before me; therefore I removed them when I saw it.

Ezekiel 16:51 Samaria has not committed half your sins; you have committed more abominations than they, and have made your sisters appear righteous by all the abominations that you have committed.

Ezekiel 16:52 Bear your disgrace, you also, for you have brought about for your sisters a more favorable judgment; because of your sins in which you acted more abominably than they, they are more in the right than you. So be ashamed, you also, and bear your disgrace, for you have made your sisters appear righteous.

Ezekiel 16:53 I will restore their fortunes, the fortunes of Sodom and her daughters and the fortunes of Samaria and her daughters, and I will restore your own fortunes along with theirs,

Ezekiel 16:54 in order that you may bear your disgrace and be ashamed of all that you have done, becoming a consolation to them.

Ezekiel 16:55 As for your sisters, Sodom and her daughters shall return to their former state, Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former state, and you and your daughters shall return to your former state.

Ezekiel 16:56 Was not your sister Sodom a byword in your mouth in the day of your pride,

Ezekiel 16:57 before your wickedness was uncovered? Now you are a mockery to the daughters of Aram and all her neighbors, and to the daughters of the Philistines, those all around who despise you.

Ezekiel 16:58 You must bear the penalty of your lewdness and your abominations, says the LORD.

Ezekiel 16:59 Yes, thus says the Lord GOD: I will deal with you as you have done, you who have despised the oath, breaking the covenant;

Ezekiel 16:60 yet I will remember my covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish with you an everlasting covenant.

Ezekiel 16:61 Then you will remember your ways, and be ashamed when I take your sisters, both your elder and your younger, and give them to you as daughters, but not on account of my covenant with you.

Ezekiel 16:62 I will establish my covenant with you, and you shall know that I am the LORD,

Ezekiel 16:63 in order that you may remember and be confounded, and never open your mouth again because of your shame, when I forgive you all that you have done, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 17:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 17:2 O mortal, propound a riddle, and speak an allegory to the house of Israel.

Ezekiel 17:3 Say: Thus says the Lord GOD: A great eagle, with great wings and long pinions, rich in plumage of many colors, came to the Lebanon. He took the top of the cedar,

Ezekiel 17:4 broke off its topmost shoot; He carried it to a land of trade, set it in a city of merchants.

Ezekiel 17:5 Then he took a seed from the land, placed it in fertile soil; a plant by abundant waters, he set it like a willow twig.

Ezekiel 17:6 It sprouted and became a vine spreading out, but low; its branches turned toward him, its roots remained where it stood. So it became a vine; it brought forth branches, put forth foliage.

Ezekiel 17:7 There was another great eagle, with great wings and much plumage. And see! This vine stretched out its roots toward him; it shot out its branches toward him, so that he might water it. From the bed where it was planted

Ezekiel 17:8 it was transplanted to good soil by abundant waters, so that it might produce branches and bear fruit and become a noble vine.

Ezekiel 17:9 Say: Thus says the Lord GOD: Will it prosper? Will he not pull up its roots, cause its fruit to rot and wither, its fresh sprouting leaves to fade? No strong arm or mighty army will be needed to pull it from its roots.

Ezekiel 17:10 When it is transplanted, will it thrive? When the east wind strikes it, will it not utterly wither, wither on the bed where it grew?

Ezekiel 17:11 Then the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 17:12 Say now to the rebellious house: Do you not know what these things mean? Tell them: The king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, took its king and its officials, and brought them back with him to Babylon.

Ezekiel 17:13 He took one of the royal offspring and made a covenant with him, putting him under oath (he had taken away the chief men of the land),

Ezekiel 17:14 so that the kingdom might be humble and not lift itself up, and that by keeping his covenant it might stand.

Ezekiel 17:15 But he rebelled against him by sending ambassadors to Egypt, in order that they might give him horses and a large army. Will he succeed? Can one escape who does such things? Can he break the covenant and yet escape?

Ezekiel 17:16 As I live, says the Lord GOD, surely in the place where the king resides who made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant with him he broke— in Babylon he shall die.

Ezekiel 17:17 Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company will not help him in war, when ramps are cast up and siege walls built to cut off many lives.

Ezekiel 17:18 Because he despised the oath and broke the covenant, because he gave his hand and yet did all these things, he shall not escape.

Ezekiel 17:19 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: As I live, I will surely return upon his head my oath that he despised, and my covenant that he broke.

Ezekiel 17:20 I will spread my net over him, and he shall be caught in my snare; I will bring him to Babylon and enter into judgment with him there for the treason he has committed against me.

Ezekiel 17:21 All the pick of his troops shall fall by the sword, and the survivors shall be scattered to every wind; and you shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken.

Ezekiel 17:22 Thus says the Lord GOD: I myself will take a sprig from the lofty top of a cedar; I will set it out. I will break off a tender one from the topmost of its young twigs; I myself will plant it on a high and lofty mountain.

Ezekiel 17:23 On the mountain height of Israel I will plant it, in order that it may produce boughs and bear fruit, and become a noble cedar. Under it every kind of bird will live; in the shade of its branches will nest winged creatures of every kind.

Ezekiel 17:24 All the trees of the field shall know that I am the LORD. I bring low the high tree, I make high the low tree; I dry up the green tree and make the dry tree flourish. I the LORD have spoken; I will accomplish it.

Ezekiel 18:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 18:2 What do you mean by repeating this proverb concerning the land of Israel, “The parents have eaten sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are set on edge”?

Ezekiel 18:3 As I live, says the Lord GOD, this proverb shall no more be used by you in Israel.

Ezekiel 18:4 Know that all lives are mine; the life of the parent as well as the life of the child is mine: it is only the person who sins that shall die.

Ezekiel 18:5 If a man is righteous and does what is lawful and right—

Ezekiel 18:6 if he does not eat upon the mountains or lift up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, does not defile his neighbor’s wife or approach a woman during her menstrual period, Ezekiel 18:7 does not oppress anyone, but restores to the debtor his pledge, commits no robbery, gives his bread to the hungry and covers the naked with a garment,

Ezekiel 18:8 does not take advance or accrued interest, withholds his hand from iniquity, executes true justice between contending parties,

Ezekiel 18:9 follows my statutes, and is careful to observe my ordinances, acting faithfully— such a one is righteous; he shall surely live, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 18:10 If he has a son who is violent, a shedder of blood,

Ezekiel 18:11 who does any of these things (though his father does none of them), who eats upon the mountains, defiles his neighbor's wife,

Ezekiel 18:12 oppresses the poor and needy, commits robbery, does not restore the pledge, lifts up his eyes to the idols, commits abomination,

Ezekiel 18:13 takes advance or accrued interest; shall he then live? He shall not. He has done all these abominable things; he shall surely die; his blood shall be upon himself.

Ezekiel 18:14 But if this man has a son who sees all the sins that his father has done, considers, and does not do likewise,

Ezekiel 18:15 who does not eat upon the mountains or lift up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, does not defile his neighbor's wife,

Ezekiel 18:16 does not wrong anyone, exacts no pledge, commits no robbery, but gives his bread to the hungry and covers the naked with a garment,

Ezekiel 18:17 withholds his hand from iniquity, takes no advance or accrued interest, observes my ordinances, and follows my statutes; he shall not die for his father's iniquity; he shall surely live.

Ezekiel 18:18 As for his father, because he practiced extortion, robbed his brother, and did what is not good among his people, he dies for his iniquity.

Ezekiel 18:19 Yet you say, "Why should not the son suffer for the iniquity of the father?" When the son has done what is lawful and right, and has been careful to observe all my statutes, he shall surely live.

Ezekiel 18:20 The person who sins shall die. A child shall not suffer for the iniquity of a parent, nor a parent suffer for the iniquity of a child; the righteousness of the righteous shall be his own, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be his own.

Ezekiel 18:21 But if the wicked turn away from all their sins that they have committed and keep all my statutes and do what is lawful and right, they shall surely live; they shall not die.

Ezekiel 18:22 None of the transgressions that they have committed shall be remembered against them; for the righteousness that they have done they shall live.

Ezekiel 18:23 Have I any pleasure in the death of the wicked, says the Lord GOD, and not rather that they should turn from their ways and live?

Ezekiel 18:24 But when the righteous turn away from their righteousness and commit iniquity and do the same abominable things that the wicked do, shall they live? None of the righteous deeds that they have done shall be remembered; for the treachery of which they are guilty and the sin they have committed, they shall die.

Ezekiel 18:25 Yet you say, “The way of the Lord is unfair.” Hear now, O house of Israel: Is my way unfair? Is it not your ways that are unfair?

Ezekiel 18:26 When the righteous turn away from their righteousness and commit iniquity, they shall die for it; for the iniquity that they have committed they shall die.

Ezekiel 18:27 Again, when the wicked turn away from the wickedness they have committed and do what is lawful and right, they shall save their life.

Ezekiel 18:28 Because they considered and turned away from all the transgressions that they had committed, they shall surely live; they shall not die.

Ezekiel 18:29 Yet the house of Israel says, “The way of the Lord is unfair.” O house of Israel, are my ways unfair? Is it not your ways that are unfair?

Ezekiel 18:30 Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, all of you according to your ways, says the Lord GOD. Repent and turn from all your transgressions; otherwise iniquity will be your ruin.

Ezekiel 18:31 Cast away from you all the transgressions that you have committed against me, and get yourselves a new heart and a new spirit! Why will you die, O house of Israel?

Ezekiel 18:32 For I have no pleasure in the death of anyone, says the Lord GOD. Turn, then, and live.

Ezekiel 19:1 As for you, raise up a lamentation for the princes of Israel, Ezekiel 19:2 and say: What a lioness was your mother among lions! She lay down among young lions, rearing her cubs.

Ezekiel 19:3 She raised up one of her cubs; he became a young lion, and he learned to catch prey; he devoured humans.

Ezekiel 19:4 The nations sounded an alarm against him; he was caught in their pit; and they brought him with hooks to the land of Egypt.

Ezekiel 19:5 When she saw that she was thwarted, that her hope was lost, she took another of her cubs and made him a young lion.

Ezekiel 19:6 He prowled among the lions; he became a young lion, and he learned to catch prey; he devoured people.

Ezekiel 19:7 And he ravaged their strongholds, and laid waste their towns; the land was appalled, and all in it, at the sound of his roaring.

Ezekiel 19:8 The nations set upon him from the provinces all around; they spread their net over him; he was caught in their pit.

Ezekiel 19:9 With hooks they put him in a cage, and brought him to the king of Babylon; they brought him into custody, so that his voice should be heard no more on the mountains of Israel.

Ezekiel 19:10 Your mother was like a vine in a vineyard transplanted by the water, fruitful and full of branches from abundant water.

Ezekiel 19:11 Its strongest stem became a ruler’s scepter; it towered aloft among the thick boughs; it stood out in its height with its mass of branches.

Ezekiel 19:12 But it was plucked up in fury, cast down to the ground; the east wind dried it up; its fruit was stripped off, its strong stem was withered; the fire consumed it.

Ezekiel 19:13 Now it is transplanted into the wilderness, into a dry and thirsty land.

Ezekiel 19:14 And fire has gone out from its stem, has consumed its branches and fruit, so that there remains in it no strong stem, no scepter for ruling. This is a lamentation, and it is used as a lamentation.

Ezekiel 20:1 In the seventh year, in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, certain elders of Israel came to consult the LORD, and sat down before me.

Ezekiel 20:2 And the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 20:3 Mortal, speak to the elders of Israel, and say to them: Thus says the Lord GOD: Why are you coming? To consult me? As I live, says the Lord GOD, I will not be consulted by you.

Ezekiel 20:4 Will you judge them, mortal, will you judge them? Then let them know the abominations of their ancestors,

Ezekiel 20:5 and say to them: Thus says the Lord GOD: On the day when I chose Israel, I swore to the offspring of the house of Jacob— making myself known to them in the land of Egypt— I swore to them, saying, I am the LORD your God.

Ezekiel 20:6 On that day I swore to them that I would bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, a land flowing with milk and honey, the most glorious of all lands.

Ezekiel 20:7 And I said to them, Cast away the detestable things your eyes feast on, every one of you, and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt; I am the LORD your God.

Ezekiel 20:8 But they rebelled against me and would not listen to me; not one of them cast away the detestable things their eyes feasted on, nor did they forsake the idols of Egypt. Then I thought I would pour out my wrath upon them and spend my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.

Ezekiel 20:9 But I acted for the sake of my name, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations among whom they lived, in whose sight I made myself known to them in bringing them out of the land of Egypt.

Ezekiel 20:10 So I led them out of the land of Egypt and brought them into the wilderness.

Ezekiel 20:11 I gave them my statutes and showed them my ordinances, by whose observance everyone shall live.

Ezekiel 20:12 Moreover I gave them my sabbaths, as a sign between me and them, so that they might know that I the LORD sanctify them.

Ezekiel 20:13 But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness; they did not observe my statutes but rejected my ordinances, by whose observance everyone shall live; and my sabbaths they greatly profaned. Then I thought I would pour out my wrath upon them in the wilderness, to make an end of them.

Ezekiel 20:14 But I acted for the sake of my name, so that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I had brought them out.

Ezekiel 20:15 Moreover I swore to them in the wilderness that I would not bring them into the land that I had given them, a land flowing with milk and honey, the most glorious of all lands,

Ezekiel 20:16 because they rejected my ordinances and did not observe my statutes, and profaned my sabbaths; for their heart went after their idols.

Ezekiel 20:17 Nevertheless my eye spared them, and I did not destroy them or make an end of them in the wilderness.

Ezekiel 20:18 I said to their children in the wilderness, Do not follow the statutes of your parents, nor observe their ordinances, nor defile yourselves with their idols.

Ezekiel 20:19 I the LORD am your God; follow my statutes, and be careful to observe my ordinances,

Ezekiel 20:20 and hallow my sabbaths that they may be a sign between me and you, so that you may know that I the LORD am your God.

Ezekiel 20:21 But the children rebelled against me; they did not follow my statutes, and were not careful to observe my ordinances, by whose observance everyone shall live; they profaned my sabbaths. Then I thought I would pour out my wrath upon them and spend my anger against them in the wilderness.

Ezekiel 20:22 But I withheld my hand, and acted for the sake of my name, so that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I had brought them out.

Ezekiel 20:23 Moreover I swore to them in the wilderness that I would scatter them among the nations and disperse them through the countries,

Ezekiel 20:24 because they had not executed my ordinances, but had rejected my statutes and profaned my sabbaths, and their eyes were set on their ancestors' idols.

Ezekiel 20:25 Moreover I gave them statutes that were not good and ordinances by which they could not live.

Ezekiel 20:26 I defiled them through their very gifts, in their offering up all their firstborn, in order that I might horrify them, so that they might know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 20:27 Therefore, mortal, speak to the house of Israel and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: In this again your ancestors blasphemed me, by dealing treacherously with me.

Ezekiel 20:28 For when I had brought them into the land that I swore to give them, then wherever they saw any high hill or any leafy tree, there they offered their sacrifices and presented the provocation of their offering; there they sent up their pleasing odors, and there they poured out their drink offerings.

Ezekiel 20:29 (I said to them, What is the high place to which you go? So it is called Bamah to this day.)

Ezekiel 20:30 Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: Will you defile yourselves after the manner of your ancestors and go astray after their detestable things?

Ezekiel 20:31 When you offer your gifts and make your children pass through the fire, you defile yourselves with all your idols to this day. And shall I be consulted by you, O house of Israel? As I live, says the Lord GOD, I will not be consulted by you.

Ezekiel 20:32 What is in your mind shall never happen— the thought, "Let us be like the nations, like the tribes of the countries, and worship wood and stone."

Ezekiel 20:33 As I live, says the Lord GOD, surely with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out, I will be king over you.

Ezekiel 20:34 I will bring you out from the peoples and gather you out of the countries where you are scattered, with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out;

Ezekiel 20:35 and I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there I will enter into judgment with you face to face.

Ezekiel 20:36 As I entered into judgment with your ancestors in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will enter into judgment with you, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 20:37 I will make you pass under the staff, and will bring you within the bond of the covenant.

Ezekiel 20:38 I will purge out the rebels among you, and those who transgress against me; I will bring them out of the land where they reside as aliens, but they shall not enter the land of Israel. Then you shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 20:39 As for you, O house of Israel, thus says the Lord GOD: Go serve your idols, everyone of you now and hereafter, if you will not listen to me; but my holy name you shall no more profane with your gifts and your idols.

Ezekiel 20:40 For on my holy mountain, the mountain height of Israel, says the Lord GOD, there all the house of Israel, all of them, shall serve me in the land; there I will accept them, and there I will require your contributions and the choicest of your gifts, with all your sacred things.

Ezekiel 20:41 As a pleasing odor I will accept you, when I bring you out from the peoples, and gather you out of the countries where you have been scattered; and I will manifest my holiness among you in the sight of the nations.

Ezekiel 20:42 You shall know that I am the LORD, when I bring you into the land of Israel, the country that I swore to give to your ancestors.

Ezekiel 20:43 There you shall remember your ways and all the deeds by which you have polluted yourselves; and you shall loathe yourselves for all the evils that you have committed.

Ezekiel 20:44 And you shall know that I am the LORD, when I deal with you for my name’s sake, not according to your evil ways, or corrupt deeds, O house of Israel, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 20:45 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 20:46 Mortal, set your face toward the south, preach against the south, and prophesy against the forest land in the Negeb;

Ezekiel 20:47 say to the forest of the Negeb, Hear the word of the LORD: Thus says the Lord GOD, I will kindle a fire in you, and it shall devour every green tree in you and every dry tree; the blazing flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from south to north shall be scorched by it.

Ezekiel 20:48 All flesh shall see that I the LORD have kindled it; it shall not be quenched.

Ezekiel 20:49 Then I said, “Ah Lord GOD! they are saying of me, ‘Is he not a maker of allegories?’“

Ezekiel 21:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 21:2 Mortal, set your face toward Jerusalem and preach against the sanctuaries; prophesy against the land of Israel

Ezekiel 21:3 and say to the land of Israel, Thus says the LORD: I am coming against you, and will draw my sword out of its sheath, and will cut off from you both righteous and wicked.

Ezekiel 21:4 Because I will cut off from you both righteous and wicked, therefore my sword shall go out of its sheath against all flesh from south to north;

Ezekiel 21:5 and all flesh shall know that I the LORD have drawn my sword out of its sheath; it shall not be sheathed again.

Ezekiel 21:6 Moan therefore, mortal; moan with breaking heart and bitter grief before their eyes.

Ezekiel 21:7 And when they say to you, “Why do you moan?” you shall say, “Because of the news that has come. Every heart will melt and all hands will be feeble, every spirit will faint and all knees will turn to water. See, it comes and it will be fulfilled,” says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 21:8 And the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 21:9 Mortal, prophesy and say: Thus says the Lord; Say: A sword, a sword is sharpened, it is also polished;

Ezekiel 21:10 it is sharpened for slaughter, honed to flash like lightning! How can we make merry? You have despised the rod, and all discipline.

Ezekiel 21:11 The sword is given to be polished, to be grasped in the hand; it is sharpened, the sword is polished, to be placed in the slayer’s hand.

Ezekiel 21:12 Cry and wail, O mortal, for it is against my people; it is against all Israel’s princes; they are thrown to the sword, together with my people. Ah! Strike the thigh!

Ezekiel 21:13 For consider: What! If you despise the rod, will it not happen? says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 21:14 And you, mortal, prophesy; strike hand to hand. Let the sword fall twice, thrice; it is a sword for killing. A sword for great slaughter— it surrounds them;

Ezekiel 21:15 therefore hearts melt and many stumble. At all their gates I have set the point of the sword. Ah! It is made for flashing, it is polished for slaughter.

Ezekiel 21:16 Attack to the right! Engage to the left!— wherever your edge is directed.

Ezekiel 21:17 I too will strike hand to hand, I will satisfy my fury; I the LORD have spoken.

Ezekiel 21:18 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 21:19 Mortal, mark out two roads for the sword of the king of Babylon to come; both of them shall issue from the same land. And make a signpost, make it for a fork in the road leading to a city;

Ezekiel 21:20 mark out the road for the sword to come to Rabbah of the Ammonites or to Judah and to Jerusalem the fortified.

Ezekiel 21:21 For the king of Babylon stands at the parting of the way, at the fork in the two roads, to use divination; he shakes the arrows, he consults the teraphim, he inspects the liver.

Ezekiel 21:22 Into his right hand comes the lot for Jerusalem, to set battering rams, to call out for slaughter, for raising the battle cry, to set battering rams against the gates, to cast up ramps, to build siege towers.

Ezekiel 21:23 But to them it will seem like a false divination; they have sworn solemn oaths; but he brings their guilt to remembrance, bringing about their capture.

Ezekiel 21:24 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have brought your guilt to remembrance, in that your transgressions are uncovered, so that in all your deeds your sins appear— because you have come to remembrance, you shall be taken in hand.

Ezekiel 21:25 As for you, vile, wicked prince of Israel, you whose day has come, the time of final punishment,

Ezekiel 21:26 thus says the Lord GOD: Remove the turban, take off the crown; things shall not remain as they are. Exalt that which is low, abase that which is high.

Ezekiel 21:27 A ruin, a ruin, a ruin— I will make it! (Such has never occurred.) Until he comes whose right it is; to him I will give it.

Ezekiel 21:28 As for you, mortal, prophesy, and say, Thus says the Lord GOD concerning the Ammonites, and concerning their reproach; say: A sword, a sword! Drawn for slaughter, polished to consume, to flash like lightning.

Ezekiel 21:29 Offering false visions for you, divining lies for you, they place you over the necks of the vile, wicked ones— those whose day has come, the time of final punishment.

Ezekiel 21:30 Return it to its sheath! In the place where you were created, in the land of your origin, I will judge you.

Ezekiel 21:31 I will pour out my indignation upon you, with the fire of my wrath I will blow upon you. I will deliver you into brutish hands, those skillful to destroy.

Ezekiel 21:32 You shall be fuel for the fire, your blood shall enter the earth; you shall be remembered no more, for I the LORD have spoken.

Ezekiel 22:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 22:2 You, mortal, will you judge, will you judge the bloody city? Then declare to it all its abominable deeds.

Ezekiel 22:3 You shall say, Thus says the Lord GOD: A city! Shedding blood within itself; its time has come; making its idols, defiling itself.

Ezekiel 22:4 You have become guilty by the blood that you have shed, and defiled by the idols that you have made; you have brought your day near, the appointed time of your years has come. Therefore I have made you a disgrace before the nations, and a mockery to all the countries.

Ezekiel 22:5 Those who are near and those who are far from you will mock you, you infamous one, full of tumult.

Ezekiel 22:6 The princes of Israel in you, everyone according to his power, have been bent on shedding blood.

Ezekiel 22:7 Father and mother are treated with contempt in you; the alien residing within you suffers extortion; the orphan and the widow are wronged in you.

Ezekiel 22:8 You have despised my holy things, and profaned my sabbaths.

Ezekiel 22:9 In you are those who slander to shed blood, those in you who eat upon the mountains, who commit lewdness in your midst.

Ezekiel 22:10 In you they uncover their fathers' nakedness; in you they violate women in their menstrual periods.

Ezekiel 22:11 One commits abomination with his neighbor's wife; another lewdly defiles his daughter-in-law; another in you defiles his sister, his father's daughter.

Ezekiel 22:12 In you, they take bribes to shed blood; you take both advance interest and accrued interest, and make gain of your neighbors by extortion; and you have forgotten me, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 22:13 See, I strike my hands together at the dishonest gain you have made, and at the blood that has been shed within you.

Ezekiel 22:14 Can your courage endure, or can your hands remain strong in the days when I shall deal with you? I the LORD have spoken, and I will do it.

Ezekiel 22:15 I will scatter you among the nations and disperse you through the countries, and I will purge your filthiness out of you.

Ezekiel 22:16 And I shall be profaned through you in the sight of the nations; and you shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 22:17 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 22:18 Mortal, the house of Israel has become dross to me; all of them, silver, bronze, tin, iron, and lead. In the smelter they have become dross.

Ezekiel 22:19 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have all become dross, I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.

Ezekiel 22:20 As one gathers silver, bronze, iron, lead, and tin into a smelter, to blow the fire upon them in order to melt them; so I will gather you in my anger and in my wrath, and I will put you in and melt you.

Ezekiel 22:21 I will gather you and blow upon you with the fire of my wrath, and you shall be melted within it.

Ezekiel 22:22 As silver is melted in a smelter, so you shall be melted in it; and you shall know that I the LORD have poured out my wrath upon you.

Ezekiel 22:23 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 22:24 Mortal, say to it: You are a land that is not cleansed, not rained upon in the day of indignation.

Ezekiel 22:25 Its princes within it are like a roaring lion tearing the prey; they have devoured human lives; they have taken treasure and precious things; they have made many widows within it.

Ezekiel 22:26 Its priests have done violence to my teaching and have profaned my holy things; they have made no distinction between the holy and the common, neither have they taught the difference between the unclean and the clean, and they have disregarded my sabbaths, so that I am profaned among them.

Ezekiel 22:27 Its officials within it are like wolves tearing the prey, shedding blood, destroying lives to get dishonest gain.

Ezekiel 22:28 Its prophets have smeared whitewash on their behalf, seeing false visions and divining lies for them, saying, “Thus says the Lord GOD,” when the LORD has not spoken.

Ezekiel 22:29 The people of the land have practiced extortion and committed robbery; they have oppressed the poor and needy, and have extorted from the alien without redress.

Ezekiel 22:30 And I sought for anyone among them who would repair the wall and stand in the breach before me on behalf of the land, so that I would not destroy it; but I found no one.

Ezekiel 22:31 Therefore I have poured out my indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath; I have returned their conduct upon their heads, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 23:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 23:2 Mortal, there were two women, the daughters of one mother;

Ezekiel 23:3 they played the whore in Egypt; they played the whore in their youth; their breasts were caressed there, and their virgin bosoms were fondled.

Ezekiel 23:4 Oholah was the name of the elder and Oholibah the name of her sister. They became mine, and they bore sons and daughters. As for their names, Oholah is Samaria, and Oholibah is Jerusalem.

Ezekiel 23:5 Oholah played the whore while she was mine; she lusted after her lovers the Assyrians, warriors

Ezekiel 23:6 clothed in blue, governors and commanders, all of them handsome young men, mounted horsemen.

Ezekiel 23:7 She bestowed her favors upon them, the choicest men of Assyria all of them; and she defiled herself with all the idols of everyone for whom she lusted.

Ezekiel 23:8 She did not give up her whorings that she had practiced since Egypt; for in her youth men had lain with her and fondled her virgin bosom and poured out their lust upon her.

Ezekiel 23:9 Therefore I delivered her into the hands of her lovers, into the hands of the Assyrians, for whom she lusted.

Ezekiel 23:10 These uncovered her nakedness; they seized her sons and her daughters; and they killed her with the sword. Judgment was executed upon her, and she became a byword among women.

Ezekiel 23:11 Her sister Oholibah saw this, yet she was more corrupt than she in her lusting and in her whorings, which were worse than those of her sister.

Ezekiel 23:12 She lusted after the Assyrians, governors and commanders, warriors clothed in full armor, mounted horsemen, all of them handsome young men.

Ezekiel 23:13 And I saw that she was defiled; they both took the same way.

Ezekiel 23:14 But she carried her whorings further; she saw male figures carved on the wall, images of the Chaldeans portrayed in vermilion,

Ezekiel 23:15 with belts around their waists, with flowing turbans on their heads, all of them looking like officers— a picture of Babylonians whose native land was Chaldea.

Ezekiel 23:16 When she saw them she lusted after them, and sent messengers to them in Chaldea.

Ezekiel 23:17 And the Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their lust; and after she defiled herself with them, she turned from them in disgust.

Ezekiel 23:18 When she carried on her whorings so openly and flaunted her nakedness, I turned in disgust from her, as I had turned from her sister.

Ezekiel 23:19 Yet she increased her whorings, remembering the days of her youth, when she played the whore in the land of Egypt

Ezekiel 23:20 and lusted after her paramours there, whose members were like those of donkeys, and whose emission was like that of stallions.

Ezekiel 23:21 Thus you longed for the lewdness of your youth, when the Egyptians fondled your bosom and caressed your young breasts.

Ezekiel 23:22 Therefore, O Oholibah, thus says the Lord GOD: I will rouse against you your lovers from whom you turned in disgust, and I will bring them against you from every side:

Ezekiel 23:23 the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, Pekod and Shoa and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them, handsome young men, governors and commanders all of them, officers and warriors, all of them riding on horses.

Ezekiel 23:24 They shall come against you from the north with chariots and wagons and a host of peoples; they shall set themselves against you on every side with buckler, shield, and helmet, and I will commit the judgment to them, and they shall judge you according to their ordinances.

Ezekiel 23:25 I will direct my indignation against you, in order that they may deal with you in fury. They shall cut off your nose and your ears, and your survivors shall fall by the sword. They shall seize your sons and your daughters, and your survivors shall be devoured by fire.

Ezekiel 23:26 They shall also strip you of your clothes and take away your fine jewels.

Ezekiel 23:27 So I will put an end to your lewdness and your whoring brought from the land of Egypt; you shall not long for them, or remember Egypt any more.

Ezekiel 23:28 For thus says the Lord GOD: I will deliver you into the hands of those whom you hate, into the hands of those from whom you turned in disgust;

Ezekiel 23:29 and they shall deal with you in hatred, and take away all the fruit of your labor, and leave you naked and bare, and the nakedness of your whorings shall be exposed. Your lewdness and your whorings

Ezekiel 23:30 have brought this upon you, because you played the whore with the nations, and polluted yourself with their idols.

Ezekiel 23:31 You have gone the way of your sister; therefore I will give her cup into your hand.

Ezekiel 23:32 Thus says the Lord GOD: You shall drink your sister's cup, deep and wide; you shall be scorned and derided, it holds so much.

Ezekiel 23:33 You shall be filled with drunkenness and sorrow. A cup of horror and desolation is the cup of your sister Samaria;

Ezekiel 23:34 you shall drink it and drain it out, and gnaw its sherds, and tear out your breasts; for I have spoken, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 23:35 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have forgotten me and cast me behind your back, therefore bear the consequences of your lewdness and whorings.

Ezekiel 23:36 The LORD said to me: Mortal, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? Then declare to them their abominable deeds.

Ezekiel 23:37 For they have committed adultery, and blood is on their hands; with their idols they have committed adultery; and they have even offered up to them for food the children whom they had borne to me.

Ezekiel 23:38 Moreover this they have done to me: they have defiled my sanctuary on the same day and profaned my sabbaths.

Ezekiel 23:39 For when they had slaughtered their children for their idols, on the same day they came into my sanctuary to profane it. This is what they did in my house.

Ezekiel 23:40 They even sent for men to come from far away, to whom a messenger was sent, and they came. For them you bathed yourself, painted your eyes, and decked yourself with ornaments;

Ezekiel 23:41 you sat on a stately couch, with a table spread before it on which you had placed my incense and my oil.

Ezekiel 23:42 The sound of a raucous multitude was around her, with many of the rabble brought in drunken from the wilderness; and they put bracelets on the arms of the women, and beautiful crowns upon their heads.

Ezekiel 23:43 Then I said, Ah, she is worn out with adulteries, but they carry on their sexual acts with her.

Ezekiel 23:44 For they have gone in to her, as one goes in to a whore. Thus they went in to Oholah and to Oholibah, wanton women.

Ezekiel 23:45 But righteous judges shall declare them guilty of adultery and of bloodshed; because they are adulteresses and blood is on their hands.

Ezekiel 23:46 For thus says the Lord GOD: Bring up an assembly against them, and make them an object of terror and of plunder.

Ezekiel 23:47 The assembly shall stone them and with their swords they shall cut them down; they shall kill their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses.

Ezekiel 23:48 Thus will I put an end to lewdness in the land, so that all women may take warning and not commit lewdness as you have done.

Ezekiel 23:49 They shall repay you for your lewdness, and you shall bear the penalty for your sinful idolatry; and you shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 24:1 In the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 24:2 Mortal, write down the name of this day, this very day. The king of Babylon has laid siege to Jerusalem this very day.

Ezekiel 24:3 And utter an allegory to the rebellious house and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Set on the pot, set it on, pour in water also;

Ezekiel 24:4 put in it the pieces, all the good pieces, the thigh and the shoulder; fill it with choice bones.

Ezekiel 24:5 Take the choicest one of the flock, pile the logs under it; boil its pieces, seethe also its bones in it.

Ezekiel 24:6 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Woe to the bloody city, the pot whose rust is in it, whose rust has not gone out of it! Empty it piece by piece, making no choice at all.

Ezekiel 24:7 For the blood she shed is inside it; she placed it on a bare rock; she did not pour it out on the ground, to cover it with earth.

Ezekiel 24:8 To rouse my wrath, to take vengeance, I have placed the blood she shed on a bare rock, so that it may not be covered.

Ezekiel 24:9 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Woe to the bloody city! I will even make the pile great.

Ezekiel 24:10 Heap up the logs, kindle the fire; boil the meat well, mix in the spices, let the bones be burned.

Ezekiel 24:11 Stand it empty upon the coals, so that it may become hot, its copper glow, its filth melt in it, its rust be consumed.

Ezekiel 24:12 In vain I have wearied myself; its thick rust does not depart. To the fire with its rust!

Ezekiel 24:13 Yet, when I cleansed you in your filthy lewdness, you did not become clean from your filth; you shall not again be cleansed until I have satisfied my fury upon you.

Ezekiel 24:14 I the LORD have spoken; the time is coming, I will act. I will not refrain, I will not spare, I will not relent. According to your ways and your doings I will judge you, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 24:15 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 24:16 Mortal, with one blow I am about to take away from you the delight of your eyes; yet you shall not mourn or weep, nor shall your tears run down.

Ezekiel 24:17 Sigh, but not aloud; make no mourning for the dead. Bind on your turban, and put your sandals on your feet; do not cover your upper lip or eat the bread of mourners.

Ezekiel 24:18 So I spoke to the people in the morning, and at evening my wife died. And on the next morning I did as I was commanded.

Ezekiel 24:19 Then the people said to me, “Will you not tell us what these things mean for us, that you are acting this way?”

Ezekiel 24:20 Then I said to them: The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 24:21 Say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: I will profane my sanctuary, the pride of your power, the delight of your eyes, and your heart’s desire; and your sons and your daughters whom you left behind shall fall by the sword.

Ezekiel 24:22 And you shall do as I have done; you shall not cover your upper lip or eat the bread of mourners.

Ezekiel 24:23 Your turbans shall be on your heads and your sandals on your feet; you shall not mourn or weep, but you shall pine away in your iniquities and groan to one another.

Ezekiel 24:24 Thus Ezekiel shall be a sign to you; you shall do just as he has done. When this comes, then you shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 24:25 And you, mortal, on the day when I take from them their stronghold, their joy and glory, the delight of their eyes and their heart’s affection, and also their sons and their daughters,

Ezekiel 24:26 on that day, one who has escaped will come to you to report to you the news.

Ezekiel 24:27 On that day your mouth shall be opened to the one who has escaped, and you shall speak and no longer be silent. So you shall be a sign to them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 25:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 25:2 Mortal, set your face toward the Ammonites and prophesy against them.

Ezekiel 25:3 Say to the Ammonites, Hear the word of the Lord GOD: Thus says the Lord GOD, Because you said, “Aha!” over my sanctuary when it was profaned, and over the land of Israel when it was made desolate, and over the house of Judah when it went into exile;

Ezekiel 25:4 therefore I am handing you over to the people of the east for a possession. They shall set their encampments among you and pitch their tents in your midst; they shall eat your fruit, and they shall drink your milk.

Ezekiel 25:5 I will make Rabbah a pasture for camels and Ammon a fold for flocks. Then you shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 25:6 For thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have clapped your hands and stamped your feet and rejoiced with all the malice within you against the land of Israel,

Ezekiel 25:7 therefore I have stretched out my hand against you, and will hand you over as plunder to the nations. I will cut you off from the peoples and will make you perish out of the countries; I will destroy you. Then you shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 25:8 Thus says the Lord GOD: Because Moab said, The house of Judah is like all the other nations,

Ezekiel 25:9 therefore I will lay open the flank of Moab from the towns on its frontier, the glory of the country, Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim.

Ezekiel 25:10 I will give it along with Ammon to the people of the east as a possession. Thus Ammon shall be remembered no more among the nations,

Ezekiel 25:11 and I will execute judgments upon Moab. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 25:12 Thus says the Lord GOD: Because Edom acted revengefully against the house of Judah and has grievously offended in taking vengeance upon them,

Ezekiel 25:13 therefore thus says the Lord GOD, I will stretch out my hand against Edom, and cut off from it humans and animals, and I will make it desolate; from Teman even to Dedan they shall fall by the sword.

Ezekiel 25:14 I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel; and they shall act in Edom according to my anger and according to my wrath; and they shall know my vengeance, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 25:15 Thus says the Lord GOD: Because with unending hostilities the Philistines acted in vengeance, and with malice of heart took revenge in destruction;

Ezekiel 25:16 therefore thus says the Lord GOD, I will stretch out my hand against the Philistines, cut off the Cherethites, and destroy the rest of the seacoast.

Ezekiel 25:17 I will execute great vengeance on them with wrathful punishments. Then they shall know that I am the LORD, when I lay my vengeance on them.

Ezekiel 26:1 In the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 26:2 Mortal, because Tyre said concerning Jerusalem, “Aha, broken is the gateway of the peoples; it has swung open to me; I shall be replenished, now that it is wasted,” Ezekiel 26:3 therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: See, I am against you, O Tyre! I will hurl many nations against you, as the sea hurls its waves.

Ezekiel 26:4 They shall destroy the walls of Tyre and break down its towers. I will scrape its soil from it and make it a bare rock.

Ezekiel 26:5 It shall become, in the midst of the sea, a place for spreading nets. I have spoken, says the Lord GOD. It shall become plunder for the nations,

Ezekiel 26:6 and its daughter-towns in the country shall be killed by the sword. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 26:7 For thus says the Lord GOD: I will bring against Tyre from the north King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon, king of kings, together with horses, chariots, cavalry, and a great and powerful army.

Ezekiel 26:8 Your daughter-towns in the country he shall put to the sword. He shall set up a siege wall against you, cast up a ramp against you, and raise a roof of shields against you.

Ezekiel 26:9 He shall direct the shock of his battering rams against your walls and break down your towers with his axes.

Ezekiel 26:10 His horses shall be so many that their dust shall cover you. At the noise of cavalry, wheels, and chariots your very walls shall shake, when he enters your gates like those entering a breached city.

Ezekiel 26:11 With the hoofs of his horses he shall trample all your streets. He shall put your people to the sword, and your strong pillars shall fall to the ground.

Ezekiel 26:12 They will plunder your riches and loot your merchandise; they shall break down your walls and destroy your fine houses. Your stones and timber and soil they shall cast into the water.

Ezekiel 26:13 I will silence the music of your songs; the sound of your lyres shall be heard no more.

Ezekiel 26:14 I will make you a bare rock; you shall be a place for spreading nets. You shall never again be rebuilt, for I the LORD have spoken, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 26:15 Thus says the Lord GOD to Tyre: Shall not the coastlands shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded groan, when slaughter goes on within you?

Ezekiel 26:16 Then all the princes of the sea shall step down from their thrones; they shall remove their robes and strip off their embroidered garments. They shall clothe themselves with trembling, and shall sit on the ground; they shall tremble every moment, and be appalled at you.

Ezekiel 26:17 And they shall raise a lamentation over you, and say to you: How you have vanished from the seas, O city renowned, once mighty on the sea, you and your inhabitants, who imposed your terror on all the mainland!

Ezekiel 26:18 Now the coastlands tremble on the day of your fall; the coastlands by the sea are dismayed at your passing.

Ezekiel 26:19 For thus says the Lord GOD: When I make you a city laid waste, like cities that are not inhabited, when I bring up the deep over you, and the great waters cover you,

Ezekiel 26:20 then I will thrust you down with those who descend into the Pit, to the people of long ago, and I will make you live in the world below, among primeval ruins, with those who go down to the Pit, so that you will not be inhabited or have a place in the land of the living.

Ezekiel 26:21 I will bring you to a dreadful end, and you shall be no more; though sought for, you will never be found again, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 27:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 27:2 Now you, mortal, raise a lamentation over Tyre,

Ezekiel 27:3 and say to Tyre, which sits at the entrance to the sea, merchant of the peoples on many coastlands, Thus says the Lord GOD: O Tyre, you have said, “I am perfect in beauty.”

Ezekiel 27:4 Your borders are in the heart of the seas; your builders made perfect your beauty.

Ezekiel 27:5 They made all your planks of fir trees from Senir; they took a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you.

Ezekiel 27:6 From oaks of Bashan they made your oars; they made your deck of pines from the coasts of Cyprus, inlaid with ivory.

Ezekiel 27:7 Of fine embroidered linen from Egypt was your sail, serving as your ensign; blue and purple from the coasts of Elishah was your awning.

Ezekiel 27:8 The inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad were your rowers; skilled men of Zemer were within you, they were your pilots.

Ezekiel 27:9 The elders of Gebal and its artisans were within you, caulking your seams; all the ships of the sea with their mariners were within you, to barter for your wares.

Ezekiel 27:10 Paras and Lud and Put were in your army, your mighty warriors; they hung shield and helmet in you; they gave you splendor.

Ezekiel 27:11 Men of Arvad and Helech were on your walls all around; men of Gamad were at your towers. They hung their quivers all around your walls; they made perfect your beauty.

Ezekiel 27:12 Tarshish did business with you out of the abundance of your great wealth; silver, iron, tin, and lead they exchanged for your wares.

Ezekiel 27:13 Javan, Tubal, and Meshech traded with you; they exchanged human beings and vessels of bronze for your merchandise.

Ezekiel 27:14 Beth-togarmah exchanged for your wares horses, war horses, and mules.

Ezekiel 27:15 The Rhodians traded with you; many coastlands were your own special markets; they brought you in payment ivory tusks and ebony.

Ezekiel 27:16 Edom did business with you because of your abundant goods; they exchanged for your wares turquoise, purple, embroidered work, fine linen, coral, and rubies.

Ezekiel 27:17 Judah and the land of Israel traded with you; they exchanged for your merchandise wheat from Minnith, millet, honey, oil, and balm.

Ezekiel 27:18 Damascus traded with you for your abundant goods— because of your great wealth of every kind— wine of Helbon, and white wool.

Ezekiel 27:19 Vedan and Javan from Uzal entered into trade for your wares; wrought iron, cassia, and sweet cane were bartered for your merchandise.

Ezekiel 27:20 Dedan traded with you in saddlecloths for riding.

Ezekiel 27:21 Arabia and all the princes of Kedar were your favored dealers in lambs, rams, and goats; in these they did business with you.

Ezekiel 27:22 The merchants of Sheba and Raamah traded with you; they exchanged for your wares the best of all kinds of spices, and all precious stones, and gold.

Ezekiel 27:23 Haran, Canneh, Eden, the merchants of Sheba, Asshur, and Chilmad traded with you.

Ezekiel 27:24 These traded with you in choice garments, in clothes of blue and embroidered work, and in carpets of colored material, bound with cords and made secure; in these they traded with you.

Ezekiel 27:25 The ships of Tarshish traveled for you in your trade. So you were filled and heavily laden in the heart of the seas.

Ezekiel 27:26 Your rowers have brought you into the high seas. The east wind has wrecked you in the heart of the seas.

Ezekiel 27:27 Your riches, your wares, your merchandise, your mariners and your pilots, your caulkers, your dealers in merchandise, and all your warriors within you, with all the company that is with you, sink into the heart of the seas on the day of your ruin.

Ezekiel 27:28 At the sound of the cry of your pilots the countryside shakes,

Ezekiel 27:29 and down from their ships come all that handle the oar. The mariners and all the pilots of the sea stand on the shore

Ezekiel 27:30 and wail aloud over you, and cry bitterly. They throw dust on their heads and wallow in ashes;

Ezekiel 27:31 they make themselves bald for you, and put on sackcloth, and they weep over you in bitterness of soul, with bitter mourning.

Ezekiel 27:32 In their wailing they raise a lamentation for you, and lament over you: "Who was ever destroyed like Tyre in the midst of the sea?

Ezekiel 27:33 When your wares came from the seas, you satisfied many peoples; with your abundant wealth and merchandise you enriched the kings of the earth.

Ezekiel 27:34 Now you are wrecked by the seas, in the depths of the waters; your merchandise and all your crew have sunk with you.

Ezekiel 27:35 All the inhabitants of the coastlands are appalled at you; and their kings are horribly afraid, their faces are convulsed.

Ezekiel 27:36 The merchants among the peoples hiss at you; you have come to a dreadful end and shall be no more forever."

Ezekiel 28:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 28:2 Mortal, say to the prince of Tyre, Thus says the Lord GOD: Because your heart is proud and you have said, "I am a god; I sit in the seat of the gods, in the heart of the seas," yet you are but a mortal, and no god, though you compare your mind with the mind of a god.

Ezekiel 28:3 You are indeed wiser than Daniel; no secret is hidden from you;

Ezekiel 28:4 by your wisdom and your understanding you have amassed wealth for yourself, and have gathered gold and silver into your treasuries.

Ezekiel 28:5 By your great wisdom in trade you have increased your wealth, and your heart has become proud in your wealth.

Ezekiel 28:6 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you compare your mind with the mind of a god,

Ezekiel 28:7 therefore, I will bring strangers against you, the most terrible of the nations; they shall draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom and defile your splendor.

Ezekiel 28:8 They shall thrust you down to the Pit, and you shall die a violent death in the heart of the seas.

Ezekiel 28:9 Will you still say, "I am a god," in the presence of those who kill you, though you are but a mortal, and no god, in the hands of those who wound you?

Ezekiel 28:10 You shall die the death of the uncircumcised by the hand of foreigners; for I have spoken, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 28:11 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 28:12 Mortal, raise a lamentation over the king of Tyre, and say to him, Thus says the Lord GOD: You were the signet of perfection, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.

Ezekiel 28:13 You were in Eden, the garden of God; every precious stone was your covering, carnelian, chrysolite, and moonstone, beryl, onyx, and jasper, sapphire, turquoise, and emerald; and worked in gold were your settings and your engravings. On the day that you were created they were prepared.

Ezekiel 28:14 With an anointed cherub as guardian I placed you; you were on the holy mountain of God; you walked among the stones of fire.

Ezekiel 28:15 You were blameless in your ways from the day that you were created, until iniquity was found in you.

Ezekiel 28:16 In the abundance of your trade you were filled with violence, and you sinned; so I cast you as a profane thing from the mountain of God, and the guardian cherub drove you out from among the stones of fire.

Ezekiel 28:17 Your heart was proud because of your beauty; you corrupted your wisdom for the sake of your splendor. I cast you to the ground; I exposed you before kings, to feast their eyes on you.

Ezekiel 28:18 By the multitude of your iniquities, in the unrighteousness of your trade, you profaned your sanctuaries. So I brought out fire from within you; it consumed you, and I turned you to ashes on the earth in the sight of all who saw you.

Ezekiel 28:19 All who know you among the peoples are appalled at you; you have come to a dreadful end and shall be no more forever.

Ezekiel 28:20 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 28:21 Mortal, set your face toward Sidon, and prophesy against it,

Ezekiel 28:22 and say, Thus says the Lord GOD: I am against you, O Sidon, and I will gain glory in your midst. They shall know that I am the LORD when I execute judgments in it, and manifest my holiness in it;

Ezekiel 28:23 for I will send pestilence into it, and bloodshed into its streets; and the dead shall fall in its midst, by the sword that is against it on every side. And they shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 28:24 The house of Israel shall no longer find a pricking brier or a piercing thorn among all their neighbors who have treated them with contempt. And they shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 28:25 Thus says the Lord GOD: When I gather the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and manifest my holiness in them in the sight of the nations, then they shall settle on their own soil that I gave to my servant Jacob.

Ezekiel 28:26 They shall live in safety in it, and shall build houses and plant vineyards. They shall live in safety, when I execute judgments upon all their neighbors who have treated them with contempt. And they shall know that I am the LORD their God.

Ezekiel 29:1 In the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 29:2 Mortal, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him and against all Egypt;

Ezekiel 29:3 speak, and say, Thus says the Lord GOD: I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great dragon sprawling in the midst of its channels, saying, “My Nile is my own; I made it for myself.”

Ezekiel 29:4 I will put hooks in your jaws, and make the fish of your channels stick to your scales. I will draw you up from your channels, with all the fish of your channels sticking to your scales.

Ezekiel 29:5 I will fling you into the wilderness, you and all the fish of your channels; you shall fall in the open field, and not be gathered and buried. To the animals of the earth and to the birds of the air I have given you as food.

Ezekiel 29:6 Then all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the LORD because you were a staff of reed to the house of Israel;

Ezekiel 29:7 when they grasped you with the hand, you broke, and tore all their shoulders; and when they leaned on you, you broke, and made all their legs unsteady.

Ezekiel 29:8 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: I will bring a sword upon you, and will cut off from you human being and animal;

Ezekiel 29:9 and the land of Egypt shall be a desolation and a waste. Then they shall know that I am the LORD. Because you said, “The Nile is mine, and I made it,”

Ezekiel 29:10 therefore, I am against you, and against your channels, and I will make the land of Egypt an utter waste and desolation, from Migdol to Syene, as far as the border of Ethiopia.

Ezekiel 29:11 No human foot shall pass through it, and no animal foot shall pass through it; it shall be uninhabited forty years.

Ezekiel 29:12 I will make the land of Egypt a desolation among desolated countries; and her cities shall be a desolation forty years among cities that are laid waste. I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them among the countries.

Ezekiel 29:13 Further, thus says the Lord GOD: At the end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the peoples among whom they were scattered;

Ezekiel 29:14 and I will restore the fortunes of Egypt, and bring them back to the land of Pathros, the land of their origin; and there they shall be a lowly kingdom.

Ezekiel 29:15 It shall be the most lowly of the kingdoms, and never again exalt itself above the nations; and I will make them so small that they will never again rule over the nations.

Ezekiel 29:16 The Egyptians shall never again be the reliance of the house of Israel; they will recall their iniquity, when they turned to them for aid. Then they shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 29:17 In the twenty-seventh year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 29:18 Mortal, King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon made his army labor hard against Tyre; every head was made bald and every shoulder was rubbed bare; yet neither he nor his army got anything from Tyre to pay for the labor that he had expended against it.

Ezekiel 29:19 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I will give the land of Egypt to King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon; and he shall carry off its wealth and despoil it and plunder it; and it shall be the wages for his army.

Ezekiel 29:20 I have given him the land of Egypt as his payment for which he labored, because they worked for me, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 29:21 On that day I will cause a horn to sprout up for the house of Israel, and I will open your lips among them. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 30:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 30:2 Mortal, prophesy, and say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Wail, “Alas for the day!”

Ezekiel 30:3 For a day is near, the day of the LORD is near; it will be a day of clouds, a time of doom for the nations.

Ezekiel 30:4 A sword shall come upon Egypt, and anguish shall be in Ethiopia, when the slain fall in Egypt, and its wealth is carried away, and its foundations are torn down.

Ezekiel 30:5 Ethiopia, and Put, and Lud, and all Arabia, and Libya, and the people of the allied land shall fall with them by the sword.

Ezekiel 30:6 Thus says the LORD: Those who support Egypt shall fall, and its proud might shall come down; from Migdol to Syene they shall fall within it by the sword, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 30:7 They shall be desolated among other desolated countries, and their cities shall lie among cities laid waste.

Ezekiel 30:8 Then they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have set fire to Egypt, and all who help it are broken.

Ezekiel 30:9 On that day, messengers shall go out from me in ships to terrify the unsuspecting Ethiopians; and anguish shall come upon them on the day of Egypt’s doom; for it is coming!

Ezekiel 30:10 Thus says the Lord GOD: I will put an end to the hordes of Egypt, by the hand of King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon.

Ezekiel 30:11 He and his people with him, the most terrible of the nations, shall be brought in to destroy the land; and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain.

Ezekiel 30:12 I will dry up the channels, and will sell the land into the hand of evildoers; I will bring desolation upon the land and everything in it by the hand of foreigners; I the LORD have spoken.

Ezekiel 30:13 Thus says the Lord GOD: I will destroy the idols and put an end to the images in Memphis; there shall no longer be a prince in the land of Egypt; so I will put fear in the land of Egypt.

Ezekiel 30:14 I will make Pathros a desolation, and will set fire to Zoan, and will execute acts of judgment on Thebes.

Ezekiel 30:15 I will pour my wrath upon Pelusium, the stronghold of Egypt, and cut off the hordes of Thebes.

Ezekiel 30:16 I will set fire to Egypt; Pelusium shall be in great agony; Thebes shall be breached, and Memphis face adversaries by day.

Ezekiel 30:17 The young men of On and of Pi-beseth shall fall by the sword; and the cities themselves shall go into captivity.

Ezekiel 30:18 At Tehaphnehes the day shall be dark, when I break there the dominion of Egypt, and its proud might shall come to an end; the city shall be covered by a cloud, and its daughter-towns shall go into captivity.

Ezekiel 30:19 Thus I will execute acts of judgment on Egypt. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 30:20 In the eleventh year, in the first month, on the seventh day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 30:21 Mortal, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; it has not been bound up for healing or wrapped with a bandage, so that it may become strong to wield the sword.

Ezekiel 30:22 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, both the strong arm and the one that was broken; and I will make the sword fall from his hand.

Ezekiel 30:23 I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them throughout the lands.

Ezekiel 30:24 I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand; but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he will groan before him with the groans of one mortally wounded.

Ezekiel 30:25 I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, but the arms of Pharaoh shall fall. And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon. He shall stretch it out against the land of Egypt, Ezekiel 30:26 and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them throughout the countries. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 31:1 In the eleventh year, in the third month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 31:2 Mortal, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his hordes: Whom are you like in your greatness?

Ezekiel 31:3 Consider Assyria, a cedar of Lebanon, with fair branches and forest shade, and of great height, its top among the clouds.

Ezekiel 31:4 The waters nourished it, the deep made it grow tall, making its rivers flow around the place it was planted, sending forth its streams to all the trees of the field.

Ezekiel 31:5 So it towered high above all the trees of the field; its boughs grew large and its branches long, from abundant water in its shoots.

Ezekiel 31:6 All the birds of the air made their nests in its boughs; under its branches all the animals of the field gave birth to their young; and in its shade all great nations lived.

Ezekiel 31:7 It was beautiful in its greatness, in the length of its branches; for its roots went down to abundant water.

Ezekiel 31:8 The cedars in the garden of God could not rival it, nor the fir trees equal its boughs; the plane trees were as nothing compared with its branches; no tree in the garden of God was like it in beauty.

Ezekiel 31:9 I made it beautiful with its mass of branches, the envy of all the trees of Eden that were in the garden of God.

Ezekiel 31:10 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because it towered high and set its top among the clouds, and its heart was proud of its height,

Ezekiel 31:11 I gave it into the hand of the prince of the nations; he has dealt with it as its wickedness deserves. I have cast it out.

Ezekiel 31:12 Foreigners from the most terrible of the nations have cut it down and left it. On the mountains and in all the valleys its branches have fallen, and its boughs lie broken in all the watercourses of the land; and all the peoples of the earth went away from its shade and left it.

Ezekiel 31:13 On its fallen trunk settle all the birds of the air, and among its boughs lodge all the wild animals.

Ezekiel 31:14 All this is in order that no trees by the waters may grow to lofty height or set their tops among the clouds, and that no trees that drink water may reach up to them in height. For all of them are handed over to death, to the world below; along with all mortals, with those who go down to the Pit.

Ezekiel 31:15 Thus says the Lord GOD: On the day it went down to Sheol I closed the deep over it and covered it; I restrained its rivers, and its mighty waters were checked. I clothed Lebanon in gloom for it, and all the trees of the field fainted because of it.

Ezekiel 31:16 I made the nations quake at the sound of its fall, when I cast it down to Sheol with those who go down to the Pit; and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that were well watered, were consoled in the world below.

Ezekiel 31:17 They also went down to Sheol with it, to those killed by the sword, along with its allies, those who lived in its shade among the nations.

Ezekiel 31:18 Which among the trees of Eden was like you in glory and in greatness? Now you shall be brought down with the trees of Eden to the world below; you shall lie among the uncircumcised, with those who are killed by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his horde, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 32:1 In the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 32:2 Mortal, raise a lamentation over Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say to him: You consider yourself a lion among the nations, but you are like a dragon in the seas; you thrash about in your streams, trouble the water with your feet, and foul your streams.

Ezekiel 32:3 Thus says the Lord GOD: In an assembly of many peoples I will throw my net over you; and I will haul you up in my dragnet.

Ezekiel 32:4 I will throw you on the ground, on the open field I will fling you, and will cause all the birds of the air to settle on you, and I will let the wild animals of the whole earth gorge themselves with you.

Ezekiel 32:5 I will strew your flesh on the mountains, and fill the valleys with your carcass.

Ezekiel 32:6 I will drench the land with your flowing blood up to the mountains, and the watercourses will be filled with you.

Ezekiel 32:7 When I blot you out, I will cover the heavens, and make their stars dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give its light.

Ezekiel 32:8 All the shining lights of the heavens I will darken above you, and put darkness on your land, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 32:9 I will trouble the hearts of many peoples, as I carry you captive among the nations, into countries you have not known.

Ezekiel 32:10 I will make many peoples appalled at you; their kings shall shudder because of you. When I brandish my sword before them, they shall tremble every moment for their lives, each one of them, on the day of your downfall.

Ezekiel 32:11 For thus says the Lord GOD: The sword of the king of Babylon shall come against you.

Ezekiel 32:12 I will cause your hordes to fall by the swords of mighty ones, all of them most terrible among the nations. They shall bring to ruin the pride of Egypt, and all its hordes shall perish.

Ezekiel 32:13 I will destroy all its livestock from beside abundant waters; and no human foot shall trouble them any more, nor shall the hoofs of cattle trouble them.

Ezekiel 32:14 Then I will make their waters clear, and cause their streams to run like oil, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 32:15 When I make the land of Egypt desolate and when the land is stripped of all that fills it, when I strike down all who live in it, then they shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 32:16 This is a lamentation; it shall be chanted. The women of the nations shall chant it. Over Egypt and all its hordes they shall chant it, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 32:17 In the twelfth year, in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 32:18 Mortal, wail over the hordes of Egypt, and send them down, with Egypt and the daughters of majestic nations, to the world below, with those who go down to the Pit.

Ezekiel 32:19 “Whom do you surpass in beauty? Go down! Be laid to rest with the uncircumcised!”

Ezekiel 32:20 They shall fall among those who are killed by the sword. Egypt has been handed over to the sword; carry away both it and its hordes.

Ezekiel 32:21 The mighty chiefs shall speak of them, with their helpers, out of the midst of Sheol: “They have come down, they lie still, the uncircumcised, killed by the sword.”

Ezekiel 32:22 Assyria is there, and all its company, their graves all around it, all of them killed, fallen by the sword.

Ezekiel 32:23 Their graves are set in the uttermost parts of the Pit. Its company is all around its grave, all of them killed, fallen by the sword, who spread terror in the land of the living.

Ezekiel 32:24 Elam is there, and all its hordes around its grave; all of them killed, fallen by the sword, who went down uncircumcised into the world below, who spread terror in the land of the living. They bear their shame with those who go down to the Pit.

Ezekiel 32:25 They have made Elam a bed among the slain with all its hordes, their graves all around it, all of them uncircumcised, killed by the sword; for terror of them was spread in the land of the living, and they bear their shame with those who go down to the Pit; they are placed among the slain.

Ezekiel 32:26 Meshech and Tubal are there, and all their multitude, their graves all around them, all of them uncircumcised, killed by the sword; for they spread terror in the land of the living.

Ezekiel 32:27 And they do not lie with the fallen warriors of long ago who went down to Sheol with their weapons of war, whose swords were laid under their heads, and whose shields are upon their bones; for the terror of the warriors was in the land of the living.

Ezekiel 32:28 So you shall be broken and lie among the uncircumcised, with those who are killed by the sword.

Ezekiel 32:29 Edom is there, its kings and all its princes, who for all their might are laid with those who are killed by the sword; they lie with the uncircumcised, with those who go down to the Pit.

Ezekiel 32:30 The princes of the north are there, all of them, and all the Sidonians, who have gone down in shame with the slain, for all the terror that they caused by their might; they lie uncircumcised with those who are killed by the sword, and bear their shame with those who go down to the Pit.

Ezekiel 32:31 When Pharaoh sees them, he will be consoled for all his hordes— Pharaoh and all his army, killed by the sword, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 32:32 For he spread terror in the land of the living; therefore he shall be laid to rest among the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword— Pharaoh and all his multitude, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 33:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 33:2 O Mortal, speak to your people and say to them, If I bring the sword upon a land, and the people of the land take one of their number as their sentinel;

Ezekiel 33:3 and if the sentinel sees the sword coming upon the land and blows the trumpet and warns the people;

Ezekiel 33:4 then if any who hear the sound of the trumpet do not take warning, and the sword comes and takes them away, their blood shall be upon their own heads.

Ezekiel 33:5 They heard the sound of the trumpet and did not take warning; their blood shall be upon themselves. But if they had taken warning, they would have saved their lives.

Ezekiel 33:6 But if the sentinel sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet, so that the people are not warned, and the sword comes and takes any of them, they are taken away in their iniquity, but their blood I will require at the sentinel’s hand.

Ezekiel 33:7 So you, mortal, I have made a sentinel for the house of Israel; whenever you hear a word from my mouth, you shall give them warning from me.

Ezekiel 33:8 If I say to the wicked, “O wicked ones, you shall surely die,” and you do not speak to warn the wicked to turn from their ways, the wicked shall die in their iniquity, but their blood I will require at your hand.

Ezekiel 33:9 But if you warn the wicked to turn from their ways, and they do not turn from their ways, the wicked shall die in their iniquity, but you will have saved your life.

Ezekiel 33:10 Now you, mortal, say to the house of Israel, Thus you have said: “Our transgressions and our sins weigh upon us, and we waste away because of them; how then can we live?”

Ezekiel 33:11 Say to them, As I live, says the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from their ways and live; turn back, turn back from your evil ways; for why will you die, O house of Israel?

Ezekiel 33:12 And you, mortal, say to your people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not save them when they transgress; and as for the wickedness of the wicked, it shall not make them stumble when they turn from their wickedness; and the righteous shall not be able to live by their righteousness when they sin.

Ezekiel 33:13 Though I say to the righteous that they shall surely live, yet if they trust in their righteousness and commit iniquity, none of their righteous deeds shall be remembered; but in the iniquity that they have committed they shall die.

Ezekiel 33:14 Again, though I say to the wicked, “You shall surely die,” yet if they turn from their sin and do what is lawful and right—

Ezekiel 33:15 if the wicked restore the pledge, give back what they have taken by robbery, and walk in the statutes of life, committing no iniquity— they shall surely live, they shall not die.

Ezekiel 33:16 None of the sins that they have committed shall be remembered against them; they have done what is lawful and right, they shall surely live.

Ezekiel 33:17 Yet your people say, “The way of the Lord is not just,” when it is their own way that is not just.

Ezekiel 33:18 When the righteous turn from their righteousness, and commit iniquity, they shall die for it.

Ezekiel 33:19 And when the wicked turn from their wickedness, and do what is lawful and right, they shall live by it.

Ezekiel 33:20 Yet you say, “The way of the Lord is not just.” O house of Israel, I will judge all of you according to your ways!

Ezekiel 33:21 In the twelfth year of our exile, in the tenth month, on the fifth day of the month, someone who had escaped from Jerusalem came to me and said, “The city has fallen.”

Ezekiel 33:22 Now the hand of the LORD had been upon me the evening before the fugitive came; but he had opened my mouth by the time the fugitive came to me in the morning; so my mouth was opened, and I was no longer unable to speak.

Ezekiel 33:23 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 33:24 Mortal, the inhabitants of these waste places in the land of Israel keep saying, “Abraham was only one man, yet he got possession of the land; but we are many; the land is surely given us to possess.”

Ezekiel 33:25 Therefore say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: You eat flesh with the blood, and lift up your eyes to your idols, and shed blood; shall you then possess the land?

Ezekiel 33:26 You depend on your swords, you commit abominations, and each of you defiles his neighbor’s wife; shall you then possess the land?

Ezekiel 33:27 Say this to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: As I live, surely those who are in the waste places shall fall by the sword; and those who are in the open field I will give to the wild animals to be devoured; and those who are in strongholds and in caves shall die by pestilence.

Ezekiel 33:28 I will make the land a desolation and a waste, and its proud might shall come to an end; and the mountains of Israel shall be so desolate that no one will pass through.

Ezekiel 33:29 Then they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have made the land a desolation and a waste because of all their abominations that they have committed.

Ezekiel 33:30 As for you, mortal, your people who talk together about you by the walls, and at the doors of the houses, say to one another, each to a neighbor, “Come and hear what the word is that comes from the LORD.”

Ezekiel 33:31 They come to you as people come, and they sit before you as my people, and they hear your words, but they will not obey them. For flattery is on their lips, but their heart is set on their gain.

Ezekiel 33:32 To them you are like a singer of love songs, one who has a beautiful voice and plays well on an instrument; they hear what you say, but they will not do it.

Ezekiel 33:33 When this comes— and come it will!— then they shall know that a prophet has been among them.

Ezekiel 34:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 34:2 Mortal, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel: prophesy, and say to them— to the shepherds: Thus says the Lord GOD: Ah, you shepherds of Israel who have been feeding yourselves! Should not shepherds feed the sheep?

Ezekiel 34:3 You eat the fat, you clothe yourselves with the wool, you slaughter the fatlings; but you do not feed the sheep.

Ezekiel 34:4 You have not strengthened the weak, you have not healed the sick, you have not bound up the injured, you have not brought back the strayed, you have not sought the lost, but with force and harshness you have ruled them.

Ezekiel 34:5 So they were scattered, because there was no shepherd; and scattered, they became food for all the wild animals.

Ezekiel 34:6 My sheep were scattered, they wandered over all the mountains and on every high hill; my sheep were scattered over all the face of the earth, with no one to search or seek for them.

Ezekiel 34:7 Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD:

Ezekiel 34:8 As I live, says the Lord GOD, because my sheep have become a prey, and my sheep have become food for all the wild animals, since there was no shepherd; and because my shepherds have not searched for my sheep, but the shepherds have fed themselves, and have not fed my sheep;

Ezekiel 34:9 therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD:

Ezekiel 34:10 Thus says the Lord GOD, I am against the shepherds; and I will demand my sheep at their hand, and put a stop to their feeding the sheep; no longer shall the shepherds feed themselves. I will rescue my sheep from their mouths, so that they may not be food for them.

Ezekiel 34:11 For thus says the Lord GOD: I myself will search for my sheep, and will seek them out.

Ezekiel 34:12 As shepherds seek out their flocks when they are among their scattered sheep, so I will seek out my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places to which they have been scattered on a day of clouds and thick darkness.

Ezekiel 34:13 I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited parts of the land.

Ezekiel 34:14 I will feed them with good pasture, and the mountain heights of Israel shall be their pasture; there they shall lie down in good grazing land, and they shall feed on rich pasture on the mountains of Israel.

Ezekiel 34:15 I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will make them lie down, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 34:16 I will seek the lost, and I will bring back the strayed, and I will bind up the injured, and I will strengthen the weak, but the fat and the strong I will destroy. I will feed them with justice.

Ezekiel 34:17 As for you, my flock, thus says the Lord GOD: I shall judge between sheep and sheep, between rams and goats:

Ezekiel 34:18 Is it not enough for you to feed on the good pasture, but you must tread down with your feet the rest of your pasture? When you drink of clear water, must you foul the rest with your feet?

Ezekiel 34:19 And must my sheep eat what you have trodden with your feet, and drink what you have fouled with your feet?

Ezekiel 34:20 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD to them: I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep.

Ezekiel 34:21 Because you pushed with flank and shoulder, and butted at all the weak animals with your horns until you scattered them far and wide,

Ezekiel 34:22 I will save my flock, and they shall no longer be ravaged; and I will judge between sheep and sheep.

Ezekiel 34:23 I will set up over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he shall feed them: he shall feed them and be their shepherd.

Ezekiel 34:24 And I, the LORD, will be their God, and my servant David shall be prince among them; I, the LORD, have spoken.

Ezekiel 34:25 I will make with them a covenant of peace and banish wild animals from the land, so that they may live in the wild and sleep in the woods securely.

Ezekiel 34:26 I will make them and the region around my hill a blessing; and I will send down the showers in their season; they shall be showers of blessing.

Ezekiel 34:27 The trees of the field shall yield their fruit, and the earth shall yield its increase. They shall be secure on their soil; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I break the bars of their yoke, and save them from the hands of those who enslaved them.

Ezekiel 34:28 They shall no more be plunder for the nations, nor shall the animals of the land devour them; they shall live in safety, and no one shall make them afraid.

Ezekiel 34:29 I will provide for them a splendid vegetation so that they shall no more be consumed with hunger in the land, and no longer suffer the insults of the nations.

Ezekiel 34:30 They shall know that I, the LORD their God, am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are my people, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 34:31 You are my sheep, the sheep of my pasture and I am your God, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 35:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 35:2 Mortal, set your face against Mount Seir, and prophesy against it, Ezekiel 35:3 and say to it, Thus says the Lord GOD: I am against you, Mount Seir; I stretch out my hand against you to make you a desolation and a waste.

Ezekiel 35:4 I lay your towns in ruins; you shall become a desolation, and you shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 35:5 Because you cherished an ancient enmity, and gave over the people of Israel to the power of the sword at the time of their calamity, at the time of their final punishment;

Ezekiel 35:6 therefore, as I live, says the Lord GOD, I will prepare you for blood, and blood shall pursue you; since you did not hate bloodshed, bloodshed shall pursue you.

Ezekiel 35:7 I will make Mount Seir a waste and a desolation; and I will cut off from it all who come and go.

Ezekiel 35:8 I will fill its mountains with the slain; on your hills and in your valleys and in all your watercourses those killed with the sword shall fall.

Ezekiel 35:9 I will make you a perpetual desolation, and your cities shall never be inhabited. Then you shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 35:10 Because you said, “These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will take possession of them,”—although the LORD was there—

Ezekiel 35:11 therefore, as I live, says the Lord GOD, I will deal with you according to the anger and envy that you showed because of your hatred against them; and I will make myself known among you, when I judge you.

Ezekiel 35:12 You shall know that I, the LORD, have heard all the abusive speech that you uttered against the mountains of Israel, saying, “They are laid desolate, they are given us to devour.”

Ezekiel 35:13 And you magnified yourselves against me with your mouth, and multiplied your words against me; I heard it.

Ezekiel 35:14 Thus says the Lord GOD: As the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate.

Ezekiel 35:15 As you rejoiced over the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so I will deal with you; you shall be desolate, Mount Seir, and all Edom, all of it. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 36:1 And you, mortal, prophesy to the mountains of Israel, and say: O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD.

Ezekiel 36:2 Thus says the Lord GOD: Because the enemy said of you, “Aha!” and, “The ancient heights have become our possession,”

Ezekiel 36:3 therefore prophesy, and say: Thus says the Lord GOD: Because they made you desolate indeed, and crushed you from all sides, so that you became the possession of the rest of the nations, and you became an object of gossip and slander among the people;

Ezekiel 36:4 therefore, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD: Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains and the hills, the watercourses and the valleys, the desolate wastes and the deserted towns, which have become a source of plunder and an object of derision to the rest of the nations all around;

Ezekiel 36:5 therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I am speaking in my hot jealousy against the rest of the nations, and against all Edom, who, with wholehearted joy and utter contempt, took my land as their possession, because of its pasture, to plunder it.

Ezekiel 36:6 Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and say to the mountains and hills, to the watercourses and valleys, Thus says the Lord GOD: I am speaking in my jealous wrath, because you have suffered the insults of the nations;

Ezekiel 36:7 therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I swear that the nations that are all around you shall themselves suffer insults.

Ezekiel 36:8 But you, O mountains of Israel, shall shoot out your branches, and yield your fruit to my people Israel; for they shall soon come home.

Ezekiel 36:9 See now, I am for you; I will turn to you, and you shall be tilled and sown;

Ezekiel 36:10 and I will multiply your population, the whole house of Israel, all of it; the towns shall be inhabited and the waste places rebuilt;

Ezekiel 36:11 and I will multiply human beings and animals upon you. They shall increase and be fruitful; and I will cause you to be inhabited as in your former times, and will do more good to you than ever before. Then you shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 36:12 I will lead people upon you— my people Israel— and they shall possess you, and you shall be their inheritance. No longer shall you bereave them of children.

Ezekiel 36:13 Thus says the Lord GOD: Because they say to you, “You devour people, and you bereave your nation of children,”

Ezekiel 36:14 therefore you shall no longer devour people and no longer bereave your nation of children, says the Lord GOD;

Ezekiel 36:15 and no longer will I let you hear the insults of the nations, no longer shall you bear the disgrace of the peoples; and no longer shall you cause your nation to stumble, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 36:16 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 36:17 Mortal, when the house of Israel lived on their own soil, they defiled it with their ways and their deeds; their conduct in my sight was like the uncleanness of a woman in her menstrual period.

Ezekiel 36:18 So I poured out my wrath upon them for the blood that they had shed upon the land, and for the idols with which they had defiled it.

Ezekiel 36:19 I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries; in accordance with their conduct and their deeds I judged them.

Ezekiel 36:20 But when they came to the nations, wherever they came, they profaned my holy name, in that it was said of them, “These are the people of the LORD, and yet they had to go out of his land.”

Ezekiel 36:21 But I had concern for my holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations to which they came.

Ezekiel 36:22 Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: It is not for your sake, O house of Israel, that I am about to act, but for the sake of my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations to which you came.

Ezekiel 36:23 I will sanctify my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, and which you have profaned among them; and the nations shall know that I am the LORD, says the Lord GOD, when through you I display my holiness before their eyes.

Ezekiel 36:24 I will take you from the nations, and gather you from all the countries, and bring you into your own land.

Ezekiel 36:25 I will sprinkle clean water upon you, and you shall be clean from all your uncleannesses, and from all your idols I will cleanse you.

Ezekiel 36:26 A new heart I will give you, and a new spirit I will put within you; and I will remove from your body the heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh.

Ezekiel 36:27 I will put my spirit within you, and make you follow my statutes and be careful to observe my ordinances.

Ezekiel 36:28 Then you shall live in the land that I gave to your ancestors; and you shall be my people, and I will be your God.

Ezekiel 36:29 I will save you from all your uncleannesses, and I will summon the grain and make it abundant and lay no famine upon you.

Ezekiel 36:30 I will make the fruit of the tree and the produce of the field abundant, so that you may never again suffer the disgrace of famine among the nations.

Ezekiel 36:31 Then you shall remember your evil ways, and your dealings that were not good; and you shall loathe yourselves for your iniquities and your abominable deeds.

Ezekiel 36:32 It is not for your sake that I will act, says the Lord GOD; let that be known to you. Be ashamed and dismayed for your ways, O house of Israel.

Ezekiel 36:33 Thus says the Lord GOD: On the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the towns to be inhabited, and the waste places shall be rebuilt.

Ezekiel 36:34 The land that was desolate shall be tilled, instead of being the desolation that it was in the sight of all who passed by.

Ezekiel 36:35 And they will say, “This land that was desolate has become like the garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined towns are now inhabited and fortified.”

Ezekiel 36:36 Then the nations that are left all around you shall know that I, the LORD, have rebuilt the ruined places, and replanted that which was desolate; I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will do it.

Ezekiel 36:37 Thus says the Lord GOD: I will also let the house of Israel ask me to do this for them: to increase their population like a flock.

Ezekiel 36:38 Like the flock for sacrifices, like the flock at Jerusalem during her appointed festivals, so shall the ruined towns be filled with flocks of people. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 37:1 The hand of the LORD came upon me, and he brought me out by the spirit of the LORD and set me down in the middle of a valley; it was full of bones.

Ezekiel 37:2 He led me all around them; there were very many lying in the valley, and they were very dry.

Ezekiel 37:3 He said to me, “Mortal, can these bones live?” I answered, “O Lord GOD, you know.”

Ezekiel 37:4 Then he said to me, “Prophesy to these bones, and say to them: O dry bones, hear the word of the LORD.

Ezekiel 37:5 Thus says the Lord GOD to these bones: I will cause breath to enter you, and you shall live.

Ezekiel 37:6 I will lay sinews on you, and will cause flesh to come upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you shall live; and you shall know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 37:7 So I prophesied as I had been commanded; and as I prophesied, suddenly there was a noise, a rattling, and the bones came together, bone to its bone.

Ezekiel 37:8 I looked, and there were sinews on them, and flesh had come upon them, and skin had covered them; but there was no breath in them.

Ezekiel 37:9 Then he said to me, “Prophesy to the breath, prophesy, mortal, and say to the breath: Thus says the Lord GOD: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.”

Ezekiel 37:10 I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood on their feet, a vast multitude.

Ezekiel 37:11 Then he said to me, “Mortal, these bones are the whole house of Israel. They say, ‘Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are cut off completely.’

Ezekiel 37:12 Therefore prophesy, and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: I am going to open your graves, and bring you up from your graves, O my people; and I will bring you back to the land of Israel.

Ezekiel 37:13 And you shall know that I am the LORD, when I open your graves, and bring you up from your graves, O my people.

Ezekiel 37:14 I will put my spirit within you, and you shall live, and I will place you on your own soil; then you shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken and will act, says the LORD.”

Ezekiel 37:15 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 37:16 Mortal, take a stick and write on it, “For Judah, and the Israelites associated with it”; then take another stick and write on it, “For Joseph (the stick of Ephraim) and all the house of Israel associated with it”;

Ezekiel 37:17 and join them together into one stick, so that they may become one in your hand.

Ezekiel 37:18 And when your people say to you, “Will you not show us what you mean by these?”

Ezekiel 37:19 say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: I am about to take the stick of Joseph (which is in the hand of Ephraim) and the tribes of Israel associated with it; and I will put the stick of Judah upon it, and make them one stick, in order that they may be one in my hand.

Ezekiel 37:20 When the sticks on which you write are in your hand before their eyes,

Ezekiel 37:21 then say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: I will take the people of Israel from the nations among which they have gone, and will gather them from every quarter, and bring them to their own land.

Ezekiel 37:22 I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king over them all. Never again shall they be two nations, and never again shall they be divided into two kingdoms.

Ezekiel 37:23 They shall never again defile themselves with their idols and their detestable things, or with any of their transgressions. I will save them from all the apostasies into which they have fallen, and will cleanse them. Then they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

Ezekiel 37:24 My servant David shall be king over them; and they shall all have one shepherd. They shall follow my ordinances and be careful to observe my statutes.

Ezekiel 37:25 They shall live in the land that I gave to my servant Jacob, in which your ancestors lived; they and their children and their children’s children shall live there forever; and my servant David shall be their prince forever.

Ezekiel 37:26 I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them; and I will bless them and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary among them forevermore.

Ezekiel 37:27 My dwelling place shall be with them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

Ezekiel 37:28 Then the nations shall know that I the LORD sanctify Israel, when my sanctuary is among them forevermore.

Ezekiel 38:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 38:2 Mortal, set your face toward Gog, of the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal. Prophesy against him

Ezekiel 38:3 and say: Thus says the Lord GOD: I am against you, O Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal;

Ezekiel 38:4 I will turn you around and put hooks into your jaws, and I will lead you out with all your army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed in full armor, a great company, all of them with shield and buckler, wielding swords.

Ezekiel 38:5 Persia, Ethiopia, and Put are with them, all of them with buckler and helmet;

Ezekiel 38:6 Gomer and all its troops; Beth-togarmah from the remotest parts of the north with all its troops— many peoples are with you.

Ezekiel 38:7 Be ready and keep ready, you and all the companies that are assembled around you, and hold yourselves in reserve for them.

Ezekiel 38:8 After many days you shall be mustered; in the latter years you shall go against a land restored from war, a land where people were gathered from many nations on the mountains of Israel, which had long lain waste; its people were brought out from the nations and now are living in safety, all of them.

Ezekiel 38:9 You shall advance, coming on like a storm; you shall be like a cloud covering the land, you and all your troops, and many peoples with you.

Ezekiel 38:10 Thus says the Lord GOD: On that day thoughts will come into your mind, and you will devise an evil scheme.

Ezekiel 38:11 You will say, “I will go up against the land of unwalled villages; I will fall upon the quiet people who live in safety, all of them living without walls, and having no bars or gates”;

Ezekiel 38:12 to seize spoil and carry off plunder; to assail the waste places that are now inhabited, and the people who were gathered from the nations, who are acquiring cattle and goods, who live at the center of the earth.

Ezekiel 38:13 Sheba and Dedan and the merchants of Tarshish and all its young warriors will say to you, “Have you come to seize spoil? Have you assembled your horde to carry off plunder, to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to seize a great amount of booty?”

Ezekiel 38:14 Therefore, mortal, prophesy, and say to Gog: Thus says the Lord GOD: On that day when my people Israel are living securely, you will rouse yourself

Ezekiel 38:15 and come from your place out of the remotest parts of the north, you and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great horde, a mighty army;

Ezekiel 38:16 you will come up against my people Israel, like a cloud covering the earth. In the latter days I will bring you against my land, so that the nations may know me, when through you, O Gog, I display my holiness before their eyes.

Ezekiel 38:17 Thus says the Lord GOD: Are you he of whom I spoke in former days by my servants the prophets of Israel, who in those days prophesied for years that I would bring you against them?

Ezekiel 38:18 On that day, when Gog comes against the land of Israel, says the Lord GOD, my wrath shall be aroused.

Ezekiel 38:19 For in my jealousy and in my blazing wrath I declare: On that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel;

Ezekiel 38:20 the fish of the sea, and the birds of the air, and the animals of the field, and all creeping things that creep on the ground, and all human beings that are on the face of the earth, shall quake at my presence, and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the cliffs shall fall, and every wall shall tumble to the ground.

Ezekiel 38:21 I will summon the sword against Gog in all my mountains, says the Lord GOD; the swords of all will be against their comrades.

Ezekiel 38:22 With pestilence and bloodshed I will enter into judgment with him; and I will pour down torrential rains and hailstones, fire and sulfur, upon him and his troops and the many peoples that are with him.

Ezekiel 38:23 So I will display my greatness and my holiness and make myself known in the eyes of many nations. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 39:1 And you, mortal, prophesy against Gog, and say: Thus says the Lord GOD: I am against you, O Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal!

Ezekiel 39:2 I will turn you around and drive you forward, and bring you up from the remotest parts of the north, and lead you against the mountains of Israel.

Ezekiel 39:3 I will strike your bow from your left hand, and will make your arrows drop out of your right hand.

Ezekiel 39:4 You shall fall upon the mountains of Israel, you and all your troops and the peoples that are with you; I will give you to birds of prey of every kind and to the wild animals to be devoured.

Ezekiel 39:5 You shall fall in the open field; for I have spoken, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 39:6 I will send fire on Magog and on those who live securely in the coastlands; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 39:7 My holy name I will make known among my people Israel; and I will not let my holy name be profaned any more; and the nations shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel.

Ezekiel 39:8 It has come! It has happened, says the Lord GOD. This is the day of which I have spoken.

Ezekiel 39:9 Then those who live in the towns of Israel will go out and make fires of the weapons and burn them— bucklers and shields, bows and arrows, handpikes and spears— and they will make fires of them for seven years.

Ezekiel 39:10 They will not need to take wood out of the field or cut down any trees in the forests, for they will make their fires of the weapons; they will despoil those who despoiled them, and plunder those who plundered them, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 39:11 On that day I will give to Gog a place for burial in Israel, the Valley of the Travelers east of the sea; it shall block the path of the travelers, for there Gog and all his horde will be buried; it shall be called the Valley of Hamon-gog.

Ezekiel 39:12 Seven months the house of Israel shall spend burying them, in order to cleanse the land.

Ezekiel 39:13 All the people of the land shall bury them; and it will bring them honor on the day that I show my glory, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 39:14 They will set apart men to pass through the land regularly and bury any invaders who remain on the face of the land, so as to cleanse it; for seven months they shall make their search.

Ezekiel 39:15 As the searchers pass through the land, anyone who sees a human bone shall set up a sign by it, until the buriers have buried it in the Valley of Hamon-gog.

Ezekiel 39:16 (A city Hamonah is there also.) Thus they shall cleanse the land.

Ezekiel 39:17 As for you, mortal, thus says the Lord GOD: Speak to the birds of every kind and to all the wild animals: Assemble and come, gather from all around to the sacrificial feast that I am preparing for you, a great sacrificial feast on the mountains of Israel, and you shall eat flesh and drink blood.

Ezekiel 39:18 You shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth— of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bulls, all of them fatlings of Bashan.

Ezekiel 39:19 You shall eat fat until you are filled, and drink blood until you are drunk, at the sacrificial feast that I am preparing for you.

Ezekiel 39:20 And you shall be filled at my table with horses and charioteers, with warriors and all kinds of soldiers, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 39:21 I will display my glory among the nations; and all the nations shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid on them.

Ezekiel 39:22 The house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God, from that day forward.

Ezekiel 39:23 And the nations shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity, because they dealt treacherously with me. So I hid my face from them and gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they all fell by the sword.

Ezekiel 39:24 I dealt with them according to their uncleanness and their transgressions, and hid my face from them.

Ezekiel 39:25 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Now I will restore the fortunes of Jacob, and have mercy on the whole house of Israel; and I will be jealous for my holy name.

Ezekiel 39:26 They shall forget their shame, and all the treachery they have practiced against me, when they live securely in their land with no one to make them afraid,

Ezekiel 39:27 when I have brought them back from the peoples and gathered them from their enemies' lands, and through them have displayed my holiness in the sight of many nations.

Ezekiel 39:28 Then they shall know that I am the LORD their God because I sent them into exile among the nations, and then gathered them into their own land. I will leave none of them behind;

Ezekiel 39:29 and I will never again hide my face from them, when I pour out my spirit upon the house of Israel, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 40:1 In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city was struck down, on that very day, the hand of the LORD was upon me, and he brought me there.

Ezekiel 40:2 He brought me, in visions of God, to the land of Israel, and set me down upon a very high mountain, on which was a structure like a city to the south.

Ezekiel 40:3 When he brought me there, a man was there, whose appearance shone like bronze, with a linen cord and a measuring reed in his hand; and he was standing in the gateway.

Ezekiel 40:4 The man said to me, “Mortal, look closely and listen attentively, and set your mind upon all that I shall show you, for you were brought here in order that I might show it to you; declare all that you see to the house of Israel.”

Ezekiel 40:5 Now there was a wall all around the outside of the temple area. The length of the measuring reed in the man’s hand was six long cubits, each being a cubit and a handbreadth in length; so he measured the thickness of the wall, one reed; and the height, one reed.

Ezekiel 40:6 Then he went into the gateway facing east, going up its steps, and measured the threshold of the gate, one reed deep. There were Ezekiel 40:7 recesses, and each recess was one reed wide and one reed deep; and the space between the recesses, five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the vestibule of the gate at the inner end was one reed deep.

Ezekiel 40:8 Then he measured the inner vestibule of the gateway, one cubit.

Ezekiel 40:9 Then he measured the vestibule of the gateway, eight cubits; and its pilasters, two cubits; and the vestibule of the gate was at the inner end.

Ezekiel 40:10 There were three recesses on either side of the east gate; the three were of the same size; and the pilasters on either side were of the same size.

Ezekiel 40:11 Then he measured the width of the opening of the gateway, ten cubits; and the width of the gateway, thirteen cubits.

Ezekiel 40:12 There was a barrier before the recesses, one cubit on either side; and the recesses were six cubits on either side.

Ezekiel 40:13 Then he measured the gate from the back of the one recess to the back of the other, a width of twenty-five cubits, from wall to wall.

Ezekiel 40:14 He measured also the vestibule, twenty cubits; and the gate next to the pilaster on every side of the court.

Ezekiel 40:15 From the front of the gate at the entrance to the end of the inner vestibule of the gate was fifty cubits.

Ezekiel 40:16 The recesses and their pilasters had windows, with shutters on the inside of the gateway all around, and the vestibules also had windows on the inside all around; and on the pilasters were palm trees.

Ezekiel 40:17 Then he brought me into the outer court; there were chambers there, and a pavement, all around the court; thirty chambers fronted on the pavement.

Ezekiel 40:18 The pavement ran along the side of the gates, corresponding to the length of the gates; this was the lower pavement.

Ezekiel 40:19 Then he measured the distance from the inner front of the lower gate to the outer front of the inner court, one hundred cubits.

Ezekiel 40:20 Then he measured the gate of the outer court that faced north— its depth and width.

Ezekiel 40:21 Its recesses, three on either side, and its pilasters and its vestibule were of the same size as those of the first gate; its depth was fifty cubits, and its width twenty-five cubits.

Ezekiel 40:22 Its windows, its vestibule, and its palm trees were of the same size as those of the gate that faced toward the east. Seven steps led up to it; and its vestibule was on the inside.

Ezekiel 40:23 Opposite the gate on the north, as on the east, was a gate to the inner court; he measured from gate to gate, one hundred cubits.

Ezekiel 40:24 Then he led me toward the south, and there was a gate on the south; and he measured its pilasters and its vestibule; they had the same dimensions as the others.

Ezekiel 40:25 There were windows all around in it and in its vestibule, like the windows of the others; its depth was fifty cubits, and its width twenty-five cubits.

Ezekiel 40:26 There were seven steps leading up to it; its vestibule was on the inside. It had palm trees on its pilasters, one on either side.

Ezekiel 40:27 There was a gate on the south of the inner court; and he measured from gate to gate toward the south, one hundred cubits.

Ezekiel 40:28 Then he brought me to the inner court by the south gate, and he measured the south gate; it was of the same dimensions as the others.

Ezekiel 40:29 Its recesses, its pilasters, and its vestibule were of the same size as the others; and there were windows all around in it and in its vestibule; its depth was fifty cubits, and its width twenty-five cubits.

Ezekiel 40:30 There were vestibules all around, twenty-five cubits deep and five cubits wide.

Ezekiel 40:31 Its vestibule faced the outer court, and palm trees were on its pilasters, and its stairway had eight steps.

Ezekiel 40:32 Then he brought me to the inner court on the east side, and he measured the gate; it was of the same size as the others.

Ezekiel 40:33 Its recesses, its pilasters, and its vestibule were of the same dimensions as the others; and there were windows all around in it and in its vestibule; its depth was fifty cubits, and its width twenty-five cubits.

Ezekiel 40:34 Its vestibule faced the outer court, and it had palm trees on its pilasters, on either side; and its stairway had eight steps.

Ezekiel 40:35 Then he brought me to the north gate, and he measured it; it had the same dimensions as the others.

Ezekiel 40:36 Its recesses, its pilasters, and its vestibule were of the same size as the others; and it had windows all around. Its depth was fifty cubits, and its width twenty-five cubits.

Ezekiel 40:37 Its vestibule faced the outer court, and it had palm trees on its pilasters, on either side; and its stairway had eight steps.

Ezekiel 40:38 There was a chamber with its door in the vestibule of the gate, where the burnt offering was to be washed.

Ezekiel 40:39 And in the vestibule of the gate were two tables on either side, on which the burnt offering and the sin offering and the guilt offering were to be slaughtered.

Ezekiel 40:40 On the outside of the vestibule at the entrance of the north gate were two tables; and on the other side of the vestibule of the gate were two tables.

Ezekiel 40:41 Four tables were on the inside, and four tables on the outside of the side of the gate, eight tables, on which the sacrifices were to be slaughtered.

Ezekiel 40:42 There were also four tables of hewn stone for the burnt offering, a cubit and a half long, and one cubit and a half wide, and one cubit high, on which the instruments were to be laid with which the burnt offerings and the sacrifices were slaughtered.

Ezekiel 40:43 There were pegs, one handbreadth long, fastened all around the inside. And on the tables the flesh of the offering was to be laid.

Ezekiel 40:44 On the outside of the inner gateway there were chambers for the singers in the inner court, one at the side of the north gate facing south, the other at the side of the east gate facing north.

Ezekiel 40:45 He said to me, “This chamber that faces south is for the priests who have charge of the temple,

Ezekiel 40:46 and the chamber that faces north is for the priests who have charge of the altar; these are the descendants of Zadok, who alone among the descendants of Levi may come near to the LORD to minister to him.”

Ezekiel 40:47 He measured the court, one hundred cubits deep, and one hundred cubits wide, a square; and the altar was in front of the temple.

Ezekiel 40:48 Then he brought me to the vestibule of the temple and measured the pilasters of the vestibule, five cubits on either side; and the width of the gate was fourteen cubits; and the sidewalls of the gate were three cubits on either side.

Ezekiel 40:49 The depth of the vestibule was twenty cubits, and the width twelve cubits; ten steps led up to it; and there were pillars beside the pilasters on either side.

Ezekiel 41:1 Then he brought me to the nave, and measured the pilasters; on each side six cubits was the width of the pilasters.

Ezekiel 41:2 The width of the entrance was ten cubits; and the sidewalls of the entrance were five cubits on either side. He measured the length of the nave, forty cubits, and its width, twenty cubits.

Ezekiel 41:3 Then he went into the inner room and measured the pilasters of the entrance, two cubits; and the width of the entrance, six cubits; and the sidewalls of the entrance, seven cubits.

Ezekiel 41:4 He measured the depth of the room, twenty cubits, and its width, twenty cubits, beyond the nave. And he said to me, This is the most holy place.

Ezekiel 41:5 Then he measured the wall of the temple, six cubits thick; and the width of the side chambers, four cubits, all around the temple.

Ezekiel 41:6 The side chambers were in three stories, one over another, thirty in each story. There were offsets all around the wall of the temple to serve as supports for the side chambers, so that they should not be supported by the wall of the temple.

Ezekiel 41:7 The passageway of the side chambers widened from story to story; for the structure was supplied with a stairway all around the temple. For this reason the structure became wider from story to story. One ascended from the bottom story to the uppermost story by way of the middle one.

Ezekiel 41:8 I saw also that the temple had a raised platform all around; the foundations of the side chambers measured a full reed of six long cubits.

Ezekiel 41:9 The thickness of the outer wall of the side chambers was five cubits; and the free space between the side chambers of the temple

Ezekiel 41:10 and the chambers of the court was a width of twenty cubits all around the temple on every side.

Ezekiel 41:11 The side chambers opened onto the area left free, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south; and the width of the part that was left free was five cubits all around.

Ezekiel 41:12 The building that was facing the temple yard on the west side was seventy cubits wide; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick all around, and its depth ninety cubits.

Ezekiel 41:13 Then he measured the temple, one hundred cubits deep; and the yard and the building with its walls, one hundred cubits deep;

Ezekiel 41:14 also the width of the east front of the temple and the yard, one hundred cubits.

Ezekiel 41:15 Then he measured the depth of the building facing the yard at the west, together with its galleries on either side, one hundred cubits. The nave of the temple and the inner room and the outer vestibule

Ezekiel 41:16 were paneled, and, all around, all three had windows with recessed frames. Facing the threshold the temple was paneled with wood all around, from the floor up to the windows (now the windows were covered),

Ezekiel 41:17 to the space above the door, even to the inner room, and on the outside. And on all the walls all around in the inner room and the nave there was a pattern.

Ezekiel 41:18 It was formed of cherubim and palm trees, a palm tree between cherub and cherub. Each cherub had two faces:

Ezekiel 41:19 a human face turned toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion turned toward the palm tree on the other side. They were carved on the whole temple all around;

Ezekiel 41:20 from the floor to the area above the door, cherubim and palm trees were carved on the wall.

Ezekiel 41:21 The doorposts of the nave were square. In front of the holy place was something resembling

Ezekiel 41:22 an altar of wood, three cubits high, two cubits long, and two cubits wide; its corners, its base, and its walls were of wood. He said to me, “This is the table that stands before the LORD.”

Ezekiel 41:23 The nave and the holy place had each a double door.

Ezekiel 41:24 The doors had two leaves apiece, two swinging leaves for each door.

Ezekiel 41:25 On the doors of the nave were carved cherubim and palm trees, such as were carved on the walls; and there was a canopy of wood in front of the vestibule outside.

Ezekiel 41:26 And there were recessed windows and palm trees on either side, on the sidewalls of the vestibule.

Ezekiel 42:1 Then he led me out into the outer court, toward the north, and he brought me to the chambers that were opposite the temple yard and opposite the building on the north.

Ezekiel 42:2 The length of the building that was on the north side was one hundred cubits, and the width fifty cubits.

Ezekiel 42:3 Across the twenty cubits that belonged to the inner court, and facing the pavement that belonged to the outer court, the chambers rose gallery by gallery in three stories.

Ezekiel 42:4 In front of the chambers was a passage on the inner side, ten cubits wide and one hundred cubits deep, and its entrances were on the north.

Ezekiel 42:5 Now the upper chambers were narrower, for the galleries took more away from them than from the lower and middle chambers in the building.

Ezekiel 42:6 For they were in three stories, and they had no pillars like the pillars of the outer court; for this reason the upper chambers were set back from the ground more than the lower and the middle ones.

Ezekiel 42:7 There was a wall outside parallel to the chambers, toward the outer court, opposite the chambers, fifty cubits long.

Ezekiel 42:8 For the chambers on the outer court were fifty cubits long, while those opposite the temple were one hundred cubits long.

Ezekiel 42:9 At the foot of these chambers ran a passage that one entered from the east in order to enter them from the outer court.

Ezekiel 42:10 The width of the passage was fixed by the wall of the court. On the south also, opposite the vacant area and opposite the building, there were chambers

Ezekiel 42:11 with a passage in front of them; they were similar to the chambers on the north, of the same length and width, with the same exits and arrangements and doors.

Ezekiel 42:12 So the entrances of the chambers to the south were entered through the entrance at the head of the corresponding passage, from the east, along the matching wall.

Ezekiel 42:13 Then he said to me, “The north chambers and the south chambers opposite the vacant area are the holy chambers, where the priests who approach the LORD shall eat the most holy offerings; there they shall deposit the most holy offerings— the grain offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering— for the place is holy.

Ezekiel 42:14 When the priests enter the holy place, they shall not go out of it into the outer court without laying there the vestments in which they minister, for these are holy; they shall put on other garments before they go near to the area open to the people.”

Ezekiel 42:15 When he had finished measuring the interior of the temple area, he led me out by the gate that faces east, and measured the temple area all around.

Ezekiel 42:16 He measured the east side with the measuring reed, five hundred cubits by the measuring reed.

Ezekiel 42:17 Then he turned and measured the north side, five hundred cubits by the measuring reed.

Ezekiel 42:18 Then he turned and measured the south side, five hundred cubits by the measuring reed.

Ezekiel 42:19 Then he turned to the west side and measured, five hundred cubits by the measuring reed.

Ezekiel 42:20 He measured it on the four sides. It had a wall around it, five hundred cubits long and five hundred cubits wide, to make a separation between the holy and the common.

Ezekiel 43:1 Then he brought me to the gate, the gate facing east.

Ezekiel 43:2 And there, the glory of the God of Israel was coming from the east; the sound was like the sound of mighty waters; and the earth shone with his glory.

Ezekiel 43:3 The vision I saw was like the vision that I had seen when he came to destroy the city, and like the vision that I had seen by the river Chebar; and I fell upon my face.

Ezekiel 43:4 As the glory of the LORD entered the temple by the gate facing east,

Ezekiel 43:5 the spirit lifted me up, and brought me into the inner court; and the glory of the LORD filled the temple.

Ezekiel 43:6 While the man was standing beside me, I heard someone speaking to me out of the temple.

Ezekiel 43:7 He said to me: Mortal, this is the place of my throne and the place for the soles of my feet, where I will reside among the people of Israel forever. The house of Israel shall no more defile my holy name, neither they nor their kings, by their whoring, and by the corpses of their kings at their death.

Ezekiel 43:8 When they placed their threshold by my threshold and their doorposts beside my doorposts, with only a wall between me and them, they were defiling my holy name by their abominations that they committed; therefore I have consumed them in my anger.

Ezekiel 43:9 Now let them put away their idolatry and the corpses of their kings far from me, and I will reside among them forever.

Ezekiel 43:10 As for you, mortal, describe the temple to the house of Israel, and let them measure the pattern; and let them be ashamed of their iniquities.

Ezekiel 43:11 When they are ashamed of all that they have done, make known to them the plan of the temple, its arrangement, its exits and its entrances, and its whole form— all its ordinances and its entire plan and all its laws; and write it down in their sight, so that they may observe and follow the entire plan and all its ordinances.

Ezekiel 43:12 This is the law of the temple: the whole territory on the top of the mountain all around shall be most holy. This is the law of the temple.

Ezekiel 43:13 These are the dimensions of the altar by cubits (the cubit being one cubit and a handbreadth): its base shall be one cubit high, and one cubit wide, with a rim of one span around its edge. This shall be the height of the altar:

Ezekiel 43:14 From the base on the ground to the lower ledge, two cubits, with a width of one cubit; and from the smaller ledge to the larger ledge, four cubits, with a width of one cubit;

Ezekiel 43:15 and the altar hearth, four cubits; and from the altar hearth projecting upward, four horns.

Ezekiel 43:16 The altar hearth shall be square, twelve cubits long by twelve wide.

Ezekiel 43:17 The ledge also shall be square, fourteen cubits long by fourteen wide, with a rim around it half a cubit wide, and its surrounding base, one cubit. Its steps shall face east.

Ezekiel 43:18 Then he said to me: Mortal, thus says the Lord GOD: These are the ordinances for the altar: On the day when it is erected for offering burnt offerings upon it and for dashing blood against it,

Ezekiel 43:19 you shall give to the levitical priests of the family of Zadok, who draw near to me to minister to me, says the Lord GOD, a bull for a sin offering.

Ezekiel 43:20 And you shall take some of its blood, and put it on the four horns of the altar, and on the four corners of the ledge, and upon the rim all around; thus you shall purify it and make atonement for it.

Ezekiel 43:21 You shall also take the bull of the sin offering, and it shall be burnt in the appointed place belonging to the temple, outside the sacred area.

Ezekiel 43:22 On the second day you shall offer a male goat without blemish for a sin offering; and the altar shall be purified, as it was purified with the bull.

Ezekiel 43:23 When you have finished purifying it, you shall offer a bull without blemish and a ram from the flock without blemish.

Ezekiel 43:24 You shall present them before the LORD, and the priests shall throw salt on them and offer them up as a burnt offering to the LORD.

Ezekiel 43:25 For seven days you shall provide daily a goat for a sin offering; also a bull and a ram from the flock, without blemish, shall be provided.

Ezekiel 43:26 Seven days shall they make atonement for the altar and cleanse it, and so consecrate it.

Ezekiel 43:27 When these days are over, then from the eighth day onward the priests shall offer upon the altar your burnt offerings and your offerings of well-being; and I will accept you, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 44:1 Then he brought me back to the outer gate of the sanctuary, which faces east; and it was shut.

Ezekiel 44:2 The LORD said to me: This gate shall remain shut; it shall not be opened, and no one shall enter by it; for the LORD, the God of Israel, has entered by it; therefore it shall remain shut.

Ezekiel 44:3 Only the prince, because he is a prince, may sit in it to eat food before the LORD; he shall enter by way of the vestibule of the gate, and shall go out by the same way.

Ezekiel 44:4 Then he brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the temple; and I looked, and lo! the glory of the LORD filled the temple of the LORD; and I fell upon my face.

Ezekiel 44:5 The LORD said to me: Mortal, mark well, look closely, and listen attentively to all that I shall tell you concerning all the ordinances of the temple of the LORD and all its laws; and mark well those who may be admitted to the temple and all those who are to be excluded from the sanctuary.

Ezekiel 44:6 Say to the rebellious house, to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: O house of Israel, let there be an end to all your abominations

Ezekiel 44:7 in admitting foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and flesh, to be in my sanctuary, profaning my temple when you offer to me my food, the fat and the blood. You have broken my covenant with all your abominations.

Ezekiel 44:8 And you have not kept charge of my sacred offerings; but you have appointed foreigners to act for you in keeping my charge in my sanctuary.

Ezekiel 44:9 Thus says the Lord GOD: No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and flesh, of all the foreigners who are among the people of Israel, shall enter my sanctuary.

Ezekiel 44:10 But the Levites who went far from me, going astray from me after their idols when Israel went astray, shall bear their punishment.

Ezekiel 44:11 They shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having oversight at the gates of the temple, and serving in the temple; they shall slaughter the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall attend on them and serve them.

Ezekiel 44:12 Because they ministered to them before their idols and made the house of Israel stumble into iniquity, therefore I have sworn concerning them, says the Lord GOD, that they shall bear their punishment.

Ezekiel 44:13 They shall not come near to me, to serve me as priest, nor come near any of my sacred offerings, the things that are most sacred; but they shall bear their shame, and the consequences of the abominations that they have committed.

Ezekiel 44:14 Yet I will appoint them to keep charge of the temple, to do all its chores, all that is to be done in it.

Ezekiel 44:15 But the levitical priests, the descendants of Zadok, who kept the charge of my sanctuary when the people of Israel went astray from me, shall come near to me to minister to me; and they shall attend me to offer me the fat and the blood, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 44:16 It is they who shall enter my sanctuary, it is they who shall approach my table, to minister to me, and they shall keep my charge.

Ezekiel 44:17 When they enter the gates of the inner court, they shall wear linen vestments; they shall have nothing of wool on them, while they minister at the gates of the inner court, and within.

Ezekiel 44:18 They shall have linen turbans on their heads, and linen undergarments on their loins; they shall not bind themselves with anything that causes sweat.

Ezekiel 44:19 When they go out into the outer court to the people, they shall remove the vestments in which they have been ministering, and lay them in the holy chambers; and they shall put on other garments, so that they may not communicate holiness to the people with their vestments.

Ezekiel 44:20 They shall not shave their heads or let their locks grow long; they shall only trim the hair of their heads.

Ezekiel 44:21 No priest shall drink wine when he enters the inner court.

Ezekiel 44:22 They shall not marry a widow, or a divorced woman, but only a virgin of the stock of the house of Israel, or a widow who is the widow of a priest.

Ezekiel 44:23 They shall teach my people the difference between the holy and the common, and show them how to distinguish between the unclean and the clean.

Ezekiel 44:24 In a controversy they shall act as judges, and they shall decide it according to my judgments. They shall keep my laws and my statutes regarding all my appointed festivals, and they shall keep my sabbaths holy.

Ezekiel 44:25 They shall not defile themselves by going near to a dead person; for father or mother, however, and for son or daughter, and for brother or unmarried sister they may defile themselves.

Ezekiel 44:26 After he has become clean, they shall count seven days for him.

Ezekiel 44:27 On the day that he goes into the holy place, into the inner court, to minister in the holy place, he shall offer his sin offering, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 44:28 This shall be their inheritance: I am their inheritance; and you shall give them no holding in Israel; I am their holding.

Ezekiel 44:29 They shall eat the grain offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering; and every devoted thing in Israel shall be theirs.

Ezekiel 44:30 The first of all the first fruits of all kinds, and every offering of all kinds from all your offerings, shall belong to the priests; you shall also give to the priests the first of your dough, in order that a blessing may rest on your house.

Ezekiel 44:31 The priests shall not eat of anything, whether bird or animal, that died of itself or was torn by animals.

Ezekiel 45:1 When you allot the land as an inheritance, you shall set aside for the LORD a portion of the land as a holy district, twenty-five thousand cubits long and twenty thousand cubits wide; it shall be holy throughout its entire extent.

Ezekiel 45:2 Of this, a square plot of five hundred by five hundred cubits shall be for the sanctuary, with fifty cubits for an open space around it.

Ezekiel 45:3 In the holy district you shall measure off a section twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand wide, in which shall be the sanctuary, the most holy place.

Ezekiel 45:4 It shall be a holy portion of the land; it shall be for the priests, who minister in the sanctuary and approach the LORD to minister to him; and it shall be both a place for their houses and a holy place for the sanctuary.

Ezekiel 45:5 Another section, twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand cubits wide, shall be for the Levites who minister at the temple, as their holding for cities to live in.

Ezekiel 45:6 Alongside the portion set apart as the holy district you shall assign as a holding for the city an area five thousand cubits wide, and twenty-five thousand cubits long; it shall belong to the whole house of Israel.

Ezekiel 45:7 And to the prince shall belong the land on both sides of the holy district and the holding of the city, alongside the holy district and the holding of the city, on the west and on the east, corresponding in length to one of the tribal portions, and extending from the western to the eastern boundary

Ezekiel 45:8 of the land. It is to be his property in Israel. And my princes shall no longer oppress my people; but they shall let the house of Israel have the land according to their tribes.

Ezekiel 45:9 Thus says the Lord GOD: Enough, O princes of Israel! Put away violence and oppression, and do what is just and right. Cease your evictions of my people, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 45:10 You shall have honest balances, an honest ephah, and an honest bath.

Ezekiel 45:11 The ephah and the bath shall be of the same measure, the bath containing one-tenth of a homer, and the ephah one-tenth of a homer; the homer shall be the standard measure.

Ezekiel 45:12 The shekel shall be twenty gerahs. Twenty shekels, twenty-five shekels, and fifteen shekels shall make a mina for you.

Ezekiel 45:13 This is the offering that you shall make: one-sixth of an ephah from each homer of wheat, and one-sixth of an ephah from each homer of barley,

Ezekiel 45:14 and as the fixed portion of oil, one-tenth of a bath from each cor (the cor, like the homer, contains ten baths);

Ezekiel 45:15 and one sheep from every flock of two hundred, from the pastures of Israel. This is the offering for grain offerings, burnt offerings, and offerings of well-being, to make atonement for them, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 45:16 All the people of the land shall join with the prince in Israel in making this offering.

Ezekiel 45:17 But this shall be the obligation of the prince regarding the burnt offerings, grain offerings, and drink offerings, at the festivals, the new moons, and the sabbaths, all the appointed festivals of the house of Israel: he shall provide the sin offerings, grain offerings, the burnt offerings, and the offerings of well-being, to make atonement for the house of Israel.

Ezekiel 45:18 Thus says the Lord GOD: In the first month, on the first day of the month, you shall take a young bull without blemish, and purify the sanctuary.

Ezekiel 45:19 The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering and put it on the doorposts of the temple, the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and the posts of the gate of the inner court.

Ezekiel 45:20 You shall do the same on the seventh day of the month for anyone who has sinned through error or ignorance; so you shall make atonement for the temple.

Ezekiel 45:21 In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, you shall celebrate the festival of the passover, and for seven days unleavened bread shall be eaten.

Ezekiel 45:22 On that day the prince shall provide for himself and all the people of the land a young bull for a sin offering.

Ezekiel 45:23 And during the seven days of the festival he shall provide as a burnt offering to the LORD seven young bulls and seven rams without blemish, on each of the seven days; and a male goat daily for a sin offering.

Ezekiel 45:24 He shall provide as a grain offering an ephah for each bull, an ephah for each ram, and a hin of oil to each ephah.

Ezekiel 45:25 In the seventh month, on the fifteenth day of the month and for the seven days of the festival, he shall make the same provision for sin offerings, burnt offerings, and grain offerings, and for the oil.

Ezekiel 46:1 Thus says the Lord GOD: The gate of the inner court that faces east shall remain closed on the six working days; but on the sabbath day it shall be opened and on the day of the new moon it shall be opened.

Ezekiel 46:2 The prince shall enter by the vestibule of the gate from outside, and shall take his stand by the post of the gate. The priests shall offer his burnt offering and his offerings of well-being, and he shall bow down at the threshold of the gate. Then he shall go out, but the gate shall not be closed until evening.

Ezekiel 46:3 The people of the land shall bow down at the entrance of that gate before the LORD on the sabbaths and on the new moons.

Ezekiel 46:4 The burnt offering that the prince offers to the LORD on the sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish and a ram without blemish;

Ezekiel 46:5 and the grain offering with the ram shall be an ephah, and the grain offering with the lambs shall be as much as he wishes to give, together with a hin of oil to each ephah.

Ezekiel 46:6 On the day of the new moon he shall offer a young bull without blemish, and six lambs and a ram, which shall be without blemish;

Ezekiel 46:7 as a grain offering he shall provide an ephah with the bull and an ephah with the ram, and with the lambs as much as he wishes, together with a hin of oil to each ephah.

Ezekiel 46:8 When the prince enters, he shall come in by the vestibule of the gate, and he shall go out by the same way.

Ezekiel 46:9 When the people of the land come before the LORD at the appointed festivals, whoever enters by the north gate to worship shall go out by the south gate; and whoever enters by the south gate shall go out by the north gate: they shall not return by way of the gate by which they entered, but shall go out straight ahead.

Ezekiel 46:10 When they come in, the prince shall come in with them; and when they go out, he shall go out.

Ezekiel 46:11 At the festivals and the appointed seasons the grain offering with a young bull shall be an ephah, and with a ram an ephah, and with the lambs as much as one wishes to give, together with a hin of oil to an ephah.

Ezekiel 46:12 When the prince provides a freewill offering, either a burnt offering or offerings of well-being as a freewill offering to the LORD, the gate facing east shall be opened for him; and he shall offer his burnt offering or his offerings of well-being as he does on the sabbath day. Then he shall go out, and after he has gone out the gate shall be closed.

Ezekiel 46:13 He shall provide a lamb, a yearling, without blemish, for a burnt offering to the LORD daily; morning by morning he shall provide it.

Ezekiel 46:14 And he shall provide a grain offering with it morning by morning regularly, one-sixth of an ephah, and one-third of a hin of oil to moisten the choice flour, as a grain offering to the LORD; this is the ordinance for all time.

Ezekiel 46:15 Thus the lamb and the grain offering and the oil shall be provided, morning by morning, as a regular burnt offering.

Ezekiel 46:16 Thus says the Lord GOD: If the prince makes a gift to any of his sons out of his inheritance, it shall belong to his sons, it is their holding by inheritance.

Ezekiel 46:17 But if he makes a gift out of his inheritance to one of his servants, it shall be his to the year of liberty; then it shall revert to the prince; only his sons may keep a gift from his inheritance.

Ezekiel 46:18 The prince shall not take any of the inheritance of the people, thrusting them out of their holding; he shall give his sons their inheritance out of his own holding, so that none of my people shall be dispossessed of their holding.

Ezekiel 46:19 Then he brought me through the entrance, which was at the side of the gate, to the north row of the holy chambers for the priests; and there I saw a place at the extreme western end of them.

Ezekiel 46:20 He said to me, “This is the place where the priests shall boil the guilt offering and the sin offering, and where they shall bake the grain offering, in order not to bring them out into the outer court and so communicate holiness to the people.”

Ezekiel 46:21 Then he brought me out to the outer court, and led me past the four corners of the court; and in each corner of the court there was a court—

Ezekiel 46:22 in the four corners of the court were small courts, forty cubits long and thirty wide; the four were of the same size.

Ezekiel 46:23 On the inside, around each of the four courts was a row of masonry, with hearths made at the bottom of the rows all around.

Ezekiel 46:24 Then he said to me, “These are the kitchens where those who serve at the temple shall boil the sacrifices of the people.”

Ezekiel 47:1 Then he brought me back to the entrance of the temple; there, water was flowing from below the threshold of the temple toward the east (for the temple faced east); and the water was flowing down from below the south end of the threshold of the temple, south of the altar.

Ezekiel 47:2 Then he brought me out by way of the north gate, and led me around on the outside to the outer gate that faces toward the east; and the water was coming out on the south side.

Ezekiel 47:3 Going on eastward with a cord in his hand, the man measured one thousand cubits, and then led me through the water; and it was ankle-deep.

Ezekiel 47:4 Again he measured one thousand, and led me through the water; and it was knee-deep. Again he measured one thousand, and led me through the water; and it was up to the waist.

Ezekiel 47:5 Again he measured one thousand, and it was a river that I could not cross, for the water had risen; it was deep enough to swim in, a river that could not be crossed.

Ezekiel 47:6 He said to me, “Mortal, have you seen this?” Then he led me back along the bank of the river.

Ezekiel 47:7 As I came back, I saw on the bank of the river a great many trees on the one side and on the other.

Ezekiel 47:8 He said to me, “This water flows toward the eastern region and goes down into the Arabah; and when it enters the sea, the sea of stagnant waters, the water will become fresh.

Ezekiel 47:9 Wherever the river goes, every living creature that swarms will live, and there will be very many fish, once these waters reach there. It will become fresh; and everything will live where the river goes.

Ezekiel 47:10 People will stand fishing beside the sea from En-gedi to En-eglaim; it will be a place for the spreading of nets; its fish will be of a great many kinds, like the fish of the Great Sea.

Ezekiel 47:11 But its swamps and marshes will not become fresh; they are to be left for salt.

Ezekiel 47:12 On the banks, on both sides of the river, there will grow all kinds of trees for food. Their leaves will not wither nor their fruit fail, but they will bear fresh fruit every month, because the water for them flows from the sanctuary. Their fruit will be for food, and their leaves for healing.”

Ezekiel 47:13 Thus says the Lord GOD: These are the boundaries by which you shall divide the land for inheritance among the twelve tribes of Israel. Joseph shall have two portions.

Ezekiel 47:14 You shall divide it equally; I swore to give it to your ancestors, and this land shall fall to you as your inheritance.

Ezekiel 47:15 This shall be the boundary of the land: On the north side, from the Great Sea by way of Hethlon to Lebo-hamath, and on to Zedad, Ezekiel 47:16 Berothah, Sibraim (which lies between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath), as far as Hazer-hatticon, which is on the border of Hauran.

Ezekiel 47:17 So the boundary shall run from the sea to Hazar-enon, which is north of the border of Damascus, with the border of Hamath to the north. This shall be the north side.

Ezekiel 47:18 On the east side, between Hauran and Damascus; along the Jordan between Gilead and the land of Israel; to the eastern sea and as far as Tamar. This shall be the east side.

Ezekiel 47:19 On the south side, it shall run from Tamar as far as the waters of Meribath-kadesh, from there along the Wadi of Egypt to the Great Sea. This shall be the south side.

Ezekiel 47:20 On the west side, the Great Sea shall be the boundary to a point opposite Lebo-hamath. This shall be the west side.

Ezekiel 47:21 So you shall divide this land among you according to the tribes of Israel.

Ezekiel 47:22 You shall allot it as an inheritance for yourselves and for the aliens who reside among you and have begotten children among you. They shall be to you as citizens of Israel; with you they shall be allotted an inheritance among the tribes of Israel.

Ezekiel 47:23 In whatever tribe aliens reside, there you shall assign them their inheritance, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 48:1 These are the names of the tribes: Beginning at the northern border, on the Hethlon road, from Lebo-hamath, as far as Hazar-enon (which is on the border of Damascus, with Hamath to the north), and extending from the east side to the west, Dan, one portion.

Ezekiel 48:3 Adjoining the territory of Asher, from the east side to the west, Naphtali, one portion.

Ezekiel 48:4 Adjoining the territory of Naphtali, from the east side to the west, Manasseh, one portion.

Ezekiel 48:5 Adjoining the territory of Manasseh, from the east side to the west, Ephraim, one portion.

Ezekiel 48:6 Adjoining the territory of Ephraim, from the east side to the west, Reuben, one portion.

Ezekiel 48:7 Adjoining the territory of Reuben, from the east side to the west, Judah, one portion.

Ezekiel 48:8 Adjoining the territory of Judah, from the east side to the west, shall be the portion that you shall set apart, twenty-five thousand cubits in width, and in length equal to one of the tribal portions, from the east side to the west, with the sanctuary in the middle of it.

Ezekiel 48:9 The portion that you shall set apart for the LORD shall be twenty-five thousand cubits in length, and twenty thousand in width.

Ezekiel 48:10 These shall be the allotments of the holy portion: the priests shall have an allotment measuring twenty-five thousand cubits on the northern side, ten thousand cubits in width on the western side, ten thousand in width on the eastern side, and twenty-five thousand in length on the southern side, with the sanctuary of the LORD in the middle of it.

Ezekiel 48:11 This shall be for the consecrated priests, the descendants of Zadok, who kept my charge, who did not go astray when the people of Israel went astray, as the Levites did.

Ezekiel 48:12 It shall belong to them as a special portion from the holy portion of the land, a most holy place, adjoining the territory of the Levites.

Ezekiel 48:13 Alongside the territory of the priests, the Levites shall have an allotment twenty-five thousand cubits in length and ten thousand in width. The whole length shall be twenty-five thousand cubits and the width twenty thousand.

Ezekiel 48:14 They shall not sell or exchange any of it; they shall not transfer this choice portion of the land, for it is holy to the LORD.

Ezekiel 48:15 The remainder, five thousand cubits in width and twenty-five thousand in length, shall be for ordinary use for the city, for dwellings and for open country. In the middle of it shall be the city;

Ezekiel 48:16 and these shall be its dimensions: the north side four thousand five hundred cubits, the south side four thousand five hundred, the east side four thousand five hundred, and the west side four thousand five hundred.

Ezekiel 48:17 The city shall have open land: on the north two hundred fifty cubits, on the south two hundred fifty, on the east two hundred fifty, on the west two hundred fifty.

Ezekiel 48:18 The remainder of the length alongside the holy portion shall be ten thousand cubits to the east, and ten thousand to the west, and it shall be alongside the holy portion. Its produce shall be food for the workers of the city.

Ezekiel 48:19 The workers of the city, from all the tribes of Israel, shall cultivate it.

Ezekiel 48:20 The whole portion that you shall set apart shall be twenty-five thousand cubits square, that is, the holy portion together with the property of the city.

Ezekiel 48:21 What remains on both sides of the holy portion and of the property of the city shall belong to the prince. Extending from the twenty-five thousand cubits of the holy portion to the east border, and westward from the twenty-five thousand cubits to the west border, parallel to the tribal portions, it shall belong to the prince. The holy portion with the sanctuary of the temple in the middle of it,

Ezekiel 48:22 and the property of the Levites and of the city, shall be in the middle of that which belongs to the prince. The portion of the prince shall lie between the territory of Judah and the territory of Benjamin.

Ezekiel 48:23 As for the rest of the tribes: from the east side to the west, Benjamin, one portion.

Ezekiel 48:24 Adjoining the territory of Benjamin, from the east side to the west, Simeon, one portion.

Ezekiel 48:25 Adjoining the territory of Simeon, from the east side to the west, Issachar, one portion.

Ezekiel 48:26 Adjoining the territory of Issachar, from the east side to the west, Zebulun, one portion.

Ezekiel 48:27 Adjoining the territory of Zebulun, from the east side to the west, Gad, one portion.

Ezekiel 48:28 And adjoining the territory of Gad to the south, the boundary shall run from Tamar to the waters of Meribath-kadesh, from there along the Wadi of Egypt to the Great Sea.

Ezekiel 48:29 This is the land that you shall allot as an inheritance among the tribes of Israel, and these are their portions, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 48:30 These shall be the exits of the city: On the north side, which is to be four thousand five hundred cubits by measure,

Ezekiel 48:31 three gates, the gate of Reuben, the gate of Judah, and the gate of Levi, the gates of the city being named after the tribes of Israel.

Ezekiel 48:32 On the east side, which is to be four thousand five hundred cubits, three gates, the gate of Joseph, the gate of Benjamin, and the gate of Dan.

Ezekiel 48:33 On the south side, which is to be four thousand five hundred cubits by measure, three gates, the gate of Simeon, the gate of Issachar, and the gate of Zebulun.

Ezekiel 48:34 On the west side, which is to be four thousand five hundred cubits, three gates, the gate of Gad, the gate of Asher, and the gate of Naphtali.

Ezekiel 48:35 The circumference of the city shall be eighteen thousand cubits. And the name of the city from that time on shall be, The LORD is There.

Daniel

1:1 In the third year of the reign of King Jehoiakim of Judah, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it.

Daniel 1:2 The Lord let King Jehoiakim of Judah fall into his power, as well as some of the vessels of the house of God. These he brought to the land of Shinar, and placed the vessels in the treasury of his gods.

Daniel 1:3 Then the king commanded his palace master Ashpenaz to bring some of the Israelites of the royal family and of the nobility,

Daniel 1:4 young men without physical defect and handsome, versed in every branch of wisdom, endowed with knowledge and insight, and competent to serve in the king's palace; they were to be taught the literature and language of the Chaldeans.

Daniel 1:5 The king assigned them a daily portion of the royal rations of food and wine. They were to be educated for three years, so that at the end of that time they could be stationed in the king's court.

Daniel 1:6 Among them were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, from the tribe of Judah.

Daniel 1:7 The palace master gave them other names:Daniel he called Belteshazzar, Hananiah he called Shadrach, Mishael he called Meshach, and Azariah he called Abednego.

Daniel 1:8 But Daniel resolved that he would not defile himself with the royal rations of food and wine; so he asked the palace master to allow him not to defile himself.

Daniel 1:9 Now God allowed Daniel to receive favor and compassion from the palace master.

Daniel 1:10 The palace master said to Daniel, "I am afraid of my lord the king; he has appointed your food and your drink. If he should see you in poorer condition than the other young men of your own age, you would endanger my head with the king."

Daniel 1:11 Then Daniel asked the guard whom the palace master had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah:

Daniel 1:12 "Please test your servants for ten days. Let us be given vegetables to eat and water to drink.

Daniel 1:13 You can then compare our appearance with the appearance of the young men who eat the royal rations, and deal with your servants according to what you observe."

Daniel 1:14 So he agreed to this proposal and tested them for ten days.

Daniel 1:15 At the end of ten days it was observed that they appeared better and fatter than all the young men who had been eating the royal rations.

Daniel 1:16 So the guard continued to withdraw their royal rations and the wine they were to drink, and gave them vegetables.

Daniel 1:17 To these four young men God gave knowledge and skill in every aspect of literature and wisdom; Daniel also had insight into all visions and dreams.

Daniel 1:18 At the end of the time that the king had set for them to be brought in, the palace master brought them into the presence of Nebuchadnezzar,

Daniel 1:19 and the king spoke with them. And among them all, no one was found to compare with Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah; therefore they were stationed in the king's court.

Daniel 1:20 In every matter of wisdom and understanding concerning which the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters in his whole kingdom.

Daniel 1:21 And Daniel continued there until the first year of King Cyrus.

Daniel 2:1 In the second year of Nebuchadnezzar's reign, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed such dreams that his spirit was troubled and his sleep left him.

Daniel 2:2 So the king commanded that the magicians, the enchanters, the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans be summoned to tell the king his dreams. When they came in and stood before the king,

Daniel 2:3 he said to them, "I have had such a dream that my spirit is troubled by the desire to understand it."

Daniel 2:4 The Chaldeans said to the king (in Aramaic), "O king, live forever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will reveal the interpretation."

Daniel 2:5 The king answered the Chaldeans, "This is a public decree: if you do not tell me both the dream and its interpretation, you shall be torn limb from limb, and your houses shall be laid in ruins.

Daniel 2:6 But if you do tell me the dream and its interpretation, you shall receive from me gifts and rewards and great honor. Therefore tell me the dream and its interpretation."

Daniel 2:7 They answered a second time, "Let the king first tell his servants the dream, then we can give its interpretation."

Daniel 2:8 The king answered, "I know with certainty that you are trying to gain time, because you see I have firmly decreed:

Daniel 2:9 if you do not tell me the dream, there is but one verdict for you. You have agreed to speak lying and misleading words to me until things take a turn. Therefore, tell me the dream, and I shall know that you can give me its interpretation."

Daniel 2:10 The Chaldeans answered the king, “There is no one on earth who can reveal what the king demands! In fact no king, however great and powerful, has ever asked such a thing of any magician or enchanter or Chaldean.

Daniel 2:11 The thing that the king is asking is too difficult, and no one can reveal it to the king except the gods, whose dwelling is not with mortals.”

Daniel 2:12 Because of this the king flew into a violent rage and commanded that all the wise men of Babylon be destroyed.

Daniel 2:13 The decree was issued, and the wise men were about to be executed; and they looked for Daniel and his companions, to execute them.

Daniel 2:14 Then Daniel responded with prudence and discretion to Arioch, the king’s chief executioner, who had gone out to execute the wise men of Babylon;

Daniel 2:15 he asked Arioch, the royal official, “Why is the decree of the king so urgent?” Arioch then explained the matter to Daniel.

Daniel 2:16 So Daniel went in and requested that the king give him time and he would tell the king the interpretation.

Daniel 2:17 Then Daniel went to his home and informed his companions, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah,

Daniel 2:18 and told them to seek mercy from the God of heaven concerning this mystery, so that Daniel and his companions with the rest of the wise men of Babylon might not perish.

Daniel 2:19 Then the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a vision of the night, and Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

Daniel 2:20 Daniel said: “Blessed be the name of God from age to age, for wisdom and power are his.

Daniel 2:21 He changes times and seasons, deposes kings and sets up kings; he gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who have understanding.

Daniel 2:22 He reveals deep and hidden things; he knows what is in the darkness, and light dwells with him.

Daniel 2:23 To you, O God of my ancestors, I give thanks and praise, for you have given me wisdom and power, and have now revealed to me what we asked of you, for you have revealed to us what the king ordered.”

Daniel 2:24 Therefore Daniel went to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon, and said to him, “Do not destroy the wise men of Babylon; bring me in before the king, and I will give the king the interpretation.”

Daniel 2:25 Then Arioch quickly brought Daniel before the king and said to him: “I have found among the exiles from Judah a man who can tell the king the interpretation.”

Daniel 2:26 The king said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, “Are you able to tell me the dream that I have seen and its interpretation?”

Daniel 2:27 Daniel answered the king, “No wise men, enchanters, magicians, or diviners can show to the king the mystery that the king is asking,

Daniel 2:28 but there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries, and he has disclosed to King Nebuchadnezzar what will happen at the end of days. Your dream and the visions of your head as you lay in bed were these:

Daniel 2:29 To you, O king, as you lay in bed, came thoughts of what would be hereafter, and the revealer of mysteries disclosed to you what is to be.

Daniel 2:30 But as for me, this mystery has not been revealed to me because of any wisdom that I have more than any other living being, but in order that the interpretation may be known to the king and that you may understand the thoughts of your mind.

Daniel 2:31 “You were looking, O king, and lo! there was a great statue. This statue was huge, its brilliance extraordinary; it was standing before you, and its appearance was frightening.

Daniel 2:32 The head of that statue was of fine gold, its chest and arms of silver, its middle and thighs of bronze,

Daniel 2:33 its legs of iron, its feet partly of iron and partly of clay.

Daniel 2:34 As you looked on, a stone was cut out, not by human hands, and it struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay and broke them in pieces.

Daniel 2:35 Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold, were all broken in pieces and became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors; and the wind carried them away, so that not a trace of them could be found. But the stone that struck the statue became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

Daniel 2:36 “This was the dream; now we will tell the king its interpretation.

Daniel 2:37 You, O king, the king of kings— to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom, the power, the might, and the glory,

Daniel 2:38 into whose hand he has given human beings, wherever they live, the wild animals of the field, and the birds of the air, and whom he has established as ruler over them all— you are the head of gold.

Daniel 2:39 After you shall arise another kingdom inferior to yours, and yet a third kingdom of bronze, which shall rule over the whole earth.

Daniel 2:40 And there shall be a fourth kingdom, strong as iron; just as iron crushes and smashes everything, it shall crush and shatter all these.

Daniel 2:41 As you saw the feet and toes partly of potter’s clay and partly of iron, it shall be a divided kingdom; but some of the strength of iron shall be in it, as you saw the iron mixed with the clay.

Daniel 2:42 As the toes of the feet were part iron and part clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong and partly brittle.

Daniel 2:43 As you saw the iron mixed with clay, so will they mix with one another in marriage, but they will not hold together, just as iron does not mix with clay.

Daniel 2:44 And in the days of those kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that shall never be destroyed, nor shall this kingdom be left to another people. It shall crush all these kingdoms and bring them to an end, and it shall stand forever;

Daniel 2:45 just as you saw that a stone was cut from the mountain not by hands, and that it crushed the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold. The great God has informed the king what shall be hereafter. The dream is certain, and its interpretation trustworthy.”

Daniel 2:46 Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face, worshiped Daniel, and commanded that a grain offering and incense be offered to him.

Daniel 2:47 The king said to Daniel, “Truly, your God is God of gods and Lord of kings and a revealer of mysteries, for you have been able to reveal this mystery!”

Daniel 2:48 Then the king promoted Daniel, gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon and chief prefect over all the wise men of Babylon.

Daniel 2:49 Daniel made a request of the king, and he appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego over the affairs of the province of Babylon. But Daniel remained at the king’s court.

Daniel 3:1 King Nebuchadnezzar made a golden statue whose height was sixty cubits and whose width was six cubits; he set it up on the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon.

Daniel 3:2 Then King Nebuchadnezzar sent for the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the justices, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces, to assemble and come to the dedication of the statue that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

Daniel 3:3 So the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the justices, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces, assembled for the dedication of the statue that

King Nebuchadnezzar had set up. When they were standing before the statue that Nebuchadnezzar had set up,

Daniel 3:4 the herald proclaimed aloud, “You are commanded, O peoples, nations, and languages,

Daniel 3:5 that when you hear the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, drum, and entire musical ensemble, you are to fall down and worship the golden statue that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up.

Daniel 3:6 Whoever does not fall down and worship shall immediately be thrown into a furnace of blazing fire.”

Daniel 3:7 Therefore, as soon as all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, drum, and entire musical ensemble, all the peoples, nations, and languages fell down and worshiped the golden statue that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

Daniel 3:8 Accordingly, at this time certain Chaldeans came forward and denounced the Jews.

Daniel 3:9 They said to King Nebuchadnezzar, “O king, live forever!

Daniel 3:10 You, O king, have made a decree, that everyone who hears the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, drum, and entire musical ensemble, shall fall down and worship the golden statue,

Daniel 3:11 and whoever does not fall down and worship shall be thrown into a furnace of blazing fire.

Daniel 3:12 There are certain Jews whom you have appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. These pay no heed to you, O king. They do not serve your gods and they do not worship the golden statue that you have set up.”

Daniel 3:13 Then Nebuchadnezzar in furious rage commanded that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego be brought in; so they brought those men before the king.

Daniel 3:14 Nebuchadnezzar said to them, “Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you do not serve my gods and you do not worship the golden statue that I have set up?

Daniel 3:15 Now if you are ready when you hear the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, drum, and entire musical ensemble to fall down and worship the statue that I have made, well and good. But if you do not worship, you shall immediately be thrown into a furnace of blazing fire, and who is the god that will deliver you out of my hands?”

Daniel 3:16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered the king, “O Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to present a defense to you in this matter.

Daniel 3:17 If our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the furnace of blazing fire and out of your hand, O king, let him deliver us.

Daniel 3:18 But if not, be it known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods and we will not worship the golden statue that you have set up.”

Daniel 3:19 Then Nebuchadnezzar was so filled with rage against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego that his face was distorted. He ordered the furnace heated up seven times more than was customary,

Daniel 3:20 and ordered some of the strongest guards in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego and to throw them into the furnace of blazing fire.

Daniel 3:21 So the men were bound, still wearing their tunics, their trousers, their hats, and their other garments, and they were thrown into the furnace of blazing fire.

Daniel 3:22 Because the king’s command was urgent and the furnace was so overheated, the raging flames killed the men who lifted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.

Daniel 3:23 But the three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell down, bound, into the furnace of blazing fire.

Daniel 3:24 Then King Nebuchadnezzar was astonished and rose up quickly. He said to his counselors, “Was it not three men that we threw bound into the fire?” They answered the king, “True, O king.”

Daniel 3:25 He replied, “But I see four men unbound, walking in the middle of the fire, and they are not hurt; and the fourth has the appearance of a god.”

Daniel 3:26 Nebuchadnezzar then approached the door of the furnace of blazing fire and said, “Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, servants of the Most High God, come out! Come here!” So Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out from the fire.

Daniel 3:27 And the satraps, the prefects, the governors, and the king’s counselors gathered together and saw that the fire had not had any power over the bodies of those men; the hair of their heads was not singed, their tunics were not harmed, and not even the smell of fire came from them.

Daniel 3:28 Nebuchadnezzar said, “Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent his angel and delivered his servants who trusted in him. They disobeyed the king’s command and yielded up their bodies rather than serve and worship any god except their own God.

Daniel 3:29 Therefore I make a decree: Any people, nation, or language that utters blasphemy against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego shall be torn limb from limb, and their houses laid in ruins; for there is no other god who is able to deliver in this way.”

Daniel 3:30 Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the province of Babylon.

Daniel 4:1 King Nebuchadnezzar to all peoples, nations, and languages that live throughout the earth: May you have abundant prosperity!

Daniel 4:2 The signs and wonders that the Most High God has worked for me I am pleased to recount.

Daniel 4:3 How great are his signs, how mighty his wonders! His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his sovereignty is from generation to generation.

Daniel 4:4 I, Nebuchadnezzar, was living at ease in my home and prospering in my palace.

Daniel 4:5 I saw a dream that frightened me; my fantasies in bed and the visions of my head terrified me.

Daniel 4:6 So I made a decree that all the wise men of Babylon should be brought before me, in order that they might tell me the interpretation of the dream.

Daniel 4:7 Then the magicians, the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the diviners came in, and I told them the dream, but they could not tell me its interpretation.

Daniel 4:8 At last Daniel came in before me— he who was named Belteshazzar after the name of my god, and who is endowed with a spirit of the holy gods— and I told him the dream:

Daniel 4:9 “O Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, I know that you are endowed with a spirit of the holy gods and that no mystery is too difficult for you. Hear the dream that I saw; tell me its interpretation.

Daniel 4:10 Upon my bed this is what I saw; there was a tree at the center of the earth, and its height was great.

Daniel 4:11 The tree grew great and strong, its top reached to heaven, and it was visible to the ends of the whole earth.

Daniel 4:12 Its foliage was beautiful, its fruit abundant, and it provided food for all. The animals of the field found shade under it, the birds of the air nested in its branches, and from it all living beings were fed.

Daniel 4:13 “I continued looking, in the visions of my head as I lay in bed, and there was a holy watcher, coming down from heaven.

Daniel 4:14 He cried aloud and said: ‘Cut down the tree and chop off its branches, strip off its foliage and scatter its fruit. Let the animals flee from beneath it and the birds from its branches.

Daniel 4:15 But leave its stump and roots in the ground, with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field. Let him be bathed with the dew of heaven, and let his lot be with the animals of the field in the grass of the earth.

Daniel 4:16 Let his mind be changed from that of a human, and let the mind of an animal be given to him. And let seven times pass over him.

Daniel 4:17 The sentence is rendered by decree of the watchers, the decision is given by order of the holy ones, in order that all who live may know that the Most High is sovereign over the kingdom of mortals; he gives it to whom he will and sets over it the lowliest of human beings.’

Daniel 4:18 “This is the dream that I, King Nebuchadnezzar, saw. Now you, Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation, since all the wise men of my kingdom are unable to tell me the interpretation. You are able, however, for you are endowed with a spirit of the holy gods.”

Daniel 4:19 Then Daniel, who was called Belteshazzar, was severely distressed for a while. His thoughts terrified him. The king said, “Belteshazzar, do not let the dream or the interpretation terrify you.” Belteshazzar answered, “My lord, may the dream be for those who hate you, and its interpretation for your enemies!

Daniel 4:20 The tree that you saw, which grew great and strong, so that its top reached to heaven and was visible to the end of the whole earth,

Daniel 4:21 whose foliage was beautiful and its fruit abundant, and which provided food for all, under which animals of the field lived, and in whose branches the birds of the air had nests—

Daniel 4:22 it is you, O king! You have grown great and strong. Your greatness has increased and reaches to heaven, and your sovereignty to the ends of the earth.

Daniel 4:23 And whereas the king saw a holy watcher coming down from heaven and saying, ‘Cut down the tree and destroy it, but leave its stump and roots in the ground, with a band of iron and bronze, in the grass of the field; and let him be bathed with the dew of heaven, and let his lot be with the animals of the field, until seven times pass over him’—

Daniel 4:24 this is the interpretation, O king, and it is a decree of the Most High that has come upon my lord the king:

Daniel 4:25 You shall be driven away from human society, and your dwelling shall be with the wild animals. You shall be made to eat grass like oxen, you shall be bathed with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over you, until you have learned that the Most High has sovereignty over the kingdom of mortals, and gives it to whom he will.

Daniel 4:26 As it was commanded to leave the stump and roots of the tree, your kingdom shall be re-established for you from the time that you learn that Heaven is sovereign.

Daniel 4:27 Therefore, O king, may my counsel be acceptable to you: atone for your sins with righteousness, and your iniquities with mercy to the oppressed, so that your prosperity may be prolonged.”

Daniel 4:28 All this came upon King Nebuchadnezzar.

Daniel 4:29 At the end of twelve months he was walking on the roof of the royal palace of Babylon,

Daniel 4:30 and the king said, “Is this not magnificent Babylon, which I have built as a royal capital by my mighty power and for my glorious majesty?”

Daniel 4:31 While the words were still in the king’s mouth, a voice came from heaven: “O King Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is declared: The kingdom has departed from you!

Daniel 4:32 You shall be driven away from human society, and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field. You shall be made to eat grass like oxen, and seven times shall pass over you, until you have learned that the Most High has sovereignty over the kingdom of mortals and gives it to whom he will.”

Daniel 4:33 Immediately the sentence was fulfilled against Nebuchadnezzar. He was driven away from human society, ate grass like oxen, and his body was bathed with the dew of heaven, until his hair grew as long as eagles’ feathers and his nails became like birds’ claws.

Daniel 4:34 When that period was over, I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted my eyes to heaven, and my reason returned to me. I blessed the Most High, and praised and honored the one who lives forever. For his sovereignty is an everlasting sovereignty, and his kingdom endures from generation to generation.

Daniel 4:35 All the inhabitants of the earth are accounted as nothing, and he does what he wills with the host of heaven and the inhabitants of the earth. There is no one who can stay his hand or say to him, “What are you doing?”

Daniel 4:36 At that time my reason returned to me; and my majesty and splendor were restored to me for the glory of my kingdom. My counselors and my lords sought me out, I was re-established over my kingdom, and still more greatness was added to me.

Daniel 4:37 Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honor the King of heaven, for all his works are truth, and his ways are justice; and he is able to bring low those who walk in pride.

Daniel 5:1 King Belshazzar made a great festival for a thousand of his lords, and he was drinking wine in the presence of the thousand.

Daniel 5:2 Under the influence of the wine, Belshazzar commanded that they bring in the vessels of gold and silver that his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple in Jerusalem, so that the king and his lords, his wives, and his concubines might drink from them.

Daniel 5:3 So they brought in the vessels of gold and silver that had been taken out of the temple, the house of God in Jerusalem, and the king and his lords, his wives, and his concubines drank from them.

Daniel 5:4 They drank the wine and praised the gods of gold and silver, bronze, iron, wood, and stone.

Daniel 5:5 Immediately the fingers of a human hand appeared and began writing on the plaster of the wall of the royal palace, next to the lampstand. The king was watching the hand as it wrote.

Daniel 5:6 Then the king's face turned pale, and his thoughts terrified him. His limbs gave way, and his knees knocked together.

Daniel 5:7 The king cried aloud to bring in the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the diviners; and the king said to the wise men of Babylon, "Whoever can read this writing and tell me its interpretation shall be clothed in purple, have a chain of gold around his neck, and rank third in the kingdom."

Daniel 5:8 Then all the king's wise men came in, but they could not read the writing or tell the king the interpretation.

Daniel 5:9 Then King Belshazzar became greatly terrified and his face turned pale, and his lords were perplexed.

Daniel 5:10 The queen, when she heard the discussion of the king and his lords, came into the banqueting hall. The queen said, "O king, live forever! Do not let your thoughts terrify you or your face grow pale.

Daniel 5:11 There is a man in your kingdom who is endowed with a spirit of the holy gods. In the days of your father he was found to have enlightenment, understanding, and wisdom like the wisdom of the gods. Your father, King Nebuchadnezzar, made him chief of the magicians, enchanters, Chaldeans, and diviners,

Daniel 5:12 because an excellent spirit, knowledge, and understanding to interpret dreams, explain riddles, and solve problems were found in this Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will give the interpretation."

Daniel 5:13 Then Daniel was brought in before the king. The king said to Daniel, "So you are Daniel, one of the exiles of Judah, whom my father the king brought from Judah?

Daniel 5:14 I have heard of you that a spirit of the gods is in you, and that enlightenment, understanding, and excellent wisdom are found in you.

Daniel 5:15 Now the wise men, the enchanters, have been brought in before me to read this writing and tell me its interpretation, but they were not able to give the interpretation of the matter.

Daniel 5:16 But I have heard that you can give interpretations and solve problems. Now if you are able to read the writing and tell me its interpretation, you shall be clothed in purple, have a chain of gold around your neck, and rank third in the kingdom."

Daniel 5:17 Then Daniel answered in the presence of the king, "Let your gifts be for yourself, or give your rewards to someone else!

Nevertheless I will read the writing to the king and let him know the interpretation.

Daniel 5:18 O king, the Most High God gave your father Nebuchadnezzar kingship, greatness, glory, and majesty.

Daniel 5:19 And because of the greatness that he gave him, all peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him. He killed those he wanted to kill, kept alive those he wanted to keep alive, honored those he wanted to honor, and degraded those he wanted to degrade.

Daniel 5:20 But when his heart was lifted up and his spirit was hardened so that he acted proudly, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and his glory was stripped from him.

Daniel 5:21 He was driven from human society, and his mind was made like that of an animal. His dwelling was with the wild asses, he was fed grass like oxen, and his body was bathed with the dew of heaven, until he learned that the Most High God has sovereignty over the kingdom of mortals, and sets over it whomever he will.

Daniel 5:22 And you, Belshazzar his son, have not humbled your heart, even though you knew all this!

Daniel 5:23 You have exalted yourself against the Lord of heaven! The vessels of his temple have been brought in before you, and you and your lords, your wives and your concubines have been drinking wine from them. You have praised the gods of silver and gold, of bronze, iron, wood, and stone, which do not see or hear or know; but the God in whose power is your very breath, and to whom belong all your ways, you have not honored.

Daniel 5:24 “So from his presence the hand was sent and this writing was inscribed.

Daniel 5:25 And this is the writing that was inscribed: MENE, MENE, TEKEL, and PARSIN.

Daniel 5:26 This is the interpretation of the matter: MENE, God has numbered the days of your kingdom and brought it to an end;

Daniel 5:27 TEKEL, you have been weighed on the scales and found wanting;

Daniel 5:28 PERES, your kingdom is divided and given to the Medes and Persians.”

Daniel 5:29 Then Belshazzar gave the command, and Daniel was clothed in purple, a chain of gold was put around his neck, and a proclamation was made concerning him that he should rank third in the kingdom.

Daniel 5:30 That very night Belshazzar, the Chaldean king, was killed.

Daniel 5:31 And Darius the Mede received the kingdom, being about sixty-two years old.

Daniel 6:1 It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom one hundred twenty satraps, stationed throughout the whole kingdom,

Daniel 6:2 and over them three presidents, including Daniel; to these the satraps gave account, so that the king might suffer no loss.

Daniel 6:3 Soon Daniel distinguished himself above all the other presidents and satraps because an excellent spirit was in him, and the king planned to appoint him over the whole kingdom.

Daniel 6:4 So the presidents and the satraps tried to find grounds for complaint against Daniel in connection with the kingdom. But they could find no grounds for complaint or any corruption, because he was faithful, and no negligence or corruption could be found in him.

Daniel 6:5 The men said, “We shall not find any ground for complaint against this Daniel unless we find it in connection with the law of his God.”

Daniel 6:6 So the presidents and satraps conspired and came to the king and said to him, “O King Darius, live forever!

Daniel 6:7 All the presidents of the kingdom, the prefects and the satraps, the counselors and the governors are agreed that the king should establish an ordinance and enforce an interdict, that whoever prays to anyone, divine or human, for thirty days, except to you, O king, shall be thrown into a den of lions.

Daniel 6:8 Now, O king, establish the interdict and sign the document, so that it cannot be changed, according to the law of the Medes and the Persians, which cannot be revoked.”

Daniel 6:9 Therefore King Darius signed the document and interdict.

Daniel 6:10 Although Daniel knew that the document had been signed, he continued to go to his house, which had windows in its upper room open toward Jerusalem, and to get down on his knees three times a day to pray to his God and praise him, just as he had done previously.

Daniel 6:11 The conspirators came and found Daniel praying and seeking mercy before his God.

Daniel 6:12 Then they approached the king and said concerning the interdict, “O king! Did you not sign an interdict, that anyone who prays to anyone, divine or human, within thirty days except to you, O king, shall be thrown into a den of lions?” The king answered, “The thing stands fast, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be revoked.”

Daniel 6:13 Then they responded to the king, “Daniel, one of the exiles from Judah, pays no attention to you, O king, or to the interdict you have signed, but he is saying his prayers three times a day.”

Daniel 6:14 When the king heard the charge, he was very much distressed. He was determined to save Daniel, and until the sun went down he made every effort to rescue him.

Daniel 6:15 Then the conspirators came to the king and said to him, “Know, O king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians that no interdict or ordinance that the king establishes can be changed.”

Daniel 6:16 Then the king gave the command, and Daniel was brought and thrown into the den of lions. The king said to Daniel, “May your God, whom you faithfully serve, deliver you!”

Daniel 6:17 A stone was brought and laid on the mouth of the den, and the king sealed it with his own signet and with the signet of his lords, so that nothing might be changed concerning Daniel.

Daniel 6:18 Then the king went to his palace and spent the night fasting; no food was brought to him, and sleep fled from him.

Daniel 6:19 Then, at break of day, the king got up and hurried to the den of lions.

Daniel 6:20 When he came near the den where Daniel was, he cried out anxiously to Daniel, “O Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God whom you faithfully serve been able to deliver you from the lions?”

Daniel 6:21 Daniel then said to the king, “O king, live forever!

Daniel 6:22 My God sent his angel and shut the lions’ mouths so that they would not hurt me, because I was found blameless before him; and also before you, O king, I have done no wrong.”

Daniel 6:23 Then the king was exceedingly glad and commanded that Daniel be taken up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no kind of harm was found on him, because he had trusted in his God.

Daniel 6:24 The king gave a command, and those who had accused Daniel were brought and thrown into the den of lions— they, their children, and their wives. Before they reached the bottom of the den the lions overpowered them and broke all their bones in pieces.

Daniel 6:25 Then King Darius wrote to all peoples and nations of every language throughout the whole world: “May you have abundant prosperity!

Daniel 6:26 I make a decree, that in all my royal dominion people should tremble and fear before the God of Daniel: For he is the living God, enduring forever. His kingdom shall never be destroyed, and his dominion has no end.

Daniel 6:27 He delivers and rescues, he works signs and wonders in heaven and on earth; for he has saved Daniel from the power of the lions.”

Daniel 6:28 So this Daniel prospered during the reign of Darius and the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

Daniel 7:1 In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head as he lay in bed. Then he wrote down the dream:

Daniel 7:2 I, Daniel, saw in my vision by night the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea,

Daniel 7:3 and four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another.

Daniel 7:4 The first was like a lion and had eagles' wings. Then, as I watched, its wings were plucked off, and it was lifted up from the ground and made to stand on two feet like a human being; and a human mind was given to it.

Daniel 7:5 Another beast appeared, a second one, that looked like a bear. It was raised up on one side, had three tusks in its mouth among its teeth and was told, "Arise, devour many bodies!"

Daniel 7:6 After this, as I watched, another appeared, like a leopard. The beast had four wings of a bird on its back and four heads; and dominion was given to it.

Daniel 7:7 After this I saw in the visions by night a fourth beast, terrifying and dreadful and exceedingly strong. It had great iron teeth and was devouring, breaking in pieces, and stamping what was left with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that preceded it, and it had ten horns.

Daniel 7:8 I was considering the horns, when another horn appeared, a little one coming up among them; to make room for it, three of the earlier horns were plucked up by the roots. There were eyes like human eyes in this horn, and a mouth speaking arrogantly.

Daniel 7:9 As I watched, thrones were set in place, and an Ancient One took his throne, his clothing was white as snow, and the hair of his head like pure wool; his throne was fiery flames, and its wheels were burning fire.

Daniel 7:10 A stream of fire issued and flowed out from his presence. A thousand thousands served him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood attending him. The court sat in judgment, and the books were opened.

Daniel 7:11 I watched then because of the noise of the arrogant words that the horn was speaking. And as I watched, the beast was put to death, and its body destroyed and given over to be burned with fire.

Daniel 7:12 As for the rest of the beasts, their dominion was taken away, but their lives were prolonged for a season and a time.

Daniel 7:13 As I watched in the night visions, I saw one like a human being coming with the clouds of heaven. And he came to the Ancient One and was presented before him.

Daniel 7:14 To him was given dominion and glory and kingship, that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that shall not pass away, and his kingship is one that shall never be destroyed.

Daniel 7:15 As for me, Daniel, my spirit was troubled within me, and the visions of my head terrified me.

Daniel 7:16 I approached one of the attendants to ask him the truth concerning all this. So he said that he would disclose to me the interpretation of the matter:

Daniel 7:17 “As for these four great beasts, four kings shall arise out of the earth.

Daniel 7:18 But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom forever— forever and ever.”

Daniel 7:19 Then I desired to know the truth concerning the fourth beast, which was different from all the rest, exceedingly terrifying, with its teeth of iron and claws of bronze, and which devoured and broke in pieces, and stamped what was left with its feet;

Daniel 7:20 and concerning the ten horns that were on its head, and concerning the other horn, which came up and to make room for which three of them fell out— the horn that had eyes and a mouth that spoke arrogantly, and that seemed greater than the others.

Daniel 7:21 As I looked, this horn made war with the holy ones and was prevailing over them,

Daniel 7:22 until the Ancient One came; then judgment was given for the holy ones of the Most High, and the time arrived when the holy ones gained possession of the kingdom.

Daniel 7:23 This is what he said: “As for the fourth beast, there shall be a fourth kingdom on earth that shall be different from all the other kingdoms; it shall devour the whole earth, and trample it down, and break it to pieces.

Daniel 7:24 As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom ten kings shall arise, and another shall arise after them. This one shall be different from the former ones, and shall put down three kings.

Daniel 7:25 He shall speak words against the Most High, shall wear out the holy ones of the Most High, and shall attempt to change the sacred seasons and the law; and they shall be given into his power for a time, two times, and half a time.

Daniel 7:26 Then the court shall sit in judgment, and his dominion shall be taken away, to be consumed and totally destroyed.

Daniel 7:27 The kingship and dominion and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven shall be given to the people of the holy ones of the Most High; their kingdom shall be an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey them.”

Daniel 7:28 Here the account ends. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts greatly terrified me, and my face turned pale; but I kept the matter in my mind.

Daniel 8:1 In the third year of the reign of King Belshazzar a vision appeared to me, Daniel, after the one that had appeared to me at first.

Daniel 8:2 In the vision I was looking and saw myself in Susa the capital, in the province of Elam, and I was by the river Ulai.

Daniel 8:3 I looked up and saw a ram standing beside the river. It had two horns. Both horns were long, but one was longer than the other, and the longer one came up second.

Daniel 8:4 I saw the ram charging westward and northward and southward. All beasts were powerless to withstand it, and no one could rescue from its power; it did as it pleased and became strong.

Daniel 8:5 As I was watching, a male goat appeared from the west, coming across the face of the whole earth without touching the ground. The goat had a horn between its eyes.

Daniel 8:6 It came toward the ram with the two horns that I had seen standing beside the river, and it ran at it with savage force.

Daniel 8:7 I saw it approaching the ram. It was enraged against it and struck the ram, breaking its two horns. The ram did not have power to withstand it; it threw the ram down to the ground and trampled upon it, and there was no one who could rescue the ram from its power.

Daniel 8:8 Then the male goat grew exceedingly great; but at the height of its power, the great horn was broken, and in its place there came up four prominent horns toward the four winds of heaven.

Daniel 8:9 Out of one of them came another horn, a little one, which grew exceedingly great toward the south, toward the east, and toward the beautiful land.

Daniel 8:10 It grew as high as the host of heaven. It threw down to the earth some of the host and some of the stars, and trampled on them.

Daniel 8:11 Even against the prince of the host it acted arrogantly; it took the regular burnt offering away from him and overthrew the place of his sanctuary.

Daniel 8:12 Because of wickedness, the host was given over to it together with the regular burnt offering; it cast truth to the ground, and kept prospering in what it did.

Daniel 8:13 Then I heard a holy one speaking, and another holy one said to the one that spoke, “For how long is this vision concerning the regular burnt offering, the transgression that makes desolate, and the giving over of the sanctuary and host to be trampled?”

Daniel 8:14 And he answered him, “For two thousand three hundred evenings and mornings; then the sanctuary shall be restored to its rightful state.”

Daniel 8:15 When I, Daniel, had seen the vision, I tried to understand it. Then someone appeared standing before me, having the appearance of a man,

Daniel 8:16 and I heard a human voice by the Ulai, calling, “Gabriel, help this man understand the vision.”

Daniel 8:17 So he came near where I stood; and when he came, I became frightened and fell prostrate. But he said to me, “Understand, O mortal, that the vision is for the time of the end.”

Daniel 8:18 As he was speaking to me, I fell into a trance, face to the ground; then he touched me and set me on my feet.

Daniel 8:19 He said, “Listen, and I will tell you what will take place later in the period of wrath; for it refers to the appointed time of the end.

Daniel 8:20 As for the ram that you saw with the two horns, these are the kings of Media and Persia.

Daniel 8:21 The male goat is the king of Greece, and the great horn between its eyes is the first king.

Daniel 8:22 As for the horn that was broken, in place of which four others arose, four kingdoms shall arise from his nation, but not with his power.

Daniel 8:23 At the end of their rule, when the transgressions have reached their full measure, a king of bold countenance shall arise, skilled in intrigue.

Daniel 8:24 He shall grow strong in power, shall cause fearful destruction, and shall succeed in what he does. He shall destroy the powerful and the people of the holy ones.

Daniel 8:25 By his cunning he shall make deceit prosper under his hand, and in his own mind he shall be great. Without warning he shall destroy many and shall even rise up against the Prince of princes. But he shall be broken, and not by human hands.

Daniel 8:26 The vision of the evenings and the mornings that has been told is true. As for you, seal up the vision, for it refers to many days from now.”

Daniel 8:27 So I, Daniel, was overcome and lay sick for some days; then I arose and went about the king’s business. But I was dismayed by the vision and did not understand it.

Daniel 9:1 In the first year of Darius son of Ahasuerus, by birth a Mede, who became king over the realm of the Chaldeans—

Daniel 9:2 in the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, perceived in the books the number of years that, according to the word of the LORD to the prophet Jeremiah, must be fulfilled for the devastation of Jerusalem, namely, seventy years.

Daniel 9:3 Then I turned to the Lord God, to seek an answer by prayer and supplication with fasting and sackcloth and ashes.

Daniel 9:4 I prayed to the LORD my God and made confession, saying, “Ah, Lord, great and awesome God, keeping covenant and steadfast love with those who love you and keep your commandments,

Daniel 9:5 we have sinned and done wrong, acted wickedly and rebelled, turning aside from your commandments and ordinances.

Daniel 9:6 We have not listened to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings, our princes, and our ancestors, and to all the people of the land.

Daniel 9:7 “Righteousness is on your side, O Lord, but open shame, as at this day, falls on us, the people of Judah, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and all Israel, those who are near and those who are far away, in all the lands to which you have driven them, because of the treachery that they have committed against you.

Daniel 9:8 Open shame, O LORD, falls on us, our kings, our officials, and our ancestors, because we have sinned against you.

Daniel 9:9 To the Lord our God belong mercy and forgiveness, for we have rebelled against him,

Daniel 9:10 and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God by following his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.

Daniel 9:11 “All Israel has transgressed your law and turned aside, refusing to obey your voice. So the curse and the oath written in the law of Moses, the servant of God, have been poured out upon us, because we have sinned against you.

Daniel 9:12 He has confirmed his words, which he spoke against us and against our rulers, by bringing upon us a calamity so great that what has been done against Jerusalem has never before been done under the whole heaven.

Daniel 9:13 Just as it is written in the law of Moses, all this calamity has come upon us. We did not entreat the favor of the LORD our God, turning from our iniquities and reflecting on his fidelity.

Daniel 9:14 So the LORD kept watch over this calamity until he brought it upon us. Indeed, the LORD our God is right in all that he has done; for we have disobeyed his voice.

Daniel 9:15 “And now, O Lord our God, who brought your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand and made your name renowned even to this day— we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

Daniel 9:16 O Lord, in view of all your righteous acts, let your anger and wrath, we pray, turn away from your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain; because of our sins and the iniquities of our ancestors, Jerusalem and your people have become a disgrace among all our neighbors.

Daniel 9:17 Now therefore, O our God, listen to the prayer of your servant and to his supplication, and for your own sake, Lord, let your face shine upon your desolated sanctuary.

Daniel 9:18 Incline your ear, O my God, and hear. Open your eyes and look at our desolation and the city that bears your name. We do not present our supplication before you on the ground of our righteousness, but on the ground of your great mercies.

Daniel 9:19 O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, listen and act and do not delay! For your own sake, O my God, because your city and your people bear your name!”

Daniel 9:20 While I was speaking, and was praying and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God on behalf of the holy mountain of my God—

Daniel 9:21 while I was speaking in prayer, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen before in a vision, came to me in swift flight at the time of the evening sacrifice.

Daniel 9:22 He came and said to me, “Daniel, I have now come out to give you wisdom and understanding.

Daniel 9:23 At the beginning of your supplications a word went out, and I have come to declare it, for you are greatly beloved. So consider the word and understand the vision:

Daniel 9:24 “Seventy weeks are decreed for your people and your holy city: to finish the transgression, to put an end to sin, and to atone for iniquity, to bring in everlasting righteousness, to seal both vision and prophet, and to anoint a most holy place.

Daniel 9:25 Know therefore and understand: from the time that the word went out to restore and rebuild Jerusalem until the time of an anointed prince, there shall be seven weeks; and for sixty-two weeks it shall be built again with streets and moat, but in a troubled time.

Daniel 9:26 After the sixty-two weeks, an anointed one shall be cut off and shall have nothing, and the troops of the prince who is to come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary. Its end shall come with a flood, and to the end there shall be war. Desolations are decreed.

Daniel 9:27 He shall make a strong covenant with many for one week, and for half of the week he shall make sacrifice and offering cease; and in their place shall be an abomination that desolates, until the decreed end is poured out upon the desolator.”

Daniel 10:1 In the third year of King Cyrus of Persia a word was revealed to Daniel, who was named Belteshazzar. The word was true, and it concerned a great conflict. He understood the word, having received understanding in the vision.

Daniel 10:2 At that time I, Daniel, had been mourning for three weeks.

Daniel 10:3 I had eaten no rich food, no meat or wine had entered my mouth, and I had not anointed myself at all, for the full three weeks.

Daniel 10:4 On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was standing on the bank of the great river (that is, the Tigris),

Daniel 10:5 I looked up and saw a man clothed in linen, with a belt of gold from Uphaz around his waist.

Daniel 10:6 His body was like beryl, his face like lightning, his eyes like flaming torches, his arms and legs like the gleam of burnished bronze, and the sound of his words like the roar of a multitude.

Daniel 10:7 I, Daniel, alone saw the vision; the people who were with me did not see the vision, though a great trembling fell upon them, and they fled and hid themselves.

Daniel 10:8 So I was left alone to see this great vision. My strength left me, and my complexion grew deathly pale, and I retained no strength.

Daniel 10:9 Then I heard the sound of his words; and when I heard the sound of his words, I fell into a trance, face to the ground.

Daniel 10:10 But then a hand touched me and roused me to my hands and knees.

Daniel 10:11 He said to me, “Daniel, greatly beloved, pay attention to the words that I am going to speak to you. Stand on your feet, for I have now been sent to you.” So while he was speaking this word to me, I stood up trembling.

Daniel 10:12 He said to me, “Do not fear, Daniel, for from the first day that you set your mind to gain understanding and to humble yourself before your God, your words have been heard, and I have come because of your words.

Daniel 10:13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia opposed me twenty-one days. So Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, and I left him there with the prince of the kingdom of Persia,

Daniel 10:14 and have come to help you understand what is to happen to your people at the end of days. For there is a further vision for those days.”

Daniel 10:15 While he was speaking these words to me, I turned my face toward the ground and was speechless.

Daniel 10:16 Then one in human form touched my lips, and I opened my mouth to speak, and said to the one who stood before me, “My lord, because of the vision such pains have come upon me that I retain no strength.

Daniel 10:17 How can my lord’s servant talk with my lord? For I am shaking, no strength remains in me, and no breath is left in me.”

Daniel 10:18 Again one in human form touched me and strengthened me.

Daniel 10:19 He said, “Do not fear, greatly beloved, you are safe. Be strong and courageous!” When he spoke to me, I was strengthened and said, “Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me.”

Daniel 10:20 Then he said, “Do you know why I have come to you? Now I must return to fight against the prince of Persia, and when I am through with him, the prince of Greece will come.

Daniel 10:21 But I am to tell you what is inscribed in the book of truth. There is no one with me who contends against these princes except Michael, your prince.

Daniel 11:1 As for me, in the first year of Darius the Mede, I stood up to support and strengthen him.

Daniel 11:2 “Now I will announce the truth to you. Three more kings shall arise in Persia. The fourth shall be far richer than all of them, and when he has become strong through his riches, he shall stir up all against the kingdom of Greece.

Daniel 11:3 Then a warrior king shall arise, who shall rule with great dominion and take action as he pleases.

Daniel 11:4 And while still rising in power, his kingdom shall be broken and divided toward the four winds of heaven, but not to his posterity, nor according to the dominion with which he ruled; for his kingdom shall be uprooted and go to others besides these.

Daniel 11:5 “Then the king of the south shall grow strong, but one of his officers shall grow stronger than he and shall rule a realm greater than his own realm.

Daniel 11:6 After some years they shall make an alliance, and the daughter of the king of the south shall come to the king of the north to ratify the agreement. But she shall not retain her power, and his offspring shall not endure. She shall be given up, she and her attendants and her child and the one who supported her. “In those times

Daniel 11:7 a branch from her roots shall rise up in his place. He shall come against the army and enter the fortress of the king of the north, and he shall take action against them and prevail.

Daniel 11:8 Even their gods, with their idols and with their precious vessels of silver and gold, he shall carry off to Egypt as spoils of war. For some years he shall refrain from attacking the king of the north;

Daniel 11:9 then the latter shall invade the realm of the king of the south, but will return to his own land.

Daniel 11:10 “His sons shall wage war and assemble a multitude of great forces, which shall advance like a flood and pass through, and again shall carry the war as far as his fortress.

Daniel 11:11 Moved with rage, the king of the south shall go out and do battle against the king of the north, who shall muster a great multitude, which shall, however, be defeated by his enemy.

Daniel 11:12 When the multitude has been carried off, his heart shall be exalted, and he shall overthrow tens of thousands, but he shall not prevail.

Daniel 11:13 For the king of the north shall again raise a multitude, larger than the former, and after some years he shall advance with a great army and abundant supplies.

Daniel 11:14 “In those times many shall rise against the king of the south. The lawless among your own people shall lift themselves up in order to fulfill the vision, but they shall fail.

Daniel 11:15 Then the king of the north shall come and throw up siegeworks, and take a well-fortified city. And the forces of the south shall not stand, not even his picked troops, for there shall be no strength to resist.

Daniel 11:16 But he who comes against him shall take the actions he pleases, and no one shall withstand him. He shall take a position in the beautiful land, and all of it shall be in his power.

Daniel 11:17 He shall set his mind to come with the strength of his whole kingdom, and he shall bring terms of peace and perform them. In order to destroy the kingdom, he shall give him a woman in marriage; but it shall not succeed or be to his advantage.

Daniel 11:18 Afterward he shall turn to the coastlands, and shall capture many. But a commander shall put an end to his insolence; indeed, he shall turn his insolence back upon him.

Daniel 11:19 Then he shall turn back toward the fortresses of his own land, but he shall stumble and fall, and shall not be found.

Daniel 11:20 “Then shall arise in his place one who shall send an official for the glory of the kingdom; but within a few days he shall be broken, though not in anger or in battle.

Daniel 11:21 In his place shall arise a contemptible person on whom royal majesty had not been conferred; he shall come in without warning and obtain the kingdom through intrigue.

Daniel 11:22 Armies shall be utterly swept away and broken before him, and the prince of the covenant as well.

Daniel 11:23 And after an alliance is made with him, he shall act deceitfully and become strong with a small party.

Daniel 11:24 Without warning he shall come into the richest parts of the province and do what none of his predecessors had ever done, lavishing plunder, spoil, and wealth on them. He shall devise plans against strongholds, but only for a time.

Daniel 11:25 He shall stir up his power and determination against the king of the south with a great army, and the king of the south shall wage war with a much greater and stronger army. But he shall not succeed, for plots shall be devised against him

Daniel 11:26 by those who eat of the royal rations. They shall break him, his army shall be swept away, and many shall fall slain.

Daniel 11:27 The two kings, their minds bent on evil, shall sit at one table and exchange lies. But it shall not succeed, for there remains an end at the time appointed.

Daniel 11:28 He shall return to his land with great wealth, but his heart shall be set against the holy covenant. He shall work his will, and return to his own land.

Daniel 11:29 “At the time appointed he shall return and come into the south, but this time it shall not be as it was before.

Daniel 11:30 For ships of Kittim shall come against him, and he shall lose heart and withdraw. He shall be enraged and take action against the holy covenant. He shall turn back and pay heed to those who forsake the holy covenant.

Daniel 11:31 Forces sent by him shall occupy and profane the temple and fortress. They shall abolish the regular burnt offering and set up the abomination that makes desolate.

Daniel 11:32 He shall seduce with intrigue those who violate the covenant; but the people who are loyal to their God shall stand firm and take action.

Daniel 11:33 The wise among the people shall give understanding to many; for some days, however, they shall fall by sword and flame, and suffer captivity and plunder.

Daniel 11:34 When they fall victim, they shall receive a little help, and many shall join them insincerely.

Daniel 11:35 Some of the wise shall fall, so that they may be refined, purified, and cleansed, until the time of the end, for there is still an interval until the time appointed.

Daniel 11:36 “The king shall act as he pleases. He shall exalt himself and consider himself greater than any god, and shall speak horrendous things against the God of gods. He shall prosper until the period of wrath is completed, for what is determined shall be done.

Daniel 11:37 He shall pay no respect to the gods of his ancestors, or to the one beloved by women; he shall pay no respect to any other god, for he shall consider himself greater than all.

Daniel 11:38 He shall honor the god of fortresses instead of these; a god whom his ancestors did not know he shall honor with gold and silver, with precious stones and costly gifts.

Daniel 11:39 He shall deal with the strongest fortresses by the help of a foreign god. Those who acknowledge him he shall make more wealthy, and shall appoint them as rulers over many, and shall distribute the land for a price.

Daniel 11:40 “At the time of the end the king of the south shall attack him. But the king of the north shall rush upon him like a whirlwind, with chariots and horsemen, and with many ships. He shall advance against countries and pass through like a flood.

Daniel 11:41 He shall come into the beautiful land, and tens of thousands shall fall victim, but Edom and Moab and the main part of the Ammonites shall escape from his power.

Daniel 11:42 He shall stretch out his hand against the countries, and the land of Egypt shall not escape.

Daniel 11:43 He shall become ruler of the treasures of gold and of silver, and all the riches of Egypt; and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall follow in his train.

Daniel 11:44 But reports from the east and the north shall alarm him, and he shall go out with great fury to bring ruin and complete destruction to many.

Daniel 11:45 He shall pitch his palatial tents between the sea and the beautiful holy mountain. Yet he shall come to his end, with no one to help him.

Daniel 12:1 “At that time Michael, the great prince, the protector of your people, shall arise. There shall be a time of anguish, such as has never occurred since nations first came into existence. But at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who is found written in the book.

Daniel 12:2 Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

Daniel 12:3 Those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the sky, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever.

Daniel 12:4 But you, Daniel, keep the words secret and the book sealed until the time of the end. Many shall be running back and forth, and evil shall increase.”

Daniel 12:5 Then I, Daniel, looked, and two others appeared, one standing on this bank of the stream and one on the other.

Daniel 12:6 One of them said to the man clothed in linen, who was upstream, “How long shall it be until the end of these wonders?”

Daniel 12:7 The man clothed in linen, who was upstream, raised his right hand and his left hand toward heaven. And I heard him swear by the one who lives forever that it would be for a time, two times, and half a time, and that when the shattering of the power of the holy people comes to an end, all these things would be accomplished.

Daniel 12:8 I heard but could not understand; so I said, “My lord, what shall be the outcome of these things?”

Daniel 12:9 He said, “Go your way, Daniel, for the words are to remain secret and sealed until the time of the end.

Daniel 12:10 Many shall be purified, cleansed, and refined, but the wicked shall continue to act wickedly. None of the wicked shall understand, but those who are wise shall understand.

Daniel 12:11 From the time that the regular burnt offering is taken away and the abomination that desolates is set up, there shall be one thousand two hundred ninety days.

Daniel 12:12 Happy are those who persevere and attain the thousand three hundred thirty-five days.

Daniel 12:13 But you, go your way, and rest; you shall rise for your reward at the end of the days.”

Hosea

1:1 The word of the LORD that came toHosea son of Beeri, in the days of Kings Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah of Judah, and in the days of King Jeroboam son of Joash of Israel.

Hosea 1:2 When the LORD first spoke through Hosea, the LORD said to Hosea, “Go, take for yourself a wife of whoredom and have children of whoredom, for the land commits great whoredom by forsaking the LORD.”

Hosea 1:3 So he went and took Gomer daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son.

Hosea 1:4 And the LORD said to him, “Name him Jezreel; for in a little while I will punish the house of Jehu for the blood of Jezreel, and I will put an end to the kingdom of the house of Israel.

Hosea 1:5 On that day I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.”

Hosea 1:6 She conceived again and bore a daughter. Then the LORD said to him, “Name her Lo-ruhamah, for I will no longer have pity on the house of Israel or forgive them.

Hosea 1:7 But I will have pity on the house of Judah, and I will save them by the LORD their God; I will not save them by bow, or by sword, or by war, or by horses, or by horsemen.”

Hosea 1:8 When she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived and bore a son.

Hosea 1:9 Then the LORD said, “Name him Lo-ammi, for you are not my people and I am not your God.”

Hosea 1:10 Yet the number of the people of Israel shall be like the sand of the sea, which can be neither measured nor numbered; and in the place where it was said to them, “You are not my people,” it shall be said to them, “Children of the living God.”

Hosea 1:11 The people of Judah and the people of Israel shall be gathered together, and they shall appoint for themselves one head; and they shall take possession of the land, for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

Hosea 2:1 Say to your brother, Ammi, and to your sister, Ruhamah.

Hosea 2:2 Plead with your mother, plead— for she is not my wife, and I am not her husband— that she put away her whoring from her face, and her adultery from between her breasts,

Hosea 2:3 or I will strip her naked and expose her as in the day she was born, and make her like a wilderness, and turn her into a parched land, and kill her with thirst.

Hosea 2:4 Upon her children also I will have no pity, because they are children of whoredom.

Hosea 2:5 For their mother has played the whore; she who conceived them has acted shamefully. For she said, “I will go after my lovers; they give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, my oil and my drink.”

Hosea 2:6 Therefore I will hedge up her way with thorns; and I will build a wall against her, so that she cannot find her paths.

Hosea 2:7 She shall pursue her lovers, but not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them. Then she shall say, “I will go and return to my first husband, for it was better with me then than now.”

Hosea 2:8 She did not know that it was I who gave her the grain, the wine, and the oil, and who lavished upon her silver and gold that they used for Baal.

Hosea 2:9 Therefore I will take back my grain in its time, and my wine in its season; and I will take away my wool and my flax, which were to cover her nakedness.

Hosea 2:10 Now I will uncover her shame in the sight of her lovers, and no one shall rescue her out of my hand.

Hosea 2:11 I will put an end to all her mirth, her festivals, her new moons, her sabbaths, and all her appointed festivals.

Hosea 2:12 I will lay waste her vines and her fig trees, of which she said, “These are my pay, which my lovers have given me.” I will make them a forest, and the wild animals shall devour them.

Hosea 2:13 I will punish her for the festival days of the Baals, when she offered incense to them and decked herself with her ring and jewelry, and went after her lovers, and forgot me, says the LORD.

Hosea 2:14 Therefore, I will now allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak tenderly to her.

Hosea 2:15 From there I will give her her vineyards, and make the Valley of Achor a door of hope. There she shall respond as in the days of her youth, as at the time when she came out of the land of Egypt.

Hosea 2:16 On that day, says the LORD, you will call me, “My husband,” and no longer will you call me, “My Baal.”

Hosea 2:17 For I will remove the names of the Baals from her mouth, and they shall be mentioned by name no more.

Hosea 2:18 I will make for you a covenant on that day with the wild animals, the birds of the air, and the creeping things of the ground; and I will abolish the bow, the sword, and war from the land; and I will make you lie down in safety.

Hosea 2:19 And I will take you for my wife forever; I will take you for my wife in righteousness and in justice, in steadfast love, and in mercy.

Hosea 2:20 I will take you for my wife in faithfulness; and you shall know the LORD.

Hosea 2:21 On that day I will answer, says the LORD, I will answer the heavens and they shall answer the earth;

Hosea 2:22 and the earth shall answer the grain, the wine, and the oil, and they shall answer Jezreel;

Hosea 2:23 and I will sow him for myself in the land. And I will have pity on Lo-ruhamah, and I will say to Lo-ammi, “You are my people”; and he shall say, “You are my God.”

Hosea 3:1 The LORD said to me again, “Go, love a woman who has a lover and is an adulteress, just as the LORD loves the people of Israel, though they turn to other gods and love raisin cakes.”

Hosea 3:2 So I bought her for fifteen shekels of silver and a homer of barley and a measure of wine.

Hosea 3:3 And I said to her, “You must remain as mine for many days; you shall not play the whore, you shall not have intercourse with a man, nor I with you.”

Hosea 3:4 For the Israelites shall remain many days without king or prince, without sacrifice or pillar, without ephod or teraphim.

Hosea 3:5 Afterward the Israelites shall return and seek the LORD their God, and David their king; they shall come in awe to the LORD and to his goodness in the latter days.

Hosea 4:1 Hear the word of the LORD, O people of Israel; for the LORD has an indictment against the inhabitants of the land. There is no faithfulness or loyalty, and no knowledge of God in the land.

Hosea 4:2 Swearing, lying, and murder, and stealing and adultery break out; bloodshed follows bloodshed.

Hosea 4:3 Therefore the land mourns, and all who live in it languish; together with the wild animals and the birds of the air, even the fish of the sea are perishing.

Hosea 4:4 Yet let no one contend, and let none accuse, for with you is my contention, O priest.

Hosea 4:5 You shall stumble by day; the prophet also shall stumble with you by night, and I will destroy your mother.

Hosea 4:6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge; because you have rejected knowledge, I reject you from being a priest to me. And since you have forgotten the law of your God, I also will forget your children.

Hosea 4:7 The more they increased, the more they sinned against me; they changed their glory into shame.

Hosea 4:8 They feed on the sin of my people; they are greedy for their iniquity.

Hosea 4:9 And it shall be like people, like priest; I will punish them for their ways, and repay them for their deeds.

Hosea 4:10 They shall eat, but not be satisfied; they shall play the whore, but not multiply; because they have forsaken the LORD to devote themselves to Hosea 4:11 whoredom. Wine and new wine take away the understanding.

Hosea 4:12 My people consult a piece of wood, and their divining rod gives them oracles. For a spirit of whoredom has led them astray, and they have played the whore, forsaking their God.

Hosea 4:13 They sacrifice on the tops of the mountains, and make offerings upon the hills, under oak, poplar, and terebinth, because their shade is good. Therefore your daughters play the whore, and your daughters-in-law commit adultery.

Hosea 4:14 I will not punish your daughters when they play the whore, nor your daughters-in-law when they commit adultery; for the men themselves go aside with whores, and sacrifice with temple prostitutes; thus a people without understanding comes to ruin.

Hosea 4:15 Though you play the whore, O Israel, do not let Judah become guilty. Do not enter into Gilgal, or go up to Beth-aven, and do not swear, “As the LORD lives.”

Hosea 4:16 Like a stubborn heifer, Israel is stubborn; can the LORD now feed them like a lamb in a broad pasture?

Hosea 4:17 Ephraim is joined to idols— let him alone.

Hosea 4:18 When their drinking is ended, they indulge in sexual orgies; they love lewdness more than their glory.

Hosea 4:19 A wind has wrapped them in its wings, and they shall be ashamed because of their altars.

Hosea 5:1 Hear this, O priests! Give heed, O house of Israel! Listen, O house of the king! For the judgment pertains to you; for you have been a snare at Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor, Hosea 5:2 and a pit dug deep in Shittim; but I will punish all of them.

Hosea 5:3 I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hidden from me; for now, O Ephraim, you have played the whore; Israel is defiled.

Hosea 5:4 Their deeds do not permit them to return to their God. For the spirit of whoredom is within them, and they do not know the LORD.

Hosea 5:5 Israel’s pride testifies against him; Ephraim stumbles in his guilt; Judah also stumbles with them.

Hosea 5:6 With their flocks and herds they shall go to seek the LORD, but they will not find him; he has withdrawn from them.

Hosea 5:7 They have dealt faithlessly with the LORD; for they have borne illegitimate children. Now the new moon shall devour them along with their fields.

Hosea 5:8 Blow the horn in Gibeah, the trumpet in Ramah. Sound the alarm at Beth-aven; look behind you, Benjamin!

Hosea 5:9 Ephraim shall become a desolation in the day of punishment; among the tribes of Israel I declare what is sure.

Hosea 5:10 The princes of Judah have become like those who remove the landmark; on them I will pour out my wrath like water.

Hosea 5:11 Ephraim is oppressed, crushed in judgment, because he was determined to go after vanity.

Hosea 5:12 Therefore I am like maggots to Ephraim, and like rottenness to the house of Judah.

Hosea 5:13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah his wound, then Ephraim went to Assyria, and sent to the great king. But he is not able to cure you or heal your wound.

Hosea 5:14 For I will be like a lion to Ephraim, and like a young lion to the house of Judah. I myself will tear and go away; I will carry off, and no one shall rescue.

Hosea 5:15 I will return again to my place until they acknowledge their guilt and seek my face. In their distress they will beg my favor:

Hosea 6:1 “Come, let us return to the LORD; for it is he who has torn, and he will heal us; he has struck down, and he will bind us up.

Hosea 6:2 After two days he will revive us; on the third day he will raise us up, that we may live before him.

Hosea 6:3 Let us know, let us press on to know the LORD; his appearing is as sure as the dawn; he will come to us like the showers, like the spring rains that water the earth.”

Hosea 6:4 What shall I do with you, O Ephraim? What shall I do with you, O Judah? Your love is like a morning cloud, like the dew that goes away early.

Hosea 6:5 Therefore I have hewn them by the prophets, I have killed them by the words of my mouth, and my judgment goes forth as the light.

Hosea 6:6 For I desire steadfast love and not sacrifice, the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings.

Hosea 6:7 But at Adam they transgressed the covenant; there they dealt faithlessly with me.

Hosea 6:8 Gilead is a city of evildoers, tracked with blood.

Hosea 6:9 As robbers lie in wait for someone, so the priests are banded together; they murder on the road to Shechem, they commit a monstrous crime.

Hosea 6:10 In the house of Israel I have seen a horrible thing; Ephraim’s whoredom is there, Israel is defiled.

Hosea 6:11 For you also, O Judah, a harvest is appointed. When I would restore the fortunes of my people,

Hosea 7:1 when I would heal Israel, the corruption of Ephraim is revealed, and the wicked deeds of Samaria; for they deal falsely, the thief breaks in, and the bandits raid outside.

Hosea 7:2 But they do not consider that I remember all their wickedness. Now their deeds surround them, they are before my face.

Hosea 7:3 By their wickedness they make the king glad, and the officials by their treachery.

Hosea 7:4 They are all adulterers; they are like a heated oven, whose baker does not need to stir the fire, from the kneading of the dough until it is leavened.

Hosea 7:5 On the day of our king the officials became sick with the heat of wine; he stretched out his hand with mockers.

Hosea 7:6 For they are kindled like an oven, their heart burns within them; all night their anger smolders; in the morning it blazes like a flaming fire.

Hosea 7:7 All of them are hot as an oven, and they devour their rulers. All their kings have fallen; none of them calls upon me.

Hosea 7:8 Ephraim mixes himself with the peoples; Ephraim is a cake not turned.

Hosea 7:9 Foreigners devour his strength, but he does not know it; gray hairs are sprinkled upon him, but he does not know it.

Hosea 7:10 Israel’s pride testifies against him; yet they do not return to the LORD their God, or seek him, for all this.

Hosea 7:11 Ephraim has become like a dove, silly and without sense; they call upon Egypt, they go to Assyria.

Hosea 7:12 As they go, I will cast my net over them; I will bring them down like birds of the air; I will discipline them according to the report made to their assembly.

Hosea 7:13 Woe to them, for they have strayed from me! Destruction to them, for they have rebelled against me! I would redeem them, but they speak lies against me.

Hosea 7:14 They do not cry to me from the heart, but they wail upon their beds; they gash themselves for grain and wine; they rebel against me.

Hosea 7:15 It was I who trained and strengthened their arms, yet they plot evil against me.

Hosea 7:16 They turn to that which does not profit; they have become like a defective bow; their officials shall fall by the sword because of the rage of their tongue. So much for their babbling in the land of Egypt.

Hosea 8:1 Set the trumpet to your lips! One like a vulture is over the house of the LORD, because they have broken my covenant, and transgressed my law.

Hosea 8:2 Israel cries to me, “My God, we— Israel— know you!”

Hosea 8:3 Israel has spurned the good; the enemy shall pursue him.

Hosea 8:4 They made kings, but not through me; they set up princes, but without my knowledge. With their silver and gold they made idols for their own destruction.

Hosea 8:5 Your calf is rejected, O Samaria. My anger burns against them. How long will they be incapable of innocence?

Hosea 8:6 For it is from Israel, an artisan made it; it is not God. The calf of Samaria shall be broken to pieces.

Hosea 8:7 For they sow the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind. The standing grain has no heads, it shall yield no meal; if it were to yield, foreigners would devour it.

Hosea 8:8 Israel is swallowed up; now they are among the nations as a useless vessel.

Hosea 8:9 For they have gone up to Assyria, a wild ass wandering alone; Ephraim has bargained for lovers.

Hosea 8:10 Though they bargain with the nations, I will now gather them up. They shall soon writhe under the burden of kings and princes.

Hosea 8:11 When Ephraim multiplied altars to expiate sin, they became to him altars for sinning.

Hosea 8:12 Though I write for him the multitude of my instructions, they are regarded as a strange thing.

Hosea 8:13 Though they offer choice sacrifices, though they eat flesh, the LORD does not accept them. Now he will remember their iniquity, and punish their sins; they shall return to Egypt.

Hosea 8:14 Israel has forgotten his Maker, and built palaces; and Judah has multiplied fortified cities; but I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour his strongholds.

Hosea 9:1 Do not rejoice, O Israel! Do not exult as other nations do; for you have played the whore, departing from your God. You have loved a prostitute’s pay on all threshing floors.

Hosea 9:2 Threshing floor and wine vat shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail them.

Hosea 9:3 They shall not remain in the land of the LORD; but Ephraim shall return to Egypt, and in Assyria they shall eat unclean food.

Hosea 9:4 They shall not pour drink offerings of wine to the LORD, and their sacrifices shall not please him. Such sacrifices shall be like mourners’ bread; all who eat of it shall be defiled; for their bread shall be for their hunger only; it shall not come to the house of the LORD.

Hosea 9:5 What will you do on the day of appointed festival, and on the day of the festival of the LORD?

Hosea 9:6 For even if they escape destruction, Egypt shall gather them, Memphis shall bury them. Nettles shall possess their precious things of silver; thorns shall be in their tents.

Hosea 9:7 The days of punishment have come, the days of recompense have come; Israel cries, “The prophet is a fool, the man of the spirit is mad!” Because of your great iniquity, your hostility is great.

Hosea 9:8 The prophet is a sentinel for my God over Ephraim, yet a fowler’s snare is on all his ways, and hostility in the house of his God.

Hosea 9:9 They have deeply corrupted themselves as in the days of Gibeah; he will remember their iniquity, he will punish their sins.

Hosea 9:10 Like grapes in the wilderness, I found Israel. Like the first fruit on the fig tree, in its first season, I saw your ancestors. But they came to Baal-peor, and consecrated themselves to a thing of shame, and became detestable like the thing they loved.

Hosea 9:11 Ephraim’s glory shall fly away like a bird— no birth, no pregnancy, no conception!

Hosea 9:12 Even if they bring up children, I will bereave them until no one is left. Woe to them indeed when I depart from them!

Hosea 9:13 Once I saw Ephraim as a young palm planted in a lovely meadow, but now Ephraim must lead out his children for slaughter.

Hosea 9:14 Give them, O LORD— what will you give? Give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

Hosea 9:15 Every evil of theirs began at Gilgal; there I came to hate them. Because of the wickedness of their deeds I will drive them out of my house. I will love them no more; all their officials are rebels.

Hosea 9:16 Ephraim is stricken, their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit. Even though they give birth, I will kill the cherished offspring of their womb.

Hosea 9:17 Because they have not listened to him, my God will reject them; they shall become wanderers among the nations.

Hosea 10:1 Israel is a luxuriant vine that yields its fruit. The more his fruit increased the more altars he built; as his country improved, he improved his pillars.

Hosea 10:2 Their heart is false; now they must bear their guilt. The LORD will break down their altars, and destroy their pillars.

Hosea 10:3 For now they will say: “We have no king, for we do not fear the LORD, and a king— what could he do for us?”

Hosea 10:4 They utter mere words; with empty oaths they make covenants; so litigation springs up like poisonous weeds in the furrows of the field.

Hosea 10:5 The inhabitants of Samaria tremble for the calf of Beth-aven. Its people shall mourn for it, and its idolatrous priests shall wail over it, over its glory that has departed from it.

Hosea 10:6 The thing itself shall be carried to Assyria as tribute to the great king. Ephraim shall be put to shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his idol.

Hosea 10:7 Samaria’s king shall perish like a chip on the face of the waters.

Hosea 10:8 The high places of Aven, the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed. Thorn and thistle shall grow up on their altars. They shall say to the mountains, Cover us, and to the hills, Fall on us.

Hosea 10:9 Since the days of Gibeah you have sinned, O Israel; there they have continued. Shall not war overtake them in Gibeah?

Hosea 10:10 I will come against the wayward people to punish them; and nations shall be gathered against them when they are punished for their double iniquity.

Hosea 10:11 Ephraim was a trained heifer that loved to thresh, and I spared her fair neck; but I will make Ephraim break the ground; Judah must plow; Jacob must harrow for himself.

Hosea 10:12 Sow for yourselves righteousness; reap steadfast love; break up your fallow ground; for it is time to seek the LORD, that he may come and rain righteousness upon you.

Hosea 10:13 You have plowed wickedness, you have reaped injustice, you have eaten the fruit of lies. Because you have trusted in your power and in the multitude of your warriors,

Hosea 10:14 therefore the tumult of war shall rise against your people, and all your fortresses shall be destroyed, as Shalman destroyed Beth-arbel on the day of battle when mothers were dashed in pieces with their children.

Hosea 10:15 Thus it shall be done to you, O Bethel, because of your great wickedness. At dawn the king of Israel shall be utterly cut off.

Hosea 11:1 When Israel was a child, I loved him, and out of Egypt I called my son.

Hosea 11:2 The more I called them, the more they went from me; they kept sacrificing to the Baals, and offering incense to idols.

Hosea 11:3 Yet it was I who taught Ephraim to walk, I took them up in my arms; but they did not know that I healed them.

Hosea 11:4 I led them with cords of human kindness, with bands of love. I was to them like those who lift infants to their cheeks. I bent down to them and fed them.

Hosea 11:5 They shall return to the land of Egypt, and Assyria shall be their king, because they have refused to return to me.

Hosea 11:6 The sword rages in their cities, it consumes their oracle-priests, and devours because of their schemes.

Hosea 11:7 My people are bent on turning away from me. To the Most High they call, but he does not raise them up at all.

Hosea 11:8 How can I give you up, Ephraim? How can I hand you over, O Israel? How can I make you like Admah? How can I treat you like Zeboiim? My heart recoils within me; my compassion grows warm and tender.

Hosea 11:9 I will not execute my fierce anger; I will not again destroy Ephraim; for I am God and no mortal, the Holy One in your midst, and I will not come in wrath.

Hosea 11:10 They shall go after the LORD, who roars like a lion; when he roars, his children shall come trembling from the west.

Hosea 11:11 They shall come trembling like birds from Egypt, and like doves from the land of Assyria; and I will return them to their homes, says the LORD.

Hosea 11:12 Ephraim has surrounded me with lies, and the house of Israel with deceit; but Judah still walks with God, and is faithful to the Holy One.

Hosea 12:1 Ephraim herds the wind, and pursues the east wind all day long; they multiply falsehood and violence; they make a treaty with Assyria, and oil is carried to Egypt.

Hosea 12:2 The LORD has an indictment against Judah, and will punish Jacob according to his ways, and repay him according to his deeds.

Hosea 12:3 In the womb he tried to supplant his brother, and in his manhood he strove with God.

Hosea 12:4 He strove with the angel and prevailed, he wept and sought his favor; he met him at Bethel, and there he spoke with him.

Hosea 12:5 The LORD the God of hosts, the LORD is his name!

Hosea 12:6 But as for you, return to your God, hold fast to love and justice, and wait continually for your God.

Hosea 12:7 A trader, in whose hands are false balances, he loves to oppress.

Hosea 12:8 Ephraim has said, “Ah, I am rich, I have gained wealth for myself; in all of my gain no offense has been found in me that would be sin.”

Hosea 12:9 I am the LORD your God from the land of Egypt; I will make you live in tents again, as in the days of the appointed festival.

Hosea 12:10 I spoke to the prophets; it was I who multiplied visions, and through the prophets I will bring destruction.

Hosea 12:11 In Gilead there is iniquity, they shall surely come to nothing. In Gilgal they sacrifice bulls, so their altars shall be like stone heaps on the furrows of the field.

Hosea 12:12 Jacob fled to the land of Aram, there Israel served for a wife, and for a wife he guarded sheep.

Hosea 12:13 By a prophet the LORD brought Israel up from Egypt, and by a prophet he was guarded.

Hosea 12:14 Ephraim has given bitter offense, so his Lord will bring his crimes down on him and pay him back for his insults.

Hosea 13:1 When Ephraim spoke, there was trembling; he was exalted in Israel; but he incurred guilt through Baal and died.

Hosea 13:2 And now they keep on sinning and make a cast image for themselves, idols of silver made according to their understanding, all of them the work of artisans. “Sacrifice to these,” they say. People are kissing calves!

Hosea 13:3 Therefore they shall be like the morning mist or like the dew that goes away early, like chaff that swirls from the threshing floor or like smoke from a window.

Hosea 13:4 Yet I have been the LORD your God ever since the land of Egypt; you know no God but me, and besides me there is no savior.

Hosea 13:5 It was I who fed you in the wilderness, in the land of drought.

Hosea 13:6 When I fed them, they were satisfied; they were satisfied, and their heart was proud; therefore they forgot me.

Hosea 13:7 So I will become like a lion to them, like a leopard I will lurk beside the way.

Hosea 13:8 I will fall upon them like a bear robbed of her cubs, and will tear open the covering of their heart; there I will devour them like a lion, as a wild animal would mangle them.

Hosea 13:9 I will destroy you, O Israel; who can help you?

Hosea 13:10 Where now is your king, that he may save you? Where in all your cities are your rulers, of whom you said, “Give me a king and rulers”?

Hosea 13:11 I gave you a king in my anger, and I took him away in my wrath.

Hosea 13:12 Ephraim’s iniquity is bound up; his sin is kept in store.

Hosea 13:13 The pangs of childbirth come for him, but he is an unwise son; for at the proper time he does not present himself at the mouth of the womb.

Hosea 13:14 Shall I ransom them from the power of Sheol? Shall I redeem them from Death? O Death, where are your plagues? O Sheol, where is your destruction? Compassion is hidden from my eyes.

Hosea 13:15 Although he may flourish among rushes, the east wind shall come, a blast from the LORD, rising from the wilderness; and his fountain shall dry up, his spring shall be parched. It shall strip his treasury of every precious thing.

Hosea 13:16 Samaria shall bear her guilt, because she has rebelled against her God; they shall fall by the sword, their little ones shall be dashed in pieces, and their pregnant women ripped open.

Hosea 14:1 Return, O Israel, to the LORD your God, for you have stumbled because of your iniquity.

Hosea 14:2 Take words with you and return to the LORD; say to him, “Take away all guilt; accept that which is good, and we will offer the fruit of our lips.

Hosea 14:3 Assyria shall not save us; we will not ride upon horses; we will say no more, ‘Our God,’ to the work of our hands. In you the orphan finds mercy.”

Hosea 14:4 I will heal their disloyalty; I will love them freely, for my anger has turned from them.

Hosea 14:5 I will be like the dew to Israel; he shall blossom like the lily, he shall strike root like the forests of Lebanon.

Hosea 14:6 His shoots shall spread out; his beauty shall be like the olive tree, and his fragrance like that of Lebanon.

Hosea 14:7 They shall again live beneath my shadow, they shall flourish as a garden; they shall blossom like the vine, their fragrance shall be like the wine of Lebanon.

Hosea 14:8 O Ephraim, what have I to do with idols? It is I who answer and look after you. I am like an evergreen cypress; your faithfulness comes from me.

Hosea 14:9 Those who are wise understand these things; those who are discerning know them. For the ways of the LORD are right, and the upright walk in them, but transgressors stumble in them.

Joel

1:1 The word of the LORD that came toJoel son of Pethuel:

Joel 1:2 Hear this, O elders, give ear, all inhabitants of the land! Has such a thing happened in your days, or in the days of your ancestors?

Joel 1:3 Tell your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.

Joel 1:4 What the cutting locust left, the swarming locust has eaten. What the swarming locust left, the hopping locust has eaten, and what the hopping locust left, the destroying locust has eaten.

Joel 1:5 Wake up, you drunkards, and weep; and wail, all you wine-drinkers, over the sweet wine, for it is cut off from your mouth.

Joel 1:6 For a nation has invaded my land, powerful and innumerable; its teeth are lions’ teeth, and it has the fangs of a lioness.

Joel 1:7 It has laid waste my vines, and splintered my fig trees; it has stripped off their bark and thrown it down; their branches have turned white.

Joel 1:8 Lament like a virgin dressed in sackcloth for the husband of her youth.

Joel 1:9 The grain offering and the drink offering are cut off from the house of the LORD. The priests mourn, the ministers of the LORD.

Joel 1:10 The fields are devastated, the ground mourns; for the grain is destroyed, the wine dries up, the oil fails.

Joel 1:11 Be dismayed, you farmers, wail, you vinedressers, over the wheat and the barley; for the crops of the field are ruined.

Joel 1:12 The vine withers, the fig tree droops. Pomegranate, palm, and apple— all the trees of the field are dried up; surely, joy withers away among the people.

Joel 1:13 Put on sackcloth and lament, you priests; wail, you ministers of the altar. Come, pass the night in sackcloth, you ministers of my God! Grain offering and drink offering are withheld from the house of your God.

Joel 1:14 Sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly. Gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land to the house of the LORD your God, and cry out to the LORD.

Joel 1:15 Alas for the day! For the day of the LORD is near, and as destruction from the Almighty it comes.

Joel 1:16 Is not the food cut off before our eyes, joy and gladness from the house of our God?

Joel 1:17 The seed shrivels under the clods, the storehouses are desolate; the granaries are ruined because the grain has failed.

Joel 1:18 How the animals groan! The herds of cattle wander about because there is no pasture for them; even the flocks of sheep are dazed.

Joel 1:19 To you, O LORD, I cry. For fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and flames have burned all the trees of the field.

Joel 1:20 Even the wild animals cry to you because the watercourses are dried up, and fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

Joel 2:1 Blow the trumpet in Zion; sound the alarm on my holy mountain! Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble, for the day of the LORD is coming, it is near—

Joel 2:2 a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness! Like blackness spread upon the mountains a great and powerful army comes; their like has never been from of old, nor will be again after them in ages to come.

Joel 2:3 Fire devours in front of them, and behind them a flame burns. Before them the land is like the garden of Eden, but after them a desolate wilderness, and nothing escapes them.

Joel 2:4 They have the appearance of horses, and like war-horses they charge.

Joel 2:5 As with the rumbling of chariots, they leap on the tops of the mountains, like the crackling of a flame of fire devouring the stubble, like a powerful army drawn up for battle.

Joel 2:6 Before them peoples are in anguish, all faces grow pale.

Joel 2:7 Like warriors they charge, like soldiers they scale the wall. Each keeps to its own course, they do not swerve from their paths.

Joel 2:8 They do not jostle one another, each keeps to its own track; they burst through the weapons and are not halted.

Joel 2:9 They leap upon the city, they run upon the walls; they climb up into the houses, they enter through the windows like a thief.

Joel 2:10 The earth quakes before them, the heavens tremble. The sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining.

Joel 2:11 The LORD utters his voice at the head of his army; how vast is his host! Numberless are those who obey his command. Truly the day of the LORD is great; terrible indeed— who can endure it?

Joel 2:12 Yet even now, says the LORD, return to me with all your heart, with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning;

Joel 2:13 rend your hearts and not your clothing. Return to the LORD, your God, for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, and relents from punishing.

Joel 2:14 Who knows whether he will not turn and relent, and leave a blessing behind him, a grain offering and a drink offering for the LORD, your God?

Joel 2:15 Blow the trumpet in Zion; sanctify a fast; call a solemn assembly;

Joel 2:16 gather the people. Sanctify the congregation; assemble the aged; gather the children, even infants at the breast. Let the bridegroom leave his room, and the bride her canopy.

Joel 2:17 Between the vestibule and the altar let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep. Let them say, “Spare your people, O LORD, and do not make your heritage a mockery, a byword among the nations. Why should it be said among the peoples, ‘Where is their God?’“

Joel 2:18 Then the LORD became jealous for his land, and had pity on his people.

Joel 2:19 In response to his people the LORD said: I am sending you grain, wine, and oil, and you will be satisfied; and I will no more make you a mockery among the nations.

Joel 2:20 I will remove the northern army far from you, and drive it into a parched and desolate land, its front into the eastern sea, and its rear into the western sea; its stench and foul smell will rise up. Surely he has done great things!

Joel 2:21 Do not fear, O soil; be glad and rejoice, for the LORD has done great things!

Joel 2:22 Do not fear, you animals of the field, for the pastures of the wilderness are green; the tree bears its fruit, the fig tree and vine give their full yield.

Joel 2:23 O children of Zion, be glad and rejoice in the LORD your God; for he has given the early rain for your vindication, he has poured down for you abundant rain, the early and the later rain, as before.

Joel 2:24 The threshing floors shall be full of grain, the vats shall overflow with wine and oil.

Joel 2:25 I will repay you for the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the hopper, the destroyer, and the cutter, my great army, which I sent against you.

Joel 2:26 You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, who has dealt wondrously with you. And my people shall never again be put to shame.

Joel 2:27 You shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I, the LORD, am your God and there is no other. And my people shall never again be put to shame.

Joel 2:28 Then afterward I will pour out my spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men shall see visions.

Joel 2:29 Even on the male and female slaves, in those days, I will pour out my spirit.

Joel 2:30 I will show portents in the heavens and on the earth, blood and fire and columns of smoke.

Joel 2:31 The sun shall be turned to darkness, and the moon to blood, before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes.

Joel 2:32 Then everyone who calls on the name of the LORD shall be saved; for in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be those who escape, as the LORD has said, and among the survivors shall be those whom the LORD calls.

Joel 3:1 For then, in those days and at that time, when I restore the fortunes of Judah and Jerusalem,

Joel 3:2 I will gather all the nations and bring them down to the valley of Jehoshaphat, and I will enter into judgment with them there, on account of my people and my heritage Israel, because they have scattered them among the nations. They have divided my land,

Joel 3:3 and cast lots for my people, and traded boys for prostitutes, and sold girls for wine, and drunk it down.

Joel 3:4 What are you to me, O Tyre and Sidon, and all the regions of Philistia? Are you paying me back for something? If you are paying me back, I will turn your deeds back upon your own heads swiftly and speedily.

Joel 3:5 For you have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried my rich treasures into your temples.

Joel 3:6 You have sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks, removing them far from their own border.

Joel 3:7 But now I will rouse them to leave the places to which you have sold them, and I will turn your deeds back upon your own heads.

Joel 3:8 I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the people of Judah, and they will sell them to the Sabeans, to a nation far away; for the LORD has spoken.

Joel 3:9 Proclaim this among the nations: Prepare war, stir up the warriors. Let all the soldiers draw near, let them come up.

Joel 3:10 Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruning hooks into spears; let the weakling say, “I am a warrior.”

Joel 3:11 Come quickly, all you nations all around, gather yourselves there. Bring down your warriors, O LORD.

Joel 3:12 Let the nations rouse themselves, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat; for there I will sit to judge all the neighboring nations.

Joel 3:13 Put in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe. Go in, tread, for the wine press is full. The vats overflow, for their wickedness is great.

Joel 3:14 Multitudes, multitudes, in the valley of decision! For the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.

Joel 3:15 The sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining.

Joel 3:16 The LORD roars from Zion, and utters his voice from Jerusalem, and the heavens and the earth shake. But the LORD is a refuge for his people, a stronghold for the people of Israel.

Joel 3:17 So you shall know that I, the LORD your God, dwell in Zion, my holy mountain. And Jerusalem shall be holy, and strangers shall never again pass through it.

Joel 3:18 In that day the mountains shall drip sweet wine, the hills shall flow with milk, and all the stream beds of Judah shall flow with water; a fountain shall come forth from the house of the LORD and water the Wadi Shittim.

Joel 3:19 Egypt shall become a desolation and Edom a desolate wilderness, because of the violence done to the people of Judah, in whose land they have shed innocent blood.

Joel 3:20 But Judah shall be inhabited forever, and Jerusalem to all generations.

Joel 3:21 I will avenge their blood, and I will not clear the guilty, for the LORD dwells in Zion.

Amos

1:1 The words of Amos, who was among the shepherds of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of King Uzziah of Judah and in the days of King Jeroboam son of Joash of Israel, two years before the earthquake.

Amos 1:2 And he said: The LORD roars from Zion, and utters his voice from Jerusalem; the pastures of the shepherds wither, and the top of Carmel dries up.

Amos 1:3 Thus says the LORD: For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment; because they have threshed Gilead with threshing sledges of iron.

Amos 1:4 So I will send a fire on the house of Hazael, and it shall devour the strongholds of Ben-hadad.

Amos 1:5 I will break the gate bars of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitants from the Valley of Aven, and the one who holds the scepter from Beth-eden; and the people of Aram shall go into exile to Kir, says the LORD.

Amos 1:6 Thus says the LORD: For three transgressions of Gaza, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment; because they carried into exile entire communities, to hand them over to Edom.

Amos 1:7 So I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, fire that shall devour its strongholds.

Amos 1:8 I will cut off the inhabitants from Ashdod, and the one who holds the scepter from Ashkelon; I will turn my hand against Ekron, and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish, says the Lord GOD.

Amos 1:9 Thus says the LORD: For three transgressions of Tyre, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment; because they delivered entire communities over to Edom, and did not remember the covenant of kinship.

Amos 1:10 So I will send a fire on the wall of Tyre, fire that shall devour its strongholds.

Amos 1:11 Thus says the LORD: For three transgressions of Edom, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment; because he pursued his brother with the sword and cast off all pity; he maintained his anger perpetually, and kept his wrath forever.

Amos 1:12 So I will send a fire on Teman, and it shall devour the strongholds of Bozrah.

Amos 1:13 Thus says the LORD: For three transgressions of the Ammonites, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment; because they have ripped open pregnant women in Gilead in order to enlarge their territory.

Amos 1:14 So I will kindle a fire against the wall of Rabbah, fire that shall devour its strongholds, with shouting on the day of battle, with a storm on the day of the whirlwind;

Amos 1:15 then their king shall go into exile, he and his officials together, says the LORD.

Amos 2:1 Thus says the LORD: For three transgressions of Moab, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment; because he burned to lime the bones of the king of Edom.

Amos 2:2 So I will send a fire on Moab, and it shall devour the strongholds of Kerioth, and Moab shall die amid uproar, amid shouting and the sound of the trumpet;

Amos 2:3 I will cut off the ruler from its midst, and will kill all its officials with him, says the LORD.

Amos 2:4 Thus says the LORD: For three transgressions of Judah, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment; because they have rejected the law of the LORD, and have not kept his statutes, but they have been led astray by the same lies after which their ancestors walked.

Amos 2:5 So I will send a fire on Judah, and it shall devour the strongholds of Jerusalem.

Amos 2:6 Thus says the LORD: For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment; because they sell the righteous for silver, and the needy for a pair of sandals—

Amos 2:7 they who trample the head of the poor into the dust of the earth, and push the afflicted out of the way; father and son go in to the same girl, so that my holy name is profaned;

Amos 2:8 they lay themselves down beside every altar on garments taken in pledge; and in the house of their God they drink wine bought with fines they imposed.

Amos 2:9 Yet I destroyed the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of cedars, and who was as strong as oaks; I destroyed his fruit above, and his roots beneath.

Amos 2:10 Also I brought you up out of the land of Egypt, and led you forty years in the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite.

Amos 2:11 And I raised up some of your children to be prophets and some of your youths to be nazirites. Is it not indeed so, O people of Israel? says the LORD.

Amos 2:12 But you made the nazirites drink wine, and commanded the prophets, saying, “You shall not prophesy.”

Amos 2:13 So, I will press you down in your place, just as a cart presses down when it is full of sheaves.

Amos 2:14 Flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not retain their strength, nor shall the mighty save their lives;

Amos 2:15 those who handle the bow shall not stand, and those who are swift of foot shall not save themselves, nor shall those who ride horses save their lives;

Amos 2:16 and those who are stout of heart among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day, says the LORD.

Amos 3:1 Hear this word that the LORD has spoken against you, O people of Israel, against the whole family that I brought up out of the land of Egypt:

Amos 3:2 You only have I known of all the families of the earth; therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities.

Amos 3:3 Do two walk together unless they have made an appointment?

Amos 3:4 Does a lion roar in the forest, when it has no prey? Does a young lion cry out from its den, if it has caught nothing?

Amos 3:5 Does a bird fall into a snare on the earth, when there is no trap for it? Does a snare spring up from the ground, when it has taken nothing?

Amos 3:6 Is a trumpet blown in a city, and the people are not afraid? Does disaster befall a city, unless the LORD has done it?

Amos 3:7 Surely the Lord GOD does nothing, without revealing his secret to his servants the prophets.

Amos 3:8 The lion has roared; who will not fear? The Lord GOD has spoken; who can but prophesy?

Amos 3:9 Proclaim to the strongholds in Ashdod, and to the strongholds in the land of Egypt, and say, “Assemble yourselves on Mount Samaria, and see what great tumults are within it, and what oppressions are in its midst.”

Amos 3:10 They do not know how to do right, says the LORD, those who store up violence and robbery in their strongholds.

Amos 3:11 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: An adversary shall surround the land, and strip you of your defense; and your strongholds shall be plundered.

Amos 3:12 Thus says the LORD: As the shepherd rescues from the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear, so shall the people of Israel who live in Samaria be rescued, with the corner of a couch and part of a bed.

Amos 3:13 Hear, and testify against the house of Jacob, says the Lord GOD, the God of hosts:

Amos 3:14 On the day I punish Israel for its transgressions, I will punish the altars of Bethel, and the horns of the altar shall be cut off and fall to the ground.

Amos 3:15 I will tear down the winter house as well as the summer house; and the houses of ivory shall perish, and the great houses shall come to an end, says the LORD.

Amos 4:1 Hear this word, you cows of Bashan who are on Mount Samaria, who oppress the poor, who crush the needy, who say to their husbands, “Bring something to drink!”

Amos 4:2 The Lord GOD has sworn by his holiness: The time is surely coming upon you, when they shall take you away with hooks, even the last of you with fishhooks.

Amos 4:3 Through breaches in the wall you shall leave, each one straight ahead; and you shall be flung out into Harmon, says the LORD.

Amos 4:4 Come to Bethel— and transgress; to Gilgal— and multiply transgression; bring your sacrifices every morning, your tithes every three days;

Amos 4:5 bring a thank offering of leavened bread, and proclaim freewill offerings, publish them; for so you love to do, O people of Israel! says the Lord GOD.

Amos 4:6 I gave you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and lack of bread in all your places, yet you did not return to me, says the LORD.

Amos 4:7 And I also withheld the rain from you when there were still three months to the harvest; I would send rain on one city, and send no rain on another city; one field would be rained upon, and the field on which it did not rain withered;

Amos 4:8 so two or three towns wandered to one town to drink water, and were not satisfied; yet you did not return to me, says the LORD.

Amos 4:9 I struck you with blight and mildew; I laid waste your gardens and your vineyards; the locust devoured your fig trees and your olive trees; yet you did not return to me, says the LORD.

Amos 4:10 I sent among you a pestilence after the manner of Egypt; I killed your young men with the sword; I carried away your horses; and I made the stench of your camp go up into your nostrils; yet you did not return to me, says the LORD.

Amos 4:11 I overthrew some of you, as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and you were like a brand snatched from the fire; yet you did not return to me, says the LORD.

Amos 4:12 Therefore thus I will do to you, O Israel; because I will do this to you, prepare to meet your God, O Israel!

Amos 4:13 For lo, the one who forms the mountains, creates the wind, reveals his thoughts to mortals, makes the morning darkness, and treads on the heights of the earth— the LORD, the God of hosts, is his name!

Amos 5:1 Hear this word that I take up over you in lamentation, O house of Israel:

Amos 5:2 Fallen, no more to rise, is maiden Israel; forsaken on her land, with no one to raise her up.

Amos 5:3 For thus says the Lord GOD: The city that marched out a thousand shall have a hundred left, and that which marched out a hundred shall have ten left.

Amos 5:4 For thus says the LORD to the house of Israel: Seek me and live;

Amos 5:5 but do not seek Bethel, and do not enter into Gilgal or cross over to Beer-sheba; for Gilgal shall surely go into exile, and Bethel shall come to nothing.

Amos 5:6 Seek the LORD and live, or he will break out against the house of Joseph like fire, and it will devour Bethel, with no one to quench it.

Amos 5:7 Ah, you that turn justice to wormwood, and bring righteousness to the ground!

Amos 5:8 The one who made the Pleiades and Orion, and turns deep darkness into the morning, and darkens the day into night, who calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out on the surface of the earth, the LORD is his name,

Amos 5:9 who makes destruction flash out against the strong, so that destruction comes upon the fortress.

Amos 5:10 They hate the one who reproves in the gate, and they abhor the one who speaks the truth.

Amos 5:11 Therefore because you trample on the poor and take from them levies of grain, you have built houses of hewn stone, but you shall not live in them; you have planted pleasant vineyards, but you shall not drink their wine.

Amos 5:12 For I know how many are your transgressions, and how great are your sins— you who afflict the righteous, who take a bribe, and push aside the needy in the gate.

Amos 5:13 Therefore the prudent will keep silent in such a time; for it is an evil time.

Amos 5:14 Seek good and not evil, that you may live; and so the LORD, the God of hosts, will be with you, just as you have said.

Amos 5:15 Hate evil and love good, and establish justice in the gate; it may be that the LORD, the God of hosts, will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.

Amos 5:16 Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord: In all the squares there shall be wailing; and in all the streets they shall say, “Alas! alas!” They shall call the farmers to mourning, and those skilled in lamentation, to wailing;

Amos 5:17 in all the vineyards there shall be wailing, for I will pass through the midst of you, says the LORD.

Amos 5:18 Alas for you who desire the day of the LORD! Why do you want the day of the LORD? It is darkness, not light;

Amos 5:19 as if someone fled from a lion, and was met by a bear; or went into the house and rested a hand against the wall, and was bitten by a snake.

Amos 5:20 Is not the day of the LORD darkness, not light, and gloom with no brightness in it?

Amos 5:21 I hate, I despise your festivals, and I take no delight in your solemn assemblies.

Amos 5:22 Even though you offer me your burnt offerings and grain offerings, I will not accept them; and the offerings of well-being of your fatted animals I will not look upon.

Amos 5:23 Take away from me the noise of your songs; I will not listen to the melody of your harps.

Amos 5:24 But let justice roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.

Amos 5:25 Did you bring to me sacrifices and offerings the forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel?

Amos 5:26 You shall take up Sakkuth your king, and Kaiwan your star-god, your images, which you made for yourselves;

Amos 5:27 therefore I will take you into exile beyond Damascus, says the LORD, whose name is the God of hosts.

Amos 6:1 Alas for those who are at ease in Zion, and for those who feel secure on Mount Samaria, the notables of the first of the nations, to whom the house of Israel resorts!

Amos 6:2 Cross over to Calneh, and see; from there go to Hamath the great; then go down to Gath of the Philistines. Are you better than these kingdoms? Or is your territory greater than their territory,

Amos 6:3 O you that put far away the evil day, and bring near a reign of violence?

Amos 6:4 Alas for those who lie on beds of ivory, and lounge on their couches, and eat lambs from the flock, and calves from the stall;

Amos 6:5 who sing idle songs to the sound of the harp, and like David improvise on instruments of music;

Amos 6:6 who drink wine from bowls, and anoint themselves with the finest oils, but are not grieved over the ruin of Joseph!

Amos 6:7 Therefore they shall now be the first to go into exile, and the revelry of the loungers shall pass away.

Amos 6:8 The Lord GOD has sworn by himself (says the LORD, the God of hosts): I abhor the pride of Jacob and hate his strongholds; and I will deliver up the city and all that is in it.

Amos 6:9 If ten people remain in one house, they shall die.

Amos 6:10 And if a relative, one who burns the dead, shall take up the body to bring it out of the house, and shall say to someone in the innermost parts of the house, “Is anyone else with you?” the answer will come, “No.” Then the relative shall say, “Hush! We must not mention the name of the LORD.”

Amos 6:11 See, the LORD commands, and the great house shall be shattered to bits, and the little house to pieces.

Amos 6:12 Do horses run on rocks? Does one plow the sea with oxen? But you have turned justice into poison and the fruit of righteousness into wormwood—

Amos 6:13 you who rejoice in Lo-debar, who say, “Have we not by our own strength taken Karnaim for ourselves?”

Amos 6:14 Indeed, I am raising up against you a nation, O house of Israel, says the LORD, the God of hosts, and they shall oppress you from Lebo-hamath to the Wadi Arabah.

Amos 7:1 This is what the Lord GOD showed me: he was forming locusts at the time the latter growth began to sprout (it was the latter growth after the king's mowings).

Amos 7:2 When they had finished eating the grass of the land, I said, "O Lord GOD, forgive, I beg you! How can Jacob stand? He is so small!"

Amos 7:3 The LORD relented concerning this; "It shall not be," said the LORD.

Amos 7:4 This is what the Lord GOD showed me: the Lord GOD was calling for a shower of fire, and it devoured the great deep and was eating up the land.

Amos 7:5 Then I said, "O Lord GOD, cease, I beg you! How can Jacob stand? He is so small!"

Amos 7:6 The LORD relented concerning this; "This also shall not be," said the Lord GOD.

Amos 7:7 This is what he showed me: the Lord was standing beside a wall built with a plumb line, with a plumb line in his hand.

Amos 7:8 And the LORD said to me, "Amos, what do you see?" And I said, "A plumb line." Then the Lord said, "See, I am setting a plumb line in the midst of my people Israel; I will never again pass them by;

Amos 7:9 the high places of Isaac shall be made desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste, and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword."

Amos 7:10 Then Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, sent to King Jeroboam of Israel, saying, "Amos has conspired against you in the very center of the house of Israel; the land is not able to bear all his words.

Amos 7:11 For thusAmos has said, 'Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel must go into exile away from his land.'"

Amos 7:12 And Amaziah said to Amos, "O seer, go, flee away to the land of Judah, earn your bread there, and prophesy there;

Amos 7:13 but never again prophesy at Bethel, for it is the king's sanctuary, and it is a temple of the kingdom."

Amos 7:14 Then Amos answered Amaziah, "I am no prophet, nor a prophet's son; but I am a herdsman, and a dresser of sycamore trees,

Amos 7:15 and the LORD took me from following the flock, and the LORD said to me, 'Go, prophesy to my people Israel.'

Amos 7:16 "Now therefore hear the word of the LORD. You say, 'Do not prophesy against Israel, and do not preach against the house of Isaac.'

Amos 7:17 Therefore thus says the LORD: 'Your wife shall become a prostitute in the city, and your sons and your daughters shall fall by the sword, and your land shall be parceled out by line; you yourself shall die in an unclean land, and Israel shall surely go into exile away from its land.'"

Amos 8:1 This is what the Lord GOD showed me— a basket of summer fruit.

Amos 8:2 He said, "Amos, what do you see?" And I said, "A basket of summer fruit." Then the LORD said to me, "The end has come upon my people Israel; I will never again pass them by.

Amos 8:3 The songs of the temple shall become wailings in that day," says the Lord GOD; "the dead bodies shall be many, cast out in every place. Be silent!"

Amos 8:4 Hear this, you that trample on the needy, and bring to ruin the poor of the land,

Amos 8:5 saying, "When will the new moon be over so that we may sell grain; and the sabbath, so that we may offer wheat for sale? We will make the ephah small and the shekel great, and practice deceit with false balances,

Amos 8:6 buying the poor for silver and the needy for a pair of sandals, and selling the sweepings of the wheat."

Amos 8:7 The LORD has sworn by the pride of Jacob: Surely I will never forget any of their deeds.

Amos 8:8 Shall not the land tremble on this account, and everyone mourn who lives in it, and all of it rise like the Nile, and be tossed about and sink again, like the Nile of Egypt?

Amos 8:9 On that day, says the Lord GOD, I will make the sun go down at noon, and darken the earth in broad daylight.

Amos 8:10 I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; I will bring sackcloth on all loins, and baldness on every head; I will make it like the mourning for an only son, and the end of it like a bitter day.

Amos 8:11 The time is surely coming, says the Lord GOD, when I will send a famine on the land; not a famine of bread, or a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD.

Amos 8:12 They shall wander from sea to sea, and from north to east; they shall run to and fro, seeking the word of the LORD, but they shall not find it.

Amos 8:13 In that day the beautiful young women and the young men shall faint for thirst.

Amos 8:14 Those who swear by Ashimah of Samaria, and say, "As your god lives, O Dan," and, "As the way of Beer-sheba lives"— they shall fall, and never rise again.

Amos 9:1 I saw the LORD standing beside the altar, and he said: Strike the capitals until the thresholds shake, and shatter them on the heads of all the people; and those who are left I will kill with the sword; not one of them shall flee away, not one of them shall escape.

Amos 9:2 Though they dig into Sheol, from there shall my hand take them; though they climb up to heaven, from there I will bring them down.

Amos 9:3 Though they hide themselves on the top of Carmel, from there I will search out and take them; and though they hide from my sight at the bottom of the sea, there I will command the sea-serpent, and it shall bite them.

Amos 9:4 And though they go into captivity in front of their enemies, there I will command the sword, and it shall kill them; and I will fix my eyes on them for harm and not for good.

Amos 9:5 The Lord, GOD of hosts, he who touches the earth and it melts, and all who live in it mourn, and all of it rises like the Nile, and sinks again, like the Nile of Egypt;

Amos 9:6 who builds his upper chambers in the heavens, and founds his vault upon the earth; who calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out upon the surface of the earth— the LORD is his name.

Amos 9:7 Are you not like the Ethiopians to me, O people of Israel? says the LORD. Did I not bring Israel up from the land of Egypt, and the Philistines from Caphtor and the Arameans from Kir?

Amos 9:8 The eyes of the Lord GOD are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from the face of the earth— except that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, says the LORD.

Amos 9:9 For lo, I will command, and shake the house of Israel among all the nations as one shakes with a sieve, but no pebble shall fall to the ground.

Amos 9:10 All the sinners of my people shall die by the sword, who say, “Evil shall not overtake or meet us.”

Amos 9:11 On that day I will raise up the booth of David that is fallen, and repair its breaches, and raise up its ruins, and rebuild it as in the days of old;

Amos 9:12 in order that they may possess the remnant of Edom and all the nations who are called by my name, says the LORD who does this.

Amos 9:13 The time is surely coming, says the LORD, when the one who plows shall overtake the one who reaps, and the treader of grapes the one who sows the seed; the mountains shall drip sweet wine, and all the hills shall flow with it.

Amos 9:14 I will restore the fortunes of my people Israel, and they shall rebuild the ruined cities and inhabit them; they shall plant vineyards and drink their wine, and they shall make gardens and eat their fruit.

Amos 9:15 I will plant them upon their land, and they shall never again be plucked up out of the land that I have given them, says the LORD your God.

Obadiah

1:1 The vision of Obadiah. Thus says the Lord GOD concerning Edom: We have heard a report from the LORD, and a messenger has been sent among the nations: “Rise up! Let us rise against it for battle!”

Obadiah 1:2 I will surely make you least among the nations; you shall be utterly despised.

Obadiah 1:3 Your proud heart has deceived you, you that live in the clefts of the rock, whose dwelling is in the heights. You say in your heart, “Who will bring me down to the ground?”

Obadiah 1:4 Though you soar aloft like the eagle, though your nest is set among the stars, from there I will bring you down, says the LORD.

Obadiah 1:5 If thieves came to you, if plunderers by night— how you have been destroyed!— would they not steal only what they wanted? If grape-gatherers came to you, would they not leave gleanings?

Obadiah 1:6 How Esau has been pillaged, his treasures searched out!

Obadiah 1:7 All your allies have deceived you, they have driven you to the border; your confederates have prevailed against you; those who ate your bread have set a trap for you— there is no understanding of it.

Obadiah 1:8 On that day, says the LORD, I will destroy the wise out of Edom, and understanding out of Mount Esau.

Obadiah 1:9 Your warriors shall be shattered, O Teman, so that everyone from Mount Esau will be cut off.

Obadiah 1:10 For the slaughter and violence done to your brother Jacob, shame shall cover you, and you shall be cut off forever.

Obadiah 1:11 On the day that you stood aside, on the day that strangers carried off his wealth, and foreigners entered his gates and cast lots for Jerusalem, you too were like one of them.

Obadiah 1:12 But you should not have gloated over your brother on the day of his misfortune; you should not have rejoiced over the people of Judah on the day of their ruin; you should not have boasted on the day of distress.

Obadiah 1:13 You should not have entered the gate of my people on the day of their calamity; you should not have joined in the gloating over Judah’s disaster on the day of his calamity; you should not have looted his goods on the day of his calamity.

Obadiah 1:14 You should not have stood at the crossings to cut off his fugitives; you should not have handed over his survivors on the day of distress.

Obadiah 1:15 For the day of the LORD is near against all the nations. As you have done, it shall be done to you; your deeds shall return on your own head.

Obadiah 1:16 For as you have drunk on my holy mountain, all the nations around you shall drink; they shall drink and gulp down, and shall be as though they had never been.

Obadiah 1:17 But on Mount Zion there shall be those that escape, and it shall be holy; and the house of Jacob shall take possession of those who dispossessed them.

Obadiah 1:18 The house of Jacob shall be a fire, the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau stubble; they shall burn them and consume them, and there shall be no survivor of the house of Esau; for the LORD has spoken.

Obadiah 1:19 Those of the Negeb shall possess Mount Esau, and those of the Shephelah the land of the Philistines; they shall possess the land of Ephraim and the land of Samaria, and Benjamin shall possess Gilead.

Obadiah 1:20 The exiles of the Israelites who are in Halah shall possess Phoenicia as far as Zarephath; and the exiles of Jerusalem who are in Sepharad shall possess the towns of the Negeb.

Obadiah 1:21 Those who have been saved shall go up to Mount Zion to rule Mount Esau; and the kingdom shall be the LORD’s.

Jonah

1:1 Now the word of the LORD came to Jonah son of Amittai, saying,

Jonah 1:2 “Go at once to Nineveh, that great city, and cry out against it; for their wickedness has come up before me.”

Jonah 1:3 But Jonah set out to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. He went down to Joppa and found a ship going to Tarshish; so he paid his fare and went on board, to go with them to Tarshish, away from the presence of the LORD.

Jonah 1:4 But the LORD hurled a great wind upon the sea, and such a mighty storm came upon the sea that the ship threatened to break up.

Jonah 1:5 Then the mariners were afraid, and each cried to his god. They threw the cargo that was in the ship into the sea, to lighten it for them. Jonah, meanwhile, had gone down into the hold of the ship and had lain down, and was fast asleep.

Jonah 1:6 The captain came and said to him, “What are you doing sound asleep? Get up, call on your god! Perhaps the god will spare us a thought so that we do not perish.”

Jonah 1:7 The sailors said to one another, “Come, let us cast lots, so that we may know on whose account this calamity has come upon us.” So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah.

Jonah 1:8 Then they said to him, “Tell us why this calamity has come upon us. What is your occupation? Where do you come from? What is your country? And of what people are you?”

Jonah 1:9 “I am a Hebrew,” he replied. “I worship the LORD, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land.”

Jonah 1:10 Then the men were even more afraid, and said to him, “What is this that you have done!” For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them so.

Jonah 1:11 Then they said to him, “What shall we do to you, that the sea may quiet down for us?” For the sea was growing more and more tempestuous.

Jonah 1:12 He said to them, “Pick me up and throw me into the sea; then the sea will quiet down for you; for I know it is because of me that this great storm has come upon you.”

Jonah 1:13 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to bring the ship back to land, but they could not, for the sea grew more and more stormy against them.

Jonah 1:14 Then they cried out to the LORD, “Please, O LORD, we pray, do not let us perish on account of this man’s life. Do not make us guilty of innocent blood; for you, O LORD, have done as it pleased you.”

Jonah 1:15 So they picked Jonah up and threw him into the sea; and the sea ceased from its raging.

Jonah 1:16 Then the men feared the LORD even more, and they offered a sacrifice to the LORD and made vows.

Jonah 1:17 But the LORD provided a large fish to swallow up Jonah; and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

Jonah 2:1 Then Jonah prayed to the LORD his God from the belly of the fish, Jonah 2:2 saying, “I called to the LORD out of my distress, and he answered me; out of the belly of Sheol I cried, and you heard my voice.

Jonah 2:3 You cast me into the deep, into the heart of the seas, and the flood surrounded me; all your waves and your billows passed over me.

Jonah 2:4 Then I said, ‘I am driven away from your sight; how shall I look again upon your holy temple?’

Jonah 2:5 The waters closed in over me; the deep surrounded me; weeds were wrapped around my head

Jonah 2:6 at the roots of the mountains. I went down to the land whose bars closed upon me forever; yet you brought up my life from the Pit, O LORD my God.

Jonah 2:7 As my life was ebbing away, I remembered the LORD; and my prayer came to you, into your holy temple.

Jonah 2:8 Those who worship vain idols forsake their true loyalty.

Jonah 2:9 But I with the voice of thanksgiving will sacrifice to you; what I have vowed I will pay. Deliverance belongs to the LORD!"

Jonah 2:10 Then the LORD spoke to the fish, and it spewed Jonah out upon the dry land.

Jonah 3:1 The word of the LORD came to Jonah a second time, saying,

Jonah 3:2 "Get up, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I tell you."

Jonah 3:3 So Jonah set out and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly large city, a three days' walk across.

Jonah 3:4 Jonah began to go into the city, going a day's walk. And he cried out, "Forty days more, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!"

Jonah 3:5 And the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast, and everyone, great and small, put on sackcloth.

Jonah 3:6 When the news reached the king of Nineveh, he rose from his throne, removed his robe, covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes.

Jonah 3:7 Then he had a proclamation made in Nineveh: "By the decree of the king and his nobles: No human being or animal, no herd or flock, shall taste anything. They shall not feed, nor shall they drink water.

Jonah 3:8 Human beings and animals shall be covered with sackcloth, and they shall cry mightily to God. All shall turn from their evil ways and from the violence that is in their hands.

Jonah 3:9 Who knows? God may relent and change his mind; he may turn from his fierce anger, so that we do not perish."

Jonah 3:10 When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them; and he did not do it.

Jonah 4:1 But this was very displeasing to Jonah, and he became angry.

Jonah 4:2 He prayed to the LORD and said, "O LORD! Is not this what I said while I was still in my own country? That is why I fled to Tarshish at the beginning; for I knew that you are a gracious God and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, and ready to relent from punishing.

Jonah 4:3 And now, O LORD, please take my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live."

Jonah 4:4 And the LORD said, "Is it right for you to be angry?"

Jonah 4:5 Then Jonah went out of the city and sat down east of the city, and made a booth for himself there. He sat under it in the shade, waiting to see what would become of the city.

Jonah 4:6 The LORD God appointed a bush, and made it come up over Jonah, to give shade over his head, to save him from his discomfort; so Jonah was very happy about the bush.

Jonah 4:7 But when dawn came up the next day, God appointed a worm that attacked the bush, so that it withered.

Jonah 4:8 When the sun rose, God prepared a sultry east wind, and the sun beat down on the head of Jonah so that he was faint and asked that he might die. He said, "It is better for me to die than to live."

Jonah 4:9 But God said to Jonah, "Is it right for you to be angry about the bush?" And he said, "Yes, angry enough to die."

Jonah 4:10 Then the LORD said, "You are concerned about the bush, for which you did not labor and which you did not grow; it came into being in a night and perished in a night.

Jonah 4:11 And should I not be concerned about Nineveh, that great city, in which there are more than a hundred and twenty thousand persons who do not know their right hand from their left, and also many animals?"

Micah

1:1 The word of the LORD that came toMicah of Moresheth in the days of Kings Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

Micah 1:2 Hear, you peoples, all of you; listen, O earth, and all that is in it; and let the Lord GOD be a witness against you, the Lord from his holy temple.

Micah 1:3 For lo, the LORD is coming out of his place, and will come down and tread upon the high places of the earth.

Micah 1:4 Then the mountains will melt under him and the valleys will burst open, like wax near the fire, like waters poured down a steep place.

Micah 1:5 All this is for the transgression of Jacob and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? Is it not Samaria? And what is the high place of Judah? Is it not Jerusalem?

Micah 1:6 Therefore I will make Samaria a heap in the open country, a place for planting vineyards. I will pour down her stones into the valley, and uncover her foundations.

Micah 1:7 All her images shall be beaten to pieces, all her wages shall be burned with fire, and all her idols I will lay waste; for as the wages of a prostitute she gathered them, and as the wages of a prostitute they shall again be used.

Micah 1:8 For this I will lament and wail; I will go barefoot and naked; I will make lamentation like the jackals, and mourning like the ostriches.

Micah 1:9 For her wound is incurable. It has come to Judah; it has reached to the gate of my people, to Jerusalem.

Micah 1:10 Tell it not in Gath, weep not at all; in Beth-leaphrah roll yourselves in the dust.

Micah 1:11 Pass on your way, inhabitants of Shaphir, in nakedness and shame; the inhabitants of Zaanan do not come forth; Beth-ezel is wailing and shall remove its support from you.

Micah 1:12 For the inhabitants of Maroth wait anxiously for good, yet disaster has come down from the LORD to the gate of Jerusalem.

Micah 1:13 Harness the steeds to the chariots, inhabitants of Lachish; it was the beginning of sin to daughter Zion, for in you were found the transgressions of Israel.

Micah 1:14 Therefore you shall give parting gifts to Moresheth-gath; the houses of Achzib shall be a deception to the kings of Israel.

Micah 1:15 I will again bring a conqueror upon you, inhabitants of Mareshah; the glory of Israel shall come to Adullam.

Micah 1:16 Make yourselves bald and cut off your hair for your pampered children; make yourselves as bald as the eagle, for they have gone from you into exile.

Micah 2:1 Alas for those who devise wickedness and evil deeds on their beds! When the morning dawns, they perform it, because it is in their power.

Micah 2:2 They covet fields, and seize them; houses, and take them away; they oppress householder and house, people and their inheritance.

Micah 2:3 Therefore thus says the LORD: Now, I am devising against this family an evil from which you cannot remove your necks; and you shall not walk haughtily, for it will be an evil time.

Micah 2:4 On that day they shall take up a taunt song against you, and wail with bitter lamentation, and say, “We are utterly ruined; the LORD alters the inheritance of my people; how he removes it from me! Among our captors he parcels out our fields.”

Micah 2:5 Therefore you will have no one to cast the line by lot in the assembly of the LORD.

Micah 2:6 “Do not preach”— thus they preach— “one should not preach of such things; disgrace will not overtake us.”

Micah 2:7 Should this be said, O house of Jacob? Is the LORD’s patience exhausted? Are these his doings? Do not my words do good to one who walks uprightly?

Micah 2:8 But you rise up against my people as an enemy; you strip the robe from the peaceful, from those who pass by trustingly with no thought of war.

Micah 2:9 The women of my people you drive out from their pleasant houses; from their young children you take away my glory forever.

Micah 2:10 Arise and go; for this is no place to rest, because of uncleanness that destroys with a grievous destruction.

Micah 2:11 If someone were to go about uttering empty falsehoods, saying, “I will preach to you of wine and strong drink,” such a one would be the preacher for this people!

Micah 2:12 I will surely gather all of you, O Jacob, I will gather the survivors of Israel; I will set them together like sheep in a fold, like a flock in its pasture; it will resound with people.

Micah 2:13 The one who breaks out will go up before them; they will break through and pass the gate, going out by it. Their king will pass on before them, the LORD at their head.

Micah 3:1 And I said: Listen, you heads of Jacob and rulers of the house of Israel! Should you not know justice?—

Micah 3:2 you who hate the good and love the evil, who tear the skin off my people, and the flesh off their bones;

Micah 3:3 who eat the flesh of my people, flay their skin off them, break their bones in pieces, and chop them up like meat in a kettle, like flesh in a caldron.

Micah 3:4 Then they will cry to the LORD, but he will not answer them; he will hide his face from them at that time, because they have acted wickedly.

Micah 3:5 Thus says the LORD concerning the prophets who lead my people astray, who cry “Peace” when they have something to eat, but declare war against those who put nothing into their mouths.

Micah 3:6 Therefore it shall be night to you, without vision, and darkness to you, without revelation. The sun shall go down upon the prophets, and the day shall be black over them;

Micah 3:7 the seers shall be disgraced, and the diviners put to shame; they shall all cover their lips, for there is no answer from God.

Micah 3:8 But as for me, I am filled with power, with the spirit of the LORD, and with justice and might, to declare to Jacob his transgression and to Israel his sin.

Micah 3:9 Hear this, you rulers of the house of Jacob and chiefs of the house of Israel, who abhor justice and pervert all equity,

Micah 3:10 who build Zion with blood and Jerusalem with wrong!

Micah 3:11 Its rulers give judgment for a bribe, its priests teach for a price, its prophets give oracles for money; yet they lean upon the LORD and say, "Surely the LORD is with us! No harm shall come upon us."

Micah 3:12 Therefore because of you Zion shall be plowed as a field; Jerusalem shall become a heap of ruins, and the mountain of the house a wooded height.

Micah 4:1 In days to come the mountain of the LORD's house shall be established as the highest of the mountains, and shall be raised up above the hills. Peoples shall stream to it,

Micah 4:2 and many nations shall come and say: "Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; that he may teach us his ways and that we may walk in his paths." For out of Zion shall go forth instruction, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

Micah 4:3 He shall judge between many peoples, and shall arbitrate between strong nations far away; they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more;

Micah 4:4 but they shall all sit under their own vines and under their own fig trees, and no one shall make them afraid; for the mouth of the LORD of hosts has spoken.

Micah 4:5 For all the peoples walk, each in the name of its god, but we will walk in the name of the LORD our God forever and ever.

Micah 4:6 In that day, says the LORD, I will assemble the lame and gather those who have been driven away, and those whom I have afflicted.

Micah 4:7 The lame I will make the remnant, and those who were cast off, a strong nation; and the LORD will reign over them in Mount Zion now and forevermore.

Micah 4:8 And you, O tower of the flock, hill of daughter Zion, to you it shall come, the former dominion shall come, the sovereignty of daughter Jerusalem.

Micah 4:9 Now why do you cry aloud? Is there no king in you? Has your counselor perished, that pangs have seized you like a woman in labor?

Micah 4:10 Writhe and groan, O daughter Zion, like a woman in labor; for now you shall go forth from the city and camp in the open country; you shall go to Babylon. There you shall be rescued, there the LORD will redeem you from the hands of your enemies.

Micah 4:11 Now many nations are assembled against you, saying, “Let her be profaned, and let our eyes gaze upon Zion.”

Micah 4:12 But they do not know the thoughts of the LORD; they do not understand his plan, that he has gathered them as sheaves to the threshing floor.

Micah 4:13 Arise and thresh, O daughter Zion, for I will make your horn iron and your hoofs bronze; you shall beat in pieces many peoples, and shall devote their gain to the LORD, their wealth to the Lord of the whole earth.

Micah 5:1 Now you are walled around with a wall; siege is laid against us; with a rod they strike the ruler of Israel upon the cheek.

Micah 5:2 But you, O Bethlehem of Ephrathah, who are one of the little clans of Judah, from you shall come forth for me one who is to rule in Israel, whose origin is from of old, from ancient days.

Micah 5:3 Therefore he shall give them up until the time when she who is in labor has brought forth; then the rest of his kindred shall return to the people of Israel.

Micah 5:4 And he shall stand and feed his flock in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God. And they shall live secure, for now he shall be great to the ends of the earth;

Micah 5:5 and he shall be the one of peace. If the Assyrians come into our land and tread upon our soil, we will raise against them seven shepherds and eight installed as rulers.

Micah 5:6 They shall rule the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod with the drawn sword; they shall rescue us from the Assyrians if they come into our land or tread within our border.

Micah 5:7 Then the remnant of Jacob, surrounded by many peoples, shall be like dew from the LORD, like showers on the grass, which do not depend upon people or wait for any mortal.

Micah 5:8 And among the nations the remnant of Jacob, surrounded by many peoples, shall be like a lion among the animals of the forest, like a young lion among the flocks of sheep, which, when it goes through, treads down and tears in pieces, with no one to deliver.

Micah 5:9 Your hand shall be lifted up over your adversaries, and all your enemies shall be cut off.

Micah 5:10 In that day, says the LORD, I will cut off your horses from among you and will destroy your chariots;

Micah 5:11 and I will cut off the cities of your land and throw down all your strongholds;

Micah 5:12 and I will cut off sorceries from your hand, and you shall have no more soothsayers;

Micah 5:13 and I will cut off your images and your pillars from among you, and you shall bow down no more to the work of your hands;

Micah 5:14 and I will uproot your sacred poles from among you and destroy your towns.

Micah 5:15 And in anger and wrath I will execute vengeance on the nations that did not obey.

Micah 6:1 Hear what the LORD says: Rise, plead your case before the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice.

Micah 6:2 Hear, you mountains, the controversy of the LORD, and you enduring foundations of the earth; for the LORD has a controversy with his people, and he will contend with Israel.

Micah 6:3 "O my people, what have I done to you? In what have I wearied you? Answer me!

Micah 6:4 For I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and redeemed you from the house of slavery; and I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

Micah 6:5 O my people, remember now what King Balak of Moab devised, what Balaam son of Beor answered him, and what happened from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the saving acts of the LORD."

Micah 6:6 "With what shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before God on high? Shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old?

Micah 6:7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, with ten thousands of rivers of oil? Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?"

Micah 6:8 He has told you, O mortal, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?

Micah 6:9 The voice of the LORD cries to the city (it is sound wisdom to fear your name): Hear, O tribe and assembly of the city!

Micah 6:10 Can I forget the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is accursed?

Micah 6:11 Can I tolerate wicked scales and a bag of dishonest weights?

Micah 6:12 Your wealthy are full of violence; your inhabitants speak lies, with tongues of deceit in their mouths.

Micah 6:13 Therefore I have begun to strike you down, making you desolate because of your sins.

Micah 6:14 You shall eat, but not be satisfied, and there shall be a gnawing hunger within you; you shall put away, but not save, and what you save, I will hand over to the sword.

Micah 6:15 You shall sow, but not reap; you shall tread olives, but not anoint yourselves with oil; you shall tread grapes, but not drink wine.

Micah 6:16 For you have kept the statutes of Omri and all the works of the house of Ahab, and you have followed their counsels. Therefore I will make you a desolation, and your inhabitants an object of hissing; so you shall bear the scorn of my people.

Micah 7:1 Woe is me! For I have become like one who, after the summer fruit has been gathered, after the vintage has been gleaned, finds no cluster to eat; there is no first-ripe fig for which I hunger.

Micah 7:2 The faithful have disappeared from the land, and there is no one left who is upright; they all lie in wait for blood, and they hunt each other with nets.

Micah 7:3 Their hands are skilled to do evil; the official and the judge ask for a bribe, and the powerful dictate what they desire; thus they pervert justice.

Micah 7:4 The best of them is like a brier, the most upright of them a thorn hedge. The day of their sentinels, of their punishment, has come; now their confusion is at hand.

Micah 7:5 Put no trust in a friend, have no confidence in a loved one; guard the doors of your mouth from her who lies in your embrace;

Micah 7:6 for the son treats the father with contempt, the daughter rises up against her mother, the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; your enemies are members of your own household.

Micah 7:7 But as for me, I will look to the LORD, I will wait for the God of my salvation; my God will hear me.

Micah 7:8 Do not rejoice over me, O my enemy; when I fall, I shall rise; when I sit in darkness, the LORD will be a light to me.

Micah 7:9 I must bear the indignation of the LORD, because I have sinned against him, until he takes my side and executes judgment for me. He will bring me out to the light; I shall see his vindication.

Micah 7:10 Then my enemy will see, and shame will cover her who said to me, “Where is the LORD your God?” My eyes will see her downfall; now she will be trodden down like the mire of the streets.

Micah 7:11 A day for the building of your walls! In that day the boundary shall be far extended.

Micah 7:12 In that day they will come to you from Assyria to Egypt, and from Egypt to the River, from sea to sea and from mountain to mountain.

Micah 7:13 But the earth will be desolate because of its inhabitants, for the fruit of their doings.

Micah 7:14 Shepherd your people with your staff, the flock that belongs to you, which lives alone in a forest in the midst of a garden land; let them feed in Bashan and Gilead as in the days of old.

Micah 7:15 As in the days when you came out of the land of Egypt, show us marvelous things.

Micah 7:16 The nations shall see and be ashamed of all their might; they shall lay their hands on their mouths; their ears shall be deaf;

Micah 7:17 they shall lick dust like a snake, like the crawling things of the earth; they shall come trembling out of their fortresses; they shall turn in dread to the LORD our God, and they shall stand in fear of you.

Micah 7:18 Who is a God like you, pardoning iniquity and passing over the transgression of the remnant of your possession? He does not retain his anger forever, because he delights in showing clemency.

Micah 7:19 He will again have compassion upon us; he will tread our iniquities under foot. You will cast all our sins into the depths of the sea.

Micah 7:20 You will show faithfulness to Jacob and unswerving loyalty to Abraham, as you have sworn to our ancestors from the days of old.

Nahum

1:1 An oracle concerning Nineveh. The book of the vision ofNahum of Elkosh.

Nahum 1:2 A jealous and avenging God is the LORD, the LORD is avenging and wrathful; the LORD takes vengeance on his adversaries and rages against his enemies.

Nahum 1:3 The LORD is slow to anger but great in power, and the LORD will by no means clear the guilty. His way is in whirlwind and storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

Nahum 1:4 He rebukes the sea and makes it dry, and he dries up all the rivers; Bashan and Carmel wither, and the bloom of Lebanon fades.

Nahum 1:5 The mountains quake before him, and the hills melt; the earth heaves before him, the world and all who live in it.

Nahum 1:6 Who can stand before his indignation? Who can endure the heat of his anger? His wrath is poured out like fire, and by him the rocks are broken in pieces.

Nahum 1:7 The LORD is good, a stronghold in a day of trouble; he protects those who take refuge in him,

Nahum 1:8 even in a rushing flood. He will make a full end of his adversaries, and will pursue his enemies into darkness.

Nahum 1:9 Why do you plot against the LORD? He will make an end; no adversary will rise up twice.

Nahum 1:10 Like thorns they are entangled, like drunkards they are drunk; they are consumed like dry straw.

Nahum 1:11 From you one has gone out who plots evil against the LORD, one who counsels wickedness.

Nahum 1:12 Thus says the LORD, “Though they are at full strength and many, they will be cut off and pass away. Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more.

Nahum 1:13 And now I will break off his yoke from you and snap the bonds that bind you.”

Nahum 1:14 The LORD has commanded concerning you: “Your name shall be perpetuated no longer; from the house of your gods I will cut off the carved image and the cast image. I will make your grave, for you are worthless.”

Nahum 1:15 Look! On the mountains the feet of one who brings good tidings, who proclaims peace! Celebrate your festivals, O Judah, fulfill your vows, for never again shall the wicked invade you; they are utterly cut off.

Nahum 2:1 A shatterer has come up against you. Guard the ramparts; watch the road; gird your loins; collect all your strength.

Nahum 2:2 (For the LORD is restoring the majesty of Jacob, as well as the majesty of Israel, though ravagers have ravaged them and ruined their branches.)

Nahum 2:3 The shields of his warriors are red; his soldiers are clothed in crimson. The metal on the chariots flashes on the day when he musters them; the chargers prance.

Nahum 2:4 The chariots race madly through the streets, they rush to and fro through the squares; their appearance is like torches, they dart like lightning.

Nahum 2:5 He calls his officers; they stumble as they come forward; they hasten to the wall, and the mantelet is set up.

Nahum 2:6 The river gates are opened, the palace trembles.

Nahum 2:7 It is decreed that the city be exiled, its slave women led away, moaning like doves and beating their breasts.

Nahum 2:8 Nineveh is like a pool whose waters run away. “Halt! Halt!”— but no one turns back.

Nahum 2:9 “Plunder the silver, plunder the gold! There is no end of treasure! An abundance of every precious thing!”

Nahum 2:10 Devastation, desolation, and destruction! Hearts faint and knees tremble, all loins quake, all faces grow pale!

Nahum 2:11 What became of the lions' den, the cave of the young lions, where the lion goes, and the lion's cubs, with no one to disturb them?

Nahum 2:12 The lion has torn enough for his whelps and strangled prey for his lionesses; he has filled his caves with prey and his dens with torn flesh.

Nahum 2:13 See, I am against you, says the LORD of hosts, and I will burn your chariots in smoke, and the sword shall devour your young lions; I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your messengers shall be heard no more.

Nahum 3:1 Ah! City of bloodshed, utterly deceitful, full of booty— no end to the plunder!

Nahum 3:2 The crack of whip and rumble of wheel, galloping horse and bounding chariot!

Nahum 3:3 Horsemen charging, flashing sword and glittering spear, piles of dead, heaps of corpses, dead bodies without end— they stumble over the bodies!

Nahum 3:4 Because of the countless debaucheries of the prostitute, gracefully alluring, mistress of sorcery, who enslaves nations through her debaucheries, and peoples through her sorcery,

Nahum 3:5 I am against you, says the LORD of hosts, and will lift up your skirts over your face; and I will let nations look on your nakedness and kingdoms on your shame.

Nahum 3:6 I will throw filth at you and treat you with contempt, and make you a spectacle.

Nahum 3:7 Then all who see you will shrink from you and say, "Nineveh is devastated; who will bemoan her?" Where shall I seek comforters for you?

Nahum 3:8 Are you better than Thebes that sat by the Nile, with water around her, her rampart a sea, water her wall?

Nahum 3:9 Ethiopia was her strength, Egypt too, and that without limit; Put and the Libyans were her helpers.

Nahum 3:10 Yet she became an exile, she went into captivity; even her infants were dashed in pieces at the head of every street; lots were cast for her nobles, all her dignitaries were bound in fetters.

Nahum 3:11 You also will be drunken, you will go into hiding; you will seek a refuge from the enemy.

Nahum 3:12 All your fortresses are like fig trees with first-ripe figs— if shaken they fall into the mouth of the eater.

Nahum 3:13 Look at your troops: they are women in your midst. The gates of your land are wide open to your foes; fire has devoured the bars of your gates.

Nahum 3:14 Draw water for the siege, strengthen your forts; trample the clay, tread the mortar, take hold of the brick mold!

Nahum 3:15 There the fire will devour you, the sword will cut you off. It will devour you like the locust. Multiply yourselves like the locust, multiply like the grasshopper!

Nahum 3:16 You increased your merchants more than the stars of the heavens. The locust sheds its skin and flies away.

Nahum 3:17 Your guards are like grasshoppers, your scribes like swarms of locusts settling on the fences on a cold day— when the sun rises, they fly away; no one knows where they have gone.

Nahum 3:18 Your shepherds are asleep, O king of Assyria; your nobles slumber. Your people are scattered on the mountains with no one to gather them.

Nahum 3:19 There is no assuaging your hurt, your wound is mortal. All who hear the news about you clap their hands over you. For who has ever escaped your endless cruelty?

Habakkuk

1:1 The oracle that the prophetHabakkuk saw.

Habakkuk 1:2 O LORD, how long shall I cry for help, and you will not listen? Or cry to you “Violence!” and you will not save?

Habakkuk 1:3 Why do you make me see wrongdoing and look at trouble? Destruction and violence are before me; strife and contention arise.

Habakkuk 1:4 So the law becomes slack and justice never prevails. The wicked surround the righteous— therefore judgment comes forth perverted.

Habakkuk 1:5 Look at the nations, and see! Be astonished! Be astounded! For a work is being done in your days that you would not believe if you were told.

Habakkuk 1:6 For I am rousing the Chaldeans, that fierce and impetuous nation, who march through the breadth of the earth to seize dwellings not their own.

Habakkuk 1:7 Dread and fearsome are they; their justice and dignity proceed from themselves.

Habakkuk 1:8 Their horses are swifter than leopards, more menacing than wolves at dusk; their horses charge. Their horsemen come from far away; they fly like an eagle swift to devour.

Habakkuk 1:9 They all come for violence, with faces pressing forward; they gather captives like sand.

Habakkuk 1:10 At kings they scoff, and of rulers they make sport. They laugh at every fortress, and heap up earth to take it.

Habakkuk 1:11 Then they sweep by like the wind; they transgress and become guilty; their own might is their god!

Habakkuk 1:12 Are you not from of old, O LORD my God, my Holy One? You shall not die. O LORD, you have marked them for judgment; and you, O Rock, have established them for punishment.

Habakkuk 1:13 Your eyes are too pure to behold evil, and you cannot look on wrongdoing; why do you look on the treacherous, and are silent when the wicked swallow those more righteous than they?

Habakkuk 1:14 You have made people like the fish of the sea, like crawling things that have no ruler.

Habakkuk 1:15 The enemy brings all of them up with a hook; he drags them out with his net, he gathers them in his seine; so he rejoices and exults.

Habakkuk 1:16 Therefore he sacrifices to his net and makes offerings to his seine; for by them his portion is lavish, and his food is rich.

Habakkuk 1:17 Is he then to keep on emptying his net, and destroying nations without mercy?

Habakkuk 2:1 I will stand at my watchpost, and station myself on the rampart; I will keep watch to see what he will say to me, and what he will answer concerning my complaint.

Habakkuk 2:2 Then the LORD answered me and said: Write the vision; make it plain on tablets, so that a runner may read it.

Habakkuk 2:3 For there is still a vision for the appointed time; it speaks of the end, and does not lie. If it seems to tarry, wait for it; it will surely come, it will not delay.

Habakkuk 2:4 Look at the proud! Their spirit is not right in them, but the righteous live by their faith.

Habakkuk 2:5 Moreover, wealth is treacherous; the arrogant do not endure. They open their throats wide as Sheol; like Death they never have enough. They gather all nations for themselves, and collect all peoples as their own.

Habakkuk 2:6 Shall not everyone taunt such people and, with mocking riddles, say about them, “Alas for you who heap up what is not your own!” How long will you load yourselves with goods taken in pledge?

Habakkuk 2:7 Will not your own creditors suddenly rise, and those who make you tremble wake up? Then you will be booty for them.

Habakkuk 2:8 Because you have plundered many nations, all that survive of the peoples shall plunder you— because of human bloodshed, and violence to the earth, to cities and all who live in them.

Habakkuk 2:9 “Alas for you who get evil gain for your houses, setting your nest on high to be safe from the reach of harm!”

Habakkuk 2:10 You have devised shame for your house by cutting off many peoples; you have forfeited your life.

Habakkuk 2:11 The very stones will cry out from the wall, and the plaster will respond from the woodwork.

Habakkuk 2:12 “Alas for you who build a town by bloodshed, and found a city on iniquity!”

Habakkuk 2:13 Is it not from the LORD of hosts that peoples labor only to feed the flames, and nations weary themselves for nothing?

Habakkuk 2:14 But the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

Habakkuk 2:15 “Alas for you who make your neighbors drink, pouring out your wrath until they are drunk, in order to gaze on their nakedness!”

Habakkuk 2:16 You will be sated with contempt instead of glory. Drink, you yourself, and stagger! The cup in the LORD’s right hand will come around to you, and shame will come upon your glory!

Habakkuk 2:17 For the violence done to Lebanon will overwhelm you; the destruction of the animals will terrify you— because of human bloodshed and violence to the earth, to cities and all who live in them.

Habakkuk 2:18 What use is an idol once its maker has shaped it— a cast image, a teacher of lies? For its maker trusts in what has been made, though the product is only an idol that cannot speak!

Habakkuk 2:19 Alas for you who say to the wood, “Wake up!” to silent stone, “Rouse yourself!” Can it teach? See, it is gold and silver plated, and there is no breath in it at all.

Habakkuk 2:20 But the LORD is in his holy temple; let all the earth keep silence before him!

Habakkuk 3:1 A prayer of the prophet Habakkuk according to Shigionoth.

Habakkuk 3:2 O LORD, I have heard of your renown, and I stand in awe, O LORD, of your work. In our own time revive it; in our own time make it known; in wrath may you remember mercy.

Habakkuk 3:3 God came from Teman, the Holy One from Mount Paran. Selah His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise.

Habakkuk 3:4 The brightness was like the sun; rays came forth from his hand, where his power lay hidden.

Habakkuk 3:5 Before him went pestilence, and plague followed close behind.

Habakkuk 3:6 He stopped and shook the earth; he looked and made the nations tremble. The eternal mountains were shattered; along his ancient pathways the everlasting hills sank low.

Habakkuk 3:7 I saw the tents of Cushan under affliction; the tent-curtains of the land of Midian trembled.

Habakkuk 3:8 Was your wrath against the rivers, O LORD? Or your anger against the rivers, or your rage against the sea, when you drove your horses, your chariots to victory?

Habakkuk 3:9 You brandished your naked bow, sated were the arrows at your command. Selah You split the earth with rivers.

Habakkuk 3:10 The mountains saw you, and writhed; a torrent of water swept by; the deep gave forth its voice. The sun raised high its hands;

Habakkuk 3:11 the moon stood still in its exalted place, at the light of your arrows speeding by, at the gleam of your flashing spear.

Habakkuk 3:12 In fury you trod the earth, in anger you trampled nations.

Habakkuk 3:13 You came forth to save your people, to save your anointed. You crushed the head of the wicked house, laying it bare from foundation to roof. Selah

Habakkuk 3:14 You pierced with their own arrows the head of his warriors, who came like a whirlwind to scatter us, gloating as if ready to devour the poor who were in hiding.

Habakkuk 3:15 You trampled the sea with your horses, churning the mighty waters.

Habakkuk 3:16 I hear, and I tremble within; my lips quiver at the sound. Rottenness enters into my bones, and my steps tremble beneath me. I wait quietly for the day of calamity to come upon the people who attack us.

Habakkuk 3:17 Though the fig tree does not blossom, and no fruit is on the vines; though the produce of the olive fails, and the fields yield no food; though the flock is cut off from the fold, and there is no herd in the stalls,

Habakkuk 3:18 yet I will rejoice in the LORD; I will exult in the God of my salvation.

Habakkuk 3:19 GOD, the Lord, is my strength; he makes my feet like the feet of a deer, and makes me tread upon the heights. To the leader: with stringed instruments.

Zephaniah

1:1 The word of the LORD that came toZephaniah son of Cushi son of Gedaliah son of Amariah son of Hezekiah, in the days of King Josiah son of Amon of Judah.

Zephaniah 1:2 I will utterly sweep away everything from the face of the earth, says the LORD.

Zephaniah 1:3 I will sweep away humans and animals; I will sweep away the birds of the air and the fish of the sea. I will make the wicked stumble. I will cut off humanity from the face of the earth, says the LORD.

Zephaniah 1:4 I will stretch out my hand against Judah, and against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and I will cut off from this place every remnant of Baal and the name of the idolatrous priests;

Zephaniah 1:5 those who bow down on the roofs to the host of the heavens; those who bow down and swear to the LORD, but also swear by Milcom;

Zephaniah 1:6 those who have turned back from following the LORD, who have not sought the LORD or inquired of him.

Zephaniah 1:7 Be silent before the Lord GOD! For the day of the LORD is at hand; the LORD has prepared a sacrifice, he has consecrated his guests.

Zephaniah 1:8 And on the day of the LORD's sacrifice I will punish the officials and the king's sons and all who dress themselves in foreign attire.

Zephaniah 1:9 On that day I will punish all who leap over the threshold, who fill their master's house with violence and fraud.

Zephaniah 1:10 On that day, says the LORD, a cry will be heard from the Fish Gate, a wail from the Second Quarter, a loud crash from the hills.

Zephaniah 1:11 The inhabitants of the Mortar wail, for all the traders have perished; all who weigh out silver are cut off.

Zephaniah 1:12 At that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and I will punish the people who rest complacently on their dregs, those who say in their hearts, "The LORD will not do good, nor will he do harm."

Zephaniah 1:13 Their wealth shall be plundered, and their houses laid waste. Though they build houses, they shall not inhabit them; though they plant vineyards, they shall not drink wine from them.

Zephaniah 1:14 The great day of the LORD is near, near and hastening fast; the sound of the day of the LORD is bitter, the warrior cries aloud there.

Zephaniah 1:15 That day will be a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of ruin and devastation, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness,

Zephaniah 1:16 a day of trumpet blast and battle cry against the fortified cities and against the lofty battlements.

Zephaniah 1:17 I will bring such distress upon people that they shall walk like the blind; because they have sinned against the LORD, their blood shall be poured out like dust, and their flesh like dung.

Zephaniah 1:18 Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to save them on the day of the LORD's wrath; in the fire of his passion the whole earth shall be consumed; for a full, a terrible end he will make of all the inhabitants of the earth.

Zephaniah 2:1 Gather together, gather, O shameless nation,

Zephaniah 2:2 before you are driven away like the drifting chaff, before there comes upon you the fierce anger of the LORD, before there comes upon you the day of the LORD's wrath.

Zephaniah 2:3 Seek the LORD, all you humble of the land, who do his commands; seek righteousness, seek humility; perhaps you may be hidden on the day of the LORD's wrath.

Zephaniah 2:4 For Gaza shall be deserted, and Ashkelon shall become a desolation; Ashdod's people shall be driven out at noon, and Ekron shall be uprooted.

Zephaniah 2:5 Ah, inhabitants of the seacoast, you nation of the Cherethites! The word of the LORD is against you, O Canaan, land of the Philistines; and I will destroy you until no inhabitant is left.

Zephaniah 2:6 And you, O seacoast, shall be pastures, meadows for shepherds and folds for flocks.

Zephaniah 2:7 The seacoast shall become the possession of the remnant of the house of Judah, on which they shall pasture, and in the houses of Ashkelon they shall lie down at evening. For the LORD their God will be mindful of them and restore their fortunes.

Zephaniah 2:8 I have heard the taunts of Moab and the revilings of the Ammonites, how they have taunted my people and made boasts against their territory.

Zephaniah 2:9 Therefore, as I live, says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Moab shall become like Sodom and the Ammonites like Gomorrah, a land possessed by nettles and salt pits, and a waste forever. The remnant of my people shall plunder them, and the survivors of my nation shall possess them.

Zephaniah 2:10 This shall be their lot in return for their pride, because they scoffed and boasted against the people of the LORD of hosts.

Zephaniah 2:11 The LORD will be terrible against them; he will shrivel all the gods of the earth, and to him shall bow down, each in its place, all the coasts and islands of the nations.

Zephaniah 2:12 You also, O Ethiopians, shall be killed by my sword.

Zephaniah 2:13 And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and destroy Assyria; and he will make Nineveh a desolation, a dry waste like the desert.

Zephaniah 2:14 Herds shall lie down in it, every wild animal; the desert owl and the screech owl shall lodge on its capitals; the owl shall hoot at the window, the raven croak on the threshold; for its cedar work will be laid bare.

Zephaniah 2:15 Is this the exultant city that lived secure, that said to itself, “I am, and there is no one else”? What a desolation it has become, a lair for wild animals! Everyone who passes by it hisses and shakes the fist.

Zephaniah 3:2 It has listened to no voice; it has accepted no correction. It has not trusted in the LORD; it has not drawn near to its God.

Zephaniah 3:3 The officials within it are roaring lions; its judges are evening wolves that leave nothing until the morning.

Zephaniah 3:4 Its prophets are reckless, faithless persons; its priests have profaned what is sacred, they have done violence to the law.

Zephaniah 3:5 The LORD within it is righteous; he does no wrong. Every morning he renders his judgment, each dawn without fail; but the unjust knows no shame.

Zephaniah 3:6 I have cut off nations; their battlements are in ruins; I have laid waste their streets so that no one walks in them; their cities have been made desolate, without people, without inhabitants.

Zephaniah 3:7 I said, “Surely the city will fear me, it will accept correction; it will not lose sight of all that I have brought upon it.” But they were the more eager to make all their deeds corrupt.

Zephaniah 3:8 Therefore wait for me, says the LORD, for the day when I arise as a witness. For my decision is to gather nations, to assemble kingdoms, to pour out upon them my indignation, all the heat of my anger; for in the fire of my passion all the earth shall be consumed.

Zephaniah 3:9 At that time I will change the speech of the peoples to a pure speech, that all of them may call on the name of the LORD and serve him with one accord.

Zephaniah 3:10 From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia my suppliants, my scattered ones, shall bring my offering.

Zephaniah 3:11 On that day you shall not be put to shame because of all the deeds by which you have rebelled against me; for then I will remove from your midst your proudly exultant ones, and you shall no longer be haughty in my holy mountain.

Zephaniah 3:12 For I will leave in the midst of you a people humble and lowly. They shall seek refuge in the name of the LORD—

Zephaniah 3:13 the remnant of Israel; they shall do no wrong and utter no lies, nor shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouths. Then they will pasture and lie down, and no one shall make them afraid.

Zephaniah 3:14 Sing aloud, O daughter Zion; shout, O Israel! Rejoice and exult with all your heart, O daughter Jerusalem!

Zephaniah 3:15 The LORD has taken away the judgments against you, he has turned away your enemies. The king of Israel, the LORD, is in your midst; you shall fear disaster no more.

Zephaniah 3:16 On that day it shall be said to Jerusalem: Do not fear, O Zion; do not let your hands grow weak.

Zephaniah 3:17 The LORD, your God, is in your midst, a warrior who gives victory; he will rejoice over you with gladness, he will renew you in his love; he will exult over you with loud singing

Zephaniah 3:18 as on a day of festival. I will remove disaster from you, so that you will not bear reproach for it.

Zephaniah 3:19 I will deal with all your oppressors at that time. And I will save the lame and gather the outcast, and I will change their shame into praise and renown in all the earth.

Zephaniah 3:20 At that time I will bring you home, at the time when I gather you; for I will make you renowned and praised among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your fortunes before your eyes, says the LORD.

Haggai

1:1 In the second year of King Darius, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came by the prophetHaggai to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and toJoshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest:

Haggai 1:2 Thus says the LORD of hosts: These people say the time has not yet come to rebuild the LORD’s house.

Haggai 1:3 Then the word of the LORD came by the prophet Haggai, saying:

Haggai 1:4 Is it a time for you yourselves to live in your paneled houses, while this house lies in ruins?

Haggai 1:5 Now therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: Consider how you have fared.

Haggai 1:6 You have sown much, and harvested little; you eat, but you never have enough; you drink, but you never have your fill; you clothe yourselves, but no one is warm; and you that earn wages earn wages to put them into a bag with holes.

Haggai 1:7 Thus says the LORD of hosts: Consider how you have fared.

Haggai 1:8 Go up to the hills and bring wood and build the house, so that I may take pleasure in it and be honored, says the LORD.

Haggai 1:9 You have looked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when you brought it home, I blew it away. Why? says the LORD of hosts. Because my house lies in ruins, while all of you hurry off to your own houses.

Haggai 1:10 Therefore the heavens above you have withheld the dew, and the earth has withheld its produce.

Haggai 1:11 And I have called for a drought on the land and the hills, on the grain, the new wine, the oil, on what the soil produces, on human beings and animals, and on all their labors.

Haggai 1:12 Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of the prophet Haggai, as the LORD their God had sent him; and the people feared the LORD.

Haggai 1:13 Then Haggai, the messenger of the LORD, spoke to the people with the LORD’s message, saying, I am with you, says the LORD.

Haggai 1:14 And the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and worked on the house of the LORD of hosts, their God, Haggai 1:15 on the twenty-fourth day of the month, in the sixth month.

Haggai 2:1 In the second year of King Darius, in the seventh month, on the twenty-first day of the month, the word of the LORD came by the prophet Haggai, saying:

Haggai 2:2 Speak now to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, and say, Haggai 2:3 Who is left among you that saw this house in its former glory? How does it look to you now? Is it not in your sight as nothing?

Haggai 2:4 Yet now take courage, O Zerubbabel, says the LORD; take courage, O Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest; take courage, all you people of the land, says the LORD; work, for I am with you, says the LORD of hosts, Haggai 2:5 according to the promise that I made you when you came out of Egypt. My spirit abides among you; do not fear.

Haggai 2:6 For thus says the LORD of hosts: Once again, in a little while, I will shake the heavens and the earth and the sea and the dry land;

Haggai 2:7 and I will shake all the nations, so that the treasure of all nations shall come, and I will fill this house with splendor, says the LORD of hosts.

Haggai 2:8 The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, says the LORD of hosts.

Haggai 2:9 The latter splendor of this house shall be greater than the former, says the LORD of hosts; and in this place I will give prosperity, says the LORD of hosts.

Haggai 2:10 On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came by the prophet Haggai, saying:

Haggai 2:11 Thus says the LORD of hosts: Ask the priests for a ruling:

Haggai 2:12 If one carries consecrated meat in the fold of one's garment, and with the fold touches bread, or stew, or wine, or oil, or any kind of food, does it become holy? The priests answered, "No."

Haggai 2:13 Then Haggai said, "If one who is unclean by contact with a dead body touches any of these, does it become unclean?" The priests answered, "Yes, it becomes unclean."

Haggai 2:14 Haggai then said, So is it with this people, and with this nation before me, says the LORD; and so with every work of their hands; and what they offer there is unclean.

Haggai 2:15 But now, consider what will come to pass from this day on. Before a stone was placed upon a stone in the LORD's temple,

Haggai 2:16 how did you fare? When one came to a heap of twenty measures, there were but ten; when one came to the wine vat to draw fifty measures, there were but twenty.

Haggai 2:17 I struck you and all the products of your toil with blight and mildew and hail; yet you did not return to me, says the LORD.

Haggai 2:18 Consider from this day on, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month. Since the day that the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid, consider:

Haggai 2:19 Is there any seed left in the barn? Do the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree still yield nothing? From this day on I will bless you.

Haggai 2:20 The word of the LORD came a second time to Haggai on the twenty-fourth day of the month:

Haggai 2:21 Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, I am about to shake the heavens and the earth,

Haggai 2:22 and to overthrow the throne of kingdoms; I am about to destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations, and overthrow the chariots and their riders; and the horses and their riders shall fall, every one by the sword of a comrade.

Haggai 2:23 On that day, says the LORD of hosts, I will take you, O Zerubbabel my servant, son of Shealtiel, says the LORD, and make you like a signet ring; for I have chosen you, says the LORD of hosts.

Zecharaih

1:1 In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah son of Berechiah son of Iddo, saying:

Zecharaih 1:2 The LORD was very angry with your ancestors.

Zecharaih 1:3 Therefore say to them, Thus says the LORD of hosts: Return to me, says the LORD of hosts, and I will return to you, says the LORD of hosts.

Zecharaih 1:4 Do not be like your ancestors, to whom the former prophets proclaimed, “Thus says the LORD of hosts, Return from your evil ways and from your evil deeds.” But they did not hear or heed me, says the LORD.

Zecharaih 1:5 Your ancestors, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever?

Zecharaih 1:6 But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not overtake your ancestors? So they repented and said, “The LORD of hosts has dealt with us according to our ways and deeds, just as he planned to do.”

Zecharaih 1:7 On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, the month of Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah son of Berechiah son of Iddo; and Zechariah said,

Zecharaih 1:8 In the night I saw a man riding on a red horse! He was standing among the myrtle trees in the glen; and behind him were red, sorrel, and white horses.

Zecharaih 1:9 Then I said, “What are these, my lord?” The angel who talked with me said to me, “I will show you what they are.”

Zecharaih 1:10 So the man who was standing among the myrtle trees answered, “They are those whom the LORD has sent to patrol the earth.”

Zecharaih 1:11 Then they spoke to the angel of the LORD who was standing among the myrtle trees, “We have patrolled the earth, and lo, the whole earth remains at peace.”

Zecharaih 1:12 Then the angel of the LORD said, “O LORD of hosts, how long will you withhold mercy from Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, with which you have been angry these seventy years?”

Zecharaih 1:13 Then the LORD replied with gracious and comforting words to the angel who talked with me.

Zecharaih 1:14 So the angel who talked with me said to me, Proclaim this message: Thus says the LORD of hosts; I am very jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion.

Zecharaih 1:15 And I am extremely angry with the nations that are at ease; for while I was only a little angry, they made the disaster worse.

Zecharaih 1:16 Therefore, thus says the LORD, I have returned to Jerusalem with compassion; my house shall be built in it, says the LORD of hosts, and the measuring line shall be stretched out over Jerusalem.

Zecharaih 1:17 Proclaim further: Thus says the LORD of hosts: My cities shall again overflow with prosperity; the LORD will again comfort Zion and again choose Jerusalem.

Zecharaih 1:18 And I looked up and saw four horns.

Zecharaih 1:19 I asked the angel who talked with me, “What are these?” And he answered me, “These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.”

Zecharaih 1:20 Then the LORD showed me four blacksmiths.

Zecharaih 1:21 And I asked, “What are they coming to do?” He answered, “These are the horns that scattered Judah, so that no head could be raised; but these have come to terrify them, to strike down the horns of the nations that lifted up their horns against the land of Judah to scatter its people.”

Zecharaih 2:1 I looked up and saw a man with a measuring line in his hand.

Zecharaih 2:2 Then I asked, “Where are you going?” He answered me, “To measure Jerusalem, to see what is its width and what is its length.”

Zecharaih 2:3 Then the angel who talked with me came forward, and another angel came forward to meet him,

Zecharaih 2:4 and said to him, “Run, say to that young man: Jerusalem shall be inhabited like villages without walls, because of the multitude of people and animals in it.

Zecharaih 2:5 For I will be a wall of fire all around it, says the LORD, and I will be the glory within it.”

Zecharaih 2:6 Up, up! Flee from the land of the north, says the LORD; for I have spread you abroad like the four winds of heaven, says the LORD.

Zecharaih 2:7 Up! Escape to Zion, you that live with daughter Babylon.

Zecharaih 2:8 For thus said the LORD of hosts (after his glory sent me) regarding the nations that plundered you: Truly, one who touches you touches the apple of my eye.

Zecharaih 2:9 See now, I am going to raise my hand against them, and they shall become plunder for their own slaves. Then you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent me.

Zecharaih 2:10 Sing and rejoice, O daughter Zion! For lo, I will come and dwell in your midst, says the LORD.

Zecharaih 2:11 Many nations shall join themselves to the LORD on that day, and shall be my people; and I will dwell in your midst. And you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you.

Zecharaih 2:12 The LORD will inherit Judah as his portion in the holy land, and will again choose Jerusalem.

Zecharaih 2:13 Be silent, all people, before the LORD; for he has roused himself from his holy dwelling.

Zecharaih 3:1 Then he showed me the high priest Joshua standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to accuse him.

Zecharaih 3:2 And the LORD said to Satan, "The LORD rebuke you, O Satan! The LORD who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! Is not this man a brand plucked from the fire?"

Zecharaih 3:3 Now Joshua was dressed with filthy clothes as he stood before the angel.

Zecharaih 3:4 The angel said to those who were standing before him, "Take off his filthy clothes." And to him he said, "See, I have taken your guilt away from you, and I will clothe you with festal apparel."

Zecharaih 3:5 And I said, "Let them put a clean turban on his head." So they put a clean turban on his head and clothed him with the apparel; and the angel of the LORD was standing by.

Zecharaih 3:6 Then the angel of the LORD assured Joshua, saying

Zecharaih 3:7 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: If you will walk in my ways and keep my requirements, then you shall rule my house and have charge of my courts, and I will give you the right of access among those who are standing here.

Zecharaih 3:8 Now listen, Joshua, high priest, you and your colleagues who sit before you! For they are an omen of things to come: I am going to bring my servant the Branch.

Zecharaih 3:9 For on the stone that I have set before Joshua, on a single stone with seven facets, I will engrave its inscription, says the LORD of hosts, and I will remove the guilt of this land in a single day.

Zecharaih 3:10 On that day, says the LORD of hosts, you shall invite each other to come under your vine and fig tree."

Zecharaih 4:1 The angel who talked with me came again, and wakened me, as one is wakened from sleep.

Zecharaih 4:2 He said to me, "What do you see?" And I said, "I see a lampstand all of gold, with a bowl on the top of it; there are seven lamps on it, with seven lips on each of the lamps that are on the top of it.

Zecharaih 4:3 And by it there are two olive trees, one on the right of the bowl and the other on its left."

Zecharaih 4:4 I said to the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my lord?"

Zecharaih 4:5 Then the angel who talked with me answered me, "Do you not know what these are?" I said, "No, my lord."

Zecharaih 4:6 He said to me, "This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel: Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, says the LORD of hosts.

Zecharaih 4:7 What are you, O great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you shall become a plain; and he shall bring out the top stone amid shouts of 'Grace, grace to it!'"

Zecharaih 4:8 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

Zecharaih 4:9 "The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall also complete it. Then you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you.

Zecharaih 4:10 For whoever has despised the day of small things shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel. "These seven are the eyes of the LORD, which range through the whole earth."

Zecharaih 4:11 Then I said to him, "What are these two olive trees on the right and the left of the lampstand?"

Zecharaih 4:12 And a second time I said to him, "What are these two branches of the olive trees, which pour out the oil through the two golden pipes?"

Zecharaih 4:13 He said to me, "Do you not know what these are?" I said, "No, my lord."

Zecharaih 4:14 Then he said, "These are the two anointed ones who stand by the Lord of the whole earth."

Zecharaih 5:1 Again I looked up and saw a flying scroll.

Zecharaih 5:2 And he said to me, "What do you see?" I answered, "I see a flying scroll; its length is twenty cubits, and its width ten cubits."

Zecharaih 5:3 Then he said to me, "This is the curse that goes out over the face of the whole land; for everyone who steals shall be cut off according to the writing on one side, and everyone who swears falsely shall be cut off according to the writing on the other side.

Zecharaih 5:4 I have sent it out, says the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter the house of the thief, and the house of anyone who swears falsely by my name; and it shall abide in that house and consume it, both timber and stones."

Zecharaih 5:5 Then the angel who talked with me came forward and said to me, "Look up and see what this is that is coming out."

Zecharaih 5:6 I said, “What is it?” He said, “This is a basket coming out.” And he said, “This is their iniquity in all the land.”

Zecharaih 5:7 Then a leaden cover was lifted, and there was a woman sitting in the basket!

Zecharaih 5:8 And he said, “This is Wickedness.” So he thrust her back into the basket, and pressed the leaden weight down on its mouth.

Zecharaih 5:9 Then I looked up and saw two women coming forward. The wind was in their wings; they had wings like the wings of a stork, and they lifted up the basket between earth and sky.

Zecharaih 5:10 Then I said to the angel who talked with me, “Where are they taking the basket?”

Zecharaih 5:11 He said to me, “To the land of Shinar, to build a house for it; and when this is prepared, they will set the basket down there on its base.”

Zecharaih 6:1 And again I looked up and saw four chariots coming out from between two mountains— mountains of bronze.

Zecharaih 6:2 The first chariot had red horses, the second chariot black horses,

Zecharaih 6:3 the third chariot white horses, and the fourth chariot dappled gray horses.

Zecharaih 6:4 Then I said to the angel who talked with me, “What are these, my lord?”

Zecharaih 6:5 The angel answered me, “These are the four winds of heaven going out, after presenting themselves before the Lord of all the earth.

Zecharaih 6:6 The chariot with the black horses goes toward the north country, the white ones go toward the west country, and the dappled ones go toward the south country.”

Zecharaih 6:7 When the steeds came out, they were impatient to get off and patrol the earth. And he said, “Go, patrol the earth.” So they patrolled the earth.

Zecharaih 6:8 Then he cried out to me, “Lo, those who go toward the north country have set my spirit at rest in the north country.”

Zecharaih 6:9 The word of the LORD came to me:

Zecharaih 6:10 Collect silver and gold from the exiles— from Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah— who have arrived from Babylon; and go the same day to the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah.

Zecharaih 6:11 Take the silver and gold and make a crown, and set it on the head of the high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak;

Zecharaih 6:12 say to him: Thus says the LORD of hosts: Here is a man whose name is Branch: for he shall branch out in his place, and he shall build the temple of the LORD.

Zecharaih 6:13 It is he that shall build the temple of the LORD; he shall bear royal honor, and shall sit upon his throne and rule. There shall be a priest by his throne, with peaceful understanding between the two of them.

Zecharaih 6:14 And the crown shall be in the care of Heldai, Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Josiah son of Zephaniah, as a memorial in the temple of the LORD.

Zecharaih 6:15 Those who are far off shall come and help to build the temple of the LORD; and you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. This will happen if you diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God.

Zecharaih 7:1 In the fourth year of King Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah on the fourth day of the ninth month, which is Chislev.

Zecharaih 7:2 Now the people of Bethel had sent Sharezer and Regem-melech and their men, to entreat the favor of the LORD,

Zecharaih 7:3 and to ask the priests of the house of the LORD of hosts and the prophets, “Should I mourn and practice abstinence in the fifth month, as I have done for so many years?”

Zecharaih 7:4 Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me:

Zecharaih 7:5 Say to all the people of the land and the priests: When you fasted and lamented in the fifth month and in the seventh, for these seventy years, was it for me that you fasted?

Zecharaih 7:6 And when you eat and when you drink, do you not eat and drink only for yourselves?

Zecharaih 7:7 Were not these the words that the LORD proclaimed by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, along with the towns around it, and when the Negeb and the Shephelah were inhabited?

Zecharaih 7:8 The word of the LORD came to Zechariah, saying:

Zecharaih 7:9 Thus says the LORD of hosts: Render true judgments, show kindness and mercy to one another;

Zecharaih 7:10 do not oppress the widow, the orphan, the alien, or the poor; and do not devise evil in your hearts against one another.

Zecharaih 7:11 But they refused to listen, and turned a stubborn shoulder, and stopped their ears in order not to hear.

Zecharaih 7:12 They made their hearts adamant in order not to hear the law and the words that the LORD of hosts had sent by his spirit through the former prophets. Therefore great wrath came from the LORD of hosts.

Zecharaih 7:13 Just as, when I called, they would not hear, so, when they called, I would not hear, says the LORD of hosts, Zecharaih 7:14 and I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations that they had not known. Thus the land they left was desolate, so that no one went to and fro, and a pleasant land was made desolate.

Zecharaih 8:1 The word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying:

Zecharaih 8:2 Thus says the LORD of hosts: I am jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I am jealous for her with great wrath.

Zecharaih 8:3 Thus says the LORD: I will return to Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; Jerusalem shall be called the faithful city, and the mountain of the LORD of hosts shall be called the holy mountain.

Zecharaih 8:4 Thus says the LORD of hosts: Old men and old women shall again sit in the streets of Jerusalem, each with staff in hand because of their great age.

Zecharaih 8:5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in its streets.

Zecharaih 8:6 Thus says the LORD of hosts: Even though it seems impossible to the remnant of this people in these days, should it also seem impossible to me, says the LORD of hosts?

Zecharaih 8:7 Thus says the LORD of hosts: I will save my people from the east country and from the west country;

Zecharaih 8:8 and I will bring them to live in Jerusalem. They shall be my people and I will be their God, in faithfulness and in righteousness.

Zecharaih 8:9 Thus says the LORD of hosts: Let your hands be strong— you that have recently been hearing these words from the mouths of the prophets who were present when the foundation was laid for the rebuilding of the temple, the house of the LORD of hosts.

Zecharaih 8:10 For before those days there were no wages for people or for animals, nor was there any safety from the foe for those who went out or came in, and I set them all against one other.

Zecharaih 8:11 But now I will not deal with the remnant of this people as in the former days, says the LORD of hosts.

Zecharaih 8:12 For there shall be a sowing of peace; the vine shall yield its fruit, the ground shall give its produce, and the skies shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things.

Zecharaih 8:13 Just as you have been a cursing among the nations, O house of Judah and house of Israel, so I will save you and you shall be a blessing. Do not be afraid, but let your hands be strong.

Zecharaih 8:14 For thus says the LORD of hosts: Just as I purposed to bring disaster upon you, when your ancestors provoked me to wrath, and I did not relent, says the LORD of hosts, Zecharaih 8:15 so again I have purposed in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah; do not be afraid.

Zecharaih 8:16 These are the things that you shall do: Speak the truth to one another, render in your gates judgments that are true and make for peace,

Zecharaih 8:17 do not devise evil in your hearts against one another, and love no false oath; for all these are things that I hate, says the LORD.

Zecharaih 8:18 The word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying:

Zecharaih 8:19 Thus says the LORD of hosts: The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be seasons of joy and gladness, and cheerful festivals for the house of Judah: therefore love truth and peace.

Zecharaih 8:20 Thus says the LORD of hosts: Peoples shall yet come, the inhabitants of many cities;

Zecharaih 8:21 the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, “Come, let us go to entreat the favor of the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts; I myself am going.”

Zecharaih 8:22 Many peoples and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to entreat the favor of the LORD.

Zecharaih 8:23 Thus says the LORD of hosts: In those days ten men from nations of every language shall take hold of a Jew, grasping his garment and saying, “Let us go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.”

Zecharaih 9:1 An Oracle. The word of the LORD is against the land of Hadrach and will rest upon Damascus. For to the LORD belongs the capital of Aram, as do all the tribes of Israel;

Zecharaih 9:2 Hamath also, which borders on it, Tyre and Sidon, though they are very wise.

Zecharaih 9:3 Tyre has built itself a rampart, and heaped up silver like dust, and gold like the dirt of the streets.

Zecharaih 9:4 But now, the Lord will strip it of its possessions and hurl its wealth into the sea, and it shall be devoured by fire.

Zecharaih 9:5 Ashkelon shall see it and be afraid; Gaza too, and shall writhe in anguish; Ekron also, because its hopes are withered. The king shall perish from Gaza; Ashkelon shall be uninhabited;

Zecharaih 9:6 a mongrel people shall settle in Ashdod, and I will make an end of the pride of Philistia.

Zecharaih 9:7 I will take away its blood from its mouth, and its abominations from between its teeth; it too shall be a remnant for our God; it shall be like a clan in Judah, and Ekron shall be like the Jebusites.

Zecharaih 9:8 Then I will encamp at my house as a guard, so that no one shall march to and fro; no oppressor shall again overrun them, for now I have seen with my own eyes.

Zecharaih 9:9 Rejoice greatly, O daughter Zion! Shout aloud, O daughter Jerusalem! Lo, your king comes to you; triumphant and victorious is he, humble and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

Zecharaih 9:10 He will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the war-horse from Jerusalem; and the battle bow shall be cut off, and he shall command peace to the nations; his dominion shall be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.

Zecharaih 9:11 As for you also, because of the blood of my covenant with you, I will set your prisoners free from the waterless pit.

Zecharaih 9:12 Return to your stronghold, O prisoners of hope; today I declare that I will restore to you double.

Zecharaih 9:13 For I have bent Judah as my bow; I have made Ephraim its arrow. I will arouse your sons, O Zion, against your sons, O Greece, and wield you like a warrior's sword.

Zecharaih 9:14 Then the LORD will appear over them, and his arrow go forth like lightning; the Lord GOD will sound the trumpet and march forth in the whirlwinds of the south.

Zecharaih 9:15 The LORD of hosts will protect them, and they shall devour and tread down the slingers; they shall drink their blood like wine, and be full like a bowl, drenched like the corners of the altar.

Zecharaih 9:16 On that day the LORD their God will save them for they are the flock of his people; for like the jewels of a crown they shall shine on his land.

Zecharaih 9:17 For what goodness and beauty are his! Grain shall make the young men flourish, and new wine the young women.

Zecharaih 10:1 Ask rain from the LORD in the season of the spring rain, from the LORD who makes the storm clouds, who gives showers of rain to you, the vegetation in the field to everyone.

Zecharaih 10:2 For the teraphim utter nonsense, and the diviners see lies; the dreamers tell false dreams, and give empty consolation. Therefore the people wander like sheep; they suffer for lack of a shepherd.

Zecharaih 10:3 My anger is hot against the shepherds, and I will punish the leaders; for the LORD of hosts cares for his flock, the house of Judah, and will make them like his proud war-horse.

Zecharaih 10:4 Out of them shall come the cornerstone, out of them the tent peg, out of them the battle bow, out of them every commander.

Zecharaih 10:5 Together they shall be like warriors in battle, trampling the foe in the mud of the streets; they shall fight, for the LORD is with them, and they shall put to shame the riders on horses.

Zecharaih 10:6 I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph. I will bring them back because I have compassion on them, and they shall be as though I had not rejected them; for I am the LORD their God and I will answer them.

Zecharaih 10:7 Then the people of Ephraim shall become like warriors, and their hearts shall be glad as with wine. Their children shall see it and rejoice, their hearts shall exult in the LORD.

Zecharaih 10:8 I will signal for them and gather them in, for I have redeemed them, and they shall be as numerous as they were before.

Zecharaih 10:9 Though I scattered them among the nations, yet in far countries they shall remember me, and they shall rear their children and return.

Zecharaih 10:10 I will bring them home from the land of Egypt, and gather them from Assyria; I will bring them to the land of Gilead and to Lebanon, until there is no room for them.

Zecharaih 10:11 They shall pass through the sea of distress, and the waves of the sea shall be struck down, and all the depths of the Nile dried up. The pride of Assyria shall be laid low, and the scepter of Egypt shall depart.

Zecharaih 10:12 I will make them strong in the LORD, and they shall walk in his name, says the LORD.

Zecharaih 11:1 Open your doors, O Lebanon, so that fire may devour your cedars!

Zecharaih 11:2 Wail, O cypress, for the cedar has fallen, for the glorious trees are ruined! Wail, oaks of Bashan, for the thick forest has been felled!

Zecharaih 11:3 Listen, the wail of the shepherds, for their glory is despoiled! Listen, the roar of the lions, for the thickets of the Jordan are destroyed!

Zecharaih 11:4 Thus said the LORD my God: Be a shepherd of the flock doomed to slaughter.

Zecharaih 11:5 Those who buy them kill them and go unpunished; and those who sell them say, “Blessed be the LORD, for I have become rich”; and their own shepherds have no pity on them.

Zecharaih 11:6 For I will no longer have pity on the inhabitants of the earth, says the LORD. I will cause them, every one, to fall each into the hand of a neighbor, and each into the hand of the king; and they shall devastate the earth, and I will deliver no one from their hand.

Zecharaih 11:7 So, on behalf of the sheep merchants, I became the shepherd of the flock doomed to slaughter. I took two staffs; one I named Favor, the other I named Unity, and I tended the sheep.

Zecharaih 11:8 In one month I disposed of the three shepherds, for I had become impatient with them, and they also detested me.

Zecharaih 11:9 So I said, “I will not be your shepherd. What is to die, let it die; what is to be destroyed, let it be destroyed; and let those that are left devour the flesh of one another!”

Zecharaih 11:10 I took my staff Favor and broke it, annulling the covenant that I had made with all the peoples.

Zecharaih 11:11 So it was annulled on that day, and the sheep merchants, who were watching me, knew that it was the word of the LORD.

Zecharaih 11:12 I then said to them, “If it seems right to you, give me my wages; but if not, keep them.” So they weighed out as my wages thirty shekels of silver.

Zecharaih 11:13 Then the LORD said to me, “Throw it into the treasury”— this lordly price at which I was valued by them. So I took the thirty shekels of silver and threw them into the treasury in the house of the LORD.

Zecharaih 11:14 Then I broke my second staff Unity, annulling the family ties between Judah and Israel.

Zecharaih 11:15 Then the LORD said to me: Take once more the implements of a worthless shepherd.

Zecharaih 11:16 For I am now raising up in the land a shepherd who does not care for the perishing, or seek the wandering, or heal the maimed, or nourish the healthy, but devours the flesh of the fat ones, tearing off even their hoofs.

Zecharaih 11:17 Oh, my worthless shepherd, who deserts the flock! May the sword strike his arm and his right eye! Let his arm be completely withered, his right eye utterly blinded!

Zecharaih 12:1 An Oracle. The word of the LORD concerning Israel: Thus says the LORD, who stretched out the heavens and founded the earth and formed the human spirit within:

Zecharaih 12:2 See, I am about to make Jerusalem a cup of reeling for all the surrounding peoples; it will be against Judah also in the siege against Jerusalem.

Zecharaih 12:3 On that day I will make Jerusalem a heavy stone for all the peoples; all who lift it shall grievously hurt themselves. And all the nations of the earth shall come together against it.

Zecharaih 12:4 On that day, says the LORD, I will strike every horse with panic, and its rider with madness. But on the house of Judah I will keep a watchful eye, when I strike every horse of the peoples with blindness.

Zecharaih 12:5 Then the clans of Judah shall say to themselves, “The inhabitants of Jerusalem have strength through the LORD of hosts, their God.”

Zecharaih 12:6 On that day I will make the clans of Judah like a blazing pot on a pile of wood, like a flaming torch among sheaves; and they shall devour to the right and to the left all the surrounding peoples, while Jerusalem shall again be inhabited in its place, in Jerusalem.

Zecharaih 12:7 And the LORD will give victory to the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem may not be exalted over that of Judah.

Zecharaih 12:8 On that day the LORD will shield the inhabitants of Jerusalem so that the feeblest among them on that day shall be like David, and the house of David shall be like God, like the angel of the LORD, at their head.

Zecharaih 12:9 And on that day I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

Zecharaih 12:10 And I will pour out a spirit of compassion and supplication on the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that, when they look on the one whom they have pierced, they shall mourn for him, as one mourns for an only child, and weep bitterly over him, as one weeps over a firstborn.

Zecharaih 12:11 On that day the mourning in Jerusalem will be as great as the mourning for Hadad-rimmon in the plain of Megiddo.

Zecharaih 12:12 The land shall mourn, each family by itself; the family of the house of David by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of the house of Nathan by itself, and their wives by themselves;

Zecharaih 12:13 the family of the house of Levi by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of the Shimeites by itself, and their wives by themselves;

Zecharaih 12:14 and all the families that are left, each by itself, and their wives by themselves.

Zecharaih 13:1 On that day a fountain shall be opened for the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, to cleanse them from sin and impurity.

Zecharaih 13:2 On that day, says the LORD of hosts, I will cut off the names of the idols from the land, so that they shall be remembered no more; and also I will remove from the land the prophets and the unclean spirit.

Zecharaih 13:3 And if any prophets appear again, their fathers and mothers who bore them will say to them, “You shall not live, for you speak lies in the name of the LORD"; and their fathers and their mothers who bore them shall pierce them through when they prophesy.

Zecharaih 13:4 On that day the prophets will be ashamed, every one, of their visions when they prophesy; they will not put on a hairy mantle in order to deceive,

Zecharaih 13:5 but each of them will say, "I am no prophet, I am a tiller of the soil; for the land has been my possession since my youth."

Zecharaih 13:6 And if anyone asks them, "What are these wounds on your chest?" the answer will be "The wounds I received in the house of my friends."

Zecharaih 13:7 "Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, against the man who is my associate," says the LORD of hosts. Strike the shepherd, that the sheep may be scattered; I will turn my hand against the little ones.

Zecharaih 13:8 In the whole land, says the LORD, two-thirds shall be cut off and perish, and one-third shall be left alive.

Zecharaih 13:9 And I will put this third into the fire, refine them as one refines silver, and test them as gold is tested. They will call on my name, and I will answer them. I will say, "They are my people"; and they will say, "The LORD is our God."

Zecharaih 14:1 See, a day is coming for the LORD, when the plunder taken from you will be divided in your midst.

Zecharaih 14:2 For I will gather all the nations against Jerusalem to battle, and the city shall be taken and the houses looted and the women raped; half the city shall go into exile, but the rest of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

Zecharaih 14:3 Then the LORD will go forth and fight against those nations as when he fights on a day of battle.

Zecharaih 14:4 On that day his feet shall stand on the Mount of Olives, which lies before Jerusalem on the east; and the Mount of Olives shall be split in two from east to west by a very wide valley; so that one half of the Mount shall withdraw northward, and the other half southward.

Zecharaih 14:5 And you shall flee by the valley of the LORD's mountain, for the valley between the mountains shall reach to Azal; and you shall flee as you fled from the earthquake in the days of King Uzziah of Judah. Then the LORD my God will come, and all the holy ones with him.

Zecharaih 14:6 On that day there shall not be either cold or frost.

Zecharaih 14:7 And there shall be continuous day (it is known to the LORD), not day and not night, for at evening time there shall be light.

Zecharaih 14:8 On that day living waters shall flow out from Jerusalem, half of them to the eastern sea and half of them to the western sea; it shall continue in summer as in winter.

Zecharaih 14:9 And the LORD will become king over all the earth; on that day the LORD will be one and his name one.

Zecharaih 14:10 The whole land shall be turned into a plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem. But Jerusalem shall remain aloft on its site from the Gate of Benjamin to the place of the former gate, to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the king's wine presses.

Zecharaih 14:11 And it shall be inhabited, for never again shall it be doomed to destruction; Jerusalem shall abide in security.

Zecharaih 14:12 This shall be the plague with which the LORD will strike all the peoples that wage war against Jerusalem: their flesh shall rot while they are still on their feet; their eyes shall rot in their sockets, and their tongues shall rot in their mouths.

Zecharaih 14:13 On that day a great panic from the LORD shall fall on them, so that each will seize the hand of a neighbor, and the hand of the one will be raised against the hand of the other;

Zecharaih 14:14 even Judah will fight at Jerusalem. And the wealth of all the surrounding nations shall be collected— gold, silver, and garments in great abundance.

Zecharaih 14:15 And a plague like this plague shall fall on the horses, the mules, the camels, the donkeys, and whatever animals may be in those camps.

Zecharaih 14:16 Then all who survive of the nations that have come against Jerusalem shall go up year after year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the festival of booths.

Zecharaih 14:17 If any of the families of the earth do not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, there will be no rain upon them.

Zecharaih 14:18 And if the family of Egypt do not go up and present themselves, then on them shall come the plague that the LORD inflicts on the nations that do not go up to keep the festival of booths.

Zecharaih 14:19 Such shall be the punishment of Egypt and the punishment of all the nations that do not go up to keep the festival of booths.

Zecharaih 14:20 On that day there shall be inscribed on the bells of the horses, "Holy to the LORD." And the cooking pots in the house of the LORD shall be as holy as the bowls in front of the altar;

Zecharaih 14:21 and every cooking pot in Jerusalem and Judah shall be sacred to the LORD of hosts, so that all who sacrifice may come and use them to boil the flesh of the sacrifice. And there shall no longer be traders in the house of the LORD of hosts on that day.

Malachi

1:1 An oracle. The word of the LORD to Israel by Malachi.

Malachi 1:2 I have loved you, says the LORD. But you say, “How have you loved us?” Is not Esau Jacob’s brother? says the LORD. Yet I have loved Jacob Malachi 1:3 but I have hated Esau; I have made his hill country a desolation and his heritage a desert for jackals.

Malachi 1:4 If Edom says, “We are shattered but we will rebuild the ruins,” the LORD of hosts says: They may build, but I will tear down, until they are called the wicked country, the people with whom the LORD is angry forever.

Malachi 1:5 Your own eyes shall see this, and you shall say, “Great is the LORD beyond the borders of Israel!”

Malachi 1:6 A son honors his father, and servants their master. If then I am a father, where is the honor due me? And if I am a master, where is the respect due me? says the LORD of hosts to you, O priests, who despise my name. You say, “How have we despised your name?”

Malachi 1:7 By offering polluted food on my altar. And you say, “How have we polluted it?” By thinking that the LORD’s table may be despised.

Malachi 1:8 When you offer blind animals in sacrifice, is that not wrong? And when you offer those that are lame or sick, is that not wrong? Try presenting that to your governor; will he be pleased with you or show you favor? says the LORD of hosts.

Malachi 1:9 And now implore the favor of God, that he may be gracious to us. The fault is yours. Will he show favor to any of you? says the LORD of hosts.

Malachi 1:10 Oh, that someone among you would shut the temple doors, so that you would not kindle fire on my altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you, says the LORD of hosts, and I will not accept an offering from your hands.

Malachi 1:11 For from the rising of the sun to its setting my name is great among the nations, and in every place incense is offered to my name, and a pure offering; for my name is great among the nations, says the LORD of hosts.

Malachi 1:12 But you profane it when you say that the Lord’s table is polluted, and the food for it may be despised.

Malachi 1:13 “What a weariness this is,” you say, and you sniff at me, says the LORD of hosts. You bring what has been taken by violence or is lame or sick, and this you bring as your offering! Shall I accept that from your hand? says the LORD.

Malachi 1:14 Cursed be the cheat who has a male in the flock and vows to give it, and yet sacrifices to the Lord what is blemished; for I am a great King, says the LORD of hosts, and my name is reverenced among the nations.

Malachi 2:1 And now, O priests, this command is for you.

Malachi 2:2 If you will not listen, if you will not lay it to heart to give glory to my name, says the LORD of hosts, then I will send the curse on you and I will curse your blessings; indeed I have already cursed them, because you do not lay it to heart.

Malachi 2:3 I will rebuke your offspring, and spread dung on your faces, the dung of your offerings, and I will put you out of my presence.

Malachi 2:4 Know, then, that I have sent this command to you, that my covenant with Levi may hold, says the LORD of hosts.

Malachi 2:5 My covenant with him was a covenant of life and well-being, which I gave him; this called for reverence, and he revered me and stood in awe of my name.

Malachi 2:6 True instruction was in his mouth, and no wrong was found on his lips. He walked with me in integrity and uprightness, and he turned many from iniquity.

Malachi 2:7 For the lips of a priest should guard knowledge, and people should seek instruction from his mouth, for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.

Malachi 2:8 But you have turned aside from the way; you have caused many to stumble by your instruction; you have corrupted the covenant of Levi, says the LORD of hosts,

Malachi 2:9 and so I make you despised and abased before all the people, inasmuch as you have not kept my ways but have shown partiality in your instruction.

Malachi 2:10 Have we not all one father? Has not one God created us? Why then are we faithless to one another, profaning the covenant of our ancestors?

Malachi 2:11 Judah has been faithless, and abomination has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah has profaned the sanctuary of the LORD, which he loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god.

Malachi 2:12 May the LORD cut off from the tents of Jacob anyone who does this— any to witness or answer, or to bring an offering to the LORD of hosts.

Malachi 2:13 And this you do as well: You cover the LORD’s altar with tears, with weeping and groaning because he no longer regards the offering or accepts it with favor at your hand.

Malachi 2:14 You ask, “Why does he not?” Because the LORD was a witness between you and the wife of your youth, to whom you have been faithless, though she is your companion and your wife by covenant.

Malachi 2:15 Did not one God make her? Both flesh and spirit are his. And what does the one God desire? Godly offspring. So look to yourselves, and do not let anyone be faithless to the wife of his youth.

Malachi 2:16 For I hate divorce, says the LORD, the God of Israel, and covering one’s garment with violence, says the LORD of hosts. So take heed to yourselves and do not be faithless.

Malachi 2:17 You have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet you say, “How have we wearied him?” By saying, “All who do evil are good in the sight of the LORD, and he delights in them.” Or by asking, “Where is the God of justice?”

Malachi 3:1 See, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me, and the Lord whom you seek will suddenly come to his temple. The messenger of the covenant in whom you delight— indeed, he is coming, says the LORD of hosts.

Malachi 3:2 But who can endure the day of his coming, and who can stand when he appears? For he is like a refiner’s fire and like fullers’ soap;

Malachi 3:3 he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the descendants of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, until they present offerings to the LORD in righteousness.

Malachi 3:4 Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the LORD as in the days of old and as in former years.

Malachi 3:5 Then I will draw near to you for judgment; I will be swift to bear witness against the sorcerers, against the adulterers, against those who swear falsely, against those who oppress the hired workers in their wages, the widow and the orphan, against those who thrust aside the alien, and do not fear me, says the LORD of hosts.

Malachi 3:6 For I the LORD do not change; therefore you, O children of Jacob, have not perished.

Malachi 3:7 Ever since the days of your ancestors you have turned aside from my statutes and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you, says the LORD of hosts. But you say, “How shall we return?”

Malachi 3:8 Will anyone rob God? Yet you are robbing me! But you say, “How are we robbing you?” In your tithes and offerings!

Malachi 3:9 You are cursed with a curse, for you are robbing me— the whole nation of you!

Malachi 3:10 Bring the full tithe into the storehouse, so that there may be food in my house, and thus put me to the test, says the LORD of hosts; see if I will not open the windows of heaven for you and pour down for you an overflowing blessing.

Malachi 3:11 I will rebuke the locust for you, so that it will not destroy the produce of your soil; and your vine in the field shall not be barren, says the LORD of hosts.

Malachi 3:12 Then all nations will count you happy, for you will be a land of delight, says the LORD of hosts.

Malachi 3:13 You have spoken harsh words against me, says the LORD. Yet you say, “How have we spoken against you?”

Malachi 3:14 You have said, “It is vain to serve God. What do we profit by keeping his command or by going about as mourners before the LORD of hosts?

Malachi 3:15 Now we count the arrogant happy; evildoers not only prosper, but when they put God to the test they escape.”

Malachi 3:16 Then those who revered the LORD spoke with one another. The LORD took note and listened, and a book of remembrance was written before him of those who revered the LORD and thought on his name.

Malachi 3:17 They shall be mine, says the LORD of hosts, my special possession on the day when I act, and I will spare them as parents spare their children who serve them.

Malachi 3:18 Then once more you shall see the difference between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve him.

Malachi 4:1 See, the day is coming, burning like an oven, when all the arrogant and all evildoers will be stubble; the day that comes shall burn them up, says the LORD of hosts, so that it will leave them neither root nor branch.

Malachi 4:2 But for you who revere my name the sun of righteousness shall rise, with healing in its wings. You shall go out leaping like calves from the stall.

Malachi 4:3 And you shall tread down the wicked, for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet, on the day when I act, says the LORD of hosts.

Malachi 4:4 Remember the teaching of my servant Moses, the statutes and ordinances that I commanded him at Horeb for all Israel.

Malachi 4:5 Lo, I will send you the prophet Elijah before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes.

Malachi 4:6 He will turn the hearts of parents to their children and the hearts of children to their parents, so that I will not come and strike the land with a curse.

Matthew

1:1 An account of the genealogy of Jesus the Messiah, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

Matthew 1:2 Abraham was the father of Isaac, and Isaac the father of Jacob, and Jacob the father of Judah and his brothers,

Matthew 1:3 and Judah the father of Perez and Zerah by Tamar, and Perez the father of Hezron, and Hezron the father of Aram,

Matthew 1:4 and Aram the father of Aminadab, and Aminadab the father of Nahshon, and Nahshon the father of Salmon,

Matthew 1:5 and Salmon the father of Boaz by Rahab, and Boaz the father of Obed by Ruth, and Obed the father of Jesse,

Matthew 1:6 and Jesse the father of King David. And David was the father of Solomon by the wife of Uriah,

Matthew 1:7 and Solomon the father of Rehoboam, and Rehoboam the father of Abijah, and Abijah the father of Asaph,

Matthew 1:8 and Asaph the father of Jehoshaphat, and Jehoshaphat the father of Joram, and Joram the father of Uzziah,

Matthew 1:9 and Uzziah the father of Jotham, and Jotham the father of Ahaz, and Ahaz the father of Hezekiah,

Matthew 1:10 and Hezekiah the father of Manasseh, and Manasseh the father of Amos, and Amos the father of Josiah,

Matthew 1:11 and Josiah the father of Jechoniah and his brothers, at the time of the deportation to Babylon.

Matthew 1:12 And after the deportation to Babylon: Jechoniah was the father of Salathiel, and Salathiel the father of Zerubbabel,

Matthew 1:13 and Zerubbabel the father of Abiud, and Abiud the father of Eliakim, and Eliakim the father of Azor,

Matthew 1:14 and Azor the father of Zadok, and Zadok the father of Achim, and Achim the father of Eliud,

Matthew 1:15 and Eliud the father of Eleazar, and Eleazar the father of Matthan, and Matthan the father of Jacob,

Matthew 1:16 and Jacob the father of Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom Jesus was born, who is called the Messiah.

Matthew 1:17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David to the deportation to Babylon, fourteen generations; and from the deportation to Babylon to the Messiah, fourteen generations.

Matthew 1:18 Now the birth of Jesus the Messiah took place in this way. When his mother Mary had been engaged to Joseph, but before they lived together, she was found to be with child from the Holy Spirit.

Matthew 1:19 Her husband Joseph, being a righteous man and unwilling to expose her to public disgrace, planned to dismiss her quietly.

Matthew 1:20 But just when he had resolved to do this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, “Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife, for the child conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit.

Matthew 1:21 She will bear a son, and you are to name him Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins.”

Matthew 1:22 All this took place to fulfill what had been spoken by the Lord through the prophet:

Matthew 1:23 “Look, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall name him Emmanuel,” which means, “God is with us.”

Matthew 1:24 When Joseph awoke from sleep, he did as the angel of the Lord commanded him; he took her as his wife,

Matthew 1:25 but had no marital relations with her until she had borne a son; and he named him Jesus.

Matthew 2:1 In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem,

Matthew 2:2 asking, “Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising, and have come to pay him homage.”

Matthew 2:3 When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him;

Matthew 2:4 and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born.

Matthew 2:5 They told him, “In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it has been written by the prophet:

Matthew 2:6 ‘And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel.’“

Matthew 2:7 Then Herod secretly called for the wise men and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared.

Matthew 2:8 Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, “Go and search diligently for the child; and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage.”

Matthew 2:9 When they had heard the king, they set out; and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising, until it stopped over the place where the child was.

Matthew 2:10 When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy.

Matthew 2:11 On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

Matthew 2:12 And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

Matthew 2:13 Now after they had left, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, “Get up, take the child and his mother, and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I tell you; for Herod is about to search for the child, to destroy him.”

Matthew 2:14 Then Joseph got up, took the child and his mother by night, and went to Egypt,

Matthew 2:15 and remained there until the death of Herod. This was to fulfill what had been spoken by the Lord through the prophet, “Out of Egypt I have called my son.”

Matthew 2:16 When Herod saw that he had been tricked by the wise men, he was infuriated, and he sent and killed all the children in and around Bethlehem who were two years old or under, according to the time that he had learned from the wise men.

Matthew 2:17 Then was fulfilled what had been spoken through the prophet Jeremiah:

Matthew 2:18 “A voice was heard in Ramah, wailing and loud lamentation, Rachel weeping for her children; she refused to be consoled, because they are no more.”

Matthew 2:19 When Herod died, an angel of the Lord suddenly appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt and said,

Matthew 2:20 “Get up, take the child and his mother, and go to the land of Israel, for those who were seeking the child’s life are dead.”

Matthew 2:21 Then Joseph got up, took the child and his mother, and went to the land of Israel.

Matthew 2:22 But when he heard that Archelaus was ruling over Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. And after being warned in a dream, he went away to the district of Galilee.

Matthew 2:23 There he made his home in a town called Nazareth, so that what had been spoken through the prophets might be fulfilled, “He will be called a Nazorean.”

Matthew 3:1 In those days John the Baptist appeared in the wilderness of Judea, proclaiming,

Matthew 3:2 “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near.”
